(C) Unless the employer has had notice of the claim for the benefits and has been given opportunity for hearing as an interested party in the manner provided in sections 87-107 and 87-108. Written notice of any hearing shall be mailed to employer not less than ten (10) days prior to the date set.

(d) The provisions of this act requiring the payment of contributions by employers subject to this act shall apply only to wages paid up to and including three thousand dollars ($3,000) by an employer to an employee with respect to employment during any calendar year preceding the year 1972.

Payment of contributions shall apply only to wages paid up to and including four thousand two hundred dollars ($4,200) by an employer to an employee with respect to employment during the calendar year 1972 and thereafter.

(e) Contribution appeals.

Any person aggrieved by any decision, determination, or redetermination of the division involving contribution liability, contribution rate, application for refund or the charging of benefit payments to employers making payment in lieu of contributions is entitled to a review by the division or its authorized representative, hereinafter referred to as a deputy. The decision of the deputy shall be deemed to be the decision of the division. The division or the deputy conducting the review may refer the matter to an appeal referee, may decide the application for review on the basis of such facts and information as may be obtained or may hear argument to secure further facts. After such review, notice of the decision shall be given to the employing unit. Such decision made pursuant to such review shall be deemed to be the final decision of the division unless the employing unit or any other such interested party, within five (5) calendar days after delivery of such notification or within seven (7) calendar days after such notification was mailed to his last known address, files an appeal from this decision. Such appeal will be referred to an appeal referee who shall make his decisions with respect thereto in accordance with the procedure prescribed in section 87-107 (c).

Amendments

The 1969 amendment made numerous changes in phraseology; rewrote subdivision (b) (1) which formerly provided for employer contributions of 1.8% for 1937 employment and 2.7% for subsequent employment; in subsection (c), deleted an apparently superfluous third paragraph which is shown in brackets in the parent volume; raised the rates stated in the fourth paragraph, now the third paragraph, from 1.5% to 1.6%; in subdivision (c) (1), substituted 3.1% rate for 2.7% rate, "date" for "rate" and "maximum tax rate set by law for each of such years" for "rate of two and seven-tenths (2.7) per centum"; in subdivision (c) (2), substituted 1969 rates for separate rates for 1947 and thereafter and 1953 and thereafter; in subdivision (c) (4), substituted 3.1% rate for 2.7% rate; in subdivision (c) (5), substituted reference to 1.6% and 3.1% rate for references to 1.5% and 2.7% rate; and inserted subdivision (c) (9).

The 1971 amendment added the second paragraph to subdivision (b) (1); added subdivisions (2), (3) and (4) to subsection (b); substituted "total payrolls" for "taxable payrolls" in clause (1) in the second paragraph of subsection (c), and also in two places in subdivision (c) (8); substituted "first calendar quarter of calendar year 1972" for "second calendar quarter of calendar year 1969" in the third paragraph of subsection (c); inserted "(except those employers making payments in lieu of contributions)" in the third paragraph of subsection (c); reduced the rate specified at the end of the third paragraph of subsection (c) from 1.6% to 1.5%; reduced the time required by subdivision (c) (1) from five to three years; added "and has reported and paid contributions during each of the three (3) calendar years immediately preceding the computation date and with respect to such three (3) calendar years has filed all contribution reports prescribed by the commission and paid all contributions due with respect to the three (3) calendar years before March 31 of the rate year" to the end of the first sentence of subdivision (c) (1); added the second sentence to subdivision (c) (1); added the second sentence to subdivision (c) (3); deleted "No employer's rate shall be fixed below three and one-tenth (3.1) per centum whose benefit payments charged as most recent employer have, in the last three (3) years preceding the computation date, exceeded the amount of his contributions for those years" from the beginning of subdivision (c) (4); inserted "An employer whose benefit payments (charged as most recent employer) in the last three (3) years preceding the computation date exceeded the amount of his contributions for those years" at the beginning of subdivision (c) (4); deleted from the end of subdivision (c) (4) a clause reading "otherwise his rate for the ensuing calendar year shall be fixed at three and one-tenth (3.1) per centum"; reduced the average return rate specified in two places in subdivision (c) (5) from 1.6% to 1.5%; deleted from the end of subdivision (c) (7) a sentence reading "The provisions of section 87-107 applicable to appeals under claims procedure shall apply with like purpose and effect, and be applicable to hearings and request for redeterminations of classifications and rates of contribution filed by employers hereunder"; inserted subdivisions (A) and (B) in subdivision (c) (9); designated the latter part of former subdivision (c) (9) as subdivision (c) (9) (C); deleted "Wages in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000.00)" at the beginning of subsection (d); added "preceding the year 1972" at the end of the first paragraph of subsection (d); added the second paragraph of subsection (d) and all of subsection (e); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

The 1973 amendment substituted "division" for "commission" throughout the section; substituted "501(c)(3) of the federal internal revenue code" for "87-148(j)(7)" and inserted "and which are exempt from tax under § 501(a) of such code" in the second paragraph of subdivision (b)(1); added the third paragraph to subdivision (b)(1); substituted "subsection (b)(1) of this section" for "section 87-148(j)(7)" at the beginning of subdivision (b)(3); deleted "for a period of not less than one year" from subdivision (b)(3); substituted the second sentence and paragraphs (A), (B) and (C) of subdivision (b)(3) for two sentences making the election nonterminable by the organization until after the next year but permitting the commission to terminate the election for delinquencies in payment; substituted the first two sentences in subsection (e) for a sentence providing for review of determinations by the commission or a deputy; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

Separability Clause

Section 5 of Ch. 4, Ex. Laws 1969 read "If any clause, sentence, section, paragraph or part of this act shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or inoperative, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this act but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, section, paragraph or part directly adjudged to be invalid or inoperative."

Repealing Clause

Section 6 of Ch. 4, Ex. Laws 1969 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Date

Section 7 of Ch. 4, Ex. Laws 1969 read "Sections 1, 2 and 3 of this act shall be in full force and effect on and after April 6, 1969, and sections 1, 2 and 3 shall apply to all benefit years beginning on and after April 6, 1969, and the insured status of all claimants who have a benefit year current on or after April 6, 1969, shall be redetermined and benefits shall be paid in accordance with this provision, provided that no insured worker shall have his benefits reduced or denied by redetermination resulting from the application of this provision; section 4 of this act shall be in full force and effect on and after April 1, 1969."

87-110. Period, election and termination of employer's coverage. (a) Any employing unit which is or becomes an employer subject to this act within any calendar year, shall be subject to this act during the whole of such calendar year, except that this subsection shall not apply to an employing unit electing coverage as provided for in subsections (c) and (d) of this section.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) and (d) of this section an employing unit shall cease to be an employer subject to this act only as of the first day of January, of any calendar year, only if it files with the division prior to the last day of February, of such year, a written application for termination of coverage, and the division finds that the total wages payable for employment by said employer in the preceding calendar year did not exceed five hundred dollars ($500). For the purpose of this subsection, the two (2) or more employing units mentioned in paragraph (2) or (3) of section 87-148 (i) shall be treated as a single employing unit.

(c) An employing unit not otherwise subject to this act, or any employing unit for which services are performed that do not constitute employment as defined in this act, may file with the division, a written election that all such services performed by individuals in its employ in one (1) or more distinct establishments or places of business shall be deemed to constitute employment for all purposes of this act for not less than two (2) calendar years. Upon the written approval of such election by the division, such services shall be deemed to constitute employment subject to this act from and after the date stated in such approval. Such services shall cease to be deemed employment subject hereto as of January 1, of any calendar year subsequent to such two (2) calendar years only if at least thirty (30) days prior to such first day of January such employing unit has filed with the division a written notice to that effect.

(d) Any political subdivision of this state may elect to cover under this act service performed by employees in all the hospitals and institutions of higher education as defined in section 87-148 (n) and (o), operated by such political subdivision. The election may exclude any services described in section 87-148 (j)(7)(A). Election is to be made by filing with the division a written notice of such election. The effective date of the written election shall be any date after December 31, 1971, designated by the employing unit, provided that the date shall not be prior to January 1 of the calendar year in which the written election has been filed. Any political subdivision electing coverage under this subsection shall make payments in lieu of contributions with respect to benefits attributable to such employment as provided in section 87-109 (b)(4). An election under this section may be terminated, by filing with the division written notice not later than thirty (30) days preceding the last day of the calendar year in which the termination is to be effective. Such termination becomes effective as of the first day of the next ensuing calendar year with respect to services performed after that date.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment deleted "there were no twenty (20) different days, each day being in a different week within the preceding calendar year within which such employing unit employed one (1) or more individuals in an employment subject to this act, or" before "the total wages payable" in the first sentence of subsection (b).

The 1971 amendment deleted the former first paragraph of subsection (c), for text of which see parent volume; inserted "An employing unit not otherwise subject to this act, or" at the beginning of the former second paragraph, now the only paragraph, of subsection (c); added subsection (d); and made minor changes in phraseology.

The 1973 amendment added the clause excepting elective coverage under subsections (c) and (d) to the end of subsection (a); inserted "and (d)" near the beginning of subsection (b); substituted "division" for "commission" throughout the section; inserted "written" before "notice" in the third sentence of subsection (d); deleted "at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of such election" at the end of the third sentence in subsection (d); inserted the fourth sentence of subsection (d); deleted the last sentence of subsection (d), which stated the effective date of the section; and made a minor change in style.

87-111. Unemployment compensation account—establishment and control. There is hereby established separate and apart from all public moneys or funds of this state, an account in the agency fund known as the unemployment compensation account, which shall be administered by the commission exclusively for the purposes of this act. Any reference to the unemployment compensation fund in this code shall be taken to mean the unemployment compensation account in the agency fund. This account shall consist of (1) all contributions collected under this act, inclusive of voluntary contributions as provided in section 87-109 (c)(4), and payments made in lieu of contributions as provided in section 87-109 (b)(2) and (4); (2) interest earned upon any moneys in the account; (3) any property or securities acquired through the use of moneys belonging to the account; (4) all earnings of such property or securities; and (5) all money credited to this state's account in the unemployment trust fund pursuant to section 903 of the Social Security Act, as amended. All moneys in the account shall be mingled and undivided.

Amendments

The 1971 amendments inserted "and payments made in lieu of contributions as provided in section 87-109 (b) (2) and (4)" at the end of clause (1) in the third sentence.

87-117. Employment security commission — organization. There is hereby created a commission to be known as the employment security commission of Montana. The commission shall consist of three (3) members who shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. Two (2) of the members of the commission shall be from different political parties and shall serve for terms of four (4) years, provided, however, that one (1) of those first appointed after this act takes effect shall serve for a term of two (2) years. They shall serve on a per diem basis and shall be paid at the rate of twenty dollars ($20) per day of service plus actual and necessary expenses, provided, however, that the total per diem compensation in any one (1) year for each of said two (2) members shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000). The third member of the commission, who shall be designated as a chairman at the time of his appointment, shall be paid a full-time salary in an amount to be fixed by the governor and shall be the executive director. During his term of membership on the commission, no member shall serve as an officer or committee member of any political party organization. The governor may, at any time, after notice and hearing, remove any commissioner for neglect of duty, malfeasance, misfeasance, or nonfeasance in office.

87-118. Divisions. The commission shall establish two co-ordinate divisions: The Montana state employment service division created pursuant to section 87-132, and the unemployment insurance division. Each division shall be responsible to the executive director for the discharge of its distinctive function. Each division shall be a separate administrative unit with respect to personnel, budget, and duties except in so far as the commission may find that such separation is impracticable.

History: En. Subd. (b), Sec. 10, Ch. 137, L. 1937; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 132, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted "unemployment insurance division" for "unemployment compensation division" in the first sentence.

87-120. Administration—duties and powers of commission. It shall be the duty of the commission to administer this act; and it shall have power and authority to adopt, amend, or rescind such rules and regulations, to employ such persons, make such expenditures, require such reports, make such investigations, and take such other action as it deems necessary or suitable to that end. Such rules and regulations shall be effective upon publication in the manner, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, which the commission shall prescribe. The commission shall determine its own organization and methods of procedure in accordance with the provisions of this act, and shall have an official seal which shall be judicially noticed. The commission shall report as provided in section 2 [82-4002] of this act. Such report shall include a balance sheet of the moneys in the fund in which there shall be provided, if possible, a reserve against the liability in future years to pay benefits in excess of the then current contributions, which reserve shall be set up by the commission in accordance with accepted actuarial principles on the basis of statistics of employment, business activity, and other relevant factors for the longest possible period. Whenever the commission believes that a change in contribution or benefit rates will become necessary to protect the solvency of the fund, it shall promptly so inform the governor and the legislature, and make recommendations with respect thereto.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted the reporting requirements of section 82-4002 in the fourth sentence for former provision requiring annual reports.

Cross-References

Quasi-judicial functions of commission transferred to board of labor appeals, sec. 82A-1009.

87-129. Reciprocal benefit arrangements. The commission is hereby authorized to enter into arrangements with the appropriate agencies of other states or the federal government, whereby individuals performing services in this and other states for a single employing unit under circumstances not specifically provided for in this act, or under similar provisions of the unemployment compensation laws of such other states, shall be deemed to be engaged in employment performed entirely within this state or within one of such other states and whereby potential rights to benefits accumulated under the unemployment compensation laws of several states or under such a law of the federal government, or both, may constitute the basis for the payment of benefits through a single appropriate agency under terms which the commission finds will be fair and reasonable as to all affected interests, and will not result in any substantial loss to the fund.

The commission shall participate in any arrangements, approved by the U. S. secretary of labor, with the appropriate agencies of the other states or of the federal government whereby wages or services, upon the basis of which an individual may become entitled to benefits under the unemployment compensation law of another state or of the federal government, shall be deemed to be wages for employment by employers for benefit purposes;

Provided that in any instance involving the combining of an individual's wages and employment covered under two or more state unemployment compensation laws that the base period of a single state law will be used; and

Provided that such combining of wages will not involve the duplicate use of such wage credits; and

Provided that such other state agency or agency of the federal government has agreed to reimburse the unemployment compensation fund for such portion of benefits paid under this act upon the basis of such wages or services as the commission finds will be fair and reasonable as to all affected interests; and whereby the commission will reimburse other state or federal agencies charged with the administration of unemployment compensation laws, with such reasonable portion of benefits, paid under the law of any such other states or of the federal government upon the basis of employment or wages for employment by employers, as the commission finds will be fair and reasonable to all affected interests. Reimbursements so payable shall be deemed to be benefits for the purposes of this act. The commission is hereby authorized to make to other state or federal agencies, reimbursements from or to the unemployment compensation fund, in accordance with arrangements made pursuant to this section.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted "shall participate in any arrangements, approved by the U. S. secretary of labor" for "is also authorized to enter into arrangements" at the beginning of the second paragraph; inserted the first and second provisos; deleted "and receive from such other state or federal agencies" before "reimbursements" in the final sentence of the section; and made minor changes in phraseology and style.

87-132. State employment service.

Cross-References

87-136. Collection—reciprocity with other states in effecting collection of unpaid unemployment compensation taxes. (a) If, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest thereon, the amount due shall be collected by civil action in the name of the commission, and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of such action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions or interest thereon from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date and shall be entitled to preference upon the calendar of the court over all other civil actions except petitions for judicial review under this act and cases arising under the workmen's compensation law of this state. Action for the collection of contributions due shall be brought within five (5) years after the due date of such contributions, otherwise to be barred as provided in section 93-2604.

(b) The courts of this state shall recognize and enforce liabilities for unemployment contributions imposed by other states which extend a like comity to this state. The commission is hereby empowered to sue in the courts of any other jurisdiction which extends such comity, to collect unemployment contributions and interest due this state. The officials of other states which by statute or otherwise extend a like comity to this state may sue in the courts of this state, to collect for such contributions and interest and penalties, if any, due such state; in any such case the chairman of the commission of this state may through his attorney or attorneys institute and conduct such suit for such other state. Venue of such proceedings shall be the same as for actions to collect delinquent contributions, penalties and interest due under this act. A certificate by the secretary of any such state under the great seal of such state attesting the authority of such official or officials to collect unemployment compensation contributions, penalties and interest shall be conclusive evidence of such authority.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment designated the former section as subsection (a) and added subsection (b).

87-142. Limitation of fees.

Attorney's Fees

Attorney who failed to notify unemployment compensation commission that he represented three clients on a contingent fee basis, which the court determined could be considered a debt for "necessaries" under section 87-143, and not having requested notification from the commission so that he could collect his fee from the three men, was unable to proceed against either the commission or the state. McAlear v. Unemployment Compensation Commission, 145 M 458, 405 P 2d 219.

87-143. No assignment of benefits—exemptions.

Attorney's Fees

Where services rendered by attorney restored three men to the rolls of the unemployment compensation commission, set aside a one-year purge of their names from those rolls, and cleared their names of fraud, court concluded that under such facts attorney's fees should be considered a debt incurred for "necessaries." Mc Alear v. Unemployment Compensation Commission, 145 M 458, 405 P 2d 219.

87-145. Penalties — falsity or willful nondisclosure — violations by employer or agent—violation of act or regulations—wrongfully collecting benefits. (a) Whoever makes a false statement or representation knowing it to be false or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact, to obtain or increase any benefit or other payment under this act, or under an employment security law of any other state, or territory or the federal government either for himself or for any other person, shall:

(1). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(2) Be disqualified for benefits thereafter until:

(A) He has repaid to the commission a sum equal to the amount so received by him; provided, however, will not be required to repay any amount so obtained more than five (5) years prior to the date of the commission's determination that the claimant made such false statements, willful nondisclosure or misrepresentation, as provided in this paragraph, and

(B) A period of not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty-two (52) weeks have elapsed since the date of such determination by the commission, the length of time of the disqualification as herein described to be determined by the commission in accordance with the severity of each case.

(b) to (d). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

Amendments

The 1969 amendment in item (a) (2) (A), deleted "he" before "will not be required," and in item (a) (2) (B), substituted "A period of not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty-two (52) weeks" for "Twelve (12) months" at the beginning, and added "the length of the time * * * the severity of each case."

87-148. Definitions. As used in this act, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "Annual payroll" means the total amount of wages paid by an employer (regardless of the time of payment) for employment during a calendar year.

(b). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(c) "Base period" means the first four (4) of the last five (5) completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year provided, however, that in the case of a combined-wage claim pursuant to the arrangement approved by the secretary of labor of the United States, the base period shall be that applicable under the unemployment law of the paying state.

(d) "Benefit year" with respect to any individual means, the fifty-two (52) consecutive-week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which such individual files a valid claim, and thereafter the fifty-two (52) consecutive-week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which such individual files his next valid claim after the termination of his last preceding benefit year, provided that if such filing shall result in an overlapping of benefit years the new benefit year shall begin upon the first Sunday following the expiration of his last preceding benefit year provided, however, that in the case of a combined-wage claim pursuant to the arrangement approved by the secretary of labor of the United States, the base period shall be that applicable under the unemployment law of the paying state.

(f) "Division" means the employment security division of the department of labor and industry provided for in Title 82A, chapter 10, R. C. M. 1947.

(g). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(h) "Employing unit" means any individual or type of organization, including the state government, any of its political subdivisions or instrumentalities, any partnership, association, trust, estate, joint-stock company, insurance company or corporation, whether domestic or foreign, or the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, trustee or successor thereof, or the legal representative of a deceased person, which has or subsequent to January 1, 1936, had in its employ one (1) or more individuals performing services for it within this state; and all individuals performing services within this state for any employing unit which maintains two (2) or more separate establishments within this state shall be deemed to be employed by a single employing unit for all the purposes of this act. Each individual employed to perform or assist in performing the work of any agent or employee of an employing unit shall be deemed to be employed by such employing unit for the purposes of this act, whether such individual was hired or paid directly by such employing unit or by such agent or employee, provided the employing unit has actual or constructive knowledge of the work.

(i) "Employer" means:

(1) Any employing unit whose total annual payroll within either the current or preceding calendar year, exceeds the sum of five hundred dollars ($500);

(2) and (3). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(4) Any employing unit not an employer by reason of any other paragraph of this subsection for which, within either the current or preceding calendar year, service is or was performed with respect to which such employing unit is liable for any federal tax against which credit may be taken for contributions paid into a state unemployment fund, or an employing unit, which, as a condition for approval of this act for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, is required, pursuant to such act, to be an "employer" under this act.

(5) Any employing unit which, having become an employer under paragraph (1), (2), or (3), or (4), has not, under section 87-110, ceased to be an employer subject to this act; or

(6) For the effective period of its election pursuant to section 87-110 (c) and (d) any other employing unit which has elected to become fully subject to this act.

(j) (1) "Employment" subject to other provisions of this subsection means service by an individual or by an officer of a corporation, including service in interstate commerce, performed for wages or under any contract of hire, written or oral, express or implied.

(2). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(3) Service not covered under paragraph (2) of this subsection, and performed entirely without this state with respect to no part of which contributions are required and paid under an unemployment compensation law of any other state or of the federal government, shall be deemed to be employment subject to this act if the individual performing such services is a resident of this state and the division approves the election of the employing unit for whom such services are performed that the entire service of such individual shall be deemed to be employment subject to this act.

(4). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(5) Services performed by an individual for wages shall be deemed to be employment subject to this act unless and until it is shown to the satisfaction of the division that:

(A) to (C). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(6) The term "employment" shall include service performed after December 31, 1971, by an individual in the employ of this state or any of its instrumentalities (or in the employ of this state and one (1) or more other states or their instrumentalities) for a hospital or institution of higher education located in this state. Effective after December 31, 1974, the term "employment" shall include service performed by all individuals in the employ of this state or of any of its instrumentalities (or in the employ of this state and one (1) or more other states or their instrumentalities).

(7) The term "employment" shall include service performed after December 31, 1971, by an individual in the employ of a religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational organization.

(A) For the purposes of paragraph (7) of this subsection the term "employment" does not apply to service performed:

(1) In the employ of a church or convention or association of churches, or an organization which is operated primarily for religious purposes and which is operated, supervised, controlled, or principally supported by a church or convention or association of churches; or

(2) By a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of a church in the exercise of his ministry or by a member of a religious order in the exercise of duties required by such order; or

(3) In the employ of a school which is not an institution of higher education; or

(4) In a facility conducted for the purpose of carrying out a program of rehabilitation for individuals whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury or providing remunerative work for individuals who because of their impaired physical or mental capacity cannot be readily absorbed in the competitive labor market by an individual receiving such rehabilitation or remunerative work; or

(5) Services performed as part of an unemployment work-relief or work-training program assisted or financed in whole or in part by any federal agency or any agency of a state or political subdivision thereof, by an individual receiving such work relief or work training; or

(6) Services performed for a hospital in a state prison or other state correctional institution by an inmate of the prison or correctional institution.

(8) The term "employment" shall include the service of an individual who is a citizen of the United States, performed outside the United States (except in Canada or the Virgin Islands), after December 31, 1971, in the employ of an American employer (other than service which is deemed "employment" under the provisions of subparagraphs (2) or (4) of this subsection or the parallel provisions of another state's law), if:

(A) The employer's principal place of business in the United States is located in this state; or

(B) The employer has no place of business in the United States, but

(1) The employer is an individual who is a resident of this state; or

(2) The employer is a corporation which is organized under the laws of this state; or

(3) The employer is a partnership or a trust and the number of the partners or trustees who are residents of this state is greater than the number who are residents of any other state; or

(C) None of the criteria of divisions (A) and (B) of this subparagraph is met but the employer has elected coverage in this state or, the employer having failed to elect coverage in any state, the individual has filed a claim for benefits, based on such service, under the law of this state.

(D) An "American employer," for purposes of this paragraph, means a person who is:

(1) An individual who is a resident of the United States; or

(2) A partnership if two-thirds (⅔) or more of the partners are residents of the United States; or

(3) A trust, if all of the trustees are residents of the United States; or

(4) A corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any state.

(9) The term "employment" shall not include:

(A) Agricultural labor; the term "agricultural labor" includes all services performed prior to January 1, 1972, which was agricultural labor as defined in this subparagraph prior to such date, and remunerated services performed after December 31, 1971:

(1) On a farm, in the employ of any person in connection with cultivating the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry and fur-bearing animals and wildlife.

(2) In the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm, in connection with the operation, management, conservation, improvement, or maintenance of such farm and its tools and equipment, or in salvaging timber or clearing land of brush and other debris left by a hurricane, if the major part of such service is performed on a farm.

(3) In connection with the production or harvesting of any commodity commonly known as agricultural commodities, or in connection with the hatching of poultry, or in connection with the operation or maintenance of ditches, canals, reservoirs, or waterways used exclusively for supplying and storing water for farming purposes.

(4) In the employ of the operator of a farm or a group of operators of farms (or a co-operative organization of which such operators are members) in handling, planting, drying, packing, packaging, processing, freezing, grading, storing, or delivering to storage or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, in its unmanufactured state, any agricultural or horticultural commodity; but only if such operator or operators produced more than one-half (½) of the commodity with respect to which such service is performed.

(5) The provisions of paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) shall not be deemed to be applicable with respect to service performed in connection with commercial canning or commercial freezing or in connection with any agricultural or horticultural commodity after its delivery to a terminal market for distribution for consumption; or on a farm operated for profit if such service is not in the course of the employer's trade or business or is domestic service in a private home of the employer.

(6) As used in this section, the term "farm" includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, fur-bearing animals, and truck farms, plantations, ranches, nurseries, ranges, greenhouses or other similar structures used primarily for the raising of agricultural or horticultural commodities and orchards.

(B) Domestic service in a private home, local college club or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority;

(C) Service performed as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel on the navigable waters of the United States;

(D) Service performed by an individual in the employ of his son, daughter, or spouse, and service performed by a child under the age of twenty-one (21) in the employ of his father or mother;

(E) Service performed in the employ of this state, except as provided in subsection (j) (6) of this section, or of any political subdivision thereof, which has not elected coverage pursuant to section 87-110(d);

(F) Service performed in the employ of any other state or its political subdivisions, or of the United States government, or of an instrumentality of any other state or states or their political subdivisions or of the United States, except that national banks organized under the national banking law shall not be entitled to exemption under this section and shall be subject to this act the same as state banks;

(G) Service with respect to which unemployment compensation is payable under an unemployment compensation system established by an act of Congress; provided, that the division is hereby authorized and directed to enter into agreements with the proper agencies under such act of Congress, which agreements shall become effective ten (10) days after publication thereof in the manner in section 87-121 for general rules, to provide reciprocal treatment to individuals who have, after acquiring potential rights to benefits under this act, acquired rights to unemployment compensation under such act of Congress, or who have, after acquiring potential rights to unemployment compensation under such act of Congress, acquired rights to benefits under this act;

(H) Services performed in the delivery and distribution of newspapers or shopping news from house to house and business establishments by an individual under the age of eighteen (18) years, but not including the delivery or distribution to any point or points for subsequent delivery or distribution.

(I) Services performed by real estate, securities and insurance salesmen paid solely by commissions and without guarantee of minimum earnings.

(J) Service performed, in the employ of a school, college, or university, if such service is performed by a student who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes at such school, college or university, or by the spouse of such a student, if such spouse is advised, at the time such spouse commences to perform such service, that the employment of such spouse to perform such service is provided under a program to provide financial assistance to such student by such school, college, or university, and such employment will not be covered by any program of unemployment insurance.

(K) Service performed by an individual under the age of twenty-two (22) who is enrolled at a nonprofit or public educational institution which normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly organized body of students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are carried on as a student in a full-time program, taken for credit at such institution, which combines academic instruction with work experience, if such service is an integral part of such program, and such institution has so certified to the employer, except that this subparagraph shall not apply to service performed in a program established for or on behalf of an employer or group of employers.

(L) Service performed in the employ of a hospital, if such service is performed by a patient of the hospital.

(k) "Employment office" means a free public employment office, or branch thereof, operated by this state or maintained as a part of a state-controlled system of public employment offices, or such other free public employment offices operated and maintained by the United States government or its instrumentalities, as the division may approve.

(l) "Fund" means the unemployment compensation fund established by this act, to which all contributions and payments in lieu of contributions are required and from which all benefits provided under this act shall be paid.

(m) "State," includes, in addition to the states of the United States of America, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the Dominion of Canada.

(n) "Institution of higher education" for the purposes of this section, means an education institution which:

(1) admits as regular students only individuals having a certificate of graduation from a high school, or the recognized equivalent of such a certificate;

(2) is legally authorized in this state to provide a program of education beyond high school;

(3) provides an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's or higher degree, or provides a program which is acceptable for full credit toward such a degree, a program of post-graduate or post-doctoral studies, or a program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation; and

(4) is a public or other nonprofit institution.

(5) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, all colleges and universities in this state are institutions of higher education for purposes of this section.

(o) "Hospital" means an institution which has been licensed, certified or approved by the state of Montana as a hospital.

(p) "Board" means the board of labor appeals, provided for in Title 82A, chapter 10.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 159 and once by Ch. 404. Ch. 404, the later enactment, incorporated all the changes made by the earlier chapter and made additional changes. The compiler has therefore used the text of Ch. 404 above.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment inserted "securities" in subdivision (j) (6) (J), now subdivision (j) (9) (J).

The 1969 amendment deleted "which for some * * * such day" after "employing unit" in subdivision (i) (1).

The 1971 amendment deleted subdivision (a) (2) defining "average annual payroll"; substituted "employment security" for "unemployment compensation" in subdivision (f); inserted "the state government, any of its political subdivisions or instrumentalities" in the first sentence of subdivision (h); inserted subdivision (i) (4) and the reference to it in subdivision (i) (5); redesignated former subdivisions (i) (4) and (i) (5) as subdivisions (i) (5) and (i) (6); inserted "and (d)" in subdivision (i) (6); inserted "by an individual or by an officer of a corporation" in subdivision (j) (1); inserted subdivisions (j) (6), (7) and (8); redesignated former subdivision (j) (6) as subdivision (j) (9); added "prior to * * * December 31, 1971" to the end of the preliminary paragraph of subdivision (j) (9) (A); deleted "maple syrup or maple sugar or" after "harvesting of" in subdivision (j) (9) (A) (3); deleted "or in connection with the raising or harvesting of mushrooms" after "agricultural commodities" in subdivision (j) (9) (A) (3); inserted "the employ * * * are members) in" in subdivision (j) (9) (A) (4); inserted "in its unmanufactured state" in subdivision (j) (9) (A) (4); substituted "operator produced * * * is performed" for "service is * * * for market" in subdivision (j) (9) (A) (4); revised the former second sentence of subdivision (j) (9) (A) (4) and designated it as subdivision (j) (9) (A) (5); redesignated former subdivision (j) (9) (A) (5) as subdivision (j) (9) (A) (6); deleted former subdivision (j) (9) (E); redesignated former subdivisions (j) (9) (F) and (G) as subdivisions (j) (9) (E) and (F); inserted the present subdivision (j) (9) (G); added subdivisions (j) (9) (K), (L) and (M); deleted "Hawaii" and "Guam" in subdivision (m); added subdivisions (n) and (o); and made minor changes in phraseology and style.

Chapter 159, Laws of 1973, added the provisos to subdivisions (c) and (d); substituted subdivision (f) for a subdivision defining "commission" as the employment security commssion; substituted "division" for "commission" throughout the section; substituted "contributions paid" for "contributions required to be paid" in subdivision (i) (4); deleted "which is excluded from the term 'employment' as defined in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act solely by reason of section 3306 (c) (8) of that Act" from the end of the preliminary paragraph of subdivision (j) (7); substituted the reference to subparagraph (4) in the preliminary paragraph of subdivision (j) (8) for a reference to subparagraph (3); inserted "or operators" near the end of subdivision (j) (9) (A) (4); added "which has not elected coverage pursuant to section 87-110 (d)" at the end of subdivision (j) (9) (E); deleted a subdivision (j) (9) (G) exempting service in the employ of certain community action agencies; redesignated the succeeding subdivisions of subdivision (j) (9); inserted "and payments in lieu of contributions" in subdivision (1); added subdivision (p); and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

Chapter 404, Laws of 1973, made the same changes as did Ch. 159, but with minor differences in style; added the second sentence to subdivision (j) (6); and deleted from the preliminary paragraph of subdivision (j) (7) (A) a reference to paragraph (6) of that subsection.

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 84, Laws 1965 read "This act shall be in full force and effect from and after April 1, 1965."

Independent Contractor

Logging trucker was an independent contractor and not covered by unemployment compensation under subdivision (j) (5) of this section where he provided his own truck, licensed and insured it in his own name, repaired it and paid operational costs himself, hauled logs from paper company's logging operation site to its log pond, was compensated by weight hauled, could take off any days he chose or could work for others, could hire any relief driver he wanted, could refuse any load he did not want, could choose any route of travel he wanted, and was working under a written contract describing him as an independent contractor and requiring him to carry his own industrial insurance, despite the fact that he had to enter the company's premises to load and unload and that the company determined the hours when crews would be available to assist in loading and unloading. St. Regis Paper Co., Forest Products Division v. Unemployment Compensation Commission, 157 M 548, 487 P 2d 524.

87-149. Definitions—continued. (a) Total unemployment:

(1) and (2). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(3) As used in this subsection the term "wages" shall include only that part of remuneration for work which is in excess of twice the weekly benefit amount, and the term "service" shall include only that work in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one week.

(b) to (f). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

The 1969 amendment, in subdivision (a) (3), substituted "twice the weekly benefit amount" for "fifteen dollars ($15.00) in any one week" in the definition of "wages"; and substituted present definition of "service" for one providing that "'services' shall not include work for which remuneration equal to or less than fifteen dollars ($15.00) per week is payable, or for one (1) day's work not exceeding eight (8) hours, whichever is greater."

TITLE 87A—UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

Chapter 9. Secured transactions—sales of accounts, contract rights and chattel paper, 87A-9-302.1 to 87A-9-302.3, 87A-9-402 to 87A-9-407.

CHAPTER 1—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Part 1—Short Title, Construction, Application and Subject Matter of the Act

87A-1-101. Short title.

NOTE.—Uniform State Law. In addition to the states listed in the note in the parent volume the following also have adopted the Uniform Commercial Code: Alabama, Arizona, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Hawaii, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Washington, and also Virgin Islands.

CHAPTER 2—SALES

Part 3—General Obligation and Construction of Contract

87A-2-314. Implied warranty—merchantability—usage of trade.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Manufacturer's Warranty

Seller who did not manufacture laundromat equipment made no implied warranty of fitness for intended use within former statute providing that one who manufactures an article under order for particular purpose warrants by sale that it is reasonably fit for that purpose, especially in view of seller's disclaimer printed on reverse side of sales agreement. Ryan v. Ald, Inc., 149 M 367, 427 P 2d 53.

Part 7—Remedies

87A-2-719. Contractual modification or limitation of remedy.

Limitation of Damages

Clause in telephone company contract for "yellow pages" advertising, limiting liability for errors and omissions in advertising was a valid and binding limitation rather than a contract fixing damages. State ex rel. Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Co. v. District Court, — M —, 503 P 2d 526.

CHAPTER 3—COMMERCIAL PAPER

Part 1—Short Title, Form and Interpretation

87A-3-112. Terms and omissions not affecting negotiability.

Cross-Reference

Waiver of statutory exemptions in unsecured note unenforceable, sec. 93-5813.1.

Part 4—Liability of Parties

87A-3-407. Alteration.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Material Alteration

In conviction of grand larceny, in which defendant had stolen and subsequently cashed check, the tearing of the check and its repair did not constitute spoilation under former section 55-907, so as to make the check a nonnegotiable instrument. State v. Romero, 146 M 77, 404 P 2d 500.

CHAPTER 8—INVESTMENT SECURITIES

Part 3—Purchase

87A-8-307. Effect of delivery without endorsement, etc.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Gift of Stock Certificate

Although endorsement may not be absolutely necessary to valid gift of stock certificates, fact that alleged donor had not endorsed certificates as required under former law was evidence that no delivery occurred and hence that there was no valid gift. Bodine v. Bodine, 149 M 29, 422 P 2d 650.

CHAPTER 9—SECURED TRANSACTIONS—SALES OF ACCOUNTS, CONTRACT RIGHTS AND CHATTEL PAPER

Part 3. Rights of Third Parties—Perfected and Unperfected Security Interests—Rules of Priority

Section 87A-9-302.1. Financing statements of transmitting utilities—definitions.
87A-9-302.2. Place of filing of utility financing statement—contents—perfection of security interest.
87A-9-302.3. Continued effectiveness of certain laws.

Part 4. Filing

Section 87A-9-402. Formal requisites of financing statement—amendments.
87A-9-403. What constitutes filing—duration of filing—effect of lapsed filing—duties of filing officer.
87A-9-404. Termination statement.
87A-9-405. Assignment of security interest—duties of filing officer—fees.
87A-9-406. Release of collateral—duties of filing officer—fees.
87A-9-407. Information from filing officer.

Part 2—Validity of Security Agreement and Rights of Parties Thereto

87A-9-203. Enforceability of security interest, etc.

Compiler's Notes

Sections 53-123 to 53-128, contained in the reference to Chapter 1 of Title 53, in subsection (2) of this section in the parent volume, were repealed by Sec. 1, Ch. 101, Laws 1959. Section 53-138 was repealed by Sec. 5, Ch. 256, Laws 1965.

Part 3—Rights of Third Parties—Perfected and Unperfected Security Interests—Rules of Priority

87A-9-302.1. Financing statements of transmitting utilities—definitions. As used in this act,

(a) "Transmitting utility" means: (1) Any corporation or other business entity primarily engaged, pursuant to rights or franchises issued by and subject to the jurisdiction of a state or federal regulatory body, in the railroad or street railway business, the telephone or telegraph business, the transmission of oil, gas or petroleum products by pipeline, or the transmission or the production and transmission of electricity, steam, gas or water, and (2) any other corporation primarily engaged in the production, transmission or distribution of electricity, or the furnishing of telephone service, whether or not such corporation is subject to the jurisdiction of a state or federal regulatory body.

(b) "Uniform Commercial Code" means Chapters 1 through 10 of Title 87A of the Revised Codes of Montana, 1947.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 76, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 279, L. 1967.

Title of Act

An act relating to the Uniform Commercial Code of Montana by adding a new section to be known and codified as section 87A-9-408, relating to the filing by certain public utilities of certain instruments required to be filed under the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code; providing for a repealing clause; providing for a severability clause; and providing for an effective date.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment subdivided subsection (a), designating the first sentence as subsection (a)(1) and adding subsection (a)(2), and made minor changes in punctuation.

87A-9-302.2. Place of filing of utility financing statement—contents—perfection of security interest. Financing statements of a transmitting utility, notwithstanding sections 87A-9-302(3), 87A-9-302(4), 87A-9-401(1), 87A-9-402, 87A-9-403, 87A-9-404, 87A-9-405 and 87A-9-406 of the Uniform Commercial Code.

(a) If filing is required under the Uniform Commercial Code, the proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest in personal property or fixtures of a transmitting utility or other corporation covered hereby is in the office of the secretary of state;

(b) When the financing statement covers goods of a transmitting utility which are or are to become fixtures, no description of the real estate concerned is required;

(c) A security interest in rolling stock of a transmitting utility may be perfected either as provided in section 20 (c) of the Interstate Commerce Act or by filing a financing statement pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code as provided in subsection (a).

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 76, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 279, L. 1967.

Compiler's Note

Filing provisions of Interstate Commerce Act, see 49 U. S. C., sec. 20c.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment, in the first paragraph, inserted "87A-9-403, 87A-9-404, 87A-9-405 and 87A-9-406" after "87A-9-402"; in subdivision (a), inserted "or other corporation covered hereby" after "transmitting utility."

Repealing Clause

Section 3 of Ch. 279, Laws 1967 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Date

Section 4 of Ch. 279, Laws 1967 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 2, 1967.

87A-9-302.3. Continued effectiveness of certain laws. Unless displaced by the specific provisions of this act, the Uniform Commercial

Code and other applicable laws remain in full force and effect and supplement the provisions of this act.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 76, L. 1965.

Repealing Clause

Section 4 of Ch. 76, Laws 1965 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Separability Clause

Section 5 of Ch. 76, Laws 1965 read "It is the intent of the legislative assembly that if a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications."

Effective Date

Section 6 of Ch. 76, Laws 1965 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved February 26, 1965.

87A-9-306. "Proceeds"—secured party's rights, etc.

Application of Proceeds

Where debtor's liquor license had been purchased with advances from bank under security agreement, proceeds from sale of such license were to be applied first to notes secured by such security agreement, then to note secured by an attachment, and finally to other obligations, since sale contract provided that all proceeds were to be placed in escrow with bank to whom all debts were owed. Gallatin Trust & Savings Bank v. Darrah, 153 M 228, 456 P 2d 288.

Res Judicata

Bankruptcy court's rulings that bankrupt did not exchange collateral within twelve months of petition in bankruptcy and that bankrupt did not hold legal title to property received in exchange did not preclude holder of security interest in the collateral from attempting to trace the collateral, and the holder was not liable for malicious prosecution even though it was later held that the security interest was unperfected because filed in the wrong office. 3-D Lumber Co. v. Belgrade State Bank, 157 M 481, 487 P 2d 1136.

Unperfected Security Interest

Subsection (2) did not apply and holder of security interest was not allowed to trace the proceeds of collateral exchanged, where the security interest had not been perfected because it had been filed in the wrong office. Belgrade State Bank v. Elder, 157 M 1, 482 P 2d 135.

87A-9-312. Priorities among conflicting security interests, etc.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Ranking of Priorities

Under statute making liquor license transferable personal property capable of being mortgaged to secure existing debt and other statute providing that mortgage first given, acknowledged and recorded was entitled to priority, owner of note secured by properly recorded mortgage on liquor license was entitled to foreclose mortgage notwithstanding claim of lessor based on covenant in lease whereby lessee agreed not to move liquor license from property. Gaskill v. Severovic, 149 M 340, 426 P 2d 582.

87A-9-401. Place of filing—erroneous filing—removal of collateral.

Forestry and Logging

Forestry and logging are not farming for the purposes of subdivision (1)(a) of this section; filing with the secretary of state is necessary to perfect a security interest on equipment used for that purpose. Belgrade State Bank v. Elder, 157 M 1, 482 P 2d 135.

87A-9-402. Formal requisites of financing statement—amendments. (1) A financing statement is sufficient if it is signed by the debtor and the secured party, gives an address of the secured party from which information concerning the security interest may be obtained, gives a mailing address of the debtor and contains a statement indicating the types, or describing the items, of collateral. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches. Except for financing statements filed pursuant to section 87A-9-302.2, R.C.M. 1947 when the financing statement covers crops growing or to be grown or goods which are or are to become fixtures, the statement must also contain a description of the real estate concerned and the name of the record owner or record lessee thereof. A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by both parties.

(3) A form substantially as follows is sufficient to comply with subsection (1):

Name of debtor (or assignor) _____

Address _____

Name of secured party (or assignee) _____

Address _____

Name of record owner or record lessee _____

Address _____

1. to 4. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 9-402, Ch. 264, L. 1963; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 272, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment, in subsection (1), inserted "Except for financing statements filed pursuant to section 87A-9-302.2, R. C. M. 1947" at the beginning of the third sentence and added "and the name of the record owner or record lessee thereof" after "real estate concerned"; and, in subsection (3), inserted after the name and address of the secured party "Name of record owner or record lessee" and "Address."

87A-9-403. What constitutes filing—duration of filing—effect of lapsed filing—duties of filing officer. (1). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(2) A filed financing statement which states a maturity date of the obligation secured of five (5) years or less is effective until such maturity date and thereafter for a period of sixty (60) days. Any other filed financing statement is effective for a period of five (5) years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of such sixty-day period after a stated maturity date or on the expiration of such five-year period, as the case may be, unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. Upon such lapse the security interest becomes unperfected. A filed financing statement which states that the obligation secured is payable on demand is effective for five (5) years from the date of filing.

(3) A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party (i) within six (6) months before [and] sixty (60) days after a stated maturity date of five (5) years or less, and (ii) otherwise within six (6) months prior to the expiration of the five-year period specified in subsection (2). Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured party, identify the original statement by file number and state that the original statement is still effective. Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for five (5) years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon its lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection (2) unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. Unless a statute on disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing officer may remove a lapsed statement from the files and destroy it.

(5) Except financing statements filed pursuant to section 87A-9-302.2, R.C.M., 1947, if the instrument covers crops growing or to be grown or goods which are, or are to become fixtures, or timber, said instrument shall be indexed in accordance with the requirements applicable to the recording of mortgages of real estate under the laws of this state. For the purpose of such indexing, each of the debtor (or assignor) and the record owner or record lessee of any real estate described in the financing statement shall be considered a mortgagor with respect to the financing statement and the secured party (or assignee) shall be considered a mortgagee with respect to the financing statement.

(6) If the collateral is equipment or rolling stock of railroads or street railways, the fee for filing, indexing, and furnishing filing data for an original or a continuation statement shall be fifteen dollars ($15.00). In all other cases the uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data for an original or a continuation statement shall be two dollars ($2).

Amendments

The 1967 amendment added a new subsection (5); redesignated old subsection (5) as new subsection (6); and substituted "data" for "date" after "furnishing filing" in the second sentence.

The 1971 amendment increased the fee specified at the end of subsection (6) from one dollar to two dollars; deleted from the end of subsection (6) a clause reading "except that where recording is done by photographic or other similar process the uniform fee shall be two dollars ($2.00) for each page or fraction thereof of such original or continuation statement"; and made minor changes in style.

87A-9-404. Termination statement. (1) Whenever there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party must on written demand by the debtor send the debtor a statement that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number, and by document number, as the case may be. A termination statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must include or be accompanied by the assignment or a statement by the secured party of record that he has assigned the security interest to the signer of the termination statement. The uniform fee for filing and indexing such an assignment or statement thereof shall be two dollars ($2). If the affected secured party fails to send such a termination statement within ten days after proper demand therefor he shall be liable to the debtor for one hundred dollars ($100), and in addition for any loss caused to the debtor by such failure.

(2) On presentation to the filing officer of such a termination statement he must note it in the index. The filing officer shall remove from the files, mark "terminated" and send or deliver to the secured party the financing statement and any continuation statement, statement of assignment or statement of release pertaining thereto. If the original financing statement or any continuation statement has been indexed in the records relating to real estate mortgages, the termination statement must be indexed in accordance with the requirements applicable to releases of real estate mortgages.

(3) If the collateral is equipment or rolling stock of railroads or street railways, the fee for filing and indexing a termination statement including sending or delivering the financing statement shall be fifteen dollars ($15.00). In all other cases the uniform fee for filing and indexing a termination statement including sending or delivering the financing statement shall be two dollars ($2).

Amendments

The 1967 amendment, added "and by document number, as the case may be" after "by file number" in the first sentence of subsection (1); and, inserted the third sentence in subsection (2).

The 1971 amendment increased the fees specified at the end of the third sentence of subsection (1) and at the end of the second sentence of subsection (3) from one dollar to two dollars; deleted from the end of the third sentence of subsection (1) a clause reading "except that where recording is done by photographic or other similar process the uniform fee shall be two dollars ($2.00) for each page or fraction thereof of such assignment or statement"; deleted from the end of subsection (3) a clause reading "except that where recording is done by photographic or other similar process the uniform fee shall be two dollars ($2.00) for each page or fraction thereof of such termination statement"; and made minor changes in style.

87A-9-405. Assignment of security interest—duties of filing officer—fees. (1) A financing statement may disclose an assignment of a security interest in the collateral described in the statement by indication in the statement of the name and address of the assignee or by an assignment itself or a copy thereof on the face or back of the statement. Either the original secured party or the assignee may sign this statement as the secured party. On presentation to the filing officer of such a financing statement the filing officer shall mark the same as provided in section 87A-9-403 (4). If the collateral is equipment or rolling stock of railroads or street railways, the fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data for a financing statement so indicating an assignment shall be fifteen dollars ($15.00). In all other cases the uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data for a financing statement so indicating an assignment shall be two dollars ($2).

(2) A secured party may assign of record all or a part of his rights under a financing statement by the filing of a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and setting forth the name of the secured party of record and the debtor, the file number and the date of filing of the financing statement and the name and address of the assignee and containing a description of the collateral assigned. A copy of the assignment is sufficient as a separate statement if it complies with the preceding sentence. On presentation to the filing officer of such a separate statement, the filing officer shall mark such separate statement with the date and hour of the filing. He shall note the assignment on the index of the financing statement. If the original financing statement or any continuation statement has been indexed in the records relating to real estate mortgages, the statement of assignment must contain a reference to the document number of such original or continuation statement and must be indexed in accordance with the requirements applicable to assignments of mortgages. If the collateral is equipment or rolling stock, of railroads or street railways, the fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data about such a separate statement of assignment shall be fifteen dollars ($15.00). In all other cases the uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data about such a separate statement of assignment shall be two dollars ($2).

History: En. Sec. 9-405, Ch. 264, L. 1963; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 272, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 185, L. 1971.

The 1967 amendment substituted "data" for "date" in the fifth sentence of subsection (1); and inserted the fifth sentence in subsection (2).

The 1971 amendment increased the fees specified at the end of subsection (1) and at the end of subsection (2) from one dollar to two dollars; and deleted from the end of each of such subsections a clause reading "except that where recording is done by photographic or other similar process the uniform fee shall be two dollars ($2.00) for each page or fraction thereof of such statement."

87A-9-406. Release of collateral—duties of filing officer—fees. A secured party of record may by his signed statement release all or a part of any collateral described in a filed financing statement. The statement of release is sufficient if it contains description of the collateral being released, the name and address of the debtor, the name and address of the secured party, and the file number of the financing statement. Upon presentation of such a statement to the filing officer he shall mark the statement with the hour and date of filing and shall note the same upon the margin of the index of the filing of the financing statement. If the original financing statement or any continuation statement has been indexed in the records relating to real estate mortgages, the statement of release must contain a reference to the document number of such original or continuation statement, and must be indexed in accordance with the requirement applicable to release of mortgages. If the collateral is equipment or rolling stock of railroads or street railways, the fee for filing and noting such a statement of release shall be fifteen dollars ($15.00). In all other cases the uniform fee for filing and noting such a statement of release shall be two dollars ($2).

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted the fourth sentence.

The 1971 amendment increased the fee specified at the end of the section from one dollar to two dollars; deleted from the end of the section a clause reading "except that where recording is done by photographic or other similar process the uniform fee shall be two dollars ($2.00) for each page or fraction thereof of such statement"; and made a minor change in phraseology.

Repealing Clause

87A-9-407. Information from filing officer. (1). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(2) Upon request of any person, the filing officer shall issue his certificate showing whether there is on file on the date and hour stated therein, any presently effective financing statement naming a particular debtor and any statement of assignment thereof and if there is, giving the date and hour of filing of each such statement and the name and addresses of each secured party therein. The uniform fee for such a certificate shall be three dollars ($3). Upon request the filing officer shall furnish a copy of any filed financing statement or statement of assignment for a uniform fee of fifty cents (50¢) per page.

History: En. Sec. 9-407, Ch. 264, L. 1963; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 185, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted "three dollars ($3.00)" at the end of the second sentence of subsection (2) for "one dollar ($1.00) plus thirty cents (30¢) for each financing statement and for each statement of assignment reported therein"; and made a minor change in phraseology.

89-101. (349.1) Repealed.

Repeal

This section (Sec. 1, Ch. 35, Ex. L. 1933), relating to the state purpose of water conservation, was repealed by Sec. 7, Ch. 158, Laws 1967.

89-101.1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Montana Water Resources Act of 1967."

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 158, L. 1967.

Title of Act

An act providing for the Montana Water Resources Act of 1967; providing an expanded statement of state necessity and policy relating to water resources; amending section 89-103, R. C. M. 1947, providing that name of the state water conservation board shall be changed to Montana water resources board; providing additional powers for the Montana water resources board; providing for a comprehensive inventory of water resources; providing for a state water plan; amending section 89-102, R. C. M. 1947, providing additional definitions; amending section 89-813, R. C. M. 1947, providing that county clerks and recorders shall furnish the Montana water resources board with copies of water appropriations and transfers of water appropriations; and repealing section 89-101, R. C. M. 1947.

89-101.2. State necessity and policy. It is hereby declared that:

(1) The general welfare of the people of Montana, in view of the state's population growth and expanding economy, requires that water resources of the state be put to optimum beneficial use and not wasted.

(2) The public policy of the state is to promote the conservation, development and beneficial use of the state's water resources to secure maximum economic and social prosperity for its citizens.

(3) The state, in the exercise of its sovereign power, acting through the water resources board, hereinafter created, shall co-ordinate development and use of the water resources of the state so as to effect full utilization, conservation and protection of its water resources.

(4) The development and utilization of water resources, and the efficient, economic distribution thereof, are vital to the people in order to protect existing uses and to assure adequate future supplies for domestic, industrial, agricultural and other beneficial uses.

(5) The water resources of the state must be protected and conserved to assure adequate supplies for public recreational purposes and for the conservation of wildlife and aquatic life.

(6) The public interest requires the construction, operation and maintenance of a system of works for the conservation, development, storage, distribution and utilization of water, which said construction, operation and maintenance is a single object and is in all respects for the welfare and benefit of the people of the state.

(7) It is necessary to co-ordinate local, state and federal water resource development and utilization plans and projects through a single agency of state government, hereinafter created and to be known as the "Montana water resources board."

(8) The greatest economic benefit to the people of Montana can be secured only by the sound co-ordination of development and utilization of water resources with the development and utilization of all other resources of the state.

(9) To achieve these objectives, and to protect the waters of Montana from diversion to other areas of the nation, it is essential that a comprehensive, co-ordinated multiple-use water resource plan be progressively formulated, to be known as the "state water plan."

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 158, L. 1967.

89-102. (349.2) Definitions. As used in this act, the following words and terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) the word "board" shall mean the Montana water resources board hereinafter created.

(b) The word "works" shall be deemed to include all property, rights, easements and franchises relating thereto and deemed necessary or convenient for their operation, and all water rights acquired or exercised by the board in connection with such works, and shall embrace all means of conserving and distributing water, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, reservoirs, dams, diversion canals, distributing canals, waste canals, drainage canals, dikes, lateral ditches and pumping units, mains, pipelines and waterworks systems and shall include all such works for the conservation, development, storage, distribution and utilization of water including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, works for the purpose of irrigation, flood prevention, drainage, fish and wildlife, recreation, development of power, watering of stock, supplying of water for public, domestic, industrial or other uses and for fire protection.

(c) The term "cost of works" shall embrace the cost of construction, the cost of all lands, property, rights, easements and franchises acquired, which are deemed necessary for such construction, the cost of all water rights acquired or exercised by the board in connection with such works, the cost of all machinery and equipment, financing charges, interest prior to and during construction and for a period not exceeding three (3) years after the completion of construction, cost of engineering and legal expenses, plans, specifications, surveys, estimates of cost, and other expenses necessary or incident to determining the feasibility or practicability of any project, administrative expense and such other expenses as may be necessary or incident to the financing herein authorized and the construction of the works and the placing of the same in operation; provided, however, the board in determining the cost of works may make nonreimbursable allowances for costs of public benefits, including but not limited to, irrigation, recreation, flood prevention, fish and wildlife, and stream stabilization.

(d) The word "owner" shall include all individuals, irrigation districts, drainage districts, flood control districts, incorporated companies, societies or associations having any title or interest in any properties, rights, easements or franchises to be acquired.

(e) and (f). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 35, Ex. L. 1933; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 95, L. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 163, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 158, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment inserted "waste canals, drainage canals, dikes" in paragraph (b); inserted "flood prevention, drainage, fish and wildlife, recreation" near the end of paragraph (b); substituted "industrial or other uses and for fire protection" at the end of paragraph (b) for "industrial and other uses for fire protection"; added the proviso at the end of paragraph (c); and inserted "drainage districts, flood control districts" in paragraph (d).

The 1967 amendment, in subdivision (a), substituted "Montana water resources" for "state water conservation."

89-103. (349.3) Montana water resources board—officers—meetings—quorum—employees—counsel—compensation. (1) There is hereby created a board to be known as the "Montana water resources board," and by that name the board may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and contract and be contracted with. Wherever in this code the words, "state water conservation board" shall be used they shall mean the "Montana water resources board." The board shall consist of seven (7) members, including the governor and director who shall be members ex officio. The five (5) remaining members shall be qualified electors of the state and shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, and shall serve for a term of six (6) years, except that immediately after the effective date of this act the governor shall appoint two (2) members of the board whose term of office shall expire on the second Monday in January, 1967, another two (2) members of the board whose term of office shall expire on the second Monday in January, 1969, and one (1) member of the board whose term of office shall expire on the second Monday in January, 1971, and their successors shall be appointed for a term of six (6) years, except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall be eligible for reappointment. Any of the appointed members of the board may be removed by the governor at any time, and any vacancy caused by the death, removal, or resignation or disqualification of any appointed member shall be filled by appointment as hereinabove provided. Succeeding appointments, except when made to fill a vacancy, shall be made on or before the second (2) Monday in January during the biennial session of the legislative assembly preceding the commencement of the term for which the appointment is made. Before entering upon the discharge of his duties, each appointed member shall take, subscribe and file with the secretary of state the oath prescribed by the constitution.

(2) The governor shall be the chairman of the board and the vice-chairman shall be the secretary and treasurer of the board. The board shall maintain its principal office in the city of Helena and may maintain such branch offices as it may determine. It shall elect a vice-chairman at its first meeting who shall preside at all meetings of the board when the chairman thereof is absent. It may provide for the holding of regular meetings and may hold a special meeting for the transaction of any business which may properly come before the board at any time and at any place in the state upon the call of the chairman or the vice-chairman or any two (2) members, notice of which may be given by telegram or by depositing in the mails at least forty-eight (48) hours before the meeting; but no notice shall be necessary if at least four (4) members of the board shall be present. A majority in number of the members shall constitute a quorum and the affirmative or negative vote of four (4) members shall be necessary to bind the board.

(3) The board shall have and adopt a seal bearing its name, which seal shall be affixed to such records and other instruments as it may direct, and all courts shall take judicial notice of said seal. It is authorized to adopt from time to time, as necessary or expedient, suitable rules and regulations for the administration of this act. The attorney general shall act as legal adviser for the board and shall perform such legal services as the board may request; he shall receive his actual and necessary expenses when engaged in travel in the performance of such services. With his consent the board may employ additional legal counsel, and the board may also appoint such technical and other assistants and employees as may be necessary to enable it to perform its duties and carry out the purposes of this act, and may fix their compensation.

(4) Each appointed member of the board shall receive, as compensation for his services, the sum of twenty dollars ($20) per day for each day actually engaged in the performance of the duties of his office, including time of travel between his home and the place at which he performs such duties, together with actual traveling and maintenance expenses while away from his home in the performance of the duties of his office. All such compensation and expenses shall be paid solely from the funds provided under the authority of this act.

Amendments

Chapter 177, Laws 1965, deleted "and secure such fidelity bonds as it may deem advisable" from the end of subsection (3).

Chapter 278, Laws 1965, increased the size of the board from five to seven and the number of appointive members from three to five; substituted the director for the state engineer as an ex officio member in the former second sentence of subsection (1); inserted "with the consent of the senate" after "appointed by the governor" in the former third sentence of subsection (1); substituted the portion of the former third sentence of subsection (1) relating to appointment and terms of the first appointive members for provisions relating to appointive members whose terms expired in 1935, 1937, and 1939; changed the number of votes required to bind the board, as specified in the final sentence of subsection (2) from three to four; increased the per diem rate of appointive members, as specified near the beginning of subsection (4), from $10 to $25; deleted from the end of subsection (4) a sentence reading, "The state engineer shall exercise such powers and perform such duties, in addition to his regular duties as state engineer and as the board shall prescribe, and may receive and be paid such additional salary for such additional duties as may be fixed by the board"; and made minor changes in phraseology and punctuation.

The 1967 amendment, in the first sentence of subsection (1), substituted "Montana water resources board" for "state water conservation board"; inserted the present second sentence in subsection (1); and, in subsection (4), decreased per diem of board members from $25 to $20.

Section 51 of Ch. 177, Laws 1965 read "Sections 3-407, 6-101, 6-102, 6-103, 6-104, 46-702, 66-810, 77-1004, 79-809, 82-404, 82-507, 82-1013, 82-1907, 82-2213, 92-106 and 92-107, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

The state water conservation board, later redesignated the Montana water resources board, has been abolished. See sec. 82A-1505(1).

Amendments

The 1967 amendment completely rewrote this section. Prior to amendment it read, "The salary of the director shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000). No salary of an employee of the board shall exceed the salary of the director."

Saving Clause

Section 4 of Ch. 279, Laws 1965 read "Nothing in this act contained shall in any way impair any obligation of the state water conservation board lawfully entered into prior to the effective date of this act."

89-103.4. Powers of Carey Land Act board and state engineer transferred to Montana water resources board. Any duties, authority or obligation conferred or imposed by law on the Carey Land Act board or the state engineer which are not in this act otherwise provided for are hereby transferred to and conferred and imposed on the state water conservation board.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 280, L. 1965.

Compiler's Notes

The state water conservation board, later redesignated the Montana water resources board, has been abolished. See sec. 82A-1505(1).

An act repealing sections 81-2006, 81-2008, 81-2010, 81-2012, R. C. M. 1947, thereby abolishing the office of state engineer; amending sections 81-2009, 81-2018, 82-3001, 89-702, 89-847, 89-848, 89-849, 89-851, 89-907, 89-908, 89-909, 89-912, 89-

914, 89-1201, and 89-2911, R. C. M. 147, to provide for the transfer of certain duties of the state engineer to the state water conservation board; abolishing the Carey Land Act board; repealing sections 81-2001, 81-2002, 81-2003, 81-2004, 81-2005, 81-2007, 81-2013, 81-2015, 81-2017, 81-2101 through 81-2121, 81-2123 and 81-2125 through 81-2130, R. C. M. 1947; providing for the transfer of the book and records and funds of the Carey Land Act board and the office of the state engineer to the state water conservation board; and providing that nothing in this act contained shall impair the obligations of the state of Montana under the Yellowstone River Compact or the obligations of the state of Montana, or the state water conservation board contracted prior to the effective date of this act.

89-103.5. Records and property transferred to Montana water resources board. Immediately following the effective date of this act all books, records, papers, material and supplies of all kinds and nature belonging to the Carey Land Act board, or in the office of the state engineer shall be transferred to the state water conservation board.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 280, L. 1965.

Compiler's Notes

The state water conservation board, later redesignated the Montana water resources board, has been abolished. See sec. 82A-1505(1).

89-103.6. Funds and appropriations transferred to Montana water resources board. On the effective date of this act all funds in the state treasury which were appropriated to or available to the Carey Land Act board or the state engineer shall become available to the state water conservation board to be used for the purpose of carrying out the purposes of this act and the State Water Conservation Act.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 280, L. 1965.

Compiler's Notes

The state water conservation board, later redesignated the Montana water resources board, has been abolished. See sec. 82A-1505(1).

89-103.7. Yellowstone compact obligations unimpaired. Nothing in this act contained shall in any manner impair the obligations of the state of Montana under the Yellowstone River Compact.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 280, L. 1965.

89-103.8. State obligations unimpaired. Nothing in this act contained shall impair any obligations of the state of Montana or the state water conservation board or the Carey Land Act board lawfully entering to [entered into], assumed or contracted for prior to the effective date of this act.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 280, L. 1965.

Compiler's Notes

The state water conservation board, later redesignated the Montana water resources board, has been abolished. See sec. 82A-1505(1).

Repealing Clause

Section 22 of Ch. 280, Laws 1965 read "Sections 81-2001, 81-2002, 81-2003, 81-2004, 81-2005, 81-2007, 81-2013, 81-2015, 81-2017, 81-2101 through 81-2121, 81-2123 and 81-2125 through 81-2130, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

89-105. (349.5) Power of board to construct works and to act beyond jurisdiction. The board is hereby authorized to construct, whenever it shall deem such construction expedient, any public works as hereinabove defined, the cost of such construction to be paid wholly by means of or with the proceeds of revenue bonds hereinafter authorized or of a grant to aid in financing such construction from the United States of America or any instrumentality or agency thereof and of other funds provided under the authority of this act. Before constructing any project, the department shall make estimates of the cost of the project, of the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating the same, and of the revenues to be derived therefrom, and no such project shall be constructed unless, according to such estimates, the revenues to be derived therefrom will be sufficient to pay the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating the same, and to pay the principal and interest of revenue bonds which may be issued for the cost of such project; provided, however, that in connection with the issuance of any of such bonds, the failure of the board to make the estimates required by this section or to make same in proper form shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of any such bonds or of the trust indenture, resolution or other security therefor.

However, should the bid of the lowest responsible bidder on any capital improvement associated with public works as defined in this section exceed the department estimates of the cost of the improvements by more than five per cent (5%), the department shall obtain approval from the works user association before the bid is accepted; however, capital improvements of an emergency nature necessary to protect life or property or to supply immediate needs for water do not require such approval.

The purpose of this act is to meet, so far as possible, a state-wide need for the conservation and use of water, through the construction and operation of projects designed for such purposes. The board is therefore empowered to make such investigations as may be necessary to plan and carry out a comprehensive state-wide program of water conservation. The projects to be finally constructed shall qualify as parts of such state-wide program and shall be approved by the board upon the showing of their prospective ability to meet, through the sale of water or other services, the cost of operation, maintenance and repair and the amortization of the cost of the construction; provided, however, that the failure of the board to determine such prospective ability of a project shall in no way affect the validity or enforceability of any of such bonds or of the trust indenture, resolution, or other security therefor.

The board may exercise any of its powers:

(a) to (c). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 35, Ex. L. 1933; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 95, L. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 278, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department" for "board" near the beginning of the second sentence in the first paragraph; and inserted the second paragraph.

89-115. (349.12) Water funds—rates—sale of water—lease and sale of water rights and property. The board of natural resources and conservation is hereby authorized and empowered, subject to the provisions of this act, to fix and establish the prices, rates and charges at which any and all the resources and facilities made available under the provisions of this act shall be sold and disposed of; to enter into any and all contracts and agreements, and to do any and all things which in its judgment are necessary, convenient or expedient for the accomplishment of any and all the purposes and objects of this act, under such general regulations and upon such terms, limitations and conditions as it shall prescribe; and it is and shall be the duty of the board to enter into such contracts and fix and establish such prices, rates and charges so as to provide at all times funds which will be sufficient to pay all costs of operation and maintenance of any and all of the works authorized by this act, together with necessary repairs thereto, and which will provide at all times sufficient funds to meet and pay the principal and interest of all bonds as they severally become due and payable; provided, that nothing contained in this act shall authorize any change, alteration or revision of any such rates, prices or charges as established by any contract entered into under authority of this act except as provided by any such contract.

Any incorporated water users' association that is sustaining and responsible for the operations of its works is solely liable for any court action which may be brought against it or the state of Montana for any injury or damages occurring on the works caused by a failure to maintain safe working and operating conditions.

Every contract made by the board for the sale of water, use of water, water storage or other service, or for the sale of any property or facilities, shall provide that in the event of any failure or default in the payment of any moneys specified in such contract to be paid to the board, the board may, upon such notice as shall be prescribed in such contract, terminate such contract and all obligations thereunder. The act of the board in ceasing on any such default to furnish or deliver water, use of water, water storage or other service under such contract shall not deprive the board of, or limit any remedy provided by such contract or by law for the recovery of any and all moneys due or which may become due under such contract.

The board is empowered to sell, transfer to user associations, abandon or otherwise dispose of any rights of way, easements or property when it shall determine that the same is no longer needed for the purposes of this act, or to lease or rent the same or to otherwise take and receive the income or profit and revenue therefrom. A determination shall be made by the board as to the market value of rights of way, easements or property to be sold, transferred, abandoned or otherwise disposed of. All income or profit and revenue of the works and all moneys received from the sale or disposal of water, use of water, water storage, or other service, and from the operation, lease, sale or other disposition of the works, property and facilities acquired under the provisions of this act, shall be deposited to the state general fund.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 35, Ex. L. 1933; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 459, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted "of natural resources and conservation" after "board" at the beginning of the first paragraph; inserted the second paragraph; inserted "transfer to user associations, abandon" near the beginning of the fourth paragraph; inserted the second sentence in the fourth paragraph; and substituted "deposited to the state general fund" for "paid to the credit of the appropriate water fund" at the end of the fourth paragraph.

89-118. (349.15) Powers and duties of board—actions at law. (1). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(2) The board shall have power to institute in any of the courts of this state, or in any other state, or in any of the federal courts of this state or any other state, any actions, suits, and special proceedings necessary to enable it to acquire, own, and hold title to lands for dam sites, reservoir sites, water rights, rights of way for diversion and distributing canals, and lateral ditches, and other means of distribution of water, and may also in all said courts institute, maintain, and prosecute to final determination any and all actions, suits and special proceedings necessary to have the water rights adjudicated upon any stream or source of water supply from which is derived the water for such reservoir, diversion and distributing canals, lateral ditches and other means of distribution of the water; and said board may join any and all owners of waters heretofore appropriated by any person, association or corporation from any of the streams of the state of Montana, so that adjudication may be had of all surplus water upon all the streams and sources of water supply of any project so constructed by said board. All costs and expenses of such actions, suits or special proceedings shall be paid by said board out of funds provided under the authority of this act.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment deleted from subsection (2) a second paragraph reading, "The vice-chairman of the board, who shall act as secretary and treasurer, shall furnish a bond in the form and to the amount that shall be required by said board."

Cross-References

89-121 to 89-123. (349.18 to 349.20) Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 89-121 to 89-123 (Secs. 17 to 19, Ch. 35, Ex. L. 1933; Sec. 1, Ch. 214, L. 1963), relating to appropriation of water by the board, were repealed by Sec. 46, Ch. 452, Laws 1973.

89-132. (349.29) Powers of board to carry out policy of state, etc.

Cross-Reference

Flood control projects of cities, towns and counties, secs. 89-3301 to 89-3313.

89-132.1. Additional powers and duties of the board. In addition to any other power or duty authorized or imposed by provisions of this code, the board shall be empowered, and a duty is hereby enjoined thereon, to:

(1) Gather from any source reliable information relating to Montana's water resources, and prepare therefrom a continuing comprehensive inventory of the water resources of the state. In preparing said inventory, the board may conduct studies, adopt studies made by other competent water resource groups including federal, regional, state or private agencies, perform research or employ other competent agencies to perform research on a contract basis, and hold public hearings in affected areas at which all interested parties shall be given an opportunity to appear.

(2) Formulate and adopt, and from time to time amend, extend or add to, a comprehensive, co-ordinated multiple-use water resources plan, known as the "state water plan." Said state water plan may be formulated and adopted in sections, said sections corresponding with hydrologic divisions of the state. The state water plan shall set out a progressive program for the conservation, development and utilization of the state's water resources, propose the most effective means by which these water resources may be applied for the benefit of the people, with due consideration of alternative uses and combinations of uses. Before adoption of the state water plan, or any section thereof, the board shall hold public hearings in the state, or in an area of the state encompassed by a section thereof if adoption of a section is proposed. Notice of said hearing or hearings shall be published for two (2) consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general county circulation in each county encompassed by the proposed plan or section thereof at least thirty (30) days prior to said hearing.

(3) Submit to each general session of the legislature the state water plan or any section thereof or amendments, additions or revisions thereto which the board shall have formulated and adopted.

(4) Prepare a continuing inventory of the ground-water resources of the state. Said ground-water inventory shall be included in the comprehensive water resources inventory described in subsection (1) above, but shall be a separate component thereof.

(5) Publish the comprehensive inventory, the state water plan, the ground-water inventory, or any part of each, and may assess and collect a reasonable charge for said publications.

(6) Promulgate rules and regulations necessary to effect the purposes of this act.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 158, L. 1967.

CHAPTER 3—WEATHER MODIFICATION ACTIVITIES

Section 89-310. Definitions.
89-311. Montana water resources board responsible for administration—expenses of members.
89-312. Acquisition of property—acceptance and expenditure of funds—research and development authority.
89-312.1. Standards for research in weather modification control.
89-313. License and permit required for weather modification and control.
89-314. Board to review applications—exemptions.
89-315. Issuance of license—qualifications of licensees.
89-316. Term of license—renewal.
89-317. License fee.
89-318. Issuance of permits—requirements for permit—hearing.
89-319. Separate permit for each operation.
89-320. Notice of intention to apply for permit—activities limited by terms of permit.
89-321. Contents of notice of intention.
89-322. Publication of notice of intention.
89-323. Proof of financial responsibility by applicant.

89-324. Permit fee—time of payment.
89-325. Account in agency fund—fees used to pay expenses.
89-326. Records of operations maintained by licensees.
89-327. Reports of operations.
89-328. Records and reports open to public.
89-329. Termination of licenses and permits by board.
89-330. State and agents not liable for acts of private persons.
89-331. Violation as misdemeanor—continuing violations.

89-301 to 89-309. (349.54 to 349.62) Repealed.

Repeal

These sections (Secs. 1 to 9, Ch. 176, L. 1935), relating to development of state resources by the state planning board, were repealed by Sec. 10, Ch. 19, Laws 1967.

89-310. Definitions. As used in this act unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Weather modification and control" means changing or controlling, or attempting to change or control, by artificial methods, the natural development of any or all atmospheric cloud forms or precipitation forms which occur in the troposphere.

(2) "Research and development" means theoretical analysis, exploration and experimentation, and the extension of investigative findings and theories of a scientific and technical nature into practical application for experimental and demonstration purposes, including the experimental production and testing of models, devices, equipment, materials, and processes.

(3) "Department" means the department of natural resources and conservation, as provided in Title 82A, chapter 15.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 20, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 368, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to control weather modification activities and designating the state water conservation board as the agency to administer this act.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment divided the former language into the preliminary clause and subdivision (1); and added subdivisions (2) and (3).

89-311. Montana water resources board responsible for administration—expenses of members. The state water conservation board, hereafter referred to as the "board," is the state agency responsible for administration of this act. Members of the board shall receive no compensation for the performance of their duties under the provisions of this act but shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

Cross-References

Water resources board, formerly the state water conservation board, abolished and functions transferred, sec. 82A-1505 (1).

89-312. Acquisition of property—acceptance and expenditure of funds—research and development authority. In addition to any other acts authorized by law the department may:

(1) acquire materials, equipment and facilities as are necessary to perform its duties under this act;

(2) receive any funds which may be offered or become available from federal grants or appropriations, private gifts, donations, bequests, or any other source and unless their use is restricted, may expend the funds for the administration of this act;

(3) make such studies and investigations, and obtain such information as the department may deem necessary in exercising its authority in the administration or enforcement of this act;

(4) co-operate with public or private agencies in the performance of the department's functions or duties and in furtherance of the purposes of this act;

(5) represent the state in any and all matters pertaining to plans, procedures or negotiations for interstate compacts relating to weather modification and control;

(6) enter into co-operative agreements with the United States government or any of its agencies, or with the various counties and cities of this state or with any private or public agencies for conducting weather modification or cloud seeding operations;

(7) act for and represent the state and the counties, cities and private or public agencies in contracting with private concerns for the performance of weather modifications or cloud seeding operations; and

(8) conduct and may make arrangements including contracts and agreements for the conduct of, research and development activities relating to:

(a) the identification and evaluation of meteorological, environmental, ecological, agricultural, economic, hydrological and sociological impacts of weather modification in Montana;

(b) the theory and development of methods of weather modification and control, including processes, materials and devices relating thereto;

(c) the utilization of weather modification and control for agricultural, industrial, commercial, recreational and other purposes;

(d) the protection of life and property during research and operational activities.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 20, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 368, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department" for "board" in the preliminary clause; deleted subdivision (1), which authorized the establishment of advisory committees; renumbered subdivisions (2) and (3) as (1) and (2); and added subdivisions (3) through (8).

89-312.1. Standards for research in weather modification control. The department may establish by rule standards and instructions to govern the carrying out of research and development or projects in weather modification and control as it deems necessary or desirable to minimize danger to health, safety, welfare or property.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 368, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act amending sections 89-310, 89-

312, 89-314 and 89-318, R. C. M. 1947; adding new provisions broadening the scope of weather modification by authorizing more extensive research and development of weather modification.

89-313. License and permit required for weather modification and control. No person shall engage in activities for weather modification and control except under, and in accordance with, a license and a permit issued by the board authorizing such activities.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-314. Board to review applications—exemptions. The board shall review all applications for weather modification activities and may provide by rule for exempting from the license and permit requirements of this act:

(1) research and development, and experiments by state and federal agencies, institutions of higher learning and bona fide nonprofit research organizations and their agents;

(2) laboratory research and experiments;

(3) activities of an emergency character for protection against fire, frost, sleet, or fog; and

(4) activities normally engaged in for purposes other than those of inducing, increasing, decreasing, or preventing precipitation or hail.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 20, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 368, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "requirements of this act" for "fees" at the end of the preliminary clause; and made minor changes in style.

89-315. Issuance of license—qualifications of licensees. The license to engage in activities for weather modification and control shall be issued, in accordance with procedures and subject to conditions the board may by rule establish to effectuate the provisions of this act, to applicants who demonstrate competence in the field of meteorology to the satisfaction of the board. If the applicant is an organization, these requirements must be met by the individual who will be in charge of the operation for the applicant.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-316. Term of license—renewal. The license shall be issued for a period to expire at the end of the calendar year in which it is issued and, if the licensee possesses the qualifications necessary for the issuance of a new license, shall upon application be renewed at the expiration of the period.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-317. License fee. A license shall be issued or renewed only upon the payment to the board of one hundred dollars ($100) for the license or renewal.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-318. Issuance of permits—requirements for permit—hearing. (1) The permits shall be issued in accordance with procedures and subject to conditions the board of natural resources and conservation may by rule establish to effectuate the provisions of this act, only:

(a) if the applicant is licensed pursuant to this act;

(b) if sufficient notice of intention is published and proof of publication is filed as required in section 89-322 of this act;

(c) if an applicant furnishes proof of financial responsibility in an amount to be determined by the board as required in section 89-323 of this act;

(d) if the fee for the permit is paid as required in section 89-324 of this act;

(e) if the weather modification and control activities to be conducted are determined by the board to be for the general welfare and the public good;

(2) A public hearing may be held in the area to be affected by the issuance of the permit, if the department determines that such a hearing is necessary. The department may assess the permit applicant for the costs incurred by the department in holding the hearing.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 20, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 214, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 368, L. 1973.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 214 and once by Ch. 368. The amendatory acts appear to be in conflict as to the first sentence in subsection (2). Since chapter 368 is the later of the two enactments, the language of that amendment is shown above. Other provisions of the amendments do not appear to conflict and the compiler has made a composite section embodying the changes made by both amendments in the nonconflicting provisions.

Amendments

Chapter 214, Laws of 1973, designated the language in the former section as subsection (1); substituted letter designations (a) to (e) in subsection (1) for numeral designations (1) to (5); inserted "of natural resources and conservation" after "board" in the preliminary paragraph of subsection (1); substituted a new subsection (2) for a subdivision (6) reading "if the board has held an open hearing in the area to be affected as to such issuance"; and made minor changes in style. As enacted by Ch. 214, the first sentence of subsection (2) read: "The department of natural resources and conservation shall hold a public hearing in the area to be affected by the issuance of the permit, if the board determines that a hearing is necessary."

Chapter 368, Laws of 1973, substituted the first sentence of subsection (2) for the former subdivision (6) quoted above.

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 214, Laws 1973 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 8, 1973.

89-319. Separate permit for each operation. "Operation" means the performance of weather modification and control activities entered into for the purpose of producing or attempting to produce, a certain modifying effect within one (1) geographical area over one continuing time interval not exceeding one (1) year.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-320. Notice of intention to apply for permit—activities limited by terms of permit. Prior to undertaking any weather modification and control activities, the applicant for a permit shall file with the board, and also have published, a notice of intention. If a permit is issued, the holder of the permit shall confine his activities to the time and area limits set forth in the notice of intention, unless modified by the board. His activities shall conform to any conditions imposed by the board. The permit may not be sold or transferred.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-321. Contents of notice of intention. The notice of intention shall set forth at least the following:

(1) the name and address of the applicant;

(2) the nature, purpose, and objective of the intended operation and the person or organization on whose behalf it is to be conducted;

(3) the area in which, and the approximate time during which, the operation will be conducted;

(4) the area which is intended to be affected by the operation;

(5) the materials and methods to be used in conducting the operation.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-322. Publication of notice of intention. (1) The applicant shall have notice of intention, or that portion thereof including the items specified in section 12 [89-321] of this act, published at least once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks in a newspaper having a general circulation and published within any county in which the operation is to be conducted and in which the affected area is located, or, if the operation is to be conducted in more than one (1) county or if the affected area is located in more than one (1) county or is located in a county other than the one in which the operation is to be conducted, then in newspapers having a general circulation and published within each of the counties.

(2) Proof of publication, made in the manner provided by law, shall be filed by the applicant with the board sooner than the sixteenth day after the date of the last publication of the notice.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-323. Proof of financial responsibility by applicant. Proof of financial responsibility may be furnished by an applicant by his showing, to the satisfaction of the board, ability to respond in damages for liability which might reasonably be attached to, or result from, his weather modification and control activities.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-324. Permit fee—time of payment. The fee to be paid by each applicant for a permit shall be equivalent to one per cent (1%) of the estimated cost of such operation, the estimated cost to be computed by the board from the evidence available to it. The fee is due and payable to the board as of the date of issuance of the permit; however, if the applicant is able to give satisfactory security for the payment of the balance he may be permitted to commence the operation, and a permit may be issued therefor, upon the payment of not less than fifty per cent (50%) of the fee. The balance due shall be paid within three (3) months from the date of termination of the operation as prescribed in the permit.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 20, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 151, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted "one per cent (1%)" for "one and one-half per cent (1½%)" in the first sentence.

89-325. Account in agency fund—fees used to pay expenses. There is established an account in the agency fund to be known as the "weather modification board account." All license and permit fees paid to the board shall be deposited in this account and used to pay the expenses of administering this act.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-326. Records of operations maintained by licensees. Every licensee shall keep and maintain a record of all operations conducted by him under his license and each permit, showing:

(1) the method employed;

(2) type of equipment used;

(3) kinds and amounts of material used;

(4) times and places of operation of the equipment;

(5) names and addresses of all individuals participating or assisting in the operation;

(6) any other general information as the board may require.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-327. Reports of operations. The board shall require written reports, in a manner as it provides, of each operation for which a permit is issued. The board shall also require reports from any organization that is exempt from license and permit requirements as provided in section 5 [89-314] of this act.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-328. Records and reports open to public. The records and reports in the custody of the board shall be open for public examination.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-329. Termination of licenses and permits by board. After notice to the licensee and a reasonable opportunity for a hearing, the board may modify, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew, any license or permit issued if it appears that the licensee no longer possesses the qualifications necessary or if it appears that the licensee has violated any of the provisions of this act; or in the case of a modification, that it is necessary for the protection of the health or the property of any person.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-330. State and agents not liable for acts of private persons. Nothing in this act shall be construed to impose or accept any liability or responsibility on the part of the state, the board, or any state officials or employees for any weather modification and control activities of any private person or group.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

89-331. Violation as misdemeanor—continuing violations. A person violating any provision of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor, and a continuing violation is punishable as a separate offense for each day during which it occurs.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 20, L. 1967.

Separability Clause

Section 23 of Ch. 20, Laws 1967 read "It is the intent of the legislative assembly that if a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications."

CHAPTER 7—DAMS AND RESERVOIRS—CONSTRUCTION AND EXAMINATION OF

Section 89-702. Dams and dikes to be constructed in a secure manner—proceedings upon complaint of insecurity.
89-702.1. Jurisdiction of department.

89-702. (2659) Dams and dikes to be constructed in a secure manner—proceedings upon complaint of insecurity. (1) A person, association, or corporation may not construct, or cause to be constructed, a dam or dike for the purpose of accumulating, storing, appropriating, or diverting any of the waters of this state, except in a thorough, secure, and substantial manner.

(2) The department of natural resources and conservation may at any time on its own motion, and it shall, upon complaint on oath being made to the department by three (3) or more persons residing or having property in such location, that their homes or property would be in danger of destruction or damage in event of flood occurring on account of the breaking of any dam or dike of any reservoir within the state, and that they have reason to believe said reservoir is in an unsafe condition, or that it is being filled with water to such an extent as to render it unsafe, immediately examine, or cause to be examined, the reservoir. If, upon the examination, the department finds that the reservoir is unsafe, or is being filled with water to such an extent as to render it unsafe, it shall notify the county attorney of the county in which the reservoir is located, setting forth its findings, and the county attorney shall immediately take the necessary steps to abate the danger and make the structure safe.

(3) If either party is dissatisfied with the findings of the department, it may appeal to the district court of the district wherein the reservoir is located, and the court shall hear and determine the matter at the earliest practical time, subject to the right of either party to appeal as in other civil cases; however, the judgment of the department shall control until the final determination of the case.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment substituted "state water conservation board" for "state engineer" in five places; and made minor changes in phraseology.

The 1971 amendment inserted "The Montana water resources board, at any time, on its own motion or" in the beginning of the second paragraph; and substituted "state water resources board" for "state water conservation board" in five places.

The 1973 amendment divided the former section into three subsections; substituted references to the department of natural resources and conservation for references to the water resources board in subsection (2); inserted "may" following "department of natural resources and conservation"; inserted "and it shall" before "upon complaint" near the beginning of subsection (2); and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

89-702.1. Jurisdiction of department. Jurisdiction of the department under section 89-702 applies to any dam or dike which does or will impound or divert water, and which:

(1) has or will have an impounding capacity at maximum water storage elevation of fifty (50) acre feet or more; or,

(2) is twenty-five (25) feet or more in height from the natural bed of the stream or watercourse measured at the downstream toe of the dam or dike, or from the lowest elevation of the outside limit of the dam or dike, if it is not across a stream channel or watercourse, to the maximum storage elevation.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 370, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 209, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to allow the Montana water resources board, upon its own motion, to inspect and determine safety of dams or dikes; amending section 89-702, R. C. M., 1947.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department under section 89-702" for "water resources board"; divided the former section into the preliminary clause and the present subdivision (1); inserted "maximum" in subdivision (1); reduced the capacity specified in subdivision (1) from 100 to 50 acre-feet; and added subdivision (2).

89-865. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Montana Water Use Act."

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing a system for the appropriation and use of surface and groundwater; providing a procedure for the determination and confirmation of existing water rights; establishing a system of centralized records of all water rights; repealing sections 89-121 through 89-123, 89-801 through 89-804, 89-807 through 89-816, 89-829 through 89-842, 89-844 and 89-845, 89-847 through 89-855, 89-857 through 89-864, 89-2912, 89-2913, 89-2919 through 89-2925, and 89-2935, R. C. M. 1947; amending sections 89-1001, 89-2911, 89-2915, 89-2917, and 89-2918, R. C. M. 1947.

89-866. Declaration of policy and purpose. (1) Pursuant to article IX of the Montana constitution, the legislature declares that any use of water is a public use, and that the waters within the state are the property of the state for the use of its people and are subject to appropriation for beneficial uses as provided in this act.

(2) A purpose of this act is to implement article IX, section 3(4) of the Montana constitution, which requires that the legislature provide for the administration, control, and regulation of water rights and establish a system of centralized records of all water rights. The legislature declares that this system of centralized records recognizing and establishing all water rights is essential for the documentation, protection, preservation and future beneficial use and development of Montana's water for the state and its citizens, and for the continued development and completion of the comprehensive state water plan.

(3) It is the policy of this state and a purpose of this act to encourage the wise use of the state's water resources by making them available for appropriation consistent with this act, and to provide for the wise utilization, development, and conservation of the waters of the state for the maximum benefit of its people with the least possible degradation of the natural aquatic ecosystems. In pursuit of this policy, the state encourages the development of facilities which store and conserve waters for beneficial use, for the maximization of the use of those waters in Montana, for the stabilization of stream flows, and for groundwater recharge.

(4) Pursuant to article IX, section 3(1) of the Montana constitution, it is further the policy of this state and a purpose of this act to recognize and confirm all existing rights to the use of any waters for any useful or beneficial purpose.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-867. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in this act:

(1) "Water" means all water of the state, surface and subsurface, regardless of its character or manner of occurrence, including geothermal water.

(2) "Beneficial use" means a use of water for the benefit of the appropriator, other persons, or the public, including, but not limited to, agricultural (including stock water), domestic, fish and wildlife, industrial, irrigation, mining, municipal, power, and recreational uses.

(3) "Appropriate" means to divert, impound, or withdraw (including by stock for stock water) a quantity of water, or in the case of a public agency to reserve water in accordance with section 26 [89-890].

(4) "Existing right" means a right to the use of water which would be protected under the law as it existed prior to the effective date of this act.

(5) "Groundwater" means any water beneath the land surface or beneath the bed of a stream, lake, reservoir, or other body of surface water, and which is not a part of that surface water.

(6) "Well" means any artificial opening or excavation in the ground, however made, by which groundwater is sought or through which it flows under natural pressures or is artificially withdrawn.

(7) "Permit" means the permit to appropriate issued by the department under sections 16 through 23 [89-880 through 89-887].

(8) "Certificate" means the certificate of water right issued by the department under sections 15, 16 (4), and 24 [89-879, 89-880 (4), and 89-888].

(9) "Declaration" means the declaration of an existing right filed with the department under section 8 [89-872].

(10) "Waste" means the unreasonable loss of water through the design or negligent operation of an appropriation or water distribution facility, or the application of water to anything but a beneficial use.

(11) "Person" means an individual, association, partnership, corporation, state agency, political subdivision, and the United States or any agency thereof.

(12) "Department" means the department of natural resources and conservation provided for in Title 82A, chapter 15.

(13) "Director" means the director of natural resources and conservation, a position provided for in section 82A-1510.

(14) "Board" means the board of natural resources and conservation provided for in section 82A-1509.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-868. Powers and duties of department. (1) The department shall:

(a) enforce and administer this act and rules adopted by the board under section 5 [89-869];

(b) prescribe procedures, forms, and requirements for applications, permits, certificates, declarations, and proceedings under this act, and prescribe the information to be contained in any application, declaration or other document to be filed with the department under this act;

(c) keep in its Helena office a centralized public record of permits, certificates, declarations, applications, and other documents filed in its office under this act;

(d) co-operate with, assist, advise, and co-ordinate plans and activities with the federal, state, and local agencies in matters relating to this act;

(e) upon request by any person, co-operate with, assist, and advise that person in matters pertaining to measuring water or filing declarations with the department under this act.

(2) The department may:

(a) enter into agreements with federal, state, or local agencies necessary to carry out this act;

(b) apply for, accept, administer, and expend funds, grants, gifts, and loans from the federal government or any other public or private source for the purposes of this act.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-869. Powers and duties of board. (1) The board may prescribe fees or service charges for any public service rendered by the department under this act or under Title 89, chapter 29, including fees for the filing of applications or for the issuance of permits and certificates. There shall be no fees for the filing of declarations or for the issuance of certificates of existing rights.

(2) The board may adopt rules necessary to implement and carry out the purposes and provisions of this act. These rules may include, but are not limited to, rules to:

(a) govern the issuance and terms of interim permits authorizing an applicant for a regular permit under this act to begin appropriating water immediately, pending final approval or denial by the department of the application for a regular permit;

(b) require the owner or operator of appropriation facilities to install and maintain suitable controlling and measuring devices;

(c) require the owner or operator of appropriation facilities to report to the department the readings of measuring devices at reasonable intervals, and to file reports on appropriations;

(d) regulate the construction, use and sealing of wells to prevent the waste, contamination or pollution of groundwater.

(3) The board shall adopt rules providing for and governing temporary emergency appropriations, without prior application for a permit, necessary to protect lives or property.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-870. Determination of existing rights. (1) The department shall establish a centralized record system of all existing rights, and the department shall, as soon as practicable, begin proceedings under this act to determine existing rights. To accomplish this, the department shall gather data essential to the proper understanding and determination of those existing rights.

(2) The department may select and specify areas or sources where the need for a determination of existing rights is most urgent, and first begin proceedings under this act to determine the existing rights in those areas or sources.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-871. Data for determination of existing rights. The data gathered by the department for the determination of existing rights shall include, but are not limited to:

(1) court decrees adjudicating water rights in a proceeding commenced prior to the effective date of this act. Upon request of the department, the clerks of the district courts shall furnish the department copies of all decrees affecting water rights;

(2) declarations of existing rights filed under section 8 [89-872];

(3) records of rights acquired under the groundwater code (sections 89-2911 through 89-2936);

(4) notices of appropriation filed under sections 89-801.2 and 89-810;

(5) records of declarations filed under sections 89-121 and 89-813;

(6) records of statements filed under section 89-907;

(7) the findings of water resource surveys conducted by the department and its predecessor agencies;

(8) the findings of inspections, surveys, reconnaissance, and investigations of the area or source involved as the department makes.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

Compiler's Notes

Sections 89-2912, 89-2913, 89-2919 to 89-2925 and 89-2935, contained in the reference to sections 89-2911 through 89-2936 in subdivision (3), were repealed by Sec. 46, Ch. 452, Laws 1973. Sections 89-801.2 and 89-810, referred to in subdivision (4), sections 89-121 and 89-813, referred to in subdivision (5), were repealed by Sec. 46, Ch. 452, Laws 1973.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Defective Notice of Appropriation

A notice of appropriation filed before the 1885 act but defective in that it was not verified as required by former sections 89-810 and 89-813 not only was not accorded the status of prima facie evidence under former section 89-814 but was not even admissible in evidence. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 111.

Where a notice of appropriation was dated 1886, referred to acts taking place in 1886, and was recorded in 1886, but the notary's certificate was dated 1885, it is obvious from the instrument itself that the date in the notary's certificate was a clerical error, and the notice may be received as prima facie evidence of a right dating from 1886. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 112.

Rebuttal of Prima Facie Evidence

A notice of appropriation meeting the requirements of former section 89-810 and filed in 1886 was admissible in evidence and entitled to be treated as prima facie evidence under former section 89-814 but was not sufficient in itself to establish a water right from that date when its efficacy was destroyed by the claimant's own statement that he first used the water in 1961. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 113.

89-872. Declarations of existing rights. (1) The department shall make an order requiring each person claiming an existing right within a specified area or from a specified source to file a declaration of existing right within one (1) year after the effective date of the order. The department shall publish notice of the order once a week for four (4) consecutive weeks prior to its effective date in a newspaper of general circulation in the affected area. Before the last date of publication, the department shall also serve a copy of the order by certified mail upon each appropriator or his successor in interest within the specified area or from the specified source who has requested mailed notice of the order or of whom the department can readily obtain knowledge, and to each person owning or being possessed of lands bordering on the stream or source as ascertained from the land ownership records of the appropriate county. The department shall file in its records proof of service of the notice by affidavit of the publisher in the case of notice by publication, and by its own affidavit in the case of service by mail.

(2) A declaration shall be made under oath by each person claiming an existing right to use water within the specified area or from the specified source on a form provided by the department. The department shall make the forms available through its offices and the offices of the county clerks and recorders. The information required by the department may include, but is not limited to, the date of appropriation, the date the water was first applied to a beneficial use, the amount of water appropriated, the purpose of the appropriation, the place and means of diversion, the place of use, the time during which the water is diverted and used each year, and a true copy or the docket number of any judicial decree, notice, or other claim or evidence upon which the existing right was initiated or is based.

(3) Declarations shall be sent to the department by certified mail, with a return receipt requested. The return receipt is conclusive evidence of receipt, by the department, of the declaration.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-873. Filing of petition. (1) The department shall, within a reasonable time after gathering all data necessary under section 7 [89-871] of this act, file a petition for determination of existing rights in the source or area specified in the order made under section 8 [89-872]. The department shall file the petition in the district court of the judicial district in which the source or area is located.

(2) If the source or area is in two (2) or more judicial districts, the department shall notify the district court of each of the judicial districts of its intent to file the petition. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice, the judges of those district courts shall agree on which district judge shall hear the petition and shall notify the department of their decision. If the district judges fail to agree or to notify the department, the department shall file the petition in the district court of the judicial district in which the greatest number of persons named in the petition reside.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-874. Contents of petition. (1) The petition shall state the names of all persons who have filed declarations under section 8 [89-872] of this act and of all other persons who appear from the data gathered by the department to have existing rights to the use of waters within the specified area or from the specified source.

(2) The department shall file with the petition all data gathered under section 7 [89-871] of this act.

(3) If the district court determines that additional data is necessary prior to issuing the preliminary decree in order to determine the extent of an existing right, it may direct the department or the person claiming the right to obtain the necessary data.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-875. Preliminary decree. (1) Within a reasonable time after the filing of a petition for determination of existing rights, the court shall issue a preliminary decree. The preliminary decree shall be based on the data submitted with the petition and on any additional data obtained by the court.

(2) The preliminary decree shall contain the information, and make the determinations, findings, and conclusions, required for the final decree under section 13 [89-877] of this act.

(3) The district court shall send a copy of the preliminary decree by certified mail with return receipt requested to the department and to each person named in the petition filed under section 9 [89-873] of this act or named in the preliminary decree. The return receipt shall be appended to the preliminary decree. The costs of mailing the copies shall be paid by the department.

(4) A person named in the petition or in the preliminary decree may inspect the data upon which the decree is based at any time, and he may purchase copies of any of the data.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-876. Hearing on preliminary decree. (1) The department or a person named in the petition filed under section 9 [89-873] of this act or named in the preliminary decree, or any other person for good cause shown, who objects to the preliminary decree is entitled to a hearing thereon before the district court.

(2) A request for a hearing shall be filed with the district court, and a copy served on the department by certified mail, within ninety (90) days after receipt of the preliminary decree. The district court shall, for good cause shown, reasonably extend this time limit if application for the extension is made within ninety (90) days after receipt of the preliminary decree. A person requesting a hearing on his objections to the preliminary decree shall also serve, by certified mail with return receipt requested, a copy of his request on any person whose rights or priorities will be affected if the objections are sustained in the hearing. The rights and priorities of a person who is not served shall not be affected by the result of the hearing.

(3) The request for a hearing shall contain a precise statement of the findings and conclusions, in the preliminary decree, with which the person requesting the hearing disagrees. The request shall specify the paragraphs and pages containing the findings and conclusions to which objection is made. The request shall state the specific grounds and evidence on which the objections are based. The request shall also state the names of all other persons on whom it is served.

(4) If more than one person requests a hearing on objections to the preliminary decree, the court may in its discretion hold a single hearing. Each hearing shall be conducted as are other civil actions, but the parties to the hearing may by agreement and with the court's permission waive any of the procedural or evidentiary rules, or may submit only written evidence. Only evidence which is referred to in a request may be introduced in a hearing.

(5) In each hearing, the department shall be a party and is entitled to be heard on objections made by any person. The department shall be granted adequate time, prior to a hearing, to gather evidence pertinent to any objection to be heard in the hearing.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-877. Final decree. (1) The court shall, on the basis of the preliminary decree and on the basis of any hearing that may have been held, enter a final decree affirming or modifying the preliminary decree. If no request for a hearing is filed within the time allowed, the preliminary decree automatically becomes final, and the court shall enter it as the final decree.

(2) The final decree shall establish the existing rights and priorities, of the persons named in the petition, for the source or area under consideration.

(3) The final decree shall state the findings of fact, along with any conclusions of law, upon which the existing rights and priorities of each person named in the decree are based.

(4) For each person who is found to have an existing right, the decree shall state:

(a) the name and post-office address of the owner of the right;

(b) the amount of water included in the right;

(c) the date of priority of the right;

(d) the purpose for which the water included in the right is used;

(e) the place of use and a description of the land to which the right is appurtenant;

(f) the source of the water included in the right;

(g) the place and means of diversion;

(h) the approximate time during which the water is used each year;

(i) any other information necessary to fully define the nature and extent of the right.

(5) The final decree in each existing right determination is final and conclusive as to all existing rights in the source or area under consideration. After the final decree there shall be no existing rights to water in the area or source under consideration except as stated in the decree.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Collateral Attack

A decree giving appropriator the right to use water on certain named land outside the drainage area where appropriated could not be attacked in a later proceeding on the ground that appropriator had never applied water to that land. McIntosh v. Graveley, — M —, 495 P 2d 186.

89-878. Appeals from final decree. (1) A person whose existing rights and priorities are determined in the final decree may appeal the determination only if:

(a) he requested a hearing and appeared and entered objections to the preliminary decree; or

(b) his rights as determined in the preliminary decree were altered as the result of a hearing, at which he appeared, requested by another person.

(2) An appeal from the final decree shall be taken as provided by the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-879. Certificate of water right. When a final decree is entered, the court shall send a copy to the department. The department shall, on the basis of the final decree, issue to each person decreed an existing right a certificate of water right. The original of the certificate shall be sent to the county clerk and recorder, in the county where the point of diversion or place of use is located, for recordation. The department shall keep a copy of the certificate in its office in Helena. After recordation, the clerk and recorder shall send the certificate to the person to whom the right is decreed.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-880. Right to appropriate—application for permit. (1) After the effective date of this act, a person may not appropriate water except as provided in this act. A person may only appropriate water for a beneficial use. A right to appropriate water may not be acquired by any other method, including by adverse use, adverse possession, prescription or estoppel; the method prescribed by this act is exclusive.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, a person may appropriate water only by applying for and receiving a permit from the department. The application shall be made on a form prescribed by the department. The department shall make the forms available through its offices and the offices of the county clerks and recorders. The department shall return a defective application for correction or completion together with the reasons for returning it. An application does not lose priority of filing because of defects, if the application is corrected, completed and refiled with the department within thirty (30) days after its return to the applicant, or within a further time as the department may allow.

(3) A permit issued prior to a final determination of existing rights is provisional and is subject to that final determination. The amount of the appropriation granted in a provisional permit shall be reduced or modified where necessary to protect and guarantee existing rights determined in the final decree. A person may not obtain any vested right, to an appropriation obtained under a provisional permit, by virtue of construction of diversion works, purchase of equipment to apply water, planting of crops, or other action, where the permit would have been denied or modified if the final decree had been available to the department.

(4) Outside the boundaries of a controlled groundwater area, a permit is not required before appropriating groundwater for domestic, agricultural, or livestock purposes by means of a well with a maximum yield of less than one hundred (100) gallons a minute. Within sixty (60) days of completion of the well, the appropriator shall file notice of completion on a form provided by the department at its offices and at the offices of the county clerks and recorders. Upon receipt of the notice, the department shall automatically issue a certificate of water right. The original of the certificate shall be sent to the county clerk and recorder, in the county where the point of diversion or place of use is located, for recordation. The department shall keep a copy of the certificate in its office in Helena. After recordation, the clerk and recorder shall send the certificate to the appropriator. The date of filing of the notice of completion is the date of priority of the right.

(5) Persons required to file well logs and other information under the laws governing the conservation of oil and gas and who do so in compliance with those laws, shall be considered to have complied with all of the filing requirements of this act to the extent it applies to wells subject to those laws. The date of appropriation shall be the date that written notice of intention to drill is given to the board of oil and gas conservation. A person who desires to convert a nonproductive oil or gas well to a water well may do so immediately, but shall file a notice of completion or apply for a permit, depending on the maximum yield of the well, as otherwise provided in this act.

(6) A person may also appropriate water, without applying for or prior to receiving a permit, under rules adopted by the board under section 5 [89-869] of this act.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-881. Notice of application. (1) Upon receipt of a proper application for a permit, the department shall prepare a notice containing the facts pertinent to the application and shall publish the notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area of the source once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks. Before the last date of publication, the department shall also serve the notice by certified mail upon an appropriator of water or applicant for a holder of a permit who, according to the records of the department, may be affected by the proposed appropriation. A notice shall also be served upon any public agency that has reserved waters in the source under section 26 [89-890]. The department may, in its discretion, also serve notice upon any state agency or other person the department feels may be interested in or affected by the proposed appropriation. The department shall file in its records proof of service by affidavit of the publisher in the case of notice by publication, and by its own affidavit in the case of service by mail.

(2) The notice shall state that by a date set by the department (not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days after the last date of publication) persons may file with the department written objections to the application.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-882. Objections. (1) An objection to an application must be filed by the date specified by the department under section 17 (2) [89-881 (2)].

(2) The objection must state the name and address of the objector, and facts tending to show that there are no unappropriated waters in the proposed source, that the proposed means of appropriation are inadequate, that the property, rights, or interests of the objector would be adversely affected by the proposed appropriation, or the objector may state any other objections to the proposed appropriation he considers pertinent.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-883. Hearings on objections. If the department determines that an objection to an application for a permit states a valid objection to the issuance of the permit, it shall hold a public hearing on the objection within sixty (60) days from the date set by the department for the filing of objections, after serving notice of the hearing by certified mail upon the applicant and the objector. The department may consolidate hearings if more than one (1) objection is filed to an application. The department shall file in its records proof of the service by affidavit of the department.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-884. Action on application. (1) The department shall grant, deny, or condition an application for a permit in whole or in part within one hundred twenty (120) days after the last date of publication of the notice of application if no hearing is held, and within one hundred eighty (180) days if a hearing is held.

(2) However, an application may not be approved in a modified form or upon terms, conditions, or limitations specified by the department, nor denied, unless the applicant is first granted an opportunity to be heard. If no objection is filed against the application, but the department is of the opinion that the application should be approved in a modified form or upon terms, conditions or limitations specified by it, or that the application should be denied, the department shall prepare a statement of its opinion and the reasons therefor. The department shall serve a statement of its opinion by certified mail upon the applicant, together with a notice that the applicant may obtain a hearing by filing a request therefor within thirty (30) days after the notice is mailed. The notice shall further state that the application will be modified in a specified manner, or denied, unless a hearing is requested.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-885. Criteria for issuance of permit. The department shall issue a permit if:

(1) there are unappropriated waters in the source of supply;

(2) the rights of a prior appropriator will not be adversely affected;

(3) the proposed means of diversion or construction are adequate;

(4) the proposed use of water is a beneficial use;

(5) the proposed use will not interfere unreasonably with other planned uses or developments for which a permit has been issued or for which water has been reserved.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-886. Terms of permit. (1) The department may issue a permit for less than the amount of water requested, but in no case may it issue a permit for more water than is requested or than can be beneficially used without waste for the purpose stated in the application. The department may require modification of plans and specifications for the appropriation or related diversion or construction. It may issue a permit subject to terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations it considers necessary to protect the rights of other appropriators, and it may issue temporary or seasonal permits. A permit shall be issued subject to existing rights and any final determination of those rights made under this act.

(2) The department may limit the time for commencement of the appropriation works, completion of construction and actual application of the water to the proposad beneficial use. In fixing those time limits, the department shall consider the cost and magnitude of the project, the engineering and physical features to be encountered, and, on projects designed for gradual development and gradually increased use of water, the time reasonably necessary for that gradual development and increased use. For good cause shown by the permittee, the department may in its discretion reasonably extend time limits.

(3) The original of the permit shall be sent to the county clerk and recorder in the county where the point of diversion or place of use is located for recordation, and a copy shall be kept in the office of the department in Helena. After recordation, the clerk and recorder shall send the permit to the permittee.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-887. Revocation of permit. If the work on an appropriation is not commenced, prosecuted, or completed within the time stated in the permit or an extension thereof, or if the water is not being applied to the beneficial use contemplated in the permit, or if the permit is otherwise not being followed, the department may after notice require the permittee to show cause why the permit should not be revoked. If the permittee fails to show sufficient cause, the department may revoke the permit.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-888. Certificate of water right. (1) Upon actual application of water to the proposed beneficial use within the time allowed, the permittee shall notify the department that the appropriation has been properly completed. The department may then inspect the appropriation, and if it determines that the appropriation has been completed in substantial accordance with the permit, it shall issue the permittee a certificate of water right. The original of the certificate shall be sent to the county clerk and recorder in the county wherein the point of diversion or place of use is located for recordation, and a duplicate shall be kept in the office of the department in Helena. After recordation, the clerk and recorder shall send the certificate to the appropriator.

(2) Except as provided in section 16 (4) [89-880 (4)] of this act, a certificate of water right in a particular source may not be issued prior to a general determination under this act of existing rights in that source.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-889. Reservoirs. A person intending to appropriate water by means of a reservoir shall apply for a permit as prescribed in this act.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-890. Reservation of waters. (1) The state or any political subdivision or agency thereof, or the United States or any agency thereof, may apply to the board to reserve waters for existing or future beneficial uses, or to maintain a minimum flow, level, or quality of water throughout the year or at such periods or for such length of time as the board designates.

(2) Upon receiving an application, the department shall proceed in accordance with sections 17 through 19 [89-881 through 89-883]. After the hearing provided in section 19 [89-883], the board shall decide whether to reserve the water for the applicant. The department's costs of giving notice, holding the hearing, conducting investigations, and making records, incurred in acting upon the application to reserve water, except the cost of salaries of the department's personnel, shall be paid by the applicant.

(3) The board may not adopt an order reserving water unless the applicant establishes to the satisfaction of the board:

(a) the purpose of the reservation;

(b) the need for the reservation;

(c) the amount of water necessary for the purpose of the reservation;

(d) that the reservation is in the public interest. If the purpose of the reservation requires construction of a storage or diversion facility, the applicant shall establish to the satisfaction of the board that there will be progress toward completion of the facility and accomplishment of the purpose with reasonable diligence in accordance with an established plan.

(4) After the adoption of an order reserving waters, the department may reject an application and refuse a permit for the appropriation of reserved waters, or may, with the approval of the board, issue the permit subject to such terms and conditions it considers necessary for the protection of the objectives of the reservation.

(5) A reservation under this section shall not affect any rights in existence when the order reserving waters is adopted.

(6) The board shall, periodically but not less than every ten (10) years, review existing reservations to ensure that the objectives of the reservation are being met. Where the objectives of the reservation are not being met, the board may extend, revoke or modify the reservation.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-891. Priority. (1) As between appropriators, the first in time is the first in right. Priority of appropriation does not include the right to prevent changes by later appropriators in the condition of water occurrence, such as the increase or decrease of streamflow, or the lowering of a water table, artesian pressure or water level, if the prior appropriator can reasonably exercise his water right under the changed conditions.

(2) Priority of appropriation made under this act dates from the filing of an application for a permit with the department, except as otherwise provided in section 16 [89-880] of this act.

(3) Priority of appropriation perfected before the effective date of this act shall be determined as provided in sections 6 through 15 [89-870 through 89-879] of this act.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-892. Changes in appropriation rights. (1) An appropriator may not change the place of diversion, place of use, purpose of use or place of storage without receiving prior approval of such change from the department.

(2) The department shall approve the proposed change if it determines that the proposed change will not adversely affect the rights of other persons. If a person whose rights may be affected files an objection to the proposed change, the department shall hold a hearing thereon prior to its approval or denial of the proposed change. Notice of the proposed change shall be given in accordance with section 17 [89-881] of this act. Objections shall meet the requirements of section 18 (2) [89-882 (2)] of this act, and hearings shall be held in accordance with section 19 [89-883].

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Diversion Point Changed

Appropriator was entitled to move his point of diversion downstream, so long as he installed measuring devices to ensure that he took no more than would have been available at his original point of diversion, and the fact that a water commissioner might have to be employed to oversee the appropriation was not the kind of burden on other appropriators that would prevent the change. McIntosh v. Graveley, — M —, 495 P 2d 186.

Remedies of Servient Owner

Changes in a ditch appurtenant to a water right did not forfeit the ditch right or justify the use of self-help by the servient landowner to fill in a portion of the ditch. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 108.

Substantial Change

Under former section 89-803, the owner of a ditch appurtenant to a water right could change the location by minor meandering along the course of the ditch and its marginal land with a dozer to account for topographical adjustments in the terrain, so long as he did not add any new burden to the servient estate or cause any additional damage thereto. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 109.

Use of Water Changed

Where appropriator had a decreed right to use water for irrigation of specified land outside the drainage area, his use of the water on other land outside the drainage area did not impose an undue burden on other appropriators, so long as he did not increase the amount of water diverted from the drainage area. McIntosh v. Graveley, — M —, 495 P 2d 186.

89-893. Transfer of appropriation right. (1) The right to use water under a permit or certificate of water right shall pass with a conveyance of the land, or transfer by operation of law, unless specifically exempted therefrom. All transfers of interests in appropriation rights shall be without loss of priority.

(2) A copy of an instrument which transfers an interest in an appropriation right shall be filed with the department and the county, in which the point of diversion or place of use is located, by the person receiving the appropriation interest.

(3) An appropriator may not sever all or any part of an appropriation right from the land to which it is appurtenant, or sell the appropriation right for other purposes or to other lands, or make the appropriation right appurtenant to other lands, without obtaining prior approval from the department. The department shall approve the proposed transfer if the requirements of section 28 (2) [89-892 (2)] are met.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-894. Abandonment of appropriation right. (1) If an appropriator ceases to use all or a part of his appropriation right with the intention of wholly or partially abandoning the right, or if he ceases using his appropriation right according to its terms and conditions with the intention of not complying with those terms and conditions, the appropriation right shall, to that extent, be deemed considered abandoned and shall immediately expire.

(2) If an appropriator ceases to use all or part of his appropriation right, or ceases using his appropriation right according to its terms and conditions, for a period of ten (10) successive years, and there was water available for his use, there shall be a prima facie presumption that the appropriator has abandoned his right in whole or for the part not used.

(3) This section does not apply to existing rights until they have been determined in accordance with this act.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Intent to Abandon

Mere nonuser of a ditch appurtenant to a water right is not sufficient to establish abandonment; there must be concurrent intent to abandon. Shammel v. Vogl, 144 M 354, 396 P 2d 103, 107.

89-895. Procedure for declaring appropriation rights abandoned. (1) When the department has reason to believe that an appropriator may have abandoned his appropriation right under section 30 [89-894], or when another appropriator in the opinion of the department files a valid claim that he has been or will be injured by the resumption of use of an appropriation right alleged to have been abandoned, the department shall petition the district court which determined the existing rights in the source of the appropriation in question to hold a hearing to determine whether the appropriation right has been abandoned. Proceedings under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, and appeal shall be taken in accordance with the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure.

(2) At the hearing, the burden of proof shall be on the department which must establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the appropriation has been abandoned under section 30 [89-894] of this act.

(3) The determination of the court shall be appended to the final decree. The department shall keep a copy of the determination in its office in Helena.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-896. Supervision of water distribution. (1) As of the effective date of this act, the district courts shall supervise the distribution of water among all appropriators. This supervisory authority includes the supervision of all water commissioners appointed prior to the effective date of this act. The supervision shall be governed by the principle that first in time is first in right.

(2) When a water distribution controversy arises upon a source of water in which existing rights have not been determined according to sections 6 through 15 [89-870 through 89-879] of this act, the department may, in its discretion, within a reasonable time begin proceedings to determine existing rights in the source, in accordance with this act. If the department does not proceed to obtain a determination of existing rights, the district court shall settle only the controversy between the parties.

(3) A controversy between appropriators from a source which has been the subject of a general determination of existing rights under sections 6 through 15 [89-870 through 89-879] of this act shall be settled by the district court which issued the final decree. The order of the district court settling the controversy may not alter the existing rights and priorities established in the final decree. In cases involving permits issued by the department, the court may not amend the respective rights established in the permits or alter any terms of the permits unless the permits are inconsistent or interfere with rights and priorities established in the final decree. The order settling the controversy shall be appended to the final decree, and a copy shall be filed with the department.

(4) The department shall be named as a party in any proceeding under this section and shall be served with process.

History: En. Sec. 32, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-897. Prevention of waste. (1) If the department ascertains, by a means reasonably considered sufficient by it, that a person is wasting water, using water unlawfully, or preventing water from moving to another person having a prior right to use the same, it may petition the district court to:

(a) regulate the controlling works of an appropriation as may be necessary to prevent the wasting or unlawful use of water, or to secure water to a person having a prior right to its use; the department may attach to the controlling works a written notice properly dated and signed, setting forth the fact that the controlling works have been properly regulated by it, which notice shall be legal notice to all persons interested in the appropriation or distribution of the water; or

(b) order the person wasting, unlawfully using, or interfering with another's rightful use of the water to cease and desist from doing so, and to take such steps as may be necessary to remedy the waste, unlawful use, or interference; or

(2) The department may also direct its own attorney or request the attorney general or county attorney to bring suit to enjoin such waste, unlawful use, or interference.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-898. Entry on land—inspections. Any employee or agent of the department authorized by the director may enter upon any land to carry out the purpose of this act, including, but not limited to, entry to make inspections the department considers necessary of proposed works, source of water, location of the proposed use, construction of works and other inspections to ascertain whether or not persons are complying with this act. The department or its agent shall give reasonable notice to the landowner of its intention to enter upon the land. The department is responsible for actual damages done to any property.

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-899. Legal assistance. (1) When requested by the department, the attorney general and the county attorneys within their respective counties shall perform legal services and conduct legal proceedings necessary to carry out the purposes of this act. The department may also employ legal counsel to enforce this act and to conduct proceedings under it.

(2) If an appropriator who is a citizen of Montana becomes involved in a controversy to which any agency of the federal government or another state is a party, the department may in its discretion intervene as a party or provide necessary legal assistance to the citizen of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-8-100. Hearings before board—Administrative Procedure Act. (1) A person who is aggrieved by a final decision of the department is entitled to a hearing before the board.

(2) The Montana Administrative Procedure Act (Title 82, chapter 42, R. C. M. 1947) governs administrative proceedings conducted under this act.

History: En. Sec. 36, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-8-101. Penalties. A person who violates or refuses or neglects to comply with sections 16 (1), 28 (1), and 29 (3) [89-880 (1), 89-892 (1), and 89-893 (3)] of this act, or of any order of the department, or of any rule of the board, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-8-102. Deposit of fees and penalties. All fees and penalties collected under this act shall be deposited in the state general fund. All penalties or fines imposed by any court for a violation of this act shall be deposited in the general fund of the county where the court presides and shall be disposed of in the same manner as any other penalty or fine.

History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

CHAPTER 9—YELLOWSTONE RIVER COMPACT—RATIFICATION OF

Section 89-907. Filing written statement with Montana water resources board.
89-908. Duty to install weir or other measuring device.
89-909. Duty to measure water.
89-912. Montana water resources board to make rules and regulations.
89-914. Montana water resources board to make record available.

89-907. Filing written statement with Montana water resources board. Any person claiming an appropriative right to the use of any water of any interstate tributary which right was acquired after January 1, 1950, shall within sixty days after the approval of this act, or before he diverts any water, file with the state water conservation board at its office in Helena, Montana, a written statement containing the following information:

(a) The name of the claimant and his address.

(b) Date of appropriation or the date when the water was first applied to a beneficial use.

(c) The quantity of water claimed.

(d) The name of the stream, river or other source of water from which the diversion is made, if it has a name, and if it does not, such a description as will identify the same.

(e) The purpose for which the water is claimed and the place of intended use.

(f) The means of diversion.

(g) Whether or not a weir or other device for measuring the water intended to be diverted has been installed in his ditch or other means of diversion.

(h) If a notice of appropriation was filed with the county clerk and recorder, as provided by section 89-810, the name of the county where it was filed.

(i) Whether the appropriation was made from an adjudicated or nonadjudicated stream, river or other source of water.

The written statement shall be verified by the affidavit of the claimant or someone in his behalf, which affidavit must state that the matters and facts contained in the written statement are true.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 92, L. 1953; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 280, L. 1965.

Compiler's Notes

The state water conservation board has been redesignated the Montana water resources board. See paragraph (1), sec. 89-103 herein.

Section 89-810, referred to in subdivision (h), was repealed by Sec. 46, Ch. 452, Laws 1973.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment substituted "state water conservation board" for "state engineer" in the first paragraph; and made a minor change in phraseology.

89-908. Duty to install weir or other measuring device. Any person claiming an appropriative right to use any waters of any interstate tributary of the Yellowstone river which right was acquired subsequently to January 1, 1950, shall, after the approval of this act and before he diverts any such water, install in his ditch, or other means of diversion, a weir or other measuring device so that all of the water to be diverted by him can be accurately measured. The installation of a weir or other measuring device is subject to the approval of the state water conservation board, and if in its judgment such weir or other measuring device, or the installation of the same, is defective so that the water cannot be accurately measured, it may order the installation of an accurate measuring device and the claimant shall not divert any water until he complies with such order.

Compiler's Notes

The state water conservation board has been redesignated the Montana water resources board. See paragraph (1), sec. 89-103 herein.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment substituted "state water conservation board" for "state engineer" in the second sentence; and made minor changes in phraseology.

89-909. Duty to measure water. It shall be the duty of every said claimant to measure all the water being diverted by him and to keep accurate records thereof on forms prescribed and furnished by the state water conservation board, and within fifteen days after the first day of November of each year to file such written records with the state water conservation board at its office in Helena, Montana.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 92, L. 1953; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 280, L. 1965.

Compiler's Notes

The state water conservation board has been redesignated the Montana water resources board. See paragraph (1), sec. 89-103 herein.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment substituted "state water conservation board" for "state engineer" in two places; and made a minor change in phraseology.

89-912. Montana water resources board to make rules and regulations. The state water conservation board shall prescribe and enforce reasonable rules and regulations consistent with this act and the Yellowstone River Compact.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 92, L. 1953; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 280, L. 1965.

Compiler's Notes

The state water conservation board has been redesignated the Montana water resources board. See paragraph (1), sec. 89-103 herein.

The 1965 amendment substituted "state water conservation board" for "state engineer."

89-914. Montana water resources board to make record available. The state water conservation board shall furnish and make available to the Yellowstone river compact commission, from the records filed in its office, all appropriative rights to the use of the waters of the interstate tributaries of the Yellowstone river in the state of Montana, acquired after January 1, 1950, the amount of the annual diversions from said interstate tributaries and any other information that its records may disclose as may be required by the Yellowstone river compact commission.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 92, L. 1953; amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 280, L. 1965.

Compiler's Notes

The state water conservation board has been redesignated the Montana water resources board. See paragraph (1), sec. 89-103 herein.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment substituted "state water conservation board" for "state engineer"; and made minor changes in phraseology.

CHAPTER 10—WATER COMMISSIONERS—DETERMINATION OF JOINT RIGHTS

Section 89-1001. Appointment of water commissioners—authority—compensation.

89-1001. (7136) Appointment of water commissioners—authority—compensation. (1) Whenever the rights of persons to use the waters of any stream, ditch or extension of ditch, watercourse, spring, lake, reservoir, or other source of supply have been determined by a decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, it shall be the duty of the judge of the district court having jurisdiction of the subject matter, upon the application of the owners of at least fifteen per cent (15%) of the water rights affected by the decree, in the exercise of his discretion, to appoint one or more commissioners, who shall have authority to admeasure and distribute to the parties owning water rights in the source affected by the decree the waters to which they are entitled, according to their rights as fixed by the decree and by any certificates and permits issued under the Montana Water Use Act provided that when petitioners make proper showing that they are not able to obtain the application of the owners of at least fifteen per cent (15%) of the water rights affected, and they are unable to obtain the water to which they are entitled, the judge of the district court having jurisdiction may, in his discretion, appoint a water commissioner.

(2) When the existing rights of all appropriators from a source or in an area have been determined in a final decree issued under the Montana Water Use Act, the judge of the district court which issued the final decree shall upon application by the department of natural resources and conservation appoint a water commissioner. The water commissioner shall distribute to the appropriators, from the source or in the area, the water to which they are entitled.

(3) The department of natural resources and conservation or any person or corporation operating under contract with the department, or any other owner of stored waters may petition the court to have such stored waters distributed by the water commissioners appointed by said court. The court may thereupon make an order requiring the commissioner or commissioners appointed by the court to distribute such stored water when and as released to water users entitled to the use thereof.

(4) Upon the issuance of such order the water commissioner or commissioners shall have authority and it is hereby made his or their duty to admeasure and distribute to the users thereof as their interests may appear and be required, the stored and supplemental waters stored and as released by the department of natural resources and conservation under provisions of the state Water Conservation Act, chapter 1 of this title, to be diverted into and through said streams, ditch or extension of ditch, watercourse, spring, lake, reservoir, or other source of supply in the same manner and under the same rules and regulations as decreed water rights are admeasured and distributed, and such water commissioner or commissioners and the owners and users of such stored and supplemental waters shall be bound by and be subject to the provisions of this chapter, and all acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, provided that the admeasurements and distribution of such stored and supplemental waters shall in no way interfere with decreed water rights. The purpose of this act is to provide a uniform, equitable and economical distribution of adjudicated, stored and supplemental waters.

(5) At the time of the appointment of such water commissioner or commissioners the district court shall fix their compensation, and the owners and users of the distributed waters shall pay their proportionate share of such fees and compensation.

History: Earlier acts relating to water commissioners were Secs. 1 to 3, pp. 136 and 137, Laws of 1899, and chapter 64, Laws of 1905. These acts appeared as sections 4881 to 4889, Revised Codes 1907, and were repealed by chapter 43, Laws of 1911. This section en. Sec. 1, Ch. 43, L. 1911; re-en. Sec. 7136, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 125, L. 1925; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 187, L. 1939; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 231, L. 1963; amd. Sec. 39, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "parties owning water rights in the source affected by the decree" for "parties bound by the decree or decrees" in the middle of subsection (1); inserted "and by any certificates and permits issued under the Montana Water Use Act" immediately before the proviso to subsection (1); inserted subsection (2); renumbered former subsections (2), (3) and (4) as (3), (4) and (5); substituted references to the department of natural resources and conservation for references to the state water conservation board throughout the section; substituted "the distributed waters" for "decreed, stored and supplemental waters" near the end of subsection (5); and made minor changes in phraseology.

Purpose of Summary Proceeding

The district court had no authority in a proceeding under this section to approve a method of distribution which changed the point of diversion of water to a tract and changed the transportation ditch thereto, as the only function of the court in such a proceeding is to determine whether the water involved is being allocated in compliance with existing decrees and not to decree new water rights. (3) Before any such district shall be established, there shall be presented to the district court at the hearing on the petition for such establishment, a written report or opinion from the state water conservation board on the engineering features involved and the possibilities of water supplies accompanied by a copy of the decree of the district court showing the adjudicated water rights in said streams from which said waters are to be diverted. For this purpose, a copy of the petition provided for in section 89-1202 and of all maps and other papers filed with the same, shall be filed with the state water conservation board at the time the original petition is filed with the clerk of the district court. The expense, if any, incurred by the state water conservation board in the investigation and report upon the proposed district shall be certified, with the report, and that said board shall, within a period of one hundred twenty days from the filing of said petition with the state water conservation board, render its report, as herein provided, to the said district court, and shall be assessed as costs in said hearing, which costs shall be paid by the district in event of its establishment and in event such petition be denied, then such costs shall be paid by the petitioners; provided, however, that such report or opinion shall be not requested or obtained, and shall not be necessary, whenever it is proposed to co-operate with the United States under the federal reclamation laws heretofore or hereafter enacted, or under any act of Congress which shall permit of the performance by the United States of work in this state, for the purposes of construction of irrigation works, including drainage works, or for purchase, extension, operation or maintenance of constructed works, or for the assumption, as principal or guarantor, of indebtedness to the United States on account of district laws.

This section en. Sec. 1, Ch. 146, L. 1909; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 153, L. 1917; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 116, L. 1919; re-en. Sec. 7166, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 157, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 112, L. 1925; amd. Sec. 15, Ch. 280, L. 1965.

The state water conservation board has been redesignated the Montana water resources board. See paragraph (1), sec. 89-103 herein.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment substituted "the state water conservation board" or "said board" for "the state engineer" or "said engineer" in five places in subsection (3); deleted "(other than his salary)" which followed "incurred by the state engineer" near the beginning of the third sentence of subsection (3); and made other minor changes in phraseology in subsection (3).

89-1208. (7173) Compensation of commissioners—penalty for interest in contract—bonds of commissioners. The commissioners, when sitting as a board or when engaged in the business of the district, shall each receive not to exceed twenty dollars ($20), per day for services, and, in addition thereto, their necessary expenses in attending meetings, or when otherwise engaged on district business, including premiums on qualifying bonds and any other bonds required of them in connection with their office, provided such expenses and per diem be approved by a unanimous vote of said board and a mileage allowance of twelve cents ($.12) per mile in attending board meetings or when engaged in the business of the irrigation district.

No commissioner or any other officer named in this act shall in any manner be interested directly or indirectly, in any contract awarded or to be awarded by the board, or in the profits derived therefrom; and for any violation of this provision, such officer shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and his conviction thereof shall work forfeiture of his office and he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six (6) months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The commissioners of said irrigation district shall each furnish a bond in the penal sum of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500.00), with corporate surety conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties under this act, and the secretary shall furnish bond, with corporate surety, in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1000.00), conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties pursuant to this act, and for the proper and safekeeping of the records and documents of said district, in all cases where the obligations of said district, either existing or proposed, total two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00) or over. In all other cases the bond for said commissioners shall be in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1000.00).

Amendments

The 1965 amendment increased the daily compensation of the commissioners set forth in the first paragraph from $5 to $10.

The 1973 amendment increased the compensation of commissioners from $10 to $20 per day; and added the provision for a mileage allowance at the end of the first paragraph.

CHAPTER 13—IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS, POWERS, DUTIES AND ELECTIONS

Section 89-1301. Powers and duties of commissioners.

89-1301. (7174) Powers and duties of commissioners. The board of commissioners of every irrigation district established and organized under and by virtue of this act shall constitute the corporate authority of said district.

(1) to (4). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(5) But no purchase, lease or contract for purchase of any water, or water rights, or canals, or reservoirs, or reservoir sites, or dam sites, or irrigation works or other property of any nature or kind or for the making or purchasing of surveys, maps, plans, estimates and specifications, or for the purchase of machinery for pumping plants, or the erection of buildings, aqueducts and other structures necessarily used in connection with such pumping plants, for a price or rental in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), shall be final or binding upon the district, nor shall said sum be paid without the written consent or petition of at least a majority in number and acreage of the holders of title or evidence of title to the lands within the district. Any splitting or division of such purchase, lease or contract with the purpose or intention of avoiding or circumventing the provisions of this section shall render such divided or split contract or contracts absolutely null and void.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment increased the amount specified in subdivision (5) from $10,000 to $25,000.

CHAPTER 17—IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—BONDS

Section 89-1701. Limitations on debt-incurring power.
89-1705. Details relating to bonds.
89-1706. Liens of bonds.
89-1708. Delivery of bonds—disposition of proceeds.

89-1701. (7208) Limitations on debt-incurring power. The board of commissioners or other officers of the district shall have no power to incur any debt or liability whatever, either by issuing bonds or otherwise, except as provided in this act; and any debt or liability incurred in excess of such express provisions shall be and remain absolutely void, except that for the purpose of organization or for any of the immediate purposes of this act, or to make or purchase surveys, plans, and specifications, or for stream gauging and gathering data, or to make any repairs occasioned by any calamity or other unforeseen contingency, the board of commissioners may, in any one year, incur the indebtedness of as many dollars as there are acres in the district, and may cause warrants of the district to issue therefor.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted from the end of the section "bearing interest at the rate not to exceed six per centum per annum."

89-1705. (7212) Details relating to bonds. (1) All bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be payable in gold coin of the United States, of the standard weight and finances [fineness] existing at the time of the issue; and shall run for a period not longer than forty (40) years from their date, but may contain a clause providing for their prior redemption and payment, at the option of the board of commissioners of the district, on any interest payment date after five (5) years from their date. Instead of straight maturity bonds, bonds may be issued to mature serially at such times and in such amounts as the board of commissioners shall determine, but no bonds so issued shall run for a longer period than forty (40) years from the date of issue. Said bonds shall bear interest from their date until paid, payable annually or semiannually, the installments of interest to date of maturity of principal to be evidenced by appropriate coupons attached to each bond. Said bonds and interest coupons shall be payable at such place or places, within or without the state of Montana, as the board of commissioners shall prescribe.

(2) Such bonds shall be of such denomination or denominations, and in such form, as the board of commissioners shall prescribe. An issue of bonds is hereby defined to be all the bonds issued in accordance with a resolution or order of the board of commissioners. Each issue of the bonds of a district shall be numbered consecutively as authorized, and the bonds of each issue shall be numbered consecutively. The board of commissioners shall fix the date of said bonds, or may divide any issue into two (2) or more divisions and fix different dates for the bonds of each respective division. The date of any bond must be subsequent to the order or resolution authorizing it and prior to its delivery to a purchaser from the district.

Compiler's Notes

The compiler has inserted the bracketed word "fineness." This was the term used prior to 1971 amendment.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted "at a rate not to exceed six per centum per annum" after "until paid" in the third sentence of subsection (1); and made minor changes in style.

89-1706. (7213) Liens of bonds. All bonds issued hereunder and all amounts to be paid to the United States under any contract between the district and the United States, accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States as in section 89-1301 provided, shall be a lien upon all the lands originally or at any time included in the district for the irrigation and benefit of which said irrigation district was organized and said bonds were issued, and for the benefit of which such contract between the district and the United States was made, except upon such lands as may at any time be included in such district on account of the exchange or substitution of water under the provisions of section 89-1611, if any there be; and all such lands shall be subject to a special tax or assessment for the payment of the interest on and principal of said bonds; and all amounts to be paid to the United States under any such contract between the district and the United States, and said special tax or assessment, shall constitute a first and prior lien on the land against which levied, to the same extent and with like force and effect as taxes levied for state and county purposes.

All liens herein created shall remain upon the lands for a period of eight (8) years after the date of maturity of the obligation; thereafter, the lands and the titles thereto shall be free from any such liens.

The 1973 amendment added the second paragraph.

89-1708. (7215) Delivery of bonds—disposition of proceeds. In the event that bonds are sold for cash, they shall be delivered by the board of commissioners to the county treasurer of the county wherein the office of the district is located, who shall deliver them to the purchaser upon receipt of the purchase price therefor, and after making a complete record of the same. Delivery of the bonds sold may be made by the county treasurer to the purchaser at any place or places within or without the state of Montana, and said county treasurer may receive the proceeds of the sale of said bonds at said place or places of delivery. The county treasurer shall thereupon place the proceeds of said sale to the credit of said district; and the same shall be paid out by the county treasurer only upon the written order of the board of commissioners, signed by the president and secretary under the seal of the district. Said proceeds shall be expended for the purpose or purposes for which said bonds were issued, and for no other. Provided, in case any portion of the funds realized from the sale of bonds are not needed immediately for the purpose for which said bonds were issued, the board of commissioners whenever, in its judgment, the same may be to the best interests of the district, shall have the power and authority to direct the investment of such funds, and any other surplus funds of the district, or any portion thereof, in interest-bearing securities of the United States, or of the state of Montana, or in interest-bearing certificates of deposit of national or state banks approved by the state superintendent of banks; provided, however, that in the event of such deposit said banks shall first furnish an indemnity bond to be approved by said board of commissioners and the state superintendent of banks. The county treasurer shall transfer to the credit of the district, and place to the credit of such fund or funds as the board of commissioners may direct, all interest received upon money or securities of the district entrusted to his care.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 146, L. 1909; re-en. Sec. 7215, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 157, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 258, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted "and any other surplus funds of the district" after "investment of such fund" in the fifth sentence.

CHAPTER 18—IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS

Section 89-1801. Tax or assessment to pay bonds and interest.
89-1804. Annual tax levy—apportionment when tracts divided.
89-1811. County treasurer as custodian of district funds.
89-1812. Collection of taxes or assessment.

89-1801. (7232) Tax or assessment to pay bonds and interest. (1). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(2) It shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of the district, in the order or resolution authorizing and directing the issuance of bonds of the district, mentioned in section 89-1703, to provide for the annual levy and collection of a special tax or assessment upon all the lands included in the district and subject to taxation and assessment as aforesaid, sufficient in amount to meet the interest on said bonds promptly when and as the same accrues, and to discharge the principal thereof at their maturity, or respective maturities, and to meet all payments due or to become due to the United States under any contract between the district and the United States, accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States as in section 89-1301 provided, at the times such payments by such contract become due and payable. Where straight maturity bonds are issued, it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners of the district to create and maintain a sinking fund sufficient to pay and discharge said bonds at maturity. If said bonds shall be issued for twenty (20) years or less, there shall be annually levied for such sinking fund a special tax or assessment, as aforesaid, sufficient to produce a net amount represented by the quotient found by dividing the aggregate amount of the principal of the bonds by the number of years the bonds have to run; but if said bonds are issued for more than twenty (20) years, then it shall not be necessary to levy a special tax or assessment for sinking fund until the twentieth year prior to the maturity of the bonds, at which time and each year thereafter there shall be levied and collected a special tax or assessment sufficient to produce a net sum equal to one-twentieth (1/20) part of the aggregate amount of the principal of the bonds.

(4) In the event that for any reason any special tax or assessment hereinabove provided for cannot or shall not be levied and collected in time to meet any interest falling due on any bonds issued hereunder, then the board of commissioners shall have the power and authority, and it shall be their duty, to provide for and pay such interest when due, either out of any of the funds in hand in the treasury of the district not otherwise appropriated, or by warrants drawn against the next district tax or assessment levied or to be levied. Said warrants shall be in addition to those mentioned in section 89-1701.

History: En. Sec. 46, Ch. 146, L. 1909; amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 145, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 7232, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 34, Ch. 234, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted "(which may bear interest at a rate not to exceed six per centum per annum)" after "or by warrants" near the end of the first sentence of subsection (4); and made minor changes in style.

89-1804. (7235) Annual tax levy—apportionment when tracts divided. (1) and (2). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(3) Whenever the board of commissioners has provided for the payment of any indebtedness of the district by levy of a special tax or assessment, and thereafter makes provision for the payment of said indebtedness by the issuance of bonds, said board may cancel any portion or all of said levy theretofore made to raise funds to pay said indebtedness; and whenever said board has provided for the payment of any indebtedness of the district by the authorization of bonds and the levy of a special tax or assessment to pay the principal of and interest on said bonds, the [and] thereafter cancels said issue of bonds as provided for in section 89-1707 said board may cancel any portion or all of said levy theretofore made to raise funds to pay the principal of or interest on said bonds so canceled, and refund to the respective persons paying the same the funds, if any, in the custody of the county treasurer collected for the purpose of meeting the principal of and interest on such bonds so canceled.

(4) Any land or lands which may for any reason have escaped assessment in any previous year or years may be assessed or listed for the omitted years and omitted charges, in any subsequent year at the time of the making of the assessment in and for such subsequent year, but no such assessment shall be made later than three years after the occurrence of such omission.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted subdivision (3) and renumbered former subdivisions (4) and (5) as subdivisions (3) and (4).

89-1811. (7239) County treasurer as custodian of district funds. The county treasurer of the county wherein the office of an irrigation district is located shall be the custodian of all funds belonging to the district, and he shall pay out such funds upon the order of the board of commissioners, except as to payments on bonds and interest, for which no order shall be necessary. Where any portion of the funds belonging to a district have been collected for the purpose of establishing a reserve fund, the county treasurer shall pay such portion to the district on order of the district's board of commissioners, who shall have authority to invest the same in state or federal bonds or in savings certificates of institutions insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation. Where moneys of a district in the United States contract fund established pursuant to section 89-1809 are in excess of those needed to pay a district's next succeeding annual contract obligation or obligations to the United States, such excess, or any part thereof, may, upon order of the district's board of commissioners, and with the consent of the United States officer administering the contract for which the contract fund has been established, be paid to the district for use in meeting other obligations of the district. Such orders of the board of commissioners shall be signed by the president and secretary of the board, and shall bear the official seal of the district.

History: En. Sec. 53, Ch. 146, L. 1909; amd. Sec. 18, Ch. 145, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 7239, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 137, L. 1971.

Compiler's Notes

The reference to section 89-1809 appearing in the third sentence of this section is apparently erroneous. The probable intent was to refer to subdivision (3) of section 89-1801.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment divided the former first sentence into the present first and fourth sentences; deleted "and payments under any contract between the district and the United States, accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States, as in section 89-1301 provided" before "for which no order shall be necessary" at the end of the first sentence; inserted new second and third sentences; deleted a final sentence reading "Where such orders are for the payment of money for construction work, the same shall be accompanied by and attached to the written estimate of the engineer in charge of such construction work"; and made minor changes in phaseology.

89-1812. (7240) Collection of taxes or assessment. On or before the third Monday in August of each year the board of commissioners shall furnish the agent of the department of revenue in each county in which any of the lands of the district are situate, a correct list of all the district lands in such county, together with the amount of the total taxes or assessments against said lands for district purposes. The agent of the department of revenue in each county shall immediately thereafter cause said assessment roll to be entered in the assessment book of said county for each year, and prior to the delivery of the assessment book to the county treasurer. The county treasurer of each county shall collect such taxes or assessments in the same manner and at the same time as county and state taxes.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "agent of the department of revenue" for "county assessor" in two places in order to implement article VIII, section 3 of the 1972 constitution.

89-1832. (7250) Sale or transfer of lands.

Highway Condemnation

State highway commission acquiring land for highway purposes is not liable for assessment and taxes by irrigation district since land taken will no longer benefit from services provided by district, notwithstanding contention of district that takings so reduced total irrigable acreage of district as to increase per-acre cost of operation and maintenance of remainder. Helena Valley Irrig. Dist. v. State Highway Commission, 150 M 192, 433 P 2d 791.

CHAPTER 21—IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—APPEALS—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 89-2107. Records—inspection—fees—reports.

89-2107. (7260) Records—inspection—fees—reports. (1) and (2). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(3) It shall be the duty of the board of commissioners to file with the county clerk and recorder of the county in which the district is located, annually, within ten (10) days from and after March 1 of each year, a sworn report showing the assets and liabilities of the district, the amount of money received during the preceding year, and the amount expended during said time, and shall cause said report to be published at least once in the official newspaper of such county.

(4) It shall be the duty of the state examiner or his representative to notify the secretaries of such districts of the time of presenting the books and records at the courthouse for examination.

(5) The costs incurred by the state examiner and his assistants in conducting the examinations of irrigation districts shall be reimbursed to the state at the rate of seventy dollars ($70) per day for each person engaged in an examination, and the moneys shall be paid at the conclusion of the examination to the state treasurer who shall credit such payment to the general fund of the state.

CHAPTER 23—DRAINAGE DISTRICTS—COMMISSIONERS—ELECTION—ORGANIZATION—REPORTS

Section 89-2330. Report as to assessments.
89-2330.1. Taxpayers' approval required for assessments on improvements.
89-2330.2. Improvements not assessable by districts created for drainage only.
89-2332. Report as to assessments against lots and corporations.
89-2333. Report as to special benefits to corporations.
89-2334. Apportionment of costs of construction.
89-2337. Commissioners to use most feasible plan—alteration by court.
89-2338. Extension or reduction of boundaries—alteration by court.
89-2348. Assessments for construction—annual installment.

89-2330. (7307) Report as to assessments. Fourth. What lands, (including improvements when improvements receive benefits) easements, irrigation ditches, cities, towns, counties, individuals and other corporations and persons should be assessed for the payment of any part of the cost of constructing the proposed drains, levees or other facilities, repairs thereto, maintenance thereof and the incidental expenses attached to the establishment of such drainage district. In apportioning such costs and expenses, the following principles shall be regarded and the following classes of property, persons, corporations and municipalities shall be assessed:

All lands which are swampy, bogged or waterlogged, and will be relieved and improved by virtue of the construction of the proposed drainage system;

All lands which are becoming, or are liable to become swampy, bogged, or waterlogged, and which the construction of the proposed drainage system will prevent from being thus affected;

All lands from which surface or seepage waters will enter or can be conducted into the proposed drainage system;

All lands and improvements thereto upon which or through which, surface or seepage water will be prevented from flowing, or can be prevented from flowing, by virtue of the construction of the proposed drainage system;

All lands or improvements which will sustain any direct benefit of any kind or character whatsoever;

All railways, whether operated by steam, electricity or otherwise, whose right of way or roadbed will be benefited or can be benefited by reason of the construction of the proposed drainage system, or levee project, and all public utilities whose easements or other facilities within the district will receive benefit from the proposed work;

All owners of irrigation ditches or canals included within said district or from which water seeps, drains or wastes to, upon or through lands included within the said district;

The county or counties which the proposed drainage system traverses, or which will be benefited as to public health, convenience, welfare or improvement of any public highway;

All incorporated cities or towns, and lands included within townsites and subdivisions, in whole or in part, directly benefited by reason of the construction of the proposed drainage system;

All of the above classes of lands, improvements, railways, public utilities, irrigation ditches, counties, cities, towns, townsites and subdivisions shall be liable to assessment for the construction of the proposed drainage system in such proportions as may seem just and equitable.

The benefits to accrue from the construction of the proposed drainage system, to a railway, county, incorporated city or town, and lands included within a platted townsite or subdivision being of a different character than those to accrue to agricultural lands shall be considered in apportioning the assessment, and also, the damages and inconvenience caused by seepage and waste waters from irrigation ditches and from the higher lands, shall be considered in apportioning the assessment to them.

Provided that in the case of the construction of levees or other flood control facilities, lands and improvements which are located or constructed at an elevation which is greater than the elevation of the design flood level which said levees or other flood control facilities are designed to protect against shall not be assessed for the payment of any part of the cost of constructing the levees or other flood control facilities nor shall such lands or improvements be assessed for the payment of any part of the cost for repairs thereto, maintenance thereof nor the incidental expenses attached to the establishment of such drainage district.

The assessment against each tract, lot, easement, town, city, county, irrigation ditch, railroad, public utility, individual or corporation owner thereof which will be benefited by the proposed work or which, in any manner, contributes to the swamped, seeped, bogged or waterlogged condition of any land within said district and the proportionate share of cost of construction of the proposed drainage system, which each of them should bear shall be shown in tabular form, the columns of which shall be headed as follows: Column 1—Owners of property assessed; 2—Description of property assessed; 3—Number of acres assessed; 4—Amount of benefits assessed; 5—Number of acres taken for right of way; 6—Value of property taken; 7—Damages; 8—Assessment for costs; which shall be known as the assessment roll. Where property, persons or corporations, public or private, contribute to the damaged condition of the lands to be reclaimed, it shall not be necessary to assess in such assessment roll the benefits to be derived by or accruing to them.

History: En. Sec. 43, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7307, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 169, L. 1929; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 409, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted the parenthetical phrase near the beginning of the first sentence; inserted "levees or other facilities" in the first sentence; inserted "and improvements thereto" in the clause relating to land over which surface or seepage water will be prevented from flowing; inserted "or improvements" in the clause relating to lands which will sustain direct benefit; added "or levee project, and all public utilities whose easements or other facilities within the district will receive benefit from the proposed work" at the end of the clause relating to railways; inserted "improvements" and "public utilities" in the clause relating to lands liable to assessment; inserted the paragraph constituting a proviso; and inserted "public utility" near the beginning of the final paragraph.

Highway Commission Property

Flood control district could assess property and improvements consisting of graded land, drainage culverts, highway bridges, roadbeds, and pavement, within district's exterior boundaries, which were owned or under lease by state highway commission. State Highway Commission v. West Great Falls Flood Control & Drainage District, 155 M 157, 468 P 2d 753, explained in — M —, 496 P 2d 1143, 1151.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Improvements

Special assessments for flood control purposes are limited to land exclusive of improvements. In re West Great Falls Flood Control & Drainage Dist., — M —, 496 P 2d 1143. (Decision prior to 1973 amendment).

89-2330.1. Taxpayers' approval required for assessments on improvements. It shall require a vote of the persons on the assessment rolls in any existing district to make this law applicable to such districts. Such election shall be held in the same manner as prescribed for drainage district elections in Title 89, chapter 23.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 409, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to amend the statutes relating to the creation and operation of drainage districts in the state of Montana, and their adaptation to flood control projects, as contained in sections 89-2201 through 89-2825, R. C. M. 1947, so as to provide that when benefits of such projects are received by improvements to land, or facilities or structures placed on or in land, the benefits so received may be subject to assessment for district costs of the project; amending section 89-2330 to include improvements, facilities and structures as subject to assessment and clarifying the inclusion of public utilities in the payment of assessments; amending sections 89-2332, 89-2333, 89-2334, 89-2337, 89-2338, 89-2405, and 89-2410, R. C. M. 1947, so as to include improvements; and providing an effective date.

89-2330.2. Improvements not assessable by districts created for drainage only. Nothing in this act confers upon districts created for drainage purposes only the authority to levy assessments on benefits to improvements.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 409, L. 1973.

Effective Date

Section 12 of Ch. 409, Laws 1973 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 21, 1973.

89-2332. (7309) Report as to assessments against lots and corporations. If the cost of construction of any particular part of the work so proposed to be done should be assessed upon any particular tract or tracts, lot or lots of land, including improvements where the same are benefited, or upon any corporation or corporations, the commissioners shall so specify, and in their report they shall fix and determine the sums which should be assessed against said tracts, lots, and corporations, and assess such sum against said tracts, lots, and corporations.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7309, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 409, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted "including improvements where the same are benefited."

89-2333. (7310) Report as to special benefits to corporations. And if any individual, association of individuals or corporation would, in the judgment of said commissioners, derive special benefits from the whole or any part of such proposed work, the commissioners shall so report and assess those benefits and assess against the recipient thereof its proportionate share of the costs of said proposed work. The word "corporation," whenever in this act contained, shall be construed to include:

1 to 7. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 46, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7310, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 409, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted "individual, association of individuals or" near the beginning of the first sentence; and substituted "the recipient thereof" for "the same" near the end of the first sentence.

89-2334. (7311) Apportionment of costs of construction. They shall apportion and assess the part of this "cost of construction," not assessed as above, against the several benefited tracts, lots, (including improvements when the same are benefited) and easements in said drainage district, in proportion to the benefits which they have assessed against the same, by setting down opposite each tract, lot, or easement the sum which they assess against the same for construction. The assessments which together make up the cost of construction, as above defined, are herein referred to as "assessments for construction."

History: En. Sec. 47, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7311, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 409, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted "(including improvements when the same are benefited)."

89-2337. (7314) Commissioners to use most feasible plan—alteration by court. The commissioners shall not be confined to the points of commencement, routes, or termini of the drains or ditches, or the number, extent, or size of the same, or the location, plan, or extent of any levee, ditch, or other work, as proposed by the petitioners, but shall locate, design, lay out, and plan the same in such manner as to them shall seem best, to promote the public health or welfare, and to drain, or to protect the lands, including improvements, of the parties interested with the least damage and the greatest benefit to all lands affected thereby. And any plan proposed by the commissioners may, on the application of any person interested, on the hearing hereinafter provided for, or on the application of the commissioners, be altered by the court, by written order, in such manner as shall appear to the court to be just.

History: En. Sec. 50, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7314, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 409, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted "including improvements" following "or to protect the lands" near the end of the first sentence.

89-2338. (7315) Extension or reduction of boundaries—alteration by court. If the commissioners find that the proposed district, as described in the petition filed, will not embrace all of the lands, including improvements, that will be benefited by the proposed work, or that it will include lands that will not be benefited and are not necessary to be included in said district for any purpose, they shall extend or contract the boundaries of the proposed district so as to include or exclude all such lands, or improvements, as the case may be; and the boundaries adopted and reported by them may, upon the hearing of their report, as hereinafter provided, upon their application, or that of any person interested, be altered by the court in such manner as shall appear to be just; provided, that the alteration of boundaries as aforesaid shall not have the effect of so far enlarging or contracting the proposed district as to render such petition void or dismissable. Said report shall be filed with the clerk of the court.

History: En. Sec. 51, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7315, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 409, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted the references to improvements in the first sentence.

89-2348. (7325) Assessments for construction—annual installment. At the time of the confirmation of such assessments, it shall be competent for the court to order the assessment for construction of new work, to be paid in not more than fifteen (15) annual installments, of such amounts and at such times as will be convenient for the accomplishment of the proposed work, or for the payment of the principal and interest of such notes or bonds of said district, as the court shall grant authority to issue, for the construction of new work. The court shall also, by such order, fix a date on which the first installment of the assessments for construction shall become due, not more than five (5) years after the date of the order, and each of said installments shall draw interest at the rate fixed by the court in accordance with law from the date of said order.

History: En. Sec. 61, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7325, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 35, Ch. 234, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted "fixed by the court in accordance with law" for "of seven per cent per annum" near the end of the section; and made a minor change in style.

89-2349. (7326) Lien of assessments—payments of assessments, etc.

Highway Commission Property

Flood control district could assess property and improvements consisting of graded land, drainage culverts, highway bridges, roadbeds, and pavement, within exterior boundaries of district, which were owned or under lease by state highway commission. State Highway Commission v. West Great Falls Flood Control & Drainage District, 155 M 157, 468 P 2d 753, explained in — M —, 496 P 2d 1143, 1151.

CHAPTER 24—DRAINAGE DISTRICTS—TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS

Section 89-2401. District taxes—how certified and collected.
89-2405. Procedure on failure to certify assessments.
89-2410. Additional assessments, procedure to levy.

89-2401. (7329) District taxes—How certified and collected. On or before the third Monday in August of each year the commissioners shall certify to the agent of the department of revenue in each county wherein the lands of the district are situate, a correct list of all the district lands in such county and the owners thereof, together with a statement of the amount of the total tax or assessment against said lands for district purposes for that year. The agent of the department of revenue in each county shall immediately thereupon cause said assessment roll to be entered in the assessment book of said county for each year and prior to the delivery of the assessment book to the county treasurer. The county treasurer of each county shall collect such taxes or assessments at the same time and in the same manner as county and state taxes.

History: En. Sec. 65, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7329, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 12, L. 1945; amd. Sec. 66, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "agent of the department of revenue in" for "county assessor of" in two places in order to implement article VIII, section 3 of the 1972 constitution.

89-2405. (7333) Procedure on failure to certify assessments. When commissioners shall fail to certify to the county treasurer of the proper county any one or more drainage assessments for construction or repair, or additional assessment against any lands (including improvements where benefited) in said district, at the proper time, they may certify the same to the county treasurer at any time thereafter, whether in the same or any subsequent year.

History: En. Sec. 69, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7333, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 409, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted the parenthetical phrase relating to improvements benefited.

89-2410. (7338) Additional assessments, procedure to levy. If in the first assessment for construction the commissioners shall have reported to the court a smaller sum than is needed to complete the work of construction, or if in any year an additional sum is necessary to pay the lawful indebtedness of said drainage district, further or additional assessments on the land (including improvements where benefited) and corporations benefited, proportioned on the last assessment of benefits which has been approved by the court, shall be made by the commissioners of said drainage district under the order of the court or presiding judge thereof; provided, however, that the total assessments for original construction and any additional assessments, other than for maintenance, incidental expense, and interest on bonds, shall, in no event, exceed the total assessments of benefits as provided in section 89-2330. Notice of the hearing of the application for such additional assessment shall be published at least once each week for three consecutive weeks in one newspaper published in each county in which said lands, or any part thereof, within said district are situated; which further or additional assessment may be made payable in installments as specified in section 89-2348, and shall be treated and collected in the same manner as the original assessments for construction confirmed by the court in said drainage district.

History: En. Sec. 74, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7338, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 409, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted the parenthetical phrase relating to improvements.

Separability Clause

Section 9 of Ch. 409, Laws 1973 read "The provisions of this act shall be severable, and if any of its provisions, sections, or parts be held unconstitutional or void, the remainder of this act shall continue in full force and effect."

CHAPTER 25—DRAINAGE DISTRICTS—BONDS—REFUNDING INDEBTEDNESS

Section 89-2501. Borrowing money—procedure to issue notes or bonds.
89-2502. Refunding indebtedness of district.

89-2501. (7343) Borrowing money — procedure to issue notes or bonds. (1) The commissioners may borrow money not exceeding the amount of assessment for the cost of construction and additional assessments, as provided in section 89-2350, unpaid at the time of borrowing, for the construction or repair of any work which they shall be authorized to construct or repair, or for the payment of any indebtedness which they may have lawfully incurred, and may issue notes or negotiable coupon bonds on the district, bearing interest, payable semiannually and not running beyond one (1) year after the payment of the last installment of the assessment, on account of which money is borrowed, shall fall due.

(2) Before the issuance of said notes or bonds, the commissioners shall pass a resolution providing for the issuance of such notes or bonds, which said resolution shall fix the rate of interest which said notes or bonds shall bear, the time of payment and, if redeemable before maturity, the date thereof, and shall prescribe the denominations, not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), and form thereof, and may provide that both the principal and interest of said notes and bonds shall be payable at some convenient banking house, or trust company's office, to be named in said notes or bonds; such notes or bonds, and the coupons attached thereto, shall bear the signatures of the president and the secretary of the drainage district; and the corporate seal of the drainage district shall be affixed to each of the notes or bonds.

(3) Upon execution, the notes or bonds shall be deposited with the county treasurer, who shall register the same in a book for that purpose, which shall show the number and amount of each note or bond, its date, the date payable and redeemable, where payable, the person to whom issued, and upon sale of the said notes or bonds, the county treasurer shall deliver the same to the person or persons to whom sold, upon their making payment for the same; said notes or bonds may be sold by the commissioners at either public or private sale, either with or without advertisement as they may deem it to the best interests of the district; said notes or bonds shall not be sold at less than ninety per cent (90%) of their face value; said notes or bonds shall not be held to make the commissioners personally liable, but shall constitute a lien upon the assessments for the repayment of the principal and interest of such notes or bonds.

(4). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 79, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7343, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 260, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 36, Ch. 234, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment, deleted "at a rate not to exceed six per centum per annum" after "bearing interest" in the latter part of subsection (1); deleted "not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually" after "interest which said notes or bonds shall bear" near the beginning of subsection (2); and made minor changes in style.

89-2502. (7344) Refunding indebtedness of district. And the court may, on the petition of the commissioners, authorize them to refund any lawful indebtedness of the district by taking up and canceling all of its outstanding notes and bonds, as fast as they become due, or before, if the holders thereof will surrender the same, and issuing in lieu thereof new notes or bonds of such district, payable in such longer time as the court shall deem proper, not to exceed in the aggregate the amount of all notes and bonds of the district then outstanding, and the unpaid accrued interest thereon.

History: En. Sec. 80, Ch. 129, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 7344, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 42, Ch. 234, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted from the end of the section "and bearing interest not exceeding six per cent per annum."

CHAPTER 29—APPROPRIATION AND REGULATION OF GROUND WATER

Section 89-2911. Definitions.
89-2915. Limiting withdrawals—hearing and order.
89-2917. Scope of administrative hearing.
89-2918. Permit required to appropriate in controlled area.
89-2928.1. Well logs.
89-2934.1. Hearings before board—Administrative Procedure Act.

89-2911. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in this chapter:

(a) "Ground water" means any fresh water beneath the land surface or beneath the bed of a stream, lake, reservoir or other body of surface water, and which is not a part of that surface water. Fresh water shall be deemed to be water fit for domestic, livestock or agricultural use. The administrator, after notice and hearing, is authorized to fix definite standards for determining fresh water in any controlled ground water area or subarea of the state.

(b) and (c). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(d) "Beneficial use" means a use of water for the benefit of the appropriator, other persons or the public, including, but not limited to, agricultural (including stock water), domestic, fish and wildlife, industrial, irrigation, mining, municipal, power, and recreational uses.

(e) "Person" means an individual, association, partnership, corporation, state agency, political subdivision, and the United States or any agency thereof.

(f) "Administrator" means the department of natural resources and conservation provided for in Title 82A, chapter 15.

(h) "Board" means the board of natural resources and conservation provided for in section 82A-1509.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 237, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 280, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 307, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 40, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment substituted "state water conservation board" for "state engineer" in paragraph (f).

The 1971 amendment substituted "Montana water resources board" for "state water conservation board" in subdivision (f); added a subdivision (h) defining "notice of appropriation," a subdivision (i) defining "notice of completion" and a subdivision (j) defining "declaration of vested ground water rights"; and made minor changes in punctuation and phraseology.

The 1973 amendment inserted "Unless the context requires otherwise" at the beginning of the section; deleted "or regulations issued hereunder" from the end of the preliminary clause; inserted "and which is not a part of that surface water" at the end of the first sentence in subdivision (a); substituted subdivision (d) for a subdivision defining "beneficial use" as "any economically or socially justifiable withdrawal or utilization of water"; substituted "an individual" for "any natural person" in subdivision (e); substituted "state agency, political subdivision" in subdivision (e) for "municipality, irrigation district, the state of Montana or any political subdivision or agency thereof"; substituted subdivision (f) for a subdivision defining "administrator" as "the Montana water resources board"; deleted the subdivisions (h), (i) and (j) added by the 1971 amendment; added a new subdivision (h); and made minor changes in phraseology.

Repeal

Sections 89-2912, 89-2913 (Secs. 2, 3, Ch. 237, L. 1961; Sec. 1, Ch. 21, L. 1965; Sec. 2, Ch. 307, L. 1971), relating to appropriations of ground water, were repealed by Sec. 46, Ch. 452, Laws 1973. For new law, see secs. 89-880 to 89-888.

89-2915. Limiting withdrawals—hearing and order. (1) At the time set for the hearing the board, if it is satisfied that the notice of hearing has been duly published and mailed as required by section 89-2914, shall proceed to hear evidence and may consider information which the administrator has duly obtained under this act, and after the conclusion of the hearing shall make written findings and an order. If the board finds on the basis of the hearing and other information obtained by the administrator that the withdrawal of ground water in such area or subarea exceeds the safe annual yield of ground water as measured by the recharge of the area or subarea, it shall order the aggregate withdrawal of ground water from such area or subarea decreased so that it shall not exceed such annual yield. Except for domestic use, such decrease shall conform to the priority of the pertinent rights and shall prevail for the term of shortage in the available supply. The administrator shall have the authority to enforce the order; to require persons to cease such excessive withdrawals in reverse order of their priority of rights; and to bring an action for an injunction in a district court of a district in which all or part of the area affected is located, in addition to all other remedies.

(2) The order of the board shall be published and mailed by the administrator in the manner and for the length of time as prescribed by section 89-2914 for the publication and mailing of the notice of hearing except that a copy of the written findings of the board shall be mailed instead of a copy of the proposal, and except further, that a copy of the order together with a copy of the written findings shall be mailed to each petitioner at his last known address. Upon publication and mailing of such order, as prescribed herein, the order shall be final and conclusive unless an appeal therefrom is taken.

(3) Once a petition has been filed and an order has been made limiting the withdrawal of ground water from a particular ground water area or subarea, as provided in this section, the board shall have authority after notice and hearing as heretofore provided in this section, to modify or revoke its order upon a showing by any interested party and a finding by the board that conditions have materially changed since the prior order. While a matter is pending before the board, the administrator shall have discretion and authority to restrict further development of the subarea.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment numbered the subsections; substituted references to the board for references to the administrator in relation to quasi-legislative functions; inserted "on the basis of the hearing and other information obtained by the administrator" near the beginning of the second sentence in subsection (1); and deleted "within the time and in the manner prescribed in section 89-2920" from the end of subsection (2).

89-2917. Scope of administrative hearing. (1) In any hearing for the ascertainment and finding of priorities to the use of ground water, the administrator in its finding and order shall confirm, modify, alter or amend any prior order designating and modifying the boundaries of the ground water area or subarea involved, as the evidence justifies, shall determine the priority of rights and the quantity of ground water to which each appropriator, who is a party to the proceedings, shall be entitled in such particular ground water area or subarea, and shall find and determine any other matter necessary to the ascertainment of priorities of such existing rights to ground water. It may also determine the level below which the ground water shall not be drawn by appropriators. The administrator shall act in administering and enforcing the provisions of the order, as provided in section 89-2915.

(2) A copy of the order shall be recorded in the office of the clerk and recorder of each county in which the particular ground water area or subarea is located. If the order is not appealed, the order of the administrator shall be final and conclusive when it is published and mailed as provided for orders issued under section 89-2915.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 237, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 42, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment numbered the subsections; deleted "within the time limit and otherwise as is provided in section 89-2920" following "If the order is not appealed" in the second sentence of subsection (2); and made minor changes in phraseology.

89-2918. Permit required to appropriate in controlled area. A person may appropriate ground water in a controlled area only by applying for and receiving a permit from the administrator in accordance with the Montana Water Use Act. The administrator shall not grant a permit if the withdrawal would be beyond the capacity of the aquifer or aquifers in the ground water area to yield ground water within a reasonable or feasible pumping lift (in the case of pumping developments) or within a reasonable or feasible reduction of pressure (in the case of artesian developments).

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 237, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 43, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted the first sentence for six sentences requiring a permit to appropriate ground water in a controlled area and prescribing the procedure for issuance of a permit. For prior law, see parent volume.

89-2919 to 89-2925. Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 89-2919 to 89-2925 (Secs. 9 to 15, Ch. 237, L. 1961), relating to hearings and appeals and to change of location or abandonment, were repealed by Sec. 46, Ch. 452, Laws 1973. For new law, see secs. 89-892, 89-894 and 89-2934.1.

89-2926. Waste and contamination of ground water prohibited, etc.

Sealing "Shot" Hole

Sealing "shot" holes by pouring excess cuttings down into the holes and plugging the orifices by forcing an aluminum plug into the holes so that the tops of the plugs were below plow depth, did not violate this section when the holes were only four and one-half inches in diameter and expert testimony indicated that seismographic holes tended to slough, cave and release lateral support from materials around the hole causing pressure from the weight of the earth above to force the material towards the center, sealing the hole. Haynie v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 158 M 247, 490 P 2d 715.

89-2928.1. Well logs. Within sixty (60) days after any well is completed, the driller shall file with the administrator a well log report on a form provided by the administrator at its offices and at the offices of the county clerks and recorders. The administrator may return the report for refiling if it is incomplete or incorrect. The administrator shall provide a copy of the complete and correct well log to the Montana bureau of mines and geology.

History: En. 89-2928.1 by Sec. 44, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

89-2934.1. Hearings before board—Administrative Procedure Act. (1) A person who is aggrieved by a final decision of the administrator under this chapter, is entitled to a hearing before the board.

(2) The Montana Administrative Procedure Act [82-4201 to 82-4225] governs administrative proceedings under this chapter.

History: En. 89-2934.1 by Sec. 45, Ch. 452, L. 1973.

Repealing Clause

Section 46 of Ch. 452, Laws 1973 read "Sections 89-121 through 89-123, 89-801 through 89-804, 89-807 through 89-816, 89-829 through 89-842, 89-844 and 89-845, 89-847 through 89-855, 89-857 through 89-864, 89-2912, 89-2913, 89-2919 through 89-2925, 89-2935, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

Separability Clause

Section 47 of Ch. 452, Laws 1973 read "If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications."

89-2935. Repealed.

Repeal

Section 89-2935 (Sec. 25, Ch. 237, L. 1961), relating to filing fees, was repealed by Sec. 46, Ch. 452, Laws 1973.

CHAPTER 33—COUNTY AND MUNICIPAL PARTICIPATION IN FLOOD CONTROL AND WATER CONSERVATION

Section 89-3301. Participation in projects authorized—work which may be undertaken.
89-3302. Water conservation and flood control activities declared public purpose.
89-3303. Acquisition of property—condemnation.
89-3304. Acceptance of aid—assumption of remaining cost.
89-3305. Right of way and construction costs.
89-3306. Direction of project.
89-3307. Contributions to right of way costs—agreement to maintain works.
89-3308. Street or road fund used.
89-3309. Levy of special assessment—apportionment to property benefited.
89-3309.1. Charges to be levied.
89-3310. Contracts for use of railroads and highways.
89-3311. Division of work into parts—separate proceedings for parts.
89-3312. Indebtedness and bonds—bond election—special assessment to pay indebtedness.
89-3313. Powers additional.
89-3314. Provisions to provide alternative method.

89-3301. Participation in projects authorized—work which may be undertaken. Cities, towns or counties, through their councils, boards of county commissioners, or other governing body, are hereby empowered, either individually or jointly, to engage or participate in the establishment of water conservation and flood control projects within the limits of such city, town or county for the protection or reclamation of property situated therein from floods or high waters and to protect property therein from the effects of flood water, and for the conservation, development, storage, distribution, drainage and utilization of water for purposes beneficial to the district, such purposes to include but not be limited to industrial and municipal water supply, recreation and wildlife, irrigation, streamflow stabilization, household and domestic use and pollution abatement, whenever the establishment of such a water conservation and flood control system shall, in the judgment of the city council, board of county commissioners or other governing body, be conducive to public convenience and welfare. Such cities, towns or counties may in accordance with the provisions of this act individually, jointly or severally, or in co-operation with the federal or state government or any department or agency thereof, and with each other, deepen, widen, straighten, alter, change, divert or otherwise improve the watercourses within or without their limits, by constructing levees, dikes, embankments, structures, impounding reservoirs or conduits, and improve, widen and establish streets, alleys and boulevards across and adjacent to the abandoned or new channel or conduit and provide for the payment of the cost and maintenance of such project or projects under the terms of this act. The boundaries of a project once established shall not be extended without the vote of a majority of the electors residing in the area proposed to be annexed. Such electors to be determined and such election to be held in accordance with the provisions of section 89-3312 of this act.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 272, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

Title of Act

An act authorizing cities, towns or counties to participate in flood control or flood prevention projects, to acquire property for such purpose, to accept federal aid for such purpose, providing for division of expenses in connection with such purpose, providing for assessments, permitting the cities, towns or counties to enter into certain contracts in pursuance of such purpose, authorizing the issuance of general obligation bonds for such purpose upon an election thereon, authorizing the state water conservation board to co-ordinate such activities when two or more counties are involved and for that purpose appropriating to the state water conservation board the sum of one dollar ($1) from the general fund of the state of Montana for the biennium commencing July 1, 1965, containing a repealing clause and containing a savings clause.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment substituted "water conservation and flood control projects" for "a flood control or flood prevention project" after "establishment of" in the first sentence, inserted "and for the conservation, development, * * * pollution abatement" before "whenever" and inserted "water conservation and" after "such a"; inserted "or state" after "federal" in the second sentence, substituted "such project or projects" for "such flood control project" before "under the terms" near the end of the second sentence and added the last sentence.

89-3302. Water conservation and flood control activities declared public purpose. Such water conservation and flood control activities, their establishment, construction, operation and maintenance as authorized by this act are declared to be for the protection of the tax base of the city, town or county, for the protection of public roads, lands and improvements, and for the protection of the public health, sanitation, safety and for improvement of the general welfare.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 272, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted "water conservation and" after "Such" at the beginning of the section and inserted "for improvement of the" before "general welfare" at the end of the section.

89-3303. Acquisition of property—condemnation. Cities, towns and counties may acquire by gift, purchase or condemn and appropriate private property within the limits of the project, including the right to cross railroad right of way and property and highway right of way and property, so as not to impair the previous public use, as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and to provide an outlet for the watercourses, either natural or artificial, which may be deepened, widened, straightened, altered, changed, diverted or otherwise improved under the provisions of this act. All provisions of the laws of the state of Montana relating to the condemnation of lands for public purposes shall apply to the provisions thereof in and so far as applicable.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 272, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

The 1967 amendment deleted "flood control" before "project."

89-3304. Acceptance of aid—assumption of remaining cost. Cities, towns and counties may in accordance with the provisions of this act accept funds and property or other assistance, financial or otherwise, from federal, state and other public or private sources for the purpose of aiding the construction and maintenance of water conservation and flood control projects; and co-operate and contract with the state or federal government, or any department or agency thereof, in furnishing assurances and meeting local co-operation requirements of any project involving control, conservation and use of water.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 272, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment substituted "funds and property or other assistance * * * and use of water" for "federal aid in the doing of the acts provided in sections 1 and 3 hereof, and may assume such portion of the cost thereof not discharged by such federal aid" after "this act accept."

89-3305. Right of way and construction costs. The cost of all right of way acquired by purchase or condemnation may be borne by the city, town or county together with any other property rights which may be required in furtherance of such projects, and the work of actual construction and the cost thereof may be borne by the federal government.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 272, L. 1965.

89-3306. Direction of project. This act contemplates that the actual direction of the project and the doing of the work in connection therewith is assumed by either the state or the federal government and the city, town or county provides and assumes the cost of necessary right of way over and above such contributions in that regard as the federal government may choose to make. Under such limitation all appropriate portions of this act shall apply.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 272, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted "either the state or" after "assumed by."

89-3307. Contributions to right of way costs—agreement to maintain works. Cities, towns and counties in furtherance of such water conservation and flood control projects may accept contributions to enable them to pay for necessary right of way. They may also enter into agreement with the federal government to maintain levees, dikes, or other construction and to do all other acts required by the federal government in maintaining the work when completed.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 272, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted "water conservation and" before "flood control."

89-3308. Street or road fund used. The council, board or governing body shall have power to allocate a portion of the street or road fund, as the case may be, for the purpose of acquiring right of way or the operation and maintenance of completed projects.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 272, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted "operation and" before "maintenance"; and deleted "flood control" before "projects."

89-3309. Levy of special assessment—apportionment to property benefited. Any city, town or county that shall establish a water conservation or flood control system or both pursuant to this act may for the purpose of providing funds for the operation and maintenance thereof levy an annual special assessment against all real property in the area benefiting from such system. Such special assessment shall be levied against each lot or parcel of land in the benefited area for that portion of the money required which its area bears to the total area of all of the lands to be assessed; or said assessment may, at the option of the governing body of the city, town or county, as the case may be, be based upon the taxable valuation, as stated in the last completed county assessment roll, of the lots or parcels of land exclusive of improvements thereon, within said benefited area, in which case each lot or parcel of land to be assessed shall be assessed with that part of the amount of money required which its taxable valuation bears to the total taxable valuation of all of the lands to be assessed. Provided, however, that where the benefited area lies in more than one county or lies both within a county and also a city or town, the same method of assessment shall be used for each governing body. Such special assessments for the operation and maintenance of any system authorized by this act shall be levied as are other special improvement levies as required by law.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 272, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted "water conservation or" before "flood control"; inserted "or both" before "pursuant"; substituted the present second and third sentences for former second sentence which read, "Such special assessment shall be apportioned among the several lots or parcels of real property in the benefited area in proportion to the benefit conferred"; and, in the last sentence deleted "flood control" before "system."

89-3309.1. Charges to be levied. Cities, towns and counties may for the purpose of providing funds for the operation and maintenance of completed projects, fix, maintain and collect fees, rents, tolls and other charges for services rendered or facilities provided. In fixing such rate, fee, toll or rent the governing body shall charge for water furnished for household use, domestic use, irrigation use, industrial use, municipal use and for water used for streamflow stabilization a fee sufficient to pay the proportionate share of the repairs, maintenance and operating expenses as such use bears in economic value, such economic value to be determined by the governing body, to the total economic value of the total use of said facilities of the project or projects. For the benefits received by areas within the boundaries of the project or projects for flood prevention, flood control and pollution abatement, the governing body shall determine a reasonable valuation or charge, which valuation or charge shall be certified by them to the county commissioners prior to the time general taxes are levied and assessed and it shall be the obligation of the county commissioners to levy a special assessment as provided for in section 89-3309 against such area or areas sufficient to provide revenues for the repairs, maintenance and operating expenses of the project. For recreation use the governing body shall first determine the share of the costs of operation, repairs and depreciation to be charged against such uses, and from this figure shall subtract the estimated amount of fees and tolls collected for such uses; the deficiency, if any, shall be certified to the county commissioners in the same way as the charges for flood prevention, flood control, etc. and special assessments be levied by the county commissioners in the manner set out herein. The council, board of county commissioners or other governing body shall also have the authority to receive and accept appropriations and contributions from any source of either money or property or other things of value, to be held, used, and applied for the purposes in this act provided.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

Title of Act

An act amending sections 89-3301, 89-3302, 89-3303, 89-3304, 89-3306, 89-3307, 89-3308, 89-3309, 89-3310, 89-3311, R. C. M. 1947, relating to city and county flood control projects, to authorize multiple use water projects by cities and counties; to change the method of levying the special assessment to pay for such projects; authorizing cities and counties to charge fees for services and facilities provided by such projects; and providing an effective date.

89-3310. Contracts for use of railroads and highways. Any city, town or county may contract with any railroad company or with the state highway commission for the use of railroad or highway rights of way and embankments, and other railroad or highway property which can be utilized by such city, town or county for the purpose of water conservation or flood control or protection as part of its water conservation or flood control system, or both, for any period not exceeding ninety-nine (99) years.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 272, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted "water conservation or" before "flood control" wherever found in this section; inserted "or both" before "for any period."

89-3311. Division of work into parts—separate proceedings for parts. Whenever any city, town or county has begun a water conservation or flood control system, or both, under this act, the council, board or other governing body shall have the power to divide the work into parts, sections or districts; to omit parts of said work and to contract for any part or section separately and proceed therewith the same as if the entire work or improvements were contracted for, done or made.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 272, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted "water conservation or" before "flood control"; and inserted "or both" before "under this act."

89-3312. Indebtedness and bonds—bond election—special assessment to pay indebtedness. Cities, towns and counties are hereby authorized to contract indebtedness and to issue special improvement district or rural improvement district bonds to provide funds for the payment of the cost of improvements contemplated by this act by following the following procedures:

The governing body of the city, town or county may call a special election to vote upon the proposition of issuing said bonds or may submit the proposition as a special question at a regular municipal or general election. The notice of the election and the election itself shall be carried out in accordance with sections 11-2201 through 11-2288, R. C. M. 1947, as amended, as to cities, and in accordance with sections 16-1601 through 16-1638, R. C. M. 1947, as amended, as to the counties.

Tax assessments for the payment of said bonds shall be levied in accordance with sections 11-2201 through 11-2288 and sections 16-1601 through 16-1638, R. C. M. 1947, as amended, as to cities and counties, respectively.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 272, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 239, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted "special improvement district or rural improvement district bonds" for "general obligation bonds" in the first paragraph; substituted "sections 11-2201 through 11-2288" for "11-2301 through 11-2330" in the second paragraph; substituted "sections 16-1601 through 16-1638" for "16-2002 through 16-2050" in the second paragraph; substituted "Tax assessments" for "Taxes" at the beginning of the third paragraph; substituted "sections 11-2201 through 11-2288 and sections 16-1601 through 16-1638" for "11-2301 through 11-2330 and sections 16-2002 through 16-2050" in the third paragraph; deleted the former second sentence of the third paragraph reading, "The indebtedness incurred for the purposes herein provided shall not be considered an indebtedness for general or ordinary purposes and shall not be charged against or counted as part of the levies available for general or ordinary purposes"; and made minor changes in style.

89-3313. Powers additional. This act, and each section thereof, shall be construed as granting additional power without limiting the power already existing in cities, towns and counties.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 272, L. 1965.

Appropriation

Section 14 of Ch. 272, Laws 1965, appropriated $1.00 to the water conservation board from the general fund for the biennium commencing July 1, 1965.

Separability Clause

Section 15 of Ch. 272, Laws 1965 read "If a part of this act shall be declared to be invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid parts remain in effect. If a part of this act is declared to be invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications."

Repealing Clause

Section 16 of Ch. 272, Laws 1965 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

89-3314. Provisions to provide alternative method. The provisions of this chapter and the methods of organization of water conservation and flood control projects are hereby declared to be an alternative method to any other method proposed by any law now in existence or hereafter enacted for the creation of such projects and it is hereby declared that no provision hereof shall be amended or repealed by implication or otherwise as being in conflict with any existing law or future enactment unless specifically so declared by the legislature.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 284, L. 1967.

Effective Date

Section 13 of Ch. 284, Laws 1967 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 2, 1967.

(1) be essentially for the public benefit and advantage of the people of Montana;

(2) benefit all industries of the state;

(3) encourage economic growth;

(4) indirectly benefit the state by increasing property valuations;

(5) directly benefit municipalities by providing adequate supplies of water for domestic uses;

(6) directly benefit lands irrigated or drained by works constructed;

(7) directly benefit lands now irrigated by stabilizing the flow of water in streams and by increasing the flow and return flow of water to those streams;

(8) enhance fish and wildlife habitat;

(9) improve recreational facilities; and

(10) promote the comfort, safety, and welfare of the people of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

Title of Act
An act providing for the conservation and development of water and land resources of Montana through the creation of conservancy districts.

89-3402. Purpose of act. The purpose of this act is to enable the formation of conservancy districts, comprised of area in one or more counties to promote the following purposes:

(1) prevent and control floods, erosion and sedimentation;

(2) provide for regulation of stream flows and lake levels;

(3) improve drainage and to reclaim wet or overflowed lands;

(4) promote recreation;

(5) develop and conserve water resources and related lands, forest, fish and wildlife resources;

(6) further provide for the conservation, development, and utilization of land and water for beneficial uses including, but not limited to, domestic water supply, fish, industrial water supply, irrigation, livestock water supply, municipal water supply, recreation, and wildlife.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3403. Definitions. As used in this act unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "District" means a conservancy district, which is a public corporation and a political subdivision of the state.

(2) "Directors" means the board of directors of a conservancy district.

(3) "Elector" means a person qualified to vote under section 23 [89-3423] of this act.

(4) "Court" means the district court of the judicial district in which the largest portion of the taxable valuation of real property of the proposed district is located and within the county in which the largest portion of the taxable valuation of real property of the proposed district is located within the judicial district.

(5) "Person" means a natural person; firm; partnership; co-operative; association; public or private corporation, including the state of Montana or the United States; foundation; state agency or institution; county; municipality; district or other political subdivision of the state; federal agency or bureau; or any other legal entity.

(6) "Water board" means the state water resources board.

(7) "Board of supervisors" means the board of supervisors of the soil and water conservation district in which the largest portion of the taxable valuation of real property of the proposed district is located.

(8) "Works" means all property, rights, easements, franchises, and other facilities including, but not limited to, land, reservoirs, dams, canals, dikes, ditches, pumping units, mains, pipelines, waterworks systems, recreational facilities, facilities for fish and wildlife, and facilities to control and correct pollution.

(9) "Cost of works" means the cost of construction, acquisition, improvement, extension and deveopment of works, incuding financing charges, interest and professional services.

(10) "Applicants" means any persons residing within the boundaries of the proposed district making a request for a study of the feasibility of forming a conservancy district.

(11) "Notice" means publication at least once each week for three (3) consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in each county, or if no newspaper is published in a county, a newspaper of general circulation in the county, or counties, in which a district is or will be located. The last published notice shall appear not less than five (5) days prior to any hearing or election held under this act.

(12) "Owners" are the person or persons who appear as owners of record of the legal title to real property according to the county records whether such title is held beneficially or in a fiduciary capacity, except that a person holding a title for purposes of security is not an owner nor shall he affect the previous title for purposes of this act.

(13) "Taxable valuation" shall mean the valuation determined according to section 84-302, R. C. M., 1947, and does not mean assessed valuation.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3404. Preliminary survey—petition. (1) To request a preliminary survey for a proposed conservancy district, the applicants shall present a written petition to the department.

(2) The petition shall:

(a) be signed by at least ten per cent (10%) of the registered voters residing within the boundaries of the proposed conservancy district;

(b) generally describe the proposed boundaries of the district;

(c) specify the purpose or purposes of the district;

(d) list the works contemplated;

(e) request that a preliminary survey be initiated.

(3) The department may initiate a preliminary survey without any prior written petition.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 100, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 19, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "petition" for "request" throughout the section; substituted "department" for "water board" throughout the section; inserted a new subdivision (2)(a); redesignated former subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of subdivision (2) as (b), (c) and (d); inserted a new subdivision (2)(e); and inserted "written" in subdivision (3).

89-3405. Action by water board upon receipt of request. (1) Sooner than eleven (11) days after the request is received, the water board shall acknowledge the request.

(2) The water board shall itself, or through co-operating agencies, or together with co-operating agencies:

(a) consult with the board of supervisors and all persons who may participate in the proposed project;

(b) conduct a preliminary survey of the proposed district;

(c) estimate costs of works, maintenance, and operation;

(d) determine sources of financing;

(e) reach a tentative decision on the feasibility, desirability and compatability with the state water plan of the proposed district;

(f) adjust the boundaries of the proposed district to improve the feasibility, desirability or consistency with the state water plan;

(g) sooner than one (1) year after receipt of the request, send a report of the preliminary survey to the applicants, the board of supervisors, fish and game commission, state soil conservation committee, state board of health, and other affected state and federal resource agencies for their comments.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 100, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 302, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment increased from six months to one year the time allowed by subdivision (2)(g) for the report of preliminary survey.

89-3406. Hearing by water board. (1) Upon receipt of the preliminary survey report the applicants, or any one of them, may request the water board to hold a hearing. The water board shall hold the hearing sooner than sixty-one (61) days after receipt of the request. Notice of the hearing shall be given in accordance with section 3, subsection (11) [89-3403 (11)] of this act.

(2) If the water board itself initiated the preliminary survey, it may hold such a hearing without being requested to do so.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3407. Feasibility study and report—adjustment of proposed boundaries. After the hearing, the applicants, or any one of them, may request the water board to prepare a detailed feasibility study of the proposed district. If the water board concludes that the proposed district is feasible, desirable, and consistent with the state water plan, it shall prepare a feasibility report, and sooner than one (1) year after receipt of the request, send copies to the applicants, if any, the fish and game commission, state soil conservation committee, state board of health, and other affected state and federal water resource agencies. For good cause shown based upon the actual technical problems in completing the report, the water board may use necessary additional time to complete and distribute the report. The detailed feasibility report shall describe the proposed works and contain an estimate of the cost of the works, the means of financing, and the estimated costs of operation and maintenance. The water board may adjust the boundaries of the proposed district to improve the feasibility, desirability and consistency with the state water plan, and to exclude land which would receive no direct or indirect benefits from the proposed district.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 100, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 303, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment increased the time allowed for the feasibility report by the second sentence from six months to one year.

89-3408. Procedure for organization of district. If in the opinion of the water board the feasibility study shows that a district is feasible and consistent with the state water plan, the procedure for organization is:

(1) the water board shall file a petition requesting organization with the court;

(2) the petition shall:

(a) state the name of the proposed district;

(b) give a legal description of the boundaries of the proposed district, excluding therefrom lands which would receive no direct or indirect benefits from the proposed district;

(c) describe the purposes of the district;

(d) describe the works;

(e) indicate the estimated cost of works, means of financing, and estimated costs of operation and maintenance;

(f) list the taxable valuation of real property in the proposed district, which must be one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more;

(g) describe the means of repaying capital costs;

(h) propose the persons who should be represented and the number of directors.

(3) The petition shall be signed by owners of at least fifty-one per cent (51%) of the land outside the limits of an incorporated municipality, and not fewer than five per cent (5%) or one hundred (100), whichever is the lesser, of the persons who would qualify as electors within an incorporated municipality.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3409. Court hearing on organization petition — election — voters needed to organize—no jurisdiction to determine priority of appropriation. (1) Upon receipt of a petition for organizing a district, the court shall give notice and hold a hearing on the petition. If the courts shall find that the prayer of the petition should be granted, it shall:

(a) make and file findings of fact specifying those lands that will be directly or indirectly benefited by the proposed district, and exclude those lands which will not be so benefited;

(b) make an order fixing the time and place of an organizing election;

(c) give notice of an election in the way provided in section 3, subsection (11) [89-3403 (11)];

(d) provide for election judges and fix their compensation;

(e) fix the polling place or places as necessary;

(f) order the county clerk to provide pollbooks, ballots, poll lists and other necessary election supplies;

(g) provide for canvassing the results;

(h) declare the results;

(i) order and decree the district organized if the requisite number of eligible electors vote in favor of organization.

(2) In order for the district to be organized, fifty-one per cent (51%) or more of the eligible electors must vote in the election, and a majority of those voting must vote in favor of organization.

(3) This act shall not confer upon the court jurisdiction to hear, adjudicate, and settle questions concerning the priority of appropriation of water between districts and other persons. Jurisdiction to hear and determine priority of appropriation, and questions of right growing out of, or in any way connected with a priority of appropriation, are expressly excluded from this act and shall be determined as otherwise provided by the laws of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3410. Filing of documents after organization. Sooner than thirty-one (31) days after the district has been decreed organized, the clerk of the court shall transmit to the secretary of state, water board, and to the county clerk and recorder in each of the counties having lands in the district, copies of the election results, the decree of the court incorporating the district, and a description of the boundaries of the district. Copies of the same documents shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state in the same manner as articles of incorporation are required to be filed under the laws governing corporations. Copies shall also be filed in the office of the county clerk and recorder of each county in which a part of the district may be. The clerk and recorder of each county where the articles are filed and the secretary of state shall collect filing fees as provided by law.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3411. Reimbursement for expenses of organizing election. If organized, the district shall reimburse the county, or counties, for the expenses incurred in the organizing election.

The costs of conducting the preliminary and feasibility studies shall be considered costs of construction of an approved project and shall be included in determination of the repayment schedules by the directors of the district.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 100, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 18, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment added the second paragraph.

89-3412. Appointment of directors—terms of office—vacancies—first annual meeting—corporate surety bond. If a district is organized, the court shall:

(1) establish by court order the number of persons who shall comprise the directors, appoint persons who are electors within the district to membership on the board of directors, and fix their compensation. The number shall not be less than three (3) nor more than eleven (11) persons. In fixing the number and making the appointments the court shall consider the interests and purposes to be served by the district. Upon a verified petition filed by a majority of the directors and for good cause shown, the court may enlarge or reduce the membership of the directors, but not to exceed eleven (11) nor to be less than three (3);

(2) fix the terms of office so that approximately one-third (⅓) of the directors first appointed shall serve for one (1) year; approximately one-third (⅓) shall serve two (2) years; and the remainder shall serve three (3) years. All succeeding terms shall be three (3) years. Unless excused for good cause, a director who misses three (3) consecutive regular meetings has vacated his postition;

(3) fill all vacancies on the board by appointment or reappointment;

(4) specify a date for the first annual meeting of the directors;

(5) specify the amount and form of a corporate surety bond which each member of the directors shall furnish at the expense of the district, conditioned upon his faithful performance of his duties as a director.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3413. Selection of officers—bylaws and rules—minutes—regular and special meetings. (1) The directors shall select from among themselves a chairman, vice-chairman, secretary, and other necessary officers. The directors shall adopt bylaws and rules for the conduct of meetings. All official acts of the directors shall be entered in a book of minutes to be kept by the secretary.

(2) The directors shall establish times for regular meetings and may hold special meetings upon the call of the chairman or any two (2) members, and (except in case of emergency) upon at least three (3) days notice of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3414. Powers of directors. On behalf of the district, the directors may:

(1) adopt an official seal;

(2) sue and be sued;

(3) adopt rules to promote and encourage water recreation, including requirements concerning public access areas and facilities, and rules respecting the use of reservoirs and waters, picnic sites, and other recreational areas operated by the district. Rules adopted shall be filed with the secretary of directors and shall be available to any interested party upon reasonable request;

(4) enter private property for the purposes of making surveys, provided that just compensation for actual damages is made;

(5) provide for reimbursing of its members for actual expenses;

(6) appropriate water and initiate or participate in the adjudication of streams;

(7) acquire, undertake, construct, develop, improve, maintain, and operate works and all incidental facilities;

(8) acquire by purchase, exchange, gift, lease, grant, devise, or otherwise, lands, water, water rights, or rights of way as necessary for the execution of any authorized function of the district. Title to all property (including water rights) shall be in the name of the district;

(9) merge with other special districts as hereinafter provided;

(10) hold and dispose of property as necessary or convenient in the performance of the functions of the district;

(11) call upon the county attorney or attorney general for such legal services as the district may require, or in the discretion of the directors, employ private legal counsel;

(12) withhold the delivery of water upon which there are any defaults or delinquencies of payment, and otherwise dispose of that water while the default or delinquency continues;

(13) borrow money and incur indebtedness and issue bonds to finance works as provided by this act;

(14) refund bonded indebtedness incurred by the district as provided by this act;

(15) after a hearing held in accordance with section 17 [89-3417] of this act, make assessments sufficient to meet the budgetary requirements for the coming year;

(16) contract for service, for water furnished, or for the sale of water with any person;

(17) fix and revise from time to time and collect rates, fees, and other charges for the services, facilities, or water furnished by the district to any person;

(18) allocate or reallocate unused waters of the district;

(19) co-operate with; accept grants, loans, and other assistance from; act as agent for; and enter into agreements with any and all state or federal agencies, and exercise all necessary or convenient powers in connection therewith;

(20) enter into any obligation or contract with an agency of the federal government for the construction, operation, and maintenance of works; or for the assumption as principal or guarantor of indebtedness to the United States on account of district lands under the provisions of the federal reclamation act and rules established under that act; or contract with an agency of the federal government for a water supply under any federal act providing for or permitting such a contract. However, the action must be approved by a majority of the electors voting at an election held as provided in section 24 [89-3424]. If a contract is made with an agency of the federal government, the directors may deposit bonds of the district with the United States at ninety per cent (90%) of their par value, to secure the amount to be paid by the district to the United States under any contract, the interest on the bonds of the district to be applied as specified by the contract. If bonds of the district are deposited with the United States, it is the duty of the directors to make an assessment sufficient to meet all payments accruing under the terms of any contract with the United States;

(21) accept appointment of the district as fiscal agent for the United States or authorization of the district to make collections of moneys for or on behalf of the United States in connection with any federal reclamation projects and the district is authorized to act and to assume the duties and liabilities incident to this action. However, the action must be approved by a majority of the electors voting at an election held as provided in section 24 [89-3424]. The directors may do all things required by federal statutes and rules and require prompt payment of all charges as a prerequisite to water service;

(22) in addition to all voted indebtedness, borrow money as necessary but the amount shall not at any one time exceed five per cent (5%) of the taxable valuation of real property in the district;

(23) mortgage property owned by the district if the terms of the mortgage are not inconsistent with the provisions of a resolution authorizing the sale of bonds;

(24) use any surplus funds to purchase outstanding bonds;

(25) make contracts incidental to the performance of the district's functions, and employ and fix the compensation of employees, agents or consultants as are deemed necessary, including but not limited to, a manager, attorneys, accountants, engineers, construction and financial experts;

(26) co-operate with soil and water conservation districts to obtain agreements to carry out soil conservation measures and proper farm plans from owners of lands situated in the drainage area above each retention reservoir to be installed with federal assistance.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3415. Participation in federal programs. A district organized under this act, by itself or in conjunction with others, as a sponsoring organization to participate in all federal programs including, but not limited to, the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act of 1954 (68 Stat. 666), the federal Water Project Recreation Act of 1965 (79 Stat. 213), the federal Reclamation Act of 1902 (32 Stat. 388), and amendments to those acts.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

The Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act of 1954, referred to in this section, is compiled in the United States Code as Tit. 16, sec. 1001 et seq. and Tit. 33, sec. 701b note.

The federal Water Project Recreation Act of 1965 is compiled in the United States Code as Tit. 16, sec. 460*l*-12.

The federal Reclamation Act of 1902 is compiled in the United States Code as Tit. 43, sec. 371 et seq.

89-3416. Assessments. (1) To the extent that anticipated revenues from rates, fees, and other charges fixed pursuant to section 14, subsection (17) [89-3414 (17)] will not be sufficient to meet the district's anticipated obligations for annual operation, maintenance, and replacement or depreciation of works, or for payment of the interest and principal on bonded indebtedness, the directors may make an assessment of not more than two (2) mills on all taxable real property in the district for the purpose of fully meeting such obligations.

(2) In addition to the assessment authorized by subsection (1), the directors may annually make an assessment of up to three (3) mills on the taxable real property in the district to pay interest and principal on bonded indebtedness.

(3) The assessments are a lien upon each lot or parcel of land within the district to the extent of the assessment on each.

(4) All assessments have the same force and effect as other liens for taxes and their collection shall be enforced in the way provided for enforcement of liens for county taxes. Assessments, if not paid, become delinquent at the same time as county taxes.

(5) Except as provided in section 29 [89-3429], approval of the electors is not required for the making of these assessments.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3417. Notice of public budget hearing. (1) The directors shall, prior to the first Monday in May of each year, give notice as provided in section 3, subsection (11) [89-3403 (11)] of this act of the intention to hold a public budget hearing. The notice shall include the date, time, place, and general agenda.

(2) At the hearing, the directors shall:

(a) review the present budget;

(b) present the budget for the next year;

(c) hear and consider protests from any elector;

(d) adopt the budget for the next year;

(e) set the assessment for the next year.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3418. Directors to inform county assessor and treasurer annually concerning budget, special assessments and realty—multi-county districts. (1) Before the second Monday in July of each year, the directors shall provide the county assessor and treasurer with:

(a) the budget for the current fiscal year;

(b) a statement of the amount of special assessments to be collected for the districts;

(c) a listing of all real property within the district.

(2) If the district is located in more than one (1) county, the directors shall provide this information to each of the county assessors and treasurers.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3419. Collection of special assessments—multi-county districts—investment of surplus funds—interest. (1) The treasurer of each county in which the district is located shall collect special assessments at the same time and in the same way as county taxes.

(2) If the district is located in more than one (1) county, all assessments collected shall be deposited with the treasurer of the county in which the assessments were collected.

(3) The directors shall direct the county treasurer to invest any surplus district funds in saving or time deposits in a state or national bank insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or in direct obligations of the United States government payable within one hundred eighty (180) days from the time of investment. All interest collected on the deposits or investments shall be credited to the fund from which the money was withdrawn. However, five per cent (5%) of the interest shall be deposited in the general fund of the county.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3420. Condemnation authorized—water rights. The district may exercise the right of eminent domain in the manner provided by the law to take private property for public use, with just compensation, where the taking is necessary for the purposes of the district. Water rights as such shall not be subject to such taking, but may be taken as an incident to the condemnation of land to which such rights are appurtenant, where the taking of the land is the principal purpose of the condemnation.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3421. Annual written report of directors' activities. Before August 1 of each year, the directors shall send a written report of their activities during the previous fiscal year to the court and to the water board. Reports shall be in the form, and contain the information, prescribed by the water board.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3422. State examiner to examine financial records—report—fee. At least once each year the state examiner shall examine the financial records of each district and file a report of the examination with the water board and court. The state examiner shall collect a fee for the examination equal to that charged irrigation districts.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

Cross-References

Examiner's functions transferred, sec. 82A-903(3)(t).

89-3423. Persons entitled to vote. (1) Only persons who are taxpayers upon and owners of real property located within the district and whose names appear upon the last completed assessment roll of some county within the district for state, county and school district taxes are electors and shall be entitled to vote in elections, provided that:

(a) an elector need not reside within the district in order to vote;

(b) where a corporation owns taxable real property within the boundaries of the conservancy district, the authorized agent of such corporation shall be entitled to cast a vote on behalf of the corporation;

(c) where land is under contract of sale to a purchaser and the contract is recorded, only the purchaser shall have the right to vote;

(d) guardians, executors, administrators, and trustees of real property within the district, shall be entitled to cast the vote for the owner of the land.

(2) When voting, an agent of a corporation or of co-owners, or a guardian, executor, administrator, trustee, or purchaser under contract of sale, may be required to show his authority by the judges of the election.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3424. Election procedures. Election procedures after organization are:

(1) The directors shall designate the polling places, at least one (1) in each county, and hours when the polls will be open;

(2) Notice shall be published of the location of polling places and hours when the polls are open as provided in section 3, subsection (11) [89-3403 (11)] of this act;

(3) The directors shall appoint three (3) judges for each polling place and fix their compensation;

(4) The judges shall appoint one (1) of their number as clerk of the election;

(5) The clerks and recorders of the counties in which the election is to be held shall supply poll lists, registers, ballots, and other necessary election supplies;

(6) The judges shall cause the ballots to be counted and certify the results to the directors;

(7) The directors shall canvass the returns;

(8) The directors shall reimburse the counties for actual expenses incurred in the election.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3425. Challenging voters — oath — penalty for false subscription. An elector may challenge any person who claims the right to vote. Before voting, any person challenged must take and sign the following oath or affirmation administered by an election judge:

"I _____(name) solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am an elector of the district and have not voted today."

False subscription to the oath or affirmation is perjury and punishable as such.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3426. Issuance of bonds—maximum term—sale as single issue of multi-purpose bonds. A district may issue bonds payable from revenues, assessments, or both, or the district may use other financing as provided by this act for the cost of works. Bonds issued shall be for a maximum term of not to exceed forty (40) years. Bonds for more than one purpose may be sold as a single issue.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 100, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 43, Ch. 234, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted from the end of the second sentence "and a maximum rate of interest not more than six per cent (6%)."

Effective Date

Section 44 of Ch. 234, Laws 1971 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 9, 1971.

89-3427. Determination of amount of bonds to be issued. In determining the amount of bonds to be issued, the directors may include:

(1) all costs of works;

(2) all costs and estimated costs of issuance of the bonds;

(3) interest which they estimate will accrue on money borrowed during the construction period and for six (6) months after the period.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3428. Resolution for issuance of bonds—notice—election. When the directors find it necessary to issue bonds, the directors shall:

(1) pass a resolution which includes:

(a) the purpose or purposes for which the bonds will be issued;

(b) the maximum amount and term of the bonds;

(c) the maximum interest rate the bonds will bear;

(d) whether the bonds will be repaid from revenues, assessments, or both.

(2) give notice as provided in section 3, subsection (11) [89-3403 (11)] of this act which shall include the resolution adopted by the directors, location of polling places, and hours when the polls will be open;

(3) hold an election as provided by section 24 [89-3424] of this act.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3429. Approval of bond issue at election—authorizes assessments—recording of election results—validity of election—single proposition. (1) For a bond issue to be approved, forty per cent (40%) of the qualified electors must vote thereon, and sixty per cent (60%) of those voting must approve the issue.

(2) Approval of the bond issue shall authorize the directors to make assessments as provided in section 16 [89-3416] necessary to pay the principal and interest on bonds issued.

(3) The directors shall enter the results of the election in their records.

(4) If otherwise fairly conducted, no irregularities or informalities shall invalidate the election.

(5) Bonds for more than one purpose may be submitted to the electors as a single proposition.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3430. Resolution providing for form, execution and issuance of bonds—bids—private sale—sale price—rejection of bids. If a bond issue is approved, the directors shall by resolution provide for the form and execution of the bonds and for issuance of all or any part of the bonds. After adequate notice that sealed proposals will be received, the directors may award the purchase of all or a part of the issue to the best bidder or bidders, and may sell at private sale any or all bonds not sold on bids.

The said bonds will be sold for not less than their par value with accrued interest to date of delivery, and all bidders must state the lowest rate of interest at which they will purchase the bonds at par. The board shall reserve the right to reject any and all bids and to sell the said bonds at private sale.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3431. Comparable to municipal bonds—exempt from taxation. Bonds issued under this act have the same force, value, and use as bonds issued by a municipality and are exempt from taxation as property within the state of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3432. Interim receipts—negotiability. Pending preparation of the bonds sold under this act, receipts or certificates may be issued to purchasers in the form, and with provisions, as determined by the directors. Bonds and interim receipts or certificates are fully negotiable as provided by the Uniform Commerical Code—Investment Securities.

History: En. Sec. 32, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3433. Registration of bonds—copy to be furnished county treasurer. (1) When duly executed, all bonds issued under this act shall be registered by the county treasurer of the county in which the largest portion of the taxable valuation of real property of the district is located. They shall be registered in a book provided for that purpose before being delivered to the purchaser.

(2) The registration shall show:

(a) the number and amount of each bond;

(b) the date of issue and date redeemable;

(c) the name of the purchaser;

(d) the amount and due date of all payments required on the bonds.

(3) The directors shall provide the county treasurer with an unsigned and canceled printed copy of each issue of bonds of the district. The copy shall be preserved in his office.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3434. Deposit of sales proceeds — disposition — investment. (1) Proceeds from the sales of bonds shall be deposited with the county in which the largest portion of the taxable valuation of real property of the district is located.

(2) The county treasurer shall place the proceeds of the bond sale to the credit of the district. The proceeds shall be paid by the county treasurer on written order of the directors. Proceeds shall only be spent for the purposes for which the bonds were issued.

(3) The directors shall instruct the county treasurer to deposit any part of the proceeds which is not immediately needed for the purpose for which the bonds were issued in a saving or time deposit in a state or national bank insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or to invest in direct obligations of the United States government. The obligations shall be payable within not to exceed one hundred eighty (180) days from the time of deposit or investment.

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3435. Refunding bonds authorized—redemption. (1) Refunding bonds may be issued in the same way as any other bonds authorized by this act.

(2) All bonds, original issue or refunding issue, shall be redeemable when one-half (½) of the term or ten (10) years of the term for which they were issued, whichever may be the less, has expired. Redemption may be made on any interest due date of any bond prior to its maturity after the bond shall be subject to redemption as herein provided. The right of redemption, as herein provided, must be stated on the face of each bond.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3436. Fund for retirement of bonds—investment and disbursement. Revenue, assessment, and other funds on hand, including reserves pledged for the payment and security of outstanding bonds may be deposited in a fund created for the retirement of bonds and may be invested and disbursed as provided by this act, to the extent consistent with the resolution authorizing the outstanding bonds.

History: En. Sec. 36, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3437. Revolving funds—purpose—excess money—funds deposited with county treasurer. (1) The directors by resolution may establish revolving funds to finance, on a reimbursable basis:

(a) construction, purchase, lease and operation of revenue-producing works;

(b) contracts to provide services or facilities.

(2) Money in the revolving fund shall not be spent for any purposes other than those specified in the resolution. However, excess money may be transferred to any sinking and interest fund of the district.

(3) The county treasurer of the county having the largest portion of the taxable valuation of real property of the district shall maintain a separate account for each revolving fund of the district, and all money collected under the resolution shall be deposited with the county treasurer.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3438. Petition for merger of districts—hearing and notice—merger into new district—inclusion in another district—majority of electors may kill merger by petition—existing obligations. (1) In case two (2) or more districts have been organized in a territory which, in the opinion of the directors of each of the districts, should constitute but one (1) district, the directors of the districts may petition the court for an order merging the districts into a single district. The petition shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court in and for that county which has the largest portion of taxable valuation of property within the districts sought to be included, as shown by the tax rolls of the respective counties. The petition shall set forth facts showing that the purposes of this act would be served by the merging of the districts, and that the merger would promote the economical execution of the purposes for which the districts were organized. A copy of the petition shall be filed with the water board.

(2) Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall by order fix a time and place of hearing; and the clerk shall give notice as specified in section 3, subsection (11) [89-3403 (11)] of this act as well as by mail to the directors of the districts which would be merged. The notice shall contain the purpose, time, and the place of the hearing.

(3) Upon the hearing, should the court find that the averments of the petition are true and that the districts, or any of them, could feasibly and profitably be merged, it shall order that the merger take place and the districts shall be merged into one (1) district and proceed as such. The court shall designate the corporate name of the district, and further proceedings shall be taken as provided for in this act. The court shall by order appoint the directors of the district, who shall thereafter have powers and be subject to rules as are provided for directors in districts created in the first instance.

(4) Instead of organizing a new district from the constituent districts, the court may, in its discretion, direct that one (1) or more of the districts described in the petition be included in another of the districts, which other shall continue under its original corporate name and organization; or the court may direct that the district or districts so absorbed shall be represented on the directors of the original districts, designating what members of the directors of the original district shall be retired from the new board, and what members representing the included district or districts shall take their places.

(5) If the court receives a petition opposing the merger, signed by a majority of the electors of any of the concerned districts, the court shall not grant the order and shall dismiss the petition.

(6) Upon merger or inclusion, existing obligations shall remain exclusively with those who bore them prior to the merger or inclusion, except with the written consent, given prior to the merger or inclusion, of those who did not bear the obligations.

History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3439. Procedure for annexing realty. To annex real property to the district, the procedure is:

(1) The directors shall petition the court.

(2) The petition shall:

(a) give a general description of the real property to be annexed sufficient to enable a person to determine if his property is in the proposed annexation;

(b) describe the benefits to accrue to the real property as a result of the annexation.

(3) The court shall:

(a) give notice and hold a hearing on the petition;

(b) upon good cause shown, order or deny the annexation.

History: En. Sec. 39, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3440. Pre-annexation bonds not lien without prior agreement. Real property annexed to a district shall not incur any liens by reason of bonds issued before annexation unless agreed to by the owners of the annexed property, in writing, prior to annexation.

History: En. Sec. 40, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3441. Exclusion of territory from district—procedure. Any territory included within any district formed under the provisions of this act, and not benefited in any manner by such district, or its inclusion therein, may be excluded therefrom.

The procedure for exclusion is:

(1) A petition for exclusion shall be initiated by either the directors or the owner or owners of the land sought to be excluded.

(2) The petition shall give a description of the territory sought to be excluded sufficient to enable a person to determine if his property is in the proposed exclusion and shall set forth that such territory is not benefited in any manner by the district or its continued inclusion therein, and shall request that such territory be excluded from the district.

(3) When owners of property initiate the petition for exclusion, the petition shall be filed with the secretary of the district and shall be accompanied by a deposit of one hundred dollars ($100) to meet the costs incident to the process of exclusion. The unexpended balance of the deposit shall be returned to the petitioner.

(4) Upon the filing of such petition with the secretary of the district, the secretary shall duly call a meeting of the directors to consider the petition. The directors shall approve or disapprove of the merits of the petition. The secretary shall then file the petition, together with a copy of the action of the directors, with the court.

(5) The court shall give notice, hold a hearing, and issue an order either granting or denying the petition.

History: En. Sec. 41, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3442. Procedure for dissolution of district. (1) The procedure for dissolution of a district is:

(a) a resolution shall be passed by the directors requesting dissolution; or

(b) a petition signed by twenty per cent (20%) of the electors representing ten per cent (10%) of the taxable valuation of real property in the district shall be presented to the directors; or

(c) if the district or its directors have been inactive for one (1) year or more, any elector may present a petition.

(2) The resolution or petition shall be presented to the court by the directors, or by the petitioners if the directors remain inactive.

(3) Not more than one (1) resolution or petition may be presented to the court in any twenty-four (24) month period, and no such petition may be presented during the first twenty-four (24) months after a district's initial organization.

History: En. Sec. 42, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3443. Dissolution election — majority approval required. (1) After receipt of petition or resolution for dissolution, the court shall order an election in the way provided by section 24 [89-3424] of this act.

(2) For dissolution to be approved, a majority of the electors voting must favor dissolution.

History: En. Sec. 43, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3444. Submission of termination plan—termination by directors or receiver—court order—retention of jurisdiction. (1) In the event the vote is for dissolution, any qualified elector, or the board of directors of the district may, within the time fixed by the court, present a written plan for terminating the affairs of the district which shall include assignment of any water rights and works owned by the district.

(2) The plan may specify that the affairs of the district shall be terminated by the directors or by a receiver appointed by the court.

(3) On a day fixed by the court, the court shall consider the plan or plans and shall enter an order establishing a plan for the termination of the affairs.

(4) The court shall retain jurisdiction to modify the plan and shall supervise the termination.

History: En. Sec. 44, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3445. Appointment of receiver—directors' authority ceases—assessments by receiver—annual assessments—disposition of assessments. (1) If no plan is presented on or before the date set by the court, the court shall appoint a receiver to terminate the affairs of the district under the supervision of the court.

(2) Upon the appointment of any receiver all the authority of the directors shall cease. However, until dissolution, the receiver shall have authority to levy assessments for:

(a) the payment of obligations of the district;

(b) the costs of termination.

(3) The directors, or if there is a receiver, then the receiver with the approval of the court, shall make assessments each year in an amount large enough to retire the obligations of the district.

(4) If a receiver has been appointed, he shall direct, under court supervision, the disposition of all assessments collected.

History: En. Sec. 45, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3446. Entry of dissolution order—certified copy. When it appears to the satisfaction of the court that:

(1) all obligations of the district have been discharged;

(2) all the costs of termination have been paid, the court shall enter an order dissolving the district. A certified copy of the order shall be recorded by the clerk of the court in all counties in which the district was situated and filed with the secretary of state.

History: En. Sec. 46, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3447. County general funds to receive funds remaining after dissolution—proportion. All funds remaining after dissolution of a district shall be deposited in the general fund of the counties in which the district is located in proportion to the taxable value of property within the district in each county.

History: En. Sec. 47, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3448. No power to generate, distribute or sell electric energy. Nothing in this act shall be construed to grant to the district the power to generate, distribute or sell electric energy.

History: En. Sec. 48, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

89-3449. Other agencies not affected. The provisions of this act shall not be construed to, in any manner, abrogate or limit the rights, powers, duties and functions of the water board, state soil conservation committee, soil and water conservation districts, state board of health, or the fish and game commission; but shall be held to be supplementary thereto and in aid thereof.

History: En. Sec. 49, Ch. 100, L. 1969.

Separability Clause

Section 50 of Ch. 100, Laws 1969 read "It is the intent of the legislative assembly that if a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications."

Effective Date

Section 51 of Ch. 100, Laws 1969 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved February 24, 1969.

89-3513. Penalties for violation.
89-3514. Permit construed as added requirement—exception—immunity.
89-3515. Remedies not exclusive.

89-3501. Findings. The people of the state of Montana find that recurrent flooding of a portion of the state's land resources causes loss of life, damage to property, disruption of commerce and governmental services, and unsanitary conditions; all of which are detrimental to the health, safety, welfare and property of the occupants of flooded lands and the people of this state, and that the public interest necessitates management and regulation of flood-prone lands and waters in a manner consistent with sound land and water use management practices which will prevent and alleviate flooding threats to life and health and reduce private and public economic losses.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 393, L. 1971.

Title of Act

An act relating to management and regulation of the floodways of watercourses as prescribed; to define terms; to provide for certain duties and powers of the Montana water resources board as prescribed; to provide for a floodway obstruction removal fund; to declare certain acts unlawful; and to provide for penalties.

89-3502. Policy and purposes. The policy and purposes of this act are to guide development of the floodway areas of this state consistent with the enumerated findings; to recognize the right and need of watercourses to periodically carry more than the normal flow of water; to provide state co-ordination and technical assistance to local units in management of floodway areas; to co-ordinate federal, state and local management activities for floodway areas; to encourage local governmental units to manage flood-prone lands including the adoption, enforcement and administration of land-use regulations and to provide the Montana water resources board with authority necessary to carry out a comprehensive floodway management program for the state.

Specifically, it is the purpose of this act to:

(1) restrict or prohibit uses which are dangerous to health, safety of property in times of flood or cause increased flood heights or velocities;

(2) require that uses vulnerable to floods, including public facilities which serve such uses, be provided with flood protection at the time of initial construction;

(3) develop and provide information to identify lands which are unsuited for certain development purposes because of flood hazard.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 393, L. 1971.

89-3503. Definitions. As used in this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "A flood of one hundred (100) year frequency" means a flood magnitude expected to recur on the average of once every one hundred (100) years, or a flood magnitude which has a one per cent (1%) chance of occurring in any given year;

(2) "Artificial obstruction" shall mean any obstruction which is not a natural obstruction;

(3) "Channel" shall mean the geographical area within either the natural or artificial banks of a watercourse or drainway;

(4) "Board" shall mean the Montana water resources board;

(5) "Department" means the department of natural resources and conservation provided for in Title 82A, chapter 15;

(6) "Designated floodway" shall mean a floodway whose limits have been designated and established by order of the board.

(7) "Drainway" shall mean any depression two (2) feet or more below the surrounding land serving to give direction to a current of water less than nine (9) months of the year, having a bed and well-defined banks; provided, that in the event of doubt as to whether a depression is a watercourse or drainway, it shall be presumed to be a watercourse;

(8) "Flood" shall mean the water of any watercourse or drainway which is above the bank or outside the channel and banks of such watercourse or drainway;

(9) "Floodway" shall mean the channel of a watercourse or drainway and those portions of the floodplain adjoining the channel which are reasonably required to carry and discharge the flood water of any watercourse or drainway;

(10) "Floodway-encroachment lines" shall mean the lines limiting a designated floodway;

(11) "Floodplain" shall mean the area adjoining the watercourse or drainway which has been or may hereafter be covered by flood water;

(12) "Establish" shall mean construct, place, insert, or excavate;

(13) "Natural obstruction" shall mean any rock, tree, gravel, or analogous natural matter that is an obstruction and has been located within the floodway by a nonhuman cause;

(14) "Obstruction" shall mean any dam, wall, riprap, embankment, levee, dike, pile, abutment, projection, revetment, excavation, channel rectification, bridge, conduit, culvert, building, refuse, automobile body, fill, or other analogous structure or matter in, along, across, or projecting into any floodway which may impede, retard or change the direction of the flow of water, either in itself or by catching or collecting debris carried by such water, or that is placed where the natural flow of the water would carry the same downstream to the damage or detriment of either life or property;

(15) "Owner" shall mean any person who has dominion over, control of, or title to an obstruction;

(16) "Political subdivision" shall mean any incorporated city or town or any county organized and having authority to adopt and enforce land-use regulations; and

(17) "Watercourse" shall mean any depression two (2) feet or more below the surrounding land serving to give direction to a current of water at least nine (9) months of the year, having a bed and well-defined banks; provided, that it shall, upon order of the board, also include any particular depression which would not otherwise be within the definition of watercourse.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 393, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 294, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted subdivision (1) for a parallel definition of a flood of fifty-year frequency; inserted subdivision (5); and renumbered the remaining subsections accordingly.

89-3504. Program for delineation of floodways — floodway-encroachment lines—land-use regulations. (1) The board shall initiate a comprehensive program for the delineation of designated floodways for every watercourse and drainway in the state. It shall make a study relating to the acquiring of flood data, and have authority to enter into arrangements with the United States geological survey, the United States army corps of engineers or any other state or federal agency for such acquisition.

(2) When sufficient data have been acquired to reasonably locate the floodway of a flood of one hundred (100) year frequency, the board shall establish, by order, after a public hearing, floodway-encroachment lines for such a floodway within which a political subdivision may establish land-use regulation. The board shall furnish such data to officials of the political subdivision having jurisdiction over such areas together with a map outlining the areas involved, a copy of this act, adopted rules and regulations of the board, and suggested minimum standards. These standards, rules and regulations shall reflect gradations in flood hazard based on flood frequency and other criteria as outlined in subsection (2) of section 7 [89-3507 (2)] of this act. The location of the encroachment lines shall be the estimated outer boundary of the floodway of one hundred (100) year frequency flood, as determined from the available data. The board shall record all floodway-encroachment lines established by it in the office of the county clerk and recorder of each county in which such lines are found. The board shall have the power to alter such lines at any later time, by order, after a public hearing if a re-evaluation of the then available flood data warrants it. Notice of any such hearing or order of the board establishing or altering any such line shall be given by publishing such notice once each week for three consecutive weeks in a legal newspaper published or of general circulation in the area involved, the last publication of which shall be not less than ten (10) days prior to the date set for the hearing or the effective date of such order.

(3) If within one (1) year from the date of transmittal of the floodplain information to officials of the political subdivisions, any political subdivision has failed to adopt land-use regulations which meet or exceed the minimum standards of the board, the designated floodway shall be enforced and no artificial obstruction or nonconforming use shall be established by any person within the floodway-encroachment lines for such a one hundred (100) year flood as established by the board under subsection (2) of this section, unless specifically authorized by the board.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 393, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 294, L. 1973.

The 1973 amendment substituted "one hundred (100) year frequency" for "fifty-year frequency" throughout the section.

89-3505. Artificial obstructions and nonconforming uses as nuisances. Any artificial obstruction or nonconforming use in any designated floodway enforced under section 89-3504, subsections (3) or (4) and not exempt under section 6 [89-3506] of this act is hereby declared to be a public nuisance unless a permit has been obtained for such artificial obstruction or nonconforming use from the board.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 393, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 294, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted the reference to subsection (4) of section 89-3504; and made a minor change in style. However, section 89-3504 has no subsection (4).

89-3506. Establishment of artificial obstructions or nonconforming uses unlawful—permitted open space uses—prohibited nonconforming uses. (1) It shall be unlawful for a person to establish any artificial obstruction or nonconforming use within a designated floodway, or (2) for any owner to permit any artificial obstruction to remain within a designated floodway without a permit from the board. This act shall not affect any existing artificial obstruction or nonconforming use established in the floodway prior to the effective date of this act and before the board has enforced a designated floodway under section 89-3504, subsections (3) or (4); provided, that no person shall make nor shall any owner allow alterations of any artificial obstruction within a designated floodway whether the obstruction proposed for alteration was located in the floodway before or after the effective date of this act except upon express written approval of the board. Maintenance of an obstruction shall not be construed to be an alteration.

(2) The following open space uses shall be permitted within the designated floodway, to the extent that they are not prohibited by any other ordinance or statute, and provided they do not require structures other than portable structures, fill, or permanent storage of materials or equipment; (a) agricultural uses (b) industrial-commercial uses such as loading areas, parking areas, emergency landing strips (c) private and public recreational uses such as golf courses, tennis courts, driving ranges, archery ranges, picnic grounds, boat launching ramps, swimming areas, parks, wildlife management and natural areas, game farms, fish hatcheries, shooting preserves, target ranges, trap and skeet ranges, hunting and fishing areas, hiking and horseback riding trails (d) forestry, including processing of forest products with portable equipment (e) residential uses such as lawns, gardens, parking areas and play areas (f) excavations subject to the issuance of a permit under section 7 [89-3507].

(3) The following nonconforming uses shall be prohibited within the designated floodway: (a) Any building for living purposes or place of assembly or permanent use by human beings (b) any structure or excavation that will cause water to be diverted from the established floodway, cause erosion, obstruct the natural flow of water, or reduce the carrying capacity of the floodway (c) the construction or permanent storage of any object subject to flotation or movement during flood level periods.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 393, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 294, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted the reference to subsection (4) of section 89-3504 in the second sentence of subsection (1); and made a minor change in style. However, section 89-3504 has no subsection (4).

89-3507. Permits for obstructions—application—factors considered—fees. (1) The board shall have the power to issue permits for the establishment or alteration of obstructions which would otherwise violate section 6 [89-3506] of this act. The application for the permit shall contain such information as the board shall require, including complete maps, plans, profiles and specifications of the obstruction and watercourse or drainway.

(2) In passing upon such application, the board shall consider (a) the danger to life and property by water which may be backed up or diverted by such obstruction, (b) the danger that the obstruction will be swept downstream to the injury of others, (c) the availability of alternate locations, (d) the construction or alteration of the obstruction in such a manner as to lessen the danger, (e) the permanence of the obstruction, (f) the anticipated development in the foreseeable future of the area which may be affected by the obstruction, and (g) such other factors as are in harmony with the purpose of this act. The board may make a part of such permit any reasonable conditions it may deem advisable. In order for the permit to continue to remain in force, the obstruction must be maintained so as to comply with the conditions and specifications of the permit.

(3) Permits for obstructions to be established in the floodway of watercourses must be specifically approved or denied within a reasonable time by the board; permits for obstructions in the floodways or drainways shall be conclusively deemed to have been granted sixty (60) days after the receipt of such application by the board, or after such time as the board shall by rule specify, unless the board notifies the applicant that the permit is denied.

(4) Every application for a permit shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of ten dollars ($10) which the state treasurer shall credit to the floodway obstruction removal fund.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 393, L. 1971.

89-3508. Powers and duties of board relative to obstructions. The powers and duties of the board relative to obstructions in a board floodway shall include the following:

(1) Where an obstruction to a floodway established under section 89-3504, subsections (2) or (4) has been created by fallen trees, silt, debris, wreckage, unanchored automobile bodies, and like matter, the board may, in its discretion, remove the obstruction, in which case the cost of removal shall be borne by the board; and

(2) Where, after investigation, notice, and hearing, an order has been issued to the owner of an obstruction not exempt under the provisions of section 6 [89-3506] of this act for its removal or repair, and the order is not complied with within such reasonable time as may be prescribed, or if the owner cannot be found or determined, the board may make or cause such removal or repairs to be made, the cost of which shall be borne by the owner and shall be recoverable in the same manner as debts are now recoverable by law.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 393, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 294, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted the reference to subsection (4) of section 89-3504 near the beginning of subdivision (1); and made a minor change in style. However, section 89-3504 has no subsection (4).

89-3509. Authority to enter and investigate lands or waters. The board, its agents, surveyors, or other employees, may make reasonable entry upon any lands and waters in the state for the purpose of making any investigation, survey, removal, or repair contemplated by this act. An investigation of any natural or artificial obstruction shall be made by the board either on its own initiative, on the written request of any three (3) titleholders of land abutting the watercourse or drainway involved, or on the written request of any political subdivision.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 393, L. 1971.

89-3510. Obstructions exempt where drainage area is small. This act shall not extend to any obstruction in the floodway of a watercourse or drainway where the drainage area above the same, either within or without the state, is less than twenty-five (25) square miles in extent, unless a particular watercourse or drainway is expressly declared to be within the coverage of this act by order of the board.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 393, L. 1971.

89-3511. Orders and rules—judicial remedy. The board may issue such orders and rules as are necessary to implement the provisions of this act. If an order is issued to the owner of an artificial obstruction not exempt under the provisions of section 6 [89-3506] of this act for its removal or repair, such order shall not become effective less than (10) days after a hearing is held relating to such order. In addition to any requirement imposed by subsection (2) of section 4 [89-3504 (2)] of this act, where any order is issued which affects with particularity the land adjacent to any watercourse or drainway, notice of the contents of such order and of any required hearing shall be mailed by the board to the titleholder of such land not less than ten (10) days before the effective date of such order, or, if there is a required hearing, to the titleholder of such land and to the owner of the obstruction not less than ten (10) days before the date of such hearing; provided, that such notice need not be given to the owner of the obstruction for an order issued pursuant to subsection (2) of section 8 [89-3508 (2)] of this act if the owner cannot be found or determined. All orders and rules issued by the board shall be on file at the offices of the board and in the office of the county clerk of each county affected by such order or rule. Any person aggrieved by any order of the board issued under this act may appeal from such order to a court of competent jurisdiction within thirty (30) days after its effective date. In the event such an appeal is taken, enforcement of such order shall be stayed pending the outcome of such appeal. Service of notice of the appeal shall be made upon the director of the board.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 393, L. 1971.

89-3512. Floodway obstruction removal fund. The state treasurer is hereby directed to create and establish the floodway obstruction removal fund and to credit to such fund for the removal of obstructions as provided in subsection (1) of section 8 [89-3508 (1)] of this act, such money as shall be specifically appropriated or reappropriated during any biennium by the legislature. The Montana water resources board may allocate money from the floodway obstruction removal fund for purposes provided in subsection (1) of section 8 [89-3508 (1)] of this act.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 393, L. 1971.

89-3513. Penalties for violation. (1) Any person who violates section 6 [89-3506] of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than one hundred dollars ($100), or be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than ten (10) days, or be both so fined and imprisoned. Each day's continuance of a violation shall be deemed a separate and distinct offense.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 393, L. 1971.

89-3514. Permit construed as added requirement—exception—immunity. (1) The granting of a permit under the provisions of this act shall in no way affect any other type of approval required by any other statute or ordinance of the state, of any political subdivision or of the United States, but shall be construed as an added requirement; provided, that if a political subdivision enacts and enforces land-use regulations which meet or exceed the minimum standards of the board, the board's recommendations in regard to artificial obstructions or nonconforming uses shall be advisory only. The grant or denial of a permit shall not have any effect on any remedy of any person at law or in equity; provided, that where it is shown that there is a wrongful failure to comply with this act, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the obstruction was the proximate cause of the flooding of the land of any person bringing suit.

(2) No permit for the construction of any structure to be established within a designated floodway shall be granted by any political subdivision unless the applicant has first obtained the permit required by this act, or until the board acknowledges that such structure would not be an obstruction within the meaning of this act.

(3) No action for damages sustained because of injury caused by an obstruction for which a permit has been granted under this act shall be brought against the state, the board, a member of the board, or its employees or agents. No provision of this act shall be construed as interfering in any way with the right of the United States to regulate interstate commerce or the navigable waters of the United States.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 393, L. 1971.

89-3515. Remedies not exclusive. The use of any one of the remedies or powers given to the board in this act shall not constitute a bar to the exercise of any other remedy or power given by this act.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 393, L. 1971.

Separability Clause

Section 16 of Ch. 393, Laws 1971 read "If any section in this act or any part of any section is declared invalid or unconstitutional, such declaration of invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof."

For present law, see secs. 90-153 to 90-194.

90-153. Meaning of terms. When used in this act:

(1) The word "person" shall be construed to mean both the plural and singular, as the case demands, and shall include individuals, partnerships, corporations, companies, societies and associations.

(2) The words "weight(s) and (or) measure(s)" shall be construed to mean all weights and measures of every kind, instruments and devices for weighing and measuring, and any appliances and accessories associated with any or all such instruments and devices, except that the term shall not be construed to include meters for the measurement of electricity, gas (natural or manufactured), or water when the same are operated in a public utility system. Such electricity, gas, and water meters are hereby specifically excluded from the purview of this act, and none of the provisions of this act shall be construed to apply to such meters or to any appliances or accessories associated therewith.

(3) The words "sell" and "sale" shall be construed to mean barter and exchange.

(4) The term "sealer" shall be construed to mean the state sealer of weights and measures.

(5) The terms "chief sealer" and "deputy sealer" shall be construed to mean, respectively, the state chief sealer of weights and measures and the deputy sealer of weights and measures.

(6) The term "intrastate commerce" shall be construed to mean any and all commerce or trade that is begun, carried on, and completed wholly within the limits of the state of Montana, and the phrase "introduced into intrastate commerce" shall be construed to define the time and place at which the first sale and delivery of a commodity is made within the state, the delivery being made either directly to the purchaser or to a common carrier for shipment to the purchaser.

(7) The term "commodity in package form" shall be construed to mean commodity put up or packaged in any manner in advance of sale in units suitable for either wholesale or retail sale, exclusive, however, of any auxiliary shipping container enclosing packages that individually conform to the requirements of this act. An individual item or lot of any commodity not in package form as defined in this section, but on which there is marked a selling price based on an established price per unit of weight or of measure, shall be construed to be commodity in package form.

(8) A "consumer package" or "package of consumer commodity" shall be construed to mean a commodity in package form that is cus-tomarily produced or distributed for sale through retail sales agencies or instrumentalities for consumption by individuals or use by individuals for the purposes of personal care or in the performance of services ordinarily rendered in or about the household or in connection with personal possessions.

(9) A "nonconsumer package" or "package of nonconsumer commodity" shall be construed to mean any commodity in package form other than a consumer package, and particularly a package designed solely for industrial or institutional use or for wholesale distribution only.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

Title of Act

An act relating to weights and measures, providing for a state sealer of weights and measures, providing for a system of weights and measures, regulating the sale of commodities by weight and measure, providing for enforcement: repealing sections 90-101 through 90-119, 90-120 through 90-129, 90-131, 90-133 through 90-143, 90-145 through 90-152, 90-601 through 90-620, 3-202, 3-2432, 3-2433, 11-958, 50-603, 50-408, 50-409, R. C. M., 1947.

90-154. Systems of weights and measures. The system of weights and measures in customary use in the United States and the metric system of weights and measures are jointly recognized, and either one or both of these systems shall be used for all commercial purposes in the state of Montana. The definitions of basic units of weight and measure, the tables of weight and measure, and weights and measures equivalents as published by the national bureau of standards are recognized and shall govern weighing and measuring equipment and transactions in the state.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-155. Definitions of special units of measure. The term "barrel" when used in connection with fermented liquor shall mean a unit of thirty-one (31) gallons. The term "ton" shall mean a unit of two thousand (2,000) pounds avoirdupois weight. The term "cord" when used in connection with wood intended for fuel purposes shall mean the amount of wood that is contained in a space of one hundred twenty-eight (128) cubic feet when the wood is ranked and well stowed.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-156. State standards of weight and measure. Such weights and measures in conformity with the standards of the United States as have been supplied to the state by the federal government or otherwise obtained by Montana for use as state standards shall, when the same shall have been certified as being satisfactory for use as such by the national bureau of standards, be the state standards of weight and measure. The state standards shall be kept in a safe and suitable place in the office or laboratory of the state division of weights and measures, they shall not be removed from the said office or laboratory except for repairs or for certification, and they shall be submitted at least once in ten years to the national bureau of standards for certification.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-157. Field standards and equipment. In addition to the state standards provided for in section 4 [90-156] of this act, there shall be supplied by the state such "field standards" and such equipment as may be found necessary to carry out the provisions of this act. The field standards shall be verified upon their initial receipt and at least once each year thereafter by comparison with the state standards.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-158. State sealer, chief sealer, and deputy sealers of weights and measures. There shall be a state sealer of weights and measures. The commissioner of agriculture shall be, ex officio, the state sealer. There shall be a chief sealer of weights and measures and deputy sealers of weights and measures, and necessary technical and clerical personnel, who shall be appointed by the sealer, and who shall hold office during good behavior, and who shall collectively comprise the state division of weights and measures, of which the chief sealer shall be the head.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

Cross-References

Sealer's position abolished and functions transferred, sec. 82A-402(3).

90-159. General powers and duties of sealer. The sealer shall have the custody of the state standards of weight and measure and of the other standards and equipment provided for by this act, and shall keep accurate records of the same. The sealer shall enforce the provisions of this act. He shall have and keep a general supervision over the weights and measures offered for sale, sold, or in use in the state.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

Cross-References

Functions transferred to department of business regulation, sec. 82A-403(4).

90-160. Specific powers and duties of sealer — regulations. The sealer shall issue from time to time reasonable regulations for the enforcement of this act, which regulations shall have the force and effect of law. These regulations may include (1) schedules of fees for testing and certification, (2) standards of net weight, measure, or count, and reasonable standards of fill for any commodity in package form, (3) rules governing the technical and reporting procedures to be followed and the report and record forms and marks of approval and rejection to be used by sealers of weights and measures in the discharge of their official duties, (4) exemptions from the sealing or marking requirements of section 14 [90-166] of this act with respect to weights and measures of such character or size that such sealing or marking would be inappropriate, impracticable, or damaging to the apparatus in question, and (5) rules governing the voluntary registration of servicemen and service agencies. These regulations shall include specifications, tolerances, and other technical requirements for weights and measures of the character of those specified in section 10 [90-162] of this act, designed to eliminate from use, without prejudice to apparatus that conforms as closely as practicable to the official standards, those (1) that are not accurate, (2) that are of such construction that they are faulty (that is, that are not reasonably permanent in their adjustment or will not repeat their indications correctly), or (3) that facilitate the perpetration of fraud. The specifications, tolerances, and other technical requirements for commercial weighing and measuring devices, together with amendments thereto, as recommended by the national bureau of standards and published in national bureau of standards handbook 44 and supplements thereto, or in any publication revising or superseding handbook 44, shall be the specifications, tolerances, and other technical requirements for commercial weighing and measuring devices of the state of Montana, except in so far as specifically modified, amended, or rejected by a regulation issued by the sealer. For the purposes of this act, apparatus shall be deemed to be "correct" when it conforms to all applicable requirements promulgated as specified in this section. Other apparatus shall be deemed to be "incorrect."

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-160.1. Licensing of weighing devices. No person shall knowingly operate or use any unlicensed weighing devices in trade or commerce for ascertaining the weight of any commodity. Such license shall be obtained by making application to the department of business regulation upon such blank forms to be provided by the division of weights and measures, each license should include at least one (1) inspection per year. Every application shall be accompanied by the proper fee as established by this section.

WEIGHING DEVICES

Capacity	Fees
499 pounds or less	$ 2.50
500 pounds through 1999 pounds	4.00
2,000 pounds through 7,999 pounds	10.00
8,000 pounds through 40,000 pounds	20.00
40,001 pounds or more	35.00

The capacity of a weighing device shall be determined by the manufacturer's rated capacity.

All licenses shall be annual and shall expire on December 31.

Any person failing to pay the renewal license fee when due as required by this act shall forfeit the right to use the weighing device, and it shall be taken out of service by the division of weights and measures.

History: En. 90-160.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 244, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to prohibit the use of weighing devices in trade or commerce which are not licensed by the division of business regulation; establishing license fees; and providing an effective date.

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 244, Laws 1973 read "This act shall be effective January 1, 1974." Approved March 9, 1973.

90-161. Sealer—testing at state-supported institutions. The sealer shall from time to time test all weights and measures used in checking the receipt or disbursement of supplies in every institution for the maintenance of which moneys are appropriated by the legislature, reporting his findings, in writing, to the supervisory board and to the executive officer of the institution concerned.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-162. Sealer—general testing. When not otherwise provided by law, the sealer shall have the power to inspect and test, to ascertain if they are correct, all weights and measures kept, offered, or exposed for sale. It shall be the duty of the sealer, within a twelve-month period, or less frequently if in accordance with a schedule issued by him, and as much oftener as he may deem necessary, to inspect and test, to ascertain if they are correct, all weights and measures commercially used (1) in determining the weight, measurement, or count of commodities or things sold, or offered or exposed for sale, on the basis of weight, measure, or of count, or (2) in computing the basic charge or payment for services rendered on the basis of weight, measure, or of count: Provided, that with respect to single-service devices (that is, devices designed to be used commercially only once and to be then discarded) and with respect to devices uniformly mass-produced, as by means of a mold or die, and not susceptible of individual adjustment, tests may be made on representative samples of such devices; and the lots of which such samples are representative shall be held to be correct or incorrect upon the basis of the results of the inspections and tests on such samples: And provided further, that any itinerant peddler or hawker, using weights and measures, shall register his name and address with the chief sealer of weights and measures, in order that his equipment can be tested in accordance with the provisions of this law.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-163. Sealer—investigations. The sealer shall investigate complaints made to him concerning violations of the provisions of this act, and shall, upon his own initiative, conduct such investigations as he deems appropriate and advisable to develop information on prevailing procedures in commercial quantity determination and on possible violations of the provisions of this act and to promote the general objective of accuracy in the determination and representation of quantity in commercial transactions.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-164. Sealer—inspection of packages. The sealer shall, from time to time, weigh or measure and inspect packages or amounts of commodities kept, offered, or exposed for sale, sold, or in the process of delivery, to determine whether the same contain the amounts represented and whether they be kept, offered, or exposed for sale or sold in accordance with law. When such packages or amounts of commodities are found not to contain the amounts represented, or are found to be kept, offered, or exposed for sale in violation of law, the sealer may order them off sale and may so mark or tag them as to show them to be illegal. In carrying out the provisions of this section, the sealer may employ recognized sampling procedures under which the compliance of a given lot of packages will be determined on the basis of the result obtained on a sample selected from and representative of such lot. No person shall (1) sell, or keep, offer, or expose for sale, in intrastate commerce, any package or amount of commodity that has been ordered off sale or marked or tagged as provided in this section unless and until such package or amount of commodity has been brought into full compliance with all legal requirements, or (2) dispose of any package or amount of commodity that has been ordered off sale or marked or tagged as provided in this section and that has not been brought into compliance with legal requirements, in any manner, except with the specific approval of the sealer.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-165. Sealer—stop-use, stop-removal, and removal orders. The sealer shall have the power to issue stop-use orders, stop-removal orders, and removal orders with respect to weights and measures being, or susceptible of being, commercially used, and to issue stop-removal orders and removal orders with respect to packages or amounts or commodities kept, offered, or exposed for sale, sold, or in process of delivery, whenever in the course of his enforcement of the provisions of this act he deems it necessary or expedient to issue such orders, and no person shall use, remove from the premises specified, or fail to remove from the premises specified, any weight, measure, or package or amount of commodity contrary to the terms of a stop-use order, stop-removal order, or removal order issued under the authority of this section.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-166. Sealer—disposition of correct and incorrect apparatus. The sealer shall approve for use, and seal or mark with appropriate devices, such weights and measures as he finds upon inspection and test to be "correct" as defined in section 8 [90-160] of this act, and shall reject and mark or tag as "rejected" such weights and measures as he finds, upon inspection or test, to be "incorrect" as defined in section 8 [90-160] of this act, but which in his best judgment are susceptible of satisfactory repair: Provided, that, such sealing or marking shall not be required with respect to such weights and measures as may be exempted therefrom by a regulation of the sealer issued under the authority of section 8 [90-160] of this act. The sealer shall condemn, and may seize and destroy, weights and measures found to be incorrect that, in his best judgment, are not susceptible of satisfactory repair. Weights and measures that have been rejected may be confiscated and may be destroyed by the sealer if not corrected as required by section 17 [90-169] of this act, or if used or disposed of contrary to the requirements of section 17 [90-169] of this act.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-167. Sealer—police powers—right of entry and stoppage. With respect to the enforcement of this act and any other acts dealing with weights and measures that he is or may be empowered to enforce, the sealer is hereby vested with special police powers, and is authorized to arrest, without formal warrant, any violator of the said acts, and to seize for use as evidence, without formal warrant, incorrect or unsealed weights and measures or amounts of packages of commodity found to be used, retained, offered, or exposed for sale or sold in violation of law. In the performance of his official duties, the sealer is authorized to enter and go into or upon, without formal warrant, any structure or premises, and to stop any person whatsoever and to require him to proceed, with or without any vehicle of which he may be in charge, to some place which the sealer may specify.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-168. Powers and duties of chief sealer and deputy sealers. The powers and duties, given to and imposed upon the sealer by sections 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 37 [90-161, 90-162, 90-163, 90-164, 90-165, 90-166, 90-167, and 90-189] of this act are hereby given to and imposed upon the chief sealer and deputy sealers also when acting under the instructions and at the direction of the state sealer.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-169. Duty of owners of incorrect apparatus. Weights and measures that have been rejected under the authority of the sealer or of a deputy sealer shall remain subject to the control of the rejecting authority until such time as suitable repair or disposition thereof has been made as required by this section. The owners of such rejected weights and measures shall cause the same to be made correct within thirty (30) days or such longer period as may be authorized by the rejecting authority; or, in lieu of this, may dispose of the same, but only in such manner as is specifically authorized by the rejecting authority. Weights and measures that have been rejected shall not again be used commercially until they have been officially re-examined and found to be correct, or until specific written permission for such use is issued by the rejecting authority, or until the rejection tag has been removed and the rejected device repaired and placed in service by a person duly registered to perform such acts under a regulation issued by the sealer for the registration of weights and measures servicemen and service agencies.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-170. Method of sale of commodities—general. Commodities in liquid form shall be sold only [by] liquid measure or by weight, and, except as otherwise provided in this act, commodities not in liquid form shall be sold only by weight, by measure of length or area, or by count: Provided, that liquid commodities may be sold by weight and commodities not in liquid form may be sold by count only if such methods give accurate information as to the quantity of commodity sold: And provided further, that the provisions of this section shall not apply (1) to commodities when sold for immediate consumption on the premises where sold, (2) to vegetables when sold by the head or bunch, (3) to commodities in containers standardized by a law of this state or by federal law, (4) to commodities in package form when there exists a general consumer usage to express the quantity in some other manner, (5) to concrete aggregates, concrete mixtures, and loose solid materials such as earth, soil, gravel, crushed stone, and the like, when sold by cubic measure, or (6) to unprocessed vegetable and animal fertilizer when sold by cubic measure. The sealer may issue such reasonable regulations as are necessary to assure that amounts of commodity sold are determined in accordance with good commercial practice and are so determined and represented as to be accurate and informative to all parties at interest.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

The compiler has inserted the bracketed word "by" in the first sentence.

90-171. Method of sale of commodities—packages—declarations of quantity and origin—variations—exemptions. Except as otherwise provided in this act, any commodity in package form introduced or delivered for introduction into or received in intrastate commerce, kept for the purpose of sale, or offered or exposed for sale in intrastate commerce, shall bear on the outside of the package such definite, plain, and conspicuous declarations of (1) the identity of the commodity in the package unless the same can easily be identified through the wrapper or container, (2) the net quantity of the contents in terms of weight, measure, or count, and (3) in the case of any package kept, offered, or exposed for sale, or sold in any place other than on the premises where packed, the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor, as may be prescribed by regulation issued by the director: provided, that, in connection with the declaration required under clause (2), neither the qualifying term "when packed" or any words of similar import, nor any term qualifying a unit of weight, measure, or count (for example, "jumbo," "giant," "full," and the like) that tends to exaggerate the amount of commodity in a package shall be used: And provided further, that under clause (2) the sealer shall, by regulation, establish (a) reasonable variations to be allowed, which may include variations below the declared weight or measure caused by ordinary and customary exposure, only after the commodity is introduced into intrastate commerce, to conditions that normally occur in good distribution practice and that unavoidably result in decreased weight or measure, (b) exemptions as to small packages, and (c) exemptions as to commodities put up in variable weights or sizes for sale intact and either customarily not sold as individual units or customarily weighed or measured at time of sale to the consumer.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-172. Method of sale of commodities—declarations of unit price on random packages. In addition to the declarations required by section 19 [90-171] of this act, any commodity in package form, the package being one of a lot containing random weights, measures, or counts of the same commodity and bearing the total selling price of the package, shall bear on the outside of the package a plain and conspicuous declaration of the price per single unit of weight, measure, or count.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-173. Method of sale of commodities — misleading packages. No commodity in package form shall be so wrapped, nor shall it be in a container so made, formed, or filled as to mislead the purchaser as to the quantity of the contents of the package, and the contents of a container shall not fall below such reasonable standard of fill as may have been prescribed for the commodity in question by the sealer.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-174. Method of sale of commodities—advertising packages for sale. Whenever a commodity in package form is advertised in any manner and the retail price of the package is stated in the advertisement, there shall be closely and conspicuously associated with such statement of price a declaration of the basic quantity of contents of the package as is required by law or regulation to appear on the package: provided, that, where the law or regulation requires a dual declaration of net quantity to appear on the package, only the declaration that sets forth the quantity in terms of the smaller unit of weight or measure (the declaration that is required to appear first and without parenthesis on the package) need appear in the advertisement: And provided further, that there shall not be included as part of the declaration required under this section such qualifying terms as "when packed," "minimum," "not less than," or any other terms of similar import, nor any term qualifying a unit of weight, measure, or count (for example, "jumbo," "giant," "full," and the like) that tends to exaggerate the amount of commodity in the package.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-175. Sale by net weight. The word "weight" as used in this act in connection with any commodity shall mean net weight. Whenever any commodity is sold on the basis of weight, the net weight of the commodity shall be employed, and all contracts concerning commodities shall be so construed.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-176. Misrepresentation of price. Whenever any commodity or service is sold, or is offered, exposed, or advertised for sale, by weight, measure, or count, the price shall not be misrepresented, nor shall the price be represented in any manner calculated or tending to mislead or deceive an actual or prospective purchaser. Whenever an advertised, posted, or labeled price per unit of weight, measure, or count includes a fraction of a cent, all elements of the fraction shall be prominently displayed and the numeral or numerals expressing the fraction shall be immediately adjacent to, of the same general design and style as, and at last one-half (½) the height and width of the numerals representing the whole cents.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-177. Meat, poultry, and seafood. Except for immediate consumption on the premises where sold, or as one of several elements comprising a ready-to-eat meal sold as a unit for consumption elsewhere than on the premises where sold, all meat, meat products, poultry (whole or parts), and all seafood except shellfish, offered or exposed for sale or sold as food shall be offered or exposed for sale and sold by weight. When meat, poultry, or seafood is combined with or associated with some other food element or elements to form either a distinctive food product or a food combination, such food product or combination shall be offered or exposed for sale and sold by weight, and the quantity representation may be the total weight of the product or combination, and a quantity representation need not be made for each of the several elements of the product or combination.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-178. Bread. Each loaf of bread and each unit of a twin or multiple loaf of bread [manufactured] or procured for sale, kept, offered, exposed for sale, or sold, whether or not the bread is wrapped or sliced, shall weigh one-half (½) pound, one (1) pound, one and one-half (1½) pounds, or a multiple of one (1) pound, avoirdupois weight, within reasonable variations or tolerances that shall be promulgated by regulation by the sealer: provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to biscuits, buns, or rolls weighing eight (8) ounces or less, or to "stale bread" sold and expressly represented at the time of sale as such, and that the marking provisions of section 19 [90-171] shall not apply to unwrapped loaves of bread.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

The compiler has inserted the bracketed word "manufactured" near the beginning of the section.

90-179. Butter, oleomargarine, and margarine. Butter, oleomargarine, and margarine shall be offered and exposed for sale and sold by weight, and only in units of one-fourth (¼) pound, one-half (½) pound, one (1) pound, or multiples of one (1) pound, avoirdupois weight.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-180. Fluid dairy products. All fluid dairy products, including but not limited to whole milk, skimmed milk, cultured milk, sweet cream, sour cream, and buttermilk, shall be packaged for retail sale only in units of one (1) gill, one-half (½) liquid pint, ten (10) fluid ounces, one (1) liquid pint, one (1) liquid quart, one-half (½) gallon, one (1) gallon, one and one-half (1½) gallons, two (2) gallons, two and one-half (2½) gallons, or multiples of one (1) gallon: provided, that packages in units of less than one (1) gill shall be permitted.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-181. Flour, corn meal, and hominy grits. When in package form, and when packed, kept, offered, or exposed for sale or sold, wheat flour, whole wheat flour, graham flour, self-rising wheat flour, phosphated wheat flour, bromated flour, enriched flour, enriched self-rising flour, enriched bromated flour, corn flour, corn meal, and hominy grits shall be packaged only in units of two (2), five (5), ten (10), twenty-five (25), fifty (50), or one hundred (100) pounds, avoirdupois weight: provided, that packages in units of less than two (2) pounds or more than one hundred (100) pounds shall be permitted.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-182. Bulk deliveries sold in terms of weight and delivered by vehicle. When a vehicle delivers to an individual purchaser a commodity in bulk, and the commodity is sold in terms of weight units, the delivery shall be accompanied by a duplicate delivery ticket with the following information clearly stated, in ink or by means of other indelible marking equipment and, in clarity, equal to type or printing, (1) the name and address of the vendor, (2) the name and address of the purchaser, and (3) the net weight of the delivery expressed in pounds, and, if the net weight is derived from determinations of gross and tare weights, such gross and tare weights also shall be stated in terms of pounds. One of these tickets shall be retained by the vendor, and the other shall be delivered to the purchaser at the time of delivery of the commodity, or shall be surrendered, on demand, to the sealer, or the chief sealer or deputy sealer, who, if he desires to retain it as evidence, shall issue a weight slip in lieu thereof for delivery to the purchaser: provided, that, if the purchaser, himself, carries away his purchase, the vendor shall be required only to give to the purchaser at the time of sale a delivery ticket stating the number of pounds of commodity delivered to him.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-183. Furnace and stove oil. All furnace and stove oil shall be sold by liquid measure or by net weight in accordance with the provisions of section 18 [90-170] of this act. In the case of each delivery of such liquid fuel not in package form and in an amount greater than ten (10) gallons in the case of sale by liquid measure or one hundred (100) pounds in the case of sale by weight, there shall be rendered to the purchaser, either (a) at the time of delivery or (b) within a period mutually agreed upon in writing or otherwise between the vendor and the purchaser, a delivery ticket or a written statement on which, in ink or by means of other indelible marking equipment and, in clarity, equal to type or printing, there shall be clearly stated (1) the name and address of the vendor, (2) the name and address of the purchaser, (3) the identity of the type of fuel comprising the delivery, (4) the unit price (that is, the price per gallon or per pound, as the case may be) of the fuel delivered, (5) in the case of sale by liquid measure, the liquid volume of the delivery, together with any meter readings from which such liquid volume has been computed, expressed in terms of the gallon and its binary or decimal subdivisions, and (6) in the case of sale by weight, the net weight of the delivery, together with any weighing scale readings from which such net weight has been computed, expressed in terms of tons or pounds avoirdupois.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-184. Berries and small fruits. Berries and small fruits shall be offered and exposed for sale and sold by weight, or by measure in open containers having capacities of one-half (½) dry pint, one (1) dry pint, or one (1) dry quart: provided, that the marking provisions of section 19 [90-171] of this act shall not apply to such containers.

History: En. Sec. 32, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-185. Construction of contracts. Fractional parts of any unit of weight or measure shall mean like fractional parts of the value of such unit as prescribed or defined in sections 2 and 3 [90-154 and 90-155] of this act, and all contracts concerning the sale of commodities and services shall be construed in accordance with this requirement.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-186. Hindering or obstructing officer—penalties. Any person who shall hinder or obstruct in any way the sealer, the chief sealer, or any one of the deputy sealers, in the performance of his official duties shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty dollars ($20.00) or more than two hundred dollars ($200.00), or by imprisonment for not more than three (3) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-187. Impersonation of officer—penalties. Any person who shall impersonate in any way the sealer, the chief sealer, or any one of the deputy sealers, by the use of his seal or a counterfeit of his seal, or in any other manner, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment for not more than one (1) year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-188. Offenses and penalties. Any person who, by himself, or by his servant or agent, or as the servant or agent of another person, performs any one of the acts enumerated in subparagraphs (1) through (9) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon a first conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty dollars ($20.00) or more than two hundred dollars ($200.00), or by imprisonment for not more than three (3) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Upon a second or subsequent conviction thereof, he shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) or more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment for not more than one (1) year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(1) Use or have in possession for the purpose of using for any commercial purpose specified in section 10 [90-162], sell, offer, or expose for sale or hire, or have in possession for the purpose of selling or hiring, an incorrect weight or measure or any device or instrument used to or calculated to falsify any weight or measure.

(2) Use, or have in possession for the purpose of current use for any commercial purpose specified in section 10 [90-162], a weight or measure that does not bear a seal or mark such as is specified in section 14 [90-166], unless such weight or measure has been exempted from testing by the provisions of section 10 [90-162] or by a regulation of the sealer issued under the authority of section 8 [90-160], or unless the device has been placed in service as provided by a regulation of the sealer issued under the authority of section 8 [90-160] of this act: provided, that, any person or persons making use of weighing or measuring devices subject to this act must report to the sealer of weights and measures or his deputies, in writing, the number and location of said weighing or measuring device and must promptly report the installation of any new weighing or measuring device.

(3) Dispose of any rejected or condemned weight or measure in a manner contrary to law or regulation.

(4) Remove from any weight or measure, contrary to law or regulation, any tag, seal, or mark placed thereon by the appropriate authority.

(5) Sell, or offer or expose for sale, less than the quantity he represents of any commodity, thing, or service.

(6) Take more than the quantity he represents of any commodity, thing, or service, when, as buyer, he furnishes the weight or measure by means of which the amount of the commodity, thing, or service is determined.

(7) Keep for the purpose of sale, advertise, or offer or expose for sale, or sell any commodity, thing, or service in a condition or manner contrary to law or regulation.

(8) Use in retail trade, except in the preparation of packages put up in advance of sale and of medical prescriptions, a weight or measure that is not so positioned that its indications may be accurately read and the weighing or measuring operation observed from some position which may reasonably be assumed by a customer.

(9) Violate any provision of this act or of the regulations promulgated under the provisions of this act for which a specific penalty has not been prescribed.

History: En. Sec. 36, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

Conduct Amounting to False Pretenses

Misdemeanors under former Packaged Commodities Offered for Sale Act and former False Weight and Measures Act were not lesser included offenses of felony of obtaining money by false pretenses since above acts required "sale" while felony statute does not; state has discretionary power to choose under which law it will charge defendant and the fact that two statutes overlap in prohibiting same act does not mean that the defendant can only be prosecuted under statute providing lesser penalty. State v. Lagerquist, 152 M 21, 445 P 2d 910.

90-189. Injunction. The sealer is authorized to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for, and such court upon hearing and for cause shown may grant, a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating any provision of this act.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-190. Presumptive evidence. For the purposes of this act, proof of the existence of a weight or measure or a weighing or measuring device in or about any building, inclosure, stand, or vehicle in which or from which is shown that buying or selling is commonly carried on, shall, in the absence of conclusive evidence to the contrary, be presumptive proof of the regular use of such weight or measure or weighing or measuring device for commercial purposes and of such use by the person in charge of such building, inclosure, stand, or vehicle.

History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-191. Validity of prosecutions. Prosecutions for violation of any provision of this act are declared to be valid and proper, notwithstanding the existence of any other valid general or specific act of this state dealing with matters that may be the same as or similar to those covered by this act.

History: En. Sec. 39, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-192. Separability provision. If any provision of this act is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of the act and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

History: En. Sec. 40, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-193. Repeal of conflicting laws. All laws and parts of laws contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

History: En. Sec. 41, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

90-194. Citation. This act may be cited as the "Weights and Measures Act of Montana."

History: En. Sec. 42, Ch. 99, L. 1969.

Repealing Clause

Section 43 of Ch. 99, Laws 1969 read "Sections 90-101 through 90-119, 90-120 through 90-129, 90-131, 90-133 through 90-143, 90-145 through 90-152, 90-601 through 90-620, 3-202, 3-2432, 3-2433, 11-958, 50-603, 50-408, 50-409, R. C. M., 1947, are repealed."

CHAPTER 2—APPLES, GRADES AND BOXES

Section 90-201. Grades of apples.

90-201. (4265.1) Grades of apples. The standard grades of apples for the state of Montana shall be: "Extra fancy or first grade," "Fancy or second grade," "C," "Combination grade," and "Hail grade," and "Orchard-run grade."

(a) to (f). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(g) "Orchard-run grade" shall consist of apples of one variety, which are mature, hand-picked, clean, sound, free from infection or disease or serious damage and must have fifteen per centum (15%) color requirements characteristic of the variety and shall be marked in block letters not less than one inch in height on both ends of box "Orchard-run grade."

(h) No apples smaller than two and one-fourth (2¼) inches in diameter shall be permitted in any grade.

Small apples which are under size requirements as prescribed may be shipped if marked "small" in block letters not less than one inch in height on both ends of box, provided such apples are free from insect pests and diseases.

(i) In order to provide for variations incident to commercial grading and handling a tolerance of ten per centum (10%) for a total of all defects from the standard of the grade shall be allowed.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added "and 'Orchard-run grade'" at the end of the first paragraph; inserted a new subdivision (g); and redesignated former subdivisions (g) and (h) as subdivisions (h) and (i), respectively.

CHAPTER 3—BREAD—STANDARD WEIGHT AND LOAF

90-301. (4273) Repealed.

Repeal

This section (Sec. 1, Ch. 155, L. 1919; Sec. 2, Ch. 252, L. 1957), relating to standard weights for bread, was repealed by Sec. 24, Ch. 160, Laws 1965. For present law, see sec. 90-178.

90-301.1. Repealed.

Repeal

This section (Sec. 1, Ch. 252, L. 1957), relating to the manufacture of bakery products, was repealed by Sec. 27, Ch. 307, Laws 1967.

90-304. (4276) Repealed.

Repeal

This section (Sec. 4, Ch. 155, L. 1919), relating to the violation of laws pertaining to the manufacture and sale of bread, was repealed by Sec. 27, Ch. 307, Laws 1967.

CHAPTER 6—PACKAGED COMMODITIES OFFERED FOR SALE

Section 90-621. Supplement clause.

90-601 to 90-620. Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 90-601 to 90-620 (Secs. 1 to 20, Ch. 160, L. 1965), relating to packaged commodities offered for sale, were repealed by Sec. 43, Ch. 99, Laws 1969. For present law, see secs. 90-153, 90-163 to 90-165, 90-167, 90-170 to 90-178, 90-184 to 90-186, 90-188 and 90-189.

90-621. Supplement clause. This act is intended to be supplementary, and is not intended to repeal sections 90-140 and 90-141, R. C. M. 1947, or any other law relating to weights and measures.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 160, L. 1965.

Compiler's Notes

Sections 90-140 and 90-141, referred to in this section, were repealed by Sec. 43, Ch. 99, Laws 1969.

Repealing Clause

Section 24 of Ch. 160, Laws 1965 read "Repealing section. Sections 90-130, 90-132, 90-144 and 90-301, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

50. Sale of property by guardians—investment of proceeds, 91-5015.
53. Proceedings in lieu of probate—estates of less than ten thousand dollars, 91-5301 to 91-5312.

CHAPTER 1—WILLS—EXECUTION AND REVOCATION

Section 91-105. State institutions which may take by gift, bequest or grant.
91-106. Persons who may make gifts to state institution.

91-103. (6976) Will, or part thereof, procured by fraud.

Undue Influence

Substantial evidence of undue influence was shown where beneficiary under a second will was never close to the testator until learning of his bank account, and importuned upon him, while in a weakened condition, so that the testator rejected his friends. In re Maricich's Estate, 145 M 146, 400 P 2d 873.

The contestant has the burden of showing undue influence. In re Maricich's Estate, 145 M 146, 400 P 2d 873.

In considering undue influence, the court may take into account confidential relationship of person attempting to influence testator, his physical and mental condition as it affects his ability to withstand influence, the unnaturalness of the disposition, and the demands made upon the testator in light of the circumstances. In re Maricich's Estate, 145 M 146, 400 P 2d 873.

91-105. (6978) State institutions which may take by gift, bequest or grant. The state of Montana, units of the university of Montana, the state school for the deaf and blind, all institutions in the department of institutions, and any and all institutions now created or established, or which may hereafter be created or established, and supported in whole or in part by the state of Montana for any purpose, are hereby empowered and given the right to accept, receive, take, hold, own, and possess gifts, donations, grants, devises, or bequests of real or personal property from any source whatsoever; and said gifts, donations, grants, bequests, or devises may be made direct to the state of Montana, or in the name of any of said institutions, or to any officer or board of said institutions, or to any person in trust for said institutions; but in the event the same shall be made direct to any such institution, or to any officer or board of any such institution, such gift, donation, grant, devise, or bequest shall be construed as a gift, donation, grant, devise, or bequest to the state of Montana, and shall be administered and used by the state of Montana for the particular purpose for which the same was given, donated, granted, bequeathed, or devised; and in the event no particular purpose is mentioned in such gift, grant, devise, or bequest, then the same shall be used for the general support, maintenance or improvement of such institution by the state of Montana.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment inserted "units of" before "the university of Montana"; deleted "the state normal college, the state orphans' home" after "university of Montana"; and substituted "all institutions in the department of institutions" for "the state school of mines, the state reform school, the soldiers' home, the Montana state tuberculosis sanitarium, the state asylum for the insane, the state penitentiary" after "school for the deaf and blind."

91-106. (6979) Persons who may make gifts to state institution. A donation, gift, grant, bequest, devise, or testamentary disposition of property, real or personal, may be made by any person over the age of eighteen years, of sound mind, to the state of Montana, a unit of the university of Montana, the state school for deaf and blind, an institution in the department of institutions, and any and all institutions now created or established, or which may hereafter be created or established and supported, in whole or in part, by the state of Montana for any purpose. And any person, corporation, or association of persons may make any gift, donation, or grant of property, real or personal, to the state of Montana, or to any of the institutions above-named or referred to; but in the event any gift, donation, grant, devise, or bequest shall be made to any such institution, or to any officer or board of any such institution, the same shall be construed as a gift, donation, grant, devise, or bequest to the state of Montana, and shall be administered and used for the state of Montana for the particular purpose for which the same was given, donated, granted, bequeathed, or devised; and in the event no particular purpose is mentioned in such gift, grant, devise, or bequest, then the same shall be used for the general support, maintenance, or improvement of such institution by the state of Montana.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment inserted "a unit of" before the university of Montana; deleted "the state normal college, the state orphans' home" after "university of Montana"; and substituted "an institution in the department of institutions" for "the state school of mines, the state reform school, the soldiers' home, the state asylum for the insane, the state penitentiary" after "school for deaf and blind."

CHAPTER 2—WILLS--INTERPRETATION

91-202. (7017) Intention to be ascertained from will.

Division of Residue

Holographic will making specific bequests to various persons' children and directing that any residue be divided by percentage "to all of them more or less" was construed to bequeath specific sums to children as classes rather than individually but with children to participate equally as individuals in residue. In re Estate of Jensen, 152 M 495, 452 P 2d 418.

91-205. (7020) Harmonizing various parts.

Intention of Testator

Holographic will making specific bequests to various persons' children and directing that any residue be divided by percentage "to all of them more or less" was construed to bequeath specific sums to children as classes rather than individually but with children to participate equally as individuals in residue. In re Estate of Jensen, 152 M 495, 452 P 2d 418.

Where sole purpose and object of trust was payment of income for life to testator's wife, mother, sister and son, and such obligations were either fulfilled or no longer possible of fulfillment, trial court properly terminated trust. Testamentary Trust of Child, 153 M 349, 457 P 2d 447.

91-209. (7024) Words to receive an operative construction.

Ambiguous Phrase

Holographic will making specific bequests to various persons' children and directing that any residue be divided by percentage "to all of them more or less" was construed to bequeath specific sums to children as classes rather than individually but with children to participate equally as individuals in residue. CHAPTER 4—SUCCESSION

Section 91-403. Succession to and distribution of estates.

91-403. (7073) Succession to and distribution of estates. When any person having title to any estate not limited by marriage contract dies without disposing of the estate by will, it is succeeded to and must be distributed, unless otherwise expressly provided by the laws of Montana, subject to the payment of his debts, in the following manner:

1. If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife, only one (1) child, or the lawful issue of one (1) child, in equal shares to the surviving husband, or wife and child, or issue of such child. If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife, and more than one (1) child living, or one (1) child living, and the lawful issue of one (1) or more deceased children, one-third (⅓) to the surviving husband or wife, and the remainder in equal shares to his children, and to the lawful issue of any deceased child, by right of representation; but if there be no child of the decedent living at his death, the remainder goes to all his lineal descendants; and if all the descendants are in the same degree of kindred to the decedent, they share equally, otherwise they take according to the right of representation. If the decedent leaves no surviving husband or wife, but leaves issue, the whole estate goes to such issue; and if such issue consists of more than one (1) child living, or one (1) child living, and the lawful issue of one (1) or more deceased children, then the estate goes in equal shares to the children living, or to the child living, and the issue of the deceased child or children by right of representation.

2. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

3. If there be neither issue, husband, wife, father, nor mother, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of the decedent, and to the children or grandchildren of any deceased brother or sister, by right of representation.

4. to 7. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

Sec. 1, Ch. 217, L. 1971. Cal. Civ. C. Sec. 1386.

Compiler's Notes

The case of Brundy v. Canby, 50 M 454, 148 P 315, annotated under this section in the parent volume, was decided in 1915, before the 1941 amendment of this section. The reasons for the decision would no longer apply under the present version of the statute. See the first sentence, subdivision 2 of this section.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "or grandchildren" in subdivision 3 and made a minor change in phraseology.

Nieces and Nephews

Where decedent was survived only by nieces and nephews and children of deceased nephews, the nieces and nephews took per capita and the children of deceased nephews took per stirpes the share that their fathers would have taken. In re Estate of Brown, 158 M 413, 492 P 2d 914.

Surviving Parent

Where decedent left no surviving wife nor children and his father was dead, his mother would be the sole beneficiary of his estate under this section. Cowan v. Pacific Gamble Robinson Co., 232 F Supp 403, 405.

91-417. (7087) Inheritance by representation.

Degree of Kinship

The right of representation applies to any degree of kinship, and where the nearest heirs were nieces and nephews, the children of deceased nephews were heirs by right of representation. In re Estate of Brown, 158 M 413, 492 P 2d 914.

91-423. Uniform Simultaneous Death Act, etc.

Compiler's Notes

In addition to the jurisdictions noted in the parent volume, Georgia and the Virgin Islands have adopted the Uniform Simultaneous Death Act.

CHAPTER 5—ESCHEATED ESTATES—INHERITANCE BY NONRESIDENT ALIENS—DISPOSAL OF UNCLAIMED PROPERTY

Section 91-502. Title to escheated property vests in state—when.
91-504. Investment and disposition of money and property.
91-505. Unsold personal property, how disposed of—auction sale.
91-506. Unsold real property, how disposed of—auction sale.
91-507. Unclaimed personal property in hands of agent—disposal.
91-508. Sales by state department of revenue, how conducted.
91-509. Court action by claimant of property in hands of state treasurer—limitation of action—judgment.
91-512. Duty of attorney general—employment of special assistant.
91-520. Conditions under which aliens in foreign country may inherit.
91-523. Disposition of money.

91-502. Title to escheated property vests in state—when. Whenever the title to any property, either real or personal, or mixed, fails for any reason including want of heirs or next of kin, such title shall vest in the state of Montana immediately upon the death of the owner without an inquest or other proceeding in the nature of office found, and there shall be no presumption that such owner died leaving heirs or next of kin; provided that in relation to property other than estates, title shall be presumed to have failed whenever the owner, beneficial owner, or person entitled to any such property within this state has been or shall be and remain unknown for a period of twenty (20) successive years, and during such period whenever the whereabouts of such owner, beneficial owner or persons has been or shall be and remain unknown, and during such period whenever any personal property wherever situated has been or shall be and remain unclaimed, then, in such event, such personal property shall escheat to the state.

All sums escheated under the provisions of the Escheated Property Act shall be delivered by the state department of revenue to the state treasurer and deposited by the treasurer in the agency fund; in connection with the recovery of money or property from escheats other than those from estates, the state department of revenue is hereby authorized and directed to deduct the costs incurred in reducing such moneys or property to the possession of the state of Montana, which sum shall not exceed five per centum (5%) of the amount so recovered, except for such other costs and fees as the judgment of escheat shall so direct.

Moneys and properties placed in the agency fund shall be held in trust for a period of ten (10) years prior to deposit in the public school subfund in the trust and legacy fund by the state treasurer; such ten (10) year period being a time within which the owner, beneficial owner, or any person having a right, title, or interest in the property or money escheated may make claim by the institution of an action for the dissolution of the trust in an amount equal to the full amount or value of the property escheated minus the costs and expenses incident to reducing the same to the possession of the state.

In order to ascertain if any person has knowledge of or is in possession of any escheatable property, it shall be lawful for the attorney general or his assistant to obtain discovery on motion in the district court requiring any such person or persons to divulge any information they may have concerning the possession or location of any property subject to escheat, or any other information pertinent to the recovery of such property by the state of Montana or which information may lead to the discovery of such escheatable property.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "delivered by the state board of equalization to the state treasurer and" in the first part of the second paragraph; and substituted "the state board of equalization" for "the state treasurer" in the latter part of the second paragraph.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in two places in the second paragraph.

91-504. Investment and disposition of money and property. The moneys thus deposited may, upon order of the court or judge, be invested, pending the proceedings, in securities of the United States, or of this state, when such investment is for the best interests of the estate. At the final settlement of any estate, if there be no heirs or other claimants thereof, the district judge shall make an order directing the public administrator to sell all property belonging to the estate and pay the proceeds to the county treasurer, who shall keep an account with such estate of all moneys received and paid to him, and the county treasurer shall forthwith remit all of said money to the state department of revenue with a statement as to the estates to which the money belongs. The department shall immediately deliver such money to the state treasurer who shall thereupon deposit such money so received by him in the agency fund of the state of Montana.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted "the state board of equalization" for "the state treasurer" near the end of the second sentence; and substituted "The board shall immediately deliver such money to the state treasurer who shall" for "And the state treasurer shall" at the beginning of the third sentence.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "department" for "board of equalization" and "board" in the second and third sentences.

91-505. Unsold personal property, how disposed of—auction sale. If the personal property in an estate was not sold by the executor or administrator at the final settlement of the estates as by law provided, then it shall be the duty of such executor or administrator to turn over all of such property to the county treasurer, who in turn shall deliver it to the state department of revenue with a statement setting forth the name of the estate to which it belongs, and the state department of revenue must within one (1) year of the receipt of such property cause the same to be sold to the highest bidder at a public auction sale, at the department's office in Helena, Montana. The state department of revenue shall give notice of such sale by publication in a newspaper published in the city of Helena, Montana, once a week for two (2) successive weeks, making in all two (2) publications, the last publication to be at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of such sale. Such notice shall give the time and place of such sale and shall contain a list and description of the stocks, bonds, securities, effects, or other personal property to be sold. All of the expenses of such sale shall be deducted from the proceeds thereof by the state department of revenue and the balance of such proceeds shall be delivered by the department to the state treasurer for deposit in the agency fund of the state of Montana.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted references to the state board of equalization for references to the state treasurer in five places; and substituted "shall be delivered by the board to the state treasurer for deposit" for "shall be deposited by the state treasurer" near the end of the section.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "department" for "board of equalization" and "board" throughout the section.

91-506. Unsold real property, how disposed of—auction sale. If the real property was not sold by the executor or administrator or public administrator at the final settlement of the estate as by law provided, then it shall be the duty of the executor or administrator or public administrator to make and execute to the state of Montana an executor's or administrator's deed and to deliver the same to the county clerk and recorder of the county wherein such real property is situated, and it shall then become the duty of the county clerk and recorder to file and record said deed, without charge, and after being so recorded the county clerk and recorder shall mail the said deed to the state department of revenue which shall make a record thereof and deliver the deed to the state board of land commissioners. Within one (1) year after the receipt of such recorded deed the state board of land commissioners shall cause such property to be sold to the highest bidder at public auction sale, to be held at the courthouse in the county where such real property or any part thereof is situated. The state board of land commissioners shall give notice of such sale by publication in a newspaper published in the county wherein such real estate or any part thereof is situated once a week for two (2) weeks, making in all two (2) publications, the last publication to be at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of such sale. Such notice shall give the time and place of such sale and contain a description of the real property to be sold. All expenses of such sale shall be deducted by the state board of land commissioners from the proceeds thereof and the balance of such proceeds shall be turned over to the state treasurer who shall deposit the same in the agency fund of the state of Montana. The board of land commissioners shall provide the state department of revenue with a statement indicating the sale price, expenses and net proceeds resulting from each such sale.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "to the state board of equalization which shall make a record thereof and deliver the deed" near the end of the first sentence; and added the final sentence.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in two places.

91-507. Unclaimed personal property in hands of agent—disposal. Whenever the personal property in an estate remains in the hands of an agent, unclaimed for two (2) years and it appears to the court or judge that it is for the best interests of the estate and those interested therein, such property shall be sold under the order of the court or judge and the proceeds, after deducting the expense of the sale allowed by the court or judge, must be paid to the state department of revenue for deposit into the state treasury, and upon receipt of such proceeds it shall be the duty of the state treasurer to deposit the same in the agency fund of the state of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 184, L. 1943; amd. Sec. 114, Ch. 147, L. 1963; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 156, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 71, ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "to the state board of equalization for deposit" after "must be paid" in the latter part of the section.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization."

91-508. Sales by state department of revenue, how conducted. All hereinbefore mentioned sales by the state department of revenue must be at public auction at the department's office. Said sales must be for cash and shall be made to the highest bidder, provided, however, that the department may reject all bids which are disproportionate to the value of the property being sold.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 184, L. 1943; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 156, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 72, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted references to the state board of equalization for references to the state treasurer in three places; and deleted "in the state capitol" from the end of the first sentence.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "department" for "board of equalization" and "board" throughout the section.

91-509. Court action by claimant of property in hands of state treasurer—limitation of action—judgment. Any persons claiming property in the hands of the state treasurer must bring an action in the district court of Lewis and Clark county, Montana, against the state treasurer. In such action one copy of the complaint and summons must be served upon the state treasurer, one must be served upon the attorney general and one must be served upon the director of revenue.

Such action shall be prosecuted subject to all of the provisions of the statutes of this state in relation to civil actions generally, including the right of either party to appeal to the supreme court of the state of Montana. Such action must be brought within two (2) years from the date on which the money or property is received by the state treasurer, saving, however, to infants and persons of unsound mind, or citizens of the United States beyond the limits of the United States, the right to commence their action at any time within the time limited or two (2) years after their respective disabilities cease.

The judgment of the court in such action shall determine and fix the amount of inheritance tax, if any, which is due from said claimant to the state of Montana upon the money or property claimed and none of said money or property shall be turned over to said claimant until said inheritance tax is paid. The state department of revenue shall issue its interlocutory certificate showing the amount of said inheritance tax due, if any, and shall have the right to file objections and be heard upon the final determination of said tax.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "director of revenue" for "state board of equalization" at the end of the first paragraph; and substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in the second sentence of the third paragraph.

91-512. Duty of attorney general—employment of special assistant. The attorney general of the state of Montana shall be the legal adviser in connection with all escheated property matters and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to make investigations and conduct inquiries to determine whether there is property in the state of Montana which should escheat to the state of Montana, and to take all steps necessary to secure such escheat, and for this purpose the attorney general is authorized and empowered to employ a special assistant and incur necessary expenses subject to appropriation limitations.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted "and incur necessary expenses subject to appropriation limitations" at the end of the section for "at a salary not to exceed six thousand dollars ($6,000.00) per annum together with actual, necessary expenses while engaged in outside work in connection with the duties of his office as defined by law."

91-520. Conditions under which aliens in foreign country may inherit. 1. No person shall receive money or property, save and except mining property as an heir, devisee and/or legatee of a deceased person leaving an estate or portion thereof in the state of Montana, if such heir, devisee and/or legatee, at the time of the death of said deceased person, is not a citizen of the United States and is a resident of a foreign country at the time of the death of said intestate or testator, unless, reciprocally, the foreign country in question would permit the transfer to an heir, devisee and/or legatee residing in the United States, of property left by a deceased person in said foreign country.

2. to 6. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "as provided in section 25, article III, of the constitution of the state of Montana" after "except mining property" in subsection 1.

Injunction

Residents of Romania could not enjoin enforcement of statute while probate case was at intermediate stage since state is free to fashion procedure for applying statute in manner not offensive to constitution. Gorun v. Fall, 287 F Supp 725, affirmed, 393 US 398, 21 L Ed 2d 628, 89 S Ct 678.

Reciprocity

Pursuant to Rule 44.1, M. R. Civ. P., trial court has power to fashion procedures for determination of whether reciprocity of transfer and reciprocity of inheritance exists between citizens of state and citizens of foreign country. In re Estate of Giurgiu, 155 M 18, 466 P 2d 83, appeal dismissed 399 US 901, 26 L Ed 2d 555, 90 S Ct 2195.

91-523. Disposition of money. All money, including that realized from the sale or sales of property delivered to the county by an executor or administrator, under the provisions of this act shall, immediately upon its receipt by the county treasurer be delivered to the state department of revenue which shall immediately deliver same to the state treasurer and by him deposited in the agency fund of the state of Montana.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "to the state board of equalization which shall immediately deliver same" before "to the state treasurer" in the latter part of the section.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization."

CHAPTER 6—PROBATE PROCEEDINGS—PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR

Section 91-623. Estates less than fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500).
91-628. Compensation of public administrator.

91-623. (10012) Estates less than fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500). If the statement or statements furnished the public administrator in accordance with the provisions of section 91-621 show that the aggregate market value of the estate of such deceased person is fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) or less in value, then, upon demand of the public administrator, the person, firm, bank, or corporation holding, controlling, or owning the same, or any part thereof, shall turn over, endorse, or surrender the same to such public administrator at once, without the issuance of letters of administration to him. The public administrator shall, upon receipt of the money, evidence of indebtedness, or other personal property, issue a receipt to the person, firm, bank, or corporation delivering the same to him fully describing the property received. Such receipt, signed by the public administrator, shall fully discharge the person, firm, bank, or corporation receiving the same from all further liability to the estate of said deceased person, to the amount of money or for the property set out in said receipt.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 134, L. 1909; re-en. Sec. 10012, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 36, L. 1929; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 222, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted "fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500)" for "five hundred dollars ($500.00)" after "estate of such deceased person is" in the first sentence.

91-628. (10017) Compensation of public administrator. The public administrator shall receive as full compensation for his services, including attorney's fees, a commission of fifteen per cent (15%) of the total amount of money received by him in any estate provided for in this act; provided, that in no case shall the compensation be less than twenty-five dollars ($25).

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 134, L. 1909; re-en. Sec. 10017, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 3, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment raised the administrator's minimum compensation from "five dollars" to "twenty-five dollars."

CHAPTER 7—PROBATE PROCEEDINGS—GENERAL JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURT

91-701. (10018) Jurisdiction of the court over the estate, etc.

Residence of Decedent

County where intestate decedent was domiciled had sole and exclusive jurisdiction over her estate and where order from another county recited the correct domicile but nevertheless issued letters of administration, the order was void on its face and subject to both collateral and direct attack. In re Estate of Brown, 156 M 170, 477 P 2d 882.

CHAPTER 9—PROBATE PROCEEDINGS—CONTESTING PROBATE OF WILLS

91-901. (10032) Contestant to file grounds of contest, etc.

Burden of Proof—Undue Influence

Directed verdict upholding contested will was improper where there was evidence that testator was in a long period of declining physical and mental health due to terminal cancer and sedation, was influenced by a mutual funds salesman, and executed four wills within a six-month period, all of them disinheriting his natural children, making dispositions at great variance with previous wills, and tending to erode the estate. Estate of Hall v. Milkovich, 158 M 438, 492 P 2d 1388, distinguishing In re Estate of Cocanougher, 141 M 16, 375 P 2d 1009.

Evidence Admissible — Testamentary Capacity

Hospital records of testator's terminal illness, during which he executed contested will, were relevant on issue of testamentary capacity and should have been admitted in will contest. Estate of Hall v. Milkovich, 158 M 438, 492 P 2d 1388.

CHAPTER 11—PROBATE PROCEEDINGS—CONTESTING WILLS AFTER PROBATE

91-1101. (10042) The probate may be contested within six months.

Issuance of Citation

Petition contesting will was properly dismissed where the citation was not issued within the statutory period following admission of will to probate. In re Estate of Willner, 147 M 538, 416 P 2d 24, 25.

91-1102. (10043) Citation to be issued to parties interested.

Timely Issuance of Citation

Petition contesting will was properly dismissed where the citation was not issued within statutory period following admission of will to probate. In re Estate of Willner, 147 M 538, 416 P 2d 24, 25.

CHAPTER 13—PROBATE PROCEEDINGS—EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS—ISSUANCE OF LETTERS TESTAMENTARY AND OF ADMINISTRATION

91-1301. (10056) To whom letters on proved will to issue.

Duty of Court

Statute gives power to nominate executor to testator, so that court must appoint as executor person named in will unless he is incompetent under 91-1302. In re Estate of Graf, 150 M 577, 437 P 2d 371.

91-1302. (10057) Who are incompetent as executors or administrators, etc.

Causes for Disqualifying

Fact that named executors may have used undue influence in obtaining property of testator before death, thereby giving rise to claim in behalf of estate against executors, is not in itself evidence of want of integrity such as will disqualify executors. In re Estate of Graf, 150 M 577, 437 P 2d 371.

CHAPTER 14—PERSONS TO WHOM AND ORDER IN WHICH LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION ARE GRANTED

Section 91-1401. Order of persons entitled to administer—partner not to administer.
91-1405. Who are incompetent to act as administrators.

91-1401. (10068) Order of persons entitled to administer—partner not to administer. Administration of estate of all persons dying intestate and of all persons dying testate without appointing an executor who qualified for appointment must be granted to some one or more of the persons hereinafter mentioned or to persons nominated by them, and they are respectively entitled to preference thereto in the following order the relatives of the decedent being entitled to priority only when they are entitled to succeed to the estate or some portion thereof;

1. The surviving husband or wife.
2. The children.
3. The father or mother.
4. The brothers.
5. The sisters.
6. The grandchildren.
7. The next of kin entitled to share in the distribution of the estate.
8. A beneficiary under the will of the decedent.
9. The public administrator.
10. A creditor.
11. Any person legally competent.

If the decedent was a member of a partnership at the time of his decease, the surviving partner must in no case be appointed administrator of the estate.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment inserted "and of all persons * * * qualified for appointment," after "persons dying intestate" and "or to persons nominated by them" after "hereinafter mentioned" and added "the relatives of the decedent * * * some portion thereof" at the end of the first paragraph; deleted " , or some competent person whom he or she may request to have appointed" from paragraph 1; inserted new paragraph 8, and redesignated former paragraphs 8 to 10 as new paragraphs 9 to 11.

Creditor as Administrator

On claim for unpaid hospital expenses of decedent, proper remedy for hospital would have been to apply for letters of administration as creditor. Daughters of Jesus v. Gee, 153 M 342, 457 P 2d 471.

91-1405. (10072) Who are incompetent to act as administrators. No person is competent or entitled to serve as administrator or administratrix who is:

1. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

2. Not a bona fide resident of the state; but if a person otherwise entitled to serve is not a resident of the state, he may nominate a resident of the state to serve as administrator, and the court or judge must order letters issued to the nominee.

3. and 4. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 59, p. 254, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 59, 2nd Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 59, 2nd Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; amd. Sec. 2434, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; amd. Sec. 1, p. 137, L. 1899; re-en. Amendments

The 1969 amendment deleted "and either the husband, wife, or child, or parent, or brother, or sister of the deceased, he may request the court or judge to appoint a resident of the state to serve as administrator, and such person may be appointed, but no other nonresident than a surviving husband, wife, or child, or parent, or brother, or sister shall have such right to request an appointment, and" after "resident of the state," inserted, in place thereof, "he may nominate a resident of the state to serve as administrator," substituted "nominee" for "applicant" after "letters issued to the" and deleted "entitled thereto under the provisions of this chapter" at the end of paragraph 2.

CHAPTER 17—OATHS AND BONDS OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

Section 91-1702. Bond of administrators and executors, form and requirement of—when not required.

91-1702. (10088) Bond of administrators and executors, form and requirement of—when not required. Every person to whom letters testamentary or of administration are directed to issue must, before receiving them, execute a bond to the state of Montana, with two (2) or more sufficient sureties or a sufficient surety company, to be approved by the district court, or a judge thereof. In form, the bond must be joint and several, and the penalty must not be less than the value of the personal property and the annual rents and profits of real property belonging to the estate, nor more than twice the value of such personal property and rents and profits; provided that upon written request of all the heirs, devisees, or legatees and all being over eighteen (18) years of age and entitled to all of the estate upon distribution, the court may in its discretion fix the penalty of the bond at any sum less than the value of the personal property, and the annual rents and profits of the real property belonging to the estate; and provided further that if, at the time of hearing any application for letters testamentary or of administration, it satisfactorily appears to the court or judge that the assets of the estate for which such letters of administration or letters testamentary are sought do not warrant the necessity of a bond on the part of the applicant, the court or judge may in its discretion order such letters to issue without bond; but such administrator or executor may at any time afterward, if it appear from any cause necessary or proper, be required to file a bond as in other cases.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment reduced the age specified in the first proviso to the second sentence from 21 to 18 years, and made minor changes in style.

CHAPTER 21—REMOVAL AND SUSPENSION OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

91-2101. (10124) Suspension of powers of executor.

Causes for Removal

Administratrix who failed to file inventory and appraisement within three months after appointment, failed to file first accounting within six months after appointment, failed to make money from sale of property available to heirs, failed to provide estate with interest on money from sale of property, lost inheritance tax credit and allowed tax penalties to be assessed against estate was properly removed. In re Estate of Smith, 149 M 326, 426 P 2d 575.

91-2102. (10125) Executor to have notice of his suspension, etc.

Causes for Removal

Administratrix who failed to file inventory and appraisement within three months after appointment, failed to file first accounting within six months after appointment, failed to make money from sale of property available to heirs, failed to provide estate with interest on money from sale of property, lost inheritance tax credit and allowed tax penalties to be assessed against estate was properly removed. In re Estate of Smith, 149 M 326, 426 P 2d 575.

CHAPTER 22—INVENTORY AND APPRAISEMENT—POSSESSION OF ESTATE

Section 91-2212. Funds on deposit at financial institution—surviving spouse may withdraw—affidavit required.
91-2213. Affidavit sufficient to require release of funds—liability of financial institutions and their representatives discharged.

91-2201. (10129) Inventory to be returned, including the homestead.

Causes for Removal

Administratrix who failed to file inventory and appraisement within three months after appointment, failed to file first accounting within six months after appointment, failed to make money from sale of property available to heirs, failed to provide estate with interest on money from sale of property, lost inheritance tax credit and allowed tax penalties to be assessed against estate was properly removed. In re Estate of Smith, 149 M 326, 426 P 2d 575.

91-2212. Funds on deposit at financial institution—surviving spouse may withdraw—affidavit required. Whether a person dies testate or intestate, and irrespective of the character of his or her property, if the value of the estate does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), the spouse of the decedent may collect from any bank, banking institution, savings and loan association or credit union, any moneys held to the credit of the decedent not to exceed the total sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), without procuring letters testamentary or of administration, upon furnishing such bank or organization with an affidavit showing the right of the affiant to receive such money.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 119, L. 1969.

Title of Act

An act providing that a surviving spouse may withdraw funds from financial institutions without probate proceedings in certain cases.

91-2213. Affidavit sufficient to require release of funds—liability of financial institutions and their representatives discharged. The receipt of such affiant or affiants shall constitute sufficient acquittance for the payment of money made pursuant to the provisions of this act, and shall fully discharge such person, representative, officer, bank, institution, corporation or body from any further liability with reference thereto, without the necessity of inquiring into the truth of any of the facts stated in the affidavit. But such payment shall not preclude administration of the estate of the decedent when necessary to enforce payment of the decedent's debts.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 119, L. 1969.

CHAPTER 27—CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATE

91-2701. (10170) Notice to creditors, etc.

Time for Presenting Claims

All claims against estate arising from contract must be presented to executor within four months of first publication of notice to creditors. Brown v. Midland Nat. Bank, 150 M 422, 435 P 2d 878.

91-2704. (10173) Time within which claims against an estate, etc.

Actual Notice Unnecessary

Bank which failed to present claim on note against decedent's estate within statutory time was barred where notice by publication appeared in only newspaper in community of 1,800 citizens of which both bank and decedent were residents; bank's contention that it received no actual notice which could have been accomplished with ease and that to bar claim under such circumstances was deprivation of property without due process of law was rejected. Baker Nat. Bank v. Henderson, 151 M 526, 445 P 2d 574.

Contract Claims

All claims against estate arising from contract must be presented to executor within four months of first publication of notice to creditors. Brown v. Midland Nat. Bank, 150 M 422, 435 P 2d 878.

Mechanic's Lien

A mechanic's lien under sections 45-501 to 45-512 is not a claim arising upon a contract within the meaning of this section and the lien is not lost because creditor's claim is not filed. Hammer v. Chapin, 256 F Supp 818, 820.

91-2709. (10178) Limitation of actions on rejected claim.

Exclusive Nature of Procedure

Rule 41(e), M. R. Civ. P., providing for dismissal of action for failure to serve summons as provided therein, does not apply to service of summons in suit on rejected claim in probate which is governed exclusively by statute providing for contesting rejected claims in probate. Werning v. McFarland, 149 M 137, 423 P 2d 851.

Suit after Discharge

Summons, in suit on rejected claim filed within three-month statutory limit, served after discharge in probate was not substantial compliance with statutory requirement to "bring suit" within three months of rejection of claim. Werning v. McFarland, 149 M 137, 423 P 2d 851.

Variance between Claim and Suit

Claim sued upon must be within scope of claim presented to executor, so that action for breach of contract to bequeath could not be predicated upon creditor's claim to recover debt. Brown v. Midland Nat. Bank, 150 M 422, 435 P 2d 878.

91-2711. (10180) Claims must be presented before suit.

Claim for Hospital Expenses

In action to recover unpaid hospital expenses from decedent's heirs at law, who had distributed assets without having administrator appointed, trial court improperly granted relief to plaintiff hospital since it could not sue upon its claim until it first presented such claim to administrator; thus, proper remedy would have been for hospital to apply for letters of administration as creditor, and hospital's attempted remedy circumvented statutory priorities for payment of debts. Daughters of Jesus v. Gee, 153 M 342, 457 P 2d 471.

Variance between Claim and Suit

Claim sued upon must be within scope of claim presented to executor, so that action for breach of contract to bequeath could not be predicated upon creditors' claim to recover debt. Brown v. Midland Nat. Bank, 150 M 422, 435 P 2d 878.

CHAPTER 28—SALES OF PROPERTY OF ESTATE IN GENERAL—BORROWING MONEY—SALES OF CERTAIN PERSONAL PROPERTY

91-2801. (10195) Estate chargeable with debts—no priority.

Hospital Expenses

In action to recover unpaid hospital expenses from decedent's heirs at law, who had distributed assets of decedent's estate without having administrator appointed, trial court improperly granted relief to plaintiff hospital since it could not sue upon its claim until it first presented such claim to administrator; thus, proper remedy would have been for hospital to apply for letters of administration as creditor, and hospital's attempted remedy circumvented statutory priorities for payment of debts. Daughters of Jesus v. Gee, 153 M 342, 457 P 2d 471.

CHAPTER 30—SALES OF REAL ESTATE AND CONTRACTS FOR PURCHASE OF LAND

Section 91-3009. Contents of order of sale—conditions of sale—public or private.

91-3009. (10218) Contents of order of sale—conditions of sale—public or private. The order of sale must describe the lands to be sold and the terms of sale which may be for cash, or for part cash and the balance on a credit not exceeding five (5) years where the sales price is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less, payable in gross or in installments, with interest, as the court or judge may direct. For sales where the sales price exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), deferred payments may be extended not to exceed twenty (20) years. The land may be sold in one parcel or in subdivisions, as the executor or administrator shall judge most beneficial to the estate, unless the court or judge otherwise specially directs. If it appears that any part of such real estate has been devised, and not charged in such devise with the payment of debts or legacies, the court or judge must order the remainder to be sold before that so devised. Every such sale must be ordered to be made at public auction, unless, in the opinion of the court or judge, it would benefit the estate to sell the whole or some part of such real estate at private sale. The court or judge may, if the same is asked for in the petition, order or direct such real estate, or any part thereof, to be sold at either public or private sale, if the executor or administrator shall deem it to be most beneficial for the estate. If the executor or administrator neglects or refuses to make a sale under the order, and as directed therein, he may be compelled to sell, by order of the court or judge, made on motion, after due notice by any party interested.

C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10218, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 49, L. 1943; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 64, L. 1969. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1544.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment inserted "where the sales price is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less," after "not exceeding five (5) years" in the first sentence; and inserted the present second sentence.

CHAPTER 31—MORTGAGING AND LEASING REAL ESTATE

Section 91-3108. Leasing—procedure to procure order—provisions and terms—execution—effect.

91-3108. (10256) Leasing—procedure to procure order—provisions and terms—execution—effect. To obtain an order to lease the realty, the proceedings to be taken and the effect thereof shall be as follows:

1. to 3. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

4. At the time and place appointed in the order to show cause, or such other time and place to which the hearing may be postponed, the court or judge having first received satisfactory proof of personal service or publication of the order to show cause, must proceed to hear the petition, and any objections that may be filed or presented thereto. Upon such hearing, witnesses may be compelled to attend and testify in the same manner and with like effect as in other cases, and the court or judge may, in its or his discretion, appoint one or more, not exceeding three, disinterested persons to appraise the rental value of the premises, and direct that a reasonable compensation for their services, not to exceed five dollars per day, be paid by the estate. If, after a full hearing, the court or judge is satisfied that it will be for the advantage of the estate to lease the whole or any portion of the real estate, an order must be made authorizing, empowering, and directing the executor or administrator to make such lease. The order may prescribe the minimum rental to be received for the premises, and the period of the lease, which must in no case be longer than for ten years, except that a lease or contract providing for the exploration of the premises for oil, gas, coal or hydrocarbons may provide for a term of ten years and for as long thereafter as oil, gas, coal, or hydrocarbons shall be produced in commercial quantities, and may prescribe the other terms and conditions of such lease.

5. and 6. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted "coal" in two places in the last sentence of subdivision 4.

CHAPTER 32—GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

91-3202. (10258) Executors and administrators may sue and be sued.

Failure To Join Beneficiary

Although proper procedure was followed in bringing suit against administrator of estate without joining all beneficiaries, conduct of parties in perpetrating fraud on court required that judgment be vacated on motion of aggrieved beneficiary who was not party to suit. Selway v. Burns, 150 M 1, 429 P 2d 640.

CHAPTER 33—CONVEYANCE OF REAL ESTATE BY EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

Section 91-3302. Petition for executor or administrator to make conveyance and notice of hearing.

91-3302. (10269) Petition for executor or administrator to make conveyance and notice of hearing. On the presentation of a verified petition by the executor or administrator, or by any person claiming to be entitled to such conveyance from an executor or administrator, setting forth the facts upon which the claim is predicated, the court, or a judge thereof, shall appoint a time and place for hearing the petition, and shall order notice thereof to be served on the executor or administrator personally when he is not the petitioner, and a copy thereof served upon each known heir, or, in the event of minor or incompetent heirs, upon the duly appointed and qualified guardian for such incompetent or minor, not less than twenty (20) days prior to the date of said hearing; or the court may order notice by publication for four (4) successive weeks in such newspaper in the county as the court may designate, provided, however, that if such contract was of record at the date of the death of the person executing such contract, then, in that event, notice of such hearing may be given by serving such notice on the executor or administrator personally, when he is not the petitioner, and posting such notice in three (3) public places in the county where the court is held, for at least ten (10) days prior to the day fixed for the hearing; provided, further, that if the written consent of all the known heirs over the age of eighteen (18) years and the guardian, duly authorized, of all minor or incompetent heirs be obtained and filed in the court before which said hearing is pending, then no other or further notices shall be required.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment reduced the age specified in the final proviso from 21 to 18 years, and made minor changes in style.

CHAPTER 34—LIABILITIES AND COMPENSATION OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

91-3407. (10287) Compensation of executors and administrators.

Neglect and Mismanagement of Estate

Removed administratrix and her attorneys who had failed to make money from sale of property available to heirs, failed to provide for interest on money from sale of property for benefit of estate, lost inheritance tax credit and allowed tax penalties to be assessed against estate were properly awarded fees less than those provided for by statute which applies only to fees for successful completion of estate. In re Estate of Smith, 149 M 326, 426 P 2d 575.

CHAPTER 35—ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENT BY EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

91-3501. (10288) Exhibit of receipts and disbursements, etc.

Inventory of Assets

Administratrix who failed to file inventory and appraisement within three months after appointment, failed to file first accounting within six months after appointment, failed to make money from sale of property available to heirs, failed to provide estate with interest on money from sale of property, lost inheritance tax credit and allowed tax penalties to be assessed against estate was properly removed. In re Estate of Smith, 149 M 326, 426 P 2d 575.

91-3507. (10294) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 91-3507 (Sec. 260, p. 307, L. 1877), relating to the rendering of accounts after notice to creditors, was repealed by Sec. 1, Ch. 272, Laws 1969.

91-3516. (10303) Settlement of account to be conclusive, etc.

Effect of Fraud

Final decree of distribution and discharge in probate will not be set aside on ground of inadvertence or fraud under statute or Rule 60(b), M. R. Civ. P., in absence of manifest abuse of court's discretion to grant relief thereunder in case where moving party had every opportunity to protect his claim in probate and failed to do so. Werning v. McFarland, 149 M 137, 423 P 2d 851.

CHAPTER 36—DEBTS OF THE ESTATE—PAYMENT OF

91-3601. (10307) Order of payment of debts.

Circumvention of Payment Priorities

In action to recover unpaid hospital expenses from decedent's heirs at law, who had distributed assets of decedent's estate without having administrator appointed, trial court improperly granted relief to plaintiff hospital since it could not sue upon its claim until it first presented such claim to administrator; thus, proper remedy would have been for hospital to apply for letters of administration as creditor, and hospital's attempted remedy circumvented statutory priorities for payment of debts. Daughters of Jesus v. Gee, 153 M 342, 457 P 2d 471.

91-3606. (10312) Provision for disputed and contingent claims.

Summons after Discharge

Summons, in suit on rejected claim filed within three-month statutory limit, served after discharge in probate was not substantial compliance with statutory requirement to "bring suit" within three months of rejection of claim and relieved executrix of statutory duty to pay amount of disputed claim into court. Werning v. McFarland, 149 M 137, 423 P 2d 851.

CHAPTER 39—FINAL DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATE —DISCHARGE OF EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR

Section 91-3906. Final settlement, order and discharge.

91-3906. (10332) Final settlement, order and discharge. When the estate has been fully administered, and it is shown by the executor or administrator, by the production of satisfactory vouchers, that he has paid all sums of money due from him, and delivered up, under the order of the court or judge, all the property of the estate to the parties entitled, and performed all the acts lawfully required of him, the court or judge must make an order discharging him from all liability to be incurred thereafter. If the estate has not been distributed in its entirety, and the executor or administrator discharged within two (2) years from the date of initial appointment of the executor or administrator, the clerk of the district court shall advise the district judge thereof and the judge shall notify the executor, administrator and his attorney of record to appear before the court and show cause why the estate has not been distributed in its entirety and the executor or administrator discharged.

If after such show cause hearing, the judge determines that good cause does not exist for failure to distribute the estate, the judge shall make an order directing that the estate be distributed in its entirety within thirty (30) days and that the executor or administrator and his attorney shall receive no fee or other compensation from the estate.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added the second sentence to the first paragraph; and added the second paragraph.

CHAPTER 42—SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS OF TRUSTEES AFTER DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATE

Section 91-4201. Court not to lose jurisdiction of trusts by distribution—accounts of trustees.

91-4201. (10352) Court not to lose jurisdiction of trusts by distribution—accounts of trustees. Where any trust has been created by or under any will to continue after distribution, the district court shall not lose jurisdiction of the estate by final distribution, but shall retain jurisdiction thereof for the purpose of the settlement of accounts under the trust as provided in Title 86.

91-4401. (10400.1) Taxes on transfer—when and how imposed.

Tenants in Common

Where husband died after he and his wife had conveyed land owned as tenants in common to sons, reserving a life estate with right of survivorship, wife, who obtained deceased husband's one-half interest in land was subject to inheritance tax on husband's interest under section 91-4405, but sons' interests were not taxable until termination of the mother's life estate. In re Hess' Estate, 145 M 552, 403 P 2d 748.

91-4402. (10400.1) Transfers in contemplation of death.

Possession Postponed

Where husband and wife held real property as tenants in common, but transferred one half of the property to one son, and the other half to the other son, reserving a life estate in each piece of property with right of survivorship, on father's death sons were not subject to inheritance tax until termination of the mother's intervening life estate. In re Hess' Estate, 145 M 552, 403 P 2d 748.

91-4405. (10400.1) Joint estates, government bonds, tenants, etc.

Applicable Property

Since the 1951 amendment, this section, including the clause excepting from taxation property shown to have belonged to the survivor and not the decedent, applies whether the property is tangible or intangible or whether the purchase price or the actual property is the subject of the joint tenancy. In re Parks' Estate, 145 M 333, 401 P 2d 83.

Corporate Stock

Corporate stock registered in both the husband's and wife's names, but purchased by the wife, and in her possession, was not subject to inheritance tax on death of husband. In re Parks' Estate, 145 M 333, 401 P 2d 83.

Nontaxable Transfers

The 1951 amendment, stipulating that upon the death of one of the spouses, "the right of the survivor or survivors to the immediate possesion or ownership is a taxable transfer," when read in conjunction with the clause excepting property shown to have belonged originally to the survivor, shows that a "transfer" is taxed, but what in reality is not a "transfer" is not taxed. In re Parks' Estate, 145 M 333, 401 P 2d 83.

91-4407. (10400.1) Tax on clear market value—deductions.

Clear Market Value

Clear market value as used in this section means net value in the open market as determined by price willing but not obligated buyer would pay and willing but not obligated seller would accept, with both parties knowing all pertinent facts affecting value. In re Estate of Power, 156 M 100, 476 P 2d 506.

Valuation of United States Treasury bonds redeemable at par in discharge of federal estate tax liability must be based on clear market value on date of decedent's death for purposes of this section rather than on par value. In re Estate of Power, 156 M 100, 476 P 2d 506.

91-4411. (10400.3a) Estate tax. (a) In addition to the inheritance taxes hereinabove imposed, an estate tax is hereby imposed upon the transfer of the estate of every decedent leaving an estate which is subject to the federal estate tax imposed by the United States of America under the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and which has, in whole or in part, a taxable situs in this state. The tax hereby imposed upon the transfer of each such estate shall be equal to the maximum tax credit allowable for state death taxes against the federal estate tax imposed with respect to the portion of the decedent's estate having a taxable situs in this state, less the inheritance taxes, if any, due this state, it being the purpose and intent of this section to impose only such additional taxes hereunder as may be necessary to give this state the full benefit of the maximum tax credit allowable against the federal estate tax imposed with respect to a decedent's estate which has a taxable situs in this state. If only a portion of a decedent's estate has a taxable situs in this state, such maximum tax credit shall be determined by multiplying the entire amount of the credit allowable against the federal estate tax for state death taxes by the percentage which the value of the portion of the decedent's estate which has a taxable situs in this state bears to the value of the entire estate. The tax imposed herein shall be collected by the several county treasurers or the state board of equalization for deposit with the state treasurer and distributed as hereafter provided. For the purpose of this tax, the taxable situs of property shall be the same as the taxable situs for inheritance tax purposes.

(b) and (c). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(d) Lien. Said taxes and interest shall be, and remain, a lien on the property for a period of ten (10) years from the date of death, unless sooner paid.

(e). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(f) Duplicate returns. It shall be the duty of the legal representative of the estate of any decedent, whose estate may be subject to the payment of a United States estate tax, to file duplicates of the United States estate tax returns with the district court of the county in which such estate is being probated. He shall also file with such court a certificate or other evidence from the bureau of internal revenue showing the amount of the United States estate tax as computed by that department. The district court shall hear all parties desiring to be heard with respect to the amount of state estate tax and shall enter an order determining such tax and the amount thereof so due and payable. Any person in interest aggrieved by such determination shall have the same right of rehearing and appeal as is now provided for in the determination of inheritance taxes.

(g) Intent of subdivisions (a) to (h). It is hereby declared to be the intent and purpose of subdivisions (a) to (h) to obtain for this state the benefit of the credit allowed under the provisions of said Internal Revenue Code, to the extent that this state may be entitled by the provisions of said act, by imposing additional taxes and the same shall be liberally construed to effect this purpose.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Reference to Federal Act

Fact that 1926 Revenue Act, formerly referred to in this section, has been repealed and 1939 Act has been passed in its place in no way affects validity or effectiveness of this section. In re Estate of McLaughlin, 154 M 318, 462 P 2d 882.

91-4414. (10400.4) Exemptions from first $25,000. The following exemptions from the tax are hereby allowed, the exemption allowed to each person, institution, association, corporation and body politic to be taken out of the first twenty-five thousand dollars passing by any such transfer to such person, institution, association, corporation or body politic:

(2) $20,000; $5,000; $2,000 exempt, when. Property of the clear value of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), transferred to the wife or to the husband of the decedent, five thousand dollars ($5,000) transferred to each minor lineal issue of the decedent, or any minor child adopted as such in conformity with law, or any minor child to whom such decedent for not less than ten (10) years prior to such transfer stood in the mutually acknowledged relation of a parent, provided, however, such relationship began at or before the child's fifteenth (15) birthday, and was continuous for ten (10) years, or any minor lineal issue of such adopted or mutually acknowledged child, and two thousand dollars ($2,000) transferred to each of the lineal issue who have attained majority and to each of the other persons who have attained majority described in the first subdivision of section 91-4409 shall be exempt. Such exemption to the wife or husband of the decedent shall include all statutory dower, curtesy and other allowances. Any child of the decedent shall be entitled to credit for so much of the tax paid by the wife or husband as applied to any property which shall thereafter be transferred by or from such husband or wife to any such child, provided the husband or wife does not survive said decedent to exceed ten years.

The 1965 amendment increased exemptions specified in the first sentence of paragraph (2) from $17,500 to $20,000 for the wife of the decedent, and from $5,000 to $10,000 for the husband of the decedent.

The 1969 amendment increased exemptions specified in the first sentence of paragraph (2) from $10,000 to $20,000 for the husband of decedent; inserted $5,000 exemption for transfers to children; and included decedent's lineal issue who have attained majority under the $2,000 exemption.

The 1973 amendment inserted "minor" before "child" in two places and before "lineal issue" in one place, all in the first sentence of paragraph (2); inserted "who have attained majority" after "other persons" near the end of the first sentence of paragraph (2); substituted references to the husband or wife of the decedent for "widow" in four places in the second and third sentences of paragraph (2); inserted "curtesy" in the second sentence of paragraph (2); and made a minor change in phraseology.

91-4414.1. Discretionary waiver of inheritance tax of surviving spouse. Notwithstanding any provision of law or statute in conflict herewith, the state department of revenue, in its discretion, is authorized to issue a waiver of inheritance tax in the event of the death of any person leaving any real property or personal property, or both, in joint tenancy with a surviving spouse if the value of the property of the decedent is less than the inheritance exemption allowed by law to the surviving spouse.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 147, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 76, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act allowing the state board of equalization, in its discretion, to issue a waiver of inheritance tax in the event of the death of any person leaving any real property or personal property, or both, in joint tenancy with a surviving spouse if the value of the property of the decedent is less than the inheritance exemption allowed by law to the surviving spouse.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization."

91-4415. (10400.5) When payment due—lien of tax—liability for payment—place of payment—receipts—receipt or bond required before final accounting allowed. All taxes imposed by this act shall be due and payable at the time of the death of the decedent, except as hereinafter provided; and every such tax shall be and remain a lien upon the property transferred for a period of ten (10) years from the time of the death of the decedent, whether said death occurred before or after the effective date of this act, unless sooner paid, and the person to whom the property is transferred and the administrators, executors, and trustees of every estate so transferred shall be personally liable for such tax until its payment.

The tax shall be paid to the state department of revenue for transmittal to the state treasurer or to the treasurer of the county in which the district court is situated having jurisdiction as herein provided, and if paid to the county treasurer said treasurer shall receipt therefor, making five copies thereof, and distribute said copies as follows: Original receipt, to the clerk of the district court; first copy, to the executor, administrator, trustee, or person paying said tax; second copy, attached to and mailed with the report required by section 91-4450, as amended, to the state department of revenue; third copy, to the county clerk and recorder; fourth copy, retained by the treasurer on file in his office. The copy of the receipt given to the executor, administrator, or trustee shall be a proper voucher in the settlement of his accounts.

No executor, administrator, or trustee shall be entitled to a final accounting of an estate, in settlement of which a tax is due under the provisions of this act, unless he shall produce such receipt or a certified copy thereof or unless a bond shall have been filed as prescribed by section 91-4419.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment inserted "whether said death occurred before or after the effective date of this act" in the first paragraph.

The 1971 amendment rewrote the second paragraph to provide for payment to the state board of equalization, to provide for quintuplicate instead of triplicate receipts from the county treasurer, and to revise the distribution of copies of the receipts. For previous text, see parent volume.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in two places in the second paragraph.

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 34, Laws 1971 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved February 18, 1971.

91-4416. (10400.6) Discount—interest. If such tax is paid within eighteen (18) months from the accruing thereof, a discount of five per cent (5%) shall be allowed and deducted therefrom. The deduction of this discount of five per cent (5%) shall be accomplished by paying within the eighteen (18) month period from the date that the tax accrues an amount equal to ninety-five per cent (95%) of the total tax declared due by the person making payment. If such tax is not paid within eighteen (18) months from the accruing thereof, interest shall be charged and collected thereon at the rate of ten per cent (10%) per annum from the time the tax accrued; unless by reason of claims made upon the estate, necessary litigation or other unavoidable cause of delay, such tax shall not be determined and paid as herein provided, in which case interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) shall be charged upon such tax from the accrual thereof until the cause of such delay is removed, after which ten per cent (10%) shall be charged, provided that litigation to defeat the payment of the tax shall not be considered necessary litigation. In all cases when a bond shall be given under the provisions of section 91-4419, interest shall be charged at the rate of six per cent (6%) after one (1) year from the date of death, until the date of payment thereof.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 65, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 15, L. 1967.

The 1967 amendment inserted the figures in parentheses and added the present second sentence.

91-4417. (10400.7) Powers of representative in collection and payment of tax—collection from legatees or distributees. Every executor, administrator or trustee shall have full power to sell so much of the property of the decedent as will enable him to pay such tax in the same manner as he might be entitled by law to do for the payment of the debts of the testator or intestate. Any such administrator, executor, or trustee, having in charge or in trust any legacy or property for distribution, subject to such tax, shall deduct the tax therefrom; and within thirty days therefrom shall pay over the same to the county treasurer, as herein provided. If such legacy or property be not in money, he shall collect the tax thereon upon the appraised value thereof, from the person entitled thereto. He shall not deliver or be compelled to deliver any specific legacy or property subject to tax under this law, to any person until he shall have collected the tax thereon. If any such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real property, the heir or devisee shall deduct such tax therefrom and pay it to the administrator, executor, or trustee, and the tax shall remain a lien or charge on such real property for the period provided in section 91-4415, and the payment thereof shall be enforced by the executor, administrator, or trustee in the same manner that payment of the legacy might be enforced, or by the attorney general under section 91-4440. If any such legacy shall be given in money to any such person for a limited period, the administrator, executor, or trustee shall retain the tax upon the whole amount, but if it be not in money, he shall make application to the court having jurisdiction of an accounting by him to make an apportionment if the case require it, of the sum to be paid into the hands of such legatees, and for such further order relative thereto as the case may require.

The 1965 amendment substituted "for the period provided in section 91-4415" for "until paid" following "charge on such real property" in the fifth sentence.

91-4418. (10400.8) Refunding of tax—when authorized—manner of refunding—advance payment of tax for relief from penalty and interest. If any debt shall be proved against the estate of the decedent, after the payment of any legacy or distributive share thereof, from which any such tax has been deducted, or upon which it has been paid by the person entitled to such legacy or distributive share and such person is required by the order of the district court having jurisdiction of the tax so deducted or paid, to refund the amount of such debts or any part thereof, an equitable proportion thereof shall be repaid to such person by the executor, administrator or trustee, if the said tax has not been paid to the county treasurer or state treasurer, or by them, in the proper proportionate shares, if it has been so paid.

Any person from whom such tax is or may be due may make an estimate of and pay the same to the clerk of court, who shall receipt therefor, at any time before the same is determined by the court, and shall thereupon be relieved from any interest or penalty upon the amount so paid in the same manner as if the tax were then determined. In the event the person making payment has done so in accordance with the provisions of section 91-4416, pertaining to the allowance of a five per cent (5%) discount, the person making payment shall be relieved from any interest or penalty and shall be allowed the five per cent (5%) discount upon the amount which he so declared due as his inheritance tax liability. The tax may be declared to be due by the filing with the clerk of court of a statement of such declaration or by paying the amount estimated by the taxpayer to be due. The money shall be paid to the clerk of the district court who must deposit same with the state department of revenue. The clerk of the district court shall pay the collections to the state department of revenue on or before the fifth day of the month following the collection.

As soon as the correct amount of inheritance tax has been determined, any excess so paid shall be refunded to the person so paying or entitled thereto by the state department of revenue based upon the filing of a properly documented claim by the clerk of court.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1973, once by Ch. 316 and once by Ch. 391. Neither amendatory act mentioned the other. Since Ch. 316 included the changes made by Ch. 391, the compiler has used the text of Ch. 316 above.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted the second and third sentences in the second paragraph.

The 1971 amendment deleted "for credit to the clerk of the district court's deposit or trust fund until the correct amount of the tax has been determined" from the end of the fourth sentence of the second paragraph; inserted in the second paragraph a fifth sentence reading "The county treasurer shall include such collections in the next payment he makes to the state board of equalization pursuant to section 91-4450"; substituted "by the state board of equalization based upon the filing of a properly documented claim by the clerk of court" at the end of the section for "by such clerk of court out of said trust fund"; and deleted "and the county treasurer shall receipt for the amount of the inheritance tax so determined by the court" from the end of the section.

Chapter 316, Laws of 1973, substituted "the state department of revenue" at the end of the fourth sentence of the second paragraph for "the county treasurer"; substituted the present fifth sentence of the second paragraph for the fifth sentence inserted by the 1971 amendment; made a separate paragraph of the final sentence of the second paragraph; and substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in the third paragraph.

Chapter 391, Laws of 1973, substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in the fifth sentence of the second paragraph as inserted by the 1971 amendment and deleted by Ch. 316, and in the present third paragraph.

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 15, Laws 1967 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved February 3, 1967.

91-4419. (10400.9) Bond for deferred payment of tax. Any beneficiary of any property chargeable with a tax under this act, and any executors, administrators and trustees thereof, may elect, within eighteen months from the date of the death of decedent or transfer thereof as herein provided, not to pay such tax until the person or persons beneficially interested therein shall come into the actual possession or enjoyment thereof. The person or persons so electing shall give a bond to the state in a penalty of three times the amount of any such tax, with such sureties as the district court of the proper county or the state department of revenue, as the case may be, may approve, conditioned for the payment of such tax and interest thereon, at such time or period as the person or persons beneficially interested therein may come into the actual possession or enjoyment of such property, which bond shall be filed in the district court, or in the office of the state treasurer as the case may be. Such bond must be executed and filed and a full return of such property upon oath made to the district court within eighteen months from the date of the death of decedent or transfer as herein provided, and such bond must be renewed every five years, and said deferred tax shall bear interest at six per cent per annum after such eighteen months.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in the second sentence.

91-4421. (10400.11) Payment of tax on transfer of securities by foreign representative—duty of holder of securities or assets of nonresident decedent—apportionment of deductions—information to be given department of revenue—amount of tax to be retained on delivery of assets—penalties. (1) * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(2) No safe deposit company, bank, or other institution, person or persons, holding securities or assets of a nonresident decedent, nor any corporation organized under the laws of this state, in which a nonresident decedent held stock, bonds, mortgages, or other securities, at his decease, shall deliver or transfer the same to the executors, administrators or legal representatives of said decedent, or upon their order or request, unless notice of the time and place of such intended transfer be served upon the state department of revenue at least ten (10) days prior to the said transfer; nor shall any such safe deposit company, bank, or other institution, person or persons, nor any corporation, deliver or transfer any securities or assets of the estate of a nonresident decedent without retaining a sufficient portion or amount thereof to pay any tax which may thereafter be assessed on account of the transfer of such securities or assets under the provisions of the inheritance tax laws, without an order from the proper court authorizing such transfer; and it shall be lawful for the state department of revenue, personally or by representative, to examine said securities or assets at any time before such delivery or transfer. Failure to serve such notice or to allow such examination or to retain a sufficient portion or amount to pay such tax as herein provided, shall render said safe deposit company, trust company, bank, or other institution, person or persons, or such corporation, liable to the payment of the tax due upon said securities or assets in pursuance of the provisions of the inheritance tax laws. The state department of revenue may issue a certificate authorizing the transfer of any such stock, securities or assets whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the said board that no tax is due thereon; provided, however, that the foregoing provisions shall not apply to shares of stock in any Montana corporation held by a nonresident of Montana at the time of his death whose death occurred on or after January 30, 1945, and who was at the time of his death domiciled in any other district or state of the United States, provided reciprocal rights are granted by such district or state of domicile similar to section 91-4413, and in such event this subsection (2) shall not apply to the transfer of stocks, bonds, mortgages or other securities exempt from taxation under the provisions of section 91-4413, and a Montana corporation, or its agent, may transfer stocks, bonds, mortgages and other securities without any liability for the tax imposed under the provisions of the inheritance tax laws where there are reciprocal rights as set forth in section 91-4413, and in such event no application for consent to transfer such stock need be made to the state department of revenue of the state of Montana, and the corporation, or its duly authorized transfer agent may transfer such shares of stock upon its books without any such application or consent to transfer.

(3) * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(4) The state department of revenue shall require such reports and information and shall make such orders, rules, and regulations as it may deem necessary to enable the department to secure the necessary information from domestic corporations, and to ascertain the amount of and collect such tax; and no holding company or other corporation subject to the provisions of this section shall deliver or transfer any such stocks, bonds, mortgages, or other securities of a Montana corporation without retaining a sufficient portion thereof to pay any tax which may thereafter be assessed under the provisions of this act on account of such transfer, except upon order of the proper court or a certificate of consent of the state department of revenue.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "department" for "board of equalization" and "board" throughout subsections (2) and (4).

91-4423. (10400.13) Jurisdiction of district court—notice to department of revenue required before hearing. The district court of every county of the state having jurisdiction to grant letters testamentary or of administration upon the estate of a decedent whose property is chargeable with any tax under the inheritance tax laws, or to appoint a trustee of such estate or any part thereof, or to give ancillary letters thereon, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions arising under the provisions of the inheritance tax laws, and to do any act in relation thereto authorized by law to be done by a district court in other matters or proceedings coming within its jurisdiction; and if two or more district courts shall be entitled to exercise any such jurisdiction, the district court first acquiring jurisdiction hereunder, shall retain the same to the exclusion of every other district court.

Before any decree determining inheritance tax in any estate shall be made by the court, the court shall require proof that due notice has been given to the state department of revenue before the hearing upon the petition to have inheritance tax determined, whether such hearing be at the time of the hearing on the final account or otherwise; and the court shall likewise require proof that a copy of such petition has been given to the department not later than the time of giving the notice; and, before the time fixed in said notice, said department shall cause to be filed, with the clerk of the district court, a certificate signed by the department stating that the amount of the inheritance tax determined to be due the state of Montana as appearing in the report or petition, has been properly computed therein or, if no tax is due, such certificate shall so state; and, if the department shall object to the amount of the tax so computed, the department shall, before the time fixed for the hearing, file with the clerk of the court its written objections thereto, setting forth therein the nature of the objections. If neither such certificate nor objections shall have been filed at the time fixed for the hearing, it shall be conclusively presumed that the department concurs in the amount so computed.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "department" for "board of equalization" and "board" throughout the second paragraph.

91-4425. (10400.15) Determination of tax due from estate of nonresident decedent—application—appeals. (1) Any personal representative, trustee, heir, devisee or legatee of a nonresident decedent leaving no estate requiring administration in this state, desiring to transfer any stocks, bonds, mortgages or other securities, or other personal property in this state or within the jurisdiction of this state, may make application to the state department of revenue for the determination whether there is any tax due upon account of the transfer thereof, and the amount of any such tax, and such applicant shall furnish to the state department of revenue therewith, an affidavit setting forth a description and statement of the property owned by the decedent situated within this state, or within its jurisdiction at the time of his death, the true value of said property at the time of decedent's death; a description and statement of the true value of all property owned by the decedent at the time of his death situated outside of this state, and without its jurisdiction; and containing a schedule or statement of all valid claims against the estate of the decedent, including the expenses of his last illness, funeral expenses and expenses of administering his estate. Such applicant shall also, at the same time, furnish the state department of revenue with a certified copy of the last will of the decedent, in case he died testate, or an affidavit setting forth the names, ages, and residence of the heirs at law of decedent in case he died intestate, and the proportion of the entire estate of said decedent inherited by each of said persons, and the relation, if any, which each legatee, devisee, heir, or transferee sustained to the decedent, or person from whom the transfer was made. Such affidavit shall be subscribed and sworn to by the personal representative of the decedent, or some other person having knowledge of the facts therein set forth.

(2) The statement contained in any affidavits, statements or schedules as to values, or otherwise, shall not be binding upon the state department of revenue in case they believe the same to be erroneous or untrue. From the information so furnished them and such other information as they may be able to obtain with reference thereto, the state department of revenue shall, with reasonable diligence, proceed to ascertain and determine the amount of tax, if any, due under the provisions of this act, and notify the person making the application of the amount of the tax so ascertained and determined to be due; or in case there is no tax to be paid, the state department of revenue shall issue a consent to the transfer of the property so owned by the decedent.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the determination of the state department of revenue in any matter herein provided for in this section may, within thirty (30) days thereafter, appeal to the district court of Lewis and Clark county, by serving on the state department of revenue a notice in writing setting forth his objections to such determination, and by filing such notice, after so serving the same, in the office of the clerk of such court, and thereupon, and within ten (10) days after the service of such notice on them the state department of revenue shall transmit full and complete copies of all original papers and records which have been filed with them in relation to such application, to the clerk of said district court, and thereupon the said district court shall have jurisdiction of such application and proceeding. Upon ten days' notice given by either applicant or the state department of revenue, the matter may be brought on for hearing and determination by said court, either in term time or in vacation, at a general or special term of court, or at chambers, as may be directed by the order of the court.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" throughout the section.

91-4426. (10400.16) Determination when application not made. Whenever any nonresident decedent, leaving no estate requiring administration in this state, shall leave any stocks, bonds, mortgages, or other securities, or other personal property within the state or within the jurisdiction thereof, and no personal representative, trustee, heir, devisee, or legatee of such nonresident decedent has made application to the state department of revenue for the determination as to whether there is any tax due for the transfer thereof and the amount of such tax, if any, the state department of revenue, upon such matter being called to its attention, shall make an order, and cause a copy thereof to be served upon the personal representative, trustee, heirs, devisees or legatees of such nonresident decedent, ordering and directing that a statement and return, under oath, containing the statements and information prescribed in section 91-4425, be filed with such board within sixty (60) days from the date of such order, or within such further time as the state department of revenue may grant therefor; and if such statement is not filed with the state department of revenue within such time the state department of revenue may then procure such information in any manner it may deem advisable. Upon the filing of such statement, or the procuring of such information by the state department of revenue in the event of a failure to file the same in compliance with such order, the state department of revenue shall proceed in the same manner as prescribed by section 91-4425, and all provisions thereof with reference to hearings and appeals shall be applicable thereto.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" throughout the section.

91-4427. (10400.17) Special appraiser. The district court, upon the application of any interested party, including the state department of revenue, shall appoint a competent person as special appraiser to fix the fair market value at the time of the transfer thereof of the property of persons whose estate shall be subject to the payment of any tax imposed by this act.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 65, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 141, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 84, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization."

91-4428. (10400.18) Duties, powers and compensation of appraisers. Every such appraiser shall forthwith give notice by mail to all persons known to have a claim or interest in the property to be appraised, including the state department of revenue, and to such persons as the district court may by order direct, of the time and place when he will appraise such property. He shall, at such time and place, appraise the same at its fair market value, as herein prescribed; and for that purpose the said appraiser is authorized to issue subpoenas and to compel the attendance of witnesses before him and to take the evidence of such witnesses under oath concerning such property and the value thereof; and he shall make report thereof and of such value in writing, to the said district court, together with the depositions of the witnesses examined, and such other facts in relation thereto and to the said matter as the said district court may order or require. Every appraiser shall be paid on the certificate of the district court at the rate of not to exceed ten dollars ($10.00) per day for every day actually and necessarily employed in such appraisal, and shall receive his actual and necessary traveling expenses, and witnesses shall be allowed the same fees as are allowed witnesses in civil actions in courts of record and the same shall be paid by the executor, administrator or trustee of such estate in the same manner as provided for the payment of other administration expenses.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in the first sentence.

91-4429. (10400.19) Hearing by the court. The report of the special appraiser shall be made in triplicate, and not less than ten (10) days before the hearing thereon one of said triplicates shall be filed in the office of the district court, one to the administrator or the executor, and the other shall be mailed to the state department of revenue. At the time and place of hearing the administration account, the district court shall examine such report, and from the report and other proofs relating to any such estate shall forthwith determine the cash value of such estate and the amount of tax to which the same is liable; or, the district court without appointing such appraiser may at the time so fixed hear the evidence and determine the cash value of such estate and the amount of tax to which the same is liable.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 65, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 150, L. 1925; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 141, L. 1927; amd. Sec. 86, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" at the end of the first sentence.

91-4430. (10400.20) Notice of hearing. Notice of such hearing to determine the inheritance tax shall be given in the same manner and may be included in the notice of hearing the administration account, as provided by law. A copy of the application for exclusion of any property to avoid inheritance tax thereon shall be given with notice of hearing thereof, and notice of any such hearing shall be mailed to the state department of revenue not less than fifteen (15) days before such hearing, upon notice forms provided by the department and containing such information as it may require.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "the department" for "board of equalization" and "said board" in the second sentence.

91-4431. (10400.21) Commissioner of insurance to value future estates, etc. The commissioner of insurance shall, on application of any district court or of the state department of revenue, determine the value of any such future or contingent estates, income, or interests therein limited, contingent, dependent, or determinable upon the life or lives of the person or persons in being, upon the facts contained in the district court's finding and determination and contained in such special appraiser's report, and upon the facts certify the same to the district court or to the state department of revenue, and his certificate shall be presumptive evidence that the method of computation adopted therein is correct.

Amendments
The 1971 amendment deleted "the state treasurer" after "the county treasurer" in the third sentence.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in two places.

91-4438. (10400.28) Rehearing within sixty days. The attorney general, state department of revenue, public administrator, county attorney, or any person dissatisfied with the appraisement or assessment and determination of such tax may apply for a rehearing thereof before the district court within sixty (60) days from the fixing, assessing and determination of the tax by the district court as herein provided on filing a written notice which shall state the grounds of the application for a rehearing. The rehearing shall be upon the records, proceedings, and proofs had and taken on the hearing as herein provided unless additional or newly discovered evidence be alleged therefor, and a new trial shall not be had or granted unless specially ordered by the district court.

Amendments
The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the beginning of the section.

91-4439. (10400.29) Reappraisement in the district court within one year. Within one year after the entry of an order or decree of the district court determining the value of an estate and assessing the tax thereon, the attorney general or the state department of revenue may, if he (or they) believes that such appraisal, assessment, or determination has been erroneously, fraudulently or collusively made, make application to the district judge for a reappraisal thereof. The district court to whom such application is made may thereupon appoint a competent person to reappraise such estate. Such appraiser shall possess the powers, be subject to the duties, shall give the notice and receive the compensation provided by sections 91-4428 to 91-4439, inclusive. Such compensation shall be payable by the county treasurer out of any funds he may have on account of any tax imposed under the provisions of this act, upon the certificate of the district judge. The report of such appraiser shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court, and thereafter the same proceedings shall be taken and had by and before such district court as herein provided to be taken and had by and before the said court. The determination and assessment of such district court shall supersede the former determination and assessment of such court, and shall be filed in the office of the county treasurer, state treasurer, and state department of revenue.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in two places.

91-4440. (10400.30) Collection of unpaid taxes. If any county treasurer, state treasurer, or the state department of revenue shall have reason to believe that any tax is due and unpaid under the provisions of this act, after the refusal or neglect of any person liable therefor to pay the same, he or they, shall notify the attorney general in writing of such failure or neglect, and the attorney general, if he have probable cause to believe that such tax is due and unpaid, shall apply to the district court for a citation citing the person liable to pay such tax to appear before the court on the day specified, not more than three months from the date of such citation, and show cause why the tax should not be paid. The judge of the district court upon such application and whenever it shall appear to him that any such tax accruing under this act has not been paid as required by law, shall issue such citation, and the service of such citation and the time, manner and proof thereof, and the hearing and determination thereof, shall conform as near as may be to the provisions of the laws governing probate practice of this state, and whenever it shall appear that any such tax is due and payable, and the payment thereof cannot be enforced under the provisions of this act, in said district court, the person or corporation from whom the same is due is hereby made liable to the state for the amount of such tax, and it shall be the duty of the attorney general, in the name of the state, to sue for and enforce the collection of such tax, and it is made the duty of the county attorney of the county to appear for and act on behalf of any county treasurer, who shall be cited to appear before any district court under the provisions of this act.

91-4442. (10400.32) Special administration to determine tax where transfer made in contemplation of death. Where it appears that the estate of a deceased person subject to the inheritance tax laws was transferred in contemplation of the death of the grantor without the adjustment and payment of the inheritance taxes and no application for such adjustment is made within six months after the demise of such grantor, the public administrator of the proper county shall notify the state department of revenue and on its order make application for and shall be entitled to such general or special administration as may be necessary for the purpose of the adjustment and payment of the inheritance taxes provided by law and shall administer such estate the same as other estates are administered as though such estate had not been transferred by the grantor.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue' for "board of equalization."

91-4443. (10400.43) Public administrator's duty to investigate concerning tax—compensation. It shall be the duty of the public administrator, under the general supervision of the state department of revenue, and with the assistance of the county attorney, when required by the department or district judge, to investigate the estates of deceased persons within his county and to appear for and act in behalf of the county and state in the district court in such estates as the court may in its discretion deem necessary, and for such services the public administrator shall be entitled to five per cent of the gross inheritance tax as determined in each such estate, to be paid by the county treasurer out of the inheritance tax funds upon an order of the district judge, provided that the minimum fee for each such estate shall not be less than five dollars, and that it shall not exceed twenty-five dollars; but in cases of unusual difficulty, in estates of resident decedents, where the tax exceeds five hundred dollars, the district judge may allow the public administrator such additional compensation as he may deem just and reasonable.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 65, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 94, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "department" for "board of equalization" and "board."

91-4444. (10400.34) State department of revenue to supervise inheritance tax. It shall be the duty of the state department of revenue to supervise the administration of, and to investigate and cause to be investigated the administration of the inheritance tax laws, and such particular estates to which the inheritance tax laws apply throughout the various counties of the state, and to cause to be made and filed in its office reports of such investigation together with specific information and facts as to particular estates that may seem to require special consideration and attention by the legal department of the state; but no information so acquired shall, in advance of legal action, be disclosed to anyone except proper officials and persons interested in such estate.

Amendments

91-4445. (10400.35) Powers and duties of the department. The state department of revenue in the conduct of inheritance tax affairs, shall have the same and similar powers and authority for gathering information and making investigations as is conferred by law on the department in the performance of its other duties. The department shall biennially report to the governor and to the legislature at the opening of the sessions the general result of its labors and investigations in inheritance tax matters during the previous biennial period, together with specific reports of the several counties where the administration of the inheritance tax laws has been lax and unsatisfactory, with such recommendations for action thereon by the legislature as may be deemed advisable and proper.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 65, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 150, L. 1925; amd. Sec. 96, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "department" for "board of equalization" and "board" throughout the section.

91-4446. (10400.36) Powers and duties in nonresident estates. The state department of revenue shall also gather information and make investigations and reports concerning the estates of nonresident decedents within the provisions of the inheritance tax laws, and shall especially investigate the probate and other records for such probable estates without the state and report thereon from time to time to the legal department of the state and to the proper district court for appropriate legal action, but no information so acquired shall, in advance of legal action, be disclosed to anyone except proper officials, and persons interested in such estate.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 65, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 150, L. 1925; amd. Sec. 97, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the beginning of the section.

91-4447. (10400.37) Duty of the legal department of state. It shall be the duty of the legal department of the state to carry out and enforce the recommendations and directions of the state department of revenue in all matters pertaining to the conduct of inheritance tax affairs; and in every estate in which the amount of inheritance tax collectible shall exceed or probably exceed the sum of one thousand dollars, there shall be no compounding, composition, or settlement of the taxes under the authority conferred by section 91-4451 or otherwise, until the state department of revenue shall have investigated such estate and made a report thereon, nor until the department consents to such compounding, compromise, or settlement.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 65, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 150, L. 1925; amd. Sec. 98, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "department" for "board of equalization" and "board" throughout the section.

91-4448. (10400.38) Forms and blanks. The state department of revenue shall prescribe such forms and prepare such blanks as may be necessary in inheritance tax proceedings in the district courts of the state; and such blanks shall be printed at the expense of the state and furnished to the district court upon the request of the judge or clerk thereof.

Amendments

91-4450. (10400.40) Monthly reports of county treasurer—payment of collections to state department of revenue—interest on unpaid amounts. On or before the fifth day of each month each county treasurer shall make a report under oath to the state department of revenue listing all payments received by him under the inheritance tax laws, during the preceding month, and stating for what estate, by whom and when paid. The form of such report shall be prescribed by the state department of revenue. He shall at the same time pay the state department of revenue all the payments received by him under the inheritance tax laws and not previously paid to the state department of revenue, and for all such payments collected by him and not paid to the state department of revenue within five days from the time herein required, he shall pay interest at the rate of ten per cent (10%) per annum.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 65, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 150, L. 1925; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 36, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 101, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substantially rewrote this section. For former text, see parent volume.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" throughout the section.

Effective Dates.

Section 3 of Ch. 36, Laws 1971 read "The change in reporting and remittance of payments received as provided in section 2 is effective for such payments received, or on hand, on or after April 1, 1971. The first report and remittance based on the change is due by May 5, 1971."

Section 4 of Ch. 36, Laws 1971 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved February 18, 1971.

91-4451. (10400.41) Composition and compromise. The state department of revenue is authorized to enter into an agreement with the executor, administrator, or trustee of any estate in which remainders or expectant estates have been of such a nature or so disposed and circumstanced that the taxes therein were held not presently payable or where the interests of the legatees or devisees are not ascertainable under the provisions of this act, or whenever a tax is claimed on account of the transfer of any property of a nonresident decedent, and to compound such taxes upon such terms as may be deemed equitable and expedient and to grant discharges to said executors, administrators, or trustees upon the payment of the taxes provided for in such composition, provided, however, that no such composition shall be conclusive in favor of such executors, administrators, or trustees as against the interests of such cestui que trust as may possess either present rights of enjoyment or fixed, absolute, on indefeasible rights of future enjoyment, or of such as would possess such rights in the event of the immediate termination of particular estates, unless they consent thereto either personally when competent or by guardian. Composition or settlement made or effected under the provisions of this section shall be executed in triplicate and one copy shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the tax was paid; one copy to be delivered to the executors, administrators, or trustees, who shall be parties thereto, and one copy to be retained by the department of revenue.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 65, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 102, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the beginning and at the end of the section.

91-4454. (10400.45) Employment of assistants by department of revenue—compensation. The state department of revenue may employ such other persons as experts and assistants as may be necessary to perform the duties that may be required of the department and fix their compensation.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 65, L. 1923; amd. Sec. 103, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" and "department" for "board of equalization" and "board."

91-4455. (10400.46) Hearings by department of revenue—witnesses—false testimony as perjury—compensation. Oaths to witnesses in any matter under the investigation or consideration of the state department of revenue may be administered by the director of revenue or his appointed agents. In case any witness shall fail to obey any summons to appear before the department or shall refuse to testify or answer any material questions or to produce records, books, papers, or documents, when required to do so, such failure or refusal shall be reported to the attorney general, who shall thereupon institute proceedings in the proper district court to compel obedience to any summons or order of the department or to punish witnesses for any such neglect or refusal. Any person who shall testify falsely in any material manner under the consideration of the department shall be guilty of and punished for perjury. In the discretion of the department, officers who serve summons or subpoenas, and witnesses attending, shall receive like compensation as officers and witnesses in the district court.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" and "director of revenue or his appointed agents" for "secretary of the board or by any member thereof" in the first sentence; and substituted "department" for "board" throughout the remainder of the section.

91-4459. (10400.51) Checking by county clerk of records and transfers—report to department of revenue. The county clerk, upon the receipt of the list of deaths provided for in section 91-4458, shall immediately check the records of his county to determine whether any of the deceased persons whose names appear upon such list may have made any transfer of property or of property rights within such county during the three years preceding the death of such person or whether such deceased person may have been possessed of any property in such county at the time of his death.

If he shall find that any such deceased person may have made any such transfers of property or of property rights, or have died possessed of such, he shall immediately transmit such information to the state department of revenue.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 186, L. 1935; amd. Sec. 105, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" at the end of the section.

91-4460. County clerk to furnish department of revenue description of property conveyed within three years of death of grantor. Wherever any deed conveying real property from husband to wife, or wife to husband, is filed with the county clerk and recorder within three (3) years prior to the date of the death of the grantor, or, at or after the date of death of the grantor, it shall be the duty of the county clerk and recorder to furnish the department of revenue with a description of the property so conveyed and the names of the grantor and the grantee.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 248, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 106, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "county assessor."

91-4461. Department of revenue to appraise property and certify value. It shall be the duty of the department of revenue or its agent to appraise said property and to certify the appraised value of the property so conveyed on a form to be provided by the state department of revenue for this purpose.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 248, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 107, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue or its agent" near the beginning of the section for "county assessor" in order to implement article VIII, section 3 of the 1972 constitution; and substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" near the end of the section.

91-4462. Form provided to grantee—contents. The county clerk and recorder, at the time of the filing of said deed, if the deed is filed at or after death, or when informed by the grantee or someone acting on behalf of the grantee of the death of a grantor within the three (3) year period above mentioned, shall furnish the grantee, or one acting on behalf of the grantee, a form to be prepared by the state department of revenue, which form shall show the degree of relationship between the grantor and the grantee and such other essential information as the state department of revenue may need in order to determine what, if any, inheritance tax may be due to the state of Montana by reason of the transfer of the property so conveyed. Said form shall also contain an affidavit of the grantee setting forth that the grantor died without having any other property necessitating the procuring of letters of administration, or letters testamentary, or special letters for the purpose of terminating joint tenancy and that to the knowledge of the grantee the property was not by will otherwise bequeathed. It shall also contain the name and address of any other heirs of the grantor.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 248, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 108, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in two places.

91-4463. Certificate of inheritance tax due. Upon receipt of the report of the agent of the department of revenue, and the form and affidavit of the grantee, the state department of revenue shall issue to the grantee a certificate stating the amount of inheritance tax determined to be due to the state of Montana by reason of said transfer, or if no tax is due, such certificate shall so state.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 248, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 109, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "agent of the department of revenue" for "county assessor" in order to implement article VIII, section 3 of the 1972 constitution; and substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization."

91-4464. Payment by grantee of inheritance tax due—receipts for payment. If a tax is determined due by reason of said transfer the grantee shall pay the tax to the county treasurer, who shall make triplicate receipts of such payment, one of which he shall immediately send to the state treasurer, whose duty it shall be to charge the county treasurer so receiving the tax with the amount thereof. One receipt the county treasurer shall keep on file in his office. The other receipt shall be delivered to the grantee, or one acting in his behalf, which, when filed with the county clerk and recorder together with the certificate of the state department of revenue, shall be prima facie proof of the payment of any inheritance tax due by reason of said transfer. If the certificate shall determine no tax due by reason of said transfer, the filing of said certificate with the county clerk and recorder shall operate to the same effect. Payment of inheritance tax under this act shall be governed by the provisions of section 91-4416.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 248, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 110, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in the third sentence.

91-4466. Repealed.

Repeal

Section 91-4466 (Sec. 7, Ch. 248, L. 1961), relating to appraisal by state board of equalization when the county assessor's appraisal is questioned, was repealed by Sec. 113, Ch. 391, Laws 1973.

CHAPTER 45—GUARDIAN AND WARD

91-4515. (5878) Rules of awarding custody of minors.

Death of Both Parents

In a custody dispute between maternal grandparents and father of children whose mother died prior to action, where father to whom children were awarded also died pending hearing on motion for new trial, maternal grandparents who had filed motion for new trial and who had already been determined by court to be fit and proper persons for custody of children would have been entitled to custody without new trial but for second wife of deceased husband who was entitled to hearing on petition to intervene as party to whom deceased father wished children to go. State ex rel. Ross v. District Court, Fourth Judicial Dist., 150 M 233, 433 P 2d 778.

Welfare of Child Paramount

District court did not abuse its discretion in awarding custody of two younger children to father, who had moved to California, since children had a good home with their father and paternal grandparents, were well cared for and happy, were given more than adequate educational and religious training and had lived with their father for more than five years. Anderson v. Anderson, 145 M 244, 400 P 2d 632.

Although 12-year-old daughter expressed desire to live with her mother, custody was properly awarded to father where evidence showed emotional instability on part of mother which she evinced by communicating her morbid suspicion of improper conduct by father. Libra v. Libra, 157 M 252, 484 P 2d 748.

Evidence that mother had, since time of divorce, remarried, overcome previous emotional difficulties, and quit her job in order to provide for time and attention needed to raise child, supported modification of divorce decree, in best interests of child, so as to grant custody to mother. McCullough v. McCullough, — M —, 498 P 2d 1189.

CHAPTER 48—GUARDIANSHIP OF INCOMPETENT VETERANS, MINORS, AND OTHER BENEFICIARIES OF THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

Section 91-4812. Compensation of guardians.

91-4801. Definitions.

Compiler's Notes

In addition to those enumerated in the parent volume, the following jurisdictions have adopted the Uniform Veterans' Guardianship Act: Alabama, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Mississippi, Nevada, New York, Puerto Rico, West Virginia and Wyoming.

91-4812. Compensation of guardians. Compensation payable to guardians shall be based upon services rendered and shall not exceed five per cent (5%) of the amount of moneys received during the period covered by the account, or a minimum of one hundred dollars ($100) whichever is the greater, the decision as to such amount of compensation, however, to be at the discretion of the district court. In the event of extraordinary services by any guardian, the court, upon petition and hearing thereon may authorize reasonable additional compensation therefor. A copy of the petition and notice of hearing thereon shall be given the proper office of the veterans' administration in the manner provided in the case of hearing on a guardian's account or other pleading. No commission or compensation shall be allowed on the moneys or other assets received from a prior guardian nor upon the amount received from liquidation of loans or other investments.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 58, L. 1943; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 25, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment added "or a minimum of one hundred dollars * * * district court" to the first sentence.

CHAPTER 49—GUARDIAN'S POWERS AND DUTIES

91-4906. (10422) Guardian to return inventory of estate of ward, etc.

Failure To File Inventory

Court on own motion could require guardian to appear and account for funds in his possession, where he neglected to file inventory and appraisement within three-month period as required by statute, notwithstanding that parties to action were still before court. State ex rel. Ross v. District Court, Fourth Judicial Dist., 150 M 233, 433 P 2d 778.

CHAPTER 50—SALE OF PROPERTY BY GUARDIANS—INVESTMENT OF PROCEEDS

Section 91-5015. Conditions of sales of real estate of wards—bond and mortgage to be given for deferred payments.

91-5015. (10442) Conditions of sales of real estate of wards—bond and mortgage to be given for deferred payments. All sales of real estate of wards, where the sales price is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less, must be for cash, or for part cash and part deferred payments, the credit in no case to exceed three years from the date of sale, as in the discretion of the court or judge is most beneficial to the ward. For sales of real estate of wards where the sales price exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), deferred payments may be extended not to exceed twenty (20) years. Guardians making sales must demand and receive from the purchasers, in case of deferred payments, notes and mortgage or trust indenture or contract for deed; on the real estate sold, with such additional security as the court or judge deems necessary and sufficient to secure the prompt payment of the amounts so deferred, and the interest thereon.

History: En. Sec. 390, p. 340, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 390, 2nd Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Sec. 390, 2nd Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 3014, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7794, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10442, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 27, L. 1969. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1791.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment inserted "where the sales price is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less" after "real estate of wards" in the first sentence; inserted the second sentence; and, in the third sentence, deleted "a" before "mortgage" and inserted "or trust indenture or contract for deed" after "mortgage."

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 27, Laws 1969 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved February 13, 1969.

CHAPTER 52—GUARDIANSHIP—GENERAL AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

91-5201. (10455) Examination of persons suspected of defrauding wards, etc.

Examination of Administrator

In a proceeding for removal of administrator for misappropriation of funds of estate, administrator could be examined as adverse witness as provided in Rule 43, and Rule 81, excluding statutory proceedings from Rules of Civil Procedure to extent that statutory proceedings are contrary to Rules, does not bar examination of administrator as adverse witness. In re Estate & Guardianship of Wyman, 149 M 525, 429 P 2d 629.

CHAPTER 53—PROCEEDINGS IN LIEU OF PROBATE—ESTATES OF LESS THAN TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS

Section 91-5301. Estate may be set aside to surviving spouse or child—net value of estate must be less than ten thousand dollars.
91-5302. Value of joint property and property transferred during lifetime giving rise to tax liability—included in determination of net value of estate.
91-5303. Termination of life estate or joint tenancy—combined with proceeding to set aside property.
91-5304. Petition to set aside estate—requirements.
91-5305. Notice—contents.
91-5306. Notice—time and manner of giving.
91-5307. Special appraiser—duties, powers and compensation.
91-5308. Court decree—conditions—assignment to surviving spouse or child—title vested—subject to encumbrances—exemptions limiting assignment.
91-5309. Jurisdiction of court cannot be collaterally attacked when decree final in the absence of fraud.
91-5310. When estate shall be administered in the usual manner.
91-5311. Pending actions excepted.
91-5312. Existing statutes not repealed.

91-5301. Estate may be set aside to surviving spouse or child—net value of estate must be less than ten thousand dollars. If a decedent leaves a surviving spouse or child or children, and the net value of the whole estate, over and above all liens and encumbrances at the date of death and over and above the value of any homestead interest set apart out of decedent's estate under chapter 25, Title 91, R. C. M. 1947, does not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), the same may be set aside to the surviving spouse, if there be one, and if there be none, then to the child or children of the decedent.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 51, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 223, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to provide for summary proceedings in lieu of probate for specified estates of less than ten thousand dollars.

Amendment

The 1973 amendment deleted "resident" before "decedent" near the beginning of the section; and deleted "minor" before "child" and "children."

91-5302. Value of joint property and property transferred during lifetime giving rise to tax liability—included in determination of net value of estate. The value of decedent's interest in any joint property at the time of his death, which might give rise to tax liability under section 91-4405, R. C. M. 1947, and the value of any property transferred by the decedent during his lifetime which might give rise to tax liability under section 91-4402, R. C. M. 1947, shall be included to determine if the net value of the whole estate of the decedent does exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) as provided in the preceding section.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 51, L. 1969.

91-5303. Termination of life estate or joint tenancy—combined with proceeding to set aside property. An action or proceedings to terminate a life estate or joint tenancy may be combined with an action or proceedings to set aside property under this act, where otherwise proper under the provisions of this act, and of section 91-4321, R. C. M. 1947.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 51, L. 1969.

91-5304. Petition to set aside estate—requirements. Allegations showing that this act is applicable together with a prayer that the estate be set aside as provided in this act may be included alternately in the petition for probate of the will, or for letters of administration; or such allegations and prayer may be presented by separate petition filed by the personal representative of the decedent, or the surviving spouse, or the child or children, filed at any time before the hearing on the petition for the probate of the will or for letters of administration or after the filing of the inventory. In all cases the petition must be verified; and the allegation shall include a specific description and an estimate of the value of all of the decedent's property, a list of all liens and encumbrances at the date of death, and a designation of any property as to which a homestead is or may be set aside.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 51, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 223, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "guardian of the minor" preceding "child or children" in the first sentence.

91-5305. Notice—contents. If the allegations and prayer as provided in the preceding section are included in the petition for probate of the will or for letters of administration, the notice of hearing shall include a statement that a prayer for setting aside the estate to the surviving spouse or the child or children as the case may be, is included in the petition.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 51, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 223, L. 1973.

The 1973 amendment deleted "minor" before "child" and "children."

91-5306. Notice—time and manner of giving. If a separate petition is filed under the provisions of this act, notice thereof shall be given in the manner and for the time required for a petition for letters of administration. If a separate petition for probate of the will of the decedent, as for letters of administration of his estate, be filed, such petitions shall be heard at the same time as a petition under this act, and for that purpose the court may continue the hearing on any such petition, so that at least ten (10) days notice is given for each such petition pending before the court.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 51, L. 1969.

91-5307. Special appraiser—duties, powers and compensation. Upon the filing of any petition provided for in this act, unless the whole estate consists of money, the court shall forthwith appoint a special appraiser as provided in section 91-4427, R. C. M. 1947, who shall have the duty, powers and compensation provided by law with respect to the property described in such petition.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 51, L. 1969.

91-5308. Court decree—conditions—assignment to surviving spouse or child—title vested—subject to encumbrances—exemptions limiting assignment. If upon the hearing of any petition provided for by this act, the court finds that the net value of the estate of the decedent, determined as provided in this act, does not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), as of the date of death of the decedent, and that the expenses of the last illness, funeral and burial charges and expenses of administration and all other creditors have been paid, it shall, by decree for that purpose, assign such estate to the surviving spouse; if there be no such surviving spouse, at the time of such decree, then to the child or children of the decedent; all subject to whatever mortgages, liens or encumbrances upon such estate there may be at the time of the death of the decedent. The title to such estate so assigned or set aside shall vest absolutely in the person or persons named in the decree, subject to mortgages, liens or encumbrances as here provided, and there must be no further proceedings in the administration, unless further estate be discovered. But no surviving spouse or child shall be entitled to such an assignment where the net value of the whole estate transferring to them from the decedent including the value of decedent's interest in any joint property owned by the decedent at the time of his death, and the value of any property transferred by the decedent in contemplation of decedent's death, exceeds, as to such spouse, or such child, respectively, the exemptions provided for them in section 91-4414, R. C. M. 1947.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 51, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 223, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "the child or children of the decedent" for "such child or children as may then be minors" in the next to last clause in the first sentence; and deleted "minor" preceding "child" in two places in the third sentence.

91-5309. Jurisdiction of court cannot be collaterally attacked when decree final in the absence of fraud. In the absence of fraud in the procurement, a decree assigning an estate pursuant to the provisions of this act, when it becomes final, is a conclusive determination of the jurisdiction of the court, except when based upon an erroneous assumption of death, and cannot be collaterally attacked.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 51, L. 1969.

91-5310. When estate shall be administered in the usual manner. If the court finds that the net value of the estate determined as provided in this act exceeds the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or that the surviving spouse, or child or children, are not entitled to an assignment under this act, or that there is neither a surviving spouse or surviving child of the decedent, the petition to set aside property of the decedent shall be denied, and the estate shall be then administered in the usual manner.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 51, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 223, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "minor" before "child" and "children" throughout the section.

91-5311. Pending actions excepted. This act shall not apply to estates of decedents filed or pending in any court prior to the effective date of this act.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 51, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

This act became effective July 1, 1969.

91-5312. Existing statutes not repealed. This act shall not be construed to repeal any other existing statutes relating to probate proceedings.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 51, L. 1969.

CHAPTER 1—INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENT BOARD—CREATION AND POWERS

Section 92-101. Name of act—what each part to contain.
92-104. Industrial accident board—compensation—terms and salaries.
92-111. Office and furnishings—quarters.
92-116.1. Administration fund.
92-118. Reports and bulletins which may be published.
92-121. Merit system.

92-101. (2816) Name of act—what each part to contain. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Workmen's Compensation Act. Part I (sections 92-101 to 92-843) shall contain those sections which have a general application to the whole of the act, and may be referred to as the "general provisions"; part II (sections 92-901 to 92-908) shall contain those sections which refer to compensation plan number one; part III (sections 92-1001 to 92-1012) shall contain those sections which refer to compensation plan number two; part IV (sections 92-1101 to 92-1123) shall contain those sections which refer to compensation plan number three.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2816, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 29, Ch. 341, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment deleted "part V (sections 92-1201 to 92-1222) shall contain those sections which may be referred to as the 'safety provisions'" from the end of the section.

Repealing Clause

Section 30 of Ch. 341, Laws 1969 read "Sections 41-1701 through 41-1707, 92-1201 through 92-1210 and 92-1214 through 92-1222, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

92-104. (2819) Industrial accident board—compensation—terms and salaries. There is hereby created a board to consist of three (3) members. The commissioner of labor and industry shall be one (1) member, the director of the bureau of vocational rehabilitation shall be one (1) member, and one (1) member shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the consent of the senate. The board shall be known as the industrial accident board and shall have the powers, duties, and functions hereinafter conferred. The term of office of the appointed member of the board shall be four (4) years and until his successor shall have been appointed and confirmed. He shall receive an annual salary in such amount as may be specified by the legislative assembly in the appropriation to the industrial accident board, payable monthly and shall be chairman of the board. If the legislative assembly does not specify the maximum salary for the chairman of the board, it shall be fixed by the board after approval by the board of examiners. Before approving any salary increase, the board of examiners shall review the salaries of comparable positions in Montana state government, other states, and private industry. The board shall elect one (1) of their own number as treasurer of the board.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment substituted "in such amount * * * to the industrial accident board" for "of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000)" in the fifth sentence; and inserted the sixth and seventh sentences.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment deleted ",and shall be provided with suitable rooms, necessary office furniture, stationery, and other supplies" from the end of the first sentence and substituted the present second sentence for one reading, "For the purpose of holding sessions in other places the board shall have power to rent temporary quarters."

92-116. (2831) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 92-116 (Sec. 2, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 1, Ch. 176, L. 1957; Sec. 164, Ch. 147, L. 1963), relating to deposit of fees, fines and assessments and their application to administrative expenses, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 253, Laws 1973. For new law, see sec. 92-116.1.

92-116.1. Administration fund. There is hereby established in the state treasury a workmen's compensation administration fund out of which all costs of administering the Workmen's Compensation and Occupational Disease and Occupational Safety and Health Act are to be paid upon lawful appropriation. The following moneys collected by the workmen's compensation division shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the workmen's compensation administrative fund and shall be used for the administrative expenses of the division:

(1) all fees and fines provided in sections 92-119, 92-820, 92-1334 and 92-1358;

(2) all assessments paid to the division by employers who elect to become bound by plan no. 1 of this act;

(3) all assessments paid to the division of insurers who insure employers under plan no. 2 of this act;

(4) all fees paid for inspection of boilers and issuance of licenses to operating engineers as required by law;

(5) all assessments levied against the industrial insurance account in the division fund as provided by this act.

The administration fund shall be debited with expenses incurred by the division in the general administration of the provisions of this act, including the salaries of its members, officers and employees, and the actual and necessary traveling expenses and disbursements of such members, officers and employees, incurred while on the business of the division either within or without the state.

Disbursements from the administration moneys shall be made after being approved by the division upon claim therefor.

The division shall levy against the industrial insurance account in the division fund an assessment in an amount deemed reasonable and necessary to provide adequate administrative funds for the administration of the various acts. The assessment is to be levied against the gross annual direct premium income for the previous fiscal year, less return premiums, and said assessment shall be paid forthwith by the treasurer into the administration moneys in the earmarked revenue fund.

CHAPTER 2—DEFENSES—ELECTION TO COME UNDER ACT

Section 92-202.1. Employments exempted from coverage.
92-204.1. Election of employer and employee to come under act—action against third party causing injury—right to subrogation.
92-206. Compensation plan No. 3 exclusive, etc., when a public corporation is the employer.
92-207.1. Employments covered.
92-208. Employees bound by act—election.
92-209. Employer shall make election before being bound—employee presumed to have elected.

92-202. (2837) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 92-202 (Sec. 3, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 1, Ch. 121, L. 1925), relating to certain employers for whom defenses are not excluded in personal injury actions, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 492, Laws 1973.

92-202.1. Employments exempted from coverage. This act shall not apply to any of the following employments unless the employer elects coverage under this act:

(1) Household employment.

(2) Casual employment.

(3) Employment of members of an employer's family dwelling in his household.

(4) Employment of sole proprietors or working members of a partnership.

(5) Employment for which a rule of liability for injury, occupational disease, or death is provided under the laws of the United States.

(6) Any person performing services in return for aid or sustenance only.

History: En. 92-202.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 492, L. 1973.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 492, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-202, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Equal Protection

Exclusion of employers engaged in farming and stock raising from the requirements of this act by former section 92-202 was a legitimate classification by the legislature and not in conflict with United States Constitution Fourteenth Amendment. State ex rel. Hammond v. Hager, — M —, 503 P 2d 52.

92-204. (2839) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 92-204 (Sec. 3, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 1, Ch. 138, L. 1933; Sec. 1, Ch. 230, L. 1943; Sec. 2, Ch. 235, L. 1947; Sec. 1, Ch. 270, L. 1969), relating to elective coverage, to exclusion of other remedies, to remedies in tort against third parties, and to subrogation, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 493, Laws 1973. For new law, see sec. 92-204.1.

92-204.1. Election of employer and employee to come under act—action against third party causing injury—right to subrogation. Where both the employer and employee have elected to come under this act, the provisions of this act shall be exclusive, and such election shall be held to be a surrender by such employer and the servants, and employees of such employer and such employee, as among themselves, of their right to any other method, form or kind of compensation, or determination thereof, or to any other compensation, or kind of determination thereof, or cause of action at law, suit in equity, or statutory or common-law right or remedy, or proceeding whatever, for or on account of any personal injury to or death of such employee, except as such rights may be hereinafter specifically granted; and such election shall bind the employee himself, and in case of death shall bind his personal representative, and all persons having any right or claim to compensation for his injury or death, as well as the employer, and the servants and employees of such employer, and those conducting his business during liquidation, bankruptcy or insolvency. The right to compensation and medical benefits as provided by this act shall not be affected by the fact that the injury, occupational disease or death is caused by the negligence of a third party other than the employer, or the servants or employees of the employer. Whenever such event shall occur to an employee while performing the duties of his employment and such event shall be caused by the act or omission of some persons or corporations other than his employer, or the servants or employees of his employer, then such employee, or in case of his death his heirs or personal representative shall, in addition to the right to receive compensation under this act, have a right to prosecute any cause of action he may have for damages against such persons or corporations. Further provided, that whenever such employee shall receive an injury while performing the duties of his employment and such injury or injuries, so received by such employee, are caused by the intentional and malicious act or omission of a servant or employee of his employer, then such employee, or in case of his death, his heirs or personal representatives, shall, in addition to the right to receive compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act, have a right to prosecute any cause of action he may have for damages against such servants or employees of his employer, causing such injury. Provided, that the employer or insurer shall be entitled to full subrogation for all compensation and benefits paid or to be paid under this act, except as otherwise provided in this section. The employer's or insurer's right of subrogation shall be a first lien on such claim, judgment or recovery. The employee shall institute such third party action after giving the employer or insurer reasonable notice of his intention to institute such third party action. The employee may request that such insurer pay a proportionate share of the reasonable cost, including attorneys' fees, of such third party action. The insurer may elect not to participate in the cost of the third party action, but as such election is made the insurer shall be deemed to have waived fifty per cent (50%) of its subrogation rights granted by the section. Provided, however, that if an employee refuses or fails to institute such action within one (1) year from the date of injury, the employer or insurer may institute such third party action in his name and for his benefit or that of his personal representative. If the employee or his personal representative institutes such third party action, he shall be entitled to at least one-third (1/3) of the amount recovered by judgment or compromise settlement less his proportionate share of the reasonable costs, including attorneys' fees, in the event the amount of recovery is insufficient to provide him with that amount after payment of subrogation. In the event the employer or insurer institutes such third party action, he shall pay to the employee any amount recovered by judgment or settlement which is in excess of the amounts paid or to be paid under this act an employer's or insurer's reasonable costs and attorneys' fees. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the employer or insurer, including the division of workmen's compensation, from entering into compromise agreements in settlement of subrogation rights. If death results from the injury or occupational disease, the employer shall have a right of action against the third party for recovery of any amount paid under this act, and such right of action shall be in addition to any cause of action by the heirs or personal representative of the deceased. In the event that the amount of compensation and benefits payable under this act shall not have been fully determined at the time such employee or his heirs or personal representative, or the employer or insurer, shall receive settlement of his action, prosecuted as aforesaid, then the division shall determine what proportion of such settlement shall be allocated under subrogation and such determination may be appealed as any other determination of the division.

History: En. 92-204.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 493, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for election of employers and employees to come under the Workmen's Compensation Act; providing for actions against third party causing injury; providing for a right to subrogation; and repealing section 92-204, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 493, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-204, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Exclusive Remedy

Where employee was injured while performing work assigned to him under contract between his employer and second company, failure of second company to file timely injury report with industrial accident board prevented it from invoking exclusive jurisdiction in board as "exclusive remedy" after employee filed civil suit in district court. State ex rel. Broesder v. Industrial Accident Board, 154 M 178, 461 P 2d 456.

Injured employee receiving workmen's compensation benefits was barred from seeking damages for same injuries in negligence action against coemployee. Madison v. Pierce, 156 M 209, 478 P 2d 860.

Employee who had received workmen's compensation benefits for personal injury was precluded from maintaining action against owner of 98% of corporate stock on theory he was co-employee, since act granted immunity to co-employees. Baird v. Remoir, 156 M 348, 480 P 2d 186.

Where electric company's independent contractor was specifically required to carry workmen's compensation insurance, an employee of the contractor could not bring an action in tort against the electric company for injuries he suffered when a pole broke. Buerkle v. Montana Power Co., 157 M 57, 482 P 2d 564.

Employer's immunity from common-law liability remains even when there have been wanton, willful and intentional violations of safety statutes, and the immunity is abrogated only if the injury itself was intentionally inflicted. Enberg v. Anaconda Co., 158 M 135, 489 P 2d 1036.

Employee, having elected to be bound by workmen's compensation law, and being compensated thereunder, was not entitled to maintain an action against employer for negligence, notwithstanding contention that employer's actions were willful and therefore not within statute barring employee's action against employer for common-law negligence; employee was not third-party beneficiary of safety clauses in contract between employer and United States and could not maintain action against employer for common-law negligence in absence of express promise in contract between employer and United States to pay damages to employee for employer's negligence. Hensley v. United States, 279 F Supp 5-8.

Where independent contractor defense is not applicable to general employer, general employer is substituted for immediate employer and is liable for injury under Workmen's Compensation Act and claimant cannot maintain common-law personal injury action against general employer. Campbell v. Shell Oil Co., 329 F Supp 846.

Joint Venture As Employer

Individual members of joint venture are "employers" within act and as such are immune from tort actions for death of employees of joint venture. Hamman v. United States, 267 F Supp 420.

Right To Sue Third Party

Provision in this section for exclusive remedy under this act does not preclude a defendant who is liable at common law to employee from seeking indemnity from plaintiff's employer as third-party defendant on an indemnity agreement. DeShaw v. Johnson, 155 M 355, 472 P 2d 298.

Plaintiff, who received workmen's compensation benefits for injuries sustained while in the employ of independent contractor, was denied claim against the landowners since they exercised no control over work area. Baird v. Chokatos, 156 M 32, 473 P 2d 547.

The amount of injured workman's recovery from uninsured motorist coverage cannot be reduced by any workmen's compensation benefits received by him; insurance commissioner had no authority to approve a policy providing for such reduction. Sullivan v. Doe, — M —, 495 P 2d 193.

Employee of joint venture was entitled to sue engineering firm in relation of independent contractor as to joint venture for engineering firm's negligence causing injury to employee under that portion of statute (prior to 1969 amendment) giving right of action against third parties when injuries are caused by act of some person other than employer. Hamman v. United States, 267 F Supp 420.

92-206. (2840) Compensation plan No. 3 exclusive, etc., when a public corporation is the employer. Where a public corporation is the employer, the terms, conditions, and provisions of compensation plan No. 3 shall be exclusive, compulsory, and obligatory upon both employer and employee. Any sums necessary to be paid under the provisions of this act by any public corporation shall be considered to be ordinary and necessary expense of such corporation, and the governing body of such public corporation shall make appropriation of and pay such sums, into the accident or administration fund, as the case may be, at the time and in the manner provided for in this act, notwithstanding that such governing body may have failed to anticipate such ordinary and necessary expense in any budget, estimate of expenses, appropriations, ordinances, or otherwise. Whenever a contractor is engaged as an employer in the performance of contract work for a public corporation, such employer must elect to be bound by the terms, conditions and provisions of either compensation plan No. 2 or compensation plan No. 3, and the terms, conditions and provisions of the plan chosen shall be compulsory and obligatory upon both employer and employee. Whenever any public corporation neglects or refuses to file with the industrial accident board monthly payroll report of its employees, the board is hereby authorized and empowered to levy an arbitrary assessment upon such public corporation in an amount of twenty-five dollars for each such assessment, which assessments shall be collected in the manner provided in this act for the collection of assessments.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 96, L. 1915; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 100, L. 1919; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 2840, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 410, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted "or any contractor engaged in the performance of contract work for such public corporation" after "is the employer" in the first sentence; and completely rewrote the third sentence.

92-207. (2841) Repealed.

Section 92-207 (Sec. 3, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 1, Ch. 119, L. 1939; Sec. 1, Ch. 135, L. 1941; Sec. 3, Ch. 235, L. 1947), relating to coverage of employers in hazardous industries, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 282, Laws 1973.

92-207.1. Employments covered. This act applies to all public employment and to all private employment not expressly exempted by section 92-202.1. If any employer shall fail to make said election, in the time and in the manner herein prescribed, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than six hundred dollars ($600) or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed six (6) months or by both such fine and imprisonment. A failure to provide compensation for each employee shall be deemed a separate offense for the purposes of this act.

Section 2 of Ch. 282, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-207, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

92-208. (2842) Employees bound by act—election. Every employee whose employer is bound by the provisions of this act shall become subject to and be bound by the provisions of that plan of compensation which shall have been adopted by his employer except, that pursuant to such rules and regulations as the board shall from time to time promulgate, and subject in all cases to the approval of the board, officers of private corporations may elect not to be bound as employees under the act by a written notice in the form provided by the board, served in the following manner:

1. to 3. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2842, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 95, L. 1963; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 145, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "that pursuant to such rules and regulations as the board shall from time to time promulgate, and subject in all cases to the approval of the board" in the preliminary paragraph.

92-209. (2844) Employer shall make election before being bound—employee presumed to have elected. It is the intention of this act that any employer engaged in employments covered herein shall, before being bound by any of the compensation plans herein provided, elect to be so bound thereby, and that the employee shall be presumed to have elected to be subject to and bound by the provisions of the particular plan which may have been adopted by his employer, unless such employee shall affirmatively elect not to be bound by this act, as provided in section 92-208. Provided, that an employer, after having been bound by one or the other of the three plans, may be canceled as an employer under the act, when such employer actually ceases operating and files a signed statement to that effect with the division. Upon such filing the division shall return the deposit of said employer if all premiums are paid.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "employments covered herein" for "hazardous occupations as defined herein" near the beginning of the first sentence; substituted "division" for "board" in two places; substituted "shall return" for "may return" in the final sentence; and made a minor change in phraseology.

92-211. (2846) Act applies to all inherently hazardous occupations, etc.

CHAPTER 3—HAZARDOUS OCCUPATIONS TO WHICH ACT APPLIES

(Repealed—Section 6, Chapter 443, Laws of 1973)

92-301 to 92-306. (2847 to 2852) Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 92-301 to 92-306 (Secs. 4, 5, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 2, Ch. 100, L. 1919; Sec. 1, Ch. 117, L. 1925; Secs. 1, 2, Ch. 88, L. 1945), defining the hazardous occupations covered by workmen's compensation, were repealed by Sec. 6, Ch. 443, Laws 1973. For new law, see sec. 92-207.1.

CHAPTER 4—MEANING OF WORDS EMPLOYED IN ACT

Section 92-410.1. Employer defined.
92-411. Employee and workman defined.
92-413. Beneficiary defined.
92-417. Child defined, to include whom.
92-418. Injury or injured defined.
92-418.1. Heart and lung disease of others not excluded by provision relating to firemen.
92-423.1. Wages defined.
92-423.2. Average weekly wage defined.

92-435. Insurer defined.
92-438.1. Independent contractor defined.
92-439. Temporary total disability defined.
92-440. Permanent partial disability defined.
92-441. Permanent total disability defined.

92-402 to 92-407. (2854 to 2859) Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 92-402 to 92-407 (Sec. 6, Ch. 96, L. 1915), defining various types of "hazardous employment," were repealed by Sec. 6, Ch. 443, Laws 1973.

92-410. (2862) Repealed.

Section 92-410 (Sec. 6, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 2, Ch. 121, L. 1925; Sec. 1, Ch. 50, L. 1965), defining "employer," was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 154, Laws 1973. For new law, see sec. 92-410.1.

92-410.1. Employer defined. "Employer" means the state and each county, city and county, city school district, irrigation district, all other districts established by law and all public corporations and quasi-public corporations and public agencies therein and every person, every prime contractor, and every firm, voluntary association and private corporation, including any public service corporation and including an independent contractor who has any person in service under any appointment or contract of hire, expressed or implied, oral or written, and the legal representative of any deceased employer or the receiver or trustee thereof.

Any employer who contracts to have work performed of a kind which is a regular or a recurrent part of the work of the trade, business, occupation or profession of such employer shall be liable for the payment of compensation to the employees of any subcontractor unless the subcontractor primarily liable for the payment of such compensation has coverage under this act. Any employers who shall become liable for such compensation may recover the amount of benefits paid and necessary expenses from the subcontractor primarily liable therein.

History: En. 92-410.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 154, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for a definition of "employer" and providing comprehensive coverage extending to subcontractors in the Workmen's Compensation Act, title 92, R. C. M. 1947; and repealing section 92-410, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 154, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-410, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Joint Ventures

Individual members of joint venture are "employers" within meaning of act and as such are immune from tort actions for death of employees of joint venture. Hamman v. United States, 267 F Supp 420.

92-411. (2863) Employee and workman defined. "Employee" and "workman" are used synonymously and mean every person in this state, including a contractor other than an "independent contractor" who is in the service of an employer as defined by the preceding section, under any appointment or contract of hire, expressed or implied, oral or written, including aliens and also including minors, whether lawfully or unlawfully employed, and all of the elected and appointed paid public officers and officers and members of boards of directors of quasi-public or private corporations while rendering actual service for such corporations for pay, including city and town firemen, highway patrolmen, police officers, county sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables, truant officers and all peace officers, also all public officers and their deputies, assistants and employees, but excluding any person whose employment is both casual and not in the courses of the trade, business, profession or occupation of his employer, unless such employer has elected to be bound by the provisions of the compensation law, in which case all employees are included, whether their employment is casual or otherwise, and also excluding any employee engaged in household or domestic service.

"Employee" also means a recipient of general relief who is performing work for a county of this state under the provisions of section 71-307, any juvenile performing work under authorization of a district court judge in a delinquency prevention or rehabilitation program, and any person receiving vocational rehabilitation training, or other on-the-job training under any state or federal vocational training program, whether or not under any appointment or contract of hire with an "employer" as defined in this title, and whether or not receiving payment from a third party.

If the employer is a partnership, or sole proprietorship, such employer may elect to include as an "employee" within the provisions of this act, any member of such partnership, or the owner of the sole proprietorship, devoting full time to the partnership or proprietorship business. In the event of such election, the employer must serve upon the employer's insurance carrier and the industrial accident board written notice naming the partners and/or sole proprietors to be covered, and no partner or sole proprietor shall be deemed an employee within this act until such notice has been given. For premium rate making the insurance carrier shall assume salary or wage of such electing "employee" to be five hundred dollars ($500) per month.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added the language following "section 71-307" in the second paragraph; and added the third paragraph.

Effective Date

Section 2 of Ch. 308, Laws 1971 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 15, 1971.

Airport Employee

Plaintiff under a contract of employment with the city-county airport was not an "actual" employee of the state of Montana under the accepted definitions. Kelleher v. State, — M —, 503 P 2d 29.

92-413. (2865) Beneficiary defined. "Beneficiary" means and shall include a surviving wife or husband; an unmarried surviving child or children under the age of eighteen (18) years; or an unmarried child under the age of twenty-two (22) years who is a full-time student in an accredited school; an invalid child or invalid children over the age of eighteen (18) years; provided, however, that no invalid child over the age of eighteen (18) years shall be considered a beneficiary unless dependent upon the decedent for support at the time of injury.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2865, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 121, L. 1925; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 92, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 331, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment inserted ", or an unmarried child * * * accredited school" after "under the age of eighteen years."

The 1973 amendment inserted "unmarried" in the first clause relating to children; increased the maximum age for student beneficiaries from twenty-one to twenty-two years; deleted "or if no surviving wife or husband then a surviving child or children under the age of eighteen years and an invalid child or invalid children over the age of eighteen years" immediately before the proviso; and made minor clarifying changes in punctuation.

92-417. (2869) Child defined, to include whom. "Child" shall include a posthumous child, a dependent stepchild, a child legally adopted prior to the injury, an illegitimate child legitimized prior to the injury.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2869, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 92, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment inserted "dependent" before "stepchild."

92-418. (2870) Injury or injured defined. "Injury" or "injured" means:

(1) a tangible happening of a traumatic nature from an unexpected cause, or unusual strain, resulting in either external or internal physical harm, and such physical condition as a result therefrom and excluding disease not traceable to injury, except as provided in subsection 2 of this section.

(2) cardiovascular or pulmonary or respiratory diseases contracted by a paid fireman employed by a municipality, village or fire district as a regular member of a lawfully established fire department, which diseases are caused by over-exertion in times of stress or danger in the course of his employment by proximate exposure or by cumulative exposure over a period of four (4) years or more to heat, smoke, chemical fumes, or other toxic gases.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment made no apparent change. But see Lupien v. Montana Record Publishing Co., 143 M 415, 390 P 2d 455, 457.

The 1967 amendment inserted "or unusual strain" after "an unexpected cause."

The 1973 amendment divided the former language into the preliminary clause and subsection (1); added "except as provided in subsection 2 of this section" to the end of subsection (1); and added subsection (2).

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 270, Laws 1967 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 270, Laws 1967 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 2, 1967.

Aggravation of Pre-existing Condition

Four-year-old back injury aggravated by lifting heavy piece of material on job was not injury within purview of statute since claimant must establish that injury for which he seeks to recover is new injury resulting from unexpected cause. Phelan v. Vogel, 148 M 422, 422 P 2d 80.

Aneurysm

Workman who suffered aneurysm when right middle cerebral artery ruptured did not suffer compensable injury as defined in statute in light of evidence that at time of injury, he was engaged in performing ordinary activities of employment which would not cause aneurysm. Miller

v. Sundance Recreation, Inc., 151 M 223, 441 P 2d 194.

Burden of Proof

Claimant who injured hand and received compensation for such injury was properly denied compensation for alleged "disabling cardiac damage" and "cardiac neurosis" since claimant could produce no substantial evidence to support such claim. Verdi v. American Smelting & Refining Co., 154 M 208, 461 P 2d 845.

Heart Attack

Where employee suffered fatal myocardial infarction at work but expert cardiologist testified that the attack was not a result of his employment, recovery was denied even though absolute proof was not possible. Ness v. Diamond Asphalt Co., 143 M 560, 393 P 2d 43.

Relationship between Accident and Disability

Evidence of claimant's mental problems existing prior to accident and doctor's testimony that it was speculation that claimant's failure to return to work was caused by accident was sufficient to sustain judgment denying recovery under statute for claimant's failure to establish direct relationship between industrial accident and physical condition after such accident. Schwartzkopf v. Industrial Accident Board, 149 M 488, 428 P 2d 468.

Spinal Cancer

Workmen's compensation was properly denied where claimant's decedent's death resulted from a spinal cancer that was neither caused by nor contributed to by accident in which decedent fractured his dorsal spine, there being no causal connection between the fracture and the cancerous tumor of the spine which caused death. Stordahl v. Rush Implement Co., 148 M 13, 417 P 2d 95, 98. (Dissenting opinion, 148 M 13, 417 P 2d 95, 99.)

Unusual Strain

Evidence that claimant, while in course and scope of employment, picked up heavy tray of dirty dishes from floor and suffered back strain and testimony of doctor that subsequent back condition resulted from unusual strain was sufficient to support claim of accidental injury within meaning of phrase "unusual strain" as used in statute. Jones v. Bair's Cafes, 152 M 13, 445 P 2d 923, explained in 157 M 328, 331, 485 P 2d 692.

Back injury consisting of a herniated disc, sustained when employee lifted mop pail full of water, resulted from a compensable "unusual strain" within meaning of this section. Robins v. Ogle, 157 M 328, 485 P 2d 692.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Disease Not Traceable to Injury

Where claimant was being treated for bursitis prior to time she lifted box which allegedly caused injury to her shoulder, and surgeon who had operated on shoulder admitted only to the "possibility" of a supraspinatus tendon tear, there was insufficient evidence upon which either the industrial accident board or district court could base award. La Forest v. Safeway Stores, Inc., 147 M 431, 414 P 2d 200.

Unexpected Cause

Claimant, whose routine job was lifting fifteen-pound blocks, was not entitled to compensation for back injury since strain from lifting blocks was not an injury resulting from an "unexpected cause." James v. V. K. V. Lumber Co., 145 M 466, 401 P 2d 282, distinguished in Jones v. Bair's Cafes, 152 M 13, 445 P 2d 923.

92-418.1. Heart and lung disease of others not excluded by provision relating to firemen. Nothing herein shall be construed to exclude any other working person who suffers a cardiovascular, pulmonary or respiratory disease while in the course and scope of his employment.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 488, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act relating to the Workmen's Compensation Act; amending section 92-418, R. C. M. 1947, relating to the definition of "injury" or "injured" to provide for broadened coverage for firemen; and providing for an effective date.

Effective Date

Section 3 of Ch. 488, Laws 1973 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 27, 1973.

92-422. (2874) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 92-422 (Sec. 6, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 1, Ch. 175, L. 1971), defining the work week, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 445, Laws 1973.

92-423. (2875) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 92-423 (Sec. 6, Ch. 96, L. 1915), defining wages, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 444, Laws 1973. For new law, see sec. 92-423.1.

92-423.1. Wages defined. "Wages" means the average gross earnings received by the employee at the time of the injury for the usual hours of employment in a week and overtime is not to be considered.

Sick leave benefits accrued by employees of "public corporations" as defined by section 92-434 are considered "wages."

History: En. 92-423.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 444, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for a definition of "wages" in the Workmen's Compensation Act; and repealing section 92-423, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of ch. 444, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-423, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

92-423.2. Average weekly wage defined. "Average weekly wage" means the mean weekly earnings of all employees under covered employment as defined and established annually by the division of employment security of the Montana department of labor and industry. It is established at the nearest whole dollar ($1) number and shall be adopted by the division of workmen's compensation prior to July 1 of each year.

History: En. 92-423.2 by Sec. 1, Ch. 445, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for a definition of "average weekly wage" in the Workmen's Compensation Act; and repealing section 94-422, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 445, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-422, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

92-435. (2887) Insurer defined. "Insurer" means any insurance company authorized to transact business in this state insuring any employer under this act and includes industrial insurance account created by this act, known as the "state fund."

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2887, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 151, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment added "and includes industrial insurance account created by this act, known as the 'state fund'."

92-438. (2890) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 92-438 (Sec. 6, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 1, Ch. 49, L. 1965), defining "independent contractor," was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 251, Laws 1973. For new law, see sec. 92-438.1.

92-438.1. Independent contractor defined. An "independent contractor" is one who renders service in the course of an occupation and:

(1) has been and will continue to be free from control or direction over the performance of the services, both under his contract and in fact; and

(2) is engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, profession or business.

History: En. 92-438.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 251, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for a definition of "independent contractor" in the Workmen's Compensation Act; and repealing section 92-438, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 251, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-438, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

General Contractor's Liability

Where injured employee's immediate employer was independent contractor and was required by general employer to carry workmen's compensation insurance under which injured employee received compensation, general employer was immune under former section 92-438 from common-law liability. Ashcraft v. Montana Power Co., 156 M 368, 480 P 2d 812.

Where independent contractor defense is not applicable to general employer, general employer is substituted for immediate employer and is liable under Workmen's Compensation Act, so that claimant cannot maintain common-law personal injury action against general employer. Campbell v. Shell Oil Co., 329 F Supp 846.

92-439. Temporary total disability defined. "Temporary total disability" means a condition resulting from an injury as defined in this act that results in total loss of wages and exists until the injured workman is as far restored as the permanent character of the injuries will permit.

History: En. 92-439 by Sec. 1, Ch. 107, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for a definition of "temporary total disability" in the Workmen's Compensation Act.

92-440. Permanent partial disability defined. "Permanent partial disability" means a condition resulting from injury as defined in this act that results in the actual loss of earnings or earning capability less than total that exists after the injured workman is as far restored as the permanent character of the injuries will permit.

History: En. 92-440 by Sec. 1, Ch. 108, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for a definition of "permanent partial disability" in the Workmen's Compensation Act.

92-441. Permanent total disability defined. "Permanent total disability" means a condition resulting from injury as defined in this act that results in the loss of actual earnings or earning capability that exists after the injured workman is as far restored as the permanent character of the injuries will permit and which results in the workman having no reasonable prospect of finding regular employment of any kind in the normal labor market.

History: En. 92-441 by Sec. 1, Ch. 109, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for a definition of "permanent total disability" in the Workmen's Compensation Act.

CHAPTER 5—COMPENSATION TO CERTAIN HEIRS AND BENEFICIARIES

92-501. (2891) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 92-501 (Sec. 7, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 7, Ch. 121, L. 1925; Sec. 1, Ch. 53, L. 1937), relating to eligibility as beneficiaries of children, brothers and sisters, was repealed by Sec. 1, Ch. 106, Laws 1973.

92-503 to 92-505. (2893 to 2895) Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 92-503 to 92-505 (Sec. 8, Ch. 96, L. 1915), relating to eligibility as beneficiaries of persons residing outside the United States, were repealed by Sec. 1, Ch. 106, Laws 1973.

CHAPTER 6—CLAIMS—LIABILITY FOR INJURY UNDER DIFFERENT PLANS OF ACT

Section 92-601. Claims must be presented within what time.
92-614. Who liable for injuries under the different plans of act and in what amounts, extraterritorial application and reciprocity.
92-615. Notice of denial of claim by insurer.
92-616. Costs and attorneys' fees payable on denial of claim later found compensable.

92-601. (2899) Claims must be presented within what time. In case of personal injury or death, all claims shall be forever barred unless presented in writing to the employer, the insurer, or the division, as the case may be, within twelve (12) months from the date of the happening of the accident, either by the claimant or someone legally authorized to act for him in his behalf.

The division may, upon a reasonable showing by the claimant of lack of knowledge of disability, waive the time requirement, up to an additional twenty-four (24) months.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 96, L. 1915; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 100, L. 1919; re-en. Sec. 2899, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 34, L. 1935; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 264, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "under oath" following "in writing" in the first paragraph; substituted "division" for "board"; added the second paragraph; and made a minor change in style.

Estoppel to Invoke Statute

Industrial accident board's dismissal of claimant's workmen's compensation claim was proper where action was not commenced until twenty-three months after expiration of limitation period provided for in this section, and claimant failed to produce evidence which would indicate existence of latent injury or actions which would estop employer from invoking statute of limitations. Vetsch v. Helena Transfer & Storage Co., 154 M 106, 460 P 2d 757.

92-604. (2901) Employer liable when lets work, etc.

Common-Law Remedy

Where independent contractor defense is not applicable to general employer, general employer is substituted for immediate employer of claimant and is liable under Workmen's Compensation Act, so that claimant cannot maintain common-law personal injury action against general employer. Campbell v. Shell Oil Co., 329 F Supp 846.

92-608. (2905) Compensation in case of death of employee, etc.

Death from Cause other than Injury

Clause providing that "if the employee shall die from some cause other than the injury, there shall be no liability for compensation after his death" means that if employee is receiving compensation as result of industrial injury and subsequently dies from causes other than injury, liability for further compensation by way of death benefits or continuing disability benefits is cut off; but statute does not terminate liability for compensation accrued prior to death and unpaid at time of death; thus, compensation for permanent partial disability existing between time of injury and time of death is payable even after death. Breen v. Industrial Accident Board, 150 M 463, 436 P 2d 701.

"Proximate Cause" Defined

"Proximate cause" as used in statute, means that cause which in natural and continuous sequence, unbroken by any new and independent cause produces death, without which it would not have occurred; it does not mean that injury must be sole cause of death but that injury must be substantial contributing cause in sense that death would not have occurred but for injuries. Head injury received in compensable industrial accident occurring more than two years previous to death was not proximate cause of death in view of evidence that deceased drank to excess before and after accident, that immediate cause of death was suffocation from vomit after drinking bout and that even if deceased had taken six nembutal tablets given on prescription of doctor to relieve headaches, it could not have caused or contributed to death. Breen v. Industrial Accident Board, 150 M 463, 436 P 2d 701.

92-610. (2907) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 92-610 (Sec. 14, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 1, Ch. 177, L. 1929), relating to contracts for hospital benefits, was repealed by Sec. 1, Ch. 106, Laws 1973.

92-614. (2911) Who liable for injuries under the different plans of act and in what amounts, extraterritorial application and reciprocity. Every employer who shall become bound by and subject to the provisions of compensation plan number one (1), and every employer and insurer who shall become bound by and subject to the provisions of compensation plan number two (2), and the industrial accident fund where the employer of the injured employee has become bound by and subject to the provisions of compensation plan No. 3, shall be liable for the payment of compensation in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided to an employee who has elected to come under this act, and who shall receive an injury arising out of and in the course of his employment, or, in the case of his death from such injury, to his beneficiaries, if any; or, if none, to his major dependents, if any; or, if none, to his minor dependents, if any.

If a workman employed in this state who is subject to the provisions of this act temporarily leaves the state incidental to that employment and receives an injury arising out of and in the course of such employment, the provisions of this act shall apply to such workman as though he were injured within this state.

If a workman from another state and his employer from another state are temporarily engaged in work within this state, this act shall not apply to them

(a) if the employer and employee are bound by the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Law or similar law of such other state which applies to them while they are in the state of Montana, and

(b) if the Workmen's Compensation Act of this state is recognized and given effect as the exclusive remedy for workmen employed in this state who are injured while temporarily employed in such other state.

A certificate from an authorized officer of the workmen's compensation department or similar agency of another state certifying that an employer of such other state is bound by the Workmen's Compensation Act of the state and that its act will be applied to employees of the employer while in the state of Montana shall be prima facie evidence of the application of the Workmen's Compensation Law of the certifying state.

The industrial accident board shall have authority, with the approval of the governor, to enter into agreements with workmen's compensation agencies of other states for the purpose of promulgating regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this act to carry out the extraterritorial application of the workmen's compensation laws of the agreeing states.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2911, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 70, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment inserted figures after the written numbers in the first paragraph; and added everything after the first paragraph.

92-615. Notice of denial of claim by insurer. Every insurer under any plan for the payment of workmen's compensation benefits shall within thirty (30) days of receipt of a claim either accept or deny the claim, and if denied shall inform the claimant in writing of such denial. Biweekly compensation benefits shall be continuously paid until the claimant is fully released by his doctor, returns to work, or no longer suffers a loss of earnings capacity. If the insurer determines to initially deny a claim, or after a claim has been accepted, terminates biweekly compensation benefits, it may do so only after fifteen (15) days written notice to the claimant and the division, and after written approval of the division.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 477, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act requiring the insurer to accept or deny a claim within thirty (30) days of its filing; payment of weekly compensation until claimant returns to work; termination of compensation only upon notice and division approval; and payment of costs.

92-616. Costs and attorneys' fees payable on denial of claim later found compensable. In the event the insurer denies the claim, or terminates a claim that has already been accepted, and the claim is later determined to be compensable either through hearing or appeal to the courts, the insurer shall pay all costs incurred by the claimant, including reasonable attorneys' fees as established by the division.

92-710. Occupational deafness.

92-701. (2912) Repealed.

92-701.1. Compensation for injuries producing temporary total disability. Weekly compensation benefits for injury producing total temporary disability shall be sixty-six and two-thirds per cent (66 2/3%) of the wages received at the time of the injury. The maximum weekly compensation benefits shall not exceed one hundred ten dollars ($110) beginning July 1, 1973. Beginning July 1, 1974, the maximum weekly compensation benefits shall not exceed the state's average weekly wage. Total temporary disability benefits shall be paid for the duration of the worker's temporary disability.

In cases where it is determined that periodic benefits granted by the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 301 (1935), are payable because of the injury, the weekly benefits payable under this section are reduced, but not below zero (0), by an amount equal, as nearly as practical, to one-half (½) the federal periodic benefits for such week.

For new law, see sec. 92-703.1.

92-703.1. Compensation for injuries causing partial disability. Weekly compensation benefits for injury producing partial disability shall be sixty-six and two-thirds per cent (66 2/3%) of the difference between the wages received at the time of the injury and the wages that the injured employee is capable of earning thereafter, subject to a maximum compensation of sixty dollars ($60) a week.

The compensation shall be paid during the period of disability, not exceeding however, five hundred (500) weeks in cases of partial disability; provided, however, that compensation for partial disability resulting from the loss of or injury to any member shall not be payable for a greater number of weeks than is specified in section 92-709 for the loss of the member.

History: En. 92-703.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 155, L. 1973.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Computation of Average Weekly Wage

Former section 92-703 did not incorporate the six-day week component under former section 92-422 in determining pre- or post-injury earnings for partial disability, and in this manner was different from former sections 92-701 and 92-702, which dealt with total disability. Mahlum v. Broeder, 147 M 386, 412 P 2d 572.

Pre- or post-injury compensation for partial disability under former section 92-703 was determined by dividing a man's earnings over a reasonable period of time by the total number of days he worked, excluding all overtime and then multiplying the average daily wage by the number of days actually worked each week. Mahlum v. Broeder, 147 M 386, 412 P 2d 572.

Earning Capacity—Loss of Earnings

Under former section 92-703, coupled with section 92-709, a claimant could have an award of temporary total disability payments during period he was entirely disabled, an award of temporary partial disability payments while his injury was still healing and he was partially able to earn wages, and an additional award for loss of prospective future earnings as the result of permanent partial disability. Jones v. Claridge, 145 M 326, 400 P 2d 888.

92-704. (2915) Repealed.

92-704.1. Compensation for injury causing death. Weekly compensation benefits for injury causing death shall be sixty-six and two-thirds per cent (66 2/3%) of the decedent's wages. The maximum weekly compensation benefits shall not exceed the state's average weekly wage. The minimum weekly compensation for death shall be fifty per cent (50%) of the state's average weekly wage, but in no event shall it exceed the decedent's actual wages at the time of his death.

Death benefits shall be paid to a widow or widower for life or until remarriage, and in the event of remarriage two (2) years' benefits shall be paid in a lump sum to the widow or widower. In all cases, benefits shall be paid to beneficiaries as defined in this act.

In cases where it is determined that periodic benefits granted by the Social Security Act, 42 U. S. C. 301 (1935), are payable because of the injury causing death, the weekly benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by the amount of the federal periodic benefits for such week.

History: En. 92-704.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 203, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing compensation for injuries causing death under the Workmen's Compensation Act; repealing section 92-704, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 203, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-704, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

92-706. (2917) Repealed.

92-706.1. Medical and hospital services approved by the division are furnished. In addition to the compensation provided by this act and as an additional benefit separate and apart from compensation, the following shall be furnished:

During the first thirty-six (36) months after the happening of the injury, the employer or insurer shall furnish reasonable services by a physician or surgeon, reasonable hospital services and medicines when needed, and such other treatment as may be approved by the division for the injuries sustained. The division, upon application of the injured workman may, for good cause, grant reasonable extensions of the benefits provided in this section.

All hospitals must submit to the division of workmen's compensation, a schedule of fees and charges for treatment of injured workmen to be in effect for at least a twelve (12) month period unless the division and the hospital agree to interim amendments of the schedule. The schedule must be submitted at least thirty (30) days prior to its effective date and shall not exceed the charges prevailing in the hospital for similar treatment of private patients.

History: En. 92-706.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 252, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for medical and hospital services to be furnished injured claimants under the Workmen's Compensation Act; repealing section 92-706, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of ch. 252, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-706, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

92-707. (2918) Compensation from what date paid. When an injured employee has no wife, child, father, mother, brother or sister residing within the United States who would be entitled to compensation in case of his death, no compensation shall be allowed or paid during the first week of any injury, except as may be required by the provisions of the preceding section, but if disability continues one (1) week, compensation shall be paid from the date of injury. Where the injured employee has a beneficiary or a major or minor dependent residing within the United States who would be entitled to compensation in case of his death, no compensation shall be paid for the first week of any injury, but if disability continues one (1) week, compensation shall be paid from the date of injury; provided, that separate benefits of medical and hospital services shall be furnished from date of injury.

The 1969 amendment substituted "one (1) week" for "six weeks" in the first sentence, and "one (1) week" for "three weeks" in the second sentence.

92-708. (2919) Compensation to run consecutively—manner of payment. Compensation shall run consecutively and not concurrently and payment shall not be made for two (2) classes of disability over the same period. Compensation due to beneficiaries shall be paid to the surviving spouse, if any, or if none, then divided equally among or for the benefit of the children. In cases where beneficiaries are a surviving widow and stepchildren of such widow the compensation shall be divided equally among all beneficiaries. Compensation due to major dependents where there be more than one (1), shall be divided equitably among them and likewise as to minor dependents, and the question of dependency and amount thereof shall be a question of fact for determination by the division.

The 1973 amendment deleted two provisos reading "provided that the total period over which compensation shall be payable for two or more classes of disability, including death, resulting from any compensable injury, shall not extend for a period of more than five hundred (500) weeks, and provided that no compensation shall be paid to a major or minor dependent who did not reside in the United States at the date of the happening of the injury" from the end of the first sentence; and substituted "division" for "board" at the end of the fourth sentence.

92-709. (2920) Compensation in case of specified injuries. In case of the following specified injuries, compensation for temporary total disability shall be paid at the weekly rate provided in section 92-701.1, during the healing period, but in no event shall the healing period for loss of a member exceed twenty-six (26) weeks. In addition thereto but in lieu of any other compensation provided by this act, compensation for loss of a member shall be paid at the weekly rate provided in section 92-703.1, and shall be paid for the following periods:

For loss of:

One arm at or near shoulder	280 weeks
One arm at the elbow	240 weeks
One arm between wrist and elbow	220 weeks
One hand	200 weeks
One thumb and the metacarpal bone thereof	75 weeks
One thumb at the proximal joint	37 weeks
One thumb at the second distal joint	25 weeks
One first finger and the metacarpal bone thereof	40 weeks
One first finger at the proximal joint	30 weeks
One first finger at the second joint	22 weeks
One first finger at the distal joint	15 weeks
One second finger and the metacarpal bone thereof	37 weeks
One second finger at the proximal joint	20 weeks
One second finger at the second joint	15 weeks
One second finger at the distal joint	8 weeks
One third finger and the metacarpal bone thereof	25 weeks
One third finger at the proximal joint	15 weeks
One third finger at the second joint	10 weeks
One third finger at the distal joint	5 weeks
One fourth finger and the metacarpal bone thereof	15 weeks
One fourth finger at the proximal joint	11 weeks
One fourth finger at the second joint	8 weeks
One fourth finger at the distal joint	6 weeks
One leg at or near the hip joint as to preclude the use of an artificial limb	300 weeks
One leg at or above the knee where stump remains sufficient to permit the use of an artificial limb	200 weeks
One leg between knee and ankle	190 weeks
One foot at the ankle	180 weeks
One great toe with the metatarsal bone thereof	37 weeks
One great toe at the proximal joint	18 weeks
One great toe at the second joint	12 weeks
One toe other than the great toe with the metatarsal bone thereof	16 weeks
One toe other than the great toe at the proximal joint	8 weeks

One toe other than the great toe at second or distal joint	5 weeks
One eye by enucleation	165 weeks
Total blindness of one eye	140 weeks
Total loss of hearing, one ear	40 weeks
Total loss of hearing, both ears	200 weeks

In all cases of permanent injury to a member less than loss of the member compensation shall be paid for total temporary disability, without limitation as to time under section 92-701.1. In addition thereto, indemnity benefits for permanent disability to a member or members shall be proportionate to loss or loss of use of the member or members at the weekly rate provided in section 92-703.1. In all other cases of permanent injury, less than total, not included in the above schedule, the compensation for partial disability shall bear such relation to the periods stated in the above schedule as the disabilities bear to those produced by the injuries named in the schedule or to partial disability (500 weeks).

Loss of vision: Where central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses or the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees, the same as for loss of the eye.

Total loss of use: Indemnity benefits for permanent total loss of use of a member shall be the same as for loss of the member.

Disfigurement: The division may award proper and equitable indemnity benefits for serious face, head, or neck disfigurement, not to exceed twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500) in addition to any other indemnity benefits payable under this section.

The loss of both hands, or both arms, or both feet, or both legs, or both eyes, or any two (2) thereof, in one (1) accident, in the absence of conclusive proof to the contrary shall constitute total disability, permanent in character. Provided, however, that the percentage of permanent disability caused by any single accident or injury shall be so computed as to cover the permanent disability caused by that particular injury without reference to any previous physical ailment or defect or to any injury previously suffered or any permanent disability caused thereby; provided, that no payment under this section shall be in lieu of the separate benefit of medical and hospital services.

The 1965 amendment increased the maximum weekly compensation set forth in the various clauses in the preliminary paragraph from $29 to $35, from $32 to $38, from $36 to $42, from $40 to $46, from $45 to $51, and from $50 to $56; and increased the minimum weekly compensation set forth at the end of the preliminary paragraph from $25.50 to $31.50.

The 1967 amendment increased the maximum weekly compensation set forth in the various clauses in the preliminary paragraph from $35 to $37 per week; from $38 to $40 per week; from $42 to $45 per week; from $46 to $50 per week; from $51 to $55 per week; from $56 to $60 per week; and increased the minimum weekly compensation set forth at the end of the preliminary paragraph from $31.50 to $34.50.

The 1971 amendment completely rewrote the preliminary paragraph; for previous text, see parent volume and above notes relating to 1965 and 1967 amendments. The 1971 amendment also inserted "In all other cases of permanent injury, less than total, not included in the above schedule, the compensation shall bear such relation to the periods stated in the above schedule as the disabilities bear to those produced by the injuries named in the schedule or to total disability (500 weeks)" following the schedule of injuries; and made minor changes in phraseology.

The 1973 amendment changed the statutory reference in the first sentence from 92-701 to 92-701.1; inserted "for loss of a member" twice in the preliminary clause; changed the statutory reference in the second sentence from 92-703 to 92-703.1; inserted the first two sentences following the schedule of payments; inserted "for partial disability" in the third sentence following the schedule of payments; substituted "partial" for "total" in the third sentence following the schedule of payments; deleted two paragraphs between the paragraphs headed "Total loss of use" and "Disfigurement"; substituted "division" for "board" under "Disfigurement"; and made a minor change in style.

Additional Compensation

Under this section, coupled with former section 92-703, a claimant could have had an award of temporary total disability payments during period he was entirely disabled, an award of temporary partial disability payments while his injury was still healing and he was partially able to earn wages, and an additional award for loss of prospective future earnings as the result of permanent partial disability. Jones v. Claridge, 145 M 326, 400 P 2d 888.

Date of Accrual

Indemnity benefits accrue from the date the permanent nature of the disability becomes established. Jones v. Claridge, 145 M 326, 400 P 2d 888.

Partial Loss of Member

Award of 500 weeks' compensation for double vision in one eye was excessive in view of provision in this section allowing only 140 weeks' compensation for total blindness in one eye. Johnson v. Industrial Accident Board, 157 M 221, 483 P 2d 918.

92-709A. Repealed.

Repeal

Section 92-709A (Sec. 1, Ch. 190, L. 1951; Sec. 195, Ch. 147, L. 1963), relating to compensation for second injuries, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 254, Laws 1973. For new law, see sec. 92-709.1.

92-709.1. Subsequent injury provisions — fund — procedures. (1) As used in this act:

(a) "Vocationally handicapped" means a person who has a medically certifiable permanent physical impairment which is a substantial obstacle to obtaining employment or to obtaining reemployment if employee should become unemployed considering such factors as the person's age, education, training, experience, and employment rejection.

(b) "Certifying agency" means the section of rehabilitation, division of workmen's compensation.

(c) "Certificate" means documentation issued by the certifying agency to an individual who is vocationally handicapped.

(d) "Fund" means the subsequent injury fund.

(2) A person who wishes to be certified as vocationally handicapped for purposes of this section may apply to the certifying agency on forms furnished by that agency. The certifying agency shall conduct an investigation and shall issue a certificate to a person who meets the requirements for vocationally handicapped certification.

(3) Upon commencement of employment or retention in employment of a certified vocationally handicapped person, the employer shall submit to the certifying agency, on forms furnished by the agency, all pertinent information requested by the agency. The certifying agency shall acknowledge receipt of the information. Failure to file the required information with the certifying agency within sixty (60) days after the first day of the vocationally handicapped person's employment or retention in employment, precludes the employer from the protection and benefits of this section unless the information is filed before an injury for which benefits are payable under this section.

(4) The administrator of the division shall promulgate rules for certification of vocationally handicapped persons.

(5) A person certified as vocationally handicapped who receives a personal injury arising out of and in the course of his employment and resulting in death or disability, shall be paid compensation in the manner and to the extent provided in this act, or in case of his death resulting from such injury, the compensation shall be paid to his beneficiaries or dependents. The liability of the employer for payment of compensation, for furnished medical care and burial as provided in this act shall be limited to those benefits occurring during the period of one hundred four (104) weeks after the date of injury. Thereafter, all compensation and the cost of all medical care and burial shall be the liability of the fund.

(6) When a vocationally handicapped person receives a personal injury, the procedure and practice provided in this act applies to all proceedings under this section, except where specifically otherwise provided herein. Not less than ninety (90) nor more than one hundred fifty (150) days before the expiration of one hundred four (104) weeks after the date of injury, the employer, carrier, or the industrial insurance fund, as the case may be, shall notify the fund whether it is likely that compensation may be payable beyond a period of one hundred four (104) weeks after the date of the injury. The fund, thereafter, may review, at reasonable times, such information as the employer, carrier or industrial insurance fund as regarding the accident, and the nature and extent of the injury and disability.

(7) If the fund does not notify the carrier of its intent to dispute the payment of compensation, medical and burial benefits, the employer, carrier, or industrial insurance fund, shall continue to make payments on behalf of the fund, and shall be reimbursed by the fund for all benefits paid that pertain to the period beyond one hundred four (104) weeks after the date of the injury. However, at any time subsequent to one hundred four (104) weeks after the date of injury, the fund may notify the carrier of a dispute as to payment of benefits. The liability of the fund to reimburse the employer, carrier, or the industrial insurance fund shall be suspended thirty (30) days thereafter until the controversy is determined.

(8) The obligation imposed by this section on the employer, carrier, or industrial insurance fund to make payments on behalf of the fund does not impose an independent liability on the employer, carrier or industrial insurance fund. After the right to reimbursement has been established, reimbursement payment shall be made promptly on a proper showing every six (6) months. If the employer, carrier or the industrial insurance fund does not make the payments on behalf of the fund, the fund may make the payments directly to the persons entitled to the payments.

(9) If an employee was employed or retained in employment under the provisions of this act and a dispute or controversy arises as to payment of benefits or the liability therefor, the division shall hold a hearing and resolve all disputes. On motion made in writing by the employer, carrier, or industrial insurance fund, the administrator shall join the fund as a party defendant.

(10) The division within five (5) days of the entry of an order joining the fund as a party defendant shall give the fund written notice thereof not less than twenty (20) days before the date of hearing and shall include the name of employee, employer, and the date of the alleged injury or disability. The fund, named as a defendant, shall have ten (10) days after the date of notification to file objections to being named as party defendant. On the date of the hearing at which the liability of the parties is determined, the hearing examiner first shall hear arguments and take evidence concerning the joinder as party defendant. If the fund has filed timely objection, and if argument and evidence warrant, the hearing examiner shall grant a motion to dismiss.

(11) At the time of the hearing, the employer and fund may appear, cross-examine witnesses, give evidence and defend both on the issue of liability of the employer to the employee and on issue of the liability of the fund.

(12) The hearing examiner shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law determining the respective liability of the employer and the fund.

(13) Benefits payable from the fund may be converted into a lump sum payment only upon a substantial showing for an equitable cause, the advisability of the lump sum payment to be determined and approved by the administrator of the division.

(a) In every case of the death of an employee under this act, the insurer shall pay to the fund the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000). In addition, the division may assess every insurer an amount not to exceed five per cent (5%) of the compensation paid in Montana in the preceding fiscal year. The assessment shall be transmitted annually to the subsequent injury fund by the employer or insurer.

(b) When in judgment of the administrator the amount of money in the subsequent injury fund is such that there is a surplus above and beyond projected liabilities, the administrator may at his discretion suspend or reduce further collection of assessments for a period of time determined by the administrator.

History: En. 92-709.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 254, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for a subsequent injury fund in the Workmen's Compensation Act; and repealing section 92-709A, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 254, Laws 1973 read "Section 92-709A, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed, and the assets and liabilities acquired under this section are hereby transferred to the subsequent injury fund."

92-710. Occupational deafness. Regardless of other definitions of injury and time limitations imposed by this act, there shall be compensation awarded for occupational deafness as follows:

(1) "Occupational deafness" means permanent partial or permanent total loss of hearing of one or both ears due to prolonged exposure to noise in employment. "Noise" means sound capable of producing occupational deafness. "Noisy employment" means employment in the performance of which an employee is subjected to noise.

(a) Losses of hearing due to industrial noise for compensation purposes shall be confined to the frequencies of 500, 1000 and 2000 cycles per second. Loss of hearing ability for frequency tones above 2000 cycles per second is not to be considered as constituting disability for hearing.

(b) The per cent of hearing loss, for purposes of the determination of compensation claims for occupational deafness, shall be calculated as the average, in decibels, of the thresholds of hearing for the frequencies of 500, 1000 and 2000 cycles per second. Pure tone air conduction audiometric instruments, approved by nationally recognized authorities in this field, shall be used for measuring hearing loss. If the losses of hearing average 25 decibels or less in the three frequencies, as measured under ISO Standard 1964, such losses of hearing shall not then constitute any compensable hearing disability. If the losses of hearing average 92 decibels or more in the three frequencies, as measured under ISO Standard 1964, then the same shall constitute and be total or 100 per cent compensable hearing loss.

(c) In measuring hearing impairment the lowest measured losses in each of the three frequencies shall be added together and divided by three to determine the average decibel loss. For every decibel of loss exceeding 25 decibels an allowance of one and one-half per cent (1½%) shall be made up to the maximum of one hundred per cent (100%), which is reached at 92 decibels.

(d) In determining the binaural percentage of loss, the percentage of impairment in the better ear shall be multiplied by five (5). The resulting figure shall be added to the percentage of impairment in the poorer ear and the sum of the two divided by six (6). The final percentage shall be representative of the binaural hearing impairment.

(e) Before determining the percentage of hearing impairment, in order to allow for the average amount of hearing loss from nonoccupational causes found in the population at any given age, there shall be deducted from the total average decibel loss, one-half decibel for each year of the employee's age over forty at the time of last exposure to industrial noise.

(f) No consideration shall be given to the question of whether or not the ability of an employee to understand speech is improved by the use of a hearing aid.

(2) No benefits shall be payable for temporary total or temporary partial disability under this act for loss of hearing due to prolonged exposure to noise.

(3) An employee who because of occupational deafness is transferred by his employer to other employment and thereby sustains actual wage loss, shall be compensated at the rate provided in section 92-703.1, not exceeding three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) in the aggregate from all employers. "Time of injury," "incurred such injury," "date of injury" in such case shall be the date of wage loss.

(4) Subject to the limitations herein contained, there shall be payable for total occupational deafness of one ear, forty (40) weeks of compensation; for total occupational deafness of both ears, two hundred (200) weeks of compensation; and for partial occupational deafness, compensation shall bear such relation to that named herein as disabilities bear to the maximum disabilities herein provided.

In cases covered by this subsection, "time of injury," "incurred such injury" or "date of injury" shall be exclusively the date of occurrence of any of the following events to an employee:

(a) Transfer because of occupational deafness to nonnoisy employment by an employer whose employment has caused occupational deafness;

(b) Retirement;

(c) Termination of the employer-employee relationship;

(d) Layoff, provided the layoff is complete and continuous for one year;

(e) No claim under this subsection shall be filed, however, until six (6) consecutive months of removal from noisy employment after the time of injury except that under subparagraph (d), such six (6) consecutive months period may commence within the last six (6) months of layoff.

(5) The limitation provisions in this act shall control claims arising under this subsection. Such provisions shall run from the first date upon which claim may be filed, or from the date of subsequent death, provided that no claim shall accrue to any dependent unless an award has been issued or liability admitted.

(6) No payment shall be made to an employee under this section unless he shall have worked in noisy employment for a total period of at least ninety (90) days for the employer from whom he claims compensation.

(7) Any amount paid to an employee under this section by an employer shall be credited against compensation payable by any employer to such employee for occupational deafness under subsections (3) and (4). No employee shall in the aggregate receive greater compensation from any or all employers for occupational deafness than that provided in this section for total occupational deafness.

(8) Occupational deafness as herein provided is distinguished from traumatic loss of hearing which is governed by the specific loss schedule hereinabove.

(9) An employer shall become liable for the entire occupational deafness to which his employment has contributed; but if previous deafness is established by hearing test or other competent evidence, whether or not the employee was exposed to noise within the six (6) months preceding such test, he shall not be liable for previous loss so established nor shall he be liable for any loss for which compensation has previously been paid or awarded.

(10) No claim shall be filed, however, unless the employee is exposed eight (8) hours daily and for a period of at least ninety (90) days as above required to noise intensity levels above 90 decibels.

(11) This act shall become effective January 1, 1974.

Compiler's Notes

Section 1 of Ch. 366, Laws of 1971, enacted the section and assigned the section number in lieu of former section 92-710 R. C. M. 1947.

Title of Act

An act to provide compensation for loss of hearing resulting from exposure to industrial noise.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment reduced the hearing loss specified in the third sentence of subdivision (1) (b) from 26 to 25 decibels; reduced the hearing loss specified in the fourth sentence of subdivision (1) (b) and at the end of subdivision (1) (c) from 94 to 92 decibels; increased the hearing loss specified near the beginning of the second sentence of subdivision (1) (c) from 24 to 25 decibels; changed the statutory reference in subdivision (3) from 92-703 to 92-703.1; reduced the noise intensity level specified at the end of subdivision (10) from 100 to 90 decibels; changed the date specified in subdivision (11) from January 1, 1972 to January 1, 1974; and made changes in style.

92-715. (2926) Biweekly payments converted into a lump sum.

Discretion of Board

Board had discretion to order lump-sum payment of award for permanent and total disability in light of medical testimony that disability was partly psychosomatic and chance of rehabilitation would be improved by complete settlement. Legowik v. Montgomery Ward & Co., 157 M 436, 486 P 2d 867.

Industrial accident board did not abuse discretion by denying lump-sum settlement where claimant had no pressing need and his only concerns were to pay attorney's fees expended in pressing claim and to put the lump-sum payment "on interest." Kent v. Sievert, 158 M 79, 489 P 2d 104.

Failure to File

Where employee was injured while performing work assigned to him under contract between his employer and second company, failure of second company to file timely injury report with industrial accident board prevented it from invoking exclusive jurisdiction in board as "exclusive remedy" after employee filed civil suit in district court. State ex rel. Broesder v. Industrial Accident Board, 154 M 178, 461 P 2d 456.

92-810. (2936) Repealed.

Repeal

92-821. (2947) Jurisdiction of board to hear disputes and controversies.

Fraudulent Claim

Award of lump-sum settlement based on a petition forged by employer's claims manager did not determine injured employee's right to lump-sum settlement, and employee had no cause of action against the employer arising out of claims manager's subsequent forgery and conversion of the lump-sum check. Lewis v. Anaconda Co., — M —, 503 P 2d 535.

Degree of Permanent Physical Impairment Unknown

Where the board found that a compensable impairment existed, but the degree of permanent physical impairment was unknown, it was proper to award nominal disability indemnity under this section. Benoit v. Murphy Corp., 143 M 463, 391 P 2d 350.

92-826. (2952) Jurisdiction to rescind or amend any order, etc.

Compromise Settlement

Where employee sought, agreed to and accepted a full and final compromise settlement of his compensation claim, board was precluded under this section from reconsidering his claim. State ex rel. Montana Phosphate Products Co. v. Industrial Accident Board, 156 M 466, 481 P 2d 684.

92-827. (2953) Record of proceedings to be kept and testimony to be taken down—attorney's fees—transcripts on appeal—indigent claimants. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings and hearings had before the board, or any member thereof, of any formal hearing had, and all testimony produced before the board or any member thereof shall be taken down by a stenographic reporter appointed by the board, and the parties shall be entitled to be heard in person or by attorney.

Whenever the claimant or plaintiff is represented by an attorney either before the board or the courts, the industrial accident board may, in its discretion or upon the application of the claimant or plaintiff, fix the amount of the attorney fee of the attorney representing the claimant or plaintiff, and the fee fixed by the board shall be paid by claimant or plaintiff.

In cases of an action to review any order or decision of the board, a transcript of such testimony, together with all exhibits, and of the pleadings, records, and proceedings in the cause shall constitute the record of the board. Provided further, that the board must furnish a copy of such testimony, written exhibits, pleadings, records and proceedings to the claimant without cost.

After judgment on appeal to the district court, an indigent claimant, deeming himself aggrieved, may file in said court an affidavit that he does not have money, property or credit sufficient to pay for the cost of a transcript on appeal to the supreme court, and the clerk of court serve a copy by registered mail, return receipt requested, on the industrial accident board; the affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of the facts stated therein; in the event the board contest the allegations, the court shall fix a date for the hearing thereof, not less than five nor more than ten days from date of filing, and shall make its determination of the controversy, and if it be found and adjudged that the claimant does not have sufficient money, property or credit to pay for such transcript, the order shall direct the industrial accident board to furnish the same at its expense to be paid from the industrial accident administrative earmarked revenue account.

All proceedings on such appeal, including preparation, presentation and settlement of the bill of exceptions, shall be continued pending determination of the controversy.

If the board does not contest the allegations of the claimant's affidavit within ten days from receipt, it shall be deemed in default and the court shall make its order in favor of claimant on expiration of such period.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment added the fourth, fifth and sixth paragraphs.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 111, Laws 1965 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Attorney's Fees

Attorney who charged fees in excess of amount ordered by industrial accident board pursuant to this section was properly subject to discipline by public censure. In re Porter, 156 M 190, 478 P 2d 866.

92-829. (2955) Application for rehearing.

Court Required to Make Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

While there is no rule of law requiring the district court to adopt the proposed findings and conclusions of either litigant on appeal in a workmen's compensation case, and the court may request that the litigants submit such findings, or litigants may submit them without a request by the court, it is clear that the legislature intended that the court make findings of fact and conclusions of law in all cases on appeal. Stokes v. Delaney & Sons, Inc., 143 M 516, 391 P 2d 698.

92-832. (2958) Application for rehearing or appeal, etc.

Payment Pending Appeal

Payment of benefits by insurance carrier in accordance with order of industrial accident board did not render appeal from such order moot and subject to dismissal, since under this section order of board must be carried out by carrier unless it makes application for stay, in view of fact that receipt for payment stated that it was "subject to claimant's appellate rights." Bigar v. Tri-State Sand & Gravel, Inc., 157 M 456, 486 P 2d 881.

92-833. (2959) Appeal to district court.

Jurisdiction of District Court

District court had no jurisdiction to hear claimant's appeal from the decision of the industrial accident board when the court's seat was in neither the county of the employer's residence nor the county of the place of the accident. State ex rel. Glacier General Assurance Co. v. District Court, 143 M 569, 393 P 2d 54.

92-834. (2960) How appeal taken—notice—record—trial. Said appeal shall be taken by serving a written notice of said appeal upon the chairman of such industrial accident commission, or upon any other member thereof, which said service shall be made by the delivery of a copy of such notice to such chairman or member, and filing the original with the clerk of the court to which said appeal is taken. A copy of such notice must also be served upon the adversary party, if there be any, by mailing the same to said adversary party to such address of such party as said party shall have left with the board. If such party shall have left no address with the board, then no service upon such party shall be required. The order of filing and service of said notice is immaterial. Immediately upon service upon said board of said notice, the said board shall certify to said district court the entire record and proceedings, including all testimony and evidence taken by said board, with the clerk of said district court. Immediately upon the return of such certified record, the district court shall fix a day for the hearing of said cause, and shall cause notice to be served upon the board and upon the appellant, and also upon the adversary party, if there be any. The court may, upon the hearing, for good cause shown, permit additional evidence to be introduced, but, in the absence of such permission from the court, the cause shall be heard on the record of the board, as certified to the court by it. The trial of the matter shall be de novo, and upon such trial the court shall determine whether or not the board regularly pursued its authority, and whether or not the findings of the board ought to be sustained, and whether or not such findings are reasonable under all the circumstances of the case.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment made no apparent change.

Repealing Clause

Section 8 of Ch. 149, Laws 1965 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Date

Section 9 of Ch. 149, Laws 1965 read "This act shall be in full force and effect from and after the 1st day of July, 1965."

Additional Evidence

Where a final decision to stop payments under workmen's compensation had been made by the industrial accident board, testimony of claimant's personal physician as to his examination of her more than six years earlier was relevant and should have been reconsidered by the board, "good cause" thus having been shown. Johnson v. Industrial Accident Board, 157 M 221, 483 P 2d 918.

Court Required to Make Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

While there is no rule of law requiring the district court to adopt the proposed findings and conclusions of either litigant on appeal in a workmen's compensation case, and the court may request that the litigants submit such findings, or litigants may submit them without a request by the court, it is clear that the legislature intended that the court make findings of fact and conclusions of law in all cases on appeal. CHAPTER 9—COMPENSATION PLAN NO. 1

Section 92-901. When and how employer may elect to adopt—direct payment to employee.
92-902. Proof of solvency of employer electing plan No. 1 to be filed—payroll assessments.

92-901. (2970) When and how employer may elect to adopt—direct payment to employee.

COMPENSATION PLAN NUMBER ONE

An employer may elect to be bound by compensation plan No. 1, upon furnishing satisfactory proof to the division of his solvency and financial ability to pay the compensation and benefits in this act provided for, and to discharge all liabilities which are reasonably likely to be incurred by him during the fiscal year for which such election is effective, may, by order of the division, make such payments directly to his employees as they may become entitled to receive the same under the terms and conditions of this act.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2970, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 443, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "in the industries, trades, works, occupations, or employments in this act specified as hazardous," following "employer" at the beginning of the section; substituted "division" for "board" in two places; and made minor changes in phraseology.

92-902. (2971) Proof of solvency of employer electing plan No. 1 to be filed—payroll assessments. Every employer who has elected to be bound by compensation plan No. 1, shall file proof of his solvency within the time and in the form as may be prescribed by the rules or orders of the division.

The division may levy an assessment in an amount not to exceed three-hundredths of one per cent (.03%) of the annual payroll of such employer in Montana, for the preceding fiscal year, which assessment shall be paid to the division by the employer at the time of filing of proof of solvency.

No assessment shall be in an amount less than two hundred dollars ($200).

If the employer had no payroll in Montana for the entire preceding fiscal year, the assessment shall be based on the estimated payroll for the year in which election is made.

The division shall pay the amounts so collected into the state treasury.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment increased the minimum assessment specified in the third paragraph from $10 to $75.

The 1969 amendment increased the minimum assessment specified in the third paragraph from $75 to $200.

The 1971 amendment substituted "may" for "shall" before "levy an assessment" in the second paragraph; increased the maximum assessment rates specified in the second paragraph from two hundredths to three hundredths of one per cent; and made minor changes in phraseology.

The 1973 amendment deleted "now or hereafter engaged in the state of Montana, in the industries, trades, works, occupations, or employments herein mentioned" after "employer" near the beginning of the section; substituted "division" for "board" in three places and for "treasurer of the board" in the final paragraph; and made minor changes in phraseology.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 183, Laws 1965 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

CHAPTER 10—COMPENSATION PLAN NO. 2

Section 92-1004. Agreement to be contained in policies of insurance—deposit of bonds.
92-1005. Policies made subject to this act—assessment of insurers.

92-1002. (2979) Duty of employer electing plan No. 2, etc.

References

Meyer v. Noble Drilling, Inc., 259 F Supp 110, 115.

92-1004. (2981) Agreement to be contained in policies of insurance—deposit of bonds. No such policy shall be issued unless it contains the agreement of the insurer that it will promptly pay to the person entitled to compensation all the installments of compensation or other payments in this act provided for, and that the obligation shall not be affected by any default of the insured after the injury, or by any default in the giving of any notice required by such policy or by this act or otherwise. Such agreement shall be construed to be a direct promise by the insured to the person entitled to compensation. Before issuance of any policy by an insurer as herein authorized, such insurer must deposit with the treasurer of the industrial accident board, bonds of the United States or the state of Montana, or of any school district, county, city or town in the state of Montana, or a corporate surety bond made out to and approved by the board, in an amount not less than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) or more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), as the industrial accident board may determine. If any insurer shall fail to discharge any liability after the amount thereof shall be determined by the board, and within the time limited by the board, it shall be the duty of the board to convert said bonds, or such part thereof as is necessary, into cash, and from the proceeds liquidate such liability; and thereafter said insurer must make an additional deposit to meet any deficiency caused thereby. It is intended hereby to give the industrial accident board the discretion in the matter of whether an insurer has failed to discharge any liability.

92-1005. (2982) Policies made subject to this act—assessment of insurers. Every policy for the insurance of the compensation herein provided for, or against liability therefor, shall be deemed to be made subject to the provisions of this act. No insurer shall enter into any such policy of insurance unless its forms shall have been approved by the board, and as otherwise provided by law.

On or before the first day of July of each year, the board shall assess and each insurer shall pay to the board not to exceed three and one-fourths per cent (3¼%) of its gross annual direct premiums collected in Montana on policies of insurance insuring employers who elected to become bound by the compensation plan No. 2 during the previous calendar year, less return premiums. No such assessment shall be less than two hundred dollars ($200). The treasurer of the board shall pay the amounts so collected into the state treasury. Payments by such insurers under this section shall be considered as items of loss for rate-making purposes.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment increased the minimum assessment specified in the second sentence of the second paragraph from $10 to $200.

92-1105. Intent and purpose of plan No. 3.
92-1105.1. Advanced rate for dangerous places of employment.
92-1108. In case of default, rates to be advanced twenty-five per cent (25%).
92-1121. What included in computing compensation in employment.

92-1101. (2990) What necessary in electing plan No. 3—percentage of payroll to be paid under plan.

COMPENSATION PLAN NUMBER THREE

Every employer subject to the provisions of compensation plan No. 3 shall at the times and in the manner prescribed by the industrial accident board, pay to the industrial accident board a premium based on a percentage of his payroll as determined by the industrial accident board which shall be a member of a rating organization in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Compiler's Notes

This section was amended twice in 1969, once by Ch. 233 and once by Ch. 329. Neither amendatory act mentioned nor included the changes made by the other. Since the two amendments do not appear to conflict, the compiler has made a composite section incorporating both amendments.

Amendments

Chapter 233, Laws of 1969, substituted "at the times and in the manner prescribed by the industrial accident board" for "in the manner herein specified."

Chapter 329, Laws of 1969, inserted "which shall be a member of a rating organization."

92-1102. (2990.1) Permitting employers to elect to comply and come under the provisions of this act. An employer shall comply with the provisions of this act, in which event he will not be liable to respond in damages at common law or by statute for injury or death of an employee and shall enjoy the benefits and privileges of this act. The employee of the employer is considered to come under the provisions of this act unless the employee executes and files with the division on proper forms to be furnished for that purpose, a specific election not to be so bound, in which event he shall not enjoy the benefits or privileges of this act until the election is withdrawn.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "engaged in farming, dairying, agriculture, viticulture, horticulture, stock or poultry raising," following "employer" at the beginning of the first sentence; substituted "shall comply with the provisions of this act" in the first sentence for "may elect to comply with the provisions of plan 2 or 3 of this act and pay the premiums provided in the act"; deleted "during the period covered by such premiums" following "death of an employee" near the end of the first sentence; substituted "division" for "board" in the second sentence; deleted the last sentence of the former section; and made minor changes in style and phraseology.

92-1103. (2991) Manner of electing—contract or policy of insurance—payment of premium. The industrial accident board shall prescribe the procedure by which employers may elect to be bound by compensation plan No. 3, the effective time of such election and the manner in which such election is terminated for reasons other than default in payment of premiums. Every employer electing to be bound by compensation plan No. 3 shall receive from the industrial accident board a contract or policy of insurance in a form approved by the board. The premium thereon shall be paid by the employer, to the industrial accident board at such times as the board shall prescribe and shall be paid over by the board to the state treasurer to the credit of the industrial insurance account in the agency fund.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment inserted the present first sentence.

Repealing Clause

Section 3 of Ch. 233, Laws 1969 read "Sections 92-1106 and 92-1107, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

92-1104. (2992) Classifications by board. The industrial accident board is hereby given full power and authority to determine premium rates and classifications as in its judgment and experience, and as a member of a rating organization as is otherwise provided for in this code, may be necessary or expedient, provided that no change in the classification or rates prescribed shall be effective until thirty (30) days after the date of the order making such change.

History: En. Sec. 40, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2992, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 123, L. 1957; amd. Sec. 21, Ch. 329, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment inserted "and as a member of a rating organization as is otherwise provided for in this code."

Cross-References

92-1105. (2993) Intent and purpose of plan No. 3. It is the intent and purpose of compensation plan No. 3 that each industry, trade, occupation or employment coming under the provisions of said plan shall be liable to pay for injuries happening to employees coming under the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act.

All premiums, penalties, recoveries by subrogation, interest earned upon money belonging to the fund, and securities acquired by or through use of money shall be deposited in the industrial insurance account in the agency fund.

The industrial insurance program shall be neither more nor less than self-supporting. Employments affected by the provisions hereof shall be divided by the board as a member of a rating organization into classes, whose rates may be readjusted at such times as the board as a member of such rating organization may determine. Separate accounts shall be kept of the amounts collected and expended in each class for determining rates but for payment of compensation and dividends the industrial insurance account shall be one and indivisable. The board as a member of such rating organization shall determine the hazards of the different classes of occupations or industries and fix the premiums therefor at the lowest rate consistent with maintenance of a solvent industrial insurance fund, and the creation of surplus and reserves and for such purpose may adopt a system of schedule rating in such a manner as to take account of the peculiar hazard of each risk, and shall take advantage of the experience and information afforded to it as a member of such rating organization.

The board in fixing rates shall provide for the expenses of administering the industrial insurance account allowed by law, the disbursements on account of injuries and deaths of employees in each class, an adequate catastrophe reserve, reserves adequate to meet anticipated and unexpected losses, and such other reserves and surplus as may be determined by the board as a member of such rating organization.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment, in the second sentence of the third paragraph, inserted "as a member of a rating organization" after "board"; inserted "as a member of such rating organization" after "board" in the second and fourth sentences, and added "and shall take advantage * * * rating organization" to the fourth sentence; and, in the fourth paragraph, added "as a member of such rating organization."

Separability Clause

Section 23 of Ch. 329, Laws 1969 read

"The provisions of this act shall be severable; and if any of its sections, provisions, exceptions, sentences, clauses, phrases or parts be held unconstitutional or void, the remainder of this act shall continue in full force and effect."

92-1105.1. Advanced rate for dangerous places of employment. If by reason of poor or careless management, or otherwise, any place of employment be unduly dangerous in comparison with other like places of employment, and the employer operating the same shall not have complied with the safety provisions of the Montana Safety Act, and such employer shall be under compensation plan number 3, the board, in addition to any other penalty provided, shall advance the rate upon such place of employment fifty (50) per cent, and such advanced rate shall continue and be in force until such place of employment shall have ceased to be unduly dangerous in comparison with other like places of employment and such employer shall have obtained a certificate of the board.

92-1106, 92-1107. (2994, 2995) Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 92-1106 and 92-1107 (Sec. 40, Ch. 96, L. 1915; Sec. 179, Ch. 147, L. 1963), relating to payments under compensation plan No. 3, were repealed by Sec. 3, Ch. 233, Laws 1969.

92-1108. (2996) In case of default, rates to be advanced twenty-five per cent (25%). Any employer who is in default in the observance of any order of the board, issued pursuant to the provisions of sections 92-1101 to 92-1105, inclusive, shall, in addition to any other penalty provided by this act, be charged an advance of twenty-five per centum (25%) over the established rate, and such advanced rate shall continue and be in force until such employer shall have ceased to be in such default.

History: En. Sec. 40, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 2996, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 233, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment substituted section "92-1105" for "92-1107."

92-1112. (3000) Investment of reserve—payment of installments.

Cross-References

92-1121. (3009) What included in computing compensation in employment. In computing the payroll, the entire compensation received by every workman employed under this act, shall be included, whether it be in the form of salary, wage, piecework, or otherwise, and whether payable in money, board or otherwise.

History: En. Sec. 40, Ch. 96, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 3009, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 235, L. 1947; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 146, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 443, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted a second sentence reading "Salary and wages paid during actual vacation period shall not be computed or assessed."

The 1973 amendment substituted "under this act" for "in the hazardous occupations enumerated in this act."

Repealing Clause

Section 6 of Ch. 443, Laws 1973 read "Sections 92-301 through 92-306 and 92-402 through 92-407, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

CHAPTER 12—SAFETY PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 13—OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE ACT

Section 92-1303. Definitions.
92-1304. Occupational disease.
92-1305. Proximate causation.
92-1310. Liability of last employer, exception.
92-1311. Payment of compensation—exceptions and limitations.
92-1312. Claims must be presented within what time.
92-1313. Notice of disability or death.
92-1315. Procedure for medical examination.
92-1315.1. Medical definition of totally disabling pneumoconiosis.
92-1321. Compensation benefits payable under this act.

92-1303. Definitions. Except as in this section and elsewhere in this act expressly set forth, the definitions contained in the Workmen's Compensation Act shall apply to terms and words herein contained.

1. to 4. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

5. "Disablement" means the event of becoming physically incapacitated by reason of an occupational disease as defined in this act from performing any work for remuneration or profit. "Silicosis," as defined in this act, when complicated by active pulmonary tuberculosis, shall be presumed to be total disablement. "Disability," "disabled," "total disability," or "totally disabled" shall be synonymous with "disablement," but they shall have no reference to "partial permanent disability." Provided that in the event of death or disability due to pneumoconiosis the following shall apply:

a. If a miner who is suffering or has suffered from pneumoconiosis was employed for ten (10) years or more in one (1) or more coal mines there shall be a rebuttable presumption that his pneumoconiosis arose out of such employment.

b. If a deceased miner was employed for ten (10) years or more in one (1) or more coal mines and died from a respirable disease there shall be a rebuttable presumption that his death was due to pneumoconiosis.

c. If a miner is suffering or suffered from a chronic dust disease of the lung which (1) when diagnosed by chest roentgenogram yields one (1) or more large opacities (greater than one centimeter in diameter) and would be classified in category A, B, or C in the international classification of radiographs of the pneumoconioses by the international labor organization, (2) when diagnosed by biopsy or autopsy, yields massive lesions in the lung, or (3) when diagnosis is made by other means, would be a condition which would reasonably be expected to yield results described in clause (1) or (2) if diagnosis had been made in the manner prescribed in clause (1) or (2) then there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that he is totally disabled due to pneumoconiosis or that his death was due to pneumoconiosis, as the case may be.

6. to 25. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

26. For the purpose of this act "silicosis" is defined as a chronic disease of the lungs caused by the prolonged inhalation of silicon dioxide (SiO_2) characterized by small discrete nodules of fibrous tissue similarly disseminated throughout both lungs, causing characteristic X-ray pattern, and by variable clinical manifestations.

a. For the purpose of this act "pneumoconiosis" is defined as a chronic dust disease of the lung arising out of employment in coal mines, and includes anthracosis, coal workers' pneumoconiosis, silicosis, or anthracosilicosis arising out of such employment.

27. and 28. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 155, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 190, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted the proviso relating to pneumoconiosis, including paragraphs a through c, in subdivision 5; and inserted paragraph a defining pneumoconiosis in subdivision 26.

92-1304. Occupational disease. The term "occupational disease" shall mean all diseases arising out of or contracted from and in the course of employment.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment added "asbestosis" to item 1.

The 1971 amendment completely rewrote this section. For prior text, see parent volume.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 95, Laws 1965 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Hydrocarbon Inhalation

Evidence was insufficient to sustain automobile mechanic's allegation that his exposure to concentration of diesel smoke resulted in his contracting emphysema or aggravating a pre-existing emphysema condition because of hydrocarbon inhalation. Aho v. Burkland Studs, Inc., 153 M 1, 452 P 2d 415.

92-1305. Proximate causation. Occupational diseases shall be deemed to arise out of the employment only if:

1. to 5. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 155, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 40, L. 1971.

The 1971 amendment deleted from the introductory clause a reference to the preceding section.

92-1310. Liability of last employer, exception. Where compensation is payable for an occupational disease the only employer liable shall be the employer in whose employment the employee was last injuriously exposed to the hazard of such disease, but in the case of silicosis the only employer liable shall be the employer in whose employment the employee was last exposed to harmful quantities of silicon dioxide (SiO_2) dust for a period of ninety (90) actual workshifts or more after July 1, 1958. Provided that in the case of pneumoconiosis any coal mine operator who has acquired a mine in the state or substantially all of the assets thereof, from a person who was an operator of such mine on or after December 30, 1969, is liable for, and must secure the payment of, all benefits which would have been payable by that person with respect to miners previously employed in such mine if acquisition had not occurred and that person had continued to operate such mine; and the prior operator of such mine shall not be relieved of any liability under this section.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 155, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 190, L. 1971.

The 1971 amendment added the proviso relating to pneumoconiosis.

92-1311. Payment of compensation—exceptions and limitations. A. Compensation shall be paid to every employee who becomes disabled by reason of occupational disease arising out of his employment, subject to the following conditions; and when claims are presented and notices given in accordance with the limitations of sections 92-1312 and 92-1313.

1. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

2. No compensation shall be paid for a disease other than silicosis or due to ionizing radiation unless total disability results within one hundred twenty (120) days from the last day upon which the employee actually worked for the employer against whom compensation is claimed; provided that the board upon good cause shown may waive this limitation in the interest of justice, but in any case said period may not be extended to more than one year from the date of last employment by the said employer.

3 to 5. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

B. The compensation shall be paid to the beneficiary and dependents of every employee covered by this act in cases where death results from an occupational disease arising out of his employment subject to the following conditions.

1 to 3. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

4. No compensation shall be paid for death from any occupational disease other than silicosis or due to ionizing radiation unless death results within one (1) year from the last day upon which the employee actually worked for the employer against whom compensation is claimed, except in those cases where death results during a period of continuous total disability from an occupational disease other than silicosis or ionizing radiation for which compensation has been paid or awarded, or for which a claim, compensable but for such death, is on file with the board. In such cases compensation shall be paid if death results within three (3) years from the last day upon which the employee actually worked for the employer against whom compensation is claimed.

5. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

C. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 155, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 92, L. 1965.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment inserted "or due to ionizing radiation" following "silicosis" in paragraphs A 2 and B 4.

92-1312. Claims must be presented within what time. The provisions of section 92-601 shall not apply to claims filed under this act.

It is hereby provided in the case of disability resulting from occupational diseases as herein defined, including silicosis, that all claims therefor shall be forever barred unless the same shall be presented in writing under oath to the employer, the insurer or the board as the case may be within thirty (30) days after claimant has filed his notice of disability as provided in section 92-1313. In the case of death from an occupational disease, as herein defined, including silicosis, all claims therefor shall be forever barred unless the same shall be presented in writing under oath to the employer, the insurer, or the board, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days of filing the notice of death as provided in section 92-1313. For the purpose of this act a claim for benefits on account of total disability or death of a miner due to pneumoconiosis is deemed to be timely filed if it is filed within three (3) years of the discovery of the total disability or the date of death.

Claims shall be filed in triplicate on forms to be furnished by the board and may be accompanied by a medical report of the claimant's attending physician. The provisions of this section as to the time for presenting claims for compensation shall prevail over any other provisions of this act to the contrary.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 155, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 190, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added the last sentence, relating to pneumoconiosis claims, to the first paragraph.

92-1313. Notice of disability or death. The provisions of section 92-807 shall not apply to cases of disability or death from occupational diseases as in this act defined.

Notice of disability or death in respect to which compensation is payable under this act, except disability or death resulting from silicosis, shall be given to the employer, the insurer, or the board, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days after the employee, his beneficiaries, or his dependents knew or should have known the nature of the impairment or cause of death and its relationship to the employment, but in no event, except in the case of disability or death due to ionizing radiation, shall notice be filed more than one year after the last day upon which the employee actually worked for the employer against whom compensation is claimed.

In cases of disability resulting from silicosis which are compensable under this act, notice of such disability shall be given to the employer, the insurer, or the board, as the case may be, within thirty (30) days after the employee knew or should have known of the nature of the impairment and its relationship to employment, but in no event shall such notice be filed more than four (4) years after the last date upon which the employee actually worked for the employer against whom compensation is claimed.

In cases of a death from silicosis which is compensable under this act, notice of such death shall be given to the employer, the insurer, or the board, within thirty (30) days after the employee's beneficiaries or his dependents knew or should have known of the cause of death and its relationship to the employment, but in no event shall such notice be filed more than one (1) year after such death.

Such notice shall be valid only if filed in writing on forms to be furnished by the board, and shall contain the name and address of the employee and a statement of the time, place, nature, and cause of the disability or death, and shall be signed by the employee or by some other person on his behalf; or in case of death by any person claiming to be entitled to compensation for such death or by some person on his behalf.

Except if death occurs during the period of total disability described in section 92-1311, B.3., in which case the period of notice may be extended to the term of seven (7) years from the last day of said employment.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment inserted "except in the case of disability or death due to ionizing radiation" in the second paragraph.

92-1315. Procedure for medical examination. A. In order to determine the validity of claims made pursuant to the provisions of this act, the following procedure and no other shall be followed in the course of the medical examination of the claimant for official report to said board, claimant, employer, or insurer, as the case may be.

1. Upon the filing of a claim by a claimant for occupational disease disability, other than silicosis or pneumoconiosis, the board shall direct a member from said "medical committee" to examine and determine the disability of the claimant and submit a written report thereon to the board.

Upon the filing of a claim for compensation for silicosis disability under this act, the board shall direct an examination of and report to the board upon the claimant by said "pulmonary specialists," or one of them, including such X-ray and other pathological examination and tests as in the opinion of such specialist or specialists may be necessary for the purpose of determining diagnosis, disablement, and the nature and type of medical treatment, hospitalization and other care required. If the claim is not controverted as to any medical fact, the examination and report of one of said specialists, shall be deemed the examination and report of all "pulmonary specialists." If the claim is controverted as to any medical fact, the report shall be made by all of said specialists after a physical examination by at least two (2) of them. The findings and opinions of a majority of the number of said specialists then appointed shall constitute the findings and opinions of all of them. The contents of the report of said "pulmonary specialists" when placed in the record shall constitute prima facie evidence of fact as to the matter therein contained. The "pulmonary specialists" or any one (1) of them making the report shall be subject to examination upon demand of any interested parties.

The "pulmonary specialists," or any one (1) of them in order to assist in reaching a conclusion may require the attending physician or director of a hospital or a sanitarium or other place in which treatment or care is being given, or has been given, to attend at a convenient time and place to consult with said specialists, or any one of them and to describe the nature and type of care and treatment and furnish any other evidence which said specialist or specialists desire.

Upon receiving the written report of such examining physician or physicians so appointed, the board shall forthwith determine whether or not the claimant shall receive the benefits pursuant to this act and it shall forward notice of its determination together with a true and correct copy of said medical report to the claimant and the employer or insurer as the case may be.

2. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

B. The standards for determining death or total disability due to pneumoconiosis are as follows:

1. Total disability defined. A miner is under a total disability due to pneumoconiosis if: (a) He is suffering or suffered from a chronic dust disease of the lung which: (1) when diagnosed by chest roentgenogram, yields one or more large opacities (greater than one centimeter in diameter) and would be classified in category A, B, or C in the international classification of radiographs of the pneumoconioses by the international labor organization; or (2) when diagnosed by biopsy or autopsy, yields massive lesions in the lung, that is, shows the existence of progressive massive fibrosis; or (3) when established by diagnosis by means other than those specified in subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this paragraph, would be a condition which could reasonably be expected to yield the results described in subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph had diagnosis been made as therein prescribed. Provided, however, that any diagnosis made under this clause shall be in accordance with generally accepted medical procedures for diagnosing pneumoconiosis.

(b) (1) He is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of pneumoconiosis which can be expected to result in death or which has lasted or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months; or (2) where the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section are met, the finding that a miner is under a total disability is established by irrebuttable presumption.

2. Evaluating total disability. (a) Total disability may not be found for purposes of this part unless pneumoconiosis is the impairment involved. Whether or not pneumoconiosis in a particular case constitutes a disability as defined in 1. (b) is determined from all the facts of that case. Primary consideration is given to the severity of the individual's pneumoconiosis. Medical considerations alone can, except where other evidence rebuts a finding of "disability," e.g., the individual is actually engaging in substantial gainful activity, justify a finding that the individual is under a disability where his impairment is one that meets the duration requirement in 1. (b), and is listed in the appendix to this subpart.

(b) Pneumoconiosis may be found disabling if it does prevent the individual from engaging in any substantial gainful activity. Such an individual, however, shall be determined to be under a disability only if his pneumoconiosis is the primary reason for his inability to engage in substantial gainful activity. In any such case it must be established that the individual has a respiratory impairment because of pneumoconiosis, demonstrated on the basis of an MVV and FEV_1 which are equal to or less than the values specified in the following table or by a medically equivalent test.

Height (Inches)	MVV(MBC) equal to or less than	and FEV_1 equal to or less than
57 or less	52	1.4
58	53	1.4
59	54	1.4
60	55	1.5
61	56	1.5
62	57	1.5
63	58	1.5
64	59	1.6
65	60	1.6
66	61	1.6
67	62	1.7
68	63	1.7
69	64	1.8
70	65	1.8
71	66	1.8
73 or more	68	1.9

3. Evidence of pneumoconiosis. (a) A finding of the existence of pneumoconiosis may not be made in the absence of:

(1) A chest roentgenogram showing the existence of pneumoconiosis classified as category 1, 2, 3, A, B, or C, according to the international labor organization (1958), international labor organization (1968), or union internationale contra cancer/Cincinnati (1968) classifications of the pneumoconioses (if the chest roentgenogram is classified as category Z, it should be reclassified as category O or category 1 and only the latter accepted as evidence of pneumoconiosis); or

(2) An autopsy showing the existence of pneumoconiosis; or

(3) A biopsy (other than a needle biopsy) showing the existence of pneumoconiosis. Such biopsy would not be expected to be performed for the sole purpose of diagnosing pneumoconiosis. Where a biopsy is performed for other purposes, however, (e.g., in connection with a lung resection), the report thereof will be considered in determining the existence of pneumoconiosis.

(b) The roentgenogram, to conform to accepted medical standards, should represent a posterior-anterior view of the chest, taken at a distance of six (6) feet between the X-ray tube and the X-ray film on a 14 by 17 inch X-ray film.

(c) A report of autopsy or biopsy shall include a detailed gross (macroscopic) and microscopic description of the lungs or visualized portions of the lungs. If an operative procedure has been performed to obtain a portion of a lung, the evidence should include a copy of the operative note and the pathology report of the gross and microscopic examination of the surgical specimen. If an autopsy has been performed, the evidence should include a complete copy of the autopsy report.

4. Determining medical equivalence. (a) An individual's impairment shall be determined to be medically the equivalent of an impairment listed in the appendix to this subpart only if the medical findings with respect thereto are at least equivalent in severity and duration to the listed findings of the listed impairment.

(b) Any decision made under 2. (a) and 6. (a) as to whether an individual's impairment is medically the equivalent of an impairment listed in the appendix to this subpart, shall be based on medical evidence demonstrated by medically acceptable clinical and laboratory diagnostic techniques, including a medical judgment furnished by one or more physicians designated by the board, relative to the question of medical equivalence.

(c) Any decision as to whether a medical test is medically equivalent to the test described in 2. (b) shall be based on appropriate medical evidence, including a judgment furnished by one or more physicians designated by the board, relative to the question of the medical equivalence of such test.

5. Evidence of origin of pneumoconiosis. (a) If a miner was employed for ten (10) years or more in coal mines and is suffering or has suffered from pneumoconiosis, it will be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the pneumoconiosis arose out of such employment.

(b) In any other case, a miner suffering or who has suffered from pneumoconiosis must submit the evidence necessary to establish that the pneumoconiosis arose out of employment in the coal mines.

6. Death due to pneumoconiosis. (a) A miner's death will be determined to have been due to pneumoconiosis if the miner suffered from a chronic dust disease of the lung which meets the requirements of 1. (a); or

(b) If a deceased miner was employed for ten (10) years or more in coal mines and died from a respirable disease, it will be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that his death was due to pneumoconiosis. Death will be found due to a respirable disease when death is ascribed to a chronic dust disease, or to another chronic disease of the lung. Death will not be found due to a respirable disease in those cases in which the disease reported does not suggest a reasonable possibility that death was, in fact, due to pneumoconiosis (e.g., cancer of the lung, disease due to trauma, pulmonary emboli); or

(c) Under circumstances other than those in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, the claimant must submit the evidence necessary to establish that the miner's death was due to pneumoconiosis and that the pneumoconiosis arose out of employment in coal mines.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "or pneumoconiosis" after "other than silicosis" in the first paragraph of subdivision A 1; and added the present subsection B.

92-1315.1. Medical definition of totally disabling pneumoconiosis. A miner with pneumoconiosis, as evidenced in 3. of this part, plus one of the following sets of medical specifications, may be found to be under a total disability, in the absence of evidence rebutting such finding:

(1) Airway obstruction demonstrated on spirogram by MVV and FEV_1 equal to or less than the values specified in the following table:

(3) Diffusing capacity of the lungs for carbon monoxide less than 6 ml./mm. Hg./min. (steady-state methods) or less than 9 ml./mm. Hg./min. (single-breath methods) or less than thirty per cent (30%) of predicted normal (all methods—actual value and predicted normal for the method used should be reported); or

(4) Arterial oxygen saturation at rest and simultaneously determined arterial p CO_2 equal to, or less than, the values specified in the following table:

Arterial p CO_2	and	Arterial O_2 saturation equal to or less than (%)
30 mm.Hg. or below		93

39 mm.Hg.		88
40 mm.Hg. or above		87

(5) Cor pulmonale with right-sided congestive failure as evidenced by peripheral edema and liver enlargement, with:

(A) Right ventricular enlargement or outflow tract prominence on X-ray or fluoroscopy; or

(B) ECG showing QRS duration less than 0.12 second and R of 5 mm. or more in V_1 and R/S of 1.0 or more in V_1 and transition zone (decreasing R/S) left of V_1; or

(6) Congestive heart failure with signs of vascular congestion such as hepatomegaly or peripheral or pulmonary edema, with:

(A) Cardio-thoracic ratio of fifty-five per cent (55%) or greater, or equivalent enlargement of the transverse diameter of the heart, as shown on teleroentgenogram (6-foot film); or

(B) Extension of the cardiac shadow (left ventricle) to the vertebral column on lateral chest roentgenogram and total of S in V_1 or V_2 and R in V_5 or V_6 of 35 mm. or more on ECG.

Title of Act

An act to provide revisions to "The Occupational Disease Act of Montana" in compliance with the mandate of the Congress of the United States as required by the provisions of Public Law 91-173 of the Ninety-first Congress; and providing for the payment of benefits for total disability or death to a coal miner due to defined pneumoconiosis substantially to, or greater than, the amount of benefits prescribed by said public law and to prescribe standards and definitions for determining death or total disability due to pneumoconiosis, which are substantially equivalent to those established by said public law and regulations by the secretary of health, education and welfare; and providing for the submission of any claim for benefits within three years of discovery of total disability or death from said disease; and providing for the liability of prior and successor operators for all benefits for miners at such mine on or after December 30, 1969; amending section 92-1303, R. C. M., 1947, relating to definitions of disablement and pneumoconiosis; amending section 92-1310, R. C. M., 1947, relating to liability of last employer; amending section 92-1312, R. C. M., 1947, relating to time in which a claim may be presented; amending section 92-1315, R. C. M., 1947, relating to procedure for medical examination; amending section 92-1321, R. C. M., 1947, relating to compensation benefits payable under said act; and providing an appendix setting forth appropriate charts for determination of disability and providing standards for interpretation thereof; and providing an effective date.

92-1321. Compensation benefits payable under this act. The compensation to which an employee temporarily totally disabled or permanently totally disabled by an occupational disease, or his beneficiaries and dependents in the case of death caused by an occupational disease, shall be entitled to under this act shall be the same payments which are payable to an injured employee, and such payments shall be made for the same period of time, as is provided in cases of temporary total disability, permanent total disability and in cases of injuries causing death under the Workmen's Compensation Act of the state of Montana. Benefit payments for total disability or death due to pneumoconiosis shall, for the purpose of this act, be made as follows:

a. In the case of total disability of a miner due to pneumoconiosis the disabled miner shall be paid benefits during the disability at the rate of one hundred fifty-five dollars ($155) per month.

b. In the case of death of a miner due to pneumoconiosis or of a miner receiving benefits under this part, benefits shall be paid to his widow (if any) at the rate the deceased miner would receive such benefits if he were totally disabled.

c. In the case of an individual entitled to benefit payments under clause a. or b. who has one or more dependents, the benefit payments shall be increased at the rate of fifty per centum (50%) of such benefit payments, if such individual has one (1) dependent, seventy-five per centum (75%) if such individual has two (2) dependents, and one hundred per centum (100%) if such individual has three (3) or more dependents.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 155, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 190, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added the last sentence, including the lettered subdivisions relating to pneumoconiosis, at the end of the section.

Repealing Clause

Section 7 of Ch. 190, Laws 1971 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Separability Clause

Section 8 of Ch. 190, Laws 1971 read "If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications."

Effective Date

Section 9 of Ch. 190, Laws 1971 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 3, 1971.

92-1334. Compensation plans.

Cross-References

Investment functions of board transferred, sec. 82A-205(3).

CHAPTER 14—REHABILITATION OF INJURED WORKMEN

Section 92-1403. Expenses payable to workman receiving training.

92-1403. Expenses payable to workman receiving training. The eligibility of any injured workman to receive other benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Act of the state of Montana shall in no way be affected by his entrance upon a course of vocational rehabilitation as herein provided, but he may be paid, in addition thereto, upon the certification of the vocational rehabilitation division from funds herein provided, (1) his actual and necessary travel expenses from his place of residence to the place of training, and return, (2) his living expenses while in training in an amount not in excess of fifty dollars ($50) per week, his expenses for tuition, books and necessary equipment in training.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 21, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 363, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment, substituted "may" for "shall" before "be paid"; deleted "away from home" after "while in training"; and increased the weekly living expense allowance from $30 to $50.

CHAPTER 1—COURTS OF JUSTICE, OF RECORD AND OF IMPEACHMENT

Section 93-104. Jurisdiction.

93-104. (8787) Jurisdiction. The court has jurisdiction to try impeachments, when presented by the house of representatives, of the governor, executive officers, heads of state departments and judicial officers for felonies and misdemeanors or malfeasance in office.

History: En. Sec. 7, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6241, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8787, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 5, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 37.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "executive officers, heads of state departments" for a reference to other state officers; deleted "except justices of the peace" following "judicial officers"; and substituted "felonies" for "high crimes."

CHAPTER 2—SUPREME COURT

Section 93-201. Justices—number increased to five—election and term of office.

93-201. (8790) Justices—number increased to five—election and term of office. The supreme court consists of a chief justice and four associate justices, who are elected by the qualified electors of the state at large at the general state elections next preceding the expiration of the terms of office of their predecessors, respectively, and hold their offices for the term of eight (8) years from and after the first Monday of January next succeeding their election.

History: En. Sec. 12, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6244, Rev. C. 1907; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 31, Ex. L. 1919; re-en. Sec. 8790, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 13, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 40.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment increased the term of office from six to eight years; and made minor changes in phraseology.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 13, Laws 1973 read "Sections 93-202, 93-203, 93-204, 93-205, 93-206, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

93-202 to 93-206. (8791 to 8795) Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 93-202 to 93-206 (Secs. 2 to 6, Ch. 31, Ex. L. 1931), relating to appointments of additional justices to increase the supreme court from three to five justices, were repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 13, Laws 1973.

93-209. (8798) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 93-209 (Sec. 14, C. Civ. Proc. 1895), relating to filling of vacancies in office of supreme court justice, was repealed by Sec. 14, Ch. 470, Laws 1973. For new law, see secs. 93-705 to 93-717.

93-214. (8803) Original jurisdiction.

Declaratory Judgment

Determination of legal rights concerning election of delegates and implementation of state constitutional convention was properly decided in declaratory judgment action by supreme court under its original jurisdiction in aid of its appellate jurisdiction. Forty-Second Legislative Assembly v. Lennon, 156 M 416, 481 P 2d 330.

93-216. (8805) Powers and duties of supreme court on appeals.

Equity Case

In an equity case it is proper for the appellate court to pry into the factual issues of the case and the decision must hinge on factual observations unless the case is returned to the lower court for further proceedings. Jenson v. Olson, 144 M 224, 395 P 2d 465, 468.

The supreme court in reviewing an equity case will review the law therein and also will review the evidence to that extent necessary to ascertain whether the findings of fact by the trial court are substantially supported and sufficient to support the conclusions of law derived therefrom. Bender v. Bender, 144 M 470, 397 P 2d 957.

Supreme court in equity case not only has function of reviewing law involved but also reviews evidence to extent of determining whether findings of fact by trial court are supported by substantial evidence. White v. Nollmeyer, 151 M 387, 443 P 2d 873.

Nuisance Cases

Supreme court will not hesitate to set aside lower court finding that nuisance exists where there is no substantial evidence on which to base finding. Kasala v. Kalispell Pee Wee Baseball League, 151 M 109, 439 P 2d 65, 32 ALR 3d 1120.

Probate Proceedings

Supreme court reversed where evidence did not support district court finding that will was drafted at direction of decedent and that he was aware of its contents when he signed. Erickson v. Erickson, 152 M 179, 448 P 2d 144.

Remand to District Court

Trial court abused discretion in dismissing action for failure of plaintiff to prosecute case returned by supreme court to lower court for new trial where trial court failed to set trial for next jury term as per order of supreme court under statute providing that supreme court may direct new trial. Jangula v. United States Rubber Co., 149 M 241, 425 P 2d 319.

Scope of Review

Function of supreme court on review is to determine whether there is substantial evidence to support findings of fact and conclusions of law. Peery v. Higgins, 152 M 140, 447 P 2d 481.

Review of evidence is limited to determining whether there is substantial evidence to support trial court's findings of fact and whether such findings are sufficient to support conclusions of law. Keller v. Martin, 153 M 9, 452 P 2d 422.

Specific Performance

Where district court decree ordering conveyance of property contained directions as to distribution of the sale price that could be construed as at variance from its findings as to ownership, supreme court could modify decree so as to distribute money in accordance with the findings. Morris v. Monk, 158 M 163, 489 P 2d 1029.

93-220. Repealed.

Repeal

Section 93-220 (Sec. 2, Ch. 139, L. 1957), relating to filling vacancy on supreme court, was repealed by Sec. 14, Ch. 470, Laws 1973. For new law, see secs. 93-705 to 93-717.

CHAPTER 3—DISTRICT COURTS

Section 93-301. Judicial districts defined.
93-302. Number of judges.
93-303. Salaries of district judges.
93-313. Expenses of judges holding court in other counties.
93-318. Original jurisdiction.

93-301. (8812) Judicial districts defined. In this state there are eighteen judicial districts, distributed as follows:

First district: Lewis and Clark and Broadwater counties.

Second district: Silver Bow county.

Third district: Deer Lodge, Granite, and Powell counties.

Fourth district: Missoula, Mineral, Lake, Ravalli, and Sanders counties.

Fifth district: Beaverhead, Jefferson, and Madison counties.

Sixth district: Park and Sweet Grass counties.

Seventh district: Dawson, McCone, Richland, and Wibaux counties.

Eighth district: Cascade and Chouteau counties.

Ninth district: Teton, Pondera, Toole, and Glacier counties.

Tenth district: Fergus, Judith Basin, and Petroleum counties.

Eleventh district: Flathead and Lincoln counties.

Twelfth district: Liberty, Hill, and Blaine counties.

Thirteenth district: Yellowstone, Big Horn, Carbon, Stillwater, and Treasure counties.

Fourteenth district: Meagher, Wheatland, Golden Valley, and Musselshell counties.

Fifteenth district: Roosevelt, Daniels, and Sheridan counties.

Sixteenth district: Custer, Carter, Fallon, Prairie, Powder River, Garfield, and Rosebud counties.

Seventeenth district: Phillips and Valley counties.

Eighteenth district: Gallatin county.

History: En. Sec. 6256, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8812, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 91, L. 1929; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 23, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment increased the number of districts from seventeen to eighteen and transferred Gallatin county from the sixth to the eighteenth district.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 23, Laws 1973 read "Sections 93-301.1, 93-301.2, 93-301.3, and 93-301.4, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

93-301.1 to 93-301.4. Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 93-301.1 to 93-301.4 (Secs. 1 to 4, Ch. 80, L. 1947), creating the eighteenth judicial district, were repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 23, Laws 1973. For present law, see sec. 93-301.

93-302. (8813) Number of judges. In each judicial district there must be the following number of judges of the district court, who must be elected by the qualified voters of the district, and whose term of office must be six (6) years, to wit: In the first, second, eleventh and sixteenth, two judges each, in the thirteenth, eighth and fourth, three judges, and, in all other districts, one judge each.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment increased the term of office from four to six years; and deleted a second paragraph relating to the appointment of a judge of the fourth district to serve until the 1964 election.

93-303. (8814) Salaries of district judges. The annual salary of each district judge shall be twenty thousand five hundred dollars ($20,500), beginning July 1, 1971.

The 1967 amendment increased from $14,000 to $15,000 the annual salary for district judges.

The 1969 amendment increased the annual salary from $15,000 to $19,000.

The 1971 amendment increased the annual salary from $19,000 to $20,500, effective July 1, 1971.

Repealing Clause

Section 3 of Ch. 308, Laws 1967 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

93-309. (8820) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 93-309 (Sec. 35, C. Civ. Proc. 1895), relating to vacancies on the district court bench, was repealed by Sec. 14, Ch. 470, Laws 1973. For new law, see secs. 93-705 to 93-717.

93-313. (8824) Expenses of judges holding court in other counties. Each district judge of a judicial district in this state, composed of more than one county, when, for the purpose of holding court and disposing of judicial business, he goes to a county of his judicial district, other than the county in which he resides, and therein holds court or transacts judicial business, shall be paid all of his actual and necessary expenses of transportation and living, incurred on account thereof, and all expenditures made therefor, from the time he leaves his place of residence until he returns thereto. Actual and necessary expenses of transportation incurred when a judge uses his own automobile shall be calculated at the rate of twelve cents ($.12) per mile.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 91, L. 1911; re-en. Sec 8824, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 455, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment added the second sentence.

93-318. (8829) Original jurisdiction. (1) The district court has original jurisdiction in:

(a) all criminal cases amounting to felony,

(b) all civil and probate matters,

(c) all cases at law and in equity,

(d) all cases of misdemeanor not otherwise provided for, and

(e) all such special actions and proceedings as are not otherwise provided for.

(2) The district court has the power of naturalization, and to issue papers therefor, in all cases where they are authorized to do so by the laws of the United States.

(3) The district court and its judges have power to issue, hear, and determine writs of mandamus, quo warranto, certiorari, prohibition, injunction, and other original remedial writs, and all writs of habeas corpus, on petition by, or on behalf of any person held in actual custody in their respective districts. Injunctions, writs of prohibition, and habeas corpus may be issued and served on legal holidays and nonjudicial days.

History: En. Sec. 41, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6275, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8829, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 11, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 76.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment divided the section into numbered subdivisions; rewrote subdivision (1) to conform to the new constitution; and made minor changes in style.

93-320. (8831) Process.

CHAPTER 4—JUSTICES' AND POLICE COURTS

Section 93-401. Justices' courts and justices of the peace.
93-402. Courts—where held—when open for business.
93-403. Holding court for another justice within county.
93-405. Terms of office.
93-412. Facilities furnished to justices by county.
93-413. Salaries of justices of the peace.
93-414. Office hours of justices.

93-401. (8833) Justices' courts and justices of the peace. (1) There must be at least one (1) justice court in each county of the state, for which one (1) justice of the peace must be elected by the qualified electors of the county at the general state election next preceding the expiration of the term of office of his predecessor.

(2) A justice of the peace shall be nominated and elected on the nonpartisan judicial ballot in the same manner as are judges of the district court. Each judicial office shall be a separate and independent office for election purposes and each office shall be numbered by the county commissioners and each candidate for justice of the peace shall specify the number of the office for which he seeks to be elected. A candidate may not file for more than one (1) office. Section 23-4511 prohibiting political party endorsement for judicial officers shall also apply to justices of the peace.

(3) Each justice of the peace, elected or appointed, after he has received his certificate of election or appointment, shall, before entering upon the duties of his office take the constitutional oath of office, which must be filed with the county clerk.

(4) Before the county clerk may file the oath the elected or appointed justice must satisfy the clerk that he is either:

(a) an attorney at law authorized to practice law in the state of Montana, or

(b) a person who has held the office of justice of the peace within the preceding five (5) years, or

(c) a person who has completed the orientation course of study held under the direction of the Montana Magistrates Association of the state of Montana; or if a person is appointed after the course is offered he must agree to take the course at the next offering and failure to do so will disqualify him.

(5) The Montana Magistrates Association shall present a course of study within four (4) weeks following each general election. Mileage and per diem shall be paid the elected or appointed justice of the peace for attending the course and shall be a proper charge against the county wherein the justice of the peace will hold court.

History: En. Sec. 60, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6279, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8833, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 491, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 85.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment designated the language in the former section as subsection (1); reduced the number of justice courts from two per township to one per county; reduced the number of justices to be elected from two per township to one per county; and added subsections (2) through (5).

93-402. (8834) Courts—where held—when open for business. A justice's court may be held at any place selected by the justice holding the same, in the county for which he is elected or appointed; and such court is always open for the transaction of business, except on legal holidays and nonjudicial days.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "county" for "township"; and deleted "provided, that said justice may hold court beyond the limits of his township as provided in section 93-403" from the end of the section.

93-403. (8835) Holding court for another justice within county. A justice of the peace of any county may hold the court of any other justice of the peace of the same county at his request, and while so acting is vested with the power of the justice for whom he so holds court, in which case the proper entry of the proceedings before the attending justice, subscribed by him, must be made in the docket of the justice for whom he so holds the court.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "county" for "township"; and deleted from the end of the section a proviso and two sentences which allowed the justice to hold court beyond the limits of his township.

93-405. (8837) Terms of office. The term of office of justices of peace is four (4) years from the first Monday in January next succeeding their election.

History: En. Sec. 64, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6283, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8837, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 491, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 110.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment increased the term of office from two to four years.

93-407. (8839) Repealed.

Repeal

This section (Sec. 1, p. 99, L. 1901; Sec. 1, Ch. 35, L. 1921), relating to the oath and bond of the justice of the peace, was repealed by Sec. 10, Ch. 68, Laws 1967. For new provisions relating to bonds of county officers and employees, see sec. 6-203 et seq.

93-410. (8842) Criminal jurisdiction.

Driving While under Influence of Intoxicating Liquor

Since the offense of driving a vehicle on a highway while under the influence of intoxicating liquor in violation of section 32-2142 is a misdemeanor, it falls within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace under this section. Wilson v. Brodie, 148 M 235, 419 P 2d 306, 308.

93-412. Facilities furnished to justices by county. (1) The board of county commissioners of the county in which the justice of the peace has been elected or appointed shall provide for the justices of the peace:

(a) the office, courtroom and clerical assistance necessary to enable him to perform his duties in dignified surroundings;

(b) the books, records, forms, papers, stationery, postage, office equipment and supplies necessary in the proper keeping of the records and files of the judicial office and the transaction of the business;

(c) the latest edition of the Revised Codes of Montana and all official supplements thereto.

(2) All actual and necessary expenses incurred by the justice of the peace in the performance of his official duties is a legal charge against the county.

History: En. Eec. 3, Ch. 491, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for the minimum number of justices of the peace, their compensation, qualifications, terms of office, training and designation as county officers; providing for the collection of fees by justices and improvement of their facilities; abolishing fees in criminal actions; and deleting references to townships; all to comply with article VII, sections 5 and 7 of the 1972 Montana constitution; amending sections 11-727, 16-2403, 16-2404, 16-2406, 25-307, 93-401 through 93-403, 93-405, 93-704, 93-1602, 93-6601, 93-6602, 93-6706, 93-6903, 93-7302, 93-7311, 93-7402, 93-7605, 93-7607, 93-7704, 93-7709, 93-9705, R. C. M. 1947; and repealing sections 25-303, 25-305 and 25-306, R. C. M. 1947.

93-413. Salaries of justices of the peace. The board of county commissioners shall set salaries for justices of the peace by resolution, provided that:

(1) if the salary of the justice of the peace was determined on a fee basis for the years 1971 and 1972, he shall receive a monthly salary of not less than one-eighteenth of the total fees, civil and criminal, collected by the justice or his predecessor in office during the two (2) years, 1971 and 1972;

(2) if the salary of the justice of the peace was determined on a nonfee basis for the years 1971 and 1972, the justice shall be paid not less than the highest salary earned by the justice or his predecessor for the years 1971 and 1972.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 491, L. 1973.

93-414. Office hours of justices. In the resolution providing for the salary the county commissioners shall designate the office hours for each justice. Office hours shall be commensurate with the salary provided.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 491, L. 1973.

CHAPTER 5—GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING THE POWERS, PROCEEDINGS AND HOLDING OF COURTS OF JUSTICE

93-502. (8845) Courts of record may make rules.

Force of Rules

Trial court rule requiring filing of briefs in support of preliminary motions is proper exercise of authority under this section and may be enforced by summary denial of motion where brief has not been filed. Hansen v. Kiernan, — M —, 499 P 2d 787.

CHAPTER 7—QUALIFICATIONS, APPOINTMENT AND DISCIPLINE OF JUDICIAL OFFICERS

93-721. No compensation—expenses.
93-722. Investigation of judicial officers—complaint—hearing—disciplinary action.
93-723. Proceedings confidential—rules.
93-724. Determination and order by supreme court.
93-725. Judicial officer not to participate in investigation of self or relative.
93-726. Disqualification of judge pending criminal prosecution or proceeding before commission.
93-727. Suspension on conviction of crime—final disposition.
93-728. Order for retirement—removal.

93-701. (8862) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 93-701 (Sec. 160, C. Civ. Proc. 1895), relating to qualifications of justices of the supreme court, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 15, Laws 1973. For new law, see sec. 93-702.

93-702. (8863) Qualifications. No person is eligible for the office of justice of the supreme court or judge of the district court unless he is a citizen of the United States, who has resided in the state two (2) years immediately before taking office, and has been admitted to practice law in Montana for at least five (5) years prior to the date of appointment or election. A judge of the district court need not be a resident of the district for which he is elected or appointed at the time of his election or appointment, but after his election or appointment, he shall reside in the district for which he is elected or appointed during his term of office. Justices of the supreme court shall reside within the state.

History: En. Sec. 161, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6309, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8863, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 15, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 157.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment combined sections 93-701 and 93-702; eliminated age requirements for justices of the supreme court and district judges; increased the state residency requirement for district judges from one year to two years; added the requirement of five years' admission to practice for both supreme court justices and district court judges; applied the qualifications to appointments as well as elections; and added the last sentence.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 15, Laws 1973 read "Section 93-701, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

93-704. (8865) Residence and qualifications of justices of the peace. Every justice of the peace must reside in the county in which his court is held, and no person is eligible to the office of justice of the peace unless he shall have been a citizen of the United States and a resident of the county, in which he is to serve, for one year next preceding his election or appointment.

History: En. Sec. 163, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6311, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8865, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 491, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 159.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "county" for "township" near the beginning of the section.

93-705. Judicial nomination commission — creation — composition. There is created a judicial nomination commission for the state of Montana, whose function it shall be to provide the governor with a list of candidates for nominee to fill any vacancy on the supreme court or any district court of the state of Montana. The commission shall be composed of seven (7) members as follows:

(1) four (4) lay members, who are neither judges or attorneys, active or retired, and who shall reside in different geographical areas of the state; each of these four (4) members shall be representative of a different industry, business or profession, whether or not actively so engaged or retired; such members shall be appointed by the governor;

(2) two (2) attorneys, actively engaged in the practice of law, one (1) from each congressional district, who shall be appointed by the supreme court;

(3) one (1) district judge elected by the district judges under an elective procedure initiated and conducted by the supreme court and certified to such election by the chief justice of the supreme court, and which for the purpose of the language of this act shall be considered as an appointment.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for the filling of vacancies in the office of district court judge and supreme court justice to comply with article VII, section 8 of the 1972 Montana constitution; repealing sections 93-209, 93-220, 93-309, R. C. M. 1947.

93-706. Terms of commission members—vacancy. (1) All original members named to the commission shall all serve until January 1, 1976. Their successors shall serve as follows:

(a) the members appointed by the governor shall serve for four (4) year terms;

(b) the attorneys elected shall serve a two (2) year term;

(c) the judge elected shall serve a two (2) year term.

(2) Thereafter all members shall serve terms of four (4) years.

(3) In the event a vacancy on the commission occurs, the governor shall appoint a replacement for the remainder of the term, provided such replacement shall be a member of the same group as the member he replaces.

(4) Appointments provided for in this section shall be made within thirty (30) days of the completion of the preceding terms, or within thirty (30) days of the occurrence of any vacancy.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

93-707. Secretary of commission. The commission shall elect one (1) of its members to serve as the secretary, and upon such election shall notify the governor of the name and mailing address of such person; the secretary shall keep a record of all proceedings by the commission, and act as corresponding secretary with the governor's office.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

93-708. Quorum. Four (4) members of the commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. To submit a name to the governor, there must be a concurrence of at least four (4) members.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

93-709. Investigation of candidates—application for candidacy. The commission and each member is authorized to make investigations concerning the qualifications of eligible persons, and any lawyer in good standing who has the qualifications set forth by law for holding judicial office, may be a candidate, and may make application to the commission for consideration, or application may be made by any person on his behalf.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

93-710. Submission of list to governor to fill vacancy. The commission shall meet forthwith after a vacancy occurs on the supreme court or district court and submit to the governor within thirty (30) days from the date of the vacancy a list of not less than three (3), nor more than five (5) persons.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

93-711. Appointment by governor from list submitted. The governor must make an appointment from those names submitted by the commission.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

93-712. Governor's failure to nominate. If the governor fails to nominate within thirty (30) days after receipt of the list, the chief justice or acting chief justice shall make the nomination.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

93-713. Confirmation by senate—interim appointment. Each nomination shall be confirmed by the senate, but a nomination made while the senate is not in session is effective as an appointment until the end of the next session. If the nomination is not confirmed, the office shall be vacant and another selection and nomination shall be made.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

93-714. Term of appointment—election for unexpired term. A nominee confirmed by the senate serves until the next succeeding general election. The candidate elected at that election holds the office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

93-715. Members of commission ineligible for judicial office. Members of the commission are not eligible for nomination to a judicial office during their term on the commission or for one (1) year thereafter.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

93-716. No compensation—expenses. The members of the commission are not entitled to compensation for their services, but they are entitled to actual expenses while actually engaged in the discharge of their official duties.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

93-717. Rules of commission. The commission shall make rules for the conduct of its affairs and to provide for the confidentiality of its proceedings.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 470, L. 1973.

Repealing Clause

Section 14 of Ch. 470, Laws 1973 read "Sections 93-209, 93-220, and 93-309, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

93-718. Judicial standards commission — composition. There is created a judicial standards commission consisting of five (5) members as follows:

(1) two (2) district court judges, from different judicial districts, elected by the district judges under an elective procedure initiated by and conducted by the supreme court and the two (2) so elected certified as to such election by the chief justice of the supreme court which for the purpose of the language of this act shall be considered as an appointment.

(2) one (1) attorney who has practiced law in this state for at least ten (10) years, appointed by the supreme court.

(3) two (2) citizens from different congressional districts who are not attorneys or judges of any court, active or retired, appointed by the governor.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 95, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act creating a judicial standards commission and specifying the composition and the qualifications of the members in compliance with article VII, section 11 of the 1972 Montana constitution.

93-719. Terms of office of commission members. (1) The first appointments made under this act are as follows:

(a) the supreme court shall designate by certificate of the chief justice one (1) district court judge to serve for four (4) years, and one (1) to serve for two (2) years;

(b) the attorney shall serve for four (4) years; and

(c) the governor shall appoint one (1) citizen to serve for four (4) years, and one (1) to serve for two (2) years.

(2) Thereafter, all terms shall be for four (4) years.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 95, L. 1973.

93-720. Termination of membership—vacancy. (1) Commission membership terminates if a member ceases to hold the position that qualified him for appointment.

(2) In the event a vacancy occurs on the commission, the appointing authority of the vacated seat shall designate a successor.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 95, L. 1973.

93-721. No compensation—expenses. A commission member is not entitled to compensation for his services but is entitled to actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 95, L. 1973.

93-722. Investigation of judicial officers—complaint—hearing—disciplinary action. (1) The commission, or any citizen of the state may upon good cause shown, initiate an investigation of any judicial officer in the state by filing a verified written complaint with the commission.

(2) The commission, after such investigation as it considers necessary and upon the finding of good cause, may:

(a) order a hearing to be held before it concerning the censure, suspension, removal or retirement of a judicial officer; or

(b) request the supreme court to appoint one (1) or more special masters, who are judges of courts of record, to hear and take evidence and to report to the commission.

(3) If after hearing or after considering the record and report of the masters, the commission finds the charges true, it shall recommend to the supreme court the censure, suspension, removal or retirement of the judicial officer.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 95, L. 1973.

93-723. Proceedings confidential—rules. (1) All papers filed with, and proceedings before the commission or masters are confidential.

(2) The filing of papers with and the testimony given before the commission or masters is privileged communication.

(3) The commission shall make rules for the conduct of its affairs and provide for the confidentiality of its proceedings.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 95, L. 1973.

93-724. Determination and order by supreme court. (1) The supreme court shall review the record of the proceedings and shall make such determination as it finds just and proper and may:

(a) order censure, suspension, removal or retirement of a judicial officer, or

(b) wholly reject the recommendation.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 95, L. 1973.

93-725. Judicial officer not to participate in investigation of self or relative. A judicial officer who is a member of the commission or of the supreme court shall not participate in any proceeding involving his own censure, suspension, removal, or retirement or that of a relative within the sixth degree of consanguinity or that of the spouse of such a relative.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 95, L. 1973.

93-726. Disqualification of judge pending criminal prosecution or proceeding before commission. A judge is disqualified from acting as a judge, without loss of salary, while there is pending:

(1) an indictment or an information charging him with a crime punishable as a felony under Montana or federal law, or

(2) a formal proceeding before the commission for his removal or retirement.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 95, L. 1973.

93-727. Suspension on conviction of crime—final disposition. (1) On recommendation of the commission, the supreme court may suspend a judicial officer from office without salary when he pleads guilty or no contest or is found guilty of a crime punishable as a felony under Montana or federal law, or of any other crime involving moral turpitude.

(2) If his conviction is reversed, suspension terminates, and he shall be paid his salary for the period of suspension.

(3) If he is suspended and his conviction becomes final, the supreme court shall remove him from office.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 95, L. 1973.

93-728. Order for retirement—removal. (1) Upon an order for retirement, the judicial officer shall be retired with the same rights and privileges as if he retired pursuant to statute.

(2) Upon an order for removal, the judicial officer shall be removed from office and his salary shall cease from the date of the order. He shall be ineligible for any other judicial office and pending further order of the court is suspended from practicing law.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 95, L. 1973.

CHAPTER 9—DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDICIAL OFFICERS

Section 93-901. Cases in which judge may be disqualified—calling in another judge.

93-901. (8868) Cases in which judge may be disqualified—calling in another judge. Any justice, judge, or justice of the peace must not sit or act as such in any action or proceeding:

1. To which he is a party, or in which he is interested;

2. When he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the sixth degree, computed according to the rules of law;

3. When he has been attorney or counsel for either party in the action or proceeding, or when he rendered or made the judgment, order, or decision appealed from;

4. When either party makes and files an affidavit as hereinafter provided, that he has reason to believe, and does believe, he cannot have a fair and impartial hearing or trial before a district judge. Such affidavit may be made by any party to an action, motion, or proceeding, personally, or by his attorney or agent, and shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in which the same may be pending.

In any judicial district having only one judge the affidavit of disqualification with reference to any action or proceeding to be tried before a jury must be filed at least one day before the day appointed or fixed by the court for setting the trial calendar; provided, however, this limitation shall not apply unless notice of such setting date shall be given to all parties by the clerk of the district court at least fifteen (15) days prior thereto. In all other cases the affidavit must be filed at least fifteen (15) days before the day appointed or fixed for the hearing or trial of any such action, motion, or proceeding (provided such party shall have had notice of the hearing of such action, motion, or proceeding for at least the period of fifteen (15) days and in case he shall not have had notice for such length of time, he shall file such affidavit immediately upon receiving such notice). Upon the filing of the affidavit, the judge as to whom said disqualification is averred shall be without authority to act further in the action, motion, or proceeding, but the provisions of this section do not apply to the arrangement of the calendar, the regulation of the order of business, the power of transferring the action or proceeding to some other court nor to the power of calling in another district judge to sit and act in such action or proceeding, providing that no judge shall so arrange the calendar as to defeat the purposes of this section. No more than two judges can be disqualified in said action or proceeding, at the instance of the plaintiff, and no more than two at the instance of the defendant, in said action or proceeding, and this limitation shall apply however many parties or persons in interest may be plaintiffs or defendants in such action or proceeding. If there be more than one judge in any judicial district in which said affidavit is made and filed, upon the first disqualification of a judge in the cause, another judge, residing in the judicial district wherein the affidavit is made and filed, must be called in to preside in such action, motion or proceeding; upon the second or any subsequent disqualification of a judge in the cause, a district judge of another judicial district of the state must be called in to preside in such action, motion, or proceeding, or the action, motion, or proceeding transferred to a district judge of another judicial district of the state; when another judge has assumed jurisdiction of an action, motion, or proceeding, the clerk of the district court in which the same was pending, shall at once notify the parties or their attorneys of record in the same, either personally or by registered mail, of the name of the judge called in, or to whom such action, motion, or proceeding was transferred. Such second or subsequent affidavit of disqualification shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in which such action, motion or proceeding may be pending within three days after the party or his attorney of record, filing such affidavit, has received notice as to the judge assuming jurisdiction of such action, motion, or proceeding.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment deleted "by reason of the bias or prejudice of such judge" at the end of the first sentence of subdivision 4; divided subdivision 4 into two paragraphs; and made a minor change in punctuation.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 234, Laws 1965 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

Effective Date

Section 3, of Ch. 234, Laws 1965 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 8, 1965.

Constitutionality

The 1965 amendment of this section, deleting the words "by reason of the bias and prejudice of such judge," does not impair the constitutionality of this section, since the affidavit will still be required to state that the party has reason to believe and does believe he cannot have a fair and impartial hearing or trial before the district judge. State ex rel. Peery v. District Court, 145 M 287, 400 P 2d 648.

This section does not violate the separation of powers provision of section 1, article IV of the Montana constitution in that it does not impinge upon the existence or supremacy of the judicial system nor alter its jurisdiction or duties, but is a reasonable manner of providing a fair trial for all litigants. State ex rel. Peery v. District Court, 145 M 287, 400 P 2d 648.

Compelling Disqualification

Where district court judge attempted to comply with affidavit of disqualification, but was unsuccessful in calling in a district court judge from another judicial district, and was also unsuccessful in attempting to comply with order to show cause, mandamus proceedings against him were dropped but not against a second district court judge who believed he had original jurisdiction and challenged the constitutionality of this section. State ex rel. Peery v. District Court, 145 M 287, 400 P 2d 648.

Custody Award

District court judge was without jurisdiction to award custody where affidavits of disqualification were filed prior to court's final disposition of various motions even though motion for new trial was pending. State ex rel. Ross v. District Court, 150 M 233, 433 P 2d 778.

Mandamus

Mandamus is the appropriate remedy to compel a disqualified judge to perform a mandatory duty resting upon him to call in another judge or transfer the cause to another department or court. State ex rel. Peery v. District Court, 145 M 287, 400 P 2d 648.

New Trial

This section should not be construed to permit disqualification of a judge pending motion for a new trial because of the provisions of Rule 59(d), M. R. Civ. P. State ex rel. Peery v. District Court, 145 M 287, 400 P 2d 648.

Parties Entitled to File

Grandnephew who claimed heirship in an intestate estate and who filed a petition to determine heirship was a party within the meaning of this section, and district court erred in quashing timely affidavit of disqualification filed by him. In re Estate of Brown, 158 M 413, 492 P 2d 914.

Pretrial Hearing

Affidavit to disqualify judge from nonjury trial was valid where filed fifteen days prior to trial date despite party's previous consent to a determination of motions at pretrial hearing presided over by judge named in disqualification affidavit. State ex rel. OB-Gyn Group of Billings, Montana v. District Court, — M —, 494 P 2d 931.

Remanded Cause

District judge should have honored affidavit of disqualification filed more than four months before day fixed for hearing where mandate of supreme court in remanding cause left it to the district court to make a determination as to the amount due the plaintiffs in the event that sum was not settled between the parties themselves. State ex rel. Gage v. District Court, 148 M 284, 419 P 2d 746, 747.

Time for Disqualification

Statutory time for filing affidavit was not extended because counsel learned of trial only day before it began, since under this section attorney's right to request disqualification is derived from party's right and is not an independent right. State ex rel. Kidder v. District Court of Fourth Judicial District In and For County of Sanders, 155 M 442, 472 P 2d 1008.

Compiler's Notes

Chapter 218, Laws 1969 was passed by the constitutional majority of both houses of the 41st legislative assembly over the veto of the governor.

Title of Act

An act relating to the judicial department of the state of Montana; providing for the retirement of district judges and justices of the supreme court, subject to thereafter being called into service for the performance of certain judicial duties under the direction of the supreme court and providing an allowance of actual expenses for such service; defining the terms used in this act; establishing a Montana judges' retirement system; creating a Montana judges' retirement board; providing for payment of the expense of administering this act, and for payments into the Montana judges' retirement fund; providing for the establishment and enforcement of rules and regulations; requiring membership in public employees' retirement system and for payments thereto by each judge not heretofore a member thereof; providing a service allowance based on length of service; requiring payments into the Montana judges' retirement fund by deductions from members' salaries; providing for contributions by the state of Montana, and for payment into the Montana judges' retirement fund of one-quarter of fees collected by clerks of district court and by the clerk of the supreme court; specifying length of service and age requirements necessary for retirement; providing the method of computing retirement allowance; providing for a disability retirement allowance and an involuntary retirement allowance; specifying penalty retirement age and providing for a retirement allowance forfeiture; providing for payments upon death; providing for monthly payments of retirement allowances, for exemption from taxes and execution, for nomination of beneficiary, and for options available to judges entering military service; providing certain optional methods of payment of retirement allowance; providing for transfer of accounts dormant for ten (10) years; and providing a savings clause declaring the provisions of this act to be severable.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment rewrote the definition of "Final salary" which was formerly defined as "the annual current salary for the office retired from."

93-1108. Montana judges' retirement system. A retirement system is hereby established for the judges of the district court and justices of the supreme court of the state of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1109. Montana judges' retirement board. There is hereby created a Montana judges' retirement board, hereinafter referred to as the "board." The board shall consist of five (5) members who shall be the same persons as those who compose the board of administration of the public employees' retirement system.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1110. Administrative expenses. (1) The expense of the administration of this act, exclusive of the payment of retirement allowances and other benefits, shall be paid from the Montana judges' retirement account.

(2) Before July 15, 1970 and before July 15 of each year thereafter, the board shall compute the administrative costs for the immediately preceding fiscal year and transfer that amount from the Montana judges' retirement account to the public employees' retirement system account in the earmarked revenue fund.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 289, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 23, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment designated the former section as subsection (1), and substituted "from the Montana judges' retirement account" for "by the state of Montana, by appropriation out of the general fund, made on the basis of budgets submitted by the board" at the end and added subsection (2).

93-1111. Payments into the Montana judges' retirement fund—investment. All appropriations made by the state of Montana, all contributions by members of the Montana judges, in the amount hereinafter specified, and all interest on and increase of the investments and moneys under this account shall be paid to the secretary of the public employees' retirement system board (PERS), who shall credit said payments to the Montana judges' retirement fund. Said funds may be co-mingled with funds of the PERS, but shall be earmarked as judges' retirement fund.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1112. Rules and regulations—actuarial data. The board may establish such rules and regulations as it deems necessary and is charged within the limitations of this act for its proper administration, operation, and enforcement, and shall be the authority under this act for its proper administration, operation, and enforcement, and shall be the authority under this act as to the conditions under which persons may be admitted to and continue to receive benefits under the retirement system. It shall keep such data as shall be necessary for actuarial valuation purposes. It shall cause to be made periodic actuarial investigations into the mortality and service experience of the contributors to and the beneficiaries of the fund, and shall adopt for the retirement system one or more mortality tables.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1113. Membership. (a) Any judge or justice, who has, previous to the adoption of this act, been a member of the PERS, may elect to remain under that system; such election to be made in writing to the PERS board within three (3) months after the effective date of this act.

(b) Every judge or justice who was in service in either a district court or a supreme court of the state of Montana, prior to July 1, 1967, shall have the option and he may elect to make back payments to the date when he first entered the service of the judiciary. Such back payments may be spread over a period of five (5) years by having the regular payroll deduction of the contributor increased in an amount equal to the total of his back payments divided by sixty (60), which deduction increase shall be credited to such back payments owing, and shall be continued until the full amount of such back payments shall have been completed. Any such deduction increase may be anticipated in part or in full by the contributor at any time and must be anticipated in full at the time of retirement before a retirement allowance is granted, and if not so anticipated and paid in full then a member's retirement allowance shall be calculated for the total years and months on which contributions have been made in accordance with section 12 [93-1118] of this act. Every contributor who shall elect to make such back payments shall receive full credit under this act for all contributions made into the fund and for all service credits to which he might thereby be entitled.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1114. Service allowance. In computing the length of service of a contributor for retirement purposes, full credit shall be given to each contributor for each year of service rendered to the judiciary including service rendered prior to July 1, 1967, upon complying with the provisions of this act. As soon as practicable, the retirement board shall issue to each original member a certificate certifying the aggregate length of his service prior to July 1, 1967. Such certificate shall be final and conclusive as to his prior service unless thereafter modified by the board upon application of the contributor.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1115. Payments by contributors. Every member shall be required to contribute into the fund a sum equal to six per cent (6%) of his monthly salary, which sum shall be deducted from his salary and credited to his account in the fund.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1116. Contributions by the state of Montana. The state of Montana shall monthly contribute to the fund a sum equal to six per cent (6%) of the salary of each member of the Montana judiciary retirement system. In addition to the above, three-quarters (¾) of the fees collected under section 25-232, as amended, and section 25-233, as amended, shall be paid into the county treasurer on the first Monday of each month as provided in section 25-203, and the other one-quarter shall be transmitted by the clerk to the secretary of the PERS board on the first Monday of each month, and by him credited to the judicial retirement fund. The fees collected under section 82-503, as amended, shall be by the clerk of the supreme court paid by him, three-quarters (¾) into the state treasury to be credited to the general fund, and one-quarter (¼) of which shall be paid by him to the secretary of the PERS board, which shall be credited to the credit of the judicial retirement fund. The full amount of such fund as created and accumulated is hereby set aside to be used exclusively for the purpose of paying the accrued retirement and expenses provided for herein.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1117. Vesting of proportional retirement. Any member who has completed at least five (5) years or more service, and has reached the age of sixty-five (65), may retire and receive the proportional retirement allowances provided in section 12 [93-1118].

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1118. Retirement allowance. Upon retirement from service a member shall receive a service retirement allowance which shall consist of the state annuity plus the member's annuity. The member's annuity shall be the actuarial equivalent of his aggregate contributions at the time of retirement and the state annuity shall be in an amount which, when added to the member's annuity, will provide a total retirement allowance of three and one-third per cent (3⅓%) per year of his final salary for the first fifteen (15) years' service, and one per cent (1%) per year for each year's service thereafter.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1119. Disability retirement allowance. In case of the total disability of a contributor, permanent in character, regardless of length of service of the contributor, a disability retirement allowance shall be granted the contributor in an amount calculated on the actuarial equivalent of the member's annuity and the state annuity standing to his credit at the time of his disability retirement; provided, that if such total disability is a direct result of any service to the Montana judiciary in line of duty, then such judge or justice who is totally and permanently disabled shall be retired on total retirement allowance of a minimum of one-half (½) of his final salary or the allowance provided in section 12 [93-1118], whichever is greater. In the event of any disability not caused in the line of duty after attaining the age of sixty (60) years, the maximum monthly payment shall be the retirement allowance as provided in section 12 [93-1118].

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1120. Involuntary retirement allowance. Should a contributor be discontinued from service, not voluntarily, after having completed five (5) years of total service, but before reaching retirement age, he shall, upon filing of application in the manner herein provided for retirement, be paid as he may elect as follows:

(a) the full amount of accumulated deductions standing to his credit; or

(b) a member's annuity of equivalent actuarial value to his accumulated deductions standing to his credit, plus the actuarial equivalent of a state annuity having a value equal to the present value of a state annuity then standing to his credit.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1121. Penalty retirement allowance. Any judge or justice who becomes eligible for retirement hereunder, but fails to make application therefor, prior to his attaining the age of seventy (70) years, shall automatically waive all retirement benefits, and shall receive a return of only such moneys equal to the accumulated deduction contributed by him; save and except that any judge or justice, who is over the age of seventy (70) years, at the time of the effective date of this act, or who shall attain such age before the expiration of his term, shall be permitted to serve out the balance of his existing term, without forfeiting said retirement. At the termination of the said existing term, if such member has failed to make application for retirement under this act, he shall automatically waive all retirement benefits hereunder, and shall receive a return of only such moneys equal to the accumulated deduction contributed by him.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 289, L. 1967. Compiler's Notes

This act became effective July 1, 1967.

93-1122. Refunds in case of resignation or discharge. Where a contributor resigns of his own volition, or is discharged for cause before becoming entitled to a retirement allowance, then the deductions standing to his credit shall be paid to him.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1123. Payments upon death. If the board shall find that a contributor died as a direct and proximate result of injury received in the course of his employment, a retirement allowance shall be paid to his beneficiary. Such retirement allowance shall consist of:

(a) a member's annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the contributor's accumulated deductions standing to his credit; and

(b) the actuarial equivalent of a state annuity which when added to the member's annuity will provide a total annuity equal to the allowance provided for in section 12 [93-1118].

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1124. Payments in case of death from natural cause. (a) If the retired judge or justice dies before receiving in payments the present value of his member's annuity and the state annuity as it was at the time of his retirement, the balance shall be paid to his beneficiary.

(b) If a member dies before reaching retirement age, his beneficiary shall be entitled to the actuarial equivalent of the options as provided in section 14 [93-1120].

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1125. Monthly payments of retirement allowances. The retirement allowances granted under the provisions of this act shall be paid in equal monthly installments and shall not be increased, decreased, revoked or repealed unless by act of the legislative assembly of the state of Montana. No retirement allowances can be approved by the board while the member is drawing full compensation as a judge or justice.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1126. Exemption from taxes and execution. Any money received or to be paid as a member's annuity, state annuity or return of deductions or the right of any of these, shall be exempt from any state or municipal tax and from levy, sale, garnishment, attachment or any other process whatsoever and shall be unassignable.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1127. Nomination of beneficiary. Every contributor shall have the authority to name his beneficiary by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the board.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1128. Service in the armed forces of the United States. Any member of the Montana judiciary now in or hereafter inducted into the armed forces of the United States, shall have the option:

(a) to continue his payments into the fund; or

(b) allow the board to make his payments for him during such military service, in which event he shall repay the fund the full amount of such payments upon his return to the Montana judiciary, and such repayments must be made within two (2) years after his return to the judiciary provided that a member's service in the armed forces of the United States shall be credited to and made a part of the member's service allowance.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1129. Fraud—correction of errors. (a) No person shall knowingly make any false statement, or shall falsify or permit to be falsified any record or records of the retirement system herein established in any attempt to defraud such system.

(b) Should any such change in records fraudulently made or any mistake in records inadvertently made result in any contributor or beneficiary receiving more or less than he would have been entitled to had the records been correct, then, on the discovery of such error, the board shall correct such error and shall adjust the payments which shall be made to the contributor or annuitant in such manner that the actuarial equivalent of the benefit to which he was correctly entitled shall be paid.

Any person violating any of the provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or suffer imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1130. Call of retired judge for duty. Every judge or justice receiving retirement pay under the provisions of this act, shall, if physically and mentally able, be subject to call by the supreme court or the chief justice thereof to aid and assist the supreme court or any district court under such directions as the supreme court may give, including the examination of the facts and cases before the court, the examination of authorities cited and the preparation of opinions for and on behalf of the court, which opinions, when and if and to the extent approved by the court, may by the court be ordered to constitute the opinion of such court and such court and such retired judge or justice may, subject to any rule which the supreme court may adopt, perform any and all duties preliminary to the final disposition of cases in so far as not inconsistent with the constitution of the state. Such retired judge or justice when called to service as herein provided shall be reimbursed for his actual expenses, if any, in responding to such call.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1131. Optional retirement allowance. Until the first payment on account of any retirement allowance is made and subject to the conditions that, if he die after retirement and within thirty (30) days from the date upon which his election or changed election is received at the office of the retirement board, then said election is void and of no effect, and the death shall be considered as that of a member before retirement. A member or a beneficiary may elect, or revoke or change a previous election prior to the approval of the previous election to receive the actuarial equivalent of his retirement allowance as of the date of retirement, in a lesser retirement, allowance, payable throughout life with one of the following options:

Option 1. Upon his death, his lesser retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he nominates by written designation duly executed and filed with the board at the time of his retirement.

Option 2. Upon his death, one-half (½) of his lesser retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he nominates by written designation duly executed and filed with the board at the time of his retirement.

Option 3. Such other benefit or benefits shall be paid, either to the beneficiary or to such other person or persons as he nominates, as, together with such lesser retirement allowance, are the actuarial equivalent of his retirement allowance, and shall be approved by the board.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

93-1132. Transfer of dormant accounts to pension accumulation fund. The board may in its discretion transfer the savings account of a member to the pension accumulation fund if the account has been dormant for a period of ten (10) years, provided that no right of the member shall be jeopardized by such transfer and the savings account shall be transferred to the member's name upon subsequent re-entry to membership.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 289, L. 1967.

Separability Clause

Section 26 of Ch. 289, Laws 1967 read "The provisions of this act are severable, and, if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional, the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein."

CHAPTER 12—JURIES—DIFFERENT KINDS DEFINED

Section 93-1205. Number of a trial jury.

93-1205. (8887) Number of a trial jury. A trial jury consists of twelve (12) persons; provided, that in civil actions and cases of misdemeanor, it may consist of twelve (12), or any number less than twelve (12), upon which the parties may agree in open court, and further provided that in all civil actions where the relief asked for in the complaint is under the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), then a trial jury may in the discretion of the trial judge consist of six (6) persons, and that two-thirds (⅔) of the jury may render a verdict; provided further, that where a six (6) person jury is authorized by law, each side shall have two (2) peremptory challenges, and they shall be exercised by the plaintiff first striking one (1), and the defendant then striking one (1), and so on, until each side has exhausted or waived his rights.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment deleted "and not more than seventy" after "age of twenty-one" in paragraph 1.

The 1971 amendment reduced the minimum age specified in subdivision 1 from 21 to 19 years; and made minor changes in style.

The 1973 amendment reduced the minimum age specified in subdivision 1 from nineteen to eighteen years.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 116, Laws 1965 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

93-1304. (8893) Who exempt from jury duty. A person is exempt from liability to act as juror if:

1. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

2. A person holding a public office in the state, a county, township, or town;

3. to 6. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

7. An officer, keeper or attendant of a hospital, asylum, or other charitable institution;

8. and 9. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

10. An active member of the national guard of Montana, or an active member of a fire department of any city or town of this state. The number of firemen hereby exempted must not exceed twenty-eight (28), including officers for each company organized; and such members from each company must be selected from the roll of such company, according to the seniority of membership, and a list containing the names of such persons must be made out by the secretary of each company and filed with the clerk of the board of county commissioners on the first Mondays of December, March, June and September, and any failure to file the list hereby required is considered a waiver of such exemption.

11. and 12. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

The court must discharge a person from serving as a trial juror, in either of the following cases:

Where it satisfactorily appears that he or she is not competent; and,

Where it satisfactorily appears that he or she is exempt and claims the benefit of exemption.

Sec. 1, Ch. 425, L. 1971. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 200.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "in the state" in subdivision 2; deleted "almshouse" in subdivision 7; and made minor changes in phraseology and style.

CHAPTER 14—JURORS—SELECTION AND RETURN

Section 93-1404. Duty of clerk—jury boxes.

93-1404. (8899) Duty of clerk—jury boxes. The clerk shall prepare and keep a jury box and contents as follows: The number of each juror shall be written, typed or stamped on paper or other suitable material, identical in all respects, and placed in a box of ample size to permit said numbers to be thoroughly mixed, and which said box shall be kept for that purpose and shall be known as, and plainly marked, "jury box No. 1." The numbers may be used as often as necessary; provided, however, none shall be used which is in any manner whatsoever defaced or disfigured, or so marked that it may be recognized or distinguished from the others in said jury box No. 1 except by the number thereon. There shall be so enclosed in said box one number, and only one number, corresponding to the number before the name of each juror on the jury list.

Amendment

The 1969 amendment deleted "and enclosed in separate black capsules" after "suitable material"; substituted references to "numbers" for references to "capsules" wherever appearing; and, in the last sentence, substituted "number before the name of each juror" for "corresponding to the name of each juror."

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Color of Capsules

Identical opaque capsules, though not black as formerly required by statute, were not such deviation as to constitute material departure from provisions of statute since the price of black capsules was approximately five times that of other available capsules, and hence an additional burden on taxpayer, and since no unfairness in selection of jurors would result from using another opaque colored capsule. CHAPTER 15—JURORS—DRAWING AND SUMMONING FOR COURTS OF RECORD

Section 93-1503. Drawing—how conducted.
93-1512. Drawing additional jurors when original number insufficient—order designating number needed—selection from portion of county only—notification of jurors.

93-1503. (8904) Drawing — how conducted. 1. The clerk must place said box on a rod so that the same may readily revolve and said box must be revolved a sufficient number of times so as to ensure that the numbered slips in said box shall become thoroughly mixed, and thereafter the judge must draw from said box one (1) at a time, as many of the numbered slips as are ordered by the court.

2 and 3. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

4. No person shall be asked to serve on more than one term during any year unless all the numbers in jury box No. 1 have been drawn and there are no other qualified jurors available.

History: En. Sec. 262, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6350, Rev. C. 1907; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 35, L. 1919; re-en. Sec. 8904, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 148, L.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment, in subsection (1), twice substituted "numbered slips" for "capsules," the latter referring to separate black capsules containing each juror's number; substituted "the" for "such" before the last reference to "numbered slips"; and added subsection (4).

93-1504 to 93-1506. (8905 to 8907) Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 93-1504 to 93-1506 (Secs. 263 to 265, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; Secs. 3 to 5, Ch. 35, L. 1919; Sec. 2, Ch. 148, L. 1933; Secs. 5 to 7, Ch. 168, L. 1957), relating to the drawing of jurors from jury boxes Nos. 2 and 3, were repealed by Sec. 4, Ch. 110, Laws 1969.

93-1510, 93-1511. (8911, 8912) Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 93-1510 and 93-1511 (Secs. 281, 282, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; Secs. 8, 9, Ch. 168, L. 1957), relating to the drawing and summoning of jurors, were repealed by Sec. 4, Ch. 110, Laws 1969.

93-1512. Drawing additional jurors when original number insufficient—order designating number needed—selection from portion of county only—notification of jurors. Whenever it appears to a district judge that additional jurors will be needed for any term or trial the judge shall draw as many numbers from jury box No. 1 as are necessary to secure the required number of additional jurors. Before drawing the numbers the judge shall by appropriate order designate the number of jurors needed, and, when the judge believes that securing the additional jurors from all of the county would cause unnecessary delay or expense then he may order the jurors selected from only a designated portion of the county, which portion shall never be less than the corporate limits of the county seat. If, in the selection of the additional jurors, a number is drawn and the jury list shows the person represented by the number to be a resident of an area outside the area designated by the court order then that number shall be returned to the jury box and a new number drawn. When the required number of names have been selected the judge may order the prospective jurors notified by telephone by the clerk of the court or he may order them summoned by the sheriff either by certified mail or by personal service.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 110, L. 1969.

Title of Act

An act amending sections 93-1404 and 93-1503, R. C. M. 1947, to provide for a change in the method of drawing jurors and to eliminate the jury boxes numbered two and three and to provide for a change in the method of notifying jurors; repealing sections 93-1504, 93-1505, 93-1506, 93-1510 and 93-1511, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 4 of Ch. 110, Laws 1969 read "Sections 93-1504, 93-1505, 93-1506, 93-1510, and 93-1511, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

CHAPTER 16—JURORS—SUMMONING FOR JUSTICES' AND INFERIOR COURTS AND COURTS OF INQUEST

Section 93-1602. How to be summoned.

93-1602. (8914) How to be summoned. Such jurors must be summoned from the persons competent to serve as jurors, residents of the county, city, or town in which such court has jurisdiction, by notifying them orally that they are summoned, and of the time and place at which their attendance is required.

History: En. Sec. 291, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6360, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8914, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 491, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 231.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "county" for "township."

CHAPTER 18—JURIES—HOW IMPANELED—ALTERNATES

Section 93-1801. Grand jury—when and how to be impaneled.
93-1802. How constituted.

93-1801. (8918) Grand jury—when and how to be impaneled. Whenever in the opinion of the district judge a grand jury is necessary, he must make an order directing a grand jury to be drawn and summoned to attend before the court. The order must specify the number of such jurors to be drawn, which must not be less than fifteen (15) nor more than twenty (20). The names of such jurors must be drawn from jury box No. 1, mentioned in section 93-1404, and the list of names certified and summoned, as provided for drawing and summoning trial jurors, and the names of any persons drawn who may not be impaneled upon the grand jury must be again placed in said jury box No. 1.

History: En. Sec. 320, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6364, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8918, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 3, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 241.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment increased the number of jurors specified in the second sentence from not less than ten nor more than fifteen to not less than fifteen nor more than twenty.

93-1802. (8919) How constituted. When, of the persons summoned as grand jurors competent and not excused, eleven (11) are present, they constitute the grand jury. If more than eleven (11) of such persons are present, the clerk must write their names on separate ballots, and place the ballots in black capsules, which the capsules shall be deposited in a box large enough to hold all of the capsules without crowding, and which the box shall be so arranged that the clerk drawing the capsules from the box shall be unable to observe or see the capsule he is about to draw, and draw out eleven (11) of them, and the persons whose names are on the ballots so drawn shall constitute the grand jury. If less than eleven (11) of such persons are present, the court may order a sufficient number to be forthwith drawn from either box and summoned to attend the court. And whenever, of the persons to complete a grand jury, more attend than are required, the requisite number must be obtained by writing the names of those so summoned and not excused on ballots, which the ballots shall be placed in black capsules, and thereafter deposited in a box, and then drawn as above provided.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment increased the number of jurors specified from seven to eleven in four places; and made minor changes in phraseology.

93-1803. (8920) Manner of impaneling grand jury prescribed.

Compiler's Notes

Sections 94-6301 to 94-6319 referred to in this section, were repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 196, Laws of 1967. For new law, see sections 95-1401 to 95-1409.

CHAPTER 19—COURT REPORTERS

Section 93-1906. Salary and expenses of reporter—apportionment.

93-1903. (8930) Matters written out and filed.

Compiler's Notes

Section 93-5505, referred to in this section in the parent volume, was superseded by M. R. App. Civ. P., Rules 9, 10, and 25.

93-1906. (8933) Salary and expenses of reporter — apportionment. Every reporter appointed under the provisions of this chapter receives an annual salary of twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) and no other compensation except as provided in section 93-1904, provided, however, that all transcripts and bills of exceptions required by the county shall be furnished without cost, payable in monthly installments out of the general funds of the counties comprising the district for which he is appointed, according and in proportion to the number of civil and criminal actions entered and commenced in the district courts of such counties respectively in the preceding year; and it shall be the duty of the judge of such district, on the first day of January of each year, or as soon thereafter as may be, to apportion the amount of such salary to be paid by each county in his district on the basis aforesaid. The reporter is allowed, in addition to the salary and fees above provided, in judicial districts comprising more than one (1) county, his actual and necessary expenses of transportation and living when he goes on official business to a county of his judicial district other than the county in which he resides, from the time he leaves his place of residence until he returns thereto, said expenses to be apportioned and payable in the same way as the salary.

Sec. 1, Ch. 73, L. 1945; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 49, L. 1951; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 125, L. 1953; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 76, L. 1955; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 22, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 114, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 221, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 192, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 183, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Secs. 271 and 274.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment increased the salary set forth near the beginning of the section from $6,600 to $7,800.

The 1967 amendment increased the annual salaries of court reporters from $7,800 to $8,800.

The 1969 amendment increased annual salaries of court reporters from $8,800 to $9,200.

The 1973 amendment increased the reporter's annual salary from $9,200 to $12,500.

CHAPTER 20—ATTORNEYS—QUALIFICATIONS—ADMISSION—LICENSE AND DISBARMENT

Section 93-2001. Who may be admitted as attorneys.

93-2001. (8936) Who may be admitted as attorneys. Any citizen or person, resident of this state, who has bona fide declared his or her intention to become a citizen in the manner required by law, of good moral character, and who possesses the necessary qualifications of learning and ability, is entitled to admission as attorney and counselor in all the courts of this state. All persons are attorneys of the supreme court who are entitled to practice in the supreme court when this code takes effect.

History: Earlier acts relating to admission and powers of attorneys were Secs. 1-15, pp. 370-373, Bannack Stat.; re-en. Secs. 1-15, pp. 375-378, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Secs. 40-54, 5th Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. Secs. 102-116, 5th Div. Comp. Stat. 1887.

This section en. Sec. 390, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 6381, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 8936, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 168, L. 1971. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 275.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment deleted "of the age of twenty-one years" from the first sentence.

93-2002. (8937) Qualifications, examination and admission.

Constitutionality

Grant of diploma privilege to graduates of University of Montana law school while requiring graduates of other accredited schools to take bar examination did not constitute an unconstitutional denial of equal protection of laws. Goetz v. Harrison, 154 M 274, 462 P 2d 891.

Diploma Privilege

Familiarity of supreme court justices with University of Montana law school and its faculty and students justifies continuation of practice of admitting graduates without examination. Goetz v. Harrison, 154 M 274, 462 P 2d 891.

Jurisdiction of District Court

District court had no jurisdiction of an action contesting the validity of this section and seeking restraining order against members of supreme court in their official capacity. Goetz v. Harrison, 153 M 403, 457 P 2d 911.

93-2026. (8961) Disbarment of attorneys—causes—jurisdiction.

Conviction of Crime

Conviction by a jury in a federal court of the offense of devising and intending to devise a scheme to defraud and to obtain money by means of false and fraudulent pretenses warranted attorney's disbarment. In re Gross, — M —, 503 P 2d 995.

Misappropriation

The conduct of an attorney in opening a checking account in the name of an estate of which he had been appointed executor and making withdrawals for his personal use constituted deceit and malpractice involving moral turpitude. In re O'Donnell, 143 M 51, 387 P 2d 303.

Moral Delinquencies in General

Disbarment was justified for attorney who had been previously disciplined by reprimand and who, after having been charged with debauching young girl, represented her procurer in criminal proceedings, represented both parties in procurer's divorce action, represented girl in quashing affidavit after procurer had married her, and represented another defendant charged with raping the girl. In re Keast, — M —, 497 P 2d 103.

Moral Turpitude

Failure of attorney to make return of employees' withholding taxes was offense involving moral turpitude under this section so as to justify indefinite suspension from practice. In re Kline, 156 M 177, 477 P 2d 881.

Even though an act falls short of an offense involving moral turpitude under case law prior to adoption by the supreme court of the canons of professional ethics, it may justify disbarment. Even though an individual act or omission may in and of itself be insufficient grounds for action, repeated violations establishing a pattern of conduct revealing a gross disregard for the highest standards of honesty, justice or morality may and should be grounds for disbarment, suspension, censure or a request for surrender of license to practice law. In re Advisory Opinion to Commission on Practice, 156 M 514, 495 P 2d 1128.

CHAPTER 21—ATTORNEYS—DUTIES—LIABILITIES AND COMPENSATION

93-2102. (8975) Change of attorney.

Death of Client

Attorney was authorized to represent deceased client for whom there was filed a praecipe signed by counsel indicating withdrawal of previous counsel and requesting entry of name of new attorney for deceased even though signed and filed by counsel after death of client. State ex rel. Ross v. District Court, Fourth Judicial Dist., 150 M 233, 433 P 2d 778.

93-2106. (8979) Punishment for willful delay.

Actual Damages

Under this section, only actual damages may be trebled, not the statutory interest due. Daniels v. Paddock, 145 M 207, 399 P 2d 740.

Fiduciary Duty

Where attorney paid off client's mortgage with stipulation to receive client's inheritance when it came due, failure to give money to client under transaction, which was a breach of attorney's fiduciary duty, subjected attorney to treble damages. Daniels v. Paddock, 145 M 207, 399 P 2d 740.

93-2120. (8993) Lien for compensation.

Obligations of Third Parties

Fact that settlement of personal injury claim by attorneys for their client incidentally benefited hospital by creating fund from which its bill for treatment of client could be paid did not create an implied contract by hospital to pay attorneys for their services; neither was hospital obligated to share settlement proceeds on a subrogation theory. Sisters of Charity of Providence of Montana v. Nichols, 157 M 106, 483 P 2d 279.

Priority of Liens

Where settlement in personal injury case was paid in three drafts, lien of attorneys representing injured party attached to all three drafts; since amount of drafts was sufficient to satisfy attorneys' fees in full, previously subordinate hospital lien became the senior outstanding lien against the balance of the settlement proceeds notwithstanding that attorneys did not actually collect their fees; attorneys and injured party could not require payment of a prorata share of attorneys' fees from that portion of settlement proceeds otherwise payable to hospital under its lien rights. Sisters of Charity of Providence of Montana v. Nichols, 157 M 106, 483 P 2d 279.

Unemployment Compensation Cases

This section being in conflict with sections 87-142 and 87-143, relating to unemployment compensation claims, the latter sections, being more specific, should control over this section, which is more general, especially where, in light of the services rendered, the attorney's fees could be considered "necessaries" under section 87-143. McAlear v. Unemployment Compensation Commission, 145 M 458, 405 P 2d 219.

Waiver of Lien

Failure of attorney to deduct expenses incurred in obtaining award in case and his expressed intention that he would collect expenses from future settlements constituted waiver of his lien for expenses. Gross v. Holzworth, 151 M 179, 440 P 2d 765.

CHAPTER 25—LIMITATION OF ACTIONS FOR RECOVERY OF REAL PROPERTY

93-2504. (9015) Seizin within five years, etc.

Public Highway

Public highway was established by prescription on evidence that members of public had used road openly for more than fifty years without ever having obtained permission from owners, that previous owner had considered road a public highway, that road had been maintained by county for some 24 years and that public had never been denied use of road. Kostbade v. Metier, 150 M 139, 432 P 2d 382.

93-2507. (9018) Possession—when presumed, etc.

Public Highway

Where county adversely paved and maintained a highway over the land of a private party for a period of more than ten years, such county acquired an easement by prescription over the land even though the private owner was assessed for and paid taxes on the property during the running of the statutory period. Brannon v. Lewis and Clark County, 143 M 200, 387 P 2d 706.

Use for Less than Statutory Period

Adverse use for less than full statutory period of five years confers no right or interest upon the adverse user, so that there was no consideration for an alleged contract granting an easement over another route. Larson v. Burnett, 158 M 421, 492 P 2d 921.

93-2508. (9019) Occupation under written instrument or judgment, etc.

Tolling of Statute

Statute of limitations did not toll during period when Indian plaintiff was attempting to persuade the United States to bring action against vendee of Indian's land on grounds that sale was fraudulent. Dillon v. Antler Land Co., 341 F Supp 734.

References

Rhodes v. Weigand, 145 M 542, 402 P 2d 588.

93-2509. (9020) What constitutes adverse possession, etc.

Possession under Color of Title

Certificate of assignment given to person paying delinquent taxes on realty did not give that person color of title and did not bring him within ambit of this section. Magelssen v. Atwell, 152 M 409, 451 P 2d 103.

93-2511. (9022) What constitutes adverse possession, etc.

Conflicting Evidence

Finding of district court that adverse possession was not established was affirmed, in light of record disclosing conflicting testimony on question of existence and upkeep of fences and conflicting testimony on question whether and who ran livestock on property during the prescriptive period. Johnson v. Silver Bow County, 151 M 283, 443 P 2d 6.

Necessary Intent

No adverse possession was established where plaintiff did not, by any of actions, show requisite intent to possess adversely, particularly in view of letter in which plaintiff admitted that defendants owned the disputed land. Magelssen v. Atwell, 152 M 409, 451 P 2d 103.

93-2513. (9024) Occupancy and payment of taxes necessary, etc.

Burden of Proof

The burden of proving all the essential elements of adverse possession is upon the party alleging it and he must prove that no taxes were levied or assessed against the land or that he has paid all taxes which were levied thereon. Townsend v. Koukol, 148 M 1, 416 P 2d 532, 536.

Easement

Where the county maintained and paved a highway over the land of a private party for a period of more than ten years, such county acquired an easement by prescription over the land and it was not necessary that the county pay taxes on the property during the statutory period. Brannon v. Lewis and Clark County, 143 M 200, 387 P 2d 706.

Essential Elements

To constitute adverse possession, the possession must be actual, feasible, exclusive, hostile and continuous for the full period of years and the party asserting adverse possession must have paid all the taxes levied and assessed upon the property during the statutory period. Townsend v. Koukol, 148 M 1, 416 P 2d 532, 535, 536.

CHAPTER 26—LIMITATION OF OTHER ACTIONS

Section 93-2612. Actions relating to bond issues, time for bringing.
93-2619. Action for damages arising out of or resulting from construction of improvements to real property—ten years.
93-2620. Exception—injury occurring during tenth year.
93-2621. Responsibility of person in control not affected.
93-2622. Time of completion of improvements to real property.
93-2623. Other limitation periods not extended.
93-2624. Actions for medical malpractice.

93-2603. (9029) Within eight years.

Nonparticipating Oil Royalty

Where wife agreed to property settlement granting her a percentage of royalties should oil ever be found on land, such right did not vest until oil production began and her action for royalties was not barred by the fact that it had been more than eight years since execution of the settlement. Close v. Ruegsegger's Estate, 143 M 32, 386 P 2d 739.

93-2604. (9030) Within five years.

Damage to Building from Broken Water Pipes

This section did not apply to action by owners of apartment building against realtors for water damages to building from bursting of water pipes due to alleged negligence of realtors in caring for the building. The claim was barred by statute of limitations relating to injury to or waste or trespass on property, section 93-2607. Quitmeyer v. Theroux, 144 M 302, 395 P 2d 965, 969, 970. (Dissenting opinion, 144 M 302, 395 P 2d 965, 971.)

Decedents' Estates

Five-year-limitation period under this section did not include time between decedent's death and issuance of letters of administration to defendant. Cartwright v. Joyce, 155 M 478, 473 P 2d 515.

Partial Bar by Statute

Fact that plaintiff had been awarded full judgment for services rendered without regard to limitation period under this section did not require that entire verdict be set aside but only that the judgment be reduced by value of services rendered prior to five year period, since the claim was divisible. Cartwright v. Joyce, 155 M 478, 473 P 2d 515.

References

Hager v. Tandy, 146 M 531, 410 P 2d 447.

93-2605. (9031) Within three years.

Amendment of Complaint

Three-year limitation for tort actions did not preclude amendment of complaint to correct misnomer by which defendant was referred to erroneously as Illinois corporation rather than as Delaware corporation; federal rule was applied in allowing the amendment. Wentz v. Alberto Culver Co., 294 F Supp 1327.

Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies

Cause of action on statutory bond did not accrue until required administrative proceedings were complete and board had made final determination of amount due. Montana Milk Control Board v. Hartford Accident & Indemnity Co., 153 M 299, 456 P 2d 302.

Malpractice

Where sponge had been left in patient's body in operation performed ten years previously, patient's cause of action for malpractice did not accrue until patient learned that such foreign object was in his body. Johnson v. St. Patrick's Hospital, 148 M 125, 417 P 2d 469, 473.

Product Liability

Where plaintiff developed cataracts following use of defendant's drug, there was question of fact as to whether publicity connecting the drug and cataracts was sufficient to put plaintiff on notice as to cause of his cataracts, thus to start the statute running, and motion for summary judgment for defendant, based on statute of limitations, was denied. Hornung v. Richardson-Merrill, Inc., 317 F Supp 183.

Wrongful Death

This section, rather than section 93-2607, applies to an action from wrongful death. Bryant v. Hall, 157 M 28, 482 P 2d 147, overruling Smith v. Wiprud, 154 M 325, 463 P 2d 317.

References

Rhodes v. Weigand, 145 M 542, 402 P 2d 588.

93-2607. (9033) Two-year limitation.

Claim and Delivery

In an action for claim and delivery, where possession by the defendant is rightful, the statute of limitations begins to run when the defendant refuses upon demand to return the property. Interstate Mfg. Co. v. Interstate Products Co., 146 M 449, 408 P 2d 478.

Damage by Fire

Two-year statute of limitations under this section barred suit brought by the United States under section 82-1237 for damage to property caused by alleged negligence of defendants in setting forest fire. United States v. Eytcheson, 237 F Supp 371.

Damage to Building from Broken Water Pipes

Claim of owners of an apartment building against realtors for water damage to building from bursting of water pipes due to alleged negligence of realtors in caring for the building was barred by this section. Statute of limitations concerning implied contracts, section 93-2604, was inapplicable. Quitmeyer v. Theroux, 144 M 302, 395 P 2d 965, 969, 970. (Dissenting opinion, 144 M 302, 395 P 2d 965, 971.)

Fraud and Mistake

An action by administrator of estate of deceased against surviving partners to recover assets which had been transferred by deceased during his last illness was timely filed on July 25, 1960 where fraud was not discovered until December 1, 1958. Marshall v. Minlschmidt, 148 M 263, 419 P 2d 486, 491.

Action to rescind contract for sale of real estate was barred when not brought within two years after discovery of fraud by all parties concerned. Rock v. Birdwell, 149 M 449, 429 P 2d 634.

Quiet title action based on husband's fraud of wife's community property and instituted within two years of discovery of facts constituting fraud was timely even though brought as counterclaim. Rozan v. Rosen, 150 M 121, 431 P 2d 870.

Trial court properly granted defendant's motion for summary judgment in action for fraudulent representation, or in alternative breach of contract, in sale of tractor since plaintiff's having failed to state claim in complaint for breach of contract made tort statute applicable and tort action was barred by this section. Israelson v. Mountain Tractor Co., 155 M 69, 467 P 2d 149.

Where plaintiff developed cataracts following use of defendant's drug, evidence that wide publicity had been given to causal relationship between drug and cataracts did not establish that plaintiff was charged with knowledge of such relationship so as to constitute discovery under subsection 4 of this section. Hornung v. Richardson-Merrill, Inc., 317 F Supp 183.

Injury to Personal Property

An action by an adoptive father and natural grandfather under section 93-2809 is an action for an injury to a pecuniary interest of the parent, therefore one for an injury to a property right which must be commenced within two years from the date the claim arose under subdivision 2 of this section. LaTray v. Mannix Electric Co., 148 M 303, 419 P 2d 744, 745; but see Bryant v. Hall, 157 M 28, 482 P 2d 147.

Injury to Real Property

Where defendant's geophysical exploration injured plaintiff's real property, statute of limitations under subdivision 2 of this section was not tolled by plaintiff's decision to permit defendant to repair the damage with approximately one year remaining under the statute. Carlson v. Ray Geophysical Division, 156 M 450, 481 P 2d 327.

Negligent Misrepresentation

Action for negligent misrepresentation is action for fraud within meaning of statute and is subject to two-year statute of limitations which begins to run when plaintiff acquires knowledge of facts constituting negligent misrepresentation. Falls Sand & Gravel Co. v. Western Concrete, Inc., 270 F Supp 495.

Nuisance

In action for alleged well pollution, trial court erred in not limiting recovery to two years before filing date of complaint since, under circumstances, pollution of ground water by dumping of glue waste was continuing temporary nuisance and this section applied. Nelson v. C & C Plywood Corp., 154 M 414, 465 P 2d 314, 39 ALR 3d 893.

Two year statute of limitation was applicable to continuous and unremitting nuisance; recovery for damage occurring as a result of continuous and unremitting nuisance more than two years prior to the commencement of an action was barred by this section. Lahman v. Rocky Mountain Phosphate Co., — M —, 504 P 2d 271.

Statutory Liability

The cause of action based on a railroad's statutory duty to maintain a cement drop, siphon and wooden flume on its right of way did not accrue on the taking of the right of way nor on the abandonment of the right of way and notice to water rights owners that it would no longer maintain the works, but rather would accrue only after injury occurred from the railroad's failure to maintain the works. Harrer v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 147 M 130, 410 P 2d 713.

Cause of action under federal civil rights statute for improper search accrued at the time of the search, not at the time the search was adjudicated invalid or when criminal prosecution was terminated, so that action brought more than two years after the search was barred by this section. Strung v. Anderson, 452 F 2d 632.

Wrongful Death

Section 93-2605, rather than subdivision 2 of this section, applies to an action for wrongful death. Bryant v. Hall, 157 M 28, 482 P 2d 147, overruling Smith v. Wiprud, 154 M 325, 463 P 2d 317.

93-2612. (9040) Actions relating to bond issues, time for bringing. No action can be brought for the purpose of restraining the issuance and sale of bonds or other obligations by the state of Montana or any school district, county, city, town, or political subdivision of the state, or for the purpose of restraining the levy and collection of taxes for the payment of such bonds or other obligations, after the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date of the election on such bonds or obligations or, if no election was held thereon, after the expiration of sixty (60) days from the date of the order, resolution or ordinance authorizing the issuance thereof, on account of any defect, irregularity, or informality in giving notice of or not holding the election; nor shall any defense based upon any such defect, irregularity, or informality be interposed in any action unless brought within this period. This section applies but is not limited to any action and defense in which the issue is raised whether a voted debt or liability has carried by the required majority vote of the electors qualified and offering to vote thereon.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment completely rewrote this section. For prior text, see parent volume.

93-2613. (9041) Actions for relief not hereinbefore provided for.

93-2619. Action for damages arising out of or resulting from construction of improvements to real property—ten years. Except as provided in sections 2 and 3 [93-2620 and 93-2621] of this act, no action to recover damages (other than an action upon any contract, obligation, or liability, founded upon an instrument in writing) resulting from or arising out of the design, planning, supervision, inspection, construction, or observation of construction of, or land surveying done in connection with, any improvement to real property shall be commenced more than ten (10) years after completion of such improvement.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 60, L. 1971.

Title of Act

An act to provide a period of ten years within which an action for damages arising out of certain services or work on improvements to real property must be commenced; and providing an effective date.

93-2620. Exception—injury occurring during tenth year. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1 [93-2619] of this act, an action for such damages for an injury which occurred during the tenth year after such completion may be commenced within one (1) year after the occurrence of such injury.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 60, L. 1971.

93-2621. Responsibility of person in control not affected. The limitation prescribed by this act shall not affect the responsibility of any owner, tenant, or person in actual possession and control of the improvement at the time a right of action arises.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 60, L. 1971.

93-2622. Time of completion of improvements to real property. As used in this act, the term "completion" means that degree of completion at which the owner can utilize the improvement for the purpose for which it was intended or when a completion certificate is executed, whichever is earlier.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 60, L. 1971.

93-2623. Other limitation periods not extended. Nothing in this act shall be construed as extending the period prescribed by the laws of this state for the bringing of any action.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 60, L. 1971.

Effective Date

Section 6 of Ch. 60, Laws 1971 read "In order to provide a reasonable period for commencement of any action for which a right of action has heretofore accrued, this act shall be effective January 1, 1972."

93-2624. Actions for medical malpractice. Action for injury or death against a physician or surgeon, dentist, registered nurse, nursing home administrator, dispensing optician, optometrist, licensed physical therapist, podiatrist, psychologist, osteopath, chiropractor, clinical laboratory bioanalyst, clinical laboratory technologist, pharmacist, veterinarian, a licensed hospital or long-term care facility as the employer of any such person, based upon such person's alleged professional negligence, or for rendering professional services without consent, or for error or omission in such person's practice, shall be commenced within three (3) years after the date of injury or three (3) years after the plaintiff discovers, or through the use of reasonable diligence should have discovered, the injury whichever occurs last, but in no case may such action be commenced after five (5) years from the date of injury. However, this time limitation shall be tolled for any period during which such person has failed to disclose any act, error, or omission upon which such action is based and which is known to him, or through the use of reasonable diligence subsequent to said act, error or omission would have been known to him.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 328, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 191, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to prescribe the period of limitations in which actions for professional negligence can be commenced.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted "nursing home administrator" and "long-term care facility" in the first sentence.

CHAPTER 27—TIME OF COMMENCEMENT OF ACTIONS—GENERAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING

93-2703. (9049) Exception as to persons under disabilities.

Insanity Tolling Statute

Where plaintiff was insane for approximately five months following personal injuries, statute did not begin to run until he recovered his sanity and action was timely filed when commenced within statutory period after that date. State ex rel. Hi-Ball Contractors, Inc. v. District Court, 154 M 99, 460 P 2d 751.

93-2708. (9054) Provision where judgment has been reversed.

Dismissal of Counterclaim

Quiet title action based on husband's fraud of wife's community property instituted as counterclaim and timely brought under statute of limitations but dismissed on husband's motion may be properly instituted as principal action within one year after involuntary dismissal. Rozan v. Rosen, 150 M 121, 431 P 2d 870.

Neglect to Prosecute

Dismissal under M. R. Civ. P., Rule 41 (e), for failure to have summons issued within one year after commencement of the action is a dismissal for neglect to prosecute within the meaning of this section, and this section does not operate to permit the commencement of a new action after expiration of the statute of limitations. State ex rel. Equity Supply Co. v. District Court, — M —, 494 P 2d 911.

CHAPTER 28—PARTIES TO CIVIL ACTIONS

93-2809. (9075) Parent or guardian may sue for injury, etc.

Limitation of Actions

An action by an adoptive father and natural grandfather under this section is an action for an injury to a pecuniary interest of the parent, therefore one for an injury to a property right which must be commenced within two years from the date the claim arose under section 93-2607(2). LaTray v. Mannix Electric Co., 148 M 303, 419 P 2d 744, 745, but see Bryant v. Hall, 157 M 28, 482 P 2d 147.

Mother Bringing Action

Decedent's mother was real party in interest in wrongful death action where decedent left no surviving wife nor children and his father was dead. Cowan v. Pacific Gamble Robinson Co., 232 F Supp 403, 405.

93-2810. (9067) When representative may sue for death, etc.

Limitation of Actions

An action under this section for wrongful death is governed by the three-year limitation in section 93-2605 rather than by the two-year limitation in section 93-2607. Bryant v. Hall, 157 M 28, 482 P 2d 147, overruling Smith v. Wiprud, 154 M 325, 463 P 2d 317.

References

Stiles v. Gove, 345 F 2d 991, 992.

93-2823. (9085) Tenants in common, etc., may sever in bringing, etc.

Assignor Bringing Action

Assignee of one-half interest of an overriding royalty agreement with plaintiff-assignor and defendant could not be joined as a party plaintiff in a suit to compel defendant to pay the other half interest to plaintiff whether assignor was a trustee for the assignee or they were tenants in common. Lowe & Lynn v. Flank Oil Co., 144 M 499, 398 P 2d 608.

93-2824. (9086) Action—when not to abate by death, marriage, etc.

Loss of Earnings

Where, in survivorship action under this section, jury returned verdict based only upon personal property belonging to decedent destroyed in accident, and awarded no damages for loss of earning capacity, district court did not abuse its discretion in granting new trial on damages only, since jury could not "disregard uncontradicted, credible nonopinion evidence" establishing decedent's earning capacity. Putman v. Pollei, 153 M 406, 457 P 2d 776.

Personal Injuries Action

Suit for personal injuries filed by decedent prior to his death survived in favor of administratrix of his estate. Pickett v. Kyger, 151 M 87, 439 P 2d 57.

Wrongful Death Action

Where defendant's negligence caused a boat collision, injured decedent but not seriously enough to cause death, and knocked him into the water where he drowned, there must have been an appreciable time between the collision and death, so that decedent had a cause of action for his injuries which survived. Stephens v. Brown, — M —, 503 P 2d 667.

Decedent's mother was real party in interest in wrongful death action where decedent left no surviving wife nor children and his father was dead. Cowan v. Pacific Gamble Robinson Co., 232 F Supp 403, 405.

CHAPTER 29—PLACE OF TRIAL OF CIVIL ACTIONS

Section 93-2906. Place of trial may be changed in certain cases.
93-2908. Papers to be transmitted—costs and fees—jurisdiction.

93-2901. (9093) Certain actions to be tried where the subject, etc.

93-2902. (9094) Other actions—where the cause, etc.

Governor

Complaint that governor's executive order establishing multi-county planning districts was inconsistent with legislative resolution stated a cause of action arising in the county of the governor's official residence, and venue should have been changed to Lewis and Clark county. Guildroy v. Anderson, — M —, 497 P 2d 688.

Action by County against Nonresident

This section does not require a change of venue where a county brings action against a nonresident in the district court of that county. Carter County v. Cambrian Corp., 143 M 193, 387 P 2d 904.

References

Tassie v. Continental Oil Co., 228 F Supp 807, 808.

93-2904. (9096) Other actions, according to the residence, etc.

Burden of Proof

In contract action, once defendant showed that his place of residence was other than where suit was brought, the burden of proof was on the plaintiff to meet the motion for change of venue. Rapp v. Graham, 145 M 371, 401 P 2d 579.

Change of Venue

Although express terms of construction loan agreement between borrowers residing in Lewis and Clark County and lender in Cascade County did not designate place of performance of the contract, district court of Lewis and Clark County properly denied motion of lender for change of venue of action for breach of the contract, where borrowers' affidavit in opposition to the motion showed that the contract was to be performed in Lewis and Clark County, the loan agreement, note and mortgage being executed in Lewis and Clark County for home to be built in that county and inspection, supervision and completion of the home were to take place in Lewis and Clark County where all bills were to be paid. Brown v. First Federal Savings & Loan Assn. of Great Falls, 144 M 149, 394 P 2d 1017, 1019.

Denial of defendant's motion for change of venue to place where he resided was improper, since, where plaintiff-relator did not plead the commission agreement itself, nor include it as an exhibit, there was no way of considering the venue matter except on the residence of the defendant. Rapp v. Graham, 145 M 371, 401 P 2d 579.

The provisions of this section are permissive only and where five separate actions were brought in four widely separated counties against the same defendant involving the same accident, court did not abuse its discretion in granting change of venue under section 93-2906, subdivision 3, to the place where the tort occurred, for the convenience of the witnesses. Putro v. Mannix Electric, Inc., 147 M 314, 412 P 2d 410.

Under statute providing that on proper motion court must change place of trial when convenience of witnesses and ends of justice would be promoted and under further statute requiring action to be tried in county in which defendants reside at commencement of action, defendants were entitled to have action moved to county upon which all agreed, which was residence of one defendant, which was place insurance contract was entered into, which was where tort occurred and which was most convenient for defendants and their witnesses. Truck Ins. Exchange v. National Farmers Union Property & Cas. Co., 149 M 387, 427 P 2d 50.

Construction

Statutory provisions creating exceptions to the general rule recognizing a defendant's privilege to be sued in his own county will not be given a strained or doubtful construction. Rapp v. Graham, 145 M 371, 401 P 2d 579.

Foreign Corporations

A foreign corporation does not acquire residence for venue purposes in a particular county by appointing a resident of that county as its agent for service of process, and it may be sued in any county. Foley v. General Motors Corp., — M —, 499 P 2d 774.

Performance of Contract

In an action for breach of an oral agreement to lease farm land, venue was in the county where the estate of one of the defendants was being probated, in which the other defendants resided, in which the land was located, and in which service was made and the creditor's claim filed. Erickson v. Toy, 142 M 121, 385 P 2d 268.

If contract is to be performed in a county other than the county of defendant's residence, then the plaintiff has his choice of the two counties in which to sue. He may sue in the county where defendant resides or in the county where the contract is to be performed. The provisions of this section are permissive. Brown v. First Federal Savings & Loan Assn. of Great Falls, 144 M 149, 394 P 2d 1017, 1019.

In order for plaintiff to maintain action on contract in a county where defendant does not reside, the place of performance must be evident either by express terms of contract, or by necessary implication that a county other than that of defendant's residence is intended to be the county of performance. Brown v. First Federal Savings & Loan Assn. of Great Falls, 144 M 149, 394 P 2d 1017, 1019.

To maintain suit in county other than that of defendant's residence, plaintiff must show clearly the facts relied on to bring the case within one of the exceptions to the rule. The contract must state clearly that it is to be performed in county other than that of defendant's residence so that no other fair construction can be placed upon it. Rapp v. Graham, 145 M 371, 401 P 2d 579.

In bringing suit where contract is to be performed, rather than place of defendant's residence, a mere direction by the seller as to the place of payment is not sufficient to maintain venue within exception to this section, nor can a promise to remit to cover the purchase price be sued upon by the seller in the county of the point to which the remittance is to be made. Rapp v. Graham, 145 M 371, 401 P 2d 579.

In suit against seller for breach of express warranty against diseased cattle, buyer properly exercised option in initiating suit in county where cattle were delivered as county where contract was to be performed. Neely v. Steinbach, 149 M 119, 423 P 2d 584.

Contract clause expressly requiring defendant to perform by making payments in county other than defendant's county of residence came within performance exception in statute thereby entitling plaintiff to institute action on contract in county in which payments were to be made. McGregor v. Svare, 151 M 520, 445 P 2d 571.

In action on account for grazing rentals on lands owned or controlled by plaintiff, trial court erred in granting motion for change of venue where action was predicated upon contract to be performed in county where action was brought. Cormier Bros., Inc. v. Willcutt, 154 M 297, 462 P 2d 889.

"Place of performance" rule regarding venue in contract actions was inapplicable in action based on implied contract that did not sepcify place of payment; change of venue to county where defendants resided was proper. Bick v. Haidle, 156 M 350, 480 P 2d 818.

Tort Actions

Attorney's advice to a client that a personal injury action had to be filed in the county where the cause arose was not improper or unethical. Petition of Wasson, 143 M 323, 389 P 2d 406.

Although either the county of residence of defendant or county where tort was committed was proper county in which to bring action for personal injury arising from accident, where none of the defendants were residents of Montana, the action was triable in any county designated by plaintiff in his complaint. Tassie v. Continental Oil Co., 228 F Supp 807, 809.

Defendant is not entitled to a change of venue in personal injury action where plaintiff filed the action in the proper county. Tassie v. Continental Oil Co., 228 F Supp 807, 809.

Where personal injury action arising from accident occurring in Fallon County, Montana, was commenced in Silver Bow County, Montana, by nonresident plaintiff, and nonresident defendants in removing action to federal district court designated Billings Division, but stated no statutory grounds for change of venue and did not show good cause for assignment to Billings Division, plaintiff was entitled to change of venue to Butte Division in which Silver Bow County was located. Tassie v. Continental Oil Co., 228 F Supp 807, 810.

93-2906. (9098) Place of trial may be changed in certain cases. The court or judge must, on motion, change the place of trial in the following cases:

1. to 3. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

4. When the judge is disqualified from acting for any cause; but no change of the place of trial shall be made if:

(a) the parties agree in writing upon another district judge, or member of the bar as judge pro tempore, or

(b) any qualified district judge is called in, and within thirty (30) days after the motion is made, appears and assumes jurisdiction of the cause and of all matters and proceedings therein.

If the judge so appears he shall be vested with, and shall exercise, all the authority of the judge of the district in which the action or proceeding may be pending.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment rewrote and rearranged the language of subdivision (4) for clarity, but without change in substance.

Change of Venue

Under statute providing that on proper motion the court must change place of trial when convenience of witnesses and ends of justice would be promoted and under further statute requiring action to be tried in county in which defendants reside at commencement of action, defendants were entitled to have action moved to county upon which all agreed, which was residence of one defendant, which was place insurance contract was entered into, which was where tort occurred and which was most convenient for defendants and their witnesses. Truck Ins. Exchange v. National Farmers Union Property & Cas. Co., 149 M 387, 427 P 2d 50.

Convenience of Witnesses

Where affidavit showed that five separate actions had been brought against defendant in four widely separated counties involving the same occurrence, trial court properly granted change of venue for the convenience of the witnesses to the county where accident occurred although affidavit omitted names of witnesses and nature of their testimony.

Putro v. Mannix Electric, Inc., 147 M 314, 412 P 2d 410.

County Taxpayers as Jurors

Where county brought an action for damages done to bridge struck by defendant's truck, it was not an abuse of discretion for the district court to deny a motion for a change of venue even though the jury was made up, necessarily, of taxpayers of that county, each of whom had a pecuniary interest of $31. Carter County v. Cambrian Corp., 143 M 193, 387 P 2d 904.

Multiple Causes of Action

Where the defendant is entitled to a change of venue on one cause of action in a complaint containing more than one cause of action, the motion for change must be granted even though the other cause or causes would be triable where the plaintiff commenced the action. Beavers v. Rankin, 142 M 570, 385 P 2d 640.

Multiple Defendants

Even after dismissal from an action on tort arising outside the state of the only defendants residing in the county where the action was brought, the remaining defendants were not entitled to have the venue changed to the county of their residence so long as the plaintiff reasonably believed in good faith, when he brought the action, that he had a cause of action against the defendants resident in the county where brought. Boucher v. Steffes, — M —, 503 P 2d 659.

Time for Motion

Court's discretion in granting change of venue under subdivision 3 of this section cannot be exercised until after a defendant has answered, so that where action was brought under section 93-2904 in county where co-defendant lived, denial of first motion before defendant had answered applied only to the residency requirement of the co-defendant and did not bar determination of second motion made under this section after defendant had answered. Putro v. Mannix Electric, Inc., 147 M 314, 412 P 2d 410.

93-2908. (9100) Papers to be transmitted—costs and fees—jurisdiction. When an order is made transferring an action or proceeding for trial, the clerk of the court, or justice of the peace, must transmit the pleading and papers therein to the clerk or justice of the court to which it is transferred. The costs and fees thereof, and of filing the papers anew, must be paid by the party at whose instance the order was made, except that: (1) when the action is an action upon a contract, express or implied, for the direct payment of money, and no claim contained in the complaint exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000); (2) the county designated in the complaint is not the proper county; and (3) if the plaintiff will not within ten (10) days after request stipulate for change of venue and defendant files a motion for such change and such motion is thereafter granted; then the party filing the complaint must pay all costs and fees of filing the papers anew and all costs and fees, including reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the court incurred by the defendant by reason of the change of venue motion and hearing. The court to which an action or proceeding is transferred has and exercises over the same the like jurisdiction as if it had been originally commenced therein.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added to the second sentence the language requiring payment of costs and fees by the party filing the complaint in the instances described in the numbered clauses.

93-4104. (9223) Undertaking and duty of sheriff.

Constitutionality

Replevin provisions which authorized state agents to seize property in possession of another person upon application of claimant and subsequent posting of bond prior to a hearing to determine parties' rights to possession are invalid as they work a deprivation of property without due process of law by denying an opportunity to be heard before chattels are taken from the possessor. Fuentes v. Shevin, 407 US 67, 32 L Ed 2d 556, 92 S Ct 1983.

CHAPTER 42—INJUNCTION

Section 93-4215. Injunction against price fixing.
93-4216. Injunction may issue without bond.

93-4203. (9242) Injuncton—when not allowed.

Discretionary Appointment

Taxpayer was not entitled to an injunction in action questioning the qualifications of supervisor appointed by board of railway commissioners in the proper exercise of their discretion. Steel v. Board of Railroad Commrs., 144 M 432, 397 P 2d 101.

Enforcement of Public Statute

County commissioners and assessor cannot be enjoined from relying on reclassification officer's real property evaluations to determine tax assessment rolls. State ex rel. Keast v. Krieg, 145 M 521, 402 P 2d 405, 19 ALR 3d 396.

District court acted beyond its jurisdiction by issuing injunction to prevent board of equalization from revising grading and valuation of nonirrigated farm land pursuant to section 84-429.7 et seq. State ex rel. Lord v. District Court, 154 M 269, 463 P 2d 323.

93-4204. (9343) Injunction order—when granted.

Real Estate Cases

An order enjoining landowner from proceeding with mobile home subdivision on his land until zoning regulations were adopted was improper because it was impossible to predict whether landowner's plans would conflict with zoning regulations finally adopted. State ex rel. Corning v. District Court of 18th Judicial District, 156 M 81, 474 P 2d 701.

93-4205. (9244) Injunction order, etc.

Injunction Granted after Hearing

93-4215. (9254) Injunction against price fixing. Whenever any action, either civil or criminal, shall have been instituted in court in this state against any person or persons, corporation or corporations, foreign or domestic, for price fixing or regulating the production of any article of commerce or of the product of the soil, for consumption by the people, the court in which such action is pending, if it be a court of record, or if not, then any court of record in this state, shall be and it is hereby authorized to issue an injunction to restrain any such person or persons, corporation or corporations, foreign or domestic, from doing business in this state pending the final determination of said action so instituted.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 93, L. 1905; re-en. Sec. 6654, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9254, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 56, Ch. 100, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "for price fixing or regulating the production of any article of commerce or of the product of the soil, for consumption by the people" for "for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of section 20 of article XV of the constitution of the state of Montana, or any law or laws enacted pursuant to or for carrying out the same"; and deleted "in violation of said section of the constitution, or in violation of any law or laws enacted pursuant to or for the purpose of enforcing said section of the constitution" after "doing business in this state" near the end of the section.

93-4216. (9255) Injunction may issue without bond. Said injunction shall issue as in cases of equity, without bond, upon the application of the county attorney of the county in which such action is pending, or upon the application of the attorney general, in the name of the state of Montana, upon a prima facie showing that an action, civil or criminal, has been so instituted and is so pending, charging such person or persons, corporation or corporations, foreign or domestic, with such violation.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 93, L. 1905; re-en. Sec. 6655, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9255, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 57, Ch. 100, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "such violation" at the end of the section for "a violation of said section of the constitution, or of any law or laws enacted thereunder."

Repealing Clause

Section 58 of Ch. 100, Laws 1973 read "Sections 3-101.1, 4-348, 16-405, 16-2407, 23-2701.1, 41-1609, 75-6410.1, 84-211 and 84-707, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

CHAPTER 43—ATTACHMENT

Section 93-4304. Undertaking.
93-4331.1. Release of attachment by clerk where no proceedings taken in main action.

93-4304. (9259) Undertaking. Before issuing the writ, the clerk must require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff, with two (2) or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk, in a sum not less than double the amount claimed by the plaintiff, if such amount be one thousand dollars ($1,000) or under, or, in case the amount so claimed by plaintiff shall exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), then in a sum equal to such amount, but in no case shall an undertaking be required exceeding in amount the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000). The condition of such undertaking shall be to the effect that if the defendant recovered judgment, or if the court shall finally decide that the plaintiff was not entitled to an attachment, the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages he may sustain by reason of the issuing out of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking. At any time within thirty (30) days after the service of summons, the defendant may except to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fails to do so, he is deemed to have waived all objections to them. When excepted to, the plaintiff's sureties, upon notice to the defendant of not less than two (2) days nor more than ten (10) days, must justify before a judge of the district court, or before the clerk thereof, and upon failure to justify, or if others in their place fail to justify, at the time and place appointed, the clerk or judge shall issue an order vacating the writ of attachment.

93-4331.1. Release of attachment by clerk where no proceedings taken in main action. If a writ of attachment has been levied on real property as provided in section 93-4307, R. C. M. 1947, and no proceedings have been taken in the action in which the attachment was issued for a period of five years, the clerk of court shall upon application of the defendant or the record owner of such real property issue a release of the attachment and a copy of such release shall be filed with the county clerk where the writ of attachment and notice thereof is filed and the county clerk shall file and index such release as any other releases of attachment.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 97, L. 1965.

Title of Act

An act providing that a lien of attachment on real property may be released by the clerk of court where no action has been taken to foreclose such lien for a period of five years.

93-4335. (9288) Different attachments—when liens accrue.

Conflicting Attachments

Since, for purposes of garnishment, a debt has no fixed situs but may be reached in any jurisdiction where the person found owing it can be located, Wyoming court was bound to give full faith and credit to Montana court in determining which garnishor had prior claim where writs of attachment had been issued by different parties on the same garnishee in both states. Repeal

CHAPTER 44—RECEIVERS

Section 93-4401. Appointment of receiver.

93-4401. (9301) Appointment of receiver. A receiver may be appointed by the court in which an action is pending, or by the judge thereof:

1. to 4. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

5. In all other cases where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of courts of equity.

Civ. Proc. Sec. 564.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment deleted subdivision 5 and redesignated former subdivision 6 as subdivision 5.

Debt as Basis for Appointment

Where bank held stock as security on loans made by farming corporation, but it appeared that stockholders were, in good faith, planning to meet their obligation and the corporation was solvent, appointment of receiver at instance of bank merely to protect the price of the stock was erroneous. State ex rel. Larry C. Iverson, Inc. v. District Court, 146 M 362, 406 P 2d 828.

Extraordinary Remedy

Appointment of a receiver being a "drastic" remedy, which deprives the lawful owner of property the right to manage and control his own interests, the power to appoint a receiver should be exercised sparingly only upon a strong showing, and not as of course. If the desired outcome may be achieved in any other way, then this course should be followed. State ex rel. Larry C. Iverson, Inc. v. District Court, 146 M 362, 406 P 2d 828.

CHAPTER 49—ISSUES—MODE OF TRIAL AND POSTPONEMENT—PROCEDURE TO PROCURE JURY TRIAL

93-4910. (9332) Motion to postpone a trial, etc.

Criminal Cases

Court did not commit prejudicial error when it overruled criminal defendant's objection to county attorney's motion for continuance even though motion was not supported by required affidavit where motion was made just prior to end of trial court's day and trial resumed promptly on next morning. State v. Crockett, 148 M 402, 421 P 2d 722.

CHAPTER 50—TRIAL BY JURY—FORMATION OF JURY—CHALLENGES

Section 93-5010. Challenge.

93-5008. (9341) Ballots—when drawn from box No. 3.

Compiler's Notes

Section 93-1506 referred to in the first sentence, was repealed by Sec. 4, Ch. 110, Laws of 1969.

93-5010. (9343) Challenge. Each party may challenge the jury or jurors as follows:

1. to 3. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

There can be only one challenge on a side to the array or panel, which may be made by one or more of the parties. A challenge to the array or panel may be made and the whole array or panel set aside by the court, when the jury was not selected, drawn, summoned or notified as prescribed by law. Challenges to individual jurors are for cause or peremptory. Each party is entitled to four peremptory challenges, except as provided for under section 93-1205. If no peremptory challenges are taken until the panel is full, they must be taken by the parties alternately, commencing with the plaintiff.

Civ. Proc. Sec. 301.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added the exception to the fourth sentence of the second paragraph; and made a minor change in punctuation.

93-5011. (9344) Challenges for cause.

Taxpayers of Plaintiff County

Where county brought an action for damages to bridge, it was not an abuse of discretion for the district court to deny a motion for a change of venue even though the jury was necessarily made up of taxpayers of that county each of whom had a pecuniary interest averaging $31. Carter County v. Cambrian Corp., 143 M 193, 387 P 2d 904.

CHAPTER 51—TRIAL—CONDUCT OF THE TRIAL

93-5101. (9349) Order of trial.

Instructions to Jury

Plaintiff gave implied consent and waived objection by actively participating without objection in proceedings wherein trial court gave oral answer to question asked by the jury and orally confirmed the correctness of other instructions orally stated by counsel. Seder v. Peter Kiewit Sons' Co., 156 M 322, 479 P 2d 448.

93-5102. (9350) View by jury of the premises.

Discretion of Trial Court

A viewing is within the discretion of the trial court, even where there has been a change in the condition of the scene of the accident or the thing which contributed to the accident. Clark v. Worrall, 146 M 374, 406 P 2d 822.

Time of Viewing

Where alterations to defendant's bowling alley had little relationship to the cause of the accident, it was not an abuse of discretion to allow the jury to view the premises on which the accident occurred after the alterations had been made. Clark v. Worrall, 146 M 374, 406 P 2d 822.

References

Wolfe v. Northern Pacific R. Co., 147 M 29, 409 P 2d 528.

93-5104. (9352) Jury may take with them certain papers.

Subsequent Request by Jury

Trial court did not err in permitting state's exhibits, consisting of photographs of scene of accident, to be taken to jury room when asked for by jury about one hour after it began deliberation. State v. Medicine Bull, 152 M 34, 445 P 2d 916.

93-5105. (9353) Deliberation of jury—how conducted.

Misconduct of Jury

When the jury retires to the jury room it should be concerned only with the evidence and the law; the verdict, thus, is a result of a fair expression of opinion by all the jurors. Schmoyer v. Bourdeau, 148 M 340, 420 P 2d 316, 317.

Trial court did not err in denying plaintiff's motion for a new trial, on the ground of misconduct of jury during its deliberations, supported by affidavits of four jurors indicating that the irregularity was not on a material matter in dispute, where plaintiff was probably not prejudiced by juror's misconduct in improperly referring to prior litigation in which plaintiff had been involved, the poll of the jury showing an eight to four verdict for the plaintiff. Schmoyer v. Bourdeau, 148 M 340, 420 P 2d 316, 317.

93-5106. (9354) May come into court for further instructions.

Brought into Court

Although this section provides that the jury may request that they be brought into court, this is not mandatory and the jury may send an inquiry out to the court. State ex rel. State Highway Commission v. Wheeler, 148 M 246, 419 P 2d 492, 498.

Oral Instructions

Plaintiff gave implied consent and waived objection by failure to object and by active participation in proceedings wherein trial court, without the presence of a stenographer, gave oral answer to question asked by the jury and orally confirmed the correctness of other instructions orally requested by counsel. Seder v. Peter Kiewit Sons' Co., 156 M 322, 479 P 2d 448.

93-5110. (9358) Verdict—how declared—form of—polling the jury.

Poll of Jury

Court abused discretion in granting new trial based solely on ground that it had erred in refusing to grant request for poll of jury; error, if any, was harmless in light of evidence affirmatively showing that verdict was rendered in open court in presence of all counsel, that, in response to question by judge, foreman of jury advised him they had agreed upon verdict and that, following reading of verdict, judge inquired if it was true verdict of at least eight of them and jury answered in affirmative. Martello v. Darlow, 151 M 232, 441 P 2d 175.

CHAPTER 52—THE VERDICT—GENERAL AND SPECIAL—DIRECTED WHEN

93-5205. (9364) Directed verdict—when.

Evidence Supporting Directed Verdict

Denial of motion for directed verdict by lessor of destroyed building being sued by lessee claiming that premises were repairable was cause for reversal where, viewing evidence most favorable to plaintiff lessee and considering as proven everything which evidence tended to prove, reasonable man could come to no other conclusion but that building was destroyed. Solich v. Hale, 150 M 358, 435 P 2d 883.

In negligence suit, defendant was entitled to directed verdict where only evidence attempting to establish proximate causal connection between breach of duty and plaintiff's injuries and damages were reports of persons not present at trial, which were private documents and not part of a case file of attending physicians. Pickett v. Kyger, 151 M 87, 439 P 2d 57, distinguished in 157 M 277, 285, 485 P 2d 54.

Inferences from Evidence

In passing on a motion for a directed verdict the court will consider the evidence in the light most favorable to the party against whom the motion is directed and will draw every reasonable inference from such evidence. Parini v. Lanch, 148 M 188, 418 P 2d 861, 863.

Insufficient Evidence

A directed verdict may be granted when the evidence is so insufficient in fact as to be insufficient in law. Parini v. Lanch, 148 M 188, 418 P 2d 861, 863.

Motion by Both Parties

Owner of building destroyed by gas explosion was entitled to directed verdict against general contractor who was clearly liable on evidence, but not against gas company who should have been granted its motion for directed verdict on record unequivocally demonstrating that gas company took every reasonable precaution to protect customers as required by law. Bridges v. Moritz, 149 M 273, 425 P 2d 721.

Negligence

Directed verdict on liability of defendant for injuries sustained by plaintiff, when defendant's car struck mare which was being led by rope attached to saddle on gelding upon which plaintiff was riding, was proper where negligence of defendant was shown by evidence that defendant had been drinking; that he was driving the car at 30-35 mph while passengers were hunting gophers beside the road; that defendant was not aware of the mare which he struck until the collision was inevitable; and that he failed to stop after realizing that he had struck horse in violation of section 32-1202. Parini v. Lanch, 148 M 188, 418 P 2d 861, 864.

Questions of Fact

A jury question is presented only when reasonable men might differ as to the conclusions of fact to be drawn from the evidence, viewed in the light most favorable to the party against whom the motion is made. Parini v. Lanch, 148 M 188, 418 P 2d 861, 863.

Directed verdict upholding contested will was improper where, under the evidence, reasonable and fair-minded men might have reached the conclusion that the will was invalid due to fraud, undue influence or lack of testamentary capacity. Estate of Hall v. Milkovich, 158 M 438, 492 P 2d 1388.

Review of Order Directing Verdict

In reviewing an order directing a verdict for the defendant, the supreme court would consider only the evidence of the plaintiff, excluding a bare scintilla but including every fair inference which might be drawn from the facts proved, as well as any evidence introduced by defendant which tended to support the plaintiff's case, and if the evidence viewed in the most favorable light tended to establish the case made by plaintiff's pleadings, the order would be reversed. McIntosh v. Linder-Kind Lumber Co., 144 M 1, 393 P 2d 782.

CHAPTER 56—NEW TRIALS—GROUNDS AND MOTIONS FOR—RECORD ON APPEAL FROM FINAL JUDGMENT

93-5601. (9395) New trial defined.

Parties Restored to Original Position

The granting of a motion for a new trial restores the parties to the positions they occupied before the trial and the action is commenced anew with the parties limited to their original pleadings but unbound by previous evidence and testimony except as held by existing rules of evidence. Waite v. Waite, 143 M 248, 389 P 2d 181.

93-5602. (9396) New trial in equity cases.

Irregularity in Proceedings

In an action for specific performance where plaintiff who had no knowledge of law or procedure acted as his own counsel and, though he received some assistance from the trial judge, many errors in the proceedings were shown in the record, it was within the discretion of the judge to grant defendant's motion for a new trial. Waite v. Waite, 143 M 248, 389 P 2d 181.

93-5603. (9397) When a new trial may be granted.

Abuse of Discretion

Aggrieved party has burden of proving that district court manifestly abused its discretion by granting new trial; prima facie case of manifest abuse of discretion may be made by discrediting grounds specified for granting new trial or showing that existing error did not materially affect substantial rights of moving party. Tigh v. College Park Realty Co., 149 M 358, 427 P 2d 57.

Where jury's verdict was based on conflicting and probably false testimony, refusal of new trial by trial court was sufficient abuse of discretion to require supreme court to reverse lower court and order new trial. Morris v. Corcoran Pulpwood Co., 154 M 468, 465 P 2d 827.

Appellate Review

In condemnation proceeding, where state appraised land at $18,000, condemnee appraised it at $95,000 and jury awarded condemnee $21,000, granting of new trial because award was inadequate was not such an abuse of trial judge's discretion as to warrant reversal in spite of fact that there was no rebuttal of state's only expert witness. State Highway Commission v. Greenfield, 145 M 164, 399 P 2d 989.

Inadequate Damages

The trial court had no power in a condemnation case to condition its denial of a new trial on acceptance by the highway commission of a higher award. State Highway Commission v. Schmidt, 143 M 505, 391 P 2d 692.

Court abused its discretion in granting new trial upon grounds of insufficiency of evidence to justify verdict in that "verdict awarded by the jury to the plaintiff is wholly inadequate" where there was conflict in evidence and where it was question for jury whether injuries suffered by passenger were caused by grossly negligent operation of car or whether passenger assumed risk of going into car driven by man who had several drinks. Heen v. Tiddy, 151 M 265, 442 P 2d 434.

Granting of new trial on ground that award of $4,000 was inadequate damages for death of high school sophomore whose funeral expenses were $1,605 was an abuse of discretion under the circumstances, including fact that plaintiff father received no earnings from son and gave no indication of need. Davis v. Smith, 152 M 170, 448 P 2d 133.

Instructions to Jury

Long form quotient verdict instruction from Jury Instruction Guide is not "a resort to the determination of chance" within meaning of statute in absence of showing that jurors agreed in advance that quotient thus obtained should constitute amount of verdict and adhered to that agreement. Thomas v. Whiteside, 148 M 394, 421 P 2d 449.

Where trial court erred in its instruction on assumption of risk in pedestrian injury case, trial court did not abuse its discretion by granting new trial pursuant to this section. Jankovich v. Neill, 153 M 337, 457 P 2d 475.

Jury Misconduct

In a condemnation proceeding, affidavits from jurors showing that a newspaper cartoon having to do with condemnation cases in general had been viewed by some members of the jury during the trial could not be used to support the motion for a new trial in the absence of a showing that the verdict was reached in a manner other than by a fair expression of opinion by the jurors. State Highway Commission v. Manry, 143 M 382, 390 P 2d 97, distinguished in Goff v. Kinzle, 148 M 61, 417 P 2d 105, and in Rasmussen v. Sibert, 153 M 286, 456 P 2d 835.

New trial was properly granted where foreman of jury made his own investigation at the scene of the accident after hearing testimony and informed the other members of jury, during their deliberation, of the results of his investigation. The foreman was guilty of misconduct upon which verdict could be impeached by affidavits of jurors. Goff v. Kinzle, 148 M 61, 417 P 2d 105, distinguished in Rasmussen v. Sibert, 153 M 286, 456 P 2d 835.

Trial court did not err in denying plaintiff's motion for a new trial, on the ground of misconduct of the jury during its deliberations, supported by affidavits of four jurors indicating that the irregularity was not on a material matter in dispute, where plaintiff was probably not prejudiced by juror's misconduct in improperly referring to prior litigation in which plaintiff had been involved, the poll of the jury showing an eight to four verdict for the plaintiff. Schmoyer v. Bourdeau, 148 M 340, 420 P 2d 316, 317.

Trial court's granting of new trial on grounds of jury misconduct was reversible error where such motion was made under subd. 1 of this section and supported by jury affidavits, since use of jury affidavits under this section is confined to motions made under subd. 2. Rasmussen v. Sibert, 153 M 286, 456 P 2d 835.

Polling Jury

Court abused discretion in granting new trial based solely on ground that it had erred in refusing request for poll of jury; error, if any, was harmless in light of evidence affirmatively showing that verdict was rendered in open court in presence of all counsel, that in response to question by judge, foreman of jury advised him they had agreed upon verdict and that following reading of verdict, signed by foreman, judge inquired of jury if it was true verdict of at least eight of them and jury answered in affirmative. Martello v. Darlow, 151 M 232, 441 P 2d 175.

Substantial Evidence

Although new trial for insufficiency of evidence is discretionary with trial court and will not be disturbed except for abuse, the discretion is exhausted when court finds substantial evidence to support verdict; evidence from which it could be found that drive-in restaurant owner had no reasonable cause to anticipate "spur of the moment" unprovoked assault upon patron supported verdict for owner in action for injuries, so that granting of new trial was abuse of discretion. Kincheloe v. Rygg, 152 M 187, 448 P 2d 140.

Supersession

This section (Ap. p. Sec. 203, p. 174, L. 1867; Sec. 1, Ch. 36, L. 1921; Sec. 1, Ch. 146, L. 1925), relating to the contents and filing of judgment roll, is superseded by M. R. App. Civ. P., Rules 9, 10 and 25.

93-5708. (9410) Judgment lien—when it begins and when it expires. Immediately after the entry of the judgment in the judgment book, the clerk must make the proper entries of the judgment, under appropriate heads, in the docket kept by him; and from the time the judgment is docketed it becomes a lien upon all real property of the judgment debtor not exempt from execution in the county, owned by him at the time, or which he may afterward acquire, until the lien ceases. The lien continues for six years, unless the judgment be previously satisfied.

Ord. 11020, eff. January 1, 1966. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 671.

Advisory Committee's Note

Subdivision (b) of Rule 41, M. R. App. Civ. P., eliminates the reference in section 93-5708 to judgment rolls, which are nowhere provided for in Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment substituted "the entry of the judgment in the judgment book" for "after filing the judgment roll" near the beginning of the section.

93-5710.1. Judgment or decree recorded before 1965 as notice of contents—certified copies as evidence. Any judgment or decree of any court of this state affecting real property, provided that no action is now pending to set aside any such judgment or decree, which was, previous to the date this act takes effect, copied into the proper book, kept in the office of the clerk of the district court, and certified copy of which judgment or decree was, previous to the date this act takes effect, recorded in the proper book, kept in the office of the county clerk and recorder, shall be deemed to impart, after that date, notice of its contents to subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers, notwithstanding any defect, omission, informality or irregularity in any of the court proceedings in the action in which such judgment or decree was entered and obtained, if time for appeal in the case has expired, and such judgment or decree shall not be deemed invalidated by reason of any such defect, omission, informality or irregularity; but nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the rights of purchasers or encumbrancers previous to that date. Duly certified copies of such judgment or decree, or of the record thereof, may be read in evidence, with like effect as copies of a judgment or decree duly and regularly obtained and recorded and entered.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 124, L. 1965.

Title of Act

An act to validate records of court proceedings containing defects, omissions, informalities or irregularities in obtaining a judgment or decree affecting real property, in which time for appeal has expired; providing that duly certified copies of such judgment or decree may be read in evidence with the same effect as judgments or decrees duly and regularly obtained, recorded and entered; and providing for a repealing clause.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 124, Laws 1965 repealed all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

93-5710.2. Judgment or decree recorded before 1967 as notice of contents—certified copies as evidence. Any judgment or decree of any court of this state affecting real property, provided that no action is now pending to set aside any such judgment or decree, which was, prior to January 1, 1967, copied into the proper book, kept in the office of the clerk of the district court, and certified copy of which judgment or decree was, previous to the date this act takes effect, recorded in the proper book, kept in the office of the county clerk and recorder, shall be deemed to impart, after that date, notice of its contents to subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers, notwithstanding any defect, omission, informality or irregularity in any of the court proceedings in the action in which such judgment or decree was entered and obtained, if time for appeal in the case has expired, and such judgment or decree shall not be deemed invalidated by reason of any such defect, omission, informality or irregularity; but nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the rights of purchasers or encumbrancers previous to that date. Duly certified copies of such judgment or decree, or of the record thereof, may be read in evidence, with like effect as copies of a judgment or decree duly and regularly obtained and recorded and entered.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 184, L. 1967.

Title of Act

An act to validate records of court proceedings prior to January 1, 1967, containing defects, omissions, informalities or irregularities in obtaining a judgment or decree affecting real property, in which time for appeal has expired; providing that duly certified copies of such judgment or decree may be read in evidence with the same effect as judgments or decrees duly and regularly obtained, recorded and entered.

93-5710.3. Validation of defective judgments or decrees affecting realty—1969 act. Any judgment or decree of any court of this state affecting real property, provided that no action is now pending to set aside any such judgment or decree, which was, prior to January 1, 1969, copied into the proper book, kept in the office of the clerk of the district court, and certified copy of which judgment or decree was, previous to the date this act takes effect, recorded in the proper book, kept in the office of the county clerk and recorder, shall be deemed to impart, after that date, notice of its contents to subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers, notwithstanding any defect, omission, informality or irregularity in any of the court proceedings in the action in which such judgment or decree was entered and obtained, if time for appeal in the case has expired, and such judgment or decree shall not be deemed invalidated by reason of any such defect, omission, informality or irregularity; but nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the rights of purchasers or encumbrancers previous to that date. Duly certified copies of such judgment or decree, or of the record thereof, may be read in evidence, with like effect as copies of a judgment or decree duly and regularly obtained and recorded and entered.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 73, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

This act became effective July 1, 1969.

Title of Act

An act to validate records of court proceedings prior to January 1, 1969, containing defects, omissions, informalities or irregularities in obtaining a judgment or decree affecting real property, in which time for appeal has expired; providing that duly certified copies of such judgment or decree may be read in evidence with the same effect as judgments or decrees duly and regularly obtained, recorded and entered.

93-5710.4. Validation of defective judgments or decrees affecting realty—1971 act. Any judgment or decree of any court of this state affecting real property, provided that no action is now pending to set aside any such judgment or decree, which was, prior to January 1, 1971, copied into the proper book, kept in the office of the clerk of the district court, and certified copy of which judgment or decree was, previous to the date this act takes effect, recorded in the proper book, kept in the office of the county clerk and recorder, shall be deemed to impart, after that date, notice of its contents to subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers, notwithstanding any defect, omission, informality or irregularity in any of the court proceedings in the action in which such judgment or decree was entered and obtained, if time for appeal in the case has expired, and such judgment or decree shall not be deemed invalidated by reason of any such defect, omission, informality or irregularity; but nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the rights of purchasers or encumbrancers previous to that date. Duly certified copies of such judgment or decree, or of the record thereof, may be read in evidence, with like effect as copies of a judgment or decree duly and regularly obtained and recorded and entered.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 94, L. 1971.

CHAPTER 58—THE EXECUTION

Section 93-5813.1. Waiver of exemptions prohibited in unsecured note.
93-5846. Validation of judicial sales before 1973.

93-5813.1. Waiver of exemptions prohibited in unsecured note. Any waiver of statutory exemption from execution in an unsecured promissory note shall be unenforceable.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 172, L. 1965.

Title of Act

An act to prohibit waiver of statutory exemptions.

93-5816. (9429) Exemption of earnings—debts incurred for necessaries.

Waiver of Exemption

General waiver of statutory exemption in secured promissory note was not enforceable as against divorcee working to provide the necessities for herself and her children; a levy of execution could not be had on her wages. Anaconda Federal Credit Union, #4401 v. West, 157 M 175, 483 P 2d 909.

93-5824. (9432) Notice of sale—how given—copy of notice.

Sale of Real Property

District court ordering the restraining of a sale of real property on execution can determine if additional notice is required after the injunction is lifted if the initial notice requirements of this section have been met. Williams v. Superior Homes, Inc., 148 M 38, 417 P 2d 92, 95.

93-5841. (9449) Possession of lands prior to foreclosure, etc.

Vendee of Mortgagee

Purchasers who took premises subject to pre-existing mortgage, and who had not assumed payment of mortgage, even though occupying premises as their home at time of foreclosure, were not "execution debtors" within meaning of statute and were not entitled to possession of premises during one-year period of redemption. First Nat. Bank of Circle v. Hastetter, 149 M 142, 423 P 2d 306.

93-5846. Validation of judicial sales before 1973. All judicial sales of real property prior to January 1, 1973, provided no action is now pending to set such sale aside, where made in this state on proceedings to satisfy valid judgments or decrees of any court and the moneys bidden thereon paid to the officer making such sale, shall be valid and sufficient in law to sustain a sheriff's deed based on such sale, and when no such deed has been executed, shall entitle such purchaser to such deed; and such deed, if now or when executed, shall be sufficient to convey all the title of judgment debtor at the time of such sale in the premises so sold to the purchaser at said sale, and all defects or irregularities in the issuance of execution, or the manner of making or conducting the sale, or in the recitals or references in such deed, shall be disregarded and such sale shall not be invalidated by reason of any such defect or irregularity.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 80, L. 1973.

Compiler's Notes

Except for the date in the second line of text, the above section is identical with Sec. 1, Ch. 57, Laws of 1965, Sec. 1, Ch. 180, Laws of 1967, Sec. 1, Ch. 76, Laws of 1969 and Sec. 1, Ch. 97, Laws of 1971, previously compiled at this section. The compiler has therefore substituted the above section for the 1971 section.

Title of Act

An act relating to validation of judicial sales prior to January 1, 1973, of real property and curing defects or irregularities in the issuance of execution, manner of making or conducting the sale, or in the recitals or references in sheriffs' deeds.

CHAPTER 60—FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGES—ACTIONS FOR—SALES UNDER POWERS

93-6001. (9467) Proceedings in foreclosure suits.

Deficiency Judgment

The purpose of this section is to require the mortgagee to bring one foreclosure action to enforce "any right" protected by the mortgage. If the price bid in at foreclosure is insufficient to reimburse the mortgagee, a deficiency judgment may be entered against the mortgagor for the balance due and may be enforced by a lien upon the real property of the mortgagor only. Stallings v. Erwin, 148 M 227, 419 P 2d 480, 482.

Tax Lien

Where, subsequent to purchase of tax certificates, mortgagee foreclosed the mortgage, the foreclosure sale cut off any lien asserted by mortgagee for taxes paid although the mortgage permitted mortgagee to pay taxes and collect the same upon foreclosure. Stallings v. Erwin, 148 M 227, 419 P 2d 480, 483.

A mortgagee who pays taxes on the mortgaged property prior to foreclosure does not acquire a distinct and separate lien on the property which survives the foreclosure sale. Stallings v. Erwin, 148 M 227, 419 P 2d 480, 483.

CHAPTER 61—NUISANCE, WASTE AND TRESPASS ON REAL PROPERTY—ACTIONS FOR

93-6101. (9474) Nuisance defined and actions for.

Baseball Park

"Pee wee" baseball league conducted on empty lot in residential district was not nuisance under statute, notwithstanding evidence that: field was brightly illuminated, crowds were noisy, traffic was heavy, field was dusty, some children used foul language, balls were hit into neighboring yards damaging lawns and flowers and games were played after 10 p.m.; nuisance, if any, was private and arose out of particular manner of operation of legitimate enterprise lower court should merely have entered decree calculated to eliminate injurious features. Kasala v. Kalispell Pee Wee Baseball League, 151 M 109, 439 P 2d 65, 32 ALR 3d 1120.

CHAPTER 63—PARTITION OF REAL ESTATE—ACTIONS FOR

93-6301. (9516) Who may bring actions for partition.

Separate Owners of Land and Building

Where land and building on land had separate owners, owner of building had no right to an order that the land and building be sold together and the proceeds apportioned between the owners, because the owners were not cotenants of the whole property but sole owners of parts of the property. Allman v. Stuart, 158 M 402, 492 P 2d 909.

93-6311. (9526) Title of parties may be tried.

CHAPTER 64—QUO WARRANTO

93-6405. (9580) When private person may commence action.

Unqualified Appointee

Taxpayer was not entitled to an injunction in action questioning the qualifications of supervisor appointed by board of railway commissioners in proper exercise of their discretion. Steel v. Board of Railroad Commrs., 144 M 432, 397 P 2d 101.

CHAPTER 66—JUSTICES' COURTS—PLACE OF TRIAL OF ACTIONS

Section 93-6601. Where actions must be commenced.
93-6602. Place of trial may be changed in certain cases.

93-6601. (9619) Where actions must be commenced. Actions in justices' courts may be commenced, and, subject to the right to change the place of trial, as in this chapter provided, may be tried:

1. When the defendant, or all the defendants, if there be more than one, reside in another county than that in which the right of action accrues, and the action be for the recovery of personal property, or the value thereof, or damages for taking or detaining the same; in the county in which the property, or any part thereof, may be found, or in which the property, or any part thereof, was taken, or in which the defendant or either of the defendants reside;

2. When the defendant, or all of the defendants, if there be more than one, reside in another county than that in which the right of action accrues, and the action be for damages for violation of an express or implied contract, or for money due on an express or implied contract, debt, note, or account; in the county in which such contract or obligation is to be or was to have been performed, or such money is to be or was to have been paid, or in which the defendant or either of the defendants resides; and the county in which the obligation is incurred shall be deemed to be the county in which it is to be performed or paid, unless there is a special contract to the contrary;

3. When the defendant, or all of the defendants, if there be more than one, reside in another county than that in which the right of action accrues, and the action be for damages for injury to person, property, or reputation; in the county where the injury was committed, or in which the defendant or either of the defendants reside;

4. When the defendant is a nonresident of the county; in any county where he may be found and served with summons personally;

5. When the defendant is a nonresident of the state; in any county of the state;

6. When the parties voluntarily appear and plead, without summons; in any county of the state;

7. In all other cases; in any county in which the defendant, or any one of the defendants, if there be more than one, reside, or may be found and served with summons personally.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "any township of" before references to the county in paragraphs 1 to 4 and 7; substituted "county" for "township" in paragraphs 5 and 6; and made minor changes in phraseology.

93-6602. (9620) Place of trial may be changed in certain cases. The court may, at any time before trial, on motion, change the place of trial in the following cases:

1. and 2. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

3. When a jury has been demanded, and either party makes and files an affidavit that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial, on account of the bias or prejudice of the citizens of the county, town, or city against him.

4. and 5. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "or township" following "name of the county and city" in paragraph 1.

93-6711. (9636) Service of summons. The summons may be served by a sheriff or constable of any of the counties of this state; provided, that when a summons issued by a justice of the peace is to be served out of the county in which it was issued, the summons shall have attached to it a certificate under seal by the county clerk of the county in which it was issued, to the effect that the person issuing the same was an acting justice of the peace at the date of the summons; or the summons may be served by any male person resident in the state, over the age of eighteen (18) years, not a party to the suit, and must be served and returned as provided in Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 4D (2), (3), (4), (8), and (9); or it may be served by publication, provided in Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 4D (5) and (8), so far as they relate to publication of summons, are made applicable to justices' courts; the word "justice" being substituted for the word "clerk" whenever the latter word occurs.

History: En. Sec. 1510, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 61, L. 1903; re-en. Sec. 7003, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9636, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 110, L. 1967. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 850.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment substituted "Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 4D (2), (3), (4), (8), and (9)" for "sections 93-3006 and 93-3007" after "as provided in"; and substituted "provided in Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 4D (5) and (8)" for "and sections 93-3013, 93-3014 and 93-3015" after "by publication."

CHAPTER 68—JUSTICES' COURTS—PLEADINGS IN

Section 93-6802.1. Permissible pleadings enumerated.
93-6802.2. Demurrers and pleas abolished.

93-6802. (9639) Pleadings in justices' courts.

Compiler's Notes

This section appears to have been superseded by secs. 93-6802.1 and 93-6802.2.

93-6802.1. Permissible pleadings enumerated. In justice court there shall be a complaint and answer; and there shall be a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; and an answer to a cross-claim; a third-party complaint, if a person who is not an original party is brought into the action; and there shall be a third-party answer, if a third-party complaint is served. No other pleading shall be allowed, except that the court may order a reply to an answer or a third-party answer.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 168, L. 1967.

Title of Act

An act designating the pleadings to be allowed in justice court and designating the form thereof.

93-6802.2. Demurrers and pleas abolished. Demurrers, pleas and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "county" for "town, township, or city" in the middle of the section; and substituted "adjoining county" for "adjoining township" near the end of the section.

CHAPTER 73—JUSTICES' COURTS—JUDGMENT IN

Section 93-7302. Judgment of dismissal entered in certain cases without prejudice.
93-7311. Abstract of judgment.

93-7302. (9680) Judgment of dismissal entered in certain cases without prejudice. Judgment that the action be dismissed without prejudice to a new action, may be entered with costs in the following cases:

1. to 3. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

4. When it is objected at the trial, and appears by the evidence, that the action is brought in the wrong county; but if the objection is taken and overruled, it is the cause of a reversal on appeal, and does not otherwise invalidate the judgment; if not taken at the trial, it is waived.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "or township, town, or city" immediately preceding the first semicolon in paragraph 4.

93-7311. (9689) Abstract of judgment. The justice, on the demand of a party in whose favor judgment is rendered, must give him an abstract of the judgment in substantially the following form (filling blanks according to the facts):

"State of Montana

County of _____

_____, plaintiff, v. _____, defendant.

In justice's court, before _____, justice of the peace, _____ county, _____, 19__ (inserting date of abstract). Judgment entered for plaintiff (or defendant) for $_____, on the _____ day of _____. I certify that the foregoing is a correct abstract of a judgment rendered in said action in my court, or (as the case may be) in the court of _____, justice of the peace, as it appears by his docket, now in my possession, as his successor in office.

_____, Justice of the Peace.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "county" for "township (city or town)" in the caption of the abstract.

CHAPTER 74—JUSTICES' COURTS—EXECUTION FROM

Section 93-7402. Form of execution.

93-7402. (9694) Form of execution. The execution must be directed to the sheriff or to a constable of the county, and must be subscribed by the justice and bear date the day of its issuance. It must intelligibly refer to the judgment, by stating the names of the parties, and the name of the justice before whom, and of the county where, and the time when, it was rendered; the amount of the judgment, if it be for money; and if less than the whole is due, the true amount due thereon. It must contain, in like cases, similar directions to the sheriff or constable as are required by the provisions of sections 93-5801 to 93-5845, in an execution to the sheriff, except that it shall not direct the officer to in any manner levy upon or satisfy the judgment, or any interest thereon, from any real property.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment deleted "and the township, town, or city" following "and of the county" in the second sentence.

CHAPTER 76—JUSTICES' COURTS—DOCKETS

Section 93-7605. Proceedings when office becomes vacant and before a successor is appointed.

93-7605. (9707) Proceedings when office becomes vacant and before a successor is appointed. If the office of a justice become vacant by his death or removal from the county, or otherwise, before his successor is elected and qualified, the docket and papers in possession of such justice must be deposited in the office of some other justice in the county, to be by him delivered to the successor of such justice. If there is no other justice in the county, then the docket and papers of such justice must be deposited in the office of the county clerk, to be by him delivered to the successor in office of the justice.

History: En. Sec. 1664, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7074, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9707, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 22, Ch. 491, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 915.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "county" for "township, town, or city," near the beginning of the first sentence; and substituted "county" for "township" near the end of the first sentence and near the beginning of the second sentence.

93-7607. (9709) Justice elected to fill vacancy. The justice elected to fill a vacancy is the successor of the justice whose office became vacant before the expiration of a full term. When a full term expires, the same or another person elected to take office in the same county from that time is the successor.

History: En. Sec. 1666, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7076, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9709, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 23, Ch. 491, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 917.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "county" for "township, town, or city" near the end of the section.

CHAPTER 77—JUSTICES' COURTS—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 93-7704. In case of disability of justice, another justice may attend on his behalf.
93-7709. Special constables—appointment.
93-7712. Depositions—how taken.

93-7704. (9714) In case of disability of justice, another justice may attend on his behalf. In case of the sickness or other disability, or necessary absence of a justice, on a return of a summons, or at the time appointed for a trial, another justice of the same county, or adjoining county may, at his request, attend in his behalf, and thereupon is vested with the power, for the time being, of the justice before whom the summons was returnable. In that case, the proper entry of the proceedings before the attending justice, subscribed by him, must be made in the docket of the justice before whom the summons was returnable. If the case is adjourned, the justice before whom the summons was returnable may resume jurisdiction.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "county, or adjoining county" for "township, town, or city, or adjoining township" in the middle of the first sentence.

93-7709. (9719) Special constables—appointment. If in any township there should be no duly elected, appointed, or qualified constable, but not otherwise, a justice of the peace in the county may, at the request of a party, after being satisfied that it is expedient to do so, specially depute any proper person of suitable age not interested in the action to serve a summons, with or without an order to arrest the defendant, or with or without a writ of attachment, or to serve an execution. The justice shall be liable upon his official bond for all official acts of the person so deputed. Such deputation shall be in writing made on the process, and a note thereof made on the justice's docket.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "in the county" for "in such township" after "justice of the peace" in the first sentence.

93-7712. (9722) Depositions—how taken. Depositions to be used in justices' courts shall be taken as provided in Rules 26 and 28 to 32, inclusive of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

History: En. Sec. 1691, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7089, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9722, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 167, L. 1967.

Amendments

The 1967 amendment substituted "shall" for "may" after "justices' courts"; and substituted "Rules 26 and 28 to 32, inclusive of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure" for "sections 93-1801-1 to 93-1801-6."

CHAPTER 79—JUSTICES' COURTS—APPEALS FROM, TO DISTRICT COURTS

93-7907. (9760) Procedure on appeal, etc.

Dismissal of Appeal

Where defendant filed notice of appeal of adverse verdict in justice court with an undertaking on May 8, 1969 but took no further action, district court properly granted plaintiff's motion to dismiss for unnecessary delay on July 1, 1970, since it was appellant's burden as moving party to bring appeal on for hearing. Eide Ins. v. Correll, 156 M 167, 478 P 2d 272.

CHAPTER 80—SUPREME COURT—APPEALS TO

Section 93-8001. How judgments and orders may be reviewed.
93-8002. Party aggrieved may appeal—names of parties.
93-8013. Deposit in lieu of undertaking.

93-8001. (9729) How judgments and orders may be reviewed. A judgment or order in a civil action, except when expressly made final by this code, may be reviewed as prescribed in sections 93-7901 to 93-7908, and by the Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure, and not otherwise.

January 1, 1966. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 936.

Advisory Committee's Note

Subdivisions (c), (d), (e) of Rule 41, M. R. App. Civ. P. amend this section, and sections 93-8002 and 93-8013 which contain references to appeals from justices' courts to district courts, so as to preserve the existing procedure applicable to such appeals.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment substituted "by the Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure" for "93-8001 to 93-8023" after "93-7908 and" and made a minor change in punctuation.

93-8002. (9730) Party aggrieved may appeal—names of parties. A party aggrieved may appeal in the cases prescribed in sections 93-7901 to 93-7908 and the Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure.

History: En. Sec. 248, p. 94, Bannack Stat.; amd. Sec. 319, p. 199, L. 1867; re-en. Sec. 368, p. 107, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. Sec. 407, p. 150, L. 1877; re-en. Sec. 407, 1st Div. Rev. January 1, 1966. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 938.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment substituted "the Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure" for "93-8001 to 93-8023" at the end of the present section and omitted a former second sentence which read: "The party appealing is known as the appellant, and the adverse party as the respondent."

93-8003 to 93-8006. (9731 to 9734) Superseded — M. R. App. Civ. P., Rules 1 and 4 to 6.

Supersession

These sections (Ap. p. CHAPTER 86—COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS—COST BILL—SUIT IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Section 93-8601.1. Contractual right to attorney fees to be reciprocal.
93-8625. Poor person may sue or defend without costs.

93-8601.1. Contractual right to attorney fees to be reciprocal. Whenever by virtue of the provisions of any contract or obligation in the nature of a contract, made and entered into at any time after the effective date of this act, one party to such contract or obligation has an express right to recover attorney fees from any other party to the contract or obligation in the event the party having that right shall bring an action upon the contract or obligation, then in any action on such contract or obligation all parties to the contract or obligation shall be deemed to have the same right to recover attorney fees, and the prevailing party in any such action, whether by virtue of the express contractual right, or by virtue of this act, shall be entitled to recover his reasonable attorney fees from the losing party or parties.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 259, L. 1971.

Title of Act

An act to extend a contractual right to attorney fees granted to one party to a contract to the prevailing party in any lawsuit on such contract whether or not the contract expressly provides for such fees as to such prevailing party.

93-8602. (9787) When allowed, of course, to the plaintiff.

Attorney's Fees

On foreclosure of mortgage, federal tax lien took priority over attorney's fees allowed under section 93-8613 since attorney's lien failed to meet "choate" test at the time the amount of federal taxes owed on the property was fixed. First Nat. Bank of Lewistown v. Tilzey, 238 F Supp 750.

93-8605. (9790) When the several defendants are not united, etc.

Intervenor

Where party intervened in action to foreclose mortgage in an effort to have title quieted in his behalf as against both mortgagee and mortgagor, it was error to award intervenor judgment for attorney's fees under this section since intervenor qualified as neither mortgagee bringing foreclosure action nor as possible successful mortgagor defending such action. Nikles v. Barnes, 153 M 113, 454 P 2d 608.

Priority of Claim

On foreclosure of mortgage, federal tax lien took priority over attorney's fees allowed under this section since attorney's lien failed to meet "choate" test at the time the amount of federal taxes owed on the property was fixed. First Nat. Bank of Lewistown v. Tilzey, 238 F Supp 750.

93-8618. (9802) What are costs and disbursements.

Attorney Fees

Attorney fees are not included as costs under this section, so that if such costs are not allowed under section 21-137, which requires showing by motion that wife cannot take an appeal without the allowance, she is not entitled to them on execution under section 93-8621. State ex rel. Sowerwine v. District Court, 145 M 375, 401 P 2d 568.

Deposition Expenses

Cost to defendant of taking plaintiff's depositions for convenience of defendant's counsel could not be included in bill of costs where never filed with the court and plaintiff had no practical means of securing a copy; it was obviously a discovery deposition for defendant's own benefit. Johnson v. Furgeson, 158 M 170, 489 P 2d 1032.

93-8621. (9805) Costs on appeal—how claimed.

Execution Void

In divorce proceeding, inclusion in memorandum of both allowable statutory costs under section 21-137 and attorney's fee, to which the wife was not entitled because of failure to file motion on appeal, constituted noncompliance with this section and made the execution void. State ex rel. Sowerwine v. District Court, 145 M 375, 401 P 2d 568.

93-8625. (9809) Poor person may sue or defend without costs. Any person may commence and prosecute or defend an action in any of the courts and administrative tribunals of this state who will file an affidavit stating that he has a good cause of action or defense, that he is unable to pay the costs, or procure security to secure the same; then it is hereby made the duty of the officers of the courts and administrative tribunals to issue all writs and serve the same, and perform all services in the action, without demanding or receiving their fees in advance.

Sec. 1, Ch. 90, L. 1973.

Preamble

Chapter 90 of Laws 1973 contained a preamble which read: "WHEREAS, section 93-8625, R. C. M. 1947, gives the right to sue or defend in any of the courts of this state to poor persons without costs, amendment should be made to remove any ambiguity as to whether this would also include administrative tribunals."

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "or defend" and "or defense."

The 1973 amendment inserted "and administrative tribunals" in two places.

CHAPTER 89—UNIFORM DECLARATORY JUDGMENTS ACT

93-8901. (9835.1) Scope.

NOTE.—Uniform State Law. In addition to the states listed in the note in the parent volume the following also have adopted the Uniform Declaratory Judgments Act: Oklahoma and Virginia.

Supreme Court

Supreme court could accept original jurisdiction in suit for declaratory judgment where statute which taxed nonresident contractors indiscriminately was declared unconstitutional, since supreme court was a court of record and under its own rules could accept original jurisdiction in emergency situations. State ex rel. Schultz-Lindsay Constr. Co. v. State Board of Equalization, 145 M 380, 403 P 2d 635.

Supreme court could entertain original action for declaratory judgment on calling, election of delegates to and implementation of constitutional convention required by vote of the electors in view of necessity for legislature to act within 60-day session then in progress. Forty-Second Legislative Assembly v. Lennon, 156 M 416, 481 P 2d 330.

Termination of Annexation Proceedings

Where a majority of the resident freeholders of a first class city validly protested proposed annexation under section 11-403 (1), but city council instead of terminating the annexation proceedings took arbitrary action, mandamus was proper to compel council to terminate the process. This chapter did not furnish the protestants a plain, speedy and adequate remedy. State ex rel. Konen v. City of Butte, 144 M 95, 394 P 2d 753, 757.

References

Harrer v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 147 M 130, 410 P 2d 713.

93-8906. (9835.6) Discretionary.

Discretion of Court

In absence of showing of abuse of discretion, refusal of lower court to rule on issue for reason that decree would not terminate controversy or remove uncertainty will not be reversed. Helena Valley

Irrig. Dist. v. State Highway Commission, 150 M 192, 433 P 2d 791.

Dismissal of Action

Court did not abuse its discretion in dismissing insurance company's action for declaratory judgment that defendant's policy was void because obtained by fraud, since, under section 93-8911, there were possible parties not joined, defendant having been in an accident several months prior to expiration of the policy, and under this section, court could refuse to enter the judgment on the basis that it would not terminate the controversy as to all parties. Empire Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. Goodman, 147 M 396, 412 P 2d 569.

Dismissal of Action

Court could take into account this section in refusing to grant declaratory judgment in favor of insurance company which claimed that defendant's policy was void when accident in which he was involved occurred because there were other parties not joined and therefore the declaratory judgment would not terminate the controversy should other parties sue defendant. Empire Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. Goodman, 147 M 396, 412 P 2d 569.

Mailey v. Board of County Commrs., 142 M 505, 385 P 2d 74.

CHAPTER 91—MANDAMUS (WRIT OF MANDATE)

93-9102. (9848) When and by what court issued.

Clear Legal Duty

Board of county commissioners was properly denied writ of mandate requiring sheriff to provide detailed itemized accounting of county funds received for furnishing board to prisoners of county jail since sheriff has no clear legal duty to provide such an accounting. State ex rel. Lucier v. Murphy, 156 M 186, 478 P 2d 273 (Decision prior to 1971 amendment of section 16-2818).

Discretionary Actions

Mandamus lies only to compel performance of an act, not to correct action already done, so that where state board of land commissioners exercised discretion in awarding lease of land to lowest bidder, mandamus was not the proper writ to pursue in seeking a remedy. State ex rel. Thompson v. Babcock, 147 M 46, 409 P 2d 808.

Trial court properly denied writ of mandate, sought pursuant to this section, to require city to condemn private lands for use as public streets, since this section provides for performance of ministerial duty and not duty or power that requires exercise of discretion. State ex rel. Wiedman v. City of Kalispell, 154 M 31, 459 P 2d 694.

Termination of Annexation Proceedings

Where a majority of the resident freeholders of a first class city validly protested proposed annexation under section 11-403 (1), but city council instead of terminating the annexation proceedings, took arbitrary action, mandamus was proper to compel council to terminate the process. The Uniform Declaratory Judgments Act (93-8901 to 93-8916) did not furnish the protestants a plain, speedy and adequate remedy. State ex rel. Konen v. City of Butte, 144 M 95, 394 P 2d 753, 757.

93-9103. (9849) Writ—when and upon what to issue.

Appealable Matters

Engineer seeking registration from state board had no right to a writ of mandamus where discretion of the board was subject to review under section 66-2345. Heldenbrand v. Montana State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors, 147 M 271, 411 P 2d 744.

93-9109. (9855) Motion for new trial—where made.

Motion Not Required

This section does not require motion for new trial in order to appeal from a grant of mandamus, but merely sets out the place of filing for a motion for new trial. State ex rel. Bennett v. Dowdall, 157 M 11, 482 P 2d 572.

93-9112. (9858) Damages, costs and peremptory mandate, etc.

Damages Incidental to Pleading

After repeated refusals by county to follow assessment procedures prescribed by state board of equalization, and after other delays and hindrances by the county, including the filing of sham pleadings, Supreme Court will, if there is further delay in complying with writ of mandamus, consider assessing costs and damages under this section. State ex rel. State Board of Equalization v. Price, 157 M 134, 483 P 2d 284.

References

State ex rel. Thompson v. Babcock, 147 M 46, 409 P 2d 808.

CHAPTER 92—PROHIBITION—WRIT OF

93-9201. (9861) Prohibition defined.

Judicial Error Required

Writ of prohibition was issued, pursuant to this section, where district court had acted beyond its jurisdiction by enjoining board of equalization from revising grading and valuation on nonirrigated farm land pursuant to section 84-429.7 et seq. State ex rel. Lord v. District Court, 154 M 269, 463 P 2d 323.

Municipal Corporation

Lower court properly refused petition for writ of prohibition against city acting within jurisdiction since writ lies only when municipal corporation acts without or in excess of jurisdiction. State ex rel. Pat Griffin Co. v. City of Butte, 151 M 546, 445 P 2d 739.

Public Service Commission

Since federal price-freeze order did not prevent rate hearings by the public service commission, though it did prevent putting increases into effect, commission had jurisdiction to hold hearings and writ of prohibition was improper. State ex rel. Department of Public Service Regulation v. District Court, 158 M 88, 488 P 2d 1147.

State ex rel. Belwin, Inc. v. Davison, 148 M 345, 420 P 2d 842, 844.

CHAPTER 97—FORCIBLE ENTRY AND UNLAWFUL DETAINER—ACTIONS FOR

Section 93-9705. What courts have jurisdiction.

93-9703. (9889) Unlawful detainer defined.

Agricultural Tenant Holding Over

Statute gives agricultural tenant right to hold over for no other purpose than to harvest crops and protect investment and does not mean that tenant can exercise option to purchase contained in expired lease. Miller v. Meredith, 149 M 125, 423 P 2d 595.

Landlord-tenant Relationship Required

An action for unlawful detainer can succeed only where the relation of landlord-tenant exists. Kransky v. Hensleigh, 146 M 486, 409 P 2d 537.

Unlawful Ejectment

In case of unlawful ejectment, plaintiff, who had farmed land for three years, paying one third of each crop as rent, was not a sharecropper but a tenant with an interest in the land for a term and it was proper for the judge to instruct the jury that if plaintiff held without notice to quit more than sixty days after expiration of his term he was deemed to be holding by permission of the defendant-landlords and not guilty of unlawful detainer. Kenfield v. Curry, 145 M 174, 399 P 2d 999.

93-9705. (9891) What courts have jurisdiction. The district court of the county in which the property, or some part of it, is situated, shall have jurisdiction of proceedings under this chapter; provided, that justices' courts, within their respective counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

History: En. Sec. 2084, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7273, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 9891, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 26, Ch. 491, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1163.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "counties" for "towns, townships, or cities" near the end of the section.

Repealing Clause

Section 27 of Ch. 491, Laws 1973 read "Sections 25-303, 25-305, and 25-306, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

CHAPTER 98—CONTEMPTS

93-9801. (9908) What acts or omissions are contempts.

Criticism of Decisions

Bank president's statement that he was displeased with jury verdict against bank and that jurors could not expect to do business with bank did not constitute contempt under subsection 9, since jurors did continue to do business with bank and since statement came twenty-two days after final disposition of case and could not have interfered with court proceedings. State ex rel. Polish v. District Court Third Judicial District in and for County of Powell, 156 M 220, 478 P 2d 270.

References

Weinheimer v. Scott, 143 M 243, 388 P 2d 790.

93-9803. (9910) A contempt committed in the presence of the court, etc.

Recital of Facts in Order

Order of contempt that failed to specify facts that constituted contempt before the court was deficient under this section, since it did not provide opportunity for appellate review. State ex rel. Shea v. District Court, 156 M 266, 479 P 2d 281.

93-9810. (9917) Judgment and penalty, if guilty.

Excessive Penalty

District court's sentence of ten days' imprisonment for contempt exceeded jurisdiction of such court as vested in it by this section. Fuchs v. District Court, 153 M 485, 458 P 2d 776.

CHAPTER 99—EMINENT DOMAIN

Section 93-9902. What are public uses.
93-9902.1. Policy on surface mining or open pit mining of coal.
93-9905. Facts necessary to be found before condemnation.
93-9908. The complaint and its contents.

93-9912. Appointment and meeting of commissioners.
93-9913. The date with respect to which compensation shall be assessed.
93-9921.1. Necessary expenses of litigation.
93-9927. Relocation assistance—purpose of act.
93-9928. Definition of terms in relocation assistance law.
93-9929. Payments to displaced persons—moving expense allowance—business losses.
93-9930. Additional payments for displacement from dwelling owned by occupant.
93-9931. Additional payments for displacement from rented dwelling.
93-9932. Relocation advisory services.
93-9933. Assurance of availability of suitable replacement dwellings.
93-9934. Relocation costs included in project costs—replacement housing.
93-9935. Public assistance eligibility unimpaired—tax exemption of payments.
93-9936. Appeal to district court from administrative determination.
93-9937. Appraisal and negotiation policies—time allowed to move—condemnation proceedings.
93-9938. Advancement of closing costs and taxes incurred by owner.
93-9939. Reimbursement of costs when condemnation proceedings abandoned.
93-9940. Expenses included in inverse condemnation judgment or settlement.
93-9941. Acquisition of buildings and improvements affected—payments to tenant.
93-9942. Duplication of eminent domain payments not intended.
93-9943. New rights and powers not created.
93-9944. Application to all federally assisted programs.

93-9902. (9934) What are public uses. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the right of eminent domain may be exercised in behalf of the following public uses:

1. to 14. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

15. To mine and extract ores, metals or minerals owned by the plaintiff located beneath or upon the surface of property where the title to said surface vests in others; provided, however, the use of the surface for strip mining or open pit mining of coal (i.e., any mining method or process in which the strata or overburden is removed or displaced in order to extract the coal) is not a public use and eminent domain may not be exercised for this purpose.

Sec. 1, Ch. 311, L. 1973. Cal. C. Civ. Proc. Sec. 1238.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment added the proviso to subdivision 15.

Electric Power

Legislature has specifically declared that an electric power line is public use for which private property may be taken by eminent domain proceedings under this section, and public use is not confined to actual use by public, but is measured in terms of right of public to use proposed facilities for which condemnation is sought. Montana Power Co. v. Bokma, 153 M 390, 457 P 2d 769.

93-9902.1. Policy on surface mining or open pit mining of coal. For the following reasons the state's power of eminent domain may not be exercised to mine and extract coal owned by the plaintiff located beneath the surface of property where the title to the surface is vested in others:

(1) Because of the large reserves of and the renewed interest in coal in eastern Montana, coal development is potentially more destructive to land and watercourses and underground aquifers and potentially more extensive geographically than the foreseeable development of other ores, metals, or minerals, and affecting large areas of land and large numbers of people;

(2) That in many areas of Montana set forth in (a) hereinabove, the title to the surface is vested in an owner other than the mineral owner, and that the surface owner is putting that surface to a productive use, and it is the public policy of the state to encourage and foster such productive use by such owner, and that to permit the mineral owner to condemn the surface owner is to deprive the surface owner of the right to use his property in a productive manner as he determines, and is also contrary to public policy as set forth in paragraph four (4) herein below;

(3) The magnitude of the potential coal development in eastern Montana will subject landowners to undue harassment by excessive use of eminent domain;

(4) That it is the public policy of the state to encourage and foster diversity of land ownership and that the surface mining of coal and control of large areas of land by the surface coal mining industry would not foster public policy and further the public interest.

History: En. 93-9902.1 by Sec. 2, Ch. 311, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act amending section 93-9902, R. C. M. 1947, to declare that the extraction of coal by strip mining or open pit mining is not a public use; and setting forth the public policy therefor.

93-9904. (9936) Private property defined—classes enumerated.

Discretionary Actions

Action brought to compel state highway commission to construct two interchanges on new interstate highway near town, instead of one interchange as planned, was improperly brought under this section since this section pertains to eminent domain proceedings and issues presented by action were matters of administrative law under section 32-2406. Erie v. State ex rel. State Highway Commission, 154 M 150, 461 P 2d 207, distinguished in 155 M 39, 47, 466 P 2d 594.

Judicial Review

In condemnation proceeding involving access to portion of farm divided by interstate highway, district court had power to require state to incorporate in its construction plans such structures as would allow two-lane access across county road where access road benefited general public as well as private property owner; but district court did not have power to require state to submit such plans to court for its approval since such matters were within purview of activities of highway commission. State ex rel. State Highway Commission v. Lavoie, 155 M 39, 466 P 2d 594, explained in — M —, 496 P 2d 1140, 1143.

More Necessary Public Use

Requirement under section 93-9906 that taking of private property by condemnation proceedings must be compatible with greatest public good and least private injury applies specifically to easements and rights of way under this section. Montana Power Co. v. Bokma, 153 M 390, 457 P 2d 769.

Public property held by city and taken by state for more necessary public use should be taken and compensated as if it had been taken from a private owner. City of Three Forks v. State Highway Commission, 156 M 392, 480 P 2d 826.

Underpass

Where 40.89 acres of ranch land were taken by the state highway commission as a right of way for an interstate highway, consisting of four lanes in width and fully controlled access, which split the remaining land into two divisions, leaving 432.69 acres, on which farm headquarters was located, on the north side of the highway and 393.42 acres on the south side of the highway, trial court in its preliminary order of condemnation properly ordered the commission to construct and maintain at its own expense an underpass leading from one side of the highway to the other. State ex rel. State Highway Commission v. Wheeler, 148 M 246, 419 P 2d 492, 496.

93-9905. (9937) Facts necessary to be found before condemnation. 1 and 2. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

3. If already appropriated to some public use, that the public use to which it is to be applied is a more necessary public use. The plaintiff or defendant, or any party interested in the proceedings, can appeal to the supreme court from any finding or judgment made or rendered under this chapter, as in other cases. Such appeal does not stay any further proceedings under this chapter, except that the district court on motion or ex parte may grant a stay for such period of time and under such conditions as the court deems proper.

Advisory Committee's Note

Subdivision (f) Rule 41, M. R. App. Civ. P., amends the provision of subdivision 3 of this section to permit the district court to stay proceedings on appeals in eminent domain cases, as is permitted by Rule 7(a) of these rules in other cases. See Tables A, B, C, M. R. App. Civ. P. for reference to other amendments.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment added the exception at the end of the section.

Burden of Proof

Where commission condemned defendant's land to build bypass through it rather than reconstruct highway through town, it became incumbent upon the defendant to show fraud, abuse of discretion or arbitrary action in order to defeat the commission's action, while the commission had only to establish that the taking of the property was reasonably necessary for rebuilding the highway and that their decision appeared to be compatible with the greatest public good and least private injury on the basis of conflicting evidence. State Highway Commission v. Crossen-Nissen Co., 145 M 251, 400 P 2d 283, distinguished in 155 M 39, 47, 466 P 2d 594.

Condemnor's Discretion

Highway commission did not abuse its discretion in taking farm land by eminent domain even though it was shown that town through which old highway had passed would be financially harmed and bypass would cost more to build, since the resulting savings in travel costs to highway users, in addition to the compensation paid the petitioners, offset disadvantages claimed by them. State Highway Commission v. Crossen-Nissen Co., 145 M 251, 400 P 2d 283, distinguished in State Highway Commission v. Danielsen, 146 M 539, 409 P 2d 443; 155 M 39, 47, 466 P 2d 594.

Necessity of Use

The word "necessary" as used in this section does not mean that the property must be indispensable to the proposed project, but that it must be reasonably requisite and proper for the accomplishment of the purpose for which it is sought under the peculiar circumstances of each case. State Highway Commission v. Crossen-Nissen Co., 145 M 251, 400 P 2d 283.

Before district court may order condemnation, this section requires that it must find that proposed taking is necessary to public use under circumstances of individual case. Montana Power Co. v. Bokma, 153 M 390, 457 P 2d 769.

Compatible with Public Good

Where power company had studied alternate routes for power lines, surveyed surrounding area and determined that best possible route for such line was across defendant's property, utility had complied with this section in that taking of private property was compatible with greatest public good and least private injury. Montana Power Co. v. Bokma, 153 M 390, 457 P 2d 769.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment inserted "mortgagees and lien holders of record" following "owners," "any other" before "claimants" and "of record" following "property" in subdivision 2.

93-9909. (9941) Summons, what to contain, etc.

Service of Complaint with Summons

Requirement that a copy of the complaint must be served with the summons is effectively met, so long as both are served at least twenty days prior to the time designated for hearing, and there is no requirement that they be served on the same day. State Highway Commission v. District Court, — M —, 499 P 2d 1228.

93-9911. (9943) Power of court—preliminary condemnation order.

Access Rights

In condemnation proceeding involving access to portion of farm divided by interstate highway, district court had power to require state to incorporate in its construction plans such structures as would allow two lane access across county road; but district court did not have power to require state to submit such plans to court for its approval since such matters were within purview of activities of highway commission. State ex rel. State Highway Commission v. Lavoie, 155 M 39, 466 P 2d 594.

Necessity of Use

Before district court may order condemnation, this section requires that it must find that proposed taking is necessary to public use under circumstances of individual case. Montana Power Co. v. Bokma, 153 M 390, 457 P 2d 769.

Underpass

Where 40.89 acres of ranch land were taken by the state highway commission as a right of way for an interstate highway, consisting of four lanes in width and fully controlled access, which split the remaining land into two divisions, leaving 432.69 acres, on which farm headquarters was located, on the north side of the highway and 393.42 acres on the south side of the highway, trial court in its preliminary order of condemnation properly ordered the commission to construct and maintain at its own expense an underpass leading from one side of the highway to the other. State ex rel. State Highway Commission v. Wheeler, 148 M 246, 419 P 2d 492, 496.

93-9912. (9944) Appointment and meeting of commissioners. Immediately upon making and entering the preliminary condemnation order the judge must meet with the respective parties, or their attorneys of record, for the purpose of appointing condemnation commissioners to ascertain and determine the amount to be paid by the plaintiff to each owner or other persons interested in such property by reason of the appropriation of such property. The court must thereupon appoint three (3) qualified, disinterested condemnation commissioners. One of such commissioners shall be nominated by the party or parties plaintiff; one of such commissioners shall be nominated by the party or parties defendant. The third commissioner shall be the chairman and shall be nominated by the two (2) commissioners previously nominated, provided, however, that if said two (2) commissioners fail to make such choice at the time of their appointment, then such nomination shall be made by the presiding judge. Each commissioner shall possess the following qualifications: a citizen of the United States and over eighteen (18) years of age; that he is not more than seventy (70) years of age; that he is in possession of natural faculties, of ordinary intelligence and not decrepit; that he is possessed of sufficient knowledge of the English language; that he was assessed on the last assessment roll of a county within the judicial district in which the action is pending; that he has not been convicted of malfeasance in office, or any felony or other high crime; that he is not related within the sixth degree to any party; that he does not stand in the relation of guardian and ward, master and servant, debtor and creditor, or principal and agent, or partner or surety as to any party. At the time of such meeting and nominations there shall be filed with the court by each nominating party or judge an affidavit of the person so nominated stating substantially as follows: that he has formed no unqualified opinion or belief as to the compensation to be awarded in the proceeding or as to the fairness or unfairness of the plaintiff's offer for the lands and improvements of the defendants; and that he has no enmity against or bias in favor of any party and has not discussed, communicated or overheard or read any discussion or communication from any party relating to values of the lands in question or the compensation offered, demanded or to be awarded; that if selected as a condemnation commissioner he is willing to serve and will well and truly try the issues of compensation and a true decision render according to the evidence and in compliance with the instructions of the court; that he will not discuss the case with anyone except the other commissioners until a decision has been filed with the court.

Immediately upon such nomination and appointment of commissioners the same shall proceed to meet at the time and place stated in the order appointing them, which time shall be not more than ten (10) days after the order of appointing, and proceed to examine the lands sought to be appropriated. At a time appointed by the judge and within said ten (10) day period they shall hear the allegations and evidence of all persons interested in each of the several parcels of land. Such hearing shall be attended by, and presided over by, the presiding judge who shall make all necessary rulings upon procedure and the admissibility of evidence. At the conclusion of the aforesaid hearing, the court or judge shall instruct the commissioners as to the law applicable to their deliberations and shall instruct them that their duty is to determine, solely upon the basis of said examination of lands, the evidence produced at the hearing or hearings and the instructions of the court, the following:

1. to 4. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

5. Where there are two (2) or more estates or divided interests in property sought to be condemned, the plaintiff is entitled to have the amount of the award, for said property first determined, as hereinbefore stated, as between plaintiff and all defendants claiming any interests therein; thereafter in the same proceeding the respective rights of each of such defendants in and to the award shall be determined by the commissioners, under supervision and instruction of the court, and the award apportioned accordingly.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment reduced the minimum age specified in the fifth sentence of the first paragraph from 21 to 18 years, and made minor changes in style.

Apportionment of Damages

It was not error for the jury to express its award of damages separately to lessor and lessee rather than state a single lump sum when such award was not excessive, was supported by substantial evidence, and did not reflect an increased valuation due solely to a distribution of interest. State Highway Commission v. City Service Co., 142 M 559, 385 P 2d 604, distinguished in State Highway Commission v. Barnes, 151 M 300, 443 P 2d 16.

Expert Testimony as to Value

Testimony of expert witnesses showing that although presently used for agricultural purposes, highest and best use of land was for residential subdivision, showing comparative values of similar land in same geographical area, and showing how property could have been subdivided and how highway running through it detracted from its suitability for subdivision, was sufficient to sustain jury's verdict as against contention of state that expert witnesses based their opinions on mere speculation. Montana State Highway Commission v. Jacobs, 150 M 322, 435 P 2d 274, explained in 155 M 176, 183, 468 P 2d 749.

Measurement of Damages

Where jury in condemnation action awarded damages for land taken in excess of amount requested by landowner and testified to by expert appraisers, trial court properly granted a new trial notwithstanding fact that total award was equal to amount sought by landowner as total damages. State Highway Commission v. Emery, 156 M 507, 481 P 2d 686.

Measure of Damages—Leasehold Interests

The proper value of a leasehold interest is the fair market value not the market value less future rent to be paid. State Highway Commission v. City Service Co., 142 M 559, 385 P 2d 604.

Severance Damages

While it is proper for the trial court to determine whether there has been an impairment of access, the question of the extent to which access has been impaired is for the jury, and it was not error for the court to refuse to give instructions to the effect that all means of access to the defendant's property had been destroyed. State Highway Commission v. Manry, 143 M 382, 390 P 2d 97.

To determine what is "remainder" of property taken under statute providing for damages for depreciation in value of portion of land not sought to be condemned, there are generally three tests: (1) unity of ownership, (2) contiguity, (3) unity of use; claimant who conveyed part of tract of subsequently condemned land to corporation was not entitled to compensation for depreciation in value to land he still held because claimant and corporation were two distinct owners and hence unity of ownership was absent even though claimant was majority shareholder of corporation and lands were contiguous. Montana State Highway Commission v. Robertson & Blossom Inc., 151 M 205, 441 P 2d 181.

Verdict Form

It was not prejudicial error for the trial judge to give the jury a verdict form which was in accord with this section and which verdict was not out of proportion to the damage done the defendant. State Highway Commission v. Manry, 143 M 382, 390 P 2d 97.

93-9913. (9945) The date with respect to which compensation shall be assessed. For the purpose of assessing compensation the right thereto shall be deemed to have accrued at the date of the service of the summons, and its actual value as of that date shall be the measure of compensation for all property to be actually taken, and the basis of depreciation in value of property not actually taken, but injuriously affected. This shall not be construed to limit the amount of compensation payable by the state highway commission under the provisions of any legislation enacted pursuant to the Federal Highway Beautification Act of 1965. If an order be made letting the plaintiff into possession, as provided in section 93-9920, the full amount finally awarded shall draw lawful interest from the date on which the property owner surrenders possession of the property in accordance with the terms of such order to the earlier of the following dates:

(a) The date on which the right to appeal to the Montana supreme court expires, or if appeal is filed, to the date of final decision by the supreme court, or

(b) The date on which the property owner withdraws from court the full amount finally awarded.

If the property owner withdraws from court a fraction of the amount finally awarded, interest on such fraction shall cease on the date it is withdrawn but interest on the remainder of the amount finally awarded shall continue to the earlier of the aforesaid dates defined in (a) and (b) of this section. None of the amount finally awarded shall draw interest after the date on which the right to appeal to the Montana supreme court expires. No improvements put upon the property, subsequent to the date of the service of summons, shall be included in the assessment of compensation or depreciation in value, nor shall the same be used as the basis of computing such compensation or depreciation.

Compiler's Notes

The Federal Highway Beautification Act of 1965, referred to in the first paragraph of this section, is compiled in the United States Code as Tit. 23, secs. 131, 136 and 319.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment divided the section into paragraphs; substituted "full amount finally awarded" for "amount awarded" before "shall draw lawful interest" in the third sentence of the first paragraph; substituted "earlier of the following dates" and clauses (a) and (b) at the end of the first paragraph for "date of receipt of the award or any portion thereof"; and substituted the first two sentences of the final paragraph for "provided, however, that interest shall not be allowed or paid on so much thereof as shall have been paid to the landowner involved or withdrawn by such landowner from the court."

The 1967 amendment added to the first sentence of the initial paragraph, "and the reasonable cost of removal of all necessary personal property from the condemned real property within a reasonable distance in the area, not to exceed the sum of six thousand dollars ($6,000) in the case of a business, farm or ranch relocation, and not to exceed the sum of four hundred dollars ($400) in any other case"; inserted the second sentence; and, at the end of subparagraph (a), added "if appeal is filed to the date of final decision by the supreme court, or."

The 1969 amendment deleted the provision, inserted by the 1967 amendment, concerning removal of personalty.

Separability Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 182, Laws 1965 read "If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause or provision of this act shall for any reason be held invalid or unenforceable, the invalidity or unenforceability thereof shall not affect any of the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses or provisions of this act."

Repealing Clause

Section 3 of Ch. 182, Laws 1965 read "All acts, or parts thereof, inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed to the extent only of such inconsistency. This repealer shall not be construed to revive any act or part thereof, heretofore repealed."

Effective Date

Section 4 of Ch. 182, Laws 1965 provided the act should be in effect from and after its passage and approval. Approved March 4, 1965.

Appeal

In eminent domain proceedings the findings of the district court will generally not be disturbed on appeal unless they are so obviously and palpably out of proportion to the injury done as to be in excess of just compensation provided for by section 14, article III of the Montana constitution. State Highway Commission v. Woodcock, 147 M 291, 411 P 2d 357.

Assessment of Compensation

Where condemnee's house was between 50 and 60 years old and had been converted into a multiple family dwelling, court did not err in excluding evidence of reconstruction costs or comparable sales elsewhere in determining value of the property since there was no way of determining depreciation of the old house in arriving at reconstruction cost figures, nor were there sufficient comparable sales in the area. State Highway Commission v. Tubbs, 147 M 296, 411 P 2d 739.

Commercial Use

Where state highway commission in order to show public access to highway presented two appraisal witnesses to show that there was access at a certain exit in which case there would be no loss of commercial usefulness, it was quite proper and necessary to rebut this testimony and to let the jury know the type of easement provided for the access exit. State ex rel. State Highway Commission v. Wheeler, 148 M 246, 419 P 2d 492, 498.

Cost of Moving Personal Property

Where friends of condemnees gratuitously aided them in moving personal property from condemned realty, condemnees were not entitled to recover the costs of their friends' labor as an element of damages. State Highway Commission v. Manry, 143 M 382, 390 P 2d 97.

Depreciation on Inventory

This section requires the state to pay for any damage to personal property removed from condemned land including any depreciation in the inventory value of such property. State Highway Commission v. City Service Co., 142 M 559, 385 P 2d 604.

Improvements

In eminent domain proceeding trial court did not err in excluding evidence concerning improvement of sole access road to ranch property remaining after state highway commission had taken part of the property for right of way for interstate highway, where any changes in access were made after the date of service of the summons in the condemnation action. State ex rel. State Highway Commission v. Wheeler, 148 M 246, 419 P 2d 492, 497.

Market Value

The proper value of a leasehold interest is the fair market value not the market value less future rent to be paid. State Highway Commission v. City Service Co., 142 M 559, 385 P 2d 604.

Where state not only took part of plaintiff's land, but also eliminated an old channel of water and diked up a new channel, thus creating a flood basin on plaintiff's land, evidence of actual results of taking was proper, even though land values are usually measured as of the date of summons. State Highway Commission v. Biastoch Meats, Inc., 145 M 261, 400 P 2d 274.

When there is a market for the type of property being condemned, and the property has no other intrinsic value, courts will adopt a market value in determining the actual value of the property, which is nothing more than the price resulting from fair negotiations between a willing seller and buyer. State Highway Commission v. Tubbs, 147 M 296, 411 P 2d 739.

Where actual value as determined by jury is based on credible testimony as to market value of highest and best use for which land is available, the verdict and judgment will not be set aside. State Highway Commission v. Vaughan, 155 M 277, 470 P 2d 967.

Apportionment of Damages

It was not error for the jury to express its award of damages separately to lessor and lessee rather than state a single lump sum when such award was not excessive, was supported by substantial evidence, and did not reflect an increased valuation due solely to a distribution of title. State Highway Commission v. City Service Co., 142 M 559, 385 P 2d 604, distinguished in State Highway Commission v. Barnes, 151 M 300, 443 P 2d 16.

Delay in Payment of Damages

In eminent domain proceedings where the state highway commission did not move within thirty days as required by this section, it could not excuse its failure to pay by alleging that it had no notice of the entry of judgment when the commission itself had caused the judgment to be entered. Robertson v. State Highway Commission, 148 M 275, 420 P 2d 21, 24.

93-9918. (9950) Damages—to whom paid.

Delay in Payment of Damages

In eminent domain proceeding where the state highway commission did not move within thirty days as required by section 93-9917, it could not excuse its failure to pay by alleging that it had no notice of the entry of the judgment when the commission itself had caused the judgment to be entered. Robertson v. State Highway Commission, 148 M 275, 420 P 2d 21, 24.

Stay of Execution

Where state highway commission filed notice of appeal and perfected their appeal after writ of execution under this section had issued, the appeal stayed the judgment although no bond was filed as required by section 93-8011 since under Rule 62(e), no security was required from the state. Robertson v. State Highway Commission, 148 M 275, 420 P 2d 21, 24.

93-9921. (9953) Repealed.

Repeal

Section 93-9921 (Sec. 597, p. 195, L. 1877), relating to allowance and apportionment of costs, was repealed by Sec. 2, Ch. 453, Laws 1973. For new law, see sec. 93-9921.1.

93-9921.1. Necessary expenses of litigation. The condemnor, shall within thirty (30) days after an appeal is perfected from the commissioner's award or report, submit to condemnee a written final offer of judgment for the property to be condemned, together with necessary expenses of condemnee then accrued.

If at any time prior to ten (10) days before trial, the condemnee serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon judgment shall be entered. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible at the trial except in a proceeding to determine costs. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. In the event of litigation, and when the private property owner prevails, by receiving an award in excess of the final offer of the condemnor, the court shall award necessary expenses of litigation to the condemnee.

Title of Act

An act implementing article II, section 29 of the 1972 Montana constitution, by providing for an award including necessary expenses of litigation when the private property owner prevails; repealing section 93-9921, R. C. M. 1947.

Repealing Clause

Section 2 of Ch. 453, Laws 1973 read "Section 93-9921, R. C. M. 1947, is repealed."

93-9927. Relocation assistance—purpose of act. It is the purpose of this act to provide for uniform and equitable treatment of persons displaced from their homes, businesses, or farms as a result of federally assisted programs, to establish uniform and equitable land acquisition policies for federally assisted programs and to comply with the federal "Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970."

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

Title of Act

An act to provide for relocation assistance to persons displaced as a result of acquisition of land for federally assisted programs and to provide for acquisition practices.

93-9928. Definition of terms in relocation assistance law. As used in this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Agency" means the state of Montana, a political subdivision of the state or any department, agency or instrumentality of the state of Montana or of a political subdivision of the state.

(2) "Average annual net earnings" means one-half (½) of any net earnings of a business or farm operation, before federal and state income taxes, during the two taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year in which such business or farm operation moves from real property acquired for a project of an agency (for which federal financial assistance is available to pay all or any part of the cost) or during such other period as the acquiring agency determines to be more equitable for establishing such earnings, and includes any compensation paid by the business or farm operation to the owner, his spouse, or his dependents during such period.

(3) "Business" means any lawful activity, excepting a farm operation, conducted primarily:

(a) for the purchase, sale, lease and rental of personal and real property, and for the manufacture, processing, or marketing of products, commodities, or any other personal property;

(b) for the sale of services to the public;

(c) by a nonprofit organization; or

(d) solely for the purposes of section 3 [93-9929] (1) of this act, for assisting in the purchase, sale, resale, manufacture, processing, or marketing of products, commodities, personal property, or services by the erection and maintenance of an outdoor advertising display or displays, whether or not such display or displays are located on the premises on which any of the above activities are conducted.

(4) "Displaced person" means any person who, on or after the effective date of this act, moves from real property, or moves his personal property from real property, as a result of the acquisition of such real property, in whole or in part, or as the result of the written order of an acquiring agency to vacate real property, for a program or project undertaken by the agency, for which federal financial assistance will be available to pay all or any part of the cost; and solely for the purposes of section 3 [93-9929] (1) and (2) and section 6 [93-9932] of this act, as a result of the acquisition of, or as the result of the written order of, the acquiring agency to vacate other real property, on which such person conducts a business or farm operation, for such program or project. The term

"displaced person" also includes a person who moves or discontinues his business or moves other personal property, or moves from his dwelling as the direct result of code enforcement activities, or a program of rehabilitation of buildings conducted pursuant to a federal program.

(5) "Federal act" means the "Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisitions Policies Act of 1970" or as that act may be amended.

(6) "Federal financial assistance" means a grant, loan, or contribution provided by the United States except any federal guarantee or insurance.

(7) "Farm operation" means any activity conducted solely or primarily for the production of one (1) or more agricultural products or commodities, including timber, for sale or home use, and customarily producing such products or commodities in sufficient quantity to be capable of contributing materially to the operator's support.

(8) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation or association.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9929. Payments to displaced persons—moving expense allowance—business losses. (1) Whenever the acquisition of real property for a program or project of an agency (for which federal financial assistance is available to pay all or any part of the cost) will result in the displacement of any person, the agency shall make payment to the displaced person, upon application as approved by the agency, for:

(a) actual reasonable expenses in moving himself, his family, business, farm operation, or other personal property;

(b) actual direct losses of tangible personal property as a result of moving or discontinuing a business or farm operation, but not to exceed an amount equal to the reasonable expenses that would have been required to relocate such property, as determined by the agency; and

(c) actual reasonable expenses in searching for a replacement business or farm.

(2) In lieu of payments for actual expenses and losses under subsection (1) of this section a person who is displaced from a dwelling may elect to receive a moving expense allowance determined according to a schedule established by the agency and a dislocation allowance, neither of which may exceed the maximum allowances under section 202 (b) of the federal act.

(3) In lieu of payments for actual expenses and losses under subsection (1) of this section a person who is displaced from his place of business or from his farm operation may receive a fixed payment in an amount equal to the average annual net earnings of the business or farm operation provided that:

(a) the payment shall not be less nor more than the amounts set forth in section 202 (c) of the federal act;

(b) in the case of a business no payment shall be made under this subsection unless the acquiring agency is satisfied that the business cannot be relocated without a substantial loss of its existing patronage and is not a part of a commercial enterprise having at least one (1) other establishment not being acquired by an agency, which is engaged in the same or similar business.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9930. Additional payments for displacement from dwelling owned by occupant. (1) In addition to payments otherwise authorized by this act, the acquiring agency shall make an additional payment to any displaced person who is displaced from a dwelling actually owned and occupied by such displaced person for not less than one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the property. The additional payment shall include the following elements:

(a) the amount may not exceed the amount allowed under section 203 of the federal act,

(b) the amount, if any, which when added to the acquisition cost of the dwelling acquired by the agency, equals the reasonable cost of a comparable replacement dwelling which is a decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling adequate to accommodate such displaced person, reasonably accessible to public services and places of employment and available on the private market. All determinations required to carry out this subsection (b) shall be made in accordance with regulations issued by the acquiring agency.

(c) the amount, if any, which will compensate the displaced person for any increased interest costs which the person is required to pay for financing the acquisition of any comparable replacement dwelling. The amount shall be paid only if the dwelling acquired by the agency was encumbered by a bona fide mortgage which was a valid lien on such dwelling for not less than one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the dwelling. The amount shall be equal to the excess in the aggregate interest and other debt service costs of that amount of the principal of the mortgage on the replacement dwelling which is equal to the unpaid balance of the mortgage on the acquired dwelling, over the remainder term of the mortgage on the acquired dwelling, reduced to discounted present value. The discount rate shall be the prevailing interest rate paid on savings deposits by commercial banks in the general area in which the replacement dwelling is located.

(d) reasonable expenses incurred by the displaced person for evidence of title, recording fees, and other closing costs incident to the purchase of the replacement dwelling, but not including prepaid expenses.

(2) The additional payment authorized by this section shall be made only to a displaced person who purchases and occupies a replacement dwelling which is decent, safe, and sanitary not later than the end of the one (1) year period beginning on the date on which he received from the agency final payment of all costs of the acquired dwelling, or on the date on which he moves from the acquired dwelling, whichever is the later date.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9931. Additional payments for displacement from rented dwelling. In addition to amounts otherwise authorized by this act the acquiring agency shall make a payment to or for any displaced person displaced from any dwelling not eligible to receive a payment under section 4 [93-9930] of this act if the dwelling was actually and lawfully occupied by the displaced person for not less than ninety (90) days prior to the initiation of negotiations for acquisition of such dwelling. The payment shall be either:

(1) the amount necessary to enable the displaced person to lease or rent for a period not to exceed four (4) years, a decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling of standards adequate to accommodate such person in areas not generally less desirable in regard to public utilities and public and commercial facilities, and reasonably accessible to his place of employment, but not to exceed the amount allowable under section 204 of the federal act; or

(2) the amount necessary to enable such person to make a down payment (including reasonable expenses for evidence of title, recording fees, and other closing costs incident to the purchase of a dwelling, but not including prepaid expenses) on the purchase of a decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling of standards adequate to accommodate such person in areas not generally less desirable in regard to public utilities and public and commercial facilities. The amount payable under this subsection (2) shall not exceed the amount allowable under section 204 of the federal act and shall be subject to the same matching requirements as under said section.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9932. Relocation advisory services. (1) Whenever the acquisition of real property for a program or project of an agency (for which federal financial assistance is available to pay all or any part of the cost) will result in the displacement of any person, the agency shall provide a relocation assistance advisory program for displaced persons which offers the services described in this section. If the acquiring agency determines that any person occupying property immediately adjacent to the real property acquired is caused substantial economic injury because of the acquisition, he may offer such person relocation advisory services.

(2) The relocation advisory service may include such budget, debt management and related counseling services as the acquiring agency determines will assist the displaced person. The relocation assistance program shall include such measures, facilities, or services as may be necessary or appropriate in order to:

(a) determine the need, if any, of displaced persons, for relocation assistance;

(b) provide current and continuing information on the availability, prices, and rentals of comparable decent, safe, and sanitary sales and rental housing, and of comparable commercial properties and locations for displaced businesses;

(c) assist a displaced person displaced from his business or farm operation in obtaining and becoming established in a suitable replacement location;

(d) supply information concerning federal and state housing programs, disaster loan programs and other federal or state programs offering assistance to displaced persons; and

(e) provide other advisory services to displaced persons in order to minimize hardships to displaced persons in adjusting to relocation;

(f) secure the co-ordination of relocation activities with other project activities and other planned or proposed federal or state actions in the community or nearby areas which may affect the relocation program.

(3) In order to prevent unnecessary expenses and duplication of functions and to promote uniform and effective administration of relocation assistance programs, an agency may enter into contracts with any individual, firm, association, or corporation for services in connection with such programs, or may carry out its functions under this act through any federal or state agency having an established organization for conducting relocation assistance programs. Each agency whenever practicable, shall utilize the services of state or local housing agencies, or other agencies having experience in the administration or conduct of similar housing assistance activities.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9933. Assurance of availability of suitable replacement dwellings. Whenever the acquisition of real property for a program or project of an agency (for which federal financial assistance is available to pay all or any part of the cost) will result in the displacement of any person, the agency shall assure that, within a reasonable period of time, prior to displacement there will be available in areas not generally less desirable in regard to public utilities and public and commercial facilities and at rents or prices within the financial means of the families and individuals displaced, decent, safe, and sanitary dwellings, as defined by the federal agency concerned with administering the federal financial assistance, equal in number to the number of and available to such displaced persons who require such dwellings and reasonably accessible to their places of employment.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9934. Relocation costs included in project costs—replacement housing. The acquiring agency shall include the cost of providing payments and assistance under the provisions of this act in the cost of any project for which federal financial assistance is available to pay all or any part of the cost. The acquiring agency shall also provide the payments and assistance and assure the availability of replacement housing for displaced persons, who are displaced as a result of real property being acquired by an agency and furnished as a required contribution incident to a federal program or project.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9935. Public assistance eligibility unimpaired—tax exemption of payments. No payment received by a displaced person under this act shall be considered as income or resources for the purpose of determining the eligibility of any person for assistance under any state law or for the purposes of determining income under state tax laws.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9936. Appeal to district court from administrative determination. Any person aggrieved by final administrative determination concerning eligibility for relocation payments authorized by this act may appeal such determination to the district court of the county in which the land acquired is located.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9937. Appraisal and negotiation policies—time allowed to move—condemnation proceedings. An agency which acquires real property for a program or project for which federal financial assistance will be available to pay all or any part of the cost of such program or project shall comply with the following policies:

(1) The agency shall make every reasonable effort to acquire expeditiously real property by negotiation.

(2) Real property shall be appraised before the initiation of negotiations, and the owner or his designated representative shall be given an opportunity to accompany the appraiser during his inspection of the property.

(3) Before the initiation of negotiations for real property, an amount shall be established which it is reasonably believed is just compensation therefor and such amount shall be offered for the property. In no event shall such amount be less than the approved appraisal of the fair market value of such property. Any decrease or increase in the fair market value of real property prior to the date of valuation caused by the public improvement for which such property is acquired, or by the likelihood that the property would be acquired for such improvement, other than that due to physical deterioration within the reasonable control of the owner, shall be disregarded in determining the compensation for the property. The owner of the real property to be acquired shall be provided with a written statement of, and summary of the basis for, the amount established as just compensation. Where appropriate, the just compensation for the real property acquired and for damages to remaining real property shall be separately stated.

(4) No owner shall be required to surrender possession of real property before the agreed purchase price is paid or before there is deposited with the court, in accordance with applicable law, for the benefit of the owner, an amount not less than the approved appraisal of the fair market value of such property, or the amount of the award of compensation in the condemnation proceeding of such property.

(5) The construction or development of a program or project for which federal financial assistance will be available to pay all or any part of the cost of the program or project shall be so scheduled that, to the greatest extent practicable, no person lawfully occupying real property shall be required to move from a dwelling (assuming a replacement dwelling will be available) or to move his business or farm operation without at least ninety (90) days' written notice of the date by which such move is required.

(6) If an owner or tenant is permitted to occupy the real property acquired on a rental basis for a short term or for a period subject to termination by the acquiring agency on short notice, the amount of rent required shall not exceed the fair rental value of the property to a short-term occupier.

(7) In no event shall the time of condemnation be advanced, or negotiations or condemnation and the deposit of funds in court for the use of the owner be deferred, or any other action coercive in nature be taken to compel an agreement on the price to be paid for the property.

(8) If an interest in real property is to be acquired by exercise of the power of eminent domain, formal condemnation proceedings shall be instituted. The acquiring agency shall not intentionally make it necessary for an owner to institute legal proceedings to prove the fact of the taking of his real property.

(9) If the acquisition of only part of the property would leave its owner with an uneconomic remnant, an offer to acquire the entire property shall be made.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9938. Advancement of closing costs and taxes incurred by owner. Any agency acquiring real property for a program or project for which federal financial assistance will be available to pay all or any part of the cost of the program or project shall, as soon as practicable after the date of payment of the purchase price or the date of deposit into court of funds to satisfy the award of compensation in a condemnation proceeding to acquire real property, whichever is the earlier, reimburse the owner, to the extent the acquiring agency deems fair and reasonable, for expenses he necessarily incurred for recording fees, transfer taxes, and similar expenses incidental to conveying such real property to the acquiring agency; penalty costs for prepayment for any pre-existing recorded mortgage or deed of trust entered into in good faith encumbering such real property; and the prorata portion of real property taxes paid which are allocable to a period subsequent to the date of vesting title in the acquiring agency, or the effective date of possession of such real property by the acquiring agency, whichever is the earlier.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9939. Reimbursement of costs when condemnation proceedings abandoned. Where a condemnation proceeding is instituted by an agency to acquire real property for a program or project for which federal financial assistance is available, and the final judgment is that the real property cannot be acquired by condemnation or that the proceeding is abandoned, the owner of any right, title, or interest in such real property shall be paid such sum as will, in the opinion of the court, reimburse such owner for his reasonable attorney, appraisal, and engineering fees, actually incurred because of the condemnation proceedings. The award of such sums will be paid by the agency which sought to condemn the property.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9940. Expenses included in inverse condemnation judgment or settlement. Where an inverse condemnation proceeding is instituted by the owner of any right, title, or interest in real property because of the alleged taking of his property for any program or project for which federal financial assistance will be available to pay all or any part of the cost of the program or project, the court, rendering a judgment for the plaintiff in such proceeding and awarding compensation for the taking of property, or attorney for the acquiring agency effecting a settlement of any such proceeding, shall determine and award or allow to such plaintiff, as a part of such judgment or settlement, such sum as will, in the opinion of the court or such attorney, reimburse such plaintiff for his reasonable costs, disbursements, and expenses including reasonable attorney, appraisal, and engineering fees, actually incurred because of such proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9941. Acquisition of buildings and improvements affected—payments to tenant. (1) Where any interest in real property is acquired for a program or project for which federal assistance will be available to pay all or any part of the cost of the program or project, the acquiring agency shall acquire an equal interest in all buildings, structures, or other improvements located upon the real property so acquired and which are required to be removed from such real property or which the acquiring agency determines will be adversely affected by the use to which such real property will be put.

(2) For the purpose of determining the just compensation to be paid for any building, structure, or other improvement required to be acquired by subsection (1) of this section, such building, structure, or other improvement shall be deemed to be a part of the real property to be acquired notwithstanding the right or obligation of a tenant, as against the owner of any other interest in the real property, to remove such building, structure, or improvement at the expiration of his term, and the fair market value which such building, structure, or improvement contributes to the fair market value of the real property to be acquired, or the fair market value of such building, structure, or improvement for removal from the real property, whichever is the greater, shall be paid to the tenant therefor.

Payment for such buildings, structures, or improvements as set forth in this subsection (2) shall not result in duplication of any payments otherwise authorized by state law. No such payment shall be made unless the owner of the land involved disclaims all interest in the improvements of the tenant. In consideration for any such payment the tenant shall assign, transfer, and release all his right, title, and interest in and to such improvements. Nothing in this subsection (2) shall be construed to deprive the tenant of any rights to reject payment and to obtain payment for such property interests in accordance with other laws of the state.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9942. Duplication of eminent domain payments not intended. No payment or assistance provided for in this act shall be required to be made by an agency if the displaced person receives a payment required by the laws of eminent domain which is determined by the agency to have substantially the same purpose and effect as such payment under this act.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9943. New rights and powers not created. (1) The provisions of section 7 [93-9933] of this act create no rights or liabilities and shall not affect the validity of any property acquisition by purchase or condemnation.

(2) Nothing in this act shall be construed as creating in any condemnation proceedings brought under the power of eminent domain any element of value or damage not in existence immediately prior to the effective date of this act.

(3) Nothing in this act shall be construed as, directly or indirectly, granting any new or additional power of eminent domain.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

93-9944. Application to all federally assisted programs. This act shall apply to all acquisitions of real property by an agency for a program or project for which federal financial assistance is available to pay all or any part of the cost.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 3, 2nd Ex. L. 1971.

CHAPTER 100—NAMES—CHANGE OF NAMES OF PERSONS —OF WATERCOURSES

Section 93-100-2. Application for change of name—how made.

93-100-2. (9964) Application for change of name—how made. All applications for change of names must be made to the district court of the county where the person whose name is proposed to be changed resides, by petition, signed by such person; and if such person is under eighteen (18) years of age, by one of the parents, if living, or if both be dead, then by the guardian; and if there be no guardian, then by some near relative or friend. The petition must specify the place of birth and residence of such person, his or her present name, the name proposed, and the reason for such change of name; and must, if the father of such person be not living, name, as far as known to the petitioner, the near relatives of such person, and their place of residence. Any religious, benevolent, literary, scientific corporation, or any corporation bearing or having for its name, or using or being known by the name of, any benevolent or charitable order or society, may, by petition, apply to the district court of the county in which its articles of incorporation were originally filed, or in which the property of such corporation is situated, for a change of its corporate name. Such petition must be signed by a majority of the directors or trustees of the corporation, and must specify the date of the formation of the corporation, the name proposed, and the reason for such change of name. Upon filing such petition on behalf of such corporation, the same proceedings shall be had as upon applications for changes of names of natural persons, and no banking corporation hereafter organized shall adopt or use the name of any other banking corporation or association, or of any friendly association.

History: En. Sec. 2261, C. Civ. Proc. 1895; re-en. Sec. 7361, Rev. C. 1907; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 39, L. 1921; re-en. Sec. 9964, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 21, Ch. 240, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 33, Ch. 94, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment changed the age specified in the first sentence from 21 for males and 18 for females to 19 for either.

The 1973 amendment reduced the age specified in the first sentence from nineteen to eighteen years.

CHAPTER 301—EVIDENCE—DEFINITIONS—KINDS AND DEGREES OF

93-301-4. (10491) The degree of proof required to establish facts.

Criminal Cases

Evidence that included victim's testimony corroborated by medical evidence was sufficient to support jury conviction of statutory rape. State v. Anderson, 156 M 122, 476 P 2d 780.

Insufficient Evidence

Where lessee alleged breach of covenant of quiet enjoyment on grounds that he had been substantially deprived of his prorata share of parking spaces in shopping center lot, his evidence in support of allegations was insufficient under this section and section 93-301-13 since it consisted only of testimony that on one occasion parking lot was full but only three tables were occupied in lessee's restaurant. Joseph v. Hustad Corp., 153 M 121, 454 P 2d 916.

Where owner of mineral rights to property built road for access to his oil well on property owned by plaintiff and such road was alleged to have been causing plaintiff's dam and spillway to erode, jury verdict of damages for such injury was reversed, since dam and spillway had not in fact washed out and evidence did not indicate conclusively that washout was inevitable; therefore plaintiff's evidence did not preponderate in favor of findings on which it was based as provided by this section and section 93-301-13. Hurley v. Northern Pacific R. Co., 153 M 199, 455 P 2d 321.

93-301-11. (10498) Prima-facie evidence defined.

Ownership of Cattle

Although under sections 46-606 and 67-308 prima facie the owners of the recorded brand have the same interest in the cattle bearing their brand as shown in brand record, joint ownership of the cattle may be contradicted and overcome by other evidence under this section. Marshall v. Minlschmidt, 148 M 263, 419 P 2d 486, 490.

In action by administrator of estate of deceased partner against surviving partners to recover assets transferred by deceased during his last illness, evidence that deceased had a half interest in partnership cattle and failure of defendants to produce any of the partnership records at the trial in the lower court, sustained finding that heir of deceased had overcome the prima facie showing of one-third interest in the partnership cattle arising from the recording of the brand in name of three persons. Marshall v. Minlschmidt, 148 M 263, 419 P 2d 486, 491.

Statutory Rape

Prima facie case of statutory rape was established by testimony of rape victim on cross- and redirect examination that defendant had committed an act of sexual intercourse with her. State v. Anderson, 156 M 122, 476 P 2d 780.

93-301-13. (10500) Satisfactory evidence defined.

Insufficient Evidence

Where lessee alleged breach of covenant of quiet enjoyment on grounds that he had been substantially deprived of his prorata share of parking spaces in shopping center lot, his evidence in support of allegations was insufficient under this section and section 93-301-4 since it consisted only of testimony that on one occasion parking lot was full but only three tables were occupied in lessee's restaurant. Joseph v. Hustad Corp., 153 M 121, 454 P 2d 916.

Where owner of mineral rights to property built road for access to his oil well on property owned by plaintiff and such road was alleged to have been causing plaintiff's dam and spillway to erode, jury verdict of damages for such injury was reversed since dam and spillway had not in fact washed out and evidence did not indicate conclusively that washout was inevitable; therefore plaintiff's evidence did not preponderate in favor of findings on which it was based as provided by this section and section 93-301-4. Hurley v. Northern Pacific R. Co., 153 M 199, 455 P 2d 321.

CHAPTER 401—EVIDENCE—GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF

93-401-4. (10508) Witness presumed to speak the truth.

Accomplice as Witness

In a first degree burglary case the credibility of the defendant's accomplice, a convicted felon, was for the jury. State v. Barick, 143 M 273, 389 P 2d 170.

Credibility of Witnesses

Testimony that a truck had earlier been observed traveling at 65 to 70 miles per hour was admissible to impeach the credibility of driver's employer, who had testified that the truck could not attain speeds higher than 35 to 38 miles per hour. Seder v. Peter Kiewit Sons' Co., 156 M 322, 479 P 2d 448.

93-401-7. (10511) Declarations which are a part of the transaction.

Time between Transaction and Declaration

In a negligence action by passenger of car struck by truck, testimony of truck driver concerning declarations of driver of automobile concerning speed at which he was traveling was admissible even though made some ten minutes after collision. Blevins v. Weaver Constr. Co., 150 M 158, 432 P 2d 378.

93-401-9. (10513) Declaration of decedent evidence of pedigree.

State Highway Commission v. Churchwell, 146 M 52, 403 P 2d 751.

93-401-12. (10516) Contents of writing—how proved.

Duplicate Original

Carbon copy made at same time as original and with all formalities of the first sheet was a "duplicate original" and thereby properly admitted as original retail installment contract without explanation of failure to produce the ribbon copy. Morris v. Langhausen, 155 M 362, 472 P 2d 860.

Laboratory Test Results

In an action for damages for death of dairy cows and losses occasioned by poisoning, allowing cattle owner to testify concerning laboratory test results was not prejudicial where the testimony was brought out properly later without objection. Hopkins v. Ravalli County Electric Cooperative, Inc., 144 M 161, 395 P 2d 106, 109, 12 ALR 3d 1096.

93-401-13. (10517) An agreement reduced to writing deemed the whole.

Clear Language

Parol testimony was not admissible to extend the term of a permissive easement beyond the expiration date set in a written agreement that clearly contained no mistake, imperfection or ambiguity. Larson v. Burnett, 158 M 421, 492 P 2d 921.

No ambiguity existed between clause conveying one-half of the minerals in 1,040 acres and the conveyance of 520 mineral acres, so that mineral deed could not be varied by parol evidence. Superior Oil Co. v. Vanderhoof, 297 F Supp 1086.

Completeness of Writing

Statements made by various agency personnel in regard to continued use of defendant's office building were not admissible under parol evidence rule to alter or contradict terms of express written contract since such statements and assurances did not come within any recognized exception to rule and since defendant admitted that he knew written contract would be controlling. United States v. Willard E. Fraser Co., 308 F Supp 557, affirmed 459 F 2d 483.

93-401-15. (10519) Construction of statutes and instruments, etc.

Insurance Policy

Clause in disability insurance policy which provided that benefits were payable only in cases involving continuous and total disability within 30 days of date of accident preventing performance of every duty pertaining to insured's occupation, precluded recovery under policy by insured who returned to work temporarily within 30-day period and was able to do a portion of his duties since, where language admits of only one meaning, there is no room for interpretation under the guise of ambiguity. 93-401-17. (10521) The circumstances to be considered.

Building Lease

Statements made by various agency personnel in regard to continued use of defendant's office building were not admissible under parol evidence rule to alter or contradict terms of express written contract since such statements and assurances did not come within any recognized exception to rule and since defendant admitted that he knew written contract would be controlling. United States v. Willard E. Fraser Co., 308 F Supp 557, affirmed 459 F 2d 483.

Intention of Parties

Informal written instrument stating "I wish to pay" and uncontradicted evidence that donor rejected lawyers and wanted to give a gift established donative intent. Faith Lutheran Retirement Home v. Veis, 156 M 38, 473 P 2d 503.

Mineral Deed

No ambiguity existed between clause conveying one-half of the minerals in 1,040 acres and the conveyance of 520 mineral acres, so that mineral deed could not be varied by parol evidence. Superior Oil Co. v. Vanderhoof, 297 F Supp 1086.

93-401-26. (10530) Affirmative only can be proved.

Notice

Where plaintiff alleged giving of notice which defendant denied, notice or lack thereof was put in issue and plaintiff had burden of proof. Glacier General Assurance Co. v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Ins. Co., 150 M 452, 436 P 2d 533.

Partial Payment

Partial payment by special deposit was an affirmative defense which debtor had burden of proving in suit on note; that burden of proof required that it be shown that payment was made on the particular obligation in controversy. Baker Nat. Bank v. Lestar, 153 M 45, 453 P 2d 774.

93-401-27. (10531) Facts which may be proved on trial.

Admission by Living Person

In an action by property owner against church camp for damage from fire begun by camp counselor, letter written by counselor admitting starting fire accidentally was inadmissible as declaration against interest since counselor, although unavailable to testify, was not dead within requirement of subdivision 4. MacDonald v. Protestant Episcopal Church, 150 M 332, 435 P 2d 369.

Admissions against Interest—Pleadings

Pre-trial order which limited issues to be litigated did not supersede plaintiff's original complaint to sustain trial court's ruling that defendant could not use complaint to cross-examine plaintiff concerning certain inconsistencies between plaintiff's original complaint and his testimony; although this refusal by trial court was error, it was not ground for reversal since error was "harmless." Fox v. Fifth West, Inc., 153 M 95, 454 P 2d 612.

Expert Testimony

Ex-highway patrolman, who had twenty years' experience investigating automobile accidents, including determinations of speed from skidmarks and surrounding circumstances, and was skilled in use of graphs and charts used by National Safety Council and Montana Highway Patrol in connection with determining speed from skidmarks, was qualified to give expert opinion evidence as to speed of defendant's automobile, even though he had retired from highway patrol some six years previously, had first heard of accident two weeks before trial, did not measure drag factor or coefficient of friction on particular road surface involved and, as mere highway patrolman, would not have been permitted to testify to investigation made year and one-half after accident. Graham v. Rolandson, 150 M 270, 435 P 2d 263.

CHAPTER 501—EVIDENCE—JUDICIAL NOTICE OF FACTS AND FOREIGN LAWS

93-501-1. (10532) Certain facts of general notoriety assumed to be, etc.

Actual Knowledge

The burden of proof is on the individual litigant, and the courts are not required by the doctrine of judicial notice to inform themselves of facts not within the actual knowledge of the court, nor need the courts take judicial notice of a fact or facts when the party desiring such notice does not request it. Holtz v. Babcock, 143 M 341, 389 P 2d 869, 390 P 2d 801.

Judicial Acts and Records

Probate judge, in determining distribution of estate, has power to determine circumstances of decedent's death and in doing so properly took notice under subdivision 2 of this section of wife's conviction of manslaughter in death of her husband. Sikora v. Sikora, — M —, 499 P 2d 808.

Succession to Office

The court took notice that upon his death the governor was succeeded as provided by law. Holtz v. Babcock, 143 M 341, 389 P 2d 869, 390 P 2d 801.

CHAPTER 701—EVIDENCE—WITNESSES

Section 93-701-4. Persons in certain relations cannot be examined.

93-701-1. (10533) Witness defined.

References

State v. Barick, 143 M 273, 389 P 2d 170.

93-701-2. (10534) All persons capable of perceptions, etc.

Felony Conviction

An accomplice may testify in a criminal case even though he is a convicted felon at the time of his testimony. State v. Barick, 143 M 273, 389 P 2d 170.

93-701-3. (10535) Persons who cannot be witnesses.

Deceased Agent—Injustice Prevented

Before a witness who is barred by subdivision 4 will be allowed to testify to prevent an injustice, a foundation must be laid by the introduction of other evidence which shows that in all probability the proponent had a meritorious cause of action. Johnson v. Mommoth Lode & Uranium Exploration Corp., 136 M 420, 348 P 2d 267.

Decedents' Estates—Injustice Prevented

District court did not abuse its discretion in allowing a witness otherwise barred under subdivision 3 to testify as to agreement with partner for mutual wills as against intestate heirs of deceased partner, upon showing that the witness and the deceased held saving accounts, corporate stock, and residence in joint tenancy with right of survivorship, that the witness and the deceased had had a lifelong association and successful partnership under both oral agreement and written articles of copartnership, that the witness had willed his entire estate to the deceased, and the witness and the deceased had intended for the proceeds of the sale of the partnership to be in joint tenancy with right of survivorship and that this was evidenced by an escrow receipt instructing payment of proceeds to a jointly held bank account. Hansen v. Kiernan, — M —, 499 P 2d 787.

Decedent's Estates—Written Communications

Trial court's finding based upon oral testimony concerning terms of contract executed by deceased was error since such oral testimony, varying terms of written contract, was inadmissible under this section. Davison v. Casebolt, 154 M 125, 461 P 2d 2.

References

State v. Barick, 143 M 273, 389 P 2d 170.

93-701-4. (10536) Persons in certain relations cannot be examined. There are particular relations in which it is the policy of the law to encourage confidence and to preserve it inviolate; therefore, a person cannot be examined as a witness in the following cases:

1. to 6. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

7. A counselor, psychologist, nurse, or teacher, employed by any educational institution, cannot be examined as to communications made to him in confidence by a duly registered student of such institution, provided however, that this provision shall not apply where consent has been given by the student, if not a minor, or if he is a minor, by the student and his parent or legal guardian.

8. A publisher, editor, reporter or other person connected with or employed upon a newspaper, or by a press association or wire service, or any person who has been so connected or employed, cannot without his consent be examined as to any communication made to him in confidence for the purpose of proper publication nor shall he be adjudged in contempt by a court, the legislature or any administrative body for refusing to disclose the source of any information procured while so connected or employed for publication and published in a newspaper.

Nor can a radio or television news reporter or other person connected with or employed by a radio or television station, or any person who has been so connected or employed, without his consent be examined as to any communication made to him in confidence for the purpose of proper publication nor shall he be so adjudged in contempt for refusing to disclose the source of any information procured while so connected or employed for news or news commentary purposes on radio or television.

Sec. 1, Ch. 130, L. 1931; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 61, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 318, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added subdivision 7.

The 1973 amendment added subdivision 8.

Attorney and Client

Opinions of house counsel rendered to an employer were entitled to the attorney-client privilege, and where portions of them had been disclosed in camera, the client was entitled to a protective order preventing their further disclosure or use in pleadings by the opponent. State ex rel. Union Oil Co. of California v. District Court, — M —, 503 P 2d 1008.

Physician and Patient

The physician-patient privilege under subsection 4 of this section is not available to a defendant in a criminal action since the provision in section 94-7209 (now 95-3001) incorporating the civil rules of evidence into the criminal law "except as otherwise provided" pertains to the language of subsection 4 which specifically limits the privilege to civil actions. State v. Campbell, 146 M 251, 405 P 2d 978, 22 ALR 3d 824.

CHAPTER 801—EVIDENCE—UNIFORM BUSINESS RECORDS AS EVIDENCE ACT—UNIFORM PHOTOGRAPHIC COPIES OF BUSINESS AND PUBLIC RECORDS AS EVIDENCE ACT

Section 93-801-5. Reproductions of originals.

93-801-1. "Business" defined.

NOTE.—Uniform State Law. In addition to the states listed in the note in the parent volume the following also have adopted the Uniform Business Records as Evidence Act: Connecticut, Michigan, and Rhode Island.

93-801-2. Proof of business records.

Accuracy of Records

In first degree murder trial, transcript of tape-recorded statement by defendant was not admissible as business record where no one testified as to the accuracy of the transcription and tapes were either lost or destroyed sometime between the time of the taking of the statement and the time of the trial. State v. Warwick, 158 M 531, 494 P 2d 627.

Medical Records

Medical testimony based on information acquired from outside sources, including examinations by other doctors, nurse's notes and observation, X-rays, and other tools of the profession used in making a diagnosis is admissible if part of the case file. Klaus v. Hillberry, 157 M 277, 485 P 2d 54.

93-801-5. Reproductions of originals. If any business, institution, member of a profession or calling, or any department or agency of government, in the regular course of business or activity has kept or recorded any memorandum, writing, entry, print, representation or combination thereof, of any act, transaction, occurrence or event, and in the regular course of business has caused any or all of the same to be recorded, copied or reproduced by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, microcard, miniature photographic, or other process which accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for so reproducing the original, the original may be destroyed in the regular course of business unless its preservation is required by law. Such reproduction, when satisfactorily identified, is as admissible in evidence as the original itself in any judicial or administrative proceeding, whether the original is in existence or not, and an enlargement or facsimile of such reproduction is likewise admissible in evidence, if the original reproduction is in existence and available for inspection under direction of court. The introduction of a reproduced record, enlargement or facsimile, does not preclude admission of the original.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 100, L. 1953; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 160, L. 1969.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment deleted a limitation in the first sentence that original may be destroyed unless "held in a custodial or fiduciary capacity."

NOTE.—Uniform State Law. In addition to the states listed in the note in the parent volume the following also have adopted the Uniform Photographic Copies of Business and Public Records as Evidence Act: Arkansas, Delaware, Michigan, and West Virginia.

CHAPTER 901—EVIDENCE—UNIFORM OFFICIAL REPORTS AS EVIDENCE ACT

93-901-1. Official reports admissible as evidence.

NOTE.—Uniform State Law. Sections 93-901-1 through 93-901-5 constitute the "Uniform Official Reports as Evidence Act" approved by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws in 1936 and adopted in various forms in Delaware, Florida, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Washington, Wisconsin, Wyoming, and also in the Virgin Islands.

CHAPTER 1301—EVIDENCE—INDIRECT—INFERENCES AND PRESUMPTIONS

93-1301-1. (10600) Indirect evidence classified.

Presumption Regarding Sentencing

Presumption that first offender under Dangerous Drug Act is entitled to delayed imposition of sentence is kind of indirect evidence under this section. State v. Simtob, 154 M 286, 462 P 2d 873.

93-1301-2. (10601) Inference defined.

Inference Distinguished from Suspicion

An inference is to be distinguished from mere suspicion which is "the act or an instance of suspecting: imagination or apprehension of something wrong or hurtful without proof or on slight evidence" (quoting Webster's New International Dictionary, 3rd ed. 1961). State v. Barick, 143 M 273, 389 P 2d 170.

93-1301-3. (10602) Presumption defined.

Presumption Regarding Sentencing

93-1301-5. (10604) Presumptions may be converted, when.

Adverse Possession

Although this section provides that presumptions may be overcome by other evidence, presumption of adverse possession was not overcome by evidence showing acquiescence since acquiescence did not amount to permissive use or license. O'Connor v. Brodie, 153 M 129, 454 P 2d 920.

93-1301-6. (10605) Specification of conclusive presumptions.

Deed from Mother to Son

Conclusive presumption was not established in situation where court refused to impose constructive trust upon lands deeded to son by aged mother. Bodine v. Bodine, 149 M 29, 422 P 2d 650.

Estoppel by Own Acts

The doctrine of equitable estoppel set forth in subdivision 3 of this section is not available as a defense when the essential elements of estoppel are lacking. Belhumeur v. Dawson, 229 F Supp 78, 86.

Legitimacy

Child is presumed legitimate if mother and father were married. Spradlin v. United States, 262 F Supp 502.

93-1301-7. (10606) All other presumptions may be controverted.

Controversion of Presumption

Presumption that first offender under Dangerous Drug Act is entitled to delayed imposition of sentence is disputable and may be controverted by other evidence but controls unless so contradicted. State v. Simtob, 154 M 286, 462 P 2d 873.

Subdivision 4

Deceased was presumed to have taken ordinary care of his own concerns, however plaintiff's evidence in wrongful death action showing deceased's failure to properly test empty gasoline tank before welding it which could very well have been cause of accident contradicted presumption. Knowlton v. Sandaker, 150 M 438, 436 P 2d 98.

Subdivision 15

Statutory presumption that "official duty has been regularly performed" was not overcome where defendant offered no evidence to show that any prospective juror was improperly excused from service and where judge testified that no prospective juror was excused from service without valid statutory excuse. State v. Corliss, 150 M 40, 430 P 2d 632.

On basis of statutory presumption and on basis of testimony of county employee that he had been ordered to maintain road by county commissioner who was also owner of the land, court concluded that then owner of land regarded road as public highway, in determining that public highway had been established by prescriptive use. Kostbade v. Metier, 150 M 139, 432 P 2d 382.

Findings and conclusions of district court are presumed correct and will not be reversed on appeal unless evidence, even though conflicting, preponderates against them. Breen v. Industrial Accident Board, 150 M 463, 436 P 2d 701.

Statutory presumption in subdivision 15 imposed a heavy burden upon party attacking bank superintendent's order permitting establishment of another bank in a community, and where superintendent made a thorough investigation, secured opposing views, and considered all evidence, including some confidential evidence as to economic prospects within the community, the evidence that he acted within his discretionary powers was so great as to support a summary judgment denying injunction or prohibition against the superintendent's action. Miners & Merchants Bank v. Dowdall, 158 M 142, 489 P 2d 1274.

Statutory presumption of correctness of secretary of state's certification as to total number of electors voting at election on new constitution was overcome by demonstrable fact, apparent from other figures in his certificate, that not that many electors cast valid votes on either side of the question. State ex rel. Cashmore v. Anderson, — M —, 500 P 2d 921.

Where petitioner claimed, fourteen years after his conviction, that his confession had been coerced and records of the proceedings against him were incomplete, but he had counsel to represent him on a second charge brought against him a few days later, presumption that petitioner had voluntarily waived right to counsel on the first charge, besides the fact that he had pleaded guilty to it so that confession was not used against him, reinforced presumption that the proceedings had not violated his constitutional rights. Frost v. State of Montana, 249 F Supp 349.

Subdivision 17

Absent proof that evidence at hearing on entry of default judgment was insufficient or that an erroneous standard of damages was used, presumption that judgment was correct controlled on appeal, and aggrieved party could not attack evidence on which default judgment was based by introducing evidence in support of his proposed defense at hearing on his motion to vacate default judgment. Uffleman v. Labbit, 152 M 238, 448 P 2d 690.

Where petitioner claimed, fourteen years after his conviction, that his confession had been coerced and records of the proceedings against him were incomplete, fact that defendant had pleaded guilty to the crime charged so that confession was not used, and record stated he had waived right to counsel reinforced presumption under this subdivision that defendant's constitutional rights to counsel and against self-incrimination had not been violated. Frost v. State of Montana, 249 F Supp 349.

Subdivision 18

Presumption was not overcome where jury found in favor of defendant on his counterclaim filed in response to plaintiff's action for negligence from which may be inferred fact that issue of defendant's negligence was before the jury and that in not finding for plaintiff jury concluded that defendant was not negligent. Ratcliff v. Murphy, 150 M 31, 430 P 2d 627.

Subdivision 24

Presumption under this section that condemnee had received revised contract from state was strengthened by facts that condemnee received other documents enclosed in the same envelope, the envelope was not returned to the state office and the condemnee was well-known in the vicinity. Crissey v. State Highway Commission, 147 M 374, 413 P 2d 308.

Testimony that notice was signed, placed in properly addressed envelope with sufficient postage thereon and mailed by certified mail was sufficient foundation for district court to admit original document into evidence and make finding that required notice was given. Treasure State Industries, Inc. v. Leigland, 151 M 288, 443 P 2d 22.

Fact that letter addressed to county department of public welfare was mailed does not establish when it was received or that it was received by a responsible official. Application of Hendrickson, — M —, 496 P 2d 1115.

Subdivision 30

Evidence that man and woman exchanged wedding rings, mutually declared their marriage, and thereafter openly lived together, supported finding that they were married. Estate of Swanson, — M —, 502 P 2d 33.

In view of statute recognizing common-law marriage, presumption that man and woman deporting themselves as husband and wife have entered into lawful contract of marriage is itself proof of marriage and is overcome as matter of law only when in light of proved facts reasonable men could no longer find in accordance with presumed fact. Spradlin v. United States, 262 F Supp 502.

Presumption of valid common-law marriage may be overcome if divorce records from the residences of alleged common-law husband reveal that he was not divorced from former wife or had not had former marriage annulled. Spradlin v. United States, 284 F Supp 763.

Subdivision 33

Findings and conclusions of district court are presumed correct and will not be reversed on appeal unless the evidence, even though conflicting, preponderates against them. Breen v. Industrial Accident Board, 150 M 463, 436 P 2d 701.

CHAPTER 1401—EVIDENCE—INDISPENSABLE—UNWRITTEN AGREEMENTS—CONCLUSIVE—UNANSWERABLE

93-1401-7. (10613) Agreement not in writing—when invalid.

Estoppel from Raising Statute

Promisor was estopped from raising statute of frauds as defense to action on oral agreement on basis of evidence of glaring inconsistencies in promisor's position. Daley v. Daley, 150 M 432, 436 P 2d 88.

Note or Memorandum

While the statute of frauds does not require that the memorandum be contained in a single document, where a memorandum did not name the parties to the alleged contract but referred to them as "we" and "our" and also tended to show that further negotiations were intended by the parties, it was not sufficient to satisfy the statute. Anderson v. KFBB Broadcasting Corp., 143 M 423, 391 P 2d 2, distinguished in Daley v. Daley, 150 M 432, 436 P 2d 88.

Part Performance

Where employer had been awarded construction contract to be completed in 360 days and hired employee under oral agreement almost immediately thereafter, fact that contract was later amended resulting in an extension of time to correct construction error did not make it invalid under this section, and therefore did not affect employee's right to recover salary upon being fired, since extension of time was not contemplated in the original contract; fact that employee had worked seven weeks also removed contract from bar of statute under doctrine of part performance. Fox v. Fifth West, Inc., 153 M 95, 454 P 2d 612.

Buyer's tender of payment and a conveyance to be executed by seller did not constitute such performance or memorandum as to take an oral agreement to sell land out of the operation of this section, where seller did not accept the tender or execute the conveyance. Myers v. Bendewald, — M —, 502 P 2d 412.

CHAPTER 1501—EVIDENCE—PRODUCTION OF—SUBPOENAS

93-1501-1. (10616) Evidence to be produced, by whom.

Burden of Proof

Plaintiff had burden of proof that disputed range rights were based on land other than that purchased jointly by plaintiff and defendant and failure so to prove defeated plaintiff's claim that defendants were not entitled to one-half the appraised value of the range rights. Watson v. Barnard, 155 M 75, 469 P 2d 539.

Negligence

Where plaintiff's property was damaged by the dropping of fire retardant from airplanes and at the trial he failed to come forth with sufficient evidence to show the lack of due care under the circumstances, the trial court properly nonsuited plaintiff upon defendant's motion. Stocking v. Johnson Flying Service, 143 M 61, 387 P 2d 312.

Where plaintiff alleged giving of notice which defendant denied, notice or lack thereof was put in issue and plaintiff had burden of proof. Glacier General Assurance Co. v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Ins. Co., 150 M 452, 436 P 2d 533.

Partial Payment

Partial payment by special deposit was an affirmative defense which debtor had burden of proving in suit on note; that burden of proof required that it be shown that payment was made on the particular obligation in controversy. Baker Nat. Bank v. Lestar, 153 M 45, 453 P 2d 774.

Res Ipsa Loquitur

Res ispa loquitur does not relieve the plaintiff of the burden of proving actionable negligence, nor is it sufficient that he show that he was injured and that the instrumentality which caused his injury was in the control of the defendant; he must also show that the accident would not have occurred in the ordinary course of events if the defendant had exercised due care. Stocking v. Johnson Flying Service, 143 M 61, 387 P 2d 312.

CHAPTER 1901—EVIDENCE—GENERAL RULES OF EXAMINATION

93-1901-2. (10660) Witness not under examination may be excluded.

Ignorance of Order

Fact that witness did not hear court's order to absent himself from courtroom and, although present during part of another witness's testimony, was allowed to testify, was not reversible error in absence of showing that defendant was prejudiced. State v. Love, 151 M 190, 440 P 2d 275.

Officers As Witnesses

Statute does not apply to police officers called as state's witnesses, so that court properly denied defendant's motion to exclude police officers from courtroom before their time to testify. State v. Fitzpatrick, 149 M 400, 427 P 2d 300.

93-1901-6. (10664) When witness may refresh memory from notes.

Pretrial Statement

Trial court did not abuse its discretion in permitting state's witness to testify after he had refreshed memory by referring to a statement he had made after shooting incident, in absence of prejudice to defendant and in light of fact that witness acknowledged that he made statement after incident, that he recognized statement and that signature on statement was his. State v. Gallagher, 151 M 501, 445 P 2d 45.

State v. Jones, 143 M 155, 387 P 2d 913.

93-1901-7. (10665) Cross-examination, as to what.

Prior Inconsistent Pleading

Complaint filed in previous action by father alleging boy's leg was 75% permanently disabled, signed under oath by father, was properly admitted on cross-examination of father who had previously testified otherwise. Tigh v. College Park Realty Co., 149 M 358, 427 P 2d 57.

93-1901-11. (10668) How impeached.

Contradictory Evidence

Employer's testimony that a truck could not be driven more than 35 to 38 miles per hour could be impeached by testimony that witness had, on a prior occasion, seen the truck traveling at 65 to 70 miles per hour. Seder v. Peter Kiewit Sons' Co., 156 M 322, 479 P 2d 448.

After defendant testified that over the past six years he had "only" been picked up five or six times for driving while his license was suspended, prosecution could properly show the remainder of his record, which included fifteen apprehensions for driving without a license, twelve speeding charges, six violations of basic rule, one display of a fictitious driving license, one improper lane usage, and two excessive muffler noise charges. State v. Deshner, 158 M 188, 489 P 2d 1290.

93-1901-12. (10669) Impeachment by evidence of declarations.

Prior Inconsistent Pleading

Complaint filed in previous action by father alleging that boy's leg was 75% permanently disabled, signed by father under oath, was properly admitted for purpose of impeaching father who had previously testified otherwise. Tigh v. College Park Realty Co., 149 M 358, 427 P 2d 57.

93-1901-13. (10670) Evidence of good character—when allowed.

Constructive Fraud

In action for damages by purchasers of land against sellers and their real estate agent, based on a theory of constructive fraud, the character of the defendants was not in issue and trial court's limitation of number of character witnesses was not prejudicial to defendant. Goggans v. Winkley, — M —, 495 P 2d 594.

93-1901-14. (10671) Writing shown to witness may be inspected, etc.

Pretrial Statement of Defendant

The trial court did not err in permitting state's witness to read entire statement of defendant wherein defendant was warned of constitutional rights since it was material evidence that defendant's constitutional rights and waiver thereof were clearly and understandably enunciated to defendant. State v. Lucero, 151 M 531, 445 P 2d 731.

CHAPTER 2001—EVIDENCE—EFFECT OF 93-2001-1. (10672) Jury judges of effect of evidence, etc.

Subdivision 3

Conviction would not be reversed for giving of instruction based on statute but including words "except in so far as it may be corroborated by other and credible evidence in the case," in absence of specific showing of prejudice. State v. Rollins, 149 M 481, 428 P 2d 462.

Subdivision 4—Accomplice's Testimony

Where the court gave a defendant's instruction quoting this section verbatim in a criminal case, it may be assumed that the instruction was considered by the jury in weighing the evidence. State v. Barick, 143 M 273, 389 P 2d 170.

Subdivisions 6 and 7

In action by administrator of estate of deceased partner against surviving partners to recover assets transferred by the deceased during his last illness, evidence that deceased had a half interest in the partnership cattle and failure of defendants to produce any of the partnership records at the trial in the lower court, sustained finding that heir of deceased had overcome the prima facie showing of one-third interest in the partnership cattle arising from the recording of the brand in name of three persons. Marshall v. Minlschmidt, 148 M 263, 419 P 2d 486, 491.

Section 93-2201-7. Settlement of claims—legislative policy.
93-2201-8. "Person" defined.
93-2201-9. Voluntary partial payment of claim not an admission of fault, waiver or release.
93-2201-10. Parts of act not severable.

93-2201-1. (10680) An offer equivalent to tender.

Schultz v. Campbell, 147 M 439, 413 P 2d 879.

93-2201-3. (10682) Objections to tender must be specified.

Waiver of Tender

Ordinarily, a check is not a tender, but it may be as effective as a tender of currency if there is no timely objection to the form of tender, or if the objection is waived. Schultz v. Campbell, 147 M 439, 413 P 2d 879.

93-2201-4. (10683) Rules for construing description of lands.

Monuments Paramount

A resurvey which paid no attention to artificial monuments relied upon in deeds and used by the owners of the property could not disrupt or change existing property lines. Buckley v. Laird, 158 M 483, 493 P 2d 1070.

93-2201-7. Settlement of claims—legislative policy. The legislative assembly hereby declares that the health, welfare and safety of the people of the state of Montana would be enhanced by the expeditious handling of liability claims. The legislative assembly further declares that the handling of such claims would be expedited if voluntary payment by or on behalf of one person to or on behalf of a person who has sustained injury to his person or damage to his property could not be construed as an admission of fault or liability as to any claim arising out of the occurrence which gave rise to such injury or damage.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 222, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act to provide for the voluntary payment of personal injury or property damage claims without such payment constituting an admission of liability.

93-2201-8. "Person" defined. As used in this act, the word "person" includes any individual, partnership, joint venture, unincorporated association, private or municipal corporation, the state and its political subdivisions.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 222, L. 1973.

93-2201-9. Voluntary partial payment of claim not an admission of fault, waiver or release. No voluntary partial payment of a claim against any person based on alleged liability of that person for injury to person, including death, or damage to property arising out of any occurrence shall be construed as an admission of fault or liability, or as a waiver or release of claim by the person to whom or in whose behalf such payment was made. No voluntary partial payment shall be construed to reduce the amount of damages which may be pleaded or proved in any action arising out of such occurrence. The fact of any such voluntary payment, or its amount, shall not be admissible as evidence on the trial of any action arising out of such occurrence, whether on the issue of liability, the extent of the damage or otherwise. Upon final settlement between the parties of a claim arising out of such occurrence, the parties may make any agreement they wish with respect to all voluntary partial payments. After entry of a judgment in an action for damages for personal injuries, including death, or for damage to property arising out of any occurrence, any voluntary partial payment theretofore made shall be treated as a credit against such judgment, and shall be deductible from the amount of such judgment. If after partial voluntary payments are made as herein provided for, it shall be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that the person who made such payments, or on whose behalf such payments were made, is liable for an amount which is less than the amount of the voluntary payments already made, such person shall have no right of action for the recovery of the amount by which the voluntary payments exceeded the amount of the judgment.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 222, L. 1973.

93-2201-10. Parts of act not severable. It is the intent of the legislative assembly that each part of this act is essentially dependent upon every other part, and if one part is held unconstitutional or invalid, all other parts are invalid.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 222, L. 1973.

CHAPTER 2501—QUESTIONS OF FACT AND LAW—DECISION OF

93-2501-2. (10699) Questions of law addressed to the court.

Interpretation of Lease

Interpretation of lease of building was matter for court in dispute between lessor and lessee. Solich v. Hale, 150 M 358, 435 P 2d 883.

93-2601-82. Short title.

93-2601-1 to 93-2601-40. Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 93-2601-1 to 93-2601-40 (Sec. 1, Ch. 208, L. 1961), known as the "Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act," were repealed by Sec. 44, Ch. 237, Laws 1969.

93-2601-41. Purposes. The purposes of this act are to improve and extend by reciprocal legislation the enforcement of duties of support.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

Section 93-2601-41 to 93-2601-44 comprise Part I of this chapter, as enacted by Ch. 237, Laws 1969, entitled "General provisions."

NOTE.—The following states have enacted the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act: Arizona, Idaho, Illinois, Kansas, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Wisconsin.

Title of Act

An act adopting the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act as revised by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws in 1968; providing additional remedies for enforcement of duties of support; providing for criminal enforcement by extradition; providing for civil enforcement where parties reside in different states or in different counties of Montana; providing for registration and enforcement of foreign support orders and support orders issued in different counties of Montana; providing for the resolution of paternity and visitation rights if contested, and for appeals; and repealing sections 93-2601-1 through 93-2601-40, R. C. M. 1947.

93-2601-42. Definitions. (a) "Court" means the district court of this state and when the context requires means the court of any other state as defined in a substantially similar reciprocal law.

(b) "Duty of support" means a duty of support whether imposed or imposable by law or by order, decree, or judgment of any court, whether interlocutory or final or whether incidental to an action for divorce, separation, separate maintenance, or otherwise and includes the duty to pay arrearages of support past due and unpaid.

(c) "Governor" includes any person performing the functions of governor or the executive authority of any state covered by this act.

(d) "Initiating state" means a state in which a proceeding pursuant to this or a substantially similar reciprocal law is commenced. "Initiating court" means the court in which a proceeding is commenced.

(e) "Law" includes both common and statutory law.

(f) "Obligee" means a person including a state or political subdivision to whom a duty of support is owed or a person including a state or political subdivision that has commenced a proceeding for enforcement of an alleged duty of support or for registration of a support order. It is immaterial if the person to whom a duty of support is owed is a recipient of public assistance.

(g) "Obligor" means any person owing a duty of support or against whom a proceeding for the enforcement of a duty of support or registration of a support order is commenced.

(h) "Prosecuting attorney" means the public official in the appropriate place who has the duty to enforce criminal laws relating to the failure to provide for the support of any person.

(i) "Register" means to file in the registry of foreign support orders.

(j) "Registering court" means any court of this state in which a support order of a rendering state is registered.

(k) "Rendering state" means a state in which the court has issued a support order for which registration is sought or granted in the court of another state.

(l) "Responding state" means a state in which any responsive proceeding pursuant to the proceeding in the initiating state is commenced. "Responding court" means the court in which the responsive proceeding is commenced.

(m) "State" includes a state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any foreign jurisdiction in which this or a substantially similar reciprocal law is in effect.

(n) "Support order" means any judgment, decree, or order of support in favor of an obligee whether temporary or final, or subject to modification, revocation, or remission, regardless of the kind of action or proceeding in which it is entered.

History: En Sec. 2, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-43. Remedies additional to those now existing. The remedies herein provided are in addition to and not in substitution for any other remedies.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-44. Extent of duties of support. Duties of support arising under the law of this state, when applicable under section 7 [93-2601-47], bind the obligor present in this state regardless of the presence or residence of the obligee.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-45. Interstate rendition. The governor of this state may (1) demand of the governor of another state the surrender of a person found in that state who is charged criminally in this state with failing to provide for the support of any person; or

(2) surrender on demand by the governor of another state a person found in this state who is charged criminally in that state with failing to provide for the support of any person. Provisions for extradition of criminals not inconsistent with this act apply to the demand even if the person whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the crime and has not fled therefrom. The demand, the oath, and any proceedings for extradition pursuant to this section need not state or show that the person whose surrender is demanded has fled from justice or at the time of the commission of the crime was in the demanding state.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

Sections 93-2601-45 and 93-2601-46 comprise Part II of this chapter, as enacted by Ch. 237, Laws 1969, entitled "Criminal enforcement."

93-2601-46. Conditions of interstate rendition. (a) Before making the demand upon the governor of another state for the surrender of a person charged criminally in this state with failing to provide for the support of a person, the governor of this state may require any prosecuting attorney of this state to satisfy him that at least sixty (60) days prior thereto the obligee initiated proceedings for support under this act or that any proceeding would be of no avail.

(b) If, under a substantially similar act, the governor of another state makes a demand upon the governor of this state for the surrender of a person charged criminally in that state with failure to provide for the support of a person, the governor may require any prosecuting attorney to investigate the demand and to report to him whether proceedings for support have been initiated or would be effective. If it appears to the governor that a proceeding would be effective but has not been initiated he may delay honoring the demand for a reasonable time to permit the initiation of a proceeding.

(c) If proceedings have been initiated and the person demanded has prevailed therein the governor may decline to honor the demand. If the obligee prevailed and the person demanded is subject to a support order, the governor may decline to honor the demand if the person demanded is complying with the support order.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-47. Choice of law. Duties of support applicable under this act are those imposed under the laws of any state where the obligor was present for the period during which support is sought. The obligor is presumed to have been present in the responding state during the period for which support is sought until otherwise shown.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

Sections 93-2601-47 to 93-2601-74 comprise Part III of this chapter, as enacted by Ch. 237, Laws 1969, entitled "Civil enforcement."

93-2601-48. Remedies of state or political subdivision furnishing support. If a state or a political subdivision furnishes support to an individual obligee it has the same right to initiate a proceeding under this act as the individual obligee for the purpose of securing reimbursement for support furnished and of obtaining continuing support.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-49. How duties of support enforced. All duties of support, including the duty to pay arrearages, are enforceable by a proceeding under this act including a proceeding for civil contempt. The defense that the parties are immune to suit because of their relationship as husband and wife or parent and child is not available to the obligor.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-50. Jurisdiction. Jurisdiction of any proceeding under this act is vested in the district court.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-51. Contents and filing of petition for support—venue. (a) The petition shall be verified and shall state the name and, so far as known to the obligee, the address and circumstances of the obligor and the persons for whom support is sought, and all other pertinent information. The obligee may include in or attach to the petition any information which may help in locating or identifying the obligor including a photograph of the obligor, a description of any distinguishing marks on his person, other names and aliases by which he has been or is known, the name of his employer, his fingerprints, and his social security number.

(b) The petition may be filed in the appropriate court of any state in which the obligee resides. The court shall not decline or refuse to accept and forward the petition on the ground that it should be filed with some other court of this or any other state where there is pending another action for divorce, separation, annulment, dissolution, habeas corpus, adoption, or custody between the same parties or where another court has already issued a support order in some other proceeding and has retained jurisdiction for its enforcement.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-52. Officials to represent obligee. If this state is acting as an initiating state the prosecuting attorney upon the request of the court, a state department of welfare, a county commissioner, or other local welfare officer, shall represent the obligee in any proceeding under this act. If the prosecuting attorney neglects or refuses to represent the obligee the attorney general may order him to comply with the request of the court or may undertake the representation.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-53. Petition for a minor. A petition on behalf of a minor obligee may be executed and filed by a person having legal custody of the minor without appointment as guardian ad litem.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-54. Duty of initiating court. If the initiating court finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the obligor owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the obligor or his property it shall so certify and cause three (3) copies of the petition and its certificate and one (1) copy of this act to be sent to the responding court. Certification shall be in accordance with the requirements of the initiating state. If the name and address of the responding court is unknown and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state it shall cause the copies to be sent to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state, with a request that the agency or official forward them to the proper court and that the court of the responding state acknowledge their receipt to the initiating court.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-55. Costs and fees. An initiating court shall not require payment of either a filing fee or other costs from the obligee but may request the responding court to collect fees and costs from the obligor. A responding court shall not require payment of a filing fee or other costs from the obligee but it may direct that all fees and costs requested by the initiating court and incurred in this state when acting as a responding state, including fees for filing of pleadings, service of process, seizure of property, stenographic or duplication service, or other service supplied to the obligor, be paid in whole or in part by the obligor or by the state or political subdivision thereof. These costs or fees do not have priority over amounts due to the obligee.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-56. Jurisdiction by arrest. If the court of this state believes that the obligor may flee it may

(1) as an initiating court, request in its certificate that the responding court obtain the body of the obligor by appropriate process; or

(2) as a responding court, obtain the body of the obligor by appropriate process. Thereupon it may release him upon his own recognizance or upon his giving a bond in an amount set by the court to assure his appearance at the hearing.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-57. State information agency. (a) The state department of public welfare is designated as the state information agency under this act, [and] it shall

(1) compile a list of the courts and their addresses in this state having jurisdiction under this act and transmit it to the state information agency of every other state which has adopted this or a substantially similar act. Upon the adjournment of each session of the legislature the agency shall distribute copies of any amendments to the act and a statement of their effective date to all other state information agencies;

(2) maintain a register of lists of courts received from other states and transmit copies thereof promptly to every court in this state having jurisdiction under this act; and

(3) forward to the court in this state which has jurisdiction over the obligor or his property petitions, certificates and copies of the act it receives from courts or information agencies of other states.

(b) If the state information agency does not know the location of the obligor or his property in the state and no state location service is available it shall use all means at its disposal to obtain this information, including the examination of official records in the state and other sources such as telephone directories, real property records, vital statistics records, police records, requests for the name and address from employers who are able or willing to co-operate, records of motor vehicle license offices, requests made to the tax offices both state and federal where such offices are able to co-operate, and requests made to the social security administration as permitted by the Social Security Act as amended.

(c) After the deposit of three (3) copies of the petition and certificate and one (1) copy of the act of the initiating state with the clerk of the appropriate court, if the state information agency knows or believes that the prosecuting attorney is not prosecuting the case diligently it shall inform the attorney general who may undertake the representation.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

The compiler inserted the bracketed word "and" in subsection (a).

The Social Security Act, as amended, referred to in subsection (b) of this section, is compiled in the United States Code as Tit. 42, sec. 1306.

93-2601-58. Duty of the court and officials of this state as responding state. (a) After the responding court receives copies of the petition, certificate and act from the initiating court the clerk of the court shall docket the case and notify the prosecuting attorney of his action.

(b) The prosecuting attorney shall prosecute the case diligently. He shall take all action necessary in accordance with the laws of this state to enable the court to obtain jurisdiction over the obligor or his property and shall request the court to set a time and place for a hearing and give notice thereof to the obligor in accordance with law.

(c) If the prosecuting attorney neglects or refuses to represent the obligee the attorney general may order him to comply with the request of the court or may undertake the representation.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-59. Further duties of court and officials in the responding state. (a) The prosecuting attorney on his own initiative shall use all means at his disposal to locate the obligor or his property, and if because of inaccuracies in the petition or otherwise the court cannot obtain jurisdiction the prosecuting attorney shall inform the court of what he has done and request the court to continue the case pending receipt of more accurate information or an amended petition from the initiating court.

(b) If the obligor or his property is not found in the county, and the prosecuting attorney discovers that the obligor or his property may be found in another county of this state or in another state he shall so inform the court. Thereupon the clerk of the court shall forward the documents received from the court in the initiating state to a court in the other county or to a court in the other state or to the information agency or other proper official of the other state with a request that the documents be forwarded to the proper court. All powers and duties provided by this act apply to the recipient of the documents so forwarded. If the clerk of a court of this state forwards documents to another court he shall forthwith notify the initiating court.

(c) If the prosecuting attorney has no information as to the location of the obligor or his property he shall so inform the initiating court.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-60. Hearing and continuance. If the obligee is not present at the hearing and the obligor denies owing the duty of support alleged in the petition or offers evidence constituting a defense the court, upon request of either party, continue the hearing to permit evidence relative to the duty to be adduced by either party by deposition or by appearing in person before the court. The court may designate the judge of the initiating court as a person before whom a deposition may be taken.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-61. Immunity from criminal prosecution. If at the hearing the obligor is called for examination as an adverse party and he declines to answer upon the ground that his testimony may tend to incriminate him, the court may require him to answer, in which event he is immune from criminal prosecution with respect to matters revealed by his testimony, except for perjury committed in this testimony.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-62. Evidence of husband and wife. Laws attaching a privilege against the disclosure of communications between husband and wife are inapplicable to proceedings under this act. Husband and wife are competent witnesses and may be compelled to testify to any relevant matter, including marriage and parentage.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-63. Rules of evidence. In any hearing for the civil enforcement of this act the court is governed by the rules of evidence applicable in a civil court action in the district court. If the action is based on a support order issued by another court a certified copy of the order shall be received as evidence of the duty of support, subject only to any defenses available to an obligor with respect to paternity (section 27 [93-2601-67]) or to a defendant in an action or a proceeding to enforce a foreign money judgment. The determination or enforcement of a duty of support owed to one obligee is unaffected by any interference by another obligee with rights of custody or visitation granted by a court.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-64. Order of support. If the responding court finds a duty of support it may order the obligor to furnish support or reimbursement therefor and subject the property of the obligor to the order. Support orders made pursuant to this act shall require that payments be made to the clerk of the court of the responding state. The court and prosecuting attorney of any county in which the obligor is present or has property have the same powers and duties to enforce the order as have those of the county in which it was first issued. If enforcement is impossible or cannot be completed in the county in which the order was issued, the prosecuting attorney shall send a certified copy of the order to the prosecuting attorney of any county in which it appears that proceedings to enforce the order would be effective. The prosecuting attorney to whom the certified copy of the order is forwarded shall proceed with enforcement and report the results of the proceedings to the court first issuing the order.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-65. Responding court to transmit copies to initiating court. The responding court shall cause a copy of all support orders to be sent to the initiating court.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-66. Additional powers of responding court. In addition to the foregoing powers a responding court may subject the obligor to any terms and conditions proper to assure compliance with its orders and in particular to:

(1) require the obligor to furnish a cash deposit or a bond of a character and amount to assure payment of any amount due;

(2) require the obligor to report personally and to make payments at specified intervals to the clerk; and

(3) punish under the power of contempt the obligor who violates any order of the court.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-67. Paternity. If the obligor asserts as a defense that he is not the father of the child for whom support is sought and it appears to the court that the defense is not frivolous, and if both of the parties are present at the hearing or the proof required in the case indicates that the presence of either or both of the parties is not necessary, the court may adjudicate the paternity issue. Otherwise the court may adjourn the hearing until the paternity issue has been adjudicated.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-68. Additional duties of responding court. A responding court has the following duties which may be carried out through the clerk of the court:

(1) to transmit to the initiating court any payment made by the obligor pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise; and

(2) to furnish to the initiating court upon request a certified statement of all payments made by the obligor.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-69. Additional duty of initiating court. An initiating court shall receive and disburse forthwith all payments made by the obligor or sent by the responding court. This duty may be carried out through the clerk of the court.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-70. Proceedings not to be stayed. A responding court shall not stay the proceeding or refuse a hearing under this act because of any pending or prior action or proceeding for divorce, separation, annulment, dissolution, habeas corpus, adoption, or custody in this or any other state. The court shall hold a hearing and may issue a support order pendente lite. In aid thereof it may require the obligor to give a bond for the prompt prosecution of the pending proceeding. If the other action or proceeding is concluded before the hearing in the instant proceeding and the judgment therein provides for the support demanded in the petition being heard the court must conform its support order to the amount allowed in the other action or proceeding. Thereafter the court shall not stay enforcement of its support order because of the retention of jurisdiction for enforcement purposes by the court in the other action or proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 30, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-71. Application of payments. A support order made by a court of this state pursuant to this act does not nullify and is not nullified by a support order made by a court of this state pursuant to any other law or by a support order made by a court of any other state pursuant to a substantially similar act or any other law, regardless of priority of issuance, unless otherwise specifically provided by the court. Amounts paid for a particular period pursuant to any support order made by the court of another state shall be credited against the amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under any support order made by the court of this state.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-72. Effect of participation in proceeding. Participation in any proceeding under this act does not confer jurisdiction upon any court over any of the parties thereto in any other proceeding.

History: En. Sec. 32, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-73. Intrastate application. This act applies if both the obligee and the obligor are in this state but in different counties. If the court of the county in which the petition is filed finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the obligor owes a duty of support and finds that a court of another county in this state may obtain jurisdiction over the obligor or his property, the clerk of the court shall send the petition and a certification of the findings to the court of the county in which the obligor or his property is found. The clerk of the court of the county receiving these documents shall notify the prosecuting attorney of their receipt. The prosecuting attorney and the court in the county to which the copies are forwarded then shall have duties corresponding to those imposed upon them when acting for this state as a responding state.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-74. Appeals. If the attorney general is of the opinion that a support order is erroneous and presents a question of law warranting an appeal in the public interest, he may

(a) perfect an appeal to the proper appellate court if the support order was issued by a court of this state, or

(b) if the support order was issued in another state, cause the appeal to be taken in the other state. In either case expenses of appeal may be paid on his order from funds appropriated for his office.

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-75. Additional remedies. If the duty of support is based on a foreign support order, the obligee has the additional remedies provided in the following sections.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

Compiler's Notes

Sections 93-2601-75 to 93-2601-82 comprise Part IV of this chapter, as enacted by Ch. 237, Laws 1969, entitled "Registration of foreign support orders."

93-2601-76. Registration. The obligee may register the foreign support order in a court of this state in the manner, with the effect, and for the purposes herein provided.

History: En. Sec. 36, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-77. Registry of foreign support orders. The clerk of the court shall maintain a registry of foreign support orders in which he shall file foreign support orders.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-78. Official to represent obligee. If this state is acting either as a rendering or a registering state the prosecuting attorney upon the request of the court, a state department of welfare, a county commissioner, or other local welfare official shall represent the obligee in proceeding under this part.

If the prosecuting attorney neglects or refuses to represent the obligee, the attorney general may order him to comply with the request of the court or may undertake the representation.

History: En. Sec. 38, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-79. Registration procedure — notice. (a) An obligee seeking to register a foreign support order in a court of this state shall transmit to the clerk of the court (1) three (3) certified copies of the order with all modifications thereof, (2) one (1) copy of the reciprocal enforcement of support act of the state in which the order was made, and (3) a statement verified and signed by the obligee, showing the post-office address of the obligee, the last known place of residence and post-office address of the obligor, the amount of support remaining unpaid, a description and the location of any property of the obligor available upon execution, and a list of the states in which the order is registered. Upon receipt of these documents the clerk of the court, without payment of a filing fee or other cost to the obligee, shall file them in the registry of foreign support orders. The filing constitutes registration under this act.

(b) Promptly upon registration the clerk of the court shall send by certified or registered mail to the obligor at the address given a notice of the registration with a copy of the registered support order and the post-office address of the obligee. He shall also docket the case and notify the prosecuting attorney of his action. The prosecuting attorney shall proceed diligently to enforce the order.

History: En. Sec. 39, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-80. Effect of registration — enforcement procedure. (a) Upon registration the registered foreign support order shall be treated in the same manner as a support order issued by a court of this state. It has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a support order of this state and may be enforced and satisfied in like manner.

(b) The obligor has twenty (20) days after the mailing of notice of the registration in which to petition the court to vacate the registration or for other relief. If he does not so petition the registered support order is confirmed.

(c) At the hearing to enforce the registered support order the obligor may present only matters that would be available to him as defenses in an action to enforce a foreign money judgment. If he shows to the court that an appeal from the order is pending or will be taken or that a stay of execution has been granted the court shall stay enforcement of the order until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal has expired, or the order is vacated, upon satisfactory proof that the obligor has furnished security for payment of the support ordered as required by the rendering state. If he shows to the court any ground upon which enforcement of a support order of this state may be stayed the court shall stay enforcement of the order for an appropriate period if the obligor furnishes the same security for payment of the support ordered that is required for a support order of this state.

History: En. Sec. 40, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-81. Uniformity of interpretation. This act shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

History: En. Sec. 41, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

93-2601-82. Short title. This act may be cited as the Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act (1968).

History: En. Sec. 42, Ch. 237, L. 1969.

Separability Clause

Section 43 of Ch. 237, Laws 1969 read "If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable."

Repealing Clause

Section 44 of Ch. 237, Laws 1969 read "Sections 93-2601-1 through 93-2601-40, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

A. DEFINITION OF PERSON. As used in this rule, the word "person," whether or not a citizen or resident of this state and whether or not organized under the laws of this state, includes an individual whether operating in his own name or under a trade name; an individual's agent or personal representative; a corporation; a business trust; an estate; a trust; a partnership; an unincorporated association; and any two or more persons having a joint or common interest or any other legal or commercial entity.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment restated this rule without change.

B. JURISDICTION OF PERSONS.

(1) Subject to Jurisdiction. All persons found within the state of Montana are subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state. In addition, any person is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state as to any claim for relief arising from the doing personally, through an employee, or through an agent, of any of the following acts:

(a) the transaction of any business within this state;

(b) the commission of any act which results in accrual within this state of a tort action;

(c) the ownership, use or possession of any property, or of any interest therein, situated within this state;

(d) contracting to insure any person, property or risk located within this state at the time of contracting;

(e) entering into a contract for services to be rendered or for materials to be furnished in this state by such person; or

(f) acting as director, manager, trustee, or other officer of any corporation organized under the laws of, or having its principal place of business within this state, or as executor or administrator of any estate within this state.

(2) Acquisition of Jurisdiction. Jurisdiction may be acquired by our courts over any person through service of process as herein provided; or by the voluntary appearance in an action by any person either personally, or through an attorney, or through any other authorized officer, agent or employee.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 189, L. 1963; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Apr. 1, 1965, eff. July 1, 1965.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment restated this rule without apparent change.

Contracts

Although primary negotiations for sale of membership in stock exchange were had in Utah, locus of contract was in Montana and jurisdiction was acquired under this section in view of fact that negotiations continued via telephone and mail in Montana, that delivery was contemplated and would be made in Montana, and that purchase money mortgage or equivalent lien would follow subject matter of contract to Montana. State ex rel. Goff v. District Court, 157 M 495, 487 P 2d 292.

Nonresident Corporation Jurisdiction

Montana court acquired in personam jurisdiction over nonresident corporation under portions of rule subjecting persons, who transact any business within Montana and persons entering into contracts for services to be rendered in Montana, to jurisdiction of Montana notwithstanding corporation's contention that most of its Montana business and services it rendered and materials it furnished were within federal enclave known as Malstrom Air Force Base. Swanson Painting Co. v. Painters Local Union No. 260, 391 F 2d 523.

In products liability suit instituted by resident, state properly exercised in personam jurisdiction over nonresident manufacturer under long-arm provision relating to commission of act resulting in accrual within state of tort action notwithstanding manufacturer's contention that action offended due process requirements of "fundamental fairness" and "minimum contacts"; action was proper despite facts that defendant maintained no office in state, had no representative resident in or assigned to Montana, received orders from wholesale or retail outlets in Illinois, and had Montana business consisting of less than one-half of one per cent of its total business where foreign corporation deliberately engaged in a policy which was intended to put so much of its product into the state as the market would absorb. Bullard v. Rhodes Pharmacal Co., 263 F Supp 79, distinguished in 341 F Supp 560, 562.

Long-arm jurisdiction obtained over nonresident defendant for commission of act which results in accrual within state of tort action and for entering into contract for services to be rendered or for materials to be furnished in state did not violate due process requirements as embodied in "minimum contacts" test in view of evidence that defendant manufactured products for national and interstate market; that valve was ordered by specifications; that defendant knew at time of shipment that it would be used in Montana; that defendant knew that negligent manufacture might constitute a serious hazard; and that the explosion allegedly resulting from defective valve occurred in Montana. Continental Oil Co. v. Atwood & Morrill Co., 265 F Supp 692, distinguished in Yules v. General Motors Corp., 297 F Supp 674.

Exercise of long-arm jurisdiction over nonresident defendant for commission of act which results in accrual within state of tort action did not violate due process requirements and was within "minimum contacts" rule in view of evidence that nonresident manufacturer knew that cableway it manufactured would be used on construction site in state and that it sent several of its employees to state to inspect cableway. Hartung v. Washington Iron Works, 267 F Supp 408.

Montana properly exercised in personam jurisdiction over nonresident assignee of retail installment sales contract in suit for assignee's conversion of truck by repossessing it under provision relating to commission of any act which results in accrual within state of tort action; action was proper notwithstanding assignee's due process contentions in that his activities in Montana were insufficient in view of evidence that when contract was assigned, the assignee knew vehicle would be used throughout United States; that assignee did not object when truck was moved to Montana and thereafter accepted payments mailed from Montana; that following accident in South Dakota, vehicle was removed to Montana at assignee's request; and that assignee had its agent, a wholly owned subsidiary, repossess truck in Montana and take necessary steps to obtain title to it. Boyt v. Emmco Ins. Co., 271 F Supp 366.

A corporation is not "found within the state of Montana" unless it has agents or officers upon whom process may be served or unless its business has been of such character and extent as to warrant the inference that it has subjected itself to the jurisdiction of the state; such an inference cannot arise by the mere solicitation of business and shipment of product into the state and occasional trips by an officer or agent into the state for solicitation purposes. McIntosh v. Heil Co., 350 F Supp 866.

Retroactive Application

This rule applied to act of alleged malpractice occurring in Montana prior to effective date of this rule (Rule 86(a)) and doctor who had not resided in Montana since effective date of rule could be served properly with process, under Rule 4D(3), in California. State ex rel. Johnson v. District Court of Fourth Judicial District, 148 M 22, 417 P 2d 109, 111.

The giving effect to the service of summons provisions of this rule, when the operative facts of the case to which the rule was applied had taken place prior to the effective date of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure as set out in Rule 86 (a) was not a prohibited retroactive application of this rule within the meaning of section 12-201. Weber v. Hydroponics, Inc., 226 F Supp 117, 118.

Tort Accruing

Swedish corporation which sold ammunition throughout the United States through an American distributor subjected itself to Montana jurisdiction when defective ammunition sold in Idaho resulted in injury in Montana. Scanlan v. Norma Projektil Fabrik, 345 F Supp 292.

Transacting Business

State had jurisdiction over person of nonresident defendant who placed purchase order directly with a Montana wholesaler once and paid by direct check to the wholesaler on several occasions, even though defendant had never personally met plaintiff nor been in the state. Prentice Lumber Co. v. Spahn, 156 M 68, 474 P 2d 141.

Personal services of employee doctor of hospital in Minnesota, rendered to plaintiff in Montana at plaintiff's convenience and incidental to employee's personal journey to Montana, was not sufficient to bring hospital under jurisdiction of Montana for a tort occurring in Minnesota. Aylstock v. Mayo Foundation, 341 F Supp 560.

C. PROCESS.

(1) Summons—Issuance. Upon the filing of the complaint, the clerk shall forthwith issue a summons, and shall deliver the summons either to the sheriff of the county in which the action is filed, or to the person who is to serve it, or upon request, to the attorney for said party who shall thereafter be responsible to see that the summons is served in the manner prescribed by these rules. Upon request, separate or additional summons shall issue against any parties designated in the original action, or against any additional parties who may be brought into the action.

(2) Summons—Form. The summons shall be signed by the clerk, be under the seal of the court, contain the name of the court and the names of the parties, be directed to the defendant, state the name and address of the plaintiff's attorney, if any, otherwise the plaintiff's address, and the time within which these rules require the defendant to appear and defend, and shall notify him that in case of his failure to do so judgment by default will be rendered against him for the relief demanded in the complaint. In an action brought to quiet title to real estate, there shall be added to the foregoing, the following: "This action is brought for the purpose of quieting title to land situated in _____ County, Montana, and described as follows: (Here insert descriptions of land.)." For exceptions to this form of summons see 4D(4) "Other Service," set forth hereinafter.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment made minor changes in the caption to paragraph (2) and in references to R. C. M. 1947.

The amendment of September 29, 1967 substituted the last sentence in subdivision (2) for former sentence requiring compliance with sections 84-4165 and 93-6228 and with provisions of Rule 4D(5)(h); and made minor changes in phraseology.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: None.

This amendment, together with the change in 4D(4), is intended to make it clear that there is no conflict between the requirements of the rules with respect to summons for publication and the requirements of section 93-6228, and that section 93-6228 governs actions to establish title to property granted to heirs of deceased entryman but has no application to other actions.

D. SERVICE.

(1) By Whom Served. Service of all process shall be made by a sheriff of the county where the party to be served is found, by his deputy, by a constable authorized by law, or by any other person over the age of 21 not a party to the action, except that a subpoena may be served as provided in Rule 45.

(2) Personal Service Within the State. The summons and complaint shall be served together, unless two or more defendants are residents of the same county, in which case a copy of the complaint need only be served upon one of such defendants. The plaintiff shall furnish the person making service with such copies as are necessary. Service shall be made as follows:

(a) Upon an individual other than an infant or an incompetent person, by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to him personally or by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process, provided that if the agent is one designated by statute to receive service, such further notice as the statute requires shall be given.

(b) Upon a minor over the age of 14 years, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to him personally, and by leaving a copy thereof at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some adult of suitable discretion then residing therein, or by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process.

(c) Upon a minor under the age of 14 years, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to his guardian, if he has one within the state, and if not, then to his father or mother or other person or agency having his care or control, or with whom he resides, or if service cannot be made upon any of them, then as provided by order of the court.

(d) Upon a person who has been adjudged of unsound mind by a court of this state, or for whom a guardian has been appointed in this state by reason of incompetency, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to his guardian, if there be a guardian residing in this state appointed and acting under the laws of this state. If there be no such guardian, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the incompetent person, with or without personal service on the incompetent, as the court may direct. When a party is alleged to be of unsound mind, but has not been so adjudged by a court of this state, such party may be brought into court by service of process personally upon him. The court may also stay any action pending against a person on learning that such person is of unsound mind.

(e) Upon a domestic corporation, partnership or other unincorporated association, or upon a foreign corporation, partnership or other unincorporated association, established by the laws of any other state or country, and having a place of business within this state or doing business herein either permanently or temporarily, or which was doing business herein either permanently, or temporarily at the time the claim for relief accrued: (i) by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to an officer, director, superintendent or managing or general agent, or partner, or associate for such corporation, partnership, or association; or by leaving such copies at the office or place of business of the corporation, partnership, or association within the state with the person in charge of such office; or (ii) by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to the registered agent of said corporation named on the records of the Secretary of State, or to any other agent or attorney in fact authorized by appointment or by statute to receive or accept service on behalf of the corporation, partnership, or association, provided that if the agent or attorney in fact is one designated by statute to receive service, such further notice as the statute requires shall also be given; or (iii) if the sheriff shall make return that no person upon whom service may be made can be found in the county, then service may be made by leaving a copy of the summons and complaint at any office of the corporation, partnership, or unincorporated association within this state with the person in charge of such office; or (iv) if the suit is against a corporation whose charter or right to do business in the state has expired or been forfeited, by delivering a copy thereof to any one of the persons who have become trustees for the corporation and its stockholders or members.

(f) When a claim for relief is pending in any court of this state against a corporation organized under the laws of this state, or against a corporation organized under the laws of any other state or country, that has filed a copy of its charter in the office of the secretary of state of Montana and qualified to do business in Montana; or against a corporation organized under the laws of any other state or country which is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state under the provisions of Rule 4B above, even though such corporation has never qualified to do business in Montana; or against a national banking corporation which, through insolvency or lapse of charter, has ceased to do business in Montana; and none of the persons designated in D(2)(e) immediately above can with the exercise of reasonable diligence be found within Montana, the party causing summons to be issued shall exercise reasonable diligence to ascertain the last known address of any such person. Upon the filing with the clerk of court in which the claim for relief is pending of an affidavit reciting that none of the persons designated in D(2)(e) can after due diligence be found within Montana upon whom service of process can be made, and reciting the last known address of any such person, or reciting that after the exercise of reasonable diligence no such address for any such person could be found, and there has also been deposited with the said clerk the sum of $5.00 to be paid to the secretary of state as a fee for each of said defendants for whom the secretary of state is to receive said service, then the clerk of court shall issue an order directing process to be served upon the secretary of state of the state of Montana or, in his absence from his office, upon the deputy secretary of state of the state of Montana. Such affidavit shall be sufficient evidence of the diligence of inquiry made by affiant, if the affidavit recites that diligent inquiry was made, and the affidavit need not detail the facts constituting such inquiry. Whenever service is also to be made through publication as provided in 4D(5), or upon other persons as provided in 4D(6), the affidavit herein required may be combined in the same instrument with the affidavit required under 4D(5)(c) and 4D(6). The said clerk of court shall then mail to the secretary of state the original summons, one copy of the summons and one copy of the affidavit for the files of the secretary of state, one copy of the summons attached to a copy of the complaint for each of the defendants to be served by service upon the secretary of state, and the fee for service, to the office of the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall mail copy of the summons and complaint by certified or registered mail with a return receipt requested to the last known address of any of the persons designated in D(2)(e) above, if known, or, if none such is known and it is a corporation not organized in Montana, to the secretary of state of the state in which such corporation was originally incorporated, if known; and the secretary of state shall make his return as hereinafter provided under Rule 4D(6). When service is so made, it shall be deemed personal service on such corporation, and the said secretary of state, or his deputy when the secretary is absent from his office, is hereby appointed agent of such corporation for service of process in cases hereinbefore mentioned. In any action where due diligence has been exercised to locate and serve any of the persons designated in D(2)(e) above, service shall be deemed complete upon said corporation regardless of the receipt of any return receipt or advice of refusal of the addressee to receive the process mailed, as is hereinafter required by 4D(6); provided, however, that except in those actions where any of the persons designated in D(2)(e) above have been located and served personally as hereinabove provided, then service by publication shall also be made as provided hereafter in 4D(5)(d) and 4D(5)(h); the first publication must be made within sixty days from the date the original summons is mailed to the secretary of state as herein provided, and if said first publication is not so made, the action shall be deemed dismissed as to any such party intended to be served by such publication; and service shall be complete upon the date of the last publication of summons.

When service of process is made as herein provided, and there is no appearance thereafter made by any attorney for such corporation, service of all other notices required by law to be served in such action may be served upon the secretary of state.

(g) Upon a city, village, town, school district, county, or public agency or board of any such public bodies, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to any commissioner, trustee, board member, mayor or head of the legislative department thereof.

(h) Upon the state, or any state board or state agency, by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to the governor, or to any member of such state board or state agency, and also by delivering an additional copy of the summons and complaint to the attorney general.

(i) Upon an estate by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to the personal representative thereof; upon a trust by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to any trustee thereof.

(3) Personal Service Outside the State. Where service upon any person cannot, with due diligence, be made personally within this state, service of summons and complaint may be made by service outside this state in the manner provided for service within this state, with the same force and effect as though service had been made within this state. Where service by publication is permitted as hereinafter provided, personal service of a summons and complaint upon the defendant out of the state shall be equivalent to and shall dispense with the procedures and the publication and mailing provided for hereafter in 4(5)(c), 4(5)(d) and 4(5)(e) of this rule.

(4) Other Service. All process in any form of action shall be served in the manner specified in this rule with the exception that whenever a statute of this state or an order of the court or a citation by the court made pursuant thereto provides for the service of a notice or of an order or of a citation in lieu of summons upon any person, service shall be made under the circumstances and in the manner prescribed by the statute or order or citation; and with the further exception that all persons are required to comply with the provisions hereafter prescribed in D(5)(h), and with the provisions of sections 40-2819, 40-3405, 40-3406, 40-3423, 40-3424, 93-6228, 93-6229, 93-6230, and 93-6232, R. C. M. 1947, when the action pertains to the provisions of such sections.

(5) Service by Publication — When Permitted — Effect — Manner — Proof.

(a) When Permitted. A defendant, whether known or unknown, who has not been served under the foregoing subsections of this rule can be served by publication in the following situations only:

(i) When the subject of the action is real or personal property in this state and the defendant has or claims a lien or interest, actual or contingent, therein, or the relief demanded consists wholly or partially in excluding the defendant from any interest therein. This subsection shall apply whether any such defendant is known or unknown.

(ii) When the action is to foreclose, redeem from or satisfy a mortgage, claim or lien upon real or personal property within this state.

(iii) When the action is for divorce or for annulment of marriage of a resident of this state or for modification of a decree of divorce granted by a court of this state.

(iv) When the defendant has property within this state which has been attached or has a debtor within this state, who has been garnished. Jurisdiction under this subsection may be independent of or supplementary to jurisdiction acquired under subsections (5)(a)(i), (5)(a)(ii), and (5)(a)(iii) herein.

(b) Effect of Service by Publication. When a defendant, whether known or unknown, has been served by publication as provided in this rule, any court of this state having jurisdiction may render a decree which will adjudicate any interest of such defendant in the status, property, or thing acted upon, but it may not bind the defendant personally to the personal jurisdiction of the court unless some ground for the exercise of personal jurisdiction exists.

(c) Filing of Pleading and Affidavit for Service by Publication; and Order for Publication. Before service of the summons by publication is authorized in any case, there shall be filed with the clerk in the district court of the county in which the action is commenced (i) a pleading setting forth a claim in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant in one of the situations defined in (5)(a) above; and (ii) in situations defined in (5)(a)(i), (5)(a)(ii), (5)(a)(iii), upon return of the summons showing the failure to find any defendant designated in the complaint, an affidavit stating that such defendant resides out of the state, or has departed from the state, or cannot, after due diligence, be found within the state, or conceals himself to avoid the service of summons; or, if the defendant is a domestic or foreign corporation, that none of the persons designated in D(2)(e) above can, after due diligence, be found within the state; or, if the defendant is an unknown claimant, by showing that he has made diligent search and inquiry for all persons who claim, or might claim any right, title, estate, or interest in, or lien, or encumbrance upon, such property, or any thereof, adverse to plaintiff's ownership, or any cloud upon plaintiff's title thereto, whether such claim or possible claim be present or contingent, including any right of dower, inchoate or accrued, and that he has specifically named as defendants in such action all such persons whose names can be ascertained; such affidavit shall be sufficient evidence of the diligence of any inquiry made by the affiant, if the affidavit recite the fact that diligent inquiry was made, and it need not detail the facts constituting such inquiry, and if desired, it may be combined in one instrument with the affidavit required under 4D(2)(f), or 4D(6); and (iii) in the situation defined in (5)(a)(iv) above, there must be first presented to the court proof that a valid attachment or garnishment has been effected. Upon complying herewith, the plaintiff may obtain an order for the service of summons to be made upon the defendants by publication, which order may be issued by either the judge or the clerk of court.

(d) Number of Publications. Service of the summons by publication may be made by publishing the same three times, once each week for three successive weeks, in a newspaper published in the county in which the action is pending, if a newspaper is published in such county, and if no newspaper is published in such county then in a newspaper published in an adjoining county and having a general circulation therein.

(e) Mailing Summons and Complaint. A copy of the summons for publication and complaint, at any time after the filing of the affidavit for publication and not later than 10 days after the first publication of the summons, shall be deposited in some post office in this state, postage prepaid, and directed to the defendant at his place of residence unless the affidavit for publication states that the residence of the defendant is unknown. If the defendant is a corporation, and personal service cannot with due diligence be effected within Montana on any of the persons designated in D(2)(e) above, then service may be completed on said corporation by service upon the secretary of state in the manner, and following the procedure outlined in D(2)(f) above.

(f) Time When First Publication or Service Outside State Must Be Made. The first publication of summons, or personal service of the summons and complaint upon the defendant out of the state, must be made within 60 days after the filing of the affidavit for publication. If not so made, the action shall be deemed dismissed as to any party intended to be served by such publication.

(g) When Service by Publication or Outside State Complete. Service by publication is complete on the date of the last publication of the summons, or in case of personal service of the summons and complaint upon the defendant out of the state, on the date of such service.

(h) Additional Information to Be Published. In addition to the form of summons prescribed above in "C. Process, (2) Summons —Form," the published summons shall state in general terms the nature of the action, and in all cases where publication of summons is made in an action in which the title to, or any interest in or lien upon real property is involved, or affected, or brought into question, the publication shall also contain a description of the real property involved, affected or brought into question thereby, and a statement of the object of the action.

(6) (a) Service on Secretary of State. Whenever service is to be made upon certain corporations as provided hereinabove in D(2)(f) and D(5)(e), the requirements of said D(2)(f) must be complied with. In all other cases, unless otherwise provided by statute, whenever the secretary of state of the state of Montana has been appointed, or is deemed by law to have been appointed, as the agent to receive service of process for any person who cannot with due diligence be found or served personally within Montana, the party, or his attorney, shall make an affidavit stating the facts showing that the secretary of state is such agent, and stating the residence and last known post-office address of the person to be served, and shall file such affidavit with the clerk of court in which such claim for relief is pending, accompanied by sufficient copies of the affidavit, summons and complaint for service upon the secretary of state, and there has also been deposited with the clerk of the court in which such claim for relief is pending the sum of five dollars to be paid to the secretary of state as a fee for each of said defendants for whom the secretary of state is to receive such service; then the clerk shall forward the original summons, one copy of the summons and one copy of the affidavit for the files of the secretary of state, and one copy of the summons attached to copy of the complaint for each of the defendants to be served by service upon the secretary of state, and the fee, to the office of the secretary of state.

Such service on the secretary of state shall be sufficient personal service upon the person to be served, provided that notice of such service and a copy of the summons and complaint are forthwith sent by registered or certified mail by the secretary of state or his deputy to the party to be served at his last known address, marked "Deliver to Addressee Only" and "Return Receipt Requested," and provided further that such return receipt shall be received by the secretary of state purporting to have been signed by said addressee, or the secretary of state shall be advised by the postal authority that delivery of said registered or certified mail was refused by said addressee, except in those cases where compliance is excused under the provisions of D(2)(f) above. The date upon which the secretary of state receives said return receipt, or receives advice by the postal authority that delivery of said registered or certified mail was refused by the addressee, shall be deemed the date of service.

As an alternative to sending the summons and complaint by registered or certified mail, as herein provided, the secretary of state, or his deputy, may cause copy of the summons and complaint to be served by any qualified law enforcement officer, in accord with the procedure set out in D(1), (2) or (3) of this rule.

The secretary of state, or his deputy, shall make an original and two copies of an affidavit reciting: (1) the fact of service upon him by the clerk of court, including the day, and hour of such service; (2) the fact of his mailing a copy of the summons and complaint and notice to the defendant, including the day and hour thereof, except in those cases where he is relieved from doing so under the provisions of D(2)(f) in which cases his affidavit shall so recite; and (3) the fact of his receipt of a return from the postal department including the date, and hour thereof, and attaching to his affidavit a copy of such return. The secretary of state, or his deputy, shall then transmit the original summons, and his original affidavit along with copy of his notice to the defendant where such notice was required, to the clerk of court in which the claim for relief is pending, and it shall be filed in the claim for relief by said clerk of court; and the secretary of state shall also transmit to the attorney for the plaintiff copy of the affidavit of the secretary of state along with copy of the notice to the defendant where such notice was required. The secretary of state shall keep on file in his office a copy of the summons, a copy of the affidavit served on him by the clerk of court, and a copy of the affidavit executed and issued by the secretary of state.

(b) [Continuance to Allow Defense.] In any of the cases provided for in Rule 4D(2)(f) above, or provided for hereinabove in 4D(6)(a), the court in which the claim for relief is pending may order such continuance as may be necessary to afford reasonable opportunity to defend the action.

(7) Amendment. At any time, in its discretion, and upon such notice and terms as it deems just, the court may allow any process or proof of service thereof to be amended unless it clearly appears that material prejudice would result to the substantial rights of the party against whom the process issued.

(8) Proof of Service. Proof of the service of the summons and of the complaint or notice, if any, accompanying the same must be as follows:

(a) If served by the sheriff or other officer, his certificate thereof;

(b) If by any other person, his affidavit thereof;

(c) In case of publication an affidavit of the publisher and an affidavit of the deposit of a copy of the summons and complaint in the post office as required by law, if the same shall have been deposited; or

(d) The written admission of the defendant showing the date and place of service.

The certificate or affidavit of service mentioned in this subdivision must state the time, date, place, and manner of service.

(9) Contents of Affidavit of Service. Whenever a process, pleading, order of court, or other paper is served personally by a person other than the sheriff or person designated by law, the affidavit of service when made, shall state that the person so serving is of legal age, and the date and place of making the service. It also shall state that the person making such service knew the person served to be the person named in the papers served and the person intended to be served.

(10) Procedure Where Only Part of Defendants Are Served. If the summons is served on one or more, but not all, of the defendants, the plaintiff may proceed to trial and judgment against the defendant or defendants on whom the process is served, and may at any time thereafter have a summons against the defendant not served with the first process to cause him to appear in said court to show cause why he should not be made a party to such judgment. Upon such defendant being duly served with such process, the court shall hear and determine the matter in the same manner as if such defendant had been originally brought into court, and such defendant shall also be allowed the benefit of any payment or satisfaction which may have been made on the judgment before recovered.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment rewrote paragraphs (e) and (f) of subdivision (2), for previous text of which see parent volume; substituted "if the defendant is a domestic or foreign corporation, that none of the persons designated in D(2)(e) above can" for "that the defendant, if a domestic or foreign corporation, has no agent for the service of process, nor managing nor business agent, cashier, secretary, or other officer who can" in clause (ii) of paragraph (5)(c); inserted "and if desired, it may be combined in one instrument with the affidavit required under 4 D(2)(f), or 4 D(6)" at the end of clause (ii) of paragraph (5)(c); substituted the second sentence of paragraph (5)(e) for two sentences applying only to foreign corporations, for text of which see parent volume; substituted "any party intended to be served by such publication" for "any person not served within said 60-day period" at the end of paragraph (5)(f); completely rewrote subdivision (6), for previous text of which see parent volume; inserted "by" in clause (8)(b); and made minor style changes in paragraphs (3), (4), and (5)(a)(iv).

The amendment of September 7, 1965, in subdivision (2), deleted "or attorney" in clause (i) of paragraph (e) and, in paragraph (f), substituted "court of this state" for "court in this state" in the first clause of the first sentence, substituted "subject to the jurisdiction * * * Rule 4B above" for "actually doing business within Montana or was actually doing business in Montana at the time the claim for relief arose," in the second clause of the first sentence, and substituted "persons" for "person" in the fourth sentence.

The amendment of November 28, 1966 added paragraph (i) of subdivision (2); in the second sentence of subdivision (3), deleted "of summons" after "Where service," deleted "made after the filing of the required complaint and required affidavit for publication" after "out of the state," inserted the reference to 4(5)(c), and made other changes in phraseology; and, in clause (8)(d), substituted "date" for "time."

The amendment of September 29, 1967, in subdivision (4), inserted "with the provisions hereafter prescribed in D(5)(h), and" and "93-6228."

The 1971 amendment inserted in subdivision (2) (e) (ii) the provision for service on the registered agent named in the records of the secretary of state.

Commission Note to 1965 Amendment

Because of criticism from several members of the Bar, as well as the office of the Secretary of State, changes have been made in the provisions of Rule 4. In addition, some housekeeping changes have also been made.

We have inserted at the points where changes or additions have been made the new language italicized [not italicized herein; see Amendment note above].

Several members of the Bar have called the attention of the Rules Committee to the fact that particularly in quiet title actions, where defunct corporations were involved, and where none of the persons could be found with due diligence upon whom service could be completed that would be binding on the defunct corporation, that effective service could not be obtained by reason of the requirement of a return of a registered receipt showing delivery of the summons and complaint to the defunct corporation. We have now corrected that defect. In doing so, we have also brought within the framework of Rule 4 the provisions of R. C. M. 1947, Sections 93-3008, 93-3011, and 93-3012, which will be superseded. In addition, as long as we are changing Rule 4, we have now specified and delineated the same persons to be served whether or not the defendants are domestic or foreign corporations, or domestic or foreign partnerships or other unincorporated associations. It will be recalled that when Rule 4 was first promulgated, and in an effort not to bring about any changes in our prior practice, the old, separate, segregated statutes pertaining to domestic and foreign corporations were segregated in Rule 4. There is no reason, however, why the same persons should not be delineated for both domestic and foreign corporations, and we have now done so in this new writing of Rule 4.

In lieu of the requirement of a return receipt signed on behalf of the corporations, which in many instances cannot be accomplished, as pointed out in the criticism from the Bar, we have now added a requirement for publication of summons against such corporation where none of the persons can be found with due diligence upon whom personal service can be completed. (See the new D(2)(f). In so providing, however, we have now spelled out that the same procedure for publications shall be followed for serving corporations personally in in personam actions, as we have provided for serving such corporations by publication in in rem actions (see D(5)(e)).

Accordingly, we have made an effort to combine and streamline service on corporations by designating the same individual persons who can be served, whether the corporations are domestic or foreign, and providing the same procedure of publication where such persons cannot be found with due diligence, whether or not the defendants are domestic and foreign, and we have eliminated the necessity of the return of a signed registry receipt objected to so heavily by the Bar.

A second important change in the rule is specific authorization for an attorney for the plaintiff to incorporate within the framework of one single affidavit all the material necessary for serving defunct corporations personally, for serving by way of publication, and for serving the secretary of state.

Changes have also been made in those portions of the rule providing for service on the secretary of state. We have eliminated the necessity of the intermediate step of having summons and complaint go through the hands of the sheriff in Lewis and Clark County; we have cut down on the papers that must be kept on file by the secretary of state, particularly eliminating the necessity of his keeping a copy of the complaint; and we have provided a requirement that the secretary of state shall now serve upon the attorney for the plaintiff the factual information showing what was done by the secretary of state in effecting service, and the date when it was accomplished.

There are other minor housekeeping changes in the rule, and wherever there is any change, omission, alteration, or new language, reference to it is contained at the points where such is accomplished.

Commission Note to September 7, 1965 Amendment

The amendments to Rule 4D(2) as to (e) is to remove an "attorney" because of doubt as to who would be such within the meaning of the Rule. As to (f) to avoid possible conflict of the provisions of this subdivision and those of 4B.

The other amendments [Rules 50(b), 52(b), 59(e) and 60(c)] will expedite the hearing and determination of the motions involved, and provide a time after submission within which the motions are deemed denied if the court fails to decide them.

Advisory Committee's Note to November 28, 1966 Amendment

Rule 4D(2)(i): The purpose of the amendment is to remove doubts as to the manner of suing an estate and a trust, resultant from the inclusion of "an estate" and "a trust" in the definition of a person in 4A.

Rule 4D(3): To make it clear that the personal service outside this state dispenses with the necessity for following the procedure for service by publication prescribed by 4D(5). The provision for service of "a summons and complaint" permits personal service of either the original summons or the summons for publication, together with the complaint. As provided in 4D(5)(g), in case of personal service outside of this state service is complete on the date of such service.

Rule 4D(8)(d): To make it clear that it is the date and not the hour of day which should be shown in the admission of service. The time requirement in certificates or affidavits of personal service is considered desirable and no change in the last paragraph of 4D(8) is recommended.

Retroactive Application

Rule 4B(1), applied to act of alleged malpractice occurring in Montana prior to the effective date of this rule (Rule 86(a)) and doctor who had not resided in Montana since effective date of rule could properly be served with process in California under this rule. State ex rel. Johnson v. District Court of Fourth Judicial District, 148 M 22, 417 P 2d 109, 111.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Paragraph (2)

The doctrine of ostensible agency under section 2-205 has no application in determining whether service of process has been legally made on a "managing or general agent" within the meaning of this rule. Kraus v. Treasure Belt Min. Co., 146 M 432, 408 P 2d 151.

Paragraph (5)

Jurisdiction of the court attaches at the time of personal service of the complaint and summons, so that a prematurely entered default judgment is voidable and not void. Sowerwine v. Sowerwine, 145 M 81, 399 P 2d 233.

Paragraph (8)

Appearance and waiver executed by a foreign corporation, not qualified to do business in Montana, acknowledging receipt of amended complaint filed by plaintiff sufficiently complied with former section 93-3018. Greene Plumbing & Heating Co. v. Morris, 144 M 234, 395 P 2d 252, 255.

Rule 5. Service and filing of pleadings and other papers.

(a) SERVICE—WHEN REQUIRED. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original complaint unless the court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons in Rule 4.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 inserted "Except as otherwise provided in these rules" at the beginning of the first sentence; deleted "affected thereby, but" at the end of the first sentence, making the remainder of the original sentence into the second sentence.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(a), as amended 1963.

Explanation of change: The words "affected thereby" stricken out by the amendment, introduced a problem of interpretation. The amendment eliminates this difficulty and promotes full exchange of information among the parties by requiring service of papers on all the parties to the action, except as otherwise provided in the rules.

Rule 6. Time.

(a) COMPUTATION.

Statute of Limitations

Complaint filed three years and one day after act in suit governed by three-year statute of limitations was timely where last day of three-year period was Sunday. Grey v. Silver Bow County, 149 M 213, 425 P 2d 819.

(b) ENLARGEMENT. When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion (1) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or (2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any action under Rules 50(b), 52(b), 59(b), (d), (e) and (f), and 60(b), except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Amendments

The amendment of May 21, 1969 inserted the reference to Rule 50(f).

Advisory Committee's Note to May 21, 1969 Amendment

Explanation of change: Reference to "59(f)" is added to conform with amendments to Rule 59.

III. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS

Rule 8. General rules of pleading.
12. Defenses and objections—When and how presented—By pleading or motion —Motion for judgment on pleadings.
13. Counterclaim and cross-claim.
15. Amended and supplemental pleadings.

Rule 7. Pleadings allowed—Form of motions.

(a) PLEADINGS.

Reply

A plaintiff is not required to reply to an answer where not specifically ordered to do so by the court, nor is it mandatory to reply to an affirmative defense of a release, since under Rule 8(d), where no responsive pleading is required, the averment is deemed denied. Wheat v. Safeway Stores, Inc., 146 M 105, 404 P 2d 317.

Rule 8. General rules of pleading.

(a) CLAIMS FOR RELIEF.

Failure to Plead Claim

Where plaintiff failed to plead claim for deficiency judgment on balance remaining after sale of repossessed vehicles, no deficiency judgment could be rendered and the pleadings could not be amended to conform even though evidence had been received which might have supported such a judgment. Gallatin Trust & Savings Bank v. Darrah, 152 M 256, 448 P 2d 734.

Separate Claims on Note and Mortgage

Upon default in an action against the unconditional guarantors of a note and to foreclose mortgage securing the note, the holder of the note may properly proceed at its option against either security in the same action. Bozeman Deaconess Foundation v. Cowgill, 143 M 98, 387 P 2d 435.

Statute of Limitations

Although the statute of limitations need not be negated in the complaint, the court should consider whether a motion to amend a complaint relates back to the original complaint and so avoids the bar of the statute of limitations. Prentice Lumber Co. v. Hukill, — M —, 504 P 2d 277.

Hidden Hollow Ranch v. Collins, 146 M 321, 406 P 2d 365; Williams v. Superior Homes, Inc., 148 M 38, 417 P 2d 92, 93.

(b) DEFENSES—FORM OF DENIALS. A party shall state in short and plain terms his defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If he is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, he shall so state and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, he shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all the averments of the preceding pleading, he may make his denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs, or he may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as he expressly admits; but, when he does so intend to controvert all its averments, including averments of the grounds upon which the court's jurisdiction depends, he may do so by general denial subject to the obligations set forth in Rule 11.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Ord. Sup. Ct. June 1, 1964, eff. July 1, 1964.

Amendment

The 1964 amendment substituted "or" for "of" after "only a part" in the fourth sentence.

(c) AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES. In pleading to a preceding pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Ord. Sup. Ct. June 1, 1964, eff. July 1, 1964.

Amendment

The 1964 amendment substituted "affirmatively" for "affirmative" after "shall set forth" in the first sentence.

Insurance Policy Exclusions

Insurer need not affirmatively plead exceptions and exclusions from coverage contained in policy where entire policy and insurer's denial of coverage were incorporated in insured's pleadings. Home Ins. Co. v. Pinski Bros., Inc., 156 M 246, 479 P 2d 274.

Laches

Defendant who failed to plead laches as an affirmative defense in his answer waived such defense and could not raise the issue in a post-trial motion to dismiss. Hansen v. Kiernan, — M —, 499 P 2d 787.

Partial Payment

Partial payment by special deposit was an affirmative defense which debtor had burden of proving in suit on note; that burden of proof required that it be shown that payment was made on the particular obligation in controversy. Baker Nat. Bank v. Lestar, 153 M 45, 453 P 2d 774.

Res Judicata

Where supreme court affirmed dismissal of complaint by trial court on ground that complaint was unverified as required by section 93-3702 and on additional ground that complaint failed to state a claim upon which relief could be granted and a week later plaintiff filed a second verified amended complaint which eliminated confusion, the issue of res judicata was not so clear that the supreme court on the second appeal could say that the trial court could have found the defense of res judicata available without an answer under Rule 8(c) or responsive pleading to present the record of the former judgment plus a statement to show why it should be treated as res judicata. Rambur v. Diehl Lumber Co., 144 M 84, 394 P 2d 745, 748.

Unavoidable Accident

Unavoidable accident is not among defenses that must be pleaded affirmatively and is covered under general denial of negligence. Graham v. Rolandson, 150 M 270, 435 P 2d 263.

(d) EFFECT OF FAILURE TO DENY.

Answer

No further proof of heirship was required and summary judgment was proper where portion of paragraph in complaint alleging heirship was admitted in answer. Sikora v. Sikora, — M —, 499 P 2d 808.

Reply

The stipulation in this rule that averments in answer to which no responsive pleading is required are denied, read in conjunction with Rule 7(a), does not compel the plaintiff to reply to an answer averring the affirmative defense of a release. Wheat v. Safeway Stores, Inc., 146 M 105, 404 P 2d 317.

(e) PLEADING TO BE CONCISE AND DIRECT—CONSISTENCY.

Form of Pleading

No particular form of pleading is necessary to seek partition of property in a divorce proceeding, and where plaintiff prayed that the court settle and adjust the property rights of the parties, including partition or sale of the property if necessary, and both sides briefed and argued the issue, there was sufficient notice to defendant and partition was proper. Hodgson v. Hodgson, 156 M 469, 482 P 2d 140.

Brooks v. Brooks Pontiac, Inc., 143 M 256, 389 P 2d 185.

(c) CONDITIONS PRECEDENT.

General Denial

In action by materialman against general contractor for material supplied subcontractor, contractor could not make affirmative defense that statutory notice was not given under materialmen's statute after materialman alleged that he had complied with all conditions precedent to bringing suit and contractor entered general denial; general denial of allegation that all conditions precedent were performed did not put matter in issue and would be treated as admission that they were performed. Treasure State Industries, Inc. v. Leigland, 151 M 288, 443 P 2d 22.

Rule 11. Signing of pleadings.

Lack of Verification

Where a complaint was prepared to conform to this rule but lacked verification, and defendant waited until after he received an adverse judgment to raise the issue in a motion to dismiss on appeal, such motion failed as his proper remedy would have been a motion to strike under Rule 12. Adams v. Davis, 142 M 587, 386 P 2d 574.

Rule 12. Defenses and objections—When and how presented—By pleading or motion—Motion for judgment on pleadings.

(a) WHEN PRESENTED.

Pleading after Denial of Motion

Defendants had twenty days from day on which motion to dismiss complaint was denied in which to serve and file responsive pleading. Sealey v. Majerus, 149 M 268, 425 P 2d 70.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Default Taken Prematurely

Husband who went to Canada and was personally served there in divorce action had forty days in which to answer under the combined time allotted in former Rules 4(D)(5)(g) and 12(a), M. R. Civ. P., and default taken before that time was voidable. Sowerwine v. Sowerwine, 145 M 81, 399 P 2d 233.

Jurisdiction

Jurisdiction of the court attaches at the time of personal service of the complaint and summons, so that a prematurely entered default judgment is voidable and not void. Sowerwine v. Sowerwine, 145 M 81, 399 P 2d 233.

(b) HOW PRESENTED. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (4) insufficiency of process, (5) insufficiency of service of process, (6) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, (7) failure to join a party under Rule 19. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to the claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (6) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such motion by Rule 56.

(i) The cases in which place of trial may be changed are specified in section 93-2906, R. C. M. 1947.

(ii) If the county designated in the complaint is not the proper county for trial of the action, the defendant must at the time of his first appearance request by motion that the trial be had in the proper county. Every defense in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading which defendant desires to present by way of motion as hereinabove provided must be joined with, or inserted in, the motion requesting a change in the place of trial. If the court in which the action is commenced grants the request for change of venue, that court shall not consider nor pass upon other defenses in law, or fact, presented by the motion, but such shall be considered and decided by the court sitting in the proper county after the transfer has been completed. No request for change of venue is waived by being joined in a motion with other defenses or objections in law or fact.

(iii) Any request for change in place of trial for grounds 2 and 3 of section 93-2906, R. C. M. 1947, must be presented by motion within 20 days after the answer to the complaint, or to the cross-claim where a cross-claim is filed, or the reply to any answer, in those cases in which a reply is authorized, has been filed; except that whenever at some time more than twenty days after the last pleading has been filed an event occurs which thereafter affords good cause to believe that an impartial trial cannot be had under ground 2 of said section 93-2906, and competent proof is submitted to the court that such cause of impartiality did not exist within the twenty-day period after the last pleading was filed, then the court may entertain a motion to change the place of trial under ground 2 of section 93-2906 within twenty days after that later event occurs.

(iv) With respect to ground 4 of section 93-2906, R. C. M. 1947, the party who disqualifies a district judge, and who desires a change of venue, must include such request in a motion filed along with the affidavit of disqualification. If the party who does not disqualify the district judge desires a change of venue, he shall make such request by motion within 5 days after being served with a copy of the affidavit of disqualification. Unless the parties have agreed in writing upon another district judge, or upon a member of the bar as judge pro tempore, the disqualified district judge must either call in another district judge within fifteen days after filing of the affidavit of disqualification, or ten days after filing of the motion for change of venue, or, if no other judge is called in, grant the motion for change of venue. If any other qualified district judge shall be called in, as herein provided, and shall, within thirty days after the motion for change of venue has been filed, appear and assume jurisdiction of the cause and of all matters and proceedings therein, no change of the place of trial shall be made. If the other qualified district judge called in, as herein provided, fails to appear and assume jurisdiction within thirty days after the motion for change of venue has been filed, then the disqualified judge must immediately grant the motion and order a change in the place of trial to some other county.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment renumbered some of the numbered clauses in the first sentence and added subdivisions (i) to (iv). See Commission Note below.

The amendment of September 29, 1967, in the introductory paragraph, substituted "a party under Rule 19" for "an indispensable party" in item (7); and, in the fourth sentence, substituted "the" for "that" before "claim for relief."

Commission Note to 1965 Amendment

The numbering of the defenses which may be made by motion is changed to conform to that of the Federal Rule, which results in there being no "(3)" because "improper venue" as a ground for motion to dismiss was deleted in 1963. Subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv) are added to clarify and detail the time and manner for motions for change of place of trial in the cases specified in Section 93-2906, R. C. M. 1947.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b), as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: The terminology is changed to accord with the amendment of Rule 19. The numbering of listed defenses of the Montana Rule is retained: "(3) improper venue" is omitted; and the provisions of subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv), dealing with motions for change of place of trial, remain unchanged.

Failure to State a Claim

Where contract for sale of real property contained statements that time was of the essence and that payments could be made on or before January 15 of each year, action for breach of contract by vendor against vendee for making accelerated payments was improperly dismissed for failure to state a claim, since the words of the contract were ambiguous and it did not appear as a certainty that plaintiff was entitled to no relief. Kielmann v. Morgan, 156 M 230, 478 P 2d 275.

Involuntary Dismissal

Rule 41(b), providing for involuntary dismissal which operates as an adjudication upon the merits, has no application to a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim under this rule. Rambur v. Diehl Lumber Co., 144 M 84, 394 P 2d 745, 750.

Motion to Dismiss

A motion to dismiss under this rule is equivalent to a demurrer under former procedure. Payne v. Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Co., 142 M 406, 385 P 2d 100; Holtz v. Babcock, 143 M 341, 389 P 2d 869, 390 P 2d 801; Rambur v. Diehl Lumber Co., 143 M 432, 391 P 2d 1.

While a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim on which relief can be granted is the same as a demurrer under former Montana procedure and therefore admits to all facts well pleaded, it does not admit to controversial conclusions of law or to the accuracy of alleged construction of written instruments set forth in the pleading. Holtz v. Babcock, 143 M 341, 389 P 2d 869, 390 P 2d 801.

An order sustaining a motion to dismiss is not appealable. Rambur v. Diehl Lumber Co., 143 M 432, 391 P 2d 1.

A motion to dismiss was proper under this rule where return was made more than three years after commencement of action in violation of Rule 41(e), and lack of jurisdiction did not have to be pleaded as an affirmative defense. Whitcraft v. Semenza, 145 M 94, 399 P 2d 757.

Res Judicata

Where supreme court affirmed lower court judgment dismissing complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief could be granted under this rule, the judgment was not res judicata as to a second amended complaint under the provisions of Rule 56(c) treating motion as a summary judgment where matters outside the pleadings were presented to and not excluded by the court. Rambur v. Diehl Lumber Co., 144 M 84, 394 P 2d 745, 749.

(d) PRELIMINARY HEARINGS. The defenses specifically enumerated (1) [to] (7) in subdivision (b) of this rule whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment mentioned in subdivision (c) of this rule shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until trial.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 substituted "(7)" for "(6)" and deleted "the" before "trial" at the end of the section.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Explanation of change: "(7)" has been substituted for "(6)" to correct misnumbering and conform to the defenses enumerated in subdivision (b) [Rule 12(b)].

(g) CONSOLIDATION OF DEFENSES IN MOTION. A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it any other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motion, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in subdivision (h)(2) hereof on any of the grounds there stated.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 89, L. 1963; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967, in the first sentence, substituted "any" for "the" before "other motions"; in the second sentence, substituted "but omits therefrom any defense or objection" for "and does not include therein all defenses and objections" and "on the defense or objection" for "on any of the defenses or objections"; inserted "a motion" after "except"; and substituted "subdivision (h)(2) * * * there stated" for "subdivision (h) of this rule."

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(g) and (h), as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: Where a dilatory defense is omitted from a preanswer motion, under the language of these subdivisions [Rule 12(g) and 12(h)] the cases are divided on the question of whether the defense can be included in the answer although it is not permitted in another motion. This amendment prevents the inclusion of such omitted defenses in the answer as well as in another preanswer motion. This change follows the provisions of the federal amendment, except that "improper venue" is not included in the enumeration in (h)(1)(A), because the times for making motions for a change of venue are specified in subdivisions (b)(ii), (iii) and (iv) of the Montana Rule [12(b)].

The substance of subdivision (g) has not been changed.

(h) WAIVER OR PRESERVATION OF CERTAIN DEFENSES. (1) A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, insufficiency of process, or insufficiency of service of process is waived (A) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in subdivision (g), or (B) if it is neither made by motion under this rule nor included in a responsive pleading or an amendment thereof permitted by Rule 15(a) to be made as a matter of course.

(2) A defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a party indispensable under Rule 19, and an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under Rule 7(a), or by motion for judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.

(3) Whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action.

Explanation of change: See Advisory Committee's Note under Rule 12(g).

Lack of Jurisdiction

Defendant who did not plead lack of jurisdiction over the person in his initial response to complaint was precluded from making subsequent motion on the omitted defense under subsection (g) and he thereby waived the defense under provisions of this subsection. Prentice Lumber Co. v. Spahn, 156 M 68, 474 P 2d 141.

Rule 13. Counterclaim and cross-claim.

(g) CROSS-CLAIM AGAINST COPARTY.

Failure to File

Employer's insurer who paid judgment entered against employer and employee in automobile accident case did not lose its right of indemnity against employee by employer's failure to file cross-claim in accident action. St. Paul Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. Thompson, 152 M 396, 451 P 2d 98.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Parties to Cross-claim

District court did not have jurisdiction and power to adjudicate mechanics' liens of cross-complainants, materialmen, where they failed to serve the principal contractor with process. Greene Plumbing & Heating Co. v. Morris, 144 M 234, 395 P 2d 252, 256.

(h) JOINDER OF ADDITIONAL PARTIES. Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim in accordance with the provisions of Rules 19 and 20.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 13(h), as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: The amendment to Rule 13(h) incorporates by direct reference the revised criteria and procedures of Rule 19, as amended. The amendment also expressly refers to Rule 20 thus correcting an existing inadequacy by calling attention to the fact that a party pleading a counterclaim or a cross-claim may join additional persons when the conditions for permissive joinder of parties under Rule 20 are satisfied. Hereafter, for the purpose of determining who must or may be joined as additional parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim, the party pleading the claim is to be regarded as a plaintiff and the additional parties as plaintiffs or defendants as the case may be, and amended Rules 19 and 20 are to be applied in the usual fashion.

Rule 14. Third-party practice.

(a) WHEN DEFENDANT MAY BRING IN THIRD PARTY.

Insurance Coverage

Federal court dismissed action for declaratory judgment declaring obligations of casualty insurance company under an automobile casualty insurance policy which had allegedly been canceled prior to the time of the accident involving the automobile of the insured sued for injuries resulting from the accident, since the issues which did not involve federal law, could be solved in the state court wherein third-party complaint under this rule had been filed by the insured against the insurer in which the insured sought to hold the insurer to the terms of the policy, where the state court could dispose of the coverage problems first under M. R. Civ. P., Rule 42(b). Western Casualty & Surety Co. v. Pinson, 255 F Supp 624, 625.

Separate Trial of Third Party Action

Third party claim initiated by hospital, which was being sued by minor patient burned by defective television switch while in hospital, against lessor of television equipment should have been separated from main action between hospital and patient and tried separately. Crosby v. Billings Deaconess Hospital, 149 M 314, 426 P 2d 217.

Rule 15. Amended and supplemental pleadings.

(a) AMENDMENTS.

Discretionary Power of Court

Where it was very clear that the supreme court, upon a former appeal of the same case, was unanimous in its decision to affirm the jury verdict and as to the ineffectiveness of additur order, the fact that the supreme court affirmed the jury verdict and thereby finally determined the amount of the award withdrew any discretion that might have been otherwise possessed by the trial judge to allow amendments to the pleadings. State acting by and through State Highway Commission v. Schmidt, 148 M 316, 420 P 2d 153, 155.

Trial court's discretionary power to grant leave to amend pleadings may be limited by a decision of the supreme court upon a former appeal of the same case. State acting by and through State Highway Commission v. Schmidt, 148 M 316, 420 P 2d 153, 155.

A proposed second amended complaint which sought to substitute an indebtedness on account of goods sold and delivered for indebtedness on a default judgment covering substantially the same account because the judgment had been set aside, and which attempted to hold the directors personally liable for the debts of a corporation by reason of their failure to file an annual statement, was properly refused by the trial court where the evidence indicated bad faith in that the vacated default judgment was taken without the knowledge of the president or directors of the corporation and in that the course of dealings with the president of the corporation was withheld from the directors of the subject corporation. Prentice Lumber Co. v. Hukill, — M —, 504 P 2d 277.

Right to Amendment of Course

The motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim is not a responsive pleading within the provisions of this rule that complaint may be amended once as a matter of course before a responsive pleading is served. Rambur v. Diehl Lumber Co., 144 M 84, 394 P 2d 745, 748.

(b) AMENDMENTS TO CONFORM TO THE EVIDENCE.

Notice of Claim

Where plaintiff failed to plead claim for deficiency judgment on balance remaining after sale of repossessed vehicles, the pleadings could not later be amended to conform to evidence that would have supported a deficiency judgment. Gallatin Trust & Savings Bank v. Darrah, 152 M 256, 448 P 2d 734.

(c) RELATION BACK OF AMENDMENTS. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading, the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading. An amendment changing the party against whom a claim is asserted relates back if the foregoing provision is satisfied and, within the period provided by law for commencing the action against him, the party to be brought in by amendment (1) has received such notice of the institution of the action that he will not be prejudiced in maintaining his defense on the merits, and (2) knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against him.

The requirements of clauses (1) and (2) hereof are satisfied with respect to any city, village, town, school district, county, or public agency, board or officer of such public bodies, and with respect to the state or any state board, agency or officer thereof, to be brought into the action as defendant, if process is served as provided by Rule 4D(2)(g) and (h) for service upon such defendant.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 added the last sentence of the first paragraph and added the second paragraph.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(c), as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: This amendment is designed to avoid problems which have arisen in instances in which the complaint named the wrong defendant and the statute of limitations expired prior to an amendment correcting the error. Where the newly named defendant received notice of the action and knew or should have known that he was the intended defendant, it seems unjust to prohibit relation back.

The most serious difficulties under the Federal Rules have been in suits against the United States or an agency or officer thereof. The second paragraph of the federal amendment contains specific provisions for such cases and the second paragraph of this amendment adapts the federal provision to suits where the true defendant is the state or a political subdivision thereof.

The change will also further the objective of the provision of Rule 25(d) for automatic substitution of the successor public officer.

Amendment after Running of Limitations

If original complaint is timely filed, amended complaint dealing with same transaction set out in original complaint will relate back to original complaint, even though amended complaint changes legal theory of action, adds claim arising out of same transaction or states facts more specifically, and even though amended complaint is filed after running of statute of limitations. Rozan v. Rosen, 150 M 121, 431 P 2d 870.

(d) SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS.

Notice

Trial court was justified in refusing to grant defendants' motion to amend their answer by adding an affirmative defense of compromise and settlement, even though it was represented that some sort of compromise settlement had been reached after filing of complaint and answer, since defendants had not given plaintiffs notice of this motion as required by this section. Montgomery v. Gehring, 145 M 278, 400 P 2d 403.

Rule 16. Pretrial procedure—Formulating issues.

Discretion of Court

Pretrial procedure is optional, it being left to trial court's discretion whether to utilize procedure and to what extent. Lenz v. Mehrens, 149 M 394, 427 P 2d 297.

Issues on Appeal

Issues of waiver and breach of contract not covered by pretrial order could not be raised on appeal. Davis v. Davis, — M —, 497 P 2d 315.

Rule 17. Parties plaintiff and defendant—Capacity.

(a) REAL PARTY IN INTEREST. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought; and when a statute of the state of Montana so provides, an action for the use or benefit of another shall be brought in the name of the state of Montana. No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 deleted the conjunction "but" between the present first and second sentences and made them separate sentences; and added the third sentence.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 17(a), as amended 1966.

A bailee is added to the list of real parties in interest; and a minor change is made in the text to make it clear that the specific instances enumerated are not exceptions to, but illustrations of, the rule, and carry no negative implications.

The provision that no action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed, after the objection has been raised, for ratification, etc., keeps pace with modern decisions which, in the interests of justice, are inclined to be lenient when an honest mistake has been made in choosing the party in whose name the action is filed.

Assignee for Collection

Assignees of claim paid by their liability insurer were real parties in interest and entitled to sue their indemnitor and its insurer in their own names because the assignees had legal title to the claim and this was sufficient to constitute the assignees the real parties in interest. Washington Water Power Co. v. Morgan Electric Co., 152 M 126, 448 P 2d 683.

Oral Gift

Son was not real party in interest in action on stated account, based on oral gift to son, where buyer of goods was never aware that son was owner but dealt entirely through father. Hanlon v. Anderson, — M —, 502 P 2d 51.

Rule 18. Joinder of claims and remedies.

(a) JOINDER OF CLAIMS. A party asserting a claim to relief as an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, may join, either as independent or as alternate claims, as many claims either legal or equitable or both as he has against an opposing party or co-party.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 18(a), as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: Under the prior rule some courts have inferred that the standards of Rules 19, 20, and 22 relate to and limit Rule 18(a) in multiple party cases. Thus, Rule 20(a) resulted in a holding that, unless each claim arose from a single transaction or series of transactions and involved a question common to all defendants, there could be no joinder. Federal Housing Admr. v. Christianson, 26 F Supp 419 (D. Conn. 1939). This amendment is designed to overcome such decisions and to state clearly that a party asserting a claim (original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, third party claim) may join as many claims as he has against an opposing party regardless of the fact that there are multiple parties. The joinder is subject to the court's power to direct appropriate procedure for trying the claims. See Rules 42(b), 20(b), 21. Joinder of parties is governed by other rules operating independently.

In addition to the changes in the Federal Rules the words "or co-party" are added to the Montana amendment for consistency with the provisions of this amendment for cross-claims and Rule 13(g).

Divorce Proceedings

Where wife brought suit for divorce and husband filed cross complaint for adjudication of his right to property acquired by their joint effort, the general equity powers of the court were properly invoked by joining in a single action the prayer for divorce and adjudication of the dispute between the parties concerning property rights. Tolson v. Tolson, 145 M 87, 399 P 2d 754, explained in 157 M 252, 257, 484 P 2d 748.

In divorce proceedings, jointly held property may be partitioned by the district court, which has the power to settle and to adjust property jointly accumulated, regardless of whether the pleadings contain a specific prayer for partition. Hodgson v. Hodgson, 156 M 469, 482 P 2d 140.

In a divorce action a district court may completely divest the wife of her interest in property, no matter how it is held, and provide for the payment of alimony in lieu thereof; no particular pleading is required to raise question of equitable division of property; any pleading is sufficient which gives notice of pleader's intent to raise the issue; specific relief need not be requested. Libra v. Libra, 157 M 252, 484 P 2d 748, overruling Emery v. Emery, 122 M 201, 200 P 2d 251 and affirming rule of Johnson v. Johnson, 137 M 11, 139 P 2d 310.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Assignor Bringing Action

Assignee of one-half interest of an overriding royalty agreement with plaintiff-assignor and defendant could not be joined as a party plaintiff in a suit to compel defendant to pay the other half interest to plaintiff whether assignor was a trustee for the assignee or they were tenants in common. Lowe & Lynn v. Flank Oil Co., 144 M 499, 398 P 2d 608.

Rule 19. Joinder of persons needed for just adjudication.

(a) PERSONS TO BE JOINED IF FEASIBLE. A person who is subject to service of process shall be joined as a party in the action if (1) in his absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties, or (2) he claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in his absence may (i) as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest or (ii) leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of his claimed interest. If he has not been so joined, the court shall order that he be made a party. If he should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant, or, in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff. If the joined party objects to venue and his joinder would render the venue of the action improper, he shall be dismissed from the action.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 19, as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: This is a substitution for existing Rule 19 in its entirety. The changes are intended to make clear that whenever feasible the persons materially interested in the subject of an action should be joined as parties so that they may be heard and a complete disposition made. When this comprehensive joinder cannot be accomplished the case should be examined pragmatically and a choice made between the alternatives of proceeding with the action in the absence of particular interested persons, and dismissing the action.

Even if the court is mistaken in its decision to proceed in the absence of an interested person, it does not by that token deprive itself of the power to adjudicate as between the parties already before it through proper service of process. But the court can make a legally binding adjudication only between the parties actually joined in the action. It is true that an adjudication between the parties before the court may on occasion adversely affect the absent person as a practical matter, or leave a party exposed to a later inconsistent recovery by the absent person. These are factors which should be considered in deciding whether the action should proceed, or should rather be dismissed; but they do not themselves negate the court's power to adjudicate as between the parties who have been joined.

The change straightens out difficulties in the wording of the old rule. The word "indispensable" is used only in a conclusory sense, that is, a person is "regarded as indispensable" when he cannot be made a party and, upon consideration of the factors mentioned in subdivision (b), it is determined that in his absence it would be preferable to dismiss the action, rather than to retain it. The factors mentioned in subdivision (b) of the rule are not intended to be exclusive and others may be applicable in particular situations. The court is to determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties already before it, or should be dismissed.

Injured Party in Dispute between Insurers

Party who brought original action for injuries but who was not party to either of policies of insurance involved and was only indirectly interested in outcome of litigation between two insurance companies was improper party in declaratory action to determine which of two insurance companies was liable. National Farmers Union Property & Casualty Co. v. General Guaranty Ins. Co., 150 M 297, 434 P 2d 708.

Joinder of Party to Prior Action

Stipulation of owner of bulldozer to be bound by prior judgment even though not a party to previous action precluded subsequent complaint for damages to bulldozer, and there was no need to join him as a party to the previous action. Morris v. McCarthy, — M —, 497 P 2d 102.

(b) DETERMINATION BY COURT OF WHENEVER JOINDER NOT FEASIBLE. If a person as described in subdivision (a)(1)-(2) hereof cannot be made a party, the court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the court include: first, to what extent a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to him or those already parties; second, the extent to which, by protective provisions in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided; third, whether a judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; fourth, whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for nonjoinder.

(c) PLEADING REASONS FOR NONJOINDER. A pleading asserting a claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any persons as described in subdivision (a)(1)-(2) hereof who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.

Rule 20. Permissive joinder of parties.

(a) PERMISSIVE JOINDER. All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all these persons will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 substituted "these persons" for "of them" near the end of the first sentence; and "defendants" for "of them" near the end of the second sentence.

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 20(a), as amended 1966.

This amendment fits into the amendment to Rule 18, and clarifies the antecedent of the word "them."

Scope

The scope of this rule is procedural in nature and removes obstacles to joinder without affecting the substantive rights of the parties, so that in a suit by real estate agents against buyer and seller, judgment for plaintiff would not, in effect, make the buyer a party to a prior contract between the agents and the seller. Wheat v. Safeway Stores, Inc., 146 M 105, 404 P 2d 317.

(b) SEPARATE TRIALS.

Disqualification of Judge

Disqualification of trial judge did not make his previous order denying a severance of action against multiple defendants either res judicata or the law of the case, and successor district judge could order severance on a new motion. State ex rel. Stenberg v. Nelson, 157 M 310, 486 P 2d 870.

Rule 23. Class actions.

(a) PREREQUISITES TO A CLASS ACTION. One or more members of a class may sue or be sued as representative parties on behalf of all only if (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable, (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class, (3) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class, and (4) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Compiler's Notes

The order of September 29, 1967 revised Rule 23 in general and rewrote Rule 23(a) in particular. For text of former Rule 23(a), see parent volume.

Taxpayers

Affected taxpayers had standing under this rule to ask for declaratory judgment against boards of county commissioners which increased appraisals on ground that state board of equalization used wrong rates in assessing timberlands. State ex rel. Conrad v. Managhan, 157 M 335, 485 P 2d 948.

(b) CLASS ACTIONS MAINTAINABLE. An action may be maintained as a class action if the prerequisites of subdivision (a) are satisfied, and in addition: (1) the prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of

(A) inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class, or

(B) adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests; or

(2) the party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or (3) the court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include: (A) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions; (B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class; (C) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum; (D) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: The amended rule describes in more practical terms than existed under the old rule the occasions for maintaining class actions; provides that all actions maintained to the end as such will result in judgments including those whom the court finds to be members of the class, whether or not the judgment is favorable to the class; and refers to the measures which can be taken to assure the fair conduct of these actions. It is designed to clear up difficulties in drawing distinctions between joint, common, secondary or several rights, and in defining categories in terms of "true," "hybrid," and "spurious," and to give a better guide to the extent and binding effect of judgments.

(c) DETERMINATION BY ORDER WHETHER CLASS ACTION TO BE MAINTAINED—NOTICE—JUDGMENT—ACTIONS CONDUCTED PARTIALLY AS CLASS ACTIONS.

(1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the court shall determine by order whether it is to be so maintained. An order under this subdivision may be conditional, and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.

(2) In any class action maintained under subdivision (b)(3), the court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that (A) the court will exclude him from the class if he so requests by a specified date; (B) the judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and (C) any member who does not request exclusion may, if he desires, enter an appearance through his counsel.

(3) The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (b)(1) or (b)(2), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subdivision (b)(3), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in subdivision (c)(2) was directed, and who have not requested exclusion, and whom the court finds to be members of the class.

(4) When appropriate (A) an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or (B) a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this rule shall then be construed and applied accordingly.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: In order to avoid the necessity for awaiting final judgment before obtaining review by the supreme court of an order under subdivision (c)(1) refusing to permit a class action to be maintained as such, Rule (1)(b) of the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure is amended to make such an order appealable. There does not seem to be a corresponding necessity for direct appeal, as distinct from appeal from the final judgment, where the court determines that the action may be maintained as a class action.

Supervisory Writ

Defendants were not entitled to a supervisory writ against trial court's ruling that action could be maintained as a class action; under subdivision (d) trial court could alter or amend its order as the litigation progresses. State ex rel. Anaconda Aluminum Co. v. District Court, 158 M 228, 490 P 2d 351.

(d) ORDER IN CONDUCT OF ACTIONS. In the conduct of actions to which this rule applies, the court may make appropriate orders: (1) determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument; (2) requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action; (3) imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors; (4) requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly; (5) dealing with similar procedural matters. The orders may be combined with an order under Rule 16, and may be altered or amended as may be desirable from time to time.

(f) SECURITY FOR COSTS. Security for costs and charges, which may be awarded against a representative party, may be required by an opposing party. When required, all proceedings in the action must be stayed until an undertaking, executed by two or more persons, is filed with the clerk, to the effect that they will pay such costs and charges as may be awarded against the representative party by judgment, or in the progress of the action, not exceeding the sum of one thousand dollars. A new or an additional undertaking may be ordered by the court or judge, upon proof that the original undertaking is insufficient security, and proceedings in the action stayed until such new or additional undertaking is executed and filed.

Compiler's Notes

The order of September 29, 1967 rewrote Rule 23 generally and added Rules 23(e) and 23(f).

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Explanation of change: In addition to the changes of the Federal Rule [23], subdivision (f) is added to the Montana Rules in order to afford protection against selection of a representative party who may not be responsible for costs and charges.

Rule 23.1. Derivative actions by shareholders.

In a derivative action brought by one or more shareholders or members to enforce a right of a corporation or of an unincorporated association, the corporation or association having failed to enforce a right which may properly be asserted by it, the complaint shall allege with particularity the efforts, if any, made by the plaintiff to obtain the action he desires from the directors or comparable authority and, if necessary, from the shareholders or members, and the reasons for his failure to obtain the action or for not making the effort. The derivative action may not be maintained if it appears that the plaintiff does not fairly and adequately represent the interests of the shareholders or members similarly situated in enforcing the right of the corporation or association. The action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to shareholders or members in such manner as the court directs.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 23.1, as adopted 1966.

Explanation of change: A derivative action by a shareholder of a corporation or by a member of an unincorporated association has distinctive aspects which require the special provisions set forth in the new rule. The next-to-the-last sentence recognizes that the question of adequacy of representation may arise when the plaintiff is one of a group of shareholders or members.

The court has inherent power to provide for the conduct of the proceedings in a derivative action, including the power to determine the course of the proceedings and require that any appropriate notice be given to shareholders or members.

The Montana amendment conforms to the 1966 federal amendment, except that it omits the federal provision that the complaint be verified and allege "(1) that the plaintiff was a shareholder or member at the time of the transaction of which he complains or that his share or membership thereafter devolved on him by operation of law, and (2) that the action is not a collusive one to confer jurisdiction on a court of the United States which it would not otherwise have." No reason is apparent for requiring a verified complaint in this type of action and not in others, and the allegations required by the federal amendment and omitted from this proposal appear to be designed to prevent abuse of federal jurisdiction and to be unnecessary in state practice.

Rule 23.2. Actions relating to unincorporated associations.

An action brought by or against the members of an unincorporated association as a class by naming certain members as representative parties may be maintained only if it appears that the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the association and its members. In the conduct of the action the court may make appropriate orders corresponding with those described in Rule 23(d), and the procedure for dismissal or compromise of the action shall correspond with that provided in Rule 23(e).

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Advisory Committee's Note

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 23.2, as adopted 1966.

Explanation of change: Although an action by or against representatives of the membership of an unincorporated association has often been viewed as a class action, the real or main purpose of this characterization has been to give "entity treatment" to the association when for formal reasons it cannot sue or be sued as a jural person under Rule 17. Rule 23.2 deals separately with these actions, referring where appropriate to Rule 23.

Rule 24. Intervention.

(a) INTERVENTION OF RIGHT. Upon timely application anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers an unconditional right to intervene; or (2) when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and he is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 rewrote item (2), substituting it for former items (2) and (3), allowing intervention when representation of applicant's interest might be inadequate and he might be bound by judgment and when applicant would be adversely affected by court's disposition of property.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 24(a), as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: Subdivision (2) is changed because a class member who claims that his "representative" does not adequately represent him, and is able to establish that proposition with sufficient probability, should not, as was required under the prior rule, be put to the risk of having a judgment entered in the action which by its terms extends to him, and be obliged to test the validity of the judgment as applied to his interest by a later collateral attack. Rather he should, as general rule, be entitled to intervene in the action.

The amendment provides that an applicant is entitled to intervene in an action when his position is comparable to that of a person under Rule 19(a)(2)(i), as amended, unless his interest is already adequately represented in the action by existing parties. The Rule 19(a)(2)(i) criterion imports practical consideration, and the deletion of the "bound" language similarly frees the rule from undue preoccupation with strict considerations of res judicata.

The representation whose adequacy comes into question under the amended rule is not confined to formal representation like that provided by a trustee for his beneficiary or a representative party in a class action for a member of the class. A party to an action may provide practical representation to the absentee seeking intervention although no formal relationship exists between them, and the adequacy of this practical representation will then have to be weighed.

Subdivision (3) is deleted for if an absentee would be substantially affected in a practical sense by the determination made in an action, he should, as a general rule, be entitled to intervene, and his right to do so should not depend on whether there is a fund to be distributed or otherwise disposed of as was required under that subdivision. Intervention of right is here seen to be a kind of counterpart to Rule 19(a)(2)(i) on joinder of persons needed for a just adjudication: where, upon motion of a party in an action, an absentee should be joined so that he may protect his interest which as a practical matter may be substantially impaired by the disposition of the action, he ought to have a right to intervene in the action on his own motion.

(c) PROCEDURE. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon the parties as provided in Rule 5. The motion shall state the grounds therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought. The same procedure shall be followed when a statute gives a right to intervene. When the constitutionality of an act of the legislative assembly affecting the public interest is drawn in question in any action to which neither the state nor any agency or officer thereof is a party, the court shall notify the attorney general of the state and the attorney general may within 20 days thereafter intervene in the same manner on behalf of the state.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967, in the first sentence, substituted "the" for "all" before "parties" and "as provided in Rule 5" for "affected thereby" after "parties."

Rule 25. Substitution of parties.

(a) DEATH.

Waiver of Substitution Requirements

Failure of plaintiff to substitute executrix of doctor's estate for doctor, in tort action initiated against doctor before his death was waived where attorneys for doctor were also attorneys for executrix, attorneys and executrix were present at trial of action and attorneys for executrix had filed motion for additional time in which to perfect appeal from judgment against doctor. V. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

28. Persons before whom depositions may be taken.
30. Depositions upon oral examination.
33. Interrogatories to parties.
35. Physical and mental examination of persons.

(b) SCOPE OF EXAMINATION.

Identity of Witnesses

The identity of a traffic engineer who will testify in a collision case involving a question of concurrent negligence is discoverable under this rule. Smith v. Babcock, 157 M 81, 482 P 2d 1014.

Unreasonable Requests

In action by insured against insurance company seeking damages for breach of contract and punitive damages for violations of the insurance code, trial court abused discretion in ordering answer to interrogatory requesting names and addresses of all persons within the state who had made a claim against the insurance company and whose claims the insurance company had either refused to pay or had not paid in full during the last three years; even if relevant and material to issues pleaded, the interrogatory was unreasonable since the value of the information sought did not bear a reasonable relationship to the annoyance and expense involved in answering the interrogatory. State ex rel. Bankers Life & Casualty Co. v. Miller, — M —, 502 P 2d 27.

(e) OBJECTIONS TO ADMISSIBILITY. Subject to the provisions of Rules 28(b) and 32(c), objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

Explanation of change: This amendment conforms to the amendment of Rule 28(b).

Rule 28. Persons before whom depositions may be taken.

(b) IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES. In a foreign country, depositions may be taken (1) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place in which the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States, or (2) before a person commissioned by the court, and a person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of his commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony, or (3) pursuant to letter rogatory. A commission or a letter rogatory shall be issued on application and notice, and on terms that are just and appropriate. It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter rogatory that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter rogatory may be issued in proper cases. A notice or commission may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letter rogatory may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in [here name the country]." Evidence obtained in response to a letter rogatory need not be excluded merely for the reason that it is not a verbatim transcript or that the testimony was not taken under oath or for any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the United States under these Rules.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 deleted "state or" after "In a foreign"; substituted "may" for "shall" after "depositories"; and rewrote the remainder of the Rule. For text of former Rule, see parent volume.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 28(b), as amended 1963.

Explanation of change: The amendment of clause (1) is designed to facilitate depositions in foreign countries by enlarging the class of persons before whom the depositions may be taken on notice.

It makes clear that the appointment of a person by commission in itself confers power upon him to administer any necessary oath.

It negates the judicial requirement sometimes stated that letters rogatory will not issue unless the use of a notice or commission is shown to be impossible or impractical. It permits a sound choice between depositions under a leter rogatory and on notice or by commission in the light of all the circumstances.

In executing a letter rogatory the courts of other countries may be expected to follow their customary procedure for taking testimony. The last sentence of the amended subdivision provides, contrary to the implications of some authority, that evidence recorded in such a fashion need not be excluded on that account. Whether or to what degree the value or weight of the evidence may be affected by the method of taking or recording the testimony is left for determination according to the circumstances of the particular case.

(e) DEPOSITION TO BE TAKEN IN SISTER STATES AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES FOR USE IN THIS STATE. Whenever the deposition of any person is to be taken in a sister state or a foreign country, or any other jurisdiction, foreign or domestic, for use in this state, pursuant either to notice or stipulation, the Clerk or equivalent officer of any Court having jurisdiction at the place where the witness is to be served or the deposition taken, upon proof that notice has been duly served for taking of the deposition or that the parties have stipulated to such taking, may issue the necessary subpoenas or equivalent court instruments to require such witness to attend for the taking of the deposition at the time and place in the sister state or foreign country, or any other jurisdiction, foreign or domestic, designated in the notice or stipulation.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-8, Sept. 10, 1968, eff. Jan. 1, 1969.

Advisory Committee's Note

Officials in some sister states have insisted upon some specific authorization for the issuance of subpoenas by them for use in Montana litigation. The amendment provides that authority.

Rule 30. Depositions upon oral examination.

(b) ORDERS FOR THE PROTECTION OF PARTIES AND DEPONENTS.

Attorney and Client

Protective relief was granted to strike from an amended complaint quotations and purported quotations from legal opinions prepared by defendant's attorneys for defendant and turned over to plaintiff's attorney in accordance with in camera inspection ordered by the district court, which provided that the opinions were to be treated as confidential material and were not to be made a part of the court record or otherwise disclosed to other persons. State ex rel. Union Oil Co. of California v. District Court, — M —, 503 P 2d 1008.

Limitation of Examination

In a libel action it was not error for the trial judge to issue a minute entry order refusing to require the defendant to answer questions submitted by the plaintiff as the court has the power to limit the examination and protect him from annoyance, embarrassment or oppression. Steffes v. Crawford, 143 M 43, 386 P 2d 842.

(f) CERTIFICATION AND FILING BY OFFICER—COPIES—NOTICE OF FILING. (1) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of (here insert name of witness)" and shall promptly file it with the court in which the action is pending or send it by registered or certified mail to the clerk thereof for filing.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

This proposal is patterned after the 1963 federal amendment, and conforms to provisions of Rule 4 which permit the use of certified mail as an alternative to the use of registered mail.

Rule 33. Interrogatories to parties.

Any party may serve upon any adverse party, who has been served with process or who has appeared, written interrogatories to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. A party serving interrogatories upon an adverse party shall file the same in the court in which the action is pending. The interrogatories shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath. The party answering the interrogatories shall set forth a verbatim re-copy of each of the interrogatories, followed by the answer thereto, and shall file the answers in the court in which the action is pending. The answers shall be signed by the person making them; and the party upon whom the interrogatories have been served for answer shall serve a copy of the answers upon every party who has made written appearance within 20 days after the service of interrogatories upon him, unless the court, on motion and notice and for good cause shown, enlarges or shortens the time. Within 20 days after service of interrogatories a party may serve written objections thereto together with a notice of hearing the objections at the earliest practicable time. Answers to interrogatories to which objection is made shall be deferred until the objections are determined.

Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Rule 26(b), and the answers may be used to the same extent as provided in Rule 26(d) for the use of the deposition of a party. Interrogatories may be served after a deposition has been taken, and a deposition may be sought after interrogatories have been answered, but the court, on motion of the deponent or the party interrogated, may make such protective order as justice may require. The number of interrogatories or of sets of interrogatories to be served is not limited except as justice requires to protect the party from annoyance, expense, embarrassment, or oppression. The provisions of Rule 30(b) are applicable for the protection of the party from whom answers to interrogatories are sought under this rule.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Apr. 1, 1965, eff. July 1, 1965; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Nov. 28, 1966, eff. Jan. 1, 1967.

Amendments

The amendment of April 1, 1965 added a third paragraph which read: "A party desiring to serve interrogatories upon an adverse party shall file and serve a copy thereof upon every other party. The party answering the interrogatories shall file the answers in the court in which the action is pending and serve a copy thereof upon every other party."

The amendment of November 28, 1966, in the first paragraph, inserted the second and fourth sentences and substituted "for answer shall serve a copy of the answers upon every party who has made a written appearance" for "shall serve a copy of the answers on the party submitting the interrogatories" in the fifth sentence; and deleted the paragraph added in 1965.

Commission Note to 1965 Amendment

This amendment is consistent with Rule 5. The requirement of service of interrogatories and answers upon all other parties to the litigation may save other parties additional time and effort in duplication of interrogatories resultant from lack of knowledge of what other parties have done. The requirement of filing of answers makes them available to judges who may want to see them.

Commission Note to 1966 Amendment

To put the interrogatories and answers into one document for convenience of use, and to remove any obstacle to the service of interrogatories which may result from the requirement of service upon "every other party."

Identity of Witnesses

Failure to identify witnesses in response to specific interrogatories substantially affected rights of party, entitling him to a new trial. Sanders v. Mount Haggin Livestock Co., — M —, 500 P 2d 397.

Scope

Although this section should be liberally construed to make all relevant facts available to parties in advance of trial and to reduce the possibilities of surprise and unfair advantage, it cannot become a weapon for punishment or forfeiture, or an instrument for the avoidance of a trial on the merits. Wolfe v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 147 M 29, 409 P 2d 528.

Unreasonable Requests

In action by insured against insurance company seeking damages for breach of contract and punitive damages for alleged violations of the insurance code, trial court abused its discretion by ordering answer to interrogatory requesting names and addresses of all persons within the state of Montana who had made a claim against the insurance company and whose claims the insurance company had either refused to pay or had not paid in full during the last three years; even if relevant material to issues pleaded, the interrogatory was unreasonable since the value of the information sought did not bear a reasonable relationship to the annoyance and expense involved in answering the interrogatory. State ex rel. Bankers Life & Casualty Co. v. Miller, — M —, 502 P 2d 27.

Rule 34. Discovery and production of documents and things, etc.

Inspection of Land

State's motion for inspection to drill wells on condemnee's property should have been allowed. State ex rel. State Highway Commission v. District Court, 147 M 348, 412 P 2d 832.

Real Estate Appraisals

In proceeding to condemn strip of land in front of leased building, highway commission could not be compelled by lessee to produce appraisals containing no opinion as to damages to, or value of, leasehold. State Highway Commission v. District Court, 149 M 384, 427 P 2d 49.

Rule 35. Physical and mental examination of persons.

(b) REPORT OF FINDINGS. (1). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(2) Waiver of Privilege. Either by (1) requesting and obtaining a report of the examination ordered as provided herein, or by taking the deposition of the examiner, or by (2) commencing an action or asserting a defense which places in issue the mental or physical condition of a party to the action, the party examined or a party to the action waives any privilege he may have in that action or any other action involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every person who has treated, prescribed, consulted, or examined or may thereafter treat, consult, prescribe or examine, such party in respect to the same mental or physical condition; but such waiver shall not apply to any treatment, consultation, prescription or examination for any mental or physical condition not related to the pending action. Upon motion seasonably made, and upon notice and for good cause shown, the court in which the action is pending, may make an order prohibiting the introduction in evidence of any such portion of the medical record of any person as may not be relevant to the issues in the pending action.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 rewrote clause (2). For text of former rule, see parent volume.

The 1971 amendment inserted "or asserting a defense" near the beginning of clause (2) of the first sentence of subdivision (b) (2); and substituted "a party to the action" for "the party bringing the action" in two places in the same clause.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

This amendment extends the existing modification by Rule 35 of subparagraph 4 of R. C. M. 1947, sec. 93-701-4. The purpose is to facilitate the obtaining of competent medical testimony and the use of testimony of the original attending physician, especially in personal injury cases. The proposal coincides with the view recommended in Wigmore on Evidence (McNaughton rev. 1961), Vol. VIII, secs. 2380 and 2380a.

Physician-Patient Privilege

By filing medical malpractice suit and submitting attending physicians for deposition purposes, patient permanently waived any privilege concerning her eye which was subject matter of suit; order that defense counsel be allowed private conference with physicians was proper. Callahan v. Burton, 157 M 513, 487 P 2d 515.

Rule 36. Admission of facts and of genuineness of documents.

(a) REQUEST FOR ADMISSION.

Construction

The intent of this rule is that the party served shall make a sworn statement of the truth of any relevant matters of fact set forth in the request for admissions. Daniels v. Paddock, 145 M 207, 399 P 2d 740.

Discretion of Trial Court

Where defendant failed to file admissions on plaintiff's request and was not permitted to file them later or to reopen hearing on summary judgment, whether defendant's admissions, which were signed and verified by defendant's counsel as being made from a letter received from the defendant, met the intent of this rule was a matter within the discretion of the trial court. Daniels v. Paddock, 145 M 207, 399 P 2d 740.

Failure To Answer

In suit by client against his attorney for money which attorney failed to forward to client, request for admissions were deemed admitted where attorney failed to answer. Daniels v. Paddock, 145 M 207, 399 P 2d 740.

Rule 37. Refusal to make discovery—Consequences.

(a) REFUSAL TO ANSWER.

Appellate Review

An appellate court will reverse a trial court judge, who has refused to invoke the sanctions of this section, only when his judgment may materially affect the substantial rights of the parties and allow a possible miscarriage of justice. Wolfe v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 147 M 29, 409 P 2d 528.

Judge's Discretion

It was not an abuse of discretion for trial judge to allow witness for oil refinery to testify as to condition of ground about railroad tracks where plaintiff-switchman crushed his hand beneath wheel of oil tank car when he allegedly slipped in oil or grease on concrete walkway of refinery in trying to mount the train, even though railroad had not included witness' name in its answer to plaintiff's interrogatories, since witness was the oil refinery's and plaintiff, knowing oil refinery had been joined as a third-party defendant, had failed to seek disclosure from it, or a pretrial conference, and had allowed other witnesses to testify to the same matter at trial. Wolfe v. Northern Pacific Ry. Co., 147 M 29, 409 P 2d 528.

VI. TRIALS

Rule 41. Dismissal of actions.
43. Evidence.
44. Proof of official record.
44.1. Determination of foreign law.
46. Exceptions unnecessary.
47. Jurors.
50. Motion for a directed verdict and for judgment notwithstanding the verdict.
52. Findings by the court.

Rule 38. Jury trial of right.

(a) RIGHT RESERVED.

Declaratory Judgment

A party has a right to a jury trial on demand where the suit is for a declaratory judgment and there are triable issues of fact. Mahan v. Hardland, 147 M 78, 410 P 2d 156.

Rule 39. Trial by jury or by the court.

(c) ADVISORY JURY AND TRIAL BY CONSENT.

New Trial

In an equity action for specific performance tried before an advisory jury, where the court granted defendant's motion for a new trial, the court was not required to order that the new trial be by jury as had the original proceedings. Waite v. Waite, 143 M 248, 389 P 2d 181.

Rule 41. Dismissal of actions.

(a) VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL—EFFECT THEREOF.

Dismissal As Affecting Counterclaim

Motion to dismiss complaint was properly granted where counterclaiming defendant did not object to dismissal, where trial was in fact had on defendant's counterclaim and where defendant in fact obtained judgment against plaintiff on counterclaim. Ratcliff v. Murphy, 150 M 31, 430 P 2d 627.

References

Vennes v. Nollmeyer, 144 M 43, 394 P 2d 178.

(b) INVOLUNTARY DISMISSAL—EFFECT THEREOF. For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with these rules or any order of court, a defendant may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against him. After the plaintiff, in an action tried by the court without a jury, has completed the presentation of his evidence, the defendant, without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for a dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. The court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment against the plaintiff or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the court renders judgment on the merits against the plaintiff, the court shall make findings as provided in Rule 52(a). Unless the court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this subdivision and any dismissal not provided for in this rule, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction or failure to join a party under Rule 19, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 inserted "in an action tried by the court without a jury" before "has completed" in the second sentence and deleted the same phrase from the beginning of the third sentence; and, in the last sentence, substituted "failure to join a party under Rule 19" for "for lack of an indispensable party."

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b), as amended 1963 and 1966.

Explanation of change: Under the prior text of the second sentence of this subdivision [Rule 41(b)], the motion for dismissal at the close of the plaintiff's evidence may be made in a case tried to a jury as well as in a case tried without a jury. But when made in a jury-tried case, this motion overlaps the motion for a directed verdict under Rule 50(a), which is also available in the same situation. This overlap has caused confusion. Accordingly it is amended to provide that the motion for dismissal at the close of the plaintiff's evidence shall apply only to nonjury cases (including cases tried with an advisory jury). Hereafter the correct motion in jury-tried cases would be a motion for a directed verdict. This amendment involves no change of substance.

The first sentence of Rule 41(b), providing for dismissal for failure to prosecute or to comply with the Rules or any order of court, and the general provisions of the last sentence remain applicable in jury as well as nonjury cases.

This amendment also changes the last sentence of this subdivision to accord with the amendment to Rule 19.

Failure To Prosecute

Trial court abused discretion in dismissing action for failure of plaintiff to prosecute where case was returned by supreme court to lower court for new trial but trial court failed to set it for trial at next jury term as per order of supreme court. Jangula v. United States Rubber Co., 149 M 241, 425 P 2d 319.

Case was properly dismissed for failure of plaintiff to prosecute where nothing was done to bring it to trial for over twelve years despite fact that defendant had shown no injury by delay, that attorneys had agreed to get together and try to work out agreement and that defendant had filed cross-complaint which was defensive in character. Cremer v. Braaten, 151 M 18, 438 P 2d 553.

Failure To State a Claim

This rule has no application to a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim under Rule 12(b). Rambur v. Diehl Lumber Co., 144 M 84, 394 P 2d 745, 750.

Findings and Conclusions

Lower court ruling that "no cause of action or claim exists or has been proven" and "the same is hereby dismissed" was sufficient compliance with the Rules despite plaintiff's contention that findings of fact and conclusions of law did not meet requirements of Rules. Mondakota Gas Co. v. Becker, 151 M 513, 445 P 2d 745.

Insufficiency of Evidence

District court erred in not granting defendant's motions for dismissal and directed verdict where evidence, viewed in light most favorable to plaintiff, did not support verdict for him. MacDonald v. Protestant Episcopal Church, 150 M 332, 435 P 2d 369.

Defendant was entitled to have motion for involuntary dismissal granted where plaintiff wholly failed to establish prima facie case of negligence. Knowlton v. Sandaker, 150 M 438, 436 P 2d 98.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Insufficient Evidence

Where plaintiff's property was damaged by the dropping of fire retardant from airplanes and at the trial he failed to show the lack of proper care under the circumstances, the trial court properly nonsuited plaintiff upon defendant's motion. Stocking v. Johnson Flying Service, 143 M 61, 387 P 2d 312.

No cause should be withdrawn from the jury unless evidence is susceptible of but one construction by reasonable men and that in favor of the defendant, or the evidence is in such condition that if the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, it would be the court's duty to set it aside. Jackson v. William Dingwall Co., 145 M 127, 399 P 2d 236.

Trial court properly granted directed verdict for defendant, employer and ranch foreman, where plaintiff, a ranch hand, was injured while riding atop a bobsled loaded with hay, since plaintiff failed to make out a prima facie case that tipping of bobsled was due to negligence. Jackson v. William Dingwall Co., 145 M 127, 399 P 2d 236.

(e) FAILURE TO SERVE SUMMONS. No action heretofore or hereafter commenced shall be further prosecuted as to any defendant who has not appeared in the action or been served in the action as herein provided within three years after the action has been commenced, and no further proceedings shall be had therein, and all actions heretofore or hereafter commenced shall be dismissed by the court in which the same shall have been commenced, on its own motion, or on the motion of any party interested therein, whether named in the complaint as a party or not, unless summons shall have been issued within one year, or unless summons issued within one year shall have been served and return made and filed with the clerk of the court within three years after the commencement of said action, or unless appearance has been made by the defendant or defendants therein within said three years. When more than one defendant has been named in an action, the action may within the discretion of the trial court be further prosecuted against any defendant who has appeared within three years, or upon whom summons which has been issued within one year has been served and return made and filed with the clerk within three years as herein required.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 111, L. 1963; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Apr. 1, 1965, eff. July 1, 1965.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment inserted "as to any defendant who has not appeared in the action or been served in the action as herein provided within three years after the action has been commenced" in the first part of the first sentence; substituted "unless summons shall have been issued within one year, or unless summons issued within one year shall have been served and return made and filed with the clerk of the court" for "summons shall have been served and return made" in the latter part of the first sentence; and added the second sentence.

Commission Note to 1965 Amendment

This clarifies and brings together the laches provisions with respect to issuance and service of summons. At present Rules 4 C(1), 41(e), Section 93-3002, R. C. M. 1947, and Rule 12(b) all need to be referred to. This amendment incorporates the laches provision of Section 93-4705 (7), R. C. M. 1947, which was repealed by Chapter 13 of the 1961 Session Laws.

This amendment renders Section 93-3002, R. C. M. 1947, unnecessary, and that section superseded and added to Tables B and C.

How Raised

Where return was made more than three years after commencement of action, this subsection, since it is not a statute of limitations, could be raised by motion under Rule 12(b), rather than pleaded as an affirmative defense. Whitcraft v. Semenza, 145 M 94, 399 P 2d 757.

Pending Actions

Even though there was a lapse of a year between repeal of former section 93-4705, R. C. M. 1947, and adoption of this rule, which is identical, application of this rule to a pending action in which return was made more than three years after commencement of the action was proper, since not only was a reasonable time allowed before the effective date of the change, but the information was widely distributed. Whitcraft v. Semenza, 145 M 94, 399 P 2d 757.

Probate Matters

Rule does not apply to service of summons in suit on rejected claim in probate which is governed exclusively by statute providing for contesting rejected claims in probate. Werning v. McFarland, 149 M 137, 423 P 2d 851.

Renewal of Claim

A judgment is not res judicata unless it is on the merits, so that a dismissal under this rule, since it is not a statute of limitations, does not constitute a bar to another suit on the same claim. Whitcraft v. Semenza, 145 M 94, 399 P 2d 757.

Statute of Limitations

Dismissal under this rule for failure to have summons issued within one year after commencement of the action is a dismissal for neglect to prosecute within the meaning of section 93-2708: that section does not operate to permit the commencement of a new action after expiration of the statute of limitations. State ex rel. Equity Supply Co. v. District Court, — M —, 494 P 2d 911.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Quashing Summons

District court exceeded its jurisdiction in denying motion to quash summons and dismiss action where the summons had not been served and returned within the three years required by this rule prior to 1965 amendment. State ex rel. Belwin, Inc. v. Davison, 148 M 345, 420 P 2d 842, 844.

Rule 42. Consolidation—Separate trials.

(b) SEPARATE TRIALS.

Abuse of Discretion

In wrongful death and survival action trial court abused its discretion by denying motion for separate trial on issue of validity of release where separate trials would result in convenience and economy of time to parties, witnesses and court and since possible finding that release was valid would end matter and trial of complicated issue of wrongful death and survival would be avoided. State ex rel. Northern Pacific R. Co. v. District Court of Sixteenth Judicial District in and for County of Rosebud, 155 M 91, 467 P 2d 145.

Discretion of Court

Grant of separate trial under this section on counterclaims on matters unrelated to plaintiff's complaint was within discretion of district judge and was not disturbed since no clear abuse of discretion was apparent. State ex rel. Rooks v. District Court, 153 M 189, 456 P 2d 308.

Insurance Coverage

Federal court dismissed action for declaratory judgment declaring obligations of casualty insurance company under an automobile insurance policy, which allegedly had been canceled prior to the time of the accident involving the automobile of the insured who was being sued for injuries resulting from the accident in the state court, since the issues, which did not involve federal law, could be solved in the state court wherein third-party complaint under M. R. Civ. P., Rule 14(a), had been filed by the insured against the insurer in which insured sought to hold the insurer to the terms of the policy, where state court could dispose of the coverage problem first under this rule. Western Casualty & Surety Co. v. Pinson, 255 F Supp 624, 625.

Permissive Joinder

Since this section allows for separate trials, practically, it seems desirable to give the broadest possible reading to the permissive language of Rule 20. Wheat v. Safeway Stores, Inc., 146 M 105, 404 P 2d 317.

Successor Judge

Disqualification of district judge did not render res judicata or the law of the case his previous ruling denying severance of claims against different defendants; successor judge could reconsider and grant severance. State ex rel. Stenberg v. Nelson, 157 M 310, 486 P 2d 870.

Rule 43. Evidence.

(b) SCOPE OF EXAMINATION AND CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Agent of Opposing Party

District court properly permitted plaintiff to examine driver for company under contract with defendant as an adverse witness under this section, for the purpose of establishing the driver's negligence to be imputed to the defendant, because under the applicable Federal Employer's Liability Act the driver was an agent of the defendant. Salvail v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 156 M 12, 473 P 2d 549.

Plaintiff Called as Defense Witness

Where plaintiff appeared as her own only witness and was not cross-examined by the defendant who then called her as a defense witness, the defense was bound by her testimony even though it came after the plaintiff herself had rested her case. Close v. Ruegsegger's Estate, 143 M 32, 386 P 2d 739.

Statutory Proceedings

In statutory action brought to remove administrator for misappropriation of funds of estate, administrator could be examined as adverse witness since Rule 81, excluding statutory proceedings from Rules of Civil Procedure to extent that statutory proceedings are contrary to Rules, does not bar examination of administrator as adverse witness. In re Estate & Guardianship of Wyman, 149 M 525, 429 P 2d 629.

(e) EVIDENCE ON MOTIONS.

Summary Judgments

Oral testimony may be heard on motions for summary judgment. Daniels v. Paddock, 145 M 207, 399 P 2d 740.

(f) INTERPRETERS. The court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and may fix his reasonable compensation. The compensation shall be paid out of funds provided by law or by one or more of the parties as the court may direct, and may be taxed ultimately as costs, in the discretion of the court.

Advisory Committee's Note

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 43(f), as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: This new subdivision authorizes the court to appoint interpreters (including interpreters for the deaf), to provide for their compensation, and to tax the compensation as costs.

Rule 44. Proof of official record.

(a) AUTHENTICATION.

(1) Domestic. An official record kept within the United States, or any state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession thereof, or within the Panama Canal Zone, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, or the Ryukyu Islands, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy, and accompanied by a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office.

(2) Foreign. A foreign official record, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof; or a copy thereof, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (i) of the attesting person, or (ii) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the court may, for good cause shown, (i) admit an attested copy without final certification or (ii) permit the foreign official record to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without a final certification.

History: En. Sec. 44, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 rewrote all but the first sentence of this rule and divided it into two clauses; in the first sentence, the amendment inserted "kept within the United States * * * Ryukyu Islands" and substituted "by" for "with" before "a certificate that."

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 44, as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: The new provisions of subdivision (a)(1) on proof of official records kept within the United States are similar in substance to those heretofore appearing in Rule 44. There is a more exact description of the geographical areas covered.

Under subdivision (a)(2) foreign official records may be proved as heretofore, by means of official publications thereof. The rest of subdivision (a)(2) aims to provide greater clarity, efficiency, and flexibility in the procedure for authenicating copies of foreign official records. It is provided that an attested copy may be obtained from any person authorized by the law of the foreign country to make the attestation without regard to whether he is charged with responsibility for maintaining the record or keep it in his custody. The amendment specifically permits use of the chain-certificate method of authentication.

Although the amended rule will generally facilitate proof of foreign official records, it is recognized that in some situations it may be difficult or even impossible to satisfy the basic requirements of the rule. Therefore the final sentence of subdivision (a)(2) provides the court with discretion to admit an attested copy of a record without a final certification, or an attested summary of a record with or without a final certification. Reasonable effort must be made to satisfy the basic requirements.

(b) LACK OF RECORD. A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in subdivision (a)(1) of this rule in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of subdivision (a)(2) of this rule for a summary in the case of a foreign record, is admissible as evidence that the records contain no such record or entry.

History: En. Sec. 44, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 rewrote this rule. For text of former rule, see parent volume.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 44, as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: Subdivision (b) [Rule 44(b)] is accommodated to the changes made in subdivision (a) [Rule 44(a)].

(c) OTHER PROOF. This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law.

History: En. Sec. 44, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 substituted "authorized by law" for "any applicable statute or by the rules of evidence at common law."

Rule 44.1. Determination of foreign law.

A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign country shall give notice in his pleadings or other reasonable written notice. The court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under Rule 43. The court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Advisory Committee's Note

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 44.1, as adopted 1966.

Explanation of change: This is new and clears up uncertainty as to whether foreign law must be pleaded. Under this rule the notice need not be given in the pleadings.

The rule affords a procedure for raising and determining an issue of foreign law. It does not require the court to take judicial notice of the foreign law.

The rule appears to be consistent with and complementary to Rule 9(d) and R. C. M. 1947, section 93-501-6.

Power of Court

Under this section, trial court has power to fashion procedures for determination of whether reciprocity of transfer and reciprocity of inheritance exists between citizens of state and citizens of foreign country. In re Estate of Giurgiu, 155 M 18, 466 P 2d 83, appeal dismissed 399 US 901, 26 L Ed 2d 555, 90 S Ct 2195.

Rule 46. Exceptions unnecessary.

Formal exceptions to rulings, orders, or findings of the court are unnecessary; but for all purposes it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the court is made or sought, makes known to the court the action which he desires the court to take, or his objection to the action of the court and his grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him.

History: En. Sec. 46, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment inserted "Except as provided in Rule 52, with respect to findings by the court" at the beginning of the section.

The 1971 amendment deleted the language inserted by the 1969 amendment and inserted "or findings" in the first clause of the rule.

Advisory Committee's Note to May 21, 1969 Amendment

Explanation of change: The attention of the Committee has been invited to considerable confusion existing under the old wording of this rule, of Rule 52, and of Section 93-5305, R. C. M. 1947, which statute is now being superseded. It is thought by rewriting Rule 46 and Rule 52 the existing confusions can be avoided.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Exceptions to Findings and Conclusions

Effect of rule providing that formal exceptions are unnecessary but requiring aggrieved party to make objections and grounds therefor known to court, when considered with statute providing that no judgment will be reversed on appeal for defects in findings unless exceptions are made to findings complained of in lower court, is that counsel must point out exceptions to findings on motions where court is required to make findings of fact and conclusions of law so that trial court may have opportunity to correct them and upon failure to do so, findings become final and judgment will not be reversed. Stapp v. Nickels, 150 M 220, 434 P 2d 141, distinguished in 157 M 295, 299, 485 P 2d 703.

Rule 47. Jurors.

(b) MANNER OF SELECTION AND ORDER OF EXAMINATION OF JURORS. From the entire jury panel, an initial panel of 20 jurors shall be called in the first instance, and before any voir dire examination of the jury shall be had. Examination of all jurors in the initial panel shall be completed by the plaintiff before examination by the defendant. If challenges for cause are allowed, an additional juror shall be called from the entire panel immediately upon the allowance of challenge, and the juror called to replace the juror excused for cause shall take the number of the juror who has been excused, to provide a full initial panel of 20 jurors, whose examination shall be completed before any peremptory challenges are made. When the voir dire examination has been completed, each side shall have four peremptory challenges, and they shall be exercised by the plaintiff first striking one, the defendant then striking one, and so on, until each side has exhausted or waived its right. In event one or more alternate jurors are called, the next jurors remaining in the initial panel, if any, shall be called by the clerk to be the alternate jurors. In event all jurors remaining of original initial panel of 20 jurors, including those substituted for those jurors excused for cause, have been subjected to peremptory challenge, then the clerk shall call additional jurors from the remainder of the jury panel to provide alternate jurors who will be subject to challenge as provided by law. In event there is more than one party defendant, and should it appear that each defendant is entitled to peremptory challenges, then the original panel shall be increased to provide four additional jurors for each defendant who is entitled to exercise peremptory challenges. The clerk shall keep a record of the order in which jurors are called, and in event the entire initial panel has not been exhausted by challenges, the court shall excuse sufficient of the last called jurors until a jury of twelve persons and the determined number of alternates shall remain to make up the trial jury.

History: En. Sec. 47, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Amendments

The amendment of May 21, 1969 inserted "and the juror called * * * who has been excused" in the second sentence.

Advisory Committee's Note to May 21, 1969 Amendment

Explanation of change: In some judicial districts the practice is that the replacement juror takes a new number at the bottom of the list, in others the replacement takes the same number as the juror excused. This amendment expressly adopts the latter and makes the practice uniform throughout the state.

Rule 50. Motion for a directed verdict and for judgment notwithstanding the verdict.

(a) MOTION FOR DIRECTED VERDICT—WHEN MADE, EFFECT. A party who moves for a directed verdict at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent may offer evidence in the event that the motion is not granted, without having reserved the right so to do and to the same extent as if the motion had not been made. A motion for a directed verdict which is not granted is not a waiver of trial by jury even though all parties to the action have moved for directed verdicts. A motion for a directed verdict shall state the specific grounds therefor. The order of the court granting a motion for a directed verdict is effective without any assent of the jury.

History: En. Sec. 50, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 added the last sentence, giving effect to an order for directed verdict even without the jury's assent.

Advisory Committee's Note to September, 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 50, as amended 1963.

Explanation of change: The practice, after the court has granted a motion for a directed verdict, of requiring the jury to express assent to a verdict they did not reach by their own deliberations serves no useful purpose and may give offense to members of the jury.

Circumstances Under Which Motion Should Be Granted

Denial of motion for directed verdict, made by lessor of destroyed building in suit by lessee claiming that premises were repairable, was cause for reversal where, viewing evidence most favorable to plaintiff lessee and considering as proven everything which evidence tended to prove, reasonable man could come to no other conclusion but that building involved was destroyed. Solich v. Hale, 150 M 358, 435 P 2d 883.

Granting Motion at End of Plaintiff's Case

Court erred in granting plaintiff's motion for directed verdict before defendant had opportunity to present his case, where defendant was precluded from offering evidence to rebut presumption of negligence raised by plaintiff's case in chief based on doctrine of res ipsa loquitur, notwithstanding fact that plaintiff had examined all witnesses to accident during his case in chief. Baker v. Rental Service Co., 150 M 166, 432 P 2d 624.

Refusal to Grant Motion

Party who alleges error in refusing his motion under this section had burden of showing that error was in fact committed. Fuchs v. Huether, 154 M 11, 459 P 2d 689.

Waiver of Jury Trial

Where both parties in jury trial moved for directed verdict at the close of evidence, trial court improperly granted plaintiff's motion, since there were factual issues for jury to decide and since, under this section, a motion for a directed verdict is not a waiver of trial by jury. Borgmann v. Diehl, 155 M 458, 473 P 2d 529.

(b) MOTION FOR JUDGMENT NOTWITHSTANDING THE VERDICT. Whenever a motion for a directed verdict made at the close of all the evidence is denied or for any reason is not granted, the court is deemed to have submitted the action to the jury subject to a later determination of the legal questions raised by the motion. Not later than 10 days after service of notice of entry of judgment, a party who has moved for a directed verdict may move to have the verdict and any judgment entered thereon set aside and to have judgment entered in accordance with his motion for a directed verdict; or if a verdict was not returned such party, within 10 days after the jury has been discharged, may move for judgment in accordance with his motion for a directed verdict. A motion for a new trial may be joined with this motion, or a new trial may be prayed for in the alternative. If a verdict was returned the court may allow the judgment to stand or may reopen the judgment and either order a new trial or direct the entry of judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed. If no verdict was returned the court may direct the entry of judgment as if the requested verdict had been directed or may order a new trial.

Motions provided by this subdivision shall be heard and determined within the times provided by Rule 59 for the hearing and determination of motions for new trial.

Amendments

The amendment of September 7, 1965 added the second paragraph.

The amendment of September 29, 1967 substituted the present heading for "Reservation of decision on motion" and, in the second sentence of the first paragraph, substituted "Not later than 10 * * * judgment" for "Within 10 days after the reception of a verdict."

The amendment of May 21, 1969, in the second paragraph, substituted "Rule 59 * * * for new trial" for "Section 93-5606 of the 1947 Revised Codes of Montana in the case of motions for new trial."

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 50, as amended 1963.

Explanation of change: A motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict will not lie unless it was preceded by a motion for a directed verdict made at the close of all the evidence.

This departs from the federal amendment in providing that the time limit for making a motion for judgment n.o.v. is 10 days after service of notice of entry of judgment, rather than 10 days after entry of judgment as provided in the federal amendment. This is consistent with the provisions of Rules 59(b) (time for motion for a new trial) and 52(b) (time for motion to amend findings by the court).

Advisory Committee's Note to May 21, 1969 Amendment

Explanation of change: A housekeeping change to conform with superseding section 93-5606, R. C. M. 1947, by the amendment of Rule 59.

Refusal to Grant Motion

Party alleging error in refusing his motion under this section had burden of showing that error was in fact committed. Fuchs v. Huether, 154 M 11, 459 P 2d 689.

(c) MOTION FOR JUDGMENT NOTWITHSTANDING THE VERDICT—CONDITIONAL RULINGS ON GRANT OF MOTION.

(1) If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, provided for in subdivision (b) of this rule, is granted, the court shall also rule on the motion for a new trial, if any, by determining whether it should be granted if the judgment is thereafter vacated or reversed, and shall specify the grounds for granting or denying the motion for the new trial. If the motion for a new trial is thus conditionally granted, the order thereon does not affect the finality of the judgment. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally granted and the judgment is reversed on appeal, the new trial shall proceed unless the supreme court has otherwise ordered. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally denied, the respondent on appeal may assert error in that denial; and if the judgment is reversed on appeal, subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the order of the supreme court.

(2) The party whose verdict has been set aside on motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict may serve a motion for a new trial pursuant to Rule 59 not later than 10 days after service of notice of entry of the judgment notwithstanding the verdict.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Advisory Committee's Note

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 50, as amended 1963.

Explanation of change: The procedure where a party joins a motion for a new trial with his motion for judgment n.o.v., or prays for a new trial in the alternative has often been misunderstood. This amendment summarizes the practice. It does not alter the effects of a jury verdict or the scope of appellate review.

(d) MOTION FOR JUDGMENT NOTWITHSTANDING THE VERDICT—DENIAL OF MOTION. If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict is denied, the party who prevailed on that motion may, as respondent, assert grounds entitling him to a new trial in the event the supreme court concludes that the trial court erred in denying the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. If the supreme court reverses the judgment, nothing in this rule precludes it from determining that the respondent is entitled to a new trial, or from directing the trial court to determine whether a new trial shall be granted.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Advisory Committee's Note

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 50, as amended 1963.

Explanation of change: This subdivision does not attempt a regulation of all aspects of the procedure where the motion for judgment n.o.v. and any accompanying motion for a new trial are denied, since the problems have not been fully canvassed in the decisions and the procedure is in some respects still in a formative stage. It is, however, designed to give guidance on certain important features of the practice.

Rule 51. Instructions to jury—Objection.

Preserving for Review

Appellant who objected to jury instruction but did not specifically object to an interchange of words therein did not preserve review of the interchange. Cross v. Trethewey, 155 M 337, 471 P 2d 538.

Objections to jury instructions made at trial on grounds of insufficient evidence to support the instructions but not pointing out how the evidence was insufficient, did not preserve the question for review on appeal. Salvail v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 156 M 12, 473 P 2d 549.

Plaintiff's contention on appeal which is clearly an objection to instruction in trial court will not be considered by supreme court where plaintiff failed to object to instruction in trial court. Roberts Realty Corp. v. City of Great Falls, — M —, 500 P 2d 956.

Refusal to Give Instructions

Denial of offered instructions which were adaptable to defendant's theory of the case was prejudicial error where such denial deprived him of a possible defense of assumption of risk. Wollan v. Lord, 142 M 498, 385 P 2d 102, distinguished in 145 M 486, 488, 402 P 2d 41.

It is not error for the trial judge to refuse to give specific instruction where the subject in question has been adequately covered by other instructions. Holland v. Konda, 142 M 536, 385 P 2d 272, 6 ALR 3d 824.

Contention that trial court erred by not instructing jury on defendant's duties toward trespasser was without merit where such instruction was not offered by plaintiff as required by this section. Gunderson v. Brewster, 154 M 405, 466 P 2d 589.

Rule 52. Findings by the court.

(a) EFFECT. In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and judgment shall be entered pursuant to Rule 58; and in granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions the court shall similarly set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law which constitute the grounds of its action. Requests for findings are not necessary for purposes of review. Findings of fact shall not be set aside unless clearly erroneous, and due regard shall be given to the opportunity of the trial court to judge of the credibility of the witnesses. The findings of a master, to the extent that the court adopts them, shall be considered as the findings of the court. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it will be sufficient if the findings of fact and conclusions of law appear therein. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are unnecessary on decisions of motions under Rules 12 or 56 or any other motion except as provided in Rule 41(b).

History: En. Sec. 52, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Amendments

The 1969 amendment rewrote the first part of the rule and made it into a separate paragraph requiring that findings be reduced to writing and served on the parties.

The 1971 amendment restored the language as it stood prior to the 1969 amendment, with minor changes; and inserted new provisions as the second, third and fifth sentences.

Advisory Committee's Note to May 21, 1969 Amendment

Explanation of change: Sections 93-5302, 93-5305, 93-5306, and 93-5307, R. C. M. 1947, are hereby superseded. The purpose of changing Rule 52, along with the change made in Rule 46, is twofold. It should eliminate the confusions that now exist with respect to the lack of necessity of making exceptions to the rulings and orders of the court, as distinct from the requirement that appropriate exceptions be made to findings of the court on trial of fact issues. In addition, it incorporates in this one rule the existing practice and procedure with respect to exceptions to findings of the court, and eliminates the necessity of researching for, and referring separately to, controlling statutes, case decisions, and rules, and then trying to correlate all three.

Appellate Review of Findings

Findings of fact made by trial court will not be disturbed where they are supported by preponderance of evidence. Western Foundry, Inc. v. Matelich, 150 M 228, 433 P 2d 789.

Sufficiency of Findings

Lower court ruling that "no cause of action or claim exists or has been proven" and "the same is hereby dismissed" was sufficient compliance with Rules despite plaintiff's contention that findings of fact and conclusions of law did not meet requirements of Rules. Mondakota Gas Co. v. Becker, 151 M 513, 445 P 2d 745.

Summary Judgment

Even though findings are not required in granting summary judgment, if findings are made that form the basis for judgment and if the evidence does not support the findings, the judgment will be reversed. Upper Missouri G & T Electric Cooperative v. McCone Electric Co-op., Inc., 157 M 239, 484 P 2d 741.

(b) AMENDMENT. Upon motion of a party made not later than 10 days after notice of entry of judgment the court may amend its findings or make additional findings and may amend the judgment accordingly. The motion may be made with a motion for a new trial pursuant to Rule 59. When findings of fact are made in actions tried by the court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question has made in the district court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for judgment.

History: En. Sec. 52, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Aug. 1, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Sept. 7, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Amendments

The amendment of August 1, 1965 inserted "service of notice of" before "entry of judgment" in the first sentence.

The amendment of September 7, 1965 added a second paragraph providing that motions to amend should be heard and determined within the time for determining motions for new trial as provided by section 93-5606.

The 1969 amendment rewrote the rule to require that parties file written requests for findings, to remove as ground for appeal the want of findings not requested by the party, and to provide for exceptions to findings and the determination thereof.

The 1971 amendment restored the language as it stood prior to the 1965 amendments; inserted "notice of" before "entry of judgment" in the first sentence; and added new language as the third sentence.

Commission Note to August 1, 1965 Amendment

Under Rule 77(d) the prevailing party has 10 days after the entry of judgment to give the unsuccessful parties notice of such entry. The change in 52(b) is an adjustment to this provision, and is designed to meet the possibility that the prevailing party is the only party that knows of the entry of the judgment and waits 10 days before giving the unsuccessful party notice of such entry. The provision is similar to that found in Rule 59(b) and (e).

Advisory Committee's Note to May 21, 1969 Amendment

See Advisory Committee's Note under Rule 52(a).

Amendment of Findings and Judgment

A motion to alter, amend, and supplement findings of fact, conclusions of law and the judgment combined with a motion for a new trial, filed on September 28, 1965, was a motion contemplated by this rule and Rule 59(e) and was not governed by the time limits of section 93-5606. State ex rel. Rozan v. District Court of Sixteenth Judicial Dist., 147 M 532, 416 P 2d 19, 21.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Exceptions Required for Reversal

Under former statute which was superseded by this Rule, objections to findings of district court could not be raised for the first time upon appeal. Rozan v. Rosen, 150 M 121, 431 P 2d 870.

Mandate of former statute (superseded by this Rule) that findings of district court would not be reviewed on appeal unless exceptions were taken was not changed by fact that counsel on appeal was not same counsel who tried case in district court. Olsen v. United Benefit Life Ins. Co., 150 M 147, 432 P 2d 381.

Rule providing that formal exceptions are unnecessary if aggrieved party makes his objections and grounds therefor known to court and former statute (superseded by this Rule) providing that no judgment will be reversed on appeal for defects in findings unless exceptions are made in lower court were required to be read together with result that it was necessary for counsel to point out exceptions to findings so that trial court might have opportunity to correct them and failure to do so meant findings became final and judgment would not be reversed. Stapp v. Nickels, 150 M 220, 434 P 2d 141.

Under former statute, failure to except to findings of trial court made them final and judgment would not be reversed. Keller v. Martin, 153 M 9, 452 P 2d 422.

Under former statute, exceptions had to be made to trial court's defects in findings to give trial court opportunity to correct them or they would become final and not subject to appeal. In re Estate of Dolezilek, 156 M 224, 478 P 2d 278.

Prior to 1971 amendment, no judgment would be reversed on appeal for defects in findings unless exceptions had been made in district court. State ex rel. Bennett v. Dowdall, 157 M 11, 482 P 2d 572.

Prior to 1971 amendment, failure to except to findings of district court was fatal to appeal. Sorenson v. Lynch, 157 M 116, 483 P 2d 907.

Prior to the 1971 amendment dismissal for failure to except to findings is the unavoidable result only in cases where the findings control, and in those instances they cannot be questioned on appeal; however, where the findings do not control, appellants' failure to file exceptions does not require dismissal. Kretzschmar v. Bickerstaff, 158 M 178, 489 P 2d 1285.

Prior to 1971 amendment, failure to file exceptions to court's finding within the time prescribed by this rule did not preclude appeal where party called attention of the court to the alleged errors in the findings by way of a motion to amend the judgment, coupled with a motion for new trial, which was timely served and filed. Cope v. Cope, 158 M 388, 493 P 2d 336.

(c) Repealed.

Compiler's Notes

Supreme Court Order No. 10750-9, dated May 21, 1969, created a new Rule 52 (c) requiring statement of conclusions of law and entry of judgment. Supreme Court Order No. 10750-10, dated October 22, 1971, effectively repealed Rule 52 (c) by omitting it from Rule 52 as amended.

Rule 53. Masters.

(e) REPORT.

Hearing on Report

No hearing is necessary when no objections are made to report by parties after being notified by clerk that special master has filed his report. State ex rel. Ross v. District Court, Fourth Judicial District, 150 M 233, 433 P 2d 778.

VII. JUDGMENT

Rule 55. Default.
56. Summary judgment.
59. New trials—Amendment of judgments.
60. Relief from judgment or order.

Rule 54. Judgments—Costs.

(b) JUDGMENT UPON MULTIPLE CLAIMS OR INVOLVING MULTIPLE PARTIES.

Amendment To Include Codefendant

Case would be remanded to district court for purpose of amending, by incorporating appropriate terms, judgment which omitted to name defaulting codefendant who was jointly and severally liable on obligation. White v. Nollmeyer, 151 M 387, 443 P 2d 873.

Separate Claims on Note and Mortgage

Upon default in an action against the unconditional guarantors of a note and to foreclose mortgage securing the note, the holder of the note could properly proceed at its option against either security in the same action. Bozeman Deaconess Foundation v. Cowgill, 143 M 98, 387 P 2d 435.

(c) DEMAND FOR JUDGMENT.

Divorce Proceedings

Where proper notice of hearing on application for judgment of divorce was given defendant in accordance with M. R. Civ. P., Rule 55(b) and no relief different from that demanded in the complaint was granted in violation of this rule, an appeal on those grounds was dismissed by supreme court upon its own motion where no application to set aside default or judgment was made under Rule 60(b). Sowerwine v. Sowerwine, 148 M 195, 418 P 2d 859, 861.

Where pleadings of both parties in divorce proceedings showed that they expected the court to make orders relative to the property, the court had authority to vest all the property in the husband and order alimony paid where justified by the facts, even though neither party had asked for that specific disposition. Libra v. Libra, 157 M 252, 484 P 2d 748.

(d) COSTS.

Costs Not Allowed

Section 93-8618 particularly enumerates allowable costs under this rule; where cost of taking plantiff's deposition was made merely for the convenience of defendant's counsel, defendant cannot include such cost in his bill of costs because deposition was for his benefit; deposition was never filed with the district court and plaintiff's counsel did not have any practical means of securing a copy. Johnson v. Furgeson, 158 M 170, 489 P 2d 1032.

Rule 55. Default.

(a) ENTRY.

Answer Filed after Entry by Clerk

Plaintiff was entitled to judgment by default where defendants filed answer after entry of default by clerk and receipt of notice of hearing on motion for default, but before actual hearing on the motion, since entry of default by clerk requires no notice to party in default, answer was filed after defendants had received notice of motion for default and defendants failed to move to set aside entry of default for "good cause shown" as they were entitled to do under rules. Sealey v. Majerus, 149 M 268, 425 P 2d 70.

(b) JUDGMENT. Judgment by default may be entered as follows:

(1). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(2) By the Court. In all other cases the party entitled to a judgment by default shall apply to the court therefor; but no judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented in the action by a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other such representative, or guardian ad litem, who has appeared therein. If the party against whom judgment by default is sought has appeared in the action, he (or, if appearing by representative, his representative) shall be served with written notice of the application for judgment at least three days prior to the hearing on such application. If, in order to enable the court to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to take an account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the court may conduct such hearings or order such references as it deems necessary and proper and shall accord a right of trial by jury to the parties when and as required by any statute of the state of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 55, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Ord. Sup. Ct. June 1, 1964, eff. July 1, 1964.

Amendment

The 1964 amendment inserted "an" before "account" in the final sentence of paragraph (2).

Answer Filed after Entry by Clerk

Plaintiff was entitled to judgment by default where defendants filed answer after entry of default by clerk and receipt of notice of hearing on motion for default, but before actual hearing on the motion, since entry of default by clerk requires no notice to party in default, answer was filed after defendants had received notice of motion for default and defendants failed to move to set aside entry of default for "good cause shown" as they were entitled to do under rules. Sealey v. Majerus, 149 M 268, 425 P 2d 70.

Clerk's Error

Entry of default judgment by clerk of court without requiring affidavit from plaintiff of amount due and owing rendered the judgment voidable but not void. Interstate Counseling Service v. Emeline, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 728. (Dissenting opinion, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 729.)

Motion to set aside default judgment because of plaintiff's failure to file affidavit of amount due and owing when it requested entry of default judgment was properly denied where defendant permitted judgment to be satisfied from her property, and no reason to avoid the voidable judgment had been presented. Interstate Counseling Service v. Emeline, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 728. (Dissenting opinion, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 729.)

Under Rule 61 omission of clerk of court to require affidavit of amount due under this rule before entry of default judgment in favor of plaintiff is not fatal unless refusal to take action with respect to the omission appears to the court inconsistent with substantial justice. Interstate Counseling Service v. Emeline, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 728. (Dissenting opinion, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 729.)

Divorce Proceedings

Where proper notice of hearing on application for judgment of divorce was given defendant in accordance with this rule and no relief different from that demanded in the complaint was granted in violation of M. R. Civ. P., Rule 54(c), an appeal on those grounds was dismissed by the supreme court on its own motion where no application to set aside the default or judgment was made under Rule 60(b). Sowerwine v. Sowerwine, 148 M 195, 418 P 2d 859, 861.

Ministerial Function

Clerk of court in entering a default judgment is performing a ministerial function and must follow procedures in detail and absolutely. Interstate Counseling Service v. Emeline, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 728. (Dissenting opinion, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 729.)

Nonprejudicial Error

Where record showed that defendant took no action for nearly three months after default judgment had been entered, defendant was not prejudiced by plaintiff's failure to give written notice of application for default judgment as required by paragraph (2) of this rule and district court did not abuse its discretion in denying defendant's motion to vacate the default judgment filed under M. R. Civ. P., Rule 55(c). Williams v. Superior Homes, Inc., 148 M 38, 417 P 2d 92, 94.

(c) DEFAULT — SETTING ASIDE — EXTENSION OF TIME, ETC.

Answer Filed after Entry by Clerk

Plaintiff was entitled to judgment by default where defendants filed answer after entry of default by clerk and receipt of notice of hearing on motion for default, but before actual hearing on the motion, since entry of default by clerk requires no notice to party in default, answer was filed after defendants had received notice of motion for default and defendants failed to move to set aside entry of default for "good cause shown" as they were entitled to do under rules. Sealey v. Majerus, 149 M 268, 425 P 2d 70.

Discretion of Court

Where record showed that defendant took no action for nearly three months after default judgment had been entered, defendant was not prejudiced by plaintiff's failure to give written notice of application for default judgment as required by M. R. Civ. P., Rule 55(b)(2), and district court did not abuse its discretion in denying defendant's motion to vacate the default judgment filed under this rule. Williams v. Superior Homes, Inc., 148 M 38, 417 P 2d 92, 94.

Voidable Judgments

A default judgment entered prematurely pursuant to this section could not be set aside under M. R. Civ. P., Rule 60(b)(4), since Rule 60(b)(4) applies to void and not voidable judgments. Sowerwine v. Sowerwine, 145 M 81, 399 P 2d 233.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Terms of Opening of Default

Fact that corporate defendant claimed sheriff had never served summons upon the corporation, sheriff did not remember service of the summons, and default was not taken until seven years after the plaintiff was injured constituted clear, unequivocal and convincing proof to rebut weight accorded sheriff's return of service of process under section 16-2707 to open default judgment. Sewell v. Beatrice Foods Co., 145 M 337, 400 P 2d 892.

Rule 56. Summary judgment.

(a) FOR CLAIMANT.

Negligence Actions

Ordinarily, issue of negligence is not susceptible of summary adjudication but should motion for summary judgment be made, burden is on moving party to establish clearly that there is no factual issue to be determined and opposing party does not have burden of showing prima facie case. Mally v. Asanovich, 149 M 99, 423 P 2d 294.

(b) FOR DEFENDING PARTY.

Denial of Motion

In suit by guardians of patient for personal injuries sustained when patient was being X-rayed, district court erred in granting defendant-hospital's motion for summary judgment where there was an issue of fact as to whether radiologist was an independent contractor rather than an agent of the hospital. Kober v. Stewart, 148 M 117, 417 P 2d 476, 479.

Support Proceedings

Defendant was properly granted motion for summary judgment in action to enforce amount agreed upon for support in separation agreement which had been reduced by subsequent court modifications. Gessell v. Jones, 149 M 418, 427 P 2d 295.

(c) MOTION AND PROCEEDINGS THEREON. The motion shall be served at least 10 days before the time fixed for the hearing. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. Affidavits shall not be considered for any purpose on motion for summary judgment. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

History: En. Sec. 56, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Apr. 1, 1965, eff. July 1, 1965.

Amendment

The 1965 amendment inserted "answers to interrogatories" in the first sentence.

Commission Note to 1965 Amendment

The amendment expressly includes "answers to interrogatories" among material which may be considered on motion for summary judgment. This conforms to an amendment to the Federal Rule adopted January 21, 1963, the Federal Rule having inadvertently omitted the phrase. The courts have generally reached by interpretation the result required by the amendment.

Affidavits

Affidavit of superintendent of banks will be struck from record on appeal from a summary judgment because under this rule it could not have been considered by the trial court in ruling on motion for summary judgment. Miners & Merchants Bank v. Dowdall, 158 M 142, 489 P 2d 1274.

Burden of Proof

The moving party for a summary judgment has the burden of showing the absence of any genuine factual issue. Kober v. Stewart, 148 M 117, 417 P 2d 476, 478.

Matters Considered

While this rule does not mention oral testimony as material to be used at the summary judgment hearing, Rule 43(e) permits the use of oral testimony upon motions, so that oral testimony may be considered upon a motion for summary judgment. Daniels v. Paddock, 145 M 207, 399 P 2d 740.

In case in which plaintiff's deposition alone was sufficient to permit the trial judge to determine that the case contained no issue of material fact or controversy relating to the testatrix's incompetency, the trial court was correct in granting summary judgment and had no duty to anticipate possible proof that might have been offered under the pleadings. Silloway v. Jorgenson, 146 M 307, 406 P 2d 167.

Where trial court was present during taking of depositions, facts heard by court were properly considered on motion for summary judgment pursuant to this section since oral testimony is properly within matters which court may consider under such motion. Citizens State Bank v. Duus, 154 M 18, 459 P 2d 696.

Although fact that both parties moved for summary judgment does not establish that all factual questions have been answered, trial court need only consider evidence and issues presented and has no duty to anticipate possible proof that might be offered under the pleadings. Faith Lutheran Retirement Home v. Veis, 156 M 38, 473 P 2d 503.

Pleadings Not Controlling

On a motion for summary judgment the formal issues presented by the pleadings are not controlling and the court must consider the depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, oral testimony and exhibits presented. Hager v. Tandy, 146 M 531, 410 P 2d 447.

Principal and Agent

Purported agent and principal were entitled to summary judgment where plaintiff wholly failed to establish prima facie case of negligence on the part of either even though evidence raised question of fact as to existence of agency since it would be impossible to impute negligence to principal where negligence had not been established against supposed agent. Knowlton v. Sandaker, 150 M 438, 436 P 2d 98.

Proof of Issue of Fact

Motion for summary judgment was properly granted where it was apparent from record that there was no genuine issue as to any material fact, notwithstanding aggrieved party's argument on appeal that had he been allowed to go to trial he would have presented proofs establishing genuine issue of fact, since aggrieved party presented no such proofs at hearing on original motion nor at hearing on motion to vacate judgment. Brown v. Thornton, 150 M 150, 432 P 2d 386.

Trial court, in action on farm lease, construing lessor's motion for dismissal as motion for summary judgment, improperly granted summary judgment where lessor failed to sustain burden of showing absence of any genuine issue as to material facts; record on appeal was replete with issues of fact determinable by jury. Byrne v. Plante, 154 M 6, 459 P 2d 266.

In an action for injuries allegedly caused by negligence of contractor and his agents, trial court properly granted summary judgment pursuant to this section where record revealed total absence of negligence on part of defendant or its employees and record revealed that nothing defendant did or failed to do was proximate cause of plaintiff's injuries. Flansberg v. Montana Power Co., 154 M 53, 460 P 2d 263.

Summary judgment for defendant was proper where contract clearly prohibited competing activities only on specific premises and plaintiff admitted in his answers to interrogatories that the activities he sought to prevent were outside the premises. Matteucci's Super Save, Drug v. Hustad Corp., 158 M 311, 491 P 2d 705.

Purpose

The general purpose of this rule is to dispose promptly of actions in which there is no genuine issue of fact, thereby eliminating unnecessary trial, delay, and expense. Silloway v. Jorgenson, 146 M 307, 406 P 2d 167.

Questions of Fact

Allegation by vendees of direct misrepresentation as to acreage they were being sold raised material issue of fact for the jury precluding summary judgment in action to cancel contract for deed and reinvest title in vendors. Eisemann v. Hagel, 157 M 295, 485 P 2d 703.

Summary judgment was not proper where pleadings in declaratory judgment action to invalidate municipal vacation of streets left triable issues of fact as to whether plaintiffs' easements would be impaired by vacation. Kemmer v. City of Bozeman, 158 M 354, 492 P 2d 211.

Liability cannot be adjudicated upon motion for summary judgment where factual issues concerning negligence and causation are presented. Duchesneau v. Silver Bow County, 158 M 369, 492 P 2d 926.

Res Judicata

Where supreme court affirmed lower court judgment dismissing complaint for failure to state a claim upon which relief could be granted under Rule 12(b), the judgment was not res judicata as to a second amended complaint under this section where matters outside the pleadings were presented to and not excluded by court. Rambur v. Diehl Lumber Co., 144 M 84, 394 P 2d 745, 749.

Third Party Complaint

Summary judgment should not have been granted in favor of third party defendant on third party complaint initiated by hospital sued for negligence by minor patient burned by defective television switch while in hospital where third party complaint raised genuine issue of material fact as to whether minor patient was injured solely through negligence of third party defendant who had leased television equipment to hospital. Crosby v. Billings Deaconess Hospital, 149 M 314, 426 P 2d 217.

(d) PLAINTIFFS, COUNTERCLAIMANTS, CROSS-CLAIMANTS.

Declaratory Judgment

In declaratory judgment action in which notice of reclassification was found not to comply with statutory requirements, district court did not abuse its discretion in granting plaintiff-landowners' motion for summary judgment without considering further issues on the power to reclassify since plaintiffs lacked standing as to those issues. Mittelstadt v. Buckingham, 156 M 407, 480 P 2d 831.

Rule 59. New trials—Amendment of judgments.

(a) GROUNDS. A new trial may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues for any of the reasons provided by the statutes of the state of Montana. On motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the court may take additional testimony, amend the findings of fact and conclusions of law or make new findings and conclusions, set aside, vacate, modify or confirm any judgment that may have been entered or direct the entry of a new judgment.

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Amendments

The amendment of May 21, 1969 made no change in this rule.

Appellate Review

In condemnation proceeding, where state appraised land at $18,000, condemnee appraised it at $95,000 and jury awarded condemnee $21,000, granting of new trial because award was inadequate was not such an abuse of trial judge's discretion as to warrant reversal in spite of the fact there was no rebuttal of state's only expert witness. State Highway Commission v. Greenfield, 145 M 164, 399 P 2d 989.

Inadequacy of Award

Court abused discretion in granting new trial "upon the grounds of insufficiency of the evidence to justify the verdict in that the verdict awarded by the jury to the plaintiff is wholly inadequate" where there was conflict in evidence and where it was question for jury whether injuries suffered by passenger were caused by grossly negligent operation of car or whether passenger assumed risk of going into car driven by man who had several drinks. Heen v. Tiddy, 151 M 265, 442 P 2d 434.

Jury Misconduct

New trial was properly granted where foreman of jury made his own investigation at the scene of the accident after hearing testimony and informed the other members of jury, during their deliberation, of the results of his investigation. The foreman was guilty of misconduct upon which verdict could be impeached by affidavits of jurors. Goff v. Kinzle, 148 M 61, 417 P 2d 105, 107, distinguished in Rasmussen v. Sibert, 153 M 286, 456 P 2d 835.

Mistake or Inadvertence

Grant of new trial to permit plaintiff to give additional testimony on issue of damages only was not improper, notwithstanding that ground for relief was mistake or inadvertence and should have been given pursuant to Rule 60(b), where no intervening rights had attached in reliance upon judgment and no actual injustice would ensue. John J. Ming, Inc. v. District Court, 155 M 84, 466 P 2d 907.

New Evidence

Ex parte affidavit which alleged newly discovered evidence but was only cumulative in nature was insufficient in light of the record to authorize a new trial. Fisher v. Mitzel, 158 M 265, 491 P 2d 186.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Right To Appeal

Defendant was entitled to appeal, in spite of time limitation of section 93-5606 for filing bill of exceptions where motion for new trial was combined with motion to amend findings and request for review of facts, conclusions of law and judgment, since limitation under section 93-5606 did not apply prior to enactment of new rules of civil procedure. Crissey v. State Highway Commission, 147 M 374, 413 P 2d 308.

(b) TIME FOR MOTION. A motion for a new trial shall be served not later than 10 days after service of notice of the entry of the judgment.

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

References

Amendments

The amendment of May 21, 1969 made no change in this rule.

(c) TIME FOR SERVING AFFIDAVITS. When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has 10 days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which periods may be extended for an additional period not exceeding 20 days either by the court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The court may permit reply affidavits.

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Amendments

The amendment of May 21, 1969 made no change in this rule.

(d) TIME FOR HEARING ON MOTION. Hearing on the motion shall be had within 10 days after it has been served, or within 10 days after the party opposing the motion for new trial has served his affidavits as set forth in subparagraph (c) hereinabove except that at any time after the notice of hearing on the motion has been served the court may issue an order continuing the hearing for not to exceed 30 days. In case the hearing is continued by the court, it shall be the duty of the court to hear the same at the earliest practicable date thereafter, and the court shall rule upon and decide the motion within 15 days after the same is submitted. If the court shall fail to rule upon the motion within said time, the motion shall, at the expiration of said period, be deemed denied.

The decision on the motion may be entered in the minutes of the court, or may be made in writing in chambers or in any county in the state where the judge may be, and be filed with the clerk of court in the county where the action is pending. Upon the hearing, reference may be had in all cases to the pleadings and the orders of the court on file, and reference may also be had to any depositions and documentary evidence offered on the trial, and to the proceedings on the trial and, when necessary, reference may be had to the notes of the court reporter.

If the motion is not noticed up for hearing and no hearing is held thereon, it shall be deemed denied as of the expiration of the period of time within which hearing is required to be held under this Rule 59.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Compiler's Notes

The amendment of Rule 59 by Supreme Court Order No. 10750-9 enacted this subparagraph as Rule 59(d) and designated former Rules 59(d) and 59(e) as 59(e) and 59(f), respectively.

Advisory Committee's Note to May 21, 1969 Amendment

Explanation of change: Section 93-5606, R. C. M. 1947, is hereby superseded. There has been some confusion by reason of ambiguous language in section 93-5606, R. C. M. 1947, a hold-over statute from the practice which existed before the rules were adopted, and because of the necessity of researching for, and referring to, the case decisions under the statute spelling out the jurisdictional time limits and the effect thereof. It is felt that by incorporating our practice into this one rule, and eliminating the necessity of referring to statutes and case decisions, that it will be easier for the practitioner to comply.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Appellate Review

The appellate court may not disturb the findings of the trial court in ordering a new trial without a showing of abuse of discretion. Campeau v. Lewis, 144 M 543, 398 P 2d 960.

Disqualification of Judge

Section 93-901 does not permit disqualification of a judge pending motion for a new trial under this rule. State ex rel. Peery v. District Court, 145 M 287, 400 P 2d 648.

Judge's Discretion

The jury is delegated the task of finding the facts, but the trial judge has the discretion to prevent a miscarriage of justice by granting a new trial if there is an insufficiency of evidence to support the verdict. Campeau v. Lewis, 144 M 543, 398 P 2d 960, explained in Morris v. Corcoran Pulpwood Co., 154 M 468, 465 P 827.

Purpose of Rule

The purpose of this rule is to give a trial judge power to prevent what he considers a miscarriage of justice. Campeau v. Lewis, 144 M 543, 398 P 2d 960.

Scope

This rule permits the trial judge to order a new trial on his own initiative for the same reasons one could be ordered pursuant to section 93-5603 and is subject to the same interpretations as expressed in previous opinions on motions for new trials before adoption of the rule. Campeau v. Lewis, 144 M 543, 398 P 2d 960.

Time Limits

Combined motion for new trial and to alter, amend and supplement findings of fact, conclusions of law and judgment was not subject to time limits of former section 93-5606 requiring prompt hearing on new trial motion and superseded by this rule. State ex rel. Rozan v. District Court, Sixteenth Judicial District, 147 M 532, 416 P 2d 19, 21. See also Crissey v. State Highway Commission, 147 M 374, 413 P 2d 308.

(e) ON INITIATIVE OF COURT. Not later than 10 days after entry of judgment the court of its own initiative may order a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party. After giving the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter, the court may grant a motion for a new trial, timely served, for a reason not stated in the motion. In either case, the court shall specify in the order the grounds therefor.

Compiler's Notes

The amendments of Rule 59 by Supreme Court Order No. 10750-9 designated this former Rule 59(d) as Rule 59(e).

The amendment of May 21, 1969 made no change in the wording of this rule.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 59(d), as amended 1966.

Explanation of change: The purpose of this amendment is to make it clear that a court, after notice and opportunity to be heard, may grant a new trial even though a motion for new trial has been made, for a ground not stated in the motion. Some cases have held otherwise.

(f) MOTION TO ALTER OR AMEND A JUDGMENT. A motion to alter or amend the judgment shall be served not later than 10 days after the service of the notice of the entry of the judgment, and may be combined with the motion for a new trial herein provided for. This motion shall be heard and determined within the time provided hereinabove with respect to a motion for a new trial.

History: En. Sec. 59, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Sept. 7, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-9, May 21, 1969, eff. July 1, 1969.

Compiler's Notes

The amendment of Rule 59 by Supreme Court Order No. 10750-9 designated this former Rule 59(e) as Rule 59(f).

Amendments

The amendment of September 7, 1965 added a second paragraph which read: "Motions provided by this subdivision shall be heard and determined within the time provided by Section 93-5606 of the 1947 Revised Codes of Montana in the case of motions for a new trial."

The amendment of May 21, 1969 added "and may be combined with the motion for a new trial herein provided for" to the first sentence; substituted the second sentence for the former second paragraph added in 1965; and made changes in phraseology.

Additur

This rule did not give the district court power to order an additur to a condemnation award as a condition of denying motion for new trial. State Highway Commission v. Schmidt, 143 M 505, 391 P 2d 692.

Time Limit

A motion to alter, amend, and supplement findings of fact, conclusions of law and the judgment, combined with a motion for a new trial filed on September 28, 1965 was a motion contemplated by this rule and Rule 52(b) and was not governed by the time limits of section 93-5606. State ex rel. Rozan v. District Court of Sixteenth Judicial District, 147 M 532, 416 P 2d 19, 21.

Rule 60. Relief from judgment or order.

(b) MISTAKES—INADVERTENCE—EXCUSABLE NEGLECT—NEWLY DISCOVERED EVIDENCE—FRAUD, ETC. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons: (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b); (3) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party; (4) the judgment is void; (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application; or (6) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment. The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (1), (2), and (3) when a defendant has been personally served, whether in lieu of publication or not, not more than 60 days after the judgment, order or proceeding was entered or taken, or, in a case where notice of entry of judgment is required by Rule 77(d), not more than 60 days after service of notice of entry of judgment. When from any cause the summons in an action has not been personally served on the defendant, the court may allow, on such terms as may be just, such defendant or his legal representative, at any time within 180 days after the rendition of any judgment in such action, to answer to the merits of the original action. A motion under this subdivision (b) does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding, or to grant relief to a defendant not actually personally notified as may be required by law, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court.

History: En. Sec. 60, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750, Aug. 1, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of August 1, 1965 substituted "within 60 days when a defendant has been personally served, whether in lieu of publication or not, calculated from the date of service of notice of entry of the judgment or order or action taken in the proceeding" for "not more than one year after the judgment, order or proceeding was entered or taken" after "for reasons (1), (2), and (3)" in the second sentence; and inserted the third sentence.

The amendment of September 29, 1967 rewrote the second sentence; and substituted "required" for "provided" in the last sentence.

Commission Note to August 1, 1965 Amendment

The purpose of this amendment is to make the Montana practice correspond to practice under the last sentence of R. C. M. 1947, § 93-3905 (which was repealed with the adoption of the Rules of Civil Procedure), as construed in Smith v. Collis, 42 Mont. 350, 365-370 (1910). The time within which the motion may be made is shortened, but considered adequate.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: None.

The federal rule measures the time for the motion for reasons (1), (2), and (3) from time the "judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken." The Montana rule measures the time from the "date of service of entry of the judgment or order or action taken"; but Rule 77(d), requiring notice of entry, is confined to judgments in actions in which an appearance has been made. This amendment, using the federal rule language adjusted to the requirements of Montana Rule 77(d), is for the purpose of avoiding ambiguity and litigation as to what, if any, time limit is imposed in cases of orders, and proceedings, and judgments where no appearance has been made.

Change of Counsel

Motion to have judgment vacated as to date and redated so as to permit moving party to file exceptions to findings or take other steps counsel deemed necessary for protection of client was improperly denied, and was abuse of discretion where moving party had inadequate time in which to obtain present counsel when conflict of interest arose with prior counsel. Schmidt v. Lloyd, 152 M 158, 447 P 2d 485.

Discretion of Court

Where record showed that defendant took no action for nearly three months after default judgment had been entered, defendant was not prejudiced by plaintiff's failure to give written notice of application for default judgment as required by M. R. Civ. P., Rule 55(b)(2), and district court did not abuse its discretion in denying defendant's motion to vacate the default judgment under M. R. Civ. P., Rule 55(c). Williams v. Superior Homes, Inc., 148 M 38, 417 P 2d 92, 94.

Slight abuse of discretion in refusing to set aside default judgment for "mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect" is sufficient to justify reversal, and when motion to vacate default judgment is supported by showing which leaves court in doubt or upon which reasonable minds might reach different conclusions, the doubt should be resolved in favor of the motion. Uffleman v. Labbit, 152 M 238, 448 P 2d 690.

Excusable Neglect

Defendant's contention that "personal problems drove all thought of lesser problems from his mind" was not sufficient to set aside a default judgment under subsection 1 of this section. Dudley v. Stiles, 142 M 566, 386 P 2d 342.

Grant of new trial pursuant to Rule 59(a) to permit plaintiff to give additional testimony on damages that had been omitted by excusable neglect was not improper, notwithstanding that such relief should have been given under this section, where no intervening rights had attached in reliance upon judgment and no actual injustice would ensue. John J. Ming, Inc. v. District Court, 155 M 84, 466 P 2d 907.

Where attorney for defendant had three other active files under same defendant's name and inadvertently filed complaint in one of the other files, with result that answer was not filed in time and plaintiff took judgment by default, a motion pursuant to clause (1) stating the facts and that there was a meritorious defense was adequate to set aside default judgment without verification and without affidavit of merit. Keller v. Hanson, 157 M 307, 485 P 2d 705.

Judgment Obtained by Fraud

Court of equity has inherent power, independent of statute, to vacate judgment obtained by fraud in violation of last sentence of Rule 60(b) even though party seeking relief was not necessary party in original action and motion to vacate was not made within liberal time limits prescribed by rule but was nevertheless timely considering that aggrieved party engaged attorney to file motion to vacate within thirty days after discovery of existence of judgment. Selway v. Burns, 150 M 1, 429 P 2d 640.

In quiet title action, district court properly denied motion to set aside default decree where moving party had no color of title; under this section default judgment will be set aside for excusable neglect only if movant is able to show good defense on merits. Diamond Investment Co. v. Geagan, 154 M 122, 460 P 2d 760.

Meritorious Defense

Answer and counterclaim need not be verified when submitted with motion under this rule which stated generally that there was a meritorious defense, and there is no longer a requirement for an affidavit of merit. Keller v. Hanson, 157 M 307, 485 P 2d 705.

Mistake of Law

Mistaken belief of party, against whom default judgment was taken, as to legal effect of contract with adverse party was mistake of law, rather than mistake of fact, and was not such a "mistake" as would support vacating the default. Uffleman v. Labbit, 152 M 238, 448 P 2d 690.

Probate Matters

Final decree of distribution and discharge in probate will not be set aside on ground of inadvertence or fraud either under statute or Rule 60(b) in absence of manifest abuse of court's discretion in case where moving party had every opportunity to protect his claim in probate and failed to do so. Werning v. McFarland, 149 M 137, 423 P 2d 851.

Scope of Rule

Contention that default judgment was erroneous on its face and should be set aside because the judgment and an exhibit attached to the complaint contained inaccurate and erroneous language was outside scope of rule and could not be raised thereunder. Uffleman v. Labbit, 152 M 238, 448 P 2d 690.

Voidable Judgment

This rule does not apply to voidable judgments. Interstate Counseling Service v. Emeline, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 728. (Dissenting opinion, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 729.)

This rule has no application to prematurely entered default judgments since it applies to void and not voidable judgments. Sowerwine v. Sowerwine, 145 M 81, 399 P 2d 233.

Waiver of Right to Relief

Where proper notice of hearing on application for judgment of divorce was given defendant in accordance with M. R. Civ. P., Rule 55(b) and no relief different from that demanded in the complaint was granted in violation of Rule 54(c), an appeal on those grounds was dismissed by the supreme court on its own motion where no application to set aside the default or judgment was made under this rule. Sowerwine v. Sowerwine, 148 M 195, 418 P 2d 859, 861.

(c) TIME FOR HEARING AND DETERMINING MOTIONS. Motions provided by subdivisions (a) and (b) of this rule shall be heard and determined within the times provided by Rule 59 in the case of motions for new trials and amendment of judgment.

The amendment of May 21, 1969 substituted "Rule 59" for "section 93-5606 of the 1947 Revised Codes of Montana" and "trials" for "trial"; and added "and amendment of judgment."

Advisory Committee's Note to May 21, 1969 Amendment

Explanation of change: Since section 93-5606, R. C. M. 1947, is being superseded because of changes in Rules 46, 52 and 59, the change in Rule 60(c) is likewise required.

Rule 61. Harmless error.

Clerk's Error

Omission of clerk of court to require affidavit of amount due under Rule 55(b)(1) before entry of default judgment in favor of plaintiff is not fatal unless refusal to take action with respect to the omission appears to the court inconsistent with substantial justice. Interstate Counseling Service v. Emeline, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 728. (Dissenting opinion, 144 M 409, 396 P 2d 727, 729.)

Contributory Negligence

Submitting issue of contributory negligence to jury was harmless error in light of substantial evidence showing that defendant was not negligent and substantial evidence that even if defendant was negligent plaintiff was not injured in accident or injury was not result of defendant's negligence. Brown v. Reel, 148 M 381, 421 P 2d 454.

In a wrongful death action by father of eight and one-half year old boy, who, while riding a bicycle, was struck and killed by automobile, court's instruction that deceased boy was incapable of contributory negligence and court's refusal of defendant's offered instruction on contributory negligence was not reversible error, irrespective of question of boy's capacity, since there was no substantial credible evidence of contributory negligence in fact on part of deceased boy. Graham v. Rolandson, 150 M 270, 435 P 2d 263.

Joint Enterprise

Court's rulings with respect to issue of joint enterprise, if error, was harmless error, since driver was sole proximate cause of accident in which passenger suing owner of cattle was injured when car struck cattle on highway. Ratcliff v. Murphy, 150 M 31, 430 P 2d 627.

Poll of Jury

Lower court abused discretion in granting new trial based solely on ground that it had erred in refusing request for poll of jury since error, if any, was harmless in light of evidence affirmatively showing that verdict was rendered in open court in presence of all counsel, that in response to question by judge, foreman of jury advised him they had agreed upon verdict, and that following reading of verdict signed by foreman, judge inquired of jury if it was true verdict of at least eight of them and jury answered in affirmative. Martello v. Darlow, 151 M 232, 441 P 2d 175.

Rule 62. Stay of proceedings to enforce a judgment.

(a) Superseded—M. R. App. Civ. P., Rule 7.

Supersession

This section (Sec. 62, Ch. 13, L. 1961), relating to stay of proceedings upon entry of judgment, is superseded by M. R. App. Civ. P., Rule 7.

(d) Superseded—M. R. App. Civ. P., Rule 7.

Supersession

This section (Sec. 62, Ch. 13, L. 1961), relating to stay of proceedings upon appeal, is superseded by M. R. App. Civ. P., Rule 7.

(e) STAY IN FAVOR OF THE STATE OF MONTANA OR AGENCY THEREOF.

Eminent Domain Proceeding

Where state highway commission filed notice of appeal and perfected their appeal after writ of execution under section 93-9918 had issued, the appeal stayed the judgment although no bond was filed as required by section 93-8011, since under this rule no security was required from the state. Robertson v. State Highway Commission, 148 M 275, 420 P 2d 21, 24.

VIII. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS

Rule 68. Offer of judgment.

Rule 65. Injunctions.

References

Holtz v. Babcock, 143 M 341, 389 P 2d 869.

Rule 68. Offer of judgment.

At any time more than 10 days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the money or property or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs then accrued. If within 10 days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon judgment shall be entered. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the costs incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. When the liability of one party to another has been determined by verdict or order or judgment, but the amount or extent of the liability remains to be determined by further proceedings, the party adjudged liable may make an offer of judgment, which shall have the same effect as an offer made before trial if it is served within a reasonable time not less than 10 days prior to the commencement of hearings to determine the amount or extent of liability.

History: En. Sec. 67, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 added the last sentence.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: Fed. R. Civ. P. 68, as amended 1966.

This logical extension of the concept of offer of judgment is suggested by the common admiralty practice of determining liability before the amount of liability is determined.

Fraud on Court

Although proper procedure was followed under rule providing for offer of judgment, conduct of parties in perpetrating fraud on court required that judgment be vacated on motion of aggrieved beneficiary who was not party to suit against estate. Selway v. Burns, 150 M 1, 429 P 2d 640.

IX. APPEALS

Rule 72. Appeal from a district court to the supreme court.

Rule 72. Appeal from a district court to the supreme court.

When an appeal is permitted by law from a district court to the supreme court of Montana, or in any case where original proceedings are commenced in the supreme court, such appeal or original proceeding shall be taken, perfected, and prosecuted pursuant to the provisions of the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure and controlling statutes to the extent that they are not superseded by the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure.

History: En. Sec. 71, Ch. 13, L. 1961, amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Amendments

The 1965 amendment rewrote this section. For previous text, see parent volume.

Advisory Committee's Note

Subdivision (a) of Rule 41, M. R. App. Civ. P. merely adapts the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure to these Appellate Rules.

X. DISTRICT COURTS AND CLERKS

Rule 77. District courts and clerks.

Rule 77. District courts and clerks.

(b) TRIALS AND HEARINGS—ORDERS IN CHAMBERS.

Time for Hearing

Notwithstanding that hearing on defendant's motion for summary judgment was held one day prior to scheduled date, such procedure was permissible under this section since hearing was held with consent of both court and counsel. Israelson v. Mountain Tractor Co., 155 M 69, 467 P 2d 149.

(d) NOTICE OF ENTRY OF JUDGMENT SERVED.

Sufficiency of Notice

Notice sent to plaintiff's attorney that judgment had been entered in favor of defendant and stating that a copy of the order adjudging a dismissal with prejudice was attached, was sufficient for compliance with this rule even though a copy of the order was not actually attached. Jackson v. Tinker, — M —, 504 P 2d 692.

(e) TRANSMITTAL OF FILE ON REMOVAL. Upon the filing of a copy of the petition for removal of any state district court action to the district court of the United States, district of Montana, and a request in writing therefor, the clerk of such state district court shall promptly deliver to the clerk of court of the district court of the United States, district of Montana, all papers then in the original state court file, or theretofore issued and subsequently filed and shall keep in the state court file only the copy of the petition for removal and such papers as were filed with the request for removal.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-8, Sept. 10, 1968, eff. Jan. 1, 1969; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment substituted "the filing of a copy of the petition for removal" for "being served with a notice of the removal" at the beginning of the rule; inserted "and a request in writing therefor"; inserted "and subsequently filed" after "theretofore issued"; substituted "shall keep in the state court file" for "subsequently file"; and substituted "copy of the petition for removal" and "request for removal" near the end of the rule for "notice of removal."

Advisory Committee's Note

To define procedure and avoid unnecessary duplication of papers in state and federal court files. The proposed amendment correlates with Rule 10, Revised Rules of Procedure of the United States District Court for the District of Montana effective January 1, 1968.

XI. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 86. Effective date—Statutes superseded.

Rule 81. Applicability in general.

(a) SPECIAL STATUTORY PROCEEDINGS.

Action To Remove Administrator

In statutory action for removal of administrator for misappropriation of funds of estate, administrator could be examined as adverse witness under Rule 43 notwithstanding provisions of Rule 81. In re Estate & Guardianship of Wyman, 149 M 525, 429 P 2d 629.

Rule 83. Rules by district courts.

Briefs Required on Preliminary Motion

Trial court rule requiring filing of briefs in support of preliminary motion is proper exercise of authority under this rule and may be enforced by summary denial of motion where brief has not been filed. Hansen v. Kiernan, — M —, 499 P 2d 787.

Rule 86. Effective date—Statutes superseded.

(a) EFFECTIVE DATE AND APPLICATION TO PENDING PROCEEDINGS. These Rules became effective January 1, 1962. In accordance with Chapter 16, Laws of 1963, proposed amendments to these rules shall be first prepared by the advisory committee, which shall distribute copies thereof to the bench and resident bar of the state for their consideration and suggestions. Submission of proposed amendments to the court shall be made by the advisory committee only after the advisory committee has considered suggestions received from the bench and bar. Submissions to the court shall be noticed by the court by mailing notice, containing copies of the submitted proposals to all district judges and resident attorneys licensed to practice in the Montana courts as shown by the records of the clerk of the court, and the court will receive written suggestions and objections within the time fixed in the notice, which shall be not less than ninety (90) days thereafter. Oral hearings on proposals will be held only on special order of the court. Amendments adopted by the court will become effective on January 1 unless a different time be fixed in the order.

The court will annually, at least thirty (30) days prior to January 1, cause to be published all amendments to these rules which are to become effective on the succeeding January 1, and transmit the same to all judges and resident lawyers of the state. Such rules as are to become effective at times other than January 1 will be published and transmitted at least thirty (30) days prior to their effective date. These rules and amendments govern all proceedings and actions brought after they take effect, and also all further proceedings in actions then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the district court their application in a particular action pending when the rules or amendments take effect would not be feasible, or would work injustice, in which event the procedure existing at the time the action was brought applies.

History: En. Sec. 79, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Ord. Sup. Ct. June 1, 1964, eff. July 1, 1964.

Amendment

The 1964 amendment divided subdivision (a) into two paragraphs; inserted the second, third, fourth, fifth, and sixth sentences of the first paragraph and the first and second sentences of the second paragraph; substituted "These rules and amendments" for "They" at the beginning of the third sentence of the second paragraph; inserted "or amendments" after "particular action pending when the rules" in the latter part of the third sentence of the second paragraph; and substituted "became effective" for "will take effect" in the first sentence of the first paragraph.

Relation Back of Complaint

Question of relation back of complaint amended after adoption of Rules is governed by provisions of Rules even though action originated prior to effective date of Rules in absence of finding by court having jurisdiction that Rules should not control. Rozan v. Rosen, 150 M 121, 431 P 2d 870.

Retroactive Application

District court had the power to consider motion under procedure that was in effect when the motion was filed where the court believed application of amended rule would work an injury. State ex rel. Rozan v. District Court of Sixteenth Judicial District, 147 M 532, 416 P 2d 19, 21.

Rule 4B(1), M. R. Civ. P., applied to act of alleged malpractice occurring in Montana prior to effective date of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure and doctor who had not resided in Montana since the effective date of the rules could properly be served with process, under Rule 4D(3), in California. State ex rel. Johnson v. District Court of Fourth Judicial District, 148 M 22, 417 P 2d 109, 110.

The giving effect to the service of summons provisions of Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 4, subd. B, when the operative facts of the case to which the rule applied had taken place prior to the effective date provided in this section, was not a prohibited retroactive application of Rule 4, subd. B, within the meaning of section 12-201. Weber v. Hydroponics, Inc., 226 F Supp 117, 118.

(b) STATUTES SUPERSEDED. Upon the taking effect of these rules or amendments thereto all statutes and parts of statutes in conflict therewith and the statutes listed in Tables B and C are superseded in respect of practice and procedure in the district courts.

History: En. Sec. 79, Ch. 13, L. 1961; amd. Ord. Sup. Ct. June 1, 1964, eff. July 1, 1964.

Amendment

The 1964 amendment inserted "or amendments thereto" after "these rules"; and made another minor change in phraseology.

I. APPLICABILITY OF RULES

Rule 1. Scope of rules—From what judgment or order an appeal may be taken.
2. What the court may review on an appeal from a judgment.
3. Suspension of the rules.

Rule 1. Scope of rules—From what judgment or order an appeal may be taken.

These rules govern procedure in appeals in civil cases to the supreme court of Montana from Montana district courts and original proceedings in the supreme court of Montana. The party applying for original relief is known as the petitioner and the adverse party as the defendant. The party appealing is known as the appellant, and the adverse party as the respondent.

A party aggrieved may appeal from a judgment or order, except when expressly made final by law, in the following cases:

(a) From a final judgment entered in an action or special proceeding commenced in a district court, or brought into a district court from another court or administrative body.

(b) From an order granting a new trial; or refusing to permit an action to be maintained as a class action; or granting or dissolving an injunction; or refusing to grant or dissolve an injunction; or dissolving or refusing to dissolve an attachment; from an order changing or refusing to change the place of trial when the county designated in the complaint is not the proper county; from an order appointing or refusing to appoint a receiver, or giving directions with respect to a receivership, or refusing to vacate an order appointing or affecting a receiver; from an order directing the delivery, transfer, or surrender of property; from any special order made after final judgment; and from such interlocutory judgments or orders, in actions for partition as determine the rights and interests of the respective parties and direct partition to be made. In any of the cases mentioned in this subdivision the supreme court, or a justice thereof, may stay all proceedings under the order appealed from, on such conditions as may seem proper.

(c) From a judgment or order granting or refusing to grant, revoking or refusing to revoke, letters testamentary, or of administration, or of guardianship; or admitting or refusing to admit a will to probate, or against or in favor of the validity of a will, or revoking or refusing to revoke the probate thereof; or against or in favor of setting apart property, or making an allowance for a widow or child; or against or in favor of directing the partition, sale, or conveyance of real property, or settling an account of an executor, or administrator, or guardian; or refusing, allowing, directing the distribution or partition of any estate, or any part thereof, or the payment of a debt, claim, legacy, or distributive share; or confirming or refusing to confirm a report of an appraiser setting apart a homestead.

All questions raised on an order overruling a motion for a new trial or on an order changing or refusing to change the place of trial under R. C. M. 1947, section 93-2906 subdivisions 2, 3 or 4 thereof may be raised and reviewed on an appeal from the judgment.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967, in clause (b), inserted "or refusing to permit an action to be maintained as a class action;" near the beginning of the first sentence.

Advisory Committee's Note

Section 93-8003, R. C. M. 1947, is restated and clarified. The effect of section 93-8004 (3), referring to "an order changing or refusing to change a place of trial," is limited by providing for appeals from orders re change of venue only in cases where the motion for change is based upon subdivision 1 of section 93-2906.

Since these rules only apply to appeals from district courts to the Montana supreme court, the provisions of sections 93-8001 and 93-8002 are not superseded in so far as they refer to appeals in actions in police or justice's courts: a judgment or order in a civil action in police or justice's courts, except when expressly made final, may be reviewed as prescribed in R. C. M. 1947, sections 93-7901 to 93-7908.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: None.

This adds to appealable orders an order under Rule 23(c)(1), Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, refusing to permit a class action to be maintained as such. It does not permit appeal from an order permitting a class action to be maintained as such. See Advisory Committee's Note to Rule 23 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

Class Action

Writ of supervisory control granting relief from district court order permitting maintenance of class action was not justified since the order was subject to alteration or amendment as the matter progresses and since the question can be considered on appeal from final judgment. State ex rel. Anaconda Aluminum Co. v. District Court, 158 M 228, 490 P 2d 351.

Denial of Change of Venue

Specification of error arising from trial court's order denying motion for change of venue was not properly before supreme court because timely appeal was not made from order as required by rules. Sealey v. Majerus, 149 M 268, 425 P 2d 70.

Denial of Motion

Where district court exceeded its jurisdiction in denying motion to quash summons and dismiss action where the summons had not been served and returned within the three years required by

M. R. Civ. P., Rule 41(e) the order was not appealable under this rule. State ex rel. Belwin, Inc. v. Davison, 148 M 345, 420 P 2d 842, 844.

Writ of supervisory control was proper where lessor's motion to dismiss sublessees' action for breach of lease agreement, to which sublessees were not parties, was denied by the district court, the order denying the motion to dismiss not being appealable under this rule. State ex rel. Buttrey Foods, Inc. v. District Court, 148 M 350, 420 P 2d 845, 847.

Denial of Writ of Assistance

Although denial of writ of assistance, placing purchaser at sheriff's sale under mortgage foreclosure into possession of lands involved, by district court was appealable under rule either as "an order directing * * * surrender of property" or as "any special order made after final judgment," writ of supervisory control to compel the district court to issue writ of assistance was available as remedy since remedy by appeal was neither speedy nor adequate. State ex rel. Foss v. District Court, Fourth Judicial District, 152 M 73, 446 P 2d 707.

Dismissal of Action

The effect of a district court's order dismissing the action was substantially the same as a judgment for defendants and therefore appealable even though no formal judgment was entered. Prentice Lumber Co. v. Hukill, — M —, 504 P 2d 277, distinguishing Payne v. Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Co., 142 M 406, 385 P 2d 100, and Rambur v. Diehl Lumber Co., 143 M 432, 391 P 2d 1.

Order Denying Summary Judgment

Although order denying summary judgment is nonappealable at time it is made because of its interlocutory character, it is nonetheless reviewable under appellate rule providing that all nonappealable intermediate orders or decisions properly excepted or objected to which involve merits or necessarily affect judgment are reviewable on subsequent appeal from final judgment. Brown v. Midland Nat. Bank, 150 M 422, 435 P 2d 878.

Standing As Aggrieved Party

Appellant, who first raised issue of the zoning classification of property involved in condemnation proceeding, lacked standing as "a party aggrieved" to complain of the state's subsequent emphasis on the zoning of the property as misleading jury into reaching erroneous verdict. State Highway Commission v. Vaughn, 155 M 277, 470 P 2d 967.

Writ of Supervisory Control

Although orders of district court striking two defenses from relator's answer and granting plaintiff summary judgment on issue of liability were not directly appealable under this section, writ of supervisory control was available as remedy. State ex rel. Great Falls Nat. Bank v. District Court, 154 M 336, 463 P 2d 326.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Dismissal of Action

An order granting a motion to dismiss was not appealable under former section 93-8003. Payne v. Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Co., 142 M 406, 385 P 2d 100; Rambur v. Diehl Lumber Co., 143 M 432, 391 P 2d 1; both distinguished in — M —, 504 P 2d 277, 279.

Injunctions and Restraining Orders

Order denying county commissioner's motion to quash temporary injunction against use of real property valuations made by private appraisal group and relied on by reclassification officer appointed by commissioners to determine 1965 tax assessment rolls was appealable under former section 93-8003. State ex rel. Keast v. Krieg, 145 M 521, 402 P 2d 405, 19 ALR 3d 396.

Sustaining of Demurrer

Notwithstanding that former statute providing for appeals gave party against whom demurrer was sustained plain and speedy remedy by appeal, court would not dismiss application for supervisory writ where judgment sustaining demurrer also stayed proceedings and expressly accorded losing party right to apply for supervisory writ. State ex rel. Cave Constr. Co. v. District Court, Third Judicial District, 150 M 18, 430 P 2d 624.

Rule 2. What the court may review on an appeal from a judgment.

Upon appeal from a judgment, the court may review the verdict or decision, and any intermediate order or decision excepted or objected to within the meaning of Rule 46 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, which involves the merits, or necessarily affects the judgment, except a decision or order from which an appeal might have been taken.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule incorporates R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8022.

Correction of Erroneous Judgment

Case would be remanded to district court for purpose of amending, by incorporating appropriate terms, a judgment which omitted defaulting codefendant who was jointly and severally liable on obligation. White v. Nollmeyer, 151 M 387, 443 P 2d 873.

Denial of Change of Venue

Specification of error arising from trial court's order denying motion for change of venue was not properly before supreme court because timely appeal was not made from order as required by rules. Sealey v. Majerus, 149 M 268, 425 P 2d 70.

Objections First Raised on Appeal

In condemnation proceedings by the state highway commission to condemn a right of way for an interstate highway which divided ranch into two large tracts making an underpass necessary, alleged error of trial court in its preliminary order of condemnation of ordering commission at its own expense to install, construct and maintain the underpass on the ground that the commission had previously agreed to install the underpass, could not be raised for the first time on appeal where the question was not raised at the time of the trial in the lower court. State ex rel. State Highway Commission v. Wheeler, 148 M 246, 419 P 2d 492, 496.

Order Denying Summary Judgment

Although order denying summary judgment is nonappealable order at time it is made because of its interlocutory character, it is nonetheless reviewable under appellate rule providing that all nonappealable intermediate orders or decisions properly excepted or objected to which involve merits or necessarily affect the judgment are reviewable on subsequent appeal from final judgment. Brown v. Midland Nat. Bank, 150 M 422, 435 P 2d 878.

Rule 3. Suspension of the rules.

In the interest of expediting decision upon any matter before it, or for other good cause shown, the supreme court may, except as otherwise provided in Rule 21(b), suspend the requirements or provisions of these rules on application of a party or on its own motion and may order proceedings in accordance with its direction.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is taken from Rule 2 of the Federal Draft. Its purpose is explained by the Federal Advisory Committee's Note. Adjusted to state practice, this purpose is to make clear the power of the supreme court to expedite the determination of cases of pressing concern to the public or to the litigants by prescribing a time schedule other than that provided by the rules. The rule also contains a general authorization to the supreme court to relieve litigants of the consequences of default where manifest injustice would otherwise result. Rule 21(b) prohibits the supreme court from extending the time for taking appeal.

14. Ruling against respondent may be reviewed.
15. Remedial powers of the supreme court.
16. Remittitur must be certified to the clerk of the district court.

Rule 4. How taken.

(a) FILING THE NOTICE OF APPEAL. An appeal shall be taken by filing a notice of appeal in the district court. Failure of an appellant to take any step other than the timely filing of a notice of appeal does not affect the validity of the appeal, but is ground only for such action as the supreme court deems appropriate, which may include dismissal of the appeal.

(b) JOINT APPEALS. If two or more persons are entitled to appeal from a judgment or order of the district court and their interests are such as to make joinder practicable, they may file a joint notice of appeal, or may join in appeal after filing separate notices of appeal as a single appellant.

(c) CONTENT OF THE NOTICE OF APPEAL. The notice of appeal shall specify the party or parties taking the appeal; and shall designate the judgment or order appealed from. Form 1 in the Appendix of Forms is a suggested form of notice of appeal.

(d) SERVICE OF NOTICE OF APPEAL. The clerk of the district court shall serve notice of the filing of a notice of appeal by mailing a copy thereof to counsel of record of each party other than the appellant, or, if a party is not represented by counsel, to the party at his last known address, and shall mail a copy of the notice of appeal to the clerk of the supreme court. The clerk of the district court shall note on each copy served the date on which the notice of appeal was filed. If an appellant is represented by counsel, his counsel shall provide the clerk with sufficient copies of the notice of appeal to permit the clerk to comply with the requirements of this rule. Failure of the clerk to serve notice shall not affect the validity of the appeal. The notice shall be sufficient notwithstanding the death of a party or his counsel. The clerk shall note in the docket the names of the parties to whom he mails copies, with the date of mailing.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned after Rule 3 of the Federal Draft, but excludes references to criminal cases, habeas corpus proceedings and bankruptcy. Nothing other than the filing of a notice of appeal in the district court is required for the perfecting of an appeal. In the interest of providing the supreme court with prompt notice that its jurisdiction has been invoked, the rule directs the clerk of the district court to forward a copy of the notice of appeal to the clerk of the supreme court. The requirement that the appellant furnish the clerk with the necessary number of copies of the notice of appeal and that the clerk endorse on each copy served the date on which the notice was filed are for the convenience of the clerk and litigants respectively.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Service on Respondent

Where notice of appeal was not served on the respondent party within six months of the date of judgment, the supreme court could not acquire jurisdiction even though notice was filed with the district court within the statutory period. Seiffert v. Police Commission of Helena, 144 M 52, 394 P 2d 172.

Rule 5. Time for filing notice of appeal.

The time within which an appeal from a judgment or an order must be taken shall be 30 days from the entry thereof, except that in cases where service of notice of entry of judgment is required by Rule 77(d)

of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure the time shall be 30 days from the service of notice of entry of judgment, but if the state of Montana, or any political subdivision thereof, or an officer or agency thereof is a party the notice of appeal shall be filed within 60 days from the entry of the judgment or order or 60 days from the service of notice of the entry of judgment. If a timely notice of appeal is filed by a party, any other party may file a notice of appeal within 7 days of the date on which the first notice of appeal was filed, or within the time otherwise provided by this rule, whichever period last expires.

The running of the time for filing a notice of appeal is suspended as to all parties by a timely motion filed in the district court by any party pursuant to the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure hereafter enumerated in this sentence, and the full time for appeal fixed by this rule commences to run and is to be computed from mailing by the clerk of notice of the entry of any of the following orders made upon a timely motion under such rules: (1) granting or denying a motion for judgment under Rule 50(b); (2) granting or denying a motion under Rule 52(b) to amend or make additional findings of fact, whether or not an alteration of the judgment would be required if the motion is granted; (3) granting or denying a motion under Rule 59 to alter or amend the judgment; (4) denying a motion for a new trial under Rule 59.

Upon showing of excusable neglect, the district court may extend the time for filing the notice of appeal by any party for a period not to exceed 30 days from the expiration of the original time prescribed by this rule.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967, in the first sentence of the first paragraph, inserted "a judgment or" before "an order"; substituted "except that * * * the time" for "and the time within which an appeal from a judgment must be taken"; deleted "as provided in Rule 77(d) of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure" after "entry of judgment"; and inserted "or any political subdivision thereof" after "state of Montana."

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned after Rule 4 of the Federal Draft. (Provisions for appeals in bankruptcy, petitions for impeachment, under the Railway Labor Act, under the Interlocutory Appeals Act, and in criminal cases, are omitted.) It materially shortens the time for taking an appeal.

The Federal Draft provides that the notice of appeal shall be filed within 30 days "of the date of the entry of the judgment order appealed from." The change, which measures the time from service of notice of entry of the judgment, is for the purpose of avoiding uncertainty as to what is a judgment and reducing the possibility of lack of knowledge of the entry of the judgment or order.

The provision for added time for appeal by other parties after notice of appeal is filed by one party is new. The Federal Advisory Committee Note explains this as follows: "It not infrequently happens that a party considers himself aggrieved by the final judgment but is willing to abide by it if it is to be the final result of the action. Such a party should be protected against the possibility that another party may file a final hour appeal and thereby oblige the forbearing party to undergo the expense of an appeal without the opportunity of presenting his own grievance" to the supreme court.

The time limit for taking an appeal would not prevent the taking of an appeal at any time after the entry of the judgment or order and before service of notice of entry.

The final paragraph permits an extension of the time for taking an appeal by the district court "upon a showing of excusable neglect." In view of the ease with which an appeal may be taken—the filing of a simple notice with the clerk of court—and the unlikelihood that there will not be actual notice of the entry of the judgment or order, it would be an extraordinary case which would justify an extension. But the district court should have the authority to extend time in extraordinary cases where injustice would otherwise result. The phrase "by any party" makes it clear that the district court may extend the time allowed for filing a cross or separate appeal after an initial appeal has been filed.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: None.

Since Rule 77(d), M. R. Civ. P., only requires service of notice of entry of judgment in cases where an appearance has been made, no time appears to be provided for filing notice of appeal from judgments in default cases. This amendment is designed to supply the deficiency.

The addition of the phrase, "or any political subdivision thereof," is added to make it clear that the 60-day provision applies to cities, counties, etc.

Rule 6. Undertaking for costs on appeal.

(a) [Form of undertaking—Time for filing]. Within 10 days after service of notice of appeal an undertaking for costs on appeal shall be filed in the district court, or a deposit of the money in the amount thereof be made with the clerk of the district court to abide the event of the appeal, or the undertaking be waived by the adverse party in writing. The undertaking must be executed on the part of the appellant by at least 2 sureties, or by a corporate surety as may be authorized by law, to the effect that the appellant will pay all damages and costs which may be awarded against him on the appeal, or on the dismissal thereof, not exceeding five hundred dollars. If the undertaking on appeal is not filed within the time specified, or if the undertaking filed is found insufficient, and if the action is not yet docketed with the supreme court, an undertaking may be filed at such time before the action is so docketed as may be fixed by the district court. After the action is so docketed, application for leave to file an undertaking may be made only in the supreme court. The undertaking for costs herein provided may be combined in a single document with a supersedeas bond under Rule 7.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

Rules 7 and 8 of the Federal Draft contain provisions for appeal bonds and the stay of judgments and orders. These provisions are not followed in the rule. Rather Rules 6, 7 and 8 hereof are substituted. These provisions are believed to be more in accord with state practice and to better fit into Montana statutes than do the provisions of the Federal Draft. This rule supersedes R. C. M. 1947, sections 93-8005, 93-8006, 93-8012, 93-8015, and compares with Federal Rule 73(c) and (e).

The amount of the undertaking has remained at $300 since 1895, and the rule would increase it to $500. Also, express provision is made for corporate sureties as may be authorized by law. Such authorization is found in R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8711.

Rule 7. Stay of judgment or order pending appeal.

(a) [Stay upon entry of judgment—Undertaking]. Upon entry of a judgment or order a party may apply to the district court on notice or ex parte for a stay of the execution of the judgment or order. The court in its discretion may grant said stay for such period of time and under such conditions as the court deems proper, including restraining the party from disposing of, encumbering, or concealing his property. Upon service of notice of appeal, if the court has made no such order or the appellant desires a stay for a longer period than ordered, he may present to the district court and secure its approval of a supersedeas bond which shall have such surety or sureties as are required for an undertaking for costs on appeal prescribed by Rule 6(a). The bond shall be conditioned for the satisfaction of the judgment or order in full together with costs, interest, and damages for delay, if for any reason the appeal is dismissed or if the judgment or order is affirmed, and to satisfy in full such modification of the judgment or order and such costs, interest, and damages as the supreme court may adjudge and award. When the judgment or order is for the recovery of money not otherwise secured, the amount of the bond shall be fixed at such sum as will cover the whole amount of the judgment or order remaining unsatisfied, costs on the appeal, interest, and damages for delay, unless the district court after notice and hearing and for good cause shown fixes a different amount or orders security other than the bond. When the judgment or order determines the disposition of property in controversy as in real actions, replevin, and actions to foreclose mortgages, or when such property is in the custody of the sheriff or when the proceeds of such property or a bond for its value is in the custody or control of the court, the amount of the supersedeas bond shall be fixed at such sum only as will secure the amount recovered for the use and detention of the property, the costs of the action, costs on appeal, interest, and damages for delay. On application, the supreme court in the interest of justice may suspend, modify, restore, or grant any order made under this subdivision.

(b) [Sale of perishable property]. If the judgment or order appealed from directs the sale of perishable property, the district court may order the property to be sold and the proceeds thereof to be deposited, to abide the judgment of the supreme court.

(c) [Cases in which stay of proceedings not allowed]. No stay of proceedings shall be allowed upon a judgment or order which adjudges the defendant guilty of usurping, or intruding into, or unlawfully holding public office, civil or military, within this state; or which grants a writ of mandamus, or of prohibition, against a tribunal, corporation, public officer, or board, commanding certain acts to be done which ought to be done by such tribunal, corporation, public officer, or board, and not involving the payment or allowance of money or its equivalent.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule supersedes subdivisions (a) and (d) of Rule 62 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure. It also supersedes section 93-8013 in so far as applicable to appeals from district courts to the supreme court. However, since these rules do not apply to appeals from police and justices' courts, section 93-8013 is not superseded in so far as it provides that in cases where an undertaking is required on appeal by the provisions of sections 93-7901 to 93-7908, "a deposit in the court below of the amount of the judgment appealed from, and three hundred dollars in addition, shall be equivalent to filing the undertaking; and . . . the undertaking or deposit may be waived by the written consent of the respondent." Also section 93-8014 is superseded, and subdivision (c) of this rule is patterned after the last part of that section.

The provision of this rule that, upon entry of a judgment or order a party may apply to the district court on notice or ex parte for a stay of execution, is designed to afford time to obtain a supersedeas bond during which the status quo is maintained by court order. The power of the supreme court recognized by the last sentence of subdivision (a) supplements the power of the district court.

Constitutional Power

Supreme court's constitutional power under 1889 Const., art. VIII, § 3, to issue writs necessary to the complete exercise of its appellate jurisdiction overrode the provision in subdivision (c) of this rule prohibiting stay of a writ of mandamus, and supreme court could stay a district court writ of mandamus ordering the superintendent of banks to issue a bank charter since a stay was necessary to make the right of appeal effectual. State ex rel. Bennett v. Dowdall, 157 M 11, 482 P 2d 572.

Supersedeas Bond

Failure of defendant to file supersedeas bond pursuant to this section resulted in dismissal of appeals since such bond is only method to stay execution of judgment and after judgment is paid, it passes beyond review. Gallatin Trust & Savings Bank v. Henke, 154 M 170, 461 P 2d 448.

An application for reduction in the amount of a supersedeas bond should be submitted to the district court that set the amount. State ex rel. Adams v. District Court of Ninth Judicial District in and for County of Teton, 155 M 309, 471 P 2d 537.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Eminent Domain Proceeding

Where state highway commission filed notice of appeal and perfected its appeal after writ of execution under section 93-9918 had issued, the appeal stayed the judgment although no bond was filed as required by this section, since under Rule 62(e), no security was required from the state. Robertson v. State Highway Commission, 148 M 275, 420 P 2d 21, 24.

Rule 8. Sureties and their justification.

(a) [Liability of surety—Enforcement]. In cases where an undertaking on appeal or supersedeas bond with sureties is required, the provisions of R. C. M. 1947, sections 93-8710 to 93-8715, inclusive, apply. By entering into an undertaking on appeal or supersedeas bond given pursuant to Rules 6 and 7, the surety submits himself to the juridiction of the district court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the district court as his agent upon whom papers affecting his liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. His liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of any independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the district court prescribed may be served on the clerk of that court, who shall forthwith mail copies to each surety whose address is known.

(b) [Justification of sureties]. A party may except to the sufficiency of the sureties to any bond or undertaking mentioned in this rule at any time within 30 days after the filing of such bond or undertaking; and unless they or other sureties, within 20 days after service of notice of such exception, justify before a judge of the district court, or the clerk thereof, upon 5 days' notice to the other parties of the time and place of justification, execution of the judgment or order appealed from is no longer stayed.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

The provisions of subdivision (a) of the rule with respect to proceedings against sureties is patterned after Rule 8(b) of the Federal Draft. Subdivision (b) of the rule follows the existing Montana practice provided by R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8013, but the language is changed to avoid confusion where there are cross appeals or mixed forms of relief and to make it clear that either appellant or respondent, or both, may except to the sufficiency of sureties on a bond or undertaking furnished by the other.

Rule 9. The record on appeal.

(a) COMPOSITION OF THE RECORD ON APPEAL. The original papers and exhibits filed in the district court, the transcript of proceedings, if any, and a certified copy of the docket entries prepared by the clerk of the district court shall constitute the record on appeal in all cases.

(b) THE TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS—DUTY OF APPELLANT TO ORDER—NOTICE TO RESPONDENT IF PARTIAL TRANSCRIPT IS ORDERED—COSTS OF PRODUCING. Within 10 days after filing the notice of appeal the appellant shall order from the reporter a transcript of such parts of the proceedings not already on file as he deems necessary for inclusion in the record. In all cases where the appellant intends to urge insufficiency of the evidence to support the verdict, order or judgment in the district court, it shall be the duty of the appellant to order the entire transcript of the evidence. Wherever the sufficiency of the evidence to support a special verdict or answer by a jury to an interrogatory, or to support a specific finding of fact by the trial court, is to be raised on the appeal by the appellant, he shall be under a duty to include in the transcript all evidence relevant to such verdict, answer or finding. Unless the entire transcript is to be included, the appellant shall, within the time above provided, file and serve on the respondent a description of the parts of the transcript which he intends to include in the record and a statement of the issues which he intends to present on the appeal. If the respondent deems a transcript of other parts of the proceedings to be necessary he shall within 10 days after such filing and service order such parts from the reporter or procure an order from the district court requiring the appellant to so do.

The cost of producing the transcript shall be paid by the appellant, or he shall make satisfactory arrangements with the reporter for the payment of such cost; but, if the appellant considers that any part of the record designated by the respondent for inclusion is unnecessary for the determination of the issues presented, he shall advise the respondent, and the district court may impose upon the respondent the cost of producing any part which it deems unnecessary for the determination of the issues.

The reporter shall certify the correctness of the transcript.

(c) STATEMENT OF THE EVIDENCE OR PROCEEDINGS WHEN NO REPORT WAS MADE OR WHEN THE TRANSCRIPT IS UNAVAILABLE. If no report of the evidence or proceedings at a hearing or trial was made, or if a transcript is unavailable, the appellant may, within 10 days from the hearing or trial or such time extended as the district court may for good cause shown permit, prepare a statement of the evidence or proceedings from the best available means, including his recollection. The statement shall be served on the respondent, who may serve objections or propose amendments thereto within 10 days after service. Thereupon, the statement and any objections or proposed amendments shall be submitted for settlement and approval to the district judge who handled the proceedings, and as settled and approved shall be included by the clerk of the district court in the record on appeal. A judge may settle and approve such record after he ceases to be a judge. If such judge before the statement is settled and approved dies, is removed from office, becomes disqualified, is absent from the state, or refuses to settle and approve the statement, it shall be settled and approved in such manner as the supreme court may direct.

(d) AGREED STATEMENT AS THE RECORD ON APPEAL. In lieu of the record on appeal as defined in subdivision (a) of this rule, the parties may prepare and sign a statement of the case showing how the issues presented by the appeal arose and were decided in the district court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the issues presented. If the statement conforms to the truth, it, together with such additions as the court may consider necessary fully to present the issues raised by the appeal, shall be approved by the district court and shall then be certified to the supreme court as the record on appeal and transmitted thereto by the clerk of the district court within the time provided by Rule 10. Copies of the agreed statement may be filed as the appendix required by Rule 25.

(e) CORRECTION OR MODIFICATION OF THE RECORD. If any difference arises as to whether the record truly discloses what occurred in the district court, the difference shall be submitted to and settled by that court and the record made to conform to the truth. If anything material to either party is omitted from the record by error or accident or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation, or the district court, either before or after the record is transmitted to the supreme court, on proper suggestion or of its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement be corrected, and if necessary that a supplemental record be certified and transmitted. All other questions as to the form and content of the record shall be presented to the supreme court.

(f) [FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.] In all nonjury cases where judgment is rendered on the basis of findings of fact and conclusions of law such findings and conclusions by the district court should be incorporated in the appendix to appellant's brief, along with the district court's opinion, if any.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added subdivision (f).

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned after Rule 10 of the Federal Draft.

Subdivision (a). This subdivision provides for the use of the original trial record as the official record on appeal, and judgment rolls are nowhere provided for in these Rules. This use of the trial record is now provided for in all federal circuit courts.

Subdivision (b). The Federal Advisory Committee's Note states: "The appellant is required to serve a statement of the issues which he intends to present on appeal if only a part of the proceedings is transcribed solely to allow the appellee to determine whether the partial transcript will be adequate for the determination of the issues presented by the appeal. Such a statement is not the equivalent of an assignment of errors, which is nowhere required in the proposed rules, and the statement would not result in limiting the issues on appeal. The precise statement of the issues presented by the appeal is to be made in the brief. An appellee who can show that he was misled by the statement required by this subdivision and in consequence failed to designate for transcription material parts of the reported proceedings may seek relief under subdivision (e) of this rule."

The second and third sentences of this subdivision following the title are added to the Federal Draft to make the duty which rests on the appellant more specific. Also, the second paragraph of this subdivision has been expanded to afford protection to an appellant against payment of costs of a transcript of unnecessary portions of the proceeding ordered by a respondent. And the last paragraph, requiring the reporter to certify the correctness of the transcript, has been added to the Federal Draft.

Subdivision (c). The provision of the Federal Draft for settlement has been expanded, patterned after section 93-5508; also, because memories are short, there has been added a time limit for the preparation of the statement.

Subdivisions (d) and (e) are the same as the provisions of the federal draft, adjusted to the Montana court system.

Cost of Transcript

Under rule providing that court "may impose upon the respondent the cost of producing any part of the record which it deems unnecessary for the determination of the issues," court determined that cost of portion of transcript ordered by respondent, which did not bear on any issue presented upon appeal, should be assessed against respondent. Ratcliff v. Murphy, 150 M 31, 430 P 2d 627.

Failure to Perfect Appeal

Appeal was dismissed where appellants had failed to request parts of the transcript within the time allowed by subdivision (b) of this rule, had not requested preparation of any portion of the record on appeal, had failed to pay for copies of documents requested or portions of the transcript prepared, had failed to transmit any part of the record on appeal to the supreme court, had failed to docket the appeal or pay the docket fee, and had failed, within the time allowed by the chief justice, to replace counsel desiring to withdraw with good cause. Larry C. Iverson, Inc. v. United Bank of Pueblo, 158 M 223, 490 P 2d 352.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Evidence Not in Record

Merits of appeal could not be determined where purported transcript on appeal did not contain certificate of judge that records included in the transcript had been used at the hearing. Anderson v. Mennie, 144 M 105, 394 P 2d 853, 854.

Late Presentment of Bill

A bill of exceptions presented after the time prescribed in former section 93-5505 was a nullity and could not be considered on appeal. Anderson v. Mennie, 144 M 105, 394 P 2d 853, 854.

Notice of Appeal

Where appellant sought to amend notice of appeal from a nonappealable order so as to make it an appeal from final judgment, the supreme court acquired no jurisdiction to allow such amendment when the statutory provisions for time and manner of appeal were not complied with. Payne v. Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Co., 142 M 406, 385 P 2d 100.

Rule 10. Transmission of the record.

(a) TIME FOR TRANSMISSION—NUMBER OF COPIES OF TRANSCRIPT—DUTY OF APPELLANT. The record on appeal, including the transcript necessary for the determination of the appeal, shall be transmitted to the supreme court within 40 days after the filing of the notice of appeal unless the time is shortened or extended by an order entered under subdivision (c) of this rule. Six copies of each transcript must be lodged with the clerk of this court for filing. Promptly after filing the notice of appeal the appellant shall comply with the provisions of Rule 9(b) and shall take any other action necessary to enable the clerk to assemble and transmit the record. If more than one appeal is filed, each appellant shall comply with the provisions of Rule 9(b) and this subdivision, and a single record shall be transmitted within 40 days after the filing of the final notice of appeal.

(b) DUTY OF CLERK TO TRANSMIT THE RECORD. When the record is complete for purposes of the appeal, the clerk of the district court shall transmit it to the clerk of the supreme court. The clerk shall number the documents comprising the record and shall transmit with the record a numbered list of the documents, identifying each with reasonable definiteness. Documents in bulky containers and physical exhibits other than documents shall not be transmitted by the clerk unless he is directed to do so by a party or by the clerk of the supreme court. A party must make advance arrangements with the clerk of the district court for the transportation of bulky or weighty exhibits and with the clerk of the supreme court for their receipt. Transmission of the record is effected when the clerk of the district court mails or otherwise forwards the record to the supreme court. The clerk of the district court shall indicate, by endorsement on the face of the record or otherwise, the date upon which it is transmitted to the supreme court.

(c) EXTENSION OF TIME FOR TRANSMISSION OF THE RECORD—REDUCTION OF TIME. The district court may extend the time for transmitting the record. The request for extension must be made within the time originally prescribed or within an extension previously granted, and the district court shall not extend the time to a day more than 90 days from the date of filing of the first notice of appeal. If the district court is without authority to grant the relief sought or has denied a request therefor, the supreme court may on motion extend the time for transmitting the record or may permit the record to be transmitted and filed after the expiration of the time allowed or fixed. A motion for an extension of time for transmitting the record made in either court shall show that the inability of the appellant to cause timely transmission of the record is due to causes beyond his control or to circumstances which may be deemed excusable neglect. If a request for an extension of time for transmitting the record has been previously denied, the motion shall set forth the denial and shall state the reasons therefor, if any were given.

The district court or the supreme court may require the record to be transmitted and the appeal to be docketed at any time within the time otherwise fixed or allowed therefor.

(d) RETENTION OF THE RECORD IN THE DISTRICT COURT BY ORDER OF COURT. The supreme court may provide by rule or order that a certified copy of the docket entries shall be transmitted in lieu of the entire record, subject to the right of any party to request at any time during the pendency of the appeal that designated parts of the record be transmitted.

If the record is required in the district court for use there pending the appeal, the district court may make an order to that effect, and the clerk of the district court shall retain the record and shall transmit a copy of the order and of the docket entries together with such parts of the original record as the district court shall allow and copies of such parts as the parties may designate.

If the record is retained in the district court by order of either court, the clerk of the district court shall retain it subject to the order of the supreme court, and transmission of the copy of the docket entries shall constitute transmission of the record.

(e) STIPULATION OF PARTIES THAT PARTS OF THE RECORD BE RETAINED IN THE DISTRICT COURT. The parties may agree by written stipulation filed in the district court that designated parts of the record shall be retained in the district court unless thereafter the supreme court shall order or any party shall request their transmittal. The parts thus designated shall nevertheless be a part of the record on appeal for all purposes.

(f) RECORD FOR PRELIMINARY HEARING IN THE SUPREME COURT. If prior to the time the record is transmitted a party desires to make in the supreme court a motion for dismissal, for a stay pending appeal, for additional security on the undertaking on appeal or on a supersedeas bond, or for any intermediate order, the clerk of the district court at the request of any party shall transmit to the supreme court such parts of the original record as the party shall designate.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is taken from Rule 11 of the Federal Draft.

Subdivision (a). This subdivision fixes the time for transmission rather than for filing at 40 days after the filing of the notice of appeal, thus enabling the parties to know with certainty precisely when the complete record must be transmitted to the supreme court. The only justification for delay between filing the notice of appeal and the transmission of the record to the supreme court is the time required for securing a transcription of the trial proceedings. If the appellant is prevented from securing the necessary transcript within the 40-day period by circumstances beyond his control, he may seek an extension of time for transmitting the record.

The requirement that the appellant take any other action necessary to enable the clerk to assemble and transmit the record emphasizes the primary responsibility of the appellant for effecting timely transmission of the record. His responsibilities include, for example, the payment of any required fee or charge.

Subdivision (b). The appellant is allowed 40 days between the filing of the notice of appeal and the transmission of the record in order to allow him to secure the necessary transcript. If the transcript is available sooner, the allowance is unnecessary, and either party may oblige the clerk of the district court to transmit the record forthwith. On the other hand, unless the record contains the necessary transcript, the clerk is not to transmit it.

Subdivision (c). Cause for extension of the time by either the district or the supreme court must be shown. The final sentence permits any party to expedite the appeal in cases in which the record is complete by obtaining an order that the record be transmitted and the appeal docketed at a date earlier than otherwise allowed or fixed.

Subdivision (d). This subdivision permits the record to be retained in the district court by order of the supreme court, or order of the district court subject to the order of the supreme court. Especially in cases where the judgment or order does not dispose of the entire litigation, retention of the record in the district court may be a convenience for counsel and the district court. In some cases there may be no need for the transmission of the record, and the labor and expense of transmission may be saved.

Subdivision (e). This subdivision permits parties to stipulate against transmission of designated parts of the record free from the fear that a mistake may substantially affect the scope of the appeal. The final sentence makes it clear that a stipulation that designated parts of the record not be transmitted in no way diminishes the record itself. In effect, a party may at any time revoke his stipulation against transmission of parts of the record.

Subdivision (f). The substance of this subdivision was taken from Fed. R. Civ. P., Rule 75(j).

Dismissal of Appeal

Appeal was dismissed where appellants had not transmitted any part of the record on appeal within the time required by subdivision (a) of this rule, had not applied for an extension of time, had not requested parts of the transcript from the district court clerk within the time allowed, had not requested preparation of any part of the record on appeal, had not paid for copies of documents requested or portions of the transcript prepared, had not docketed the appeal or paid the docket fee, and had failed, within the time allowed by the chief justice, to replace counsel desiring to withdraw with good cause. Larry C. Iverson, Inc. v. United Bank of Pueblo, 158 M 223, 490 P 2d 352.

Rule 11. Docketing the appeal—Filing of the record.

(a) DOCKETING THE APPEAL. Within the time allowed or fixed for transmission of the record, the appellant shall pay to the clerk of the supreme court the fee for filing the record on appeal fixed by section 82-503 of the 1947 Revised Codes of Montana, and the clerk shall thereupon enter the appeal upon the docket. If an appellant is authorized to prosecute the appeal without prepayment of fees, the clerk shall enter the appeal upon the docket at or before the time of filing the record. An appeal shall be docketed under the title given to the action in the district court with such addition as is necessary to indicate the identity of the appellant.

(b) FILING OF THE RECORD. Upon receipt of the record by the clerk of the supreme court following its timely transmittal, and after the appeal has been timely docketed, the clerk shall file the record. The clerk shall immediately give notice to all parties of the date on which the record was filed.

(c) DISMISSAL FOR FAILURE OF APPELLANT TO CAUSE TIMELY TRANSMISSION OR TO DOCKET APPEAL. If the appellant shall fail to cause timely transmission of the record or to pay the filing fee if a filing fee is required, any respondent may file a motion in the supreme court to dismiss the appeal. The motion shall be supported by a certificate of the clerk of the district court showing the date and substance of the judgment or order from which the appeal was taken, the date on which the notice of appeal was filed, and the expiration date of any order extending the time for transmitting the record; and by proof that 7 days' notice in writing has been served on the appellant that application will be made for dismissal of the appeal. The clerk shall docket the appeal for the purpose of permitting the court to entertain the motion, without requiring payment of the filing fee, but the appellant shall not be permitted to appear without payment of the fees unless he is otherwise exempt therefrom. Instead of filing a motion to dismiss the appeal, the respondent may cause the record to be transmitted and may docket the appeal, in which event the appeal shall proceed as if the appellant had caused it to be docketed.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned after Rule 12 of the Federal Draft, with adjustments to state practice. The provision of section 82-503 for a fee for filing the "transcript" on appeal will apply to the "record" on appeal pursuant to these rules.

The appellant's responsibility with respect to docketing and filing are specified. The appellant may pay the filing fee at any time after filing the notice of appeal, and it is then the duty of the clerk of the supreme court to enter the appeal on the docket. The appellant's responsibility is (1) to pay the filing fee at or before the time allowed or fixed for transmission of the record, and (2) to insure that the record is transmitted to the supreme court within the time allowed or fixed for its transmission. The clerk of the supreme court is directed to assign to cases on appeal the title which was used in the district court in the interest of facilitating future reference and citation and location of cases in indexes.

Dismissal of Appeal

Appeal was dismissed where appellants had failed to docket the appeal or pay the docket fee, had not requested parts of the transcript within the time allowed, had not requested preparation of any part of the record on appeal, had not paid for copies of documents requested or portions of the transcript prepared, had not transmitted any part of the record on appeal to the supreme court, and had not, within the time allowed by the chief justice, replaced counsel desiring to withdraw for good cause. Larry C. Iverson, Inc. v. United Bank of Pueblo, 158 M 223, 490 P 2d 352.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Notice of Appeal

Where appellant sought to amend notice of appeal from a nonappealable order so as to make it an appeal from final judgment, the supreme court acquired no jurisdiction to allow such amendment when the statutory provisions for time and manner of appeal were not complied with. Payne v. Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Co., 142 M 406, 385 P 2d 100.

Rule 12. Effect of dismissal.

The dismissal of an appeal is in effect an affirmance of the judgment or order appealed from, unless the dismissal is expressly made without prejudice to another appeal.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule incorporates R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8020.

Rule 13. Acts of executors, administrators or guardians valid when appointment vacated.

When the judgment or order appointing an executor, or administrator, or guardian is reversed on appeal, for error, and not for want of jurisdiction of the court, all lawful acts in administration upon the estate performed by such executor, or administrator, or guardian, if he have qualified, are as valid as if such judgment or order had been affirmed.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule incorporates R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8016.

Rule 14. Ruling against respondent may be reviewed.

Whenever the record on appeal shall contain any order, ruling, or proceeding of the trial court against the respondent, affecting his substantial rights on the appeal of said cause, together with any required objection or exception of such respondent, the supreme court on such appeal shall consider such orders, rulings, or proceedings, and the objections and exceptions thereto, and shall reverse or affirm the cause on said appeal according to the substantial rights of the respective parties, as shown upon the record. And no cause shall be reversed upon appeal by reason of any error committed by the trial court against the appellant, where the record shows that the same result would have been attained had such trial court not committed an error or errors against the respondent.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule incorporates R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8023, but eliminates references to bills of exceptions and statements of the case properly settled because these rules nowhere provide for such bills and statements.

Rule 15. Remedial powers of the supreme court.

When the judgment or order is reversed or modified, the supreme court may make complete restitution of all property and rights lost by the erroneous judgment or order, so far as such restitution is consistent with protection of a purchaser of property at a sale ordered by the judgment, or had under process issued upon the judgment, on an appeal from which the proceedings were not stayed; and for relief in such cases the appellant may have his action against the respondent, enforcing the judgment for the proceeds of the sale of the property, after deducting therefrom the expenses of the sale.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule incorporates R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8024, substituting "supreme court" for "appellate court" and eliminating the provision for damages when the appeal is made for delay. Rule 32 covers the matter of damages.

Rule 16. Remittitur must be certified to the clerk of the district court.

When judgment is rendered upon the appeal, it must be certified by the clerk of the supreme court to the clerk of the district court from which the appeal is taken. The clerk of the district court must enter at length in the records of the court the certificate received. Also, in cases of appeal from a judgment, the clerk must enter a minute of the judgment of the supreme court on the docket against the original entry; and in cases of appeal from an order, he must enter a minute against the entry of the order appealed from, containing a reference to the certificate, with a brief statement that such order has been affirmed, reversed, or modified by the supreme court on appeal.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule incorporates the substance of R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8025, but eliminates references to the judgment roll, which is nowhere provided for in these rules.

III. ORIGINAL PROCEEDINGS—EXTRAORDINARY WRITS

Rule 17. Acceptance and manner of conducting.

Rule 17. Acceptance and manner of conducting.

(a) WHEN ACCEPTED. The supreme court is an appellate court but it is empowered by the constitution of Montana to hear and determine such original and remedial writs as may be necessary or proper to the complete exercise of its jurisdiction. The institution of such original proceedings in the supreme court is sometimes justified by circumstances of an emergency nature, as when a cause of action or a right has arisen under conditions making due consideration in the trial courts and due appeal to this court an inadequate remedy, or when supervision of a trial court other than by appeal is deemed necessary or proper.

(b) HOW COMMENCED AND CONDUCTED. Proceedings commenced in the supreme court originally to obtain writs of habeas corpus, injunction, review, mandate, quo warranto, supervisory control, and other remedial writs or orders, shall be commenced and conducted in the manner prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure for the conduct of such or analogous proceedings and by these additional rules. All papers filed shall conform to the requirements of Rule 27, except typewritten applications, briefs, copies of exhibits and the like may be used without securing permission of the chief justice as required by Rule 27(a). The provisions of Rule 27(b) shall be observed.

(c) APPLICATIONS—WHEN FILED. The moving party's application shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court one hour prior to its presentation to the court.

(d) APPLICATIONS—WHAT TO CONTAIN. The application for the issuance of any of the above writs or orders must set forth, in addition to the other requisite matters, the particular questions and issues anticipated or expected to be raised in the proceeding, and also the fact which renders it necessary and proper that the writ should issue originally from the supreme court; the said matters will be taken into consideration by the court in determining the necessity and propriety of accepting jurisdiction and granting the alternative writ or order to show cause. Each application shall also set forth as exhibits, without repetition of title of court and cause, a copy of each judgment, order, notice, pleading, document, proceeding or court minute referred to in the application, or necessary to make out a prima facie case or to substantiate the pleading or conclusion or legal effect. A memorandum of authorities must be filed with the application. On original applications counsel shall file with the clerk of this court the original court file, with the original application, unless for some reason the same is not available.

(e) APPLICATIONS—HOW AND WHEN PRESENTED. The supreme court will receive and hear original applications in open court on any day when the court is in session; but at least an hour's prior notice of such presentation shall be given by counsel to the chief justice or acting chief justice. Not over fifteen minutes shall be allowed for the presentation of any such application unless on prior request further time is granted.

(f) ISSUANCE OF ALTERNATIVE WRIT OR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE. This court will, as promptly as possible after the presentation of an application, either dismiss the same, issue an alternative writ, order to show cause, or such other remedial writ or order as it deems expedient.

(g) BRIEFS. At or before the time set for final hearing, each party shall serve and file his brief in full conformance with Rules 20, 23 and 27, and containing a statement of the facts and of the points of law applicable, with the authorities relied upon.

(h) HEARING—WHEN HAD. Unless otherwise ordered the hearing shall be had at the time fixed for the return. At or prior to said return time the opposing party shall serve and file, without waiver, any and all pleadings and motions desired to be presented, including answer or return, and all issues shall be argued at the hearing, the applicant opening and closing, and the parties being allowed the same time as upon argument of appeals. If testimony becomes necessary a reference will be ordered.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added to the second sentence of subdivision (b) the clause excepting typewritten papers; added the third sentence to subdivision (b); and added the final sentence to subdivision (d).

Supreme Court Memorandum

In October, 1969, the Supreme Court issued a Memorandum to Counsel, reading as follows:

"In order to facilitate presentation and our consideration of applications prepared in accordance with Rule 17(d), M. R. App. Civ. P. for an original or remedial writ, in addition to the requirements of the rule, counsel should, if at all possible, bring to this Court the original district court file, together with transcript of any hearing, if the same has been reduced to writing, that has been had involving the matter sought to be inquired into.

"Compliance with this request will be appreciated."

See final sentence of subdivision (d) added by 1971 amendment.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule incorporates Montana Supreme Court Rule IV, with changes in subdivisions (e) and (f) designed to recognize that on original applications the court is not limited to the issuance of alternative writs or orders to show cause, but may issue whatever remedial writ or order it deems expedient.

Alternative Writs

State highway commission, ordered by district court to produce certain appraisals under discovery rules, was entitled to have order reviewed on allegations that order required production of irrelevant and privileged matter in excess of lower court's jurisdiction, that it was not an appealable order and that commission had no remedy at law, which allegations were sufficient to authorize issuance of alternative writ. State Highway Commission v. District Court, First Judicial District, 149 M 384, 427 P 2d 49.

Declaratory Judgment

Minimum Wage Act was of such importance to all citizens of state and of such nature as to justify original proceeding in supreme court for declaratory judgment as to constitutionality and as to application to firemen and policemen. City of Billings v. Smith, 158 M 197, 490 P 2d 221.

Injunction

Supreme court declined jurisdiction in original proceeding seeking injunction restraining defendant school districts from collecting certain fees and levies and requiring students to purchase certain material because no emergency existed, class action could be established in district court and thorough examination into multiple problems presented could not have been achieved. State ex rel. Thompson v. Elementary School Dist. No. 16, Hill County, 156 M 79, 474 P 2d 700.

Needless Litigation Prevented

Writ of supervisory control was proper where district court orders requiring state highway commission to quiet title against all possible lien holders of land subject to condemnation and to use valuation date more than three years beyond the alleged proper date were not appealable until after final judgment and this would result in extended and needless litigation if district court was wrong. State Highway Commission v. District Court, — M —, 499 P 2d 1228.

Writ of Supervisory Control

Writ of supervisory control to compel dismissal of removal petition that could not be granted even if the facts alleged were proved was a necessary and proper supervision of district court. State ex rel. Arnot v. District Court of First Judicial District In and For County of Lewis and Clark, 155 M 344, 472 P 2d 302.

State ex rel. Buttrey Foods, Inc. v. District Court, 148 M 350, 420 P 2d 845, 847.

IV. APPEALS IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Rule 18. Applications and manner of proceeding.

Rule 18. Applications and manner of proceeding.

(a) APPLICATION TO DISTRICT COURT. A party who desires to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis shall file in the district court a motion for leave so to proceed together with an affidavit showing, in the detail prescribed by Form 2 of the Appendix of Forms, his inability to pay the fees and costs of the appeal or to give security therefor, his belief that he is entitled to redress, and a statement of the issues he intends to present on appeal. If the motion is granted, the party may proceed on appeal without further application to the supreme court and without payment of fees or costs or the giving of security therefor. If the motion is denied, the district court shall state the reasons for the denial.

(b) APPLICATION TO THE SUPREME COURT. If the motion for leave to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis is denied by the district court, a motion for leave so to proceed may be filed in the supreme court within 30 days after entry of the order of denial. The motion shall be accompanied by a copy of the affidavit filed in the district court and of the statement of reasons for denial given by the district court.

(c) FORM OF BRIEFS, APPENDICES AND OTHER PAPERS. Parties allowed to proceed in forma pauperis may file briefs, appendices and other papers in typewritten form.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned after Rule 23 of the Federal Draft, but omits the last clause of the Federal Draft reading "and may request that the appeal be heard on the original record without an 'appendix'." This change is made because these rules do not adopt the appendix system of Rule 30 of the Federal Draft. See Rule 25. This rule is believed to be consistent with R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8625.

Rule 19. Record of commissions and oaths.

(a) COMMISSIONS AND OATHS. The commissions and oaths of the justices and the clerk of this court, and the attorney general shall be recorded in the records of this court.

(b) MINUTES OF COURT. The minutes of this court shall be approved by the chief justice (or in his absence by the associate justice having the shortest term to serve), and attested by the clerk.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule incorporates Montana Supreme Court Rule I.

Rule 20. Filing and service.

(a) FILING. Papers required or permitted to be filed must be placed in the custody of the clerk within the time fixed for filing. Filing may be accomplished by mail addressed to the clerk, but filing shall not be timely unless the papers are actually received within the time fixed for filing. If a motion requests relief which may be granted by a single judge, the judge may permit the motion to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the dates of filing and shall thereafter transmit it to the clerk.

(b) SERVICE OF ALL PAPERS REQUIRED. Copies of all papers, including any transcript, filed by any party and not required by these rules to be served by the clerk shall, at or before the time of filing, be served by the party or person acting for him on all other parties to the appeal or review. Service on a party represented by counsel shall be made on counsel.

(c) MANNER OF SERVICE. Service may be personal or by mail. Personal service includes delivery of the copy to a clerk or other responsible person at the office of counsel. Service by mail is complete on mailing.

(d) PROOF OF SERVICE. Papers presented for filing shall contain acknowledgment of service by the person served or proof of service in the form of a statement of the date and manner of service and of the names of the persons served, certified by the person who made service. Proof of service may appear on or be affixed to the papers filed. The clerk may permit papers to be filed without acknowledgment of proof of service but shall require such to be filed promptly thereafter.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is taken from Rule 25 of the Federal Draft, but the phrase "including any transcript" has been added to subdivision (b) to make it clear that copies of any transcript are to be served on all parties. The first paragraph of Montana Supreme Court Rule III is superseded.

Rule 21. Computation and extension of time.

(a) COMPUTATION OF TIME. In computing any period of time prescribed by these rules, by an order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 7 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation.

(b) EXTENSION OF TIME. The court for good cause shown may upon motion extend the time prescribed by these rules or by its order for doing any act, and may thereby permit an act to be done after the expiration of such time if the failure to act was excusable under the circumstances; but the court may not extend the time for filing a notice of appeal, except as provided in Rule 5.

(c) ADDITIONAL TIME AFTER SERVICE BY MAIL. Whenever a party is required or permitted to do any act within a prescribed period after service of a paper upon him and the paper is served by mail, 3 days shall be added to the prescribed period.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned after Rule 26 of the Federal Draft. There are omitted provisions of the Federal Draft with respect to petitions for allowance, applications for permission to appeal, appeals from advisory agencies, and a definition of "legal holiday." A definition of "legal holiday" is contained in R. C. M. 1947, section 19-107.

It is believed that these provisions are consistent with R. C. M. 1947, section 90-407.

Rule 22. Motions.

Unless another form is prescribed by these rules, an application for an order or other relief shall be made by filing a motion in writing for such order or relief. The motion shall state with particularity the grounds therefor and shall set forth the order or relief sought. If a motion is supported by briefs, affidavits or other papers, they shall be served and filed with the motion. Motions for procedural orders may be determined ex parte. The supreme court may authorize disposition of motions for procedural orders by a single judge. If a motion seeks dismissal of the appeal or other substantial relief, any party may file an answer in opposition within 7 days after service of the motion, or within such time as the court may direct. Motions, supporting papers and any response thereto may be typewritten.

At the time of filing a motion counsel shall present a proposed order, together with sufficient copies for service upon all counsel of record.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule supersedes Montana Supreme Court Rule XI. It is patterned after Rule 27 of the Federal Draft, but the last sentence of the Federal Draft requiring the filing of three copies of motions and supporting papers has been omitted. Also, there has been added as a last paragraph the amendment of the Montana Supreme Court Rule XI, effective January 1, 1965.

Rule 23. Briefs.

(a) BRIEF OF THE APPELLANT. The brief of the appellant shall contain under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated:

(1) A table of contents, with page references, and a table of cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes and other authorities cited, with references to the pages of the brief where they are cited.

(2) A statement of the issues presented for review.

(3) A statement of the case. The statement shall first indicate briefly the nature of the case and its disposition in the court below, e.g.: "The plaintiff brought this action in the district court to recover damages for the wrongful death of her husband. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff. On motion of the defendant the trial judge entered judgment for the defendant n. o. v. on the ground that there was no evidence to support a finding of negligence on the part of the defendant. From this judgment the plaintiff appeals."

There shall follow a statement of the facts relevant to the issues presented for review, with references to the pages of the parts of the record at which material facts appear (see subdivision (e)).

(4) An argument. The argument may be preceded by a summary. The argument shall contain the contentions of the appellant with respect to the issues presented, and the reasons therefor, with citations to the authorities, statutes and pages of the record relied on.

(5) A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(b) BRIEF OF THE RESPONDENT. The brief of the respondent shall conform to the requirements of subdivision (a) (1) to (4), except that a statement of the issues or of the case need not be made unless the respondent is dissatisfied with the statement of the appellant.

(c) REPLY BRIEF. The appellant may file a brief in reply to the brief of the respondent. The reply brief must be confined to new matter raised in the brief of the respondent. No further briefs may be filed except with leave of court.

(d) REFERENCES IN BRIEFS TO PARTIES. Counsel will be expected in their briefs and oral arguments to keep to a minimum references to parties by such formal designations as "appellant" and "respondent." It promotes clarity to use names or descriptive terms such as "the employee," "the injured person," "the taxpayer," etc.

(e) REFERENCES IN BRIEFS TO THE RECORD. Whenever a reference is made in the briefs to the record, the reference must be to particular parts of the record, suitably designated, and to specific pages of each part, e. g., Answer, p. 7; Motion for Summary Judgment, p. 3; Transcript, p. 231. Intelligible abbreviations may be used. If reference is made to an exhibit, reference shall be made to the pages of the transcript on which the exhibit was identified, offered, and received or rejected.

(f) REPRODUCTION OF STATUTES, RULES, REGULATIONS, ETC. If determination of the issues presented requires the study of statutes, rules, regulations, etc., or relevant parts thereof, they may be reproduced in the brief or in an addendum at the end, or they may be supplied to the court in pamphlet form. No such reproduction is required, unless ordered by the supreme court. When the error alleged is to the charge of the court, the brief of the parties shall set out with appropriate transcript references the part referred to totidem verbis, whether it be directed to instructions given or instructions refused.

(g) LENGTH OF BRIEFS AND COSTS. Except by permission of the court briefs shall not exceed 50 pages of standard typographic printing or 70 pages of printing by any other process of duplicating or copying, exclusive of pages containing the table of contents, tables of citations and any addendum containing statutes, rules, regulations, etc. For purposes of assessing costs under R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8606, reasonable costs shall be limited as follows: For appellant's brief fifty (50) pages; for respondent's brief forty (40) pages; for reply brief fifteen (15) pages. In addition, reasonable costs for briefs shall be limited to $250 for appellant's brief and $200 for respondent's brief.

(h) BRIEFS IN CASES INVOLVING CROSS APPEALS. If a cross appeal is filed, the plaintiff in the court below shall be deemed the appellant for the purposes of this rule and Rules 25 and 26, unless the parties otherwise agree or the court otherwise orders. The brief of the respondent shall contain the issues and argument involved in his appeal as well as the answer to the brief of the appellant.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-10, Oct. 22, 1971, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added the third sentence to subdivision (f).

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned after Rule 28 of the Federal Draft, adjusted to state practice. The second paragraph of subdivision (e) of the Federal Draft is omitted, since these rules do not adopt the "appendix" system of Rule 30 of the Federal Draft. See Rule 25.

Also, in the Federal Draft, subdivision (f) requires reproduction of statutes, rules, regulations, etc. This has been changed, so that reproduction is permissive, unless ordered by the supreme court.

Rule 24. Brief of an amicus curiae.

A brief of an amicus curiae may be filed only if accompanied by written consent of all parties, or by leave of court granted on motion. A motion for leave shall identify the interest of the applicant and shall state the reasons why a brief of an amicus curiae is desirable. A motion of an amicus curiae for leave to participate in the oral argument will be granted only for extraordinary reasons.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is taken from Rule 29 of the Federal Draft. It follows the practice of a majority of federal circuits in requiring leave of court to file an amicus brief unless the litigants consent to its filing.

Rule 25. The appendix to the briefs.

(a) USE OF AN APPENDIX. At any time before final decision, the supreme court may order an appendix to any brief. Also, either the appellant or respondent may, if he deems it desirable, prepare, file and serve with his brief an appendix.

(b) CONTENTS OF THE APPENDIX. Unless otherwise ordered by the supreme court, an appendix shall contain: (1) the relevant docket entries in the proceeding below; (2) any relevant pleading and relevant portions of the charge, finding and opinion; (3) the judgment, order or decision in question; and (4) such other parts of the record as any party deems it essential for the judges of the court to read in order to decide the issues presented. In designating parts of the record for inclusion in the appendix, the parties shall have regard for the fact that the entire record is always available to the court for reference or examination and shall not engage in unnecessary designation.

(c) ARRANGEMENT OF THE APPENDIX. At the beginning of the appendix there shall appear a chronological list of the parts of the record which it contains. Each part of the record shall be listed by the descriptive title given to that part by the reference made to it in the briefs. The page or pages of the appendix at which each part of the record thus listed appears shall be set out opposite each listing in a column at the right, so as to permit immediate location in the appendix of the parts of the record referred to in the briefs and contained in the appendix.

The relevant docket entries in the proceeding below shall follow the list of contents. Thereafter, the parts of the record shall be set out in chronological order. The original paging of each part of the record set out in the appendix shall be indicated by placing in brackets the number of the original page at the place where that page begins. Omissions in the text of papers or of testimony must be indicated by asterisks. A question and its answer may be contained in a single paragraph.

(d) REPRODUCTION OF EXHIBITS. Exhibits may be contained in a separate volume, suitably indexed.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

Rules 30 and 31 of the Federal Draft, require post-brief appendices, unless dispensed with by court rule or order. The rule does not follow the Federal Draft at this point. Rather, under this rule the supreme court may order an appendix, or either party may if he chooses use an appendix. When an appendix is used it is to be filed and served with the brief.

Rule 26. Filing and service of briefs.

(a) TIME FOR FILING BRIEFS. The appellant shall serve and file his brief within 30 days after the date on which the record is filed. The respondent shall serve and file his brief within 30 days after service of the brief of the appellant. The appellant may serve and file a reply brief within 14 days after service of the brief of the respondent, but, except for good cause shown, a reply brief must be served and filed at least 3 days before argument.

(b) NUMBER OF COPIES TO BE FILED AND SERVED. Ten copies of each brief shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court unless otherwise ordered by the court, and one copy of each brief shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented. The clerk will not accept a brief for filing unless it is accompanied by acknowledgment or proof of service as required by Rule 20.

(c) CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO FILE BRIEFS. If an appellant fails to file his brief within the time provided by this rule, or within the time extended, a respondent may move for dismissal of the appeal. If a respondent fails to file his brief, he will not be heard at oral argument except by permission of the court.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned after Rule 31 of the Federal Draft.

Subdivision (a) follows the time fixed for filing of briefs provided in the Federal Draft, and that is the time now allowed by a majority of the federal circuits.

Subdivision (b) of the Federal Draft is omitted, since it provides a post-brief time for filing the appendix. Under Rule 25 an appendix must be filed and served with the brief, unless otherwise ordered by the supreme court.

Subdivision (b) of this rule is patterned after subdivision (c) of the Federal Draft. The number of copies to be filed and served, however, are adjusted to fit state practice and the present requirement of Montana Supreme Court Rule II.

Subdivision (c) of this rule follows subdivision (d) of Rule 31 of the Federal Draft.

Rule 27. Form of briefs, the appendix, motions and other papers.

(a) FORM OF BRIEFS, APPENDICES AND SEPARATE VOLUMES OF EXHIBITS. Briefs, appendices and separate volumes of exhibits may be produced by standard typographic printing or by any duplicating or copying process capable of producing a clear black image on white paper. Typewritten copies of briefs, appendices and separate volumes of exhibits may not be submitted without permission of the chief justice of the supreme court, except in behalf of parties allowed to proceed in forma pauperis. Pica solid is the smallest letter and the most compact form of composition allowed for all printed matter. Briefs, appendices and separate volumes of exhibits shall be on white uncalendered book paper in book or booklet form. If produced by the standard typographic printing process, the pages shall be ten inches long and seven inches wide, with a margin on the outer edge not less than one inch wide and on the inner edge not less than two inches wide. If produced by a duplicating or copying process, the pages shall be eleven inches long and eight and one-half inches wide, with a margin on the outer edge not less than one inch wide and on the inner edge not less than two inches wide. The pages shall be fastened at the side and numbered at the top.

(b) TYPEWRITTEN PAPERS AND MOTIONS. Papers not required to be produced in a manner prescribed by subdivision (a) of this rule shall be plainly and legibly written by a typewriter with a new black ribbon and new black carbon paper of good grade, in double spacing, except that quotations may be single spaced, on one side only of white typewriter paper, eight and one-half inches wide and thirteen inches long, numbered at the bottom, with a ruled margin of one and one-half inches on the left-hand side of the page and one inch on the right-hand side, and numbered lines, not more than thirty-two lines to the page. The pages shall be bound at the left-hand side into volumes not containing more than two hundred fifty pages; provided, however, that if the pages number fifty or less they may be bound at the top.

In collating typewritten papers the copies shall not be mixed, but each copy shall consist throughout of uniform pages. Each page of every copy shall be opaque and each line of print thereon plainly legible. The difficulty of examining transparent, illegible and nonuniform typewritten copies has become so great that this rule will be strictly applied and papers not complying with it will not be received.

(c) FIRST PAGE AND COVER. All papers shall be bound in cardboard or pasteboard covers, unless bound at the top under subdivision (b) of this rule, in which case they may be bound in cover paper. On the first page and cover of all papers must be stated the title of this court, the title of the case as in the court below, adding to the words "Plaintiff" and "Defendant," the words "Appellant" and "Respondent" as the case may require, the names of counsel for appellant and respondent, the title of the papers, as "Appellant's Brief," "Appendix to Appellant's Brief," etc., and the venue from which the appeal is taken.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

Rule 32 of the Federal Draft is adjusted to conform to the paper and forms prescribed for state practice and Montana Supreme Court Rule II, as amended effective January 1, 1965. The provisions requiring the use of pica type and two typewritten originals are stricken as being obsolete or unnecessary.

Rule 28. Prehearing conference.

The court may direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before the court or a judge thereof for a prehearing conference to consider the simplification of the issues and such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the proceedings by the court. The court or judge shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered and which limits the issue to those not disposed of by admission or agreements of counsel, and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the proceedings, unless modified to prevent manifest injustice.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is taken from Rule 33 of the Federal Draft.

Rule 29. Oral argument.

(a) NOTICE OF HEARING—POSTPONEMENT. The clerk shall advise all parties of the time and place at which oral argument will be heard. A request for postponement of the hearing must be made by motion filed reasonably in advance of the date fixed for hearing.

(b) TIME ALLOWED FOR ARGUMENT. Upon oral argument of an appeal or original proceeding, 40 minutes will be allowed appellant or applicant and 30 minutes to respondent. If counsel is of the opinion that additional time is necessary for the adequate presentation of his argument, he may request such additional time as he deems necessary by motion filed reasonably in advance of the date fixed for hearing. A party is not obliged to use all of the time allowed, and the court may terminate the argument whenever in its judgment further argument is unnecessary.

(c) ORDER AND CONTENT OF ARGUMENT. The appellant or applicant is entitled to open and conclude the argument. The opening argument shall include a fair statement of the case, and the closing argument shall be limited to rebuttal of respondent's argument. Counsel will not be permitted to read at length from briefs, records or authorities.

(d) CROSS AND SEPARATE APPEALS. A cross or separate appeal shall be argued with the initial appeal at a single hearing, unless the court otherwise directs. If a case involves a cross appeal, the plaintiff in the action below shall be deemed the appellant for the purpose of this rule unless the parties otherwise agree or the court otherwise directs. If separate appellants support the same argument, care shall be taken to avoid duplication of argument at the hearing.

(e) NONAPPEARANCE OF COUNSEL—FAILURE TO FILE BRIEFS. If counsel for a party fails to appear to present argument, the court may hear argument on behalf of a party whose counsel is present, and the case will be decided on the briefs and the argument heard. If no counsel appear for any party, the case will be decided on the briefs unless the court shall otherwise order.

(f) SUBMISSION ON BRIEFS. By agreement of the parties, a case may be submitted for decision on the briefs, but the court may direct that the case be argued.

(g) USE OF PHYSICAL EXHIBITS AT HEARING—REMOVAL. If physical exhibits other than documents are to be used at the hearing, counsel shall arrange to have them placed in the courtroom before the court convenes on the date of the hearing. After the hearing counsel shall cause the exhibits to be removed from the courtroom unless the court otherwise directs. If exhibits are not reclaimed by counsel within a reasonable time after notice is given by the clerk, they shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the clerk shall think best.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned after Rule 34 of the Federal Draft, but the time provisions are more liberal than those of the Federal Draft which allows 30 minutes to each side. It is intended that the time be afforded to opposing interests rather than to individual parties, as is true under the Federal Draft. Thus, if there are multiple appellants they have together but 40 minutes, and multiple respondents have a total of 30 minutes. The 40 minutes for the appellant or applicant may be divided between the opening and closing statement, as the appellant or applicant chooses.

In other particulars this rule follows the usual practice among the federal circuits.

Rule 30. Entry and notice of orders and judgments.

(a) ENTRY AND NOTICE. The notation of a judgment or order in the docket constitutes entry thereof. Upon entry of a judgment or order, the clerk shall promptly mail to all parties a copy of the judgment or order, and notice of the date of entry thereof.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned after Rule 36 of the Federal Draft. The purpose is to clarify what constitutes an entry of a judgment or order. The provision for mailing by the clerk is for the convenience of the parties but does not affect the time for taking an appeal, which is controlled by Rule 5. As to the entry of judgments, see M. R. Civ. P., Rule 58.

Rule 31. Interest on judgments.

If a judgment for money in a civil case is affirmed, whatever interest is allowed by law shall be payable from the date the judgment was rendered or made in the district court. If a judgment is modified or reversed with a direction that a judgment for money be entered in the district court, the mandate shall contain instructions with respect to allowance of interest.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

The language of Rule 37 of the Federal Draft is modified to conform to R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8622.

Rule 32. Damages for appeal without merit.

If the supreme court is satisfied from the record and the presentation of the appeal, that the same was taken without substantial or reasonable grounds, but apparently for purposes of delay only, such damages may be assessed on determination thereof as under the circumstances are deemed proper.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

The language of Montana Supreme Court Rule XIX is substituted for that of Rule 38 of the Federal Draft.

Damages Not Allowed

Appellee was not entitled to recover additional damages under this rule where appellant had a reasonable ground for appeal. Larry Larson & Associates v. John R. Daily, Inc., 158 M 231, 490 P 2d 355.

Rule 33. Costs.

(a) COSTS ON APPEAL. Costs on appeal will be taxed as provided by R. C. M. 1947, section 93-8606, and if not otherwise provided by the Court in its decision, will automatically be awarded to the successful party against the other party. All costs on appeal shall be claimed as provided by section 93-8621, R. C. M. 1947.

(b) COSTS OF BRIEFS AND APPENDICES. The cost of printing or otherwise producing briefs and appendices shall be taxable at rates not higher than specified in Rule 23(g).

(c) OTHER COSTS TAXABLE. Costs incurred in the preparation and transmission of the record, the cost of the reporter's transcript, if necessary for the determination of the appeal, the premiums paid for cost of supersedeas bonds or other bonds to preserve rights pending appeal, and the fee for filing notice of appeal shall be taxed in the district court as costs of the appeal in favor of the party entitled to costs under this rule.

(d) COSTS IN ORIGINAL PROCEEDINGS. Costs in original proceedings, including reviews other than by appeal, will be taxed as provided by R. C. M. 1947, sections 93-8602, 93-8603, 93-8604 and 93-8611, and if not otherwise provided by the court in its decision, will be awarded to the successful party against the other party; provided, however, that costs awarded to plaintiff or relator in special proceedings to review inferior court rulings, orders or judgments will ordinarily be assessed against the real party in interest, namely, the party interested in upholding the inferior court's action, rather than against the state, county, municipality, subdivision, judge or justice.

(e) UNNECESSARY COSTS. Whenever it appears that the successful party has caused any redundant, useless or unnecessary matter to be incorporated in the record, briefs, or appendices, whether on appeal or in a special proceeding, he shall not recover as part of his costs so much of the expense as is occasioned thereby.

(f) NOTATION BY CLERK. The clerk of the supreme court shall, in all cases, include in the order of judgment of affirmance, reversal or modification on appeal, or for the issuance of a peremptory writ in an original proceeding, and in the remittitur, peremptory writ or judgment, a clause awarding the costs in accordance with this rule or the special order of this Court, to be recovered after claim and ascertainment or taxation thereof in the manner prescribed by law; and the clerk shall also furnish therewith an itemized statement of such costs as have been paid by him.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-8, Sept. 10, 1968, eff. Jan. 1, 1969.

Amendments

The amendment of September 10, 1968, in subdivision (a), added the last sentence; in subdivision (b), deleted "in the supreme court" after "taxable" and deleted a second sentence reading "A party who desires such costs to be taxed shall state them in a verified bill of costs which he shall file with the clerk, with proof of service, within 14 days after entry of judgment"; in subdivision (c), substituted the present caption for "costs taxable in the District Court[s]"; in subdivision (f), inserted "the" before "costs in accordance", deleted "in the supreme court" before "in accordance" and substituted "by" for "to" before "him."

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is a combination of Rule 39 of the Federal Draft and Montana Supreme Court Rule XVIII. With some adjustment of language, subdivision (a) is taken from the Montana Rule; subdivisions (b) and (c) from the Federal Draft; and subdivisions (d), (e) and (f) from the Montana Rule.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 10, 1968 Amendment

The amendments to Rule 33(a), (b), (c) and (f) are to make it clear that all costs on appeal are claimed in the court below after remittitur and eliminate the former duplication of cost bills in both the supreme court and district court.

Rule 34. Petitions for rehearing.

When, in appeals or special proceedings, it is ordered that remittitur, peremptory writ or judgment issue forthwith, no petition for rehearing will be entertained. In all other cases a petition for rehearing may be filed within 10 days after the decision of the supreme court has been rendered, unless the time is shortened or enlarged by order, and the adverse party shall have 7 days thereafter in which to serve and file his objections thereto. Extensions of time will be granted only upon showing of unusual merit, and in no event in excess of 10 days. A petition for rehearing may be presented upon the following grounds and none other: That some fact, material to the decision, or some question decisive of the case submitted by counsel, was overlooked by the court, or that the decision is in conflict with an express statute or controlling decision to which the attention of the court was not directed. Oral argument in support of the petition will not be permitted. Six copies of the petition and six copies of objections thereto, which may be in typewritten form, shall be filed with the clerk.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966; amd. Sup. Ct. Ord. 10750-7, Sept. 29, 1967, eff. Jan. 1, 1968.

Amendments

The amendment of September 29, 1967 substituted "fact" for "facts" following the colon; deleted a former, next to last sentence reading "No reply to a petition for rehearing will be received unless requested by the court, but a petition for rehearing will not ordinarily be granted in the absence of such a request"; and substituted "and six copies of objections * * * form" for "produced in accordance with Rule 27(a)."

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned in part after Rule 40 of the Federal Draft. However, the first sentence is added from Montana Supreme Court Rule XV, as is the statement of the grounds for the petition and the procedure for serving and filing objections; also the 14 days for filing provided in the Federal Draft has been shortened to conform to state practice, and the number of copies required has been reduced from 25 to 6. The second sentence provides for filing of the petition within 10 days after "the decision of the supreme court has been rendered," rather than after "entry of judgment" as provided by the Federal Draft. The purpose is to avoid uncertainty as to when a judgment has been entered, which might exist under the language of the Federal Draft where the mandate of the supreme court is returned to the district court and there entered.

Advisory Committee's Note to September 29, 1967 Amendment

Source: None.

This amendment would dispense with requests by the court as a condition to filing replies to petitions for rehearing, and would permit petitions and objections thereto to be typewritten in the form prescribed by Rule 27(b).

Rule 35. Notice and copy of decision—Remittitur—Mandate from United States supreme court.

(a) NOTICE AND COPY OF DECISION TO BE FURNISHED. Upon the decision of a cause, notice thereof, together with a copy of the court's written decision, will immediately be mailed to counsel for each party.

(b) REMITTITUR — WHEN ISSUED — WHEN COPY OF OPINION TO ACCOMPANY. Remittitur may, in cases where it is deemed proper, be ordered forthwith; otherwise the same shall be issued promptly upon expiration of time for filing petition for rehearing, or, if such petition is filed, then upon the denial thereof, unless a modification of the decision is made which permits a further petition for rehearing. A copy of the opinion must accompany the remittitur when the judgment or order of the trial court is reversed or modified and the case remanded for further proceedings other than the entry of a final judgment or order terminating the proceedings in the trial court.

(c) MANDATE FROM UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT—PROCEDURE THEREON. Upon receipt by the clerk of the supreme court of Montana of a mandate from the supreme court of the United States in any case at law or in equity theretofore taken from the supreme court of Montana to the supreme court of the United States, it shall be the duty of said clerk forthwith to issue under his hand and the seal of the supreme court of Montana a remittitur to the district court by which the judgment was rendered, commanding such court to take such action in the premises as by the mandate shall be proper, and said remittitur shall also contain therein a recital in haec verba of the said mandate, and all the costs subsequent to the appeal from said district court shall be taxed in such remittitur.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule incorporates Montana Supreme Court Rules XIV, XXI, and XXII.

Rule 36. Voluntary dismissal.

If the parties to an appeal or other proceeding shall sign and file with the clerk an agreement that the proceeding be dismissed, specifying the terms as to payment of costs, and shall pay whatever fees are due, the clerk shall enter the case dismissed, and shall give to each party a copy of the agreement filed; but no mandate or other process shall issue without an order of the court. An appeal may be dismissed on motion of the appellant upon such terms as to costs as may be agreed upon by the parties or fixed by the court. If an appeal has not been docketed the appeal may be dismissed by the court from which the appeal was taken upon the filing in that court of a stipulation for dismissal signed by all parties, or upon motion and notice by the appellant.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is taken from Rule 42 of the Federal Draft.

Rule 37. Substitution of parties.

(a) DEATH OF A PARTY. If a party dies after a notice of appeal is filed or while a proceeding is otherwise pending in the supreme court, the personal representative of the deceased party may be substituted as a party on motion filed by the representative or by any party with the clerk of the supreme court. The motion of a party shall be served upon the representative in accordance with the provisions of Rule 20. If the deceased party has no representative, any party may suggest the death on the record and proceedings shall then be had as the supreme court may direct. If a party against whom an appeal may be taken dies after entry of a judgment or order in the district court but before a notice of appeal is filed, an appellant may proceed as if death had not occurred. After the notice of appeal is filed substitution shall be effected in the supreme court in accordance with this subdivision. If a party entitled to appeal shall die before filing a notice of appeal, the notice of appeal may be filed by his personal representative, or, if he has no personal representative, by his attorney of record within the time prescribed by these rules. After the notice of appeal is filed substitution shall be effected in the supreme court in accordance with this subdivision.

(b) SUBSTITUTION FOR OTHER CAUSES. If substitution of a party in the supreme court is necessary for any reason other than death, substitution shall be effected in accordance with the procedure prescribed in subdivision (a).

(c) PUBLIC OFFICERS—DEATH OR SEPARATION FROM OFFICE.

(1) When a public officer is a party to an appeal or other proceeding in the supreme court in his official capacity and during its pendency dies, resigns or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate and his successor is automatically substituted as a party. Proceedings following the substitution shall be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer not affecting the substantial rights of the parties shall be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but the omission to enter such an order shall not affect the substitution.

(2) When a public officer is a party to an appeal or other proceeding he may be described as a party by his official title rather than by name; but the court may require his name to be added.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is taken from Rule 43 of the Federal Draft.

Rule 38. Cases involving constitutional questions where the state is not a party.

It shall be the duty of counsel who challenges the constitutionality of any act of the Montana legislature in any suit or proceeding in the supreme court to which the state of Montana, or any agency thereof, or any officer or employee thereof, as such officer or employee, is not a party, upon the filing of the record to give immediate notice in writing to the court of the existence of said question, specifying the section of the Code or the chapter of the session law to be construed. The clerk shall thereupon certify such fact to the attorney general of the state of Montana.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule is patterned after Rule 44 of the Federal Draft.

Rule 39. Calendar—Withdrawal of records.

(a) PLACING CAUSES UPON CALENDAR. Thirty days after the appellant's brief has been filed, the cause shall be placed on the calendar as ready for oral argument.

(b) SETTING CAUSES FOR ARGUMENT. As often as found convenient, causes on the calendar will be set for argument by the court in the chronological order in which they have been placed on the calendar, except such causes as are determined entitled to precedence or as otherwise ordered by the court. Oral arguments will not be heard during the months of July and August.

(c) ADVANCEMENT OF CAUSES. Appeals from orders dissolving, refusing to dissolve, granting or refusing to grant writs of injunction, appeals from orders dissolving or refusing to dissolve attachments, appeals from orders appointing or refusing to appoint receivers, appeals from orders or judgments holding appellant in custody, and workmen's compensation appeals, are entitled to precedence and will, upon motion of either party, be advanced on the calendar.

(d) PERMISSION TO TAKE RECORD FROM CLERK'S OFFICE. The records and other papers of the supreme court shall not be taken therefrom except by counsel pursuant to a written order of a justice of the court, which order shall specify the time the same may be retained out of the clerk's office; provided, that the court or a justice thereof may require the same to be returned within a shorter period upon notice. The clerk shall preserve each order and counsel's receipt until the papers therein mentioned shall be returned.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

Montana Supreme Court Rules XIII and XVI have been substituted for the provisions of Rule 45 of the Federal Draft.

Rule 40. Appeals from injunction orders.

Upon appeal from an order dissolving or refusing an injunction, if the appellant desires to continue in force the injunction order dissolved by the district court, or to obtain such injunction order pending the appeal, he shall apply to the district court under Rule 62 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure. In the event the relief there requested be not granted he may file in the supreme court his sworn application, setting forth the proceedings appealed from and the relief desired, and present with it to the supreme court, a verified copy of the affidavits or evidence used on the hearing in the district court. Such application will be heard ex parte and without argument, and the court, upon such record will make such order in the premises as may be proper.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule incorporates the substance of Supreme Court Rule XXIII, as amended effective April 3, 1963.

Rule 41. Statutes and rules amended.

[This rule amended Rule 72 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, and R. C. M. 1947, sections 93-5708, 93-8001, 93-8002, 93-8013 and 93-9905, subdivision 3. For text of amendments see the designated sections.]

Rule 42. Applicability in general.

(a) SPECIAL STATUTORY PROCEEDINGS. The statutory proceedings listed in Table A of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure and any other special statutory proceedings, whether or not listed in said Table A, are excepted from these rules in so far as they are inconsistent or in conflict with the procedure and practice provided by these rules.

(b) APPEALS TO DISTRICT COURTS. These rules do not supersede the provisions of statutes relating to appeals to or review by the district courts, which shall govern procedure and practice relating thereto in so far as they are not inconsistent with these rules.

(c) RULES INCORPORATED INTO STATUTES. Where any statute heretofore or hereafter enacted, whether or not applicable to a special statutory proceeding or listed in any table appended hereto, provides that any act in a civil proceeding in a district court or in the Montana supreme court shall be done in the manner provided by law or as in a civil action or as provided by any statute superseded by these rules, such act shall be done in accordance with these rules and the procedure thereon shall conform to these rules, in so far as practicable.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This Rule is patterned after Rule 81 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure. It excepts inconsistent special statutory proceedings and appeals to and reviews by the district courts to the extent that they are governed by inconsistent statutes and it is impracticable to incorporate procedures provided by these rules. But statutes such as sections 93-9302, 93-9303, 93-9718, 93-9719, and 93-9922, which contain catch-all references to the applicability of statutes which have been superseded, are brought into line with these rules in so far as practicable.

Rule 43. Title—Effective date—Statutes superseded.

(a) TITLE. These Rules shall be known as the Montana Rules of Appellate Civil Procedure and may be cited as M. R. App. Civ. P.

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE AND APPLICATION TO PENDING PROCEEDINGS. These rules will take effect on January 1, 1966. They govern all appeals and original proceedings brought after they take effect, and also all further proceedings in appeals and original proceedings then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the supreme court their application in a particular appeal or original proceeding pending when the rules take effect would not be feasible, or would work injustice, in which event the procedure existing at the time the appeal or original proceeding was brought applies.

(c) STATUTES AND RULES SUPERSEDED. Upon the taking effect of these rules all statutes and rules, and parts thereof, in conflict herewith, and the statutes and rules listed in Tables A, B, and C, in so far as they relate to civil proceedings, are superseded in respect of practice and procedure on appeals from the district courts to the supreme court and in original proceedings brought in the supreme court.

History: En. Sup. Ct. Ord. 11020, Dec. 10, 1965, eff. Jan. 1, 1966.

Advisory Committee's Note

This rule incorporates provisions similar to those contained in Rules 85 and 86 of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure. Subdivision (c) refers to statutes and rules only in so far as they relate to civil proceedings, to make it clear that criminal proceedings are in no way affected by these rules.

37. Pawnbrokers—prohibitions, 94-3702.
42. Rescues and escapes, 94-4203.

CHAPTER 1—DEFINITIONS AND PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

94-115. (10724) Punishment of felony, when not otherwise prescribed.

Application

This section was not applicable to defendant sentenced for armed robbery since it merely provides penalties for crimes not otherwise provided for in statutes. Petition of Eldiwitw, 153 M 468, 457 P 2d 909.

Inmate's contention, on petition for writ of habeas corpus that his sentence of ten years' imprisonment was in excess of that allowable by statute due to operation of this section, was without merit since punishment for robbery is specifically provided for by section 94-4303 and this section provides penalties only for crimes not otherwise provided for in statutes. Petition of O'Rourke, 154 M 265, 461 P 2d 1.

CHAPTER 6—ASSAULTS

94-601. (10976) Assault in the first degree defined—penalty.

Criminal Intent

Dismissal of first-degree assault charge was properly refused where there was evidence to support finding of jury that defendant had necessary intent. State v. Bentley, 155 M 383, 472 P 2d 864.

Intent is to be judged objectively in first-degree assault cases and not by the secret motive of the actor or some undisclosed purpose merely to frighten. State v. Cooper, 158 M 102, 489 P 2d 99, overruling State v. Quinlan, 126 M 52, 244 P 2d 1058.

Sufficiency of Evidence

Evidence that defendant had previously threatened to kill sheriff and shortly thereafter pointed a loaded rifle at his stomach at point-blank range and said he was going to shoot him supported conviction of first degree assault. State v. Cooper, 158 M 102, 489 P 2d 99.

94-602. (10977) Assault in second degree.

Lesser Included Offense

Trial court properly refused to instruct jury on third-degree assault, limiting jury's determination to conviction or acquittal on second-degree assault, where grievous bodily harm was inflicted and only issue was whether act causing injury was accidental. State v. Manning, — M —, 499 P 2d 771.

Sufficiency of Evidence.

Where testimony indicated that only use of pistol by defendant was in restraining three girls who were hard to manage, used foul language, had taken sunglasses off racks with no apparent interest in purchasing any, spent a long time in the restroom and attempted to sell defendant and his helper magazines, and that one of the girls had thrown a pop bottle in the general direction of the defendant, there was no substantial evidence as to the fear or apprehension of the girls and conviction was reversed. State v. Sanders, 158 M 113, 489 P 2d 371.

94-603. (10978) Assault in third degree.

Instructions to Jury

Trial court properly refused to instruct jury on third-degree assault, limiting jury's determination to conviction or acquittal on second-degree assault, where grievous bodily harm was inflicted and only issue was whether act causing injury was accidental. State v. Manning, — M —, 499 P 2d 771.

CHAPTER 7—BIGAMY AND INCEST

94-702. (11026) Exceptions.

Voidness of Former Marriage

Although bigamous marriage may be void from beginning for civil purposes, it nevertheless renders subsequent marriage bigamous under section 94-701 for criminal purposes, unless defendant can show that previous bigamous marriage was pronounced void, annulled or dissolved by competent court as provided under this section. Crosby v. Ellsworth, 431 F 2d 35.

CHAPTER 9—BURGLARY AND HOUSEBREAKING—POSSESSION OF BURGLARIOUS INSTRUMENTS AND DEADLY WEAPONS

94-901. (11346) Burglary defined.

Possession of Stolen Property

Trial court's instruction to jury which stated that failure of defendant to explain his possession of stolen property pointed to his guilt did not amount to forbidden comment on defendant's failure to testify since such explanation could have been given by defendant, by having another person testify, or by introducing real evidence. State v. Branch, 155 M 22, 465 P 2d 821.

Proof of Intent

Entry of tavern after closing hours with unauthorized duplicate key, and defendant's subsequent apprehension outside tavern with checks and currency identified as having come from tavern safe, showed entry with a felonious intent. State v. Harris, — M —, 498 P 2d 1222.

Sufficiency of the Information

Burglary, as set forth in this section must be charged in information; degree of burglary need not be charged but is a question for the jury, based on evidence presented. State ex rel. Wilson v. District Court, — M —, 498 P 2d 1217.

Section 95-1503, which sets forth the form of charge, is a general statute covering all criminal charges and does not require more particularity where a burglary charge is alleged than when any other felony is alleged. State ex rel. Wilson v. District Court, — M —, 498 P 2d 1217.

94-909. (11354) Carrying deadly weapon with intent to assault, etc.

Sufficiency of Evidence

Even though victim testified he did not know defendant had pistol, fact that witnesses shouted "he has a gun" and that defendant sought protective cover provided sufficient evidence for trial court to refuse to dismiss charge of violation of this section. State v. Bentley, 155 M 383, 472 P 2d 864.

CHAPTER 15—EMBEZZLEMENT AND OTHER OFFENSES BY PUBLIC OFFICERS

Section
94-1506. Refusing to give the department of revenue or its agent list of property or giving false name.

94-1506. (11323) Refusing to give the department of revenue or its agent list of property or giving false name. Every person who unlawfully refuses, upon demand, to give to the department of revenue or its agent a list of his property subject to taxation, or to swear to such list, or who gives a false name or fraudulently refuses to give his true name to the department or its agent, when demanded by the department or its agent, in the discharge of his official duties, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

History: En. Sec. 775, Pen. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 8597, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 11323, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 111, Ch. 391, L. 1973. Cal. Pen. C. Sec. 429.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "the department of revenue or its agent" for "county assessor" throughout the section, in order to implement article VIII, section 3 of the 1972 constitution.

CHAPTER 18—FALSE PERSONATION AND CHEATS

Section
94-1832. Definitions.
94-1833. Chain distributor schemes illegal.
94-1834. Violation—felony.

94-1805. (11410) Obtaining money, etc. by false pretenses.

Fraudulent Checks

Fact that defendant charged under this section might instead have been charged under section 94-2702, a misdemeanor section, did not prevent his conviction under this section; a person may be guilty of violating more than one section by the same act. State v. Evans, 153 M 303, 456 P 2d 842.

94-1832. Definitions. As used in this act:

(1) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, partnership, trust or other entity and in the case of an entity it shall include any other entity which has a majority interest in such entity or effectively controls such other entity as well as the individual officers, directors and other persons in act of control of the activities of each entity.

(2) "Chain distributor scheme" means a sales device whereby a person, under a condition that he make an investment, is granted a license or right to recruit for consideration one or more additional persons who are also granted such license or right upon condition of making an investment, and may further perpetuate the chain of persons who are granted such license or right upon such condition.

History: En Sec. 1, Ch. 465, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act prohibiting the use of chain distributor schemes; and providing a penalty.

94-1833. Chain distributor schemes illegal. It is unlawful for any person to promote, sell, or encourage participation in any chain distributor scheme.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 465, L. 1973.

94-1834. Violation—felony. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be imprisoned in the state prison for a period not to exceed one (1) year, or punishable by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both such fine and imprisonment.

Any person convicted of a second offense under this act shall be imprisoned in the state prison for a period not to exceed five (5) years or punishable by a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) or both such fine and imprisonment.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 465, L. 1973.

CHAPTER 20—FORGERY AND COUNTERFEITING

94-2014. Production of false identification documents.

Cross-References

94-2322 to 94-2325. [Transferred.]

Compiler's Notes

Section 29, Ch. 513, Laws of 1973, renumbered these sections as secs. 15-22-141 to 15-22-144.

CHAPTER 24—GAMBLING

94-2404. (11160) Possession of gambling implements prohibited.

Possession

This section prohibits mere possession of gambling equipment as opposed to use of such equipment; defendant who openly rebuilt and manufactured gambling devices for shipment to Nevada, where they are legal, violated this section. State v. Wilson, — M —, 503 P 2d 522.

CHAPTER 25—HOMICIDE

94-2507. (10959) Manslaughter—voluntary and involuntary.

Double Jeopardy

Prosecution for involuntary manslaughter was not barred by defendant's prior conviction upon guilty pleas to driving while intoxicated and operating motor vehicle with improper brakes arising from same accident. State v. McDonald, 158 M 296, 491 P 2d 711.

Due Caution or Circumspection

Where defendant put wife to bed when he found her in what he believed to be intoxicated state, knowing she had spent prior evening drinking and dancing, then went to dinner and later found wife unconscious on bar floor yet breathing well, and where he went for nurse next morning when her condition had not improved, he was not guilty of acting "without due caution or circumspection" within the meaning of subsection 2 even though wife died that night at hospital, apparently from a subdural hematoma. State v. Decker, 157 M 361, 485 P 2d 695.

Sufficiency of Evidence

Lack of due caution or circumspection in lawfully correcting child could be found from doctor's testimony that basal skull fracture and fatal liver transection required severe and extensive force. State v. Henrich, — M —, 498 P 2d 124.

94-2510. (10962) Proof of corpus delicti.

Jury Instructions

In conviction of first degree murder, trial court did not err in refusing defendant's proposed instructions which incorporated language of this section where proof of corpus delicti beyond reasonable doubt was included in another instruction. State v. Quigg, 155 M 119, 467 P 2d 692.

94-2511. (10963) Excusable homicide.

Sufficiency of Evidence

Evidence was sufficient to warrant jury finding that "usual and ordinary caution" was not exercised where doctor testified that basal skull fracture and fatal transection of liver were caused by an extensive and severe force. State v. Henrich, — M —, 498 P 2d 124.

94-2513. (10965) Justifiable homicide by other persons.

Self-Defense

Instruction on justifiable homicide and self-defense was not required where evidence showed that wife shot husband five times in alleged attempt to take weapon from him to prevent damage to property. State v. Eisenman, 155 M 370, 472 P 2d 857.

CHAPTER 27—LARCENY AND FALSIFICATION OF PUBLIC RECORDS AND JURY LISTS

Section
94-2721. Receiver of stolen property.

94-2702. (11369) Uttering fraudulent checks or drafts—evidence.

Felony Charge

Fact that defendant might have been charged under this section did not prevent his conviction under section 94-1805, a felony section; a person may be guilty of violating more than one section by the same act. State v. Evans, 153 M 303, 456 P 2d 842.

94-2704.1. Possession of stolen livestock as evidence of larceny.

Jury Instructions

Jury instruction in grand larceny case which quoted this section was proper under circumstances. State v. Perkins, 153 M 361, 457 P 2d 465.

Trial court did not commit reversible error in giving jury instruction taken verbatim from this section, since, even though state has burden of proof in criminal cases under section 94-7203, the burden of evidence may shift to defendant. State v. Gloyne, 156 M 94, 476 P 2d 511.

Receiving Stolen Livestock

State need not overcome presumption of larceny contained in this section to convict one in possession of stolen livestock of receiving stolen property under section 94-2721. State v. Watkins, 156 M 456, 481 P 2d 689.

94-2721. (11388) Receiver of stolen property. Every person who for his own gain or to prevent the owner from again possessing his own property buys or receives any personal property, knowing the same to have been stolen, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five (5) years or in a county jail not exceeding six (6) months; and it is presumptive evidence that such property was stolen if the same consists of jewelry, silver or plated ware or articles of personal ornaments, brass, bronze or copper fixtures, fittings or parts of machinery, or electrical supplies, or what is commonly termed junk, if purchased or received from a person under the age of eighteen (18) years unless said property is sold by said minor at a fixed place of business carried on by said minor or his employer.

The jurisdiction of a criminal action for receiving stolen property is in any county wherein said property was received or into or through which such stolen property has been brought.

History: En. Sec. 899, Pen. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 8862, Rev. C. 1907; amd. Sec. 1, ch. 137, L. 1915; re-en. Sec. 11388, R C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 30, L. 1931; amd. Sec. 34, Ch. 94, L. 1973. Cal. Pen. C. Sec. 496.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment reduced the age specified in the final clause of the first paragraph from twenty-one to eighteen years.

Constitutionality

This section was not unconstitutional in delegating to prosecuting attorney discretion to charge persons with either misdemeanor or felony, since this section provides that person must be charged with felony and it is then within sound discretion of court, after conviction, to determine punishment. Petition of Gibson, 153 M 454, 457 P 2d 767.

Burden of Proof

State need not prove theft by someone other than defendant to establish violation of this section. State v. Watkins, 156 M 456, 481 P 2d 689, overruling State v. Gilbert, 126 M 171, 246 P 2d 814.

CHAPTER 31—MACHINE GUN ACT

94-3108. (11317.8) Registration of machine guns, etc.

Cross-References

Functions of secretary of state transferred to department of law enforcement and public safety, sec. 82A-1203(3).

CHAPTER 33—MALICIOUS MISCHIEF GENERALLY

Section
94-3335. Legislative intent to prevent littering.
94-3336. Littering public or private properties unlawful—exceptions.
94-3337. Litter defined.
94-3338. Public or private property defined.
94-3339. Penalties.
94-3340. Prima facie violation by operators of conveyances.
94-3341. Who authorized to enforce act.
94-3342. Public authorities to maintain receptacles in public places.
94-3343. Short title.
94-3344. Notices of act and penalties posted on highways.

94-3335. Legislative intent to prevent littering. It is the intention of the legislature by this act to provide for uniform prohibition throughout the state of any and all littering on public and private property, and to curb thereby the desecration of the beauty of the state and harm to health, welfare and safety of its citizens caused by individuals who litter.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 323, L. 1971.

Title of Act

An act to define, control and prohibit the littering of public and private property, providing a penalty therefor, and repealing sections 32-1629, 32-1629.1, 32-1630 and 32-1631, R. C. M. 1947.

94-3336. Littering public or private properties unlawful—exceptions. It is unlawful for any person or persons to dump, deposit, throw or leave, or to cause or permit dumping, depositing, placing, throwing, or leaving of litter on any public or private property in this state, or any waters in this state, unless:

(1) Such property is designated by the state or by any of its agencies or political subdivisions for the disposal of such material, and such person is authorized by the proper public authority to use such property;

(2) Into a litter receptacle or container installed on such property;

(3) He is the owner or tenant in lawful possession of such property, or has first obtained consent of the owner or tenant in lawful possession, or unless the act is done under the personal direction of said tenant or owner.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 323, L. 1971.

94-3337. Litter defined. The term "litter" as used herein shall mean all rubbish, waste material, refuse, garbage, trash, debris or other foreign substances of every kind and description, including abandoned motor vehicles.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 323, L. 1971.

94-3338. Public or private property defined. The phrase "public or private property" as used herein shall include, but not be limited to, the right of way of any road or highway; any body of water or watercourse or the shores or beaches thereof; any park, playground, building, refuge or conservation or recreation area, and any residential or farm properties or timberlands.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 323, L. 1971.

94-3339. Penalties. Any person violating the provisions of section 94-3336 of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor, subject to a minimum fine of twenty-five dollars ($25) or imprisonment, or both, as in the case of misdemeanors, and, in lieu thereof, in the sound discretion of any court in which conviction is obtained, may be directed by the judge to pick up and remove from any public street or highway or public and private right of way, or public beach or public park, or, with prior permission of the legal owner or tenant in lawful possession of such property, any private property upon which it has been established by competent evidence that he has deposited litter, any and all litter deposited thereon by anyone prior to the date of execution of sentence.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 323, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 480, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment increased the minimum fine from $10 to $25; and made a minor change in style.

94-3340. Prima facie violation by operators of conveyances. Whenever litter is thrown, deposited, dropped or dumped from any motor vehicle, boat, airplane or other conveyance in violation of section 2 [94-3336] hereof, the operator of said conveyance shall be deemed prima facie to have violated this act.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 323, L. 1971.

94-3341. Who authorized to enforce act. All law enforcement agencies, officers and officials of this state or any political subdivision thereof, or any enforcement agency, officer or any official of any commission of this state or any political subdivision thereof, are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to enforce compliance with this act.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 323, L. 1971.

94-3342. Public authorities to maintain receptacles in public places. All public authorities having supervision of properties of this state are authorized, empowered and instructed to establish and maintain receptacles for the deposit of litter at appropriate locations where such property is frequented by the public, and to post signs directing persons to otherwise publicize the availability of litter receptacles and requirements of this act.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 323, L. 1971.

94-3343. Short title. This act shall be known as the litter control law.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 323, L. 1971.

94-3344. Notices of act and penalties posted on highways. It is the duty of the state highway commission to post notices of this act, and the penalties provided for, on the state and interstate highways at locations to be designated by the state highway commission.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 323, L. 1971.

Separability Clause

Section 10 of Ch. 323, Laws 1971 read "If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is unaffected."

Repealing Clause

Section 12 of Ch. 323, Laws 1971 read "Sections 32-1629, 32-1629.1, 32-1630 and 32-1631, R. C. M. 1947, are hereby repealed."

94-3525. (11302) Carrying certain concealed weapons, etc.

Permit

Instructing jury in assault prosecution that it was crime to carry a concealed weapon without a permit was not error even though there was no evidence that defendant did not have a permit. State v. Lewis, 157 M 452, 486 P 2d 863.

94-3527. (11304) Carrying certain concealed weapons forbidden—punishment—who excepted from act. The preceding sections shall not apply to:

1. to 15. * * * [Same as parent volume.]

16. United States immigration and naturalization service officer;

17. National park service rangers.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 74, L. 1919; re-en. Sec. 11304, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 63, L. 1969; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 54, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment added item 17, relating to national park service rangers.

94-3552.1. Use of junked motor vehicles in streams unlawful. It is unlawful to place junked motor vehicles, or the body portion of junked motor vehicles, between high-water channel banks of any stream or to reinforce banks of a stream.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 319, L. 1971.

Title of Act

An act making it unlawful to use junked motor vehicles for flood control of a stream or for reinforcement of the banks of a stream.

94-3552.2. Penalty for use of junked motor vehicles in streams. Any person who violates the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars ($250), imprisoned in the county jail for any term not to exceed thirty (30) days, or both.

Section 69-1518, referred to in this section, was repealed by Sec. 24, Ch. 225, Laws 1971.

94-35-248. (11521) Vagrants.

Constitutionality

Statute reading "rogues and vagabonds, or dissolute persons who go about begging, common gamblers, persons who use juggling or unlawful games or plays, common drunkards, common nightwalkers, thieves, pilferers or pickpockets, traders in stolen property, lewd, wanton and lascivious persons, keepers of gambling places, common railers and brawlers, persons wandering or strolling about from place to place without any lawful purpose or object, habitual loafers, disorderly persons, persons neglecting all lawful business and habitually spending their time by frequenting houses of ill fame, gaming houses, or places where alcoholic beverages are sold or served, persons able to work but habitually living upon the earnings of their wives or minor children shall be deemed vagrants . . ." is void for vagueness in that it encourages arbitrary and erratic arrests and convictions, makes criminal activities of normally innocent activities, places almost unfettered discretion in the hands of the police, and fails to give the person of ordinary intelligence fair notice that his contemplated conduct is forbidden by statute. Papachristou v. City of Jacksonville, 405 U S 156, 31 L Ed 2d 110, 92 S Ct 839.

94-35-249. Vending or coin-operated machines—operation with counterfeit slugs, etc., forbidden. Any person who, by means of any token, slug, false or counterfeited coin, or by any other means, method, trick or device whatsoever not lawfully authorized by the owner, lessee, or licensee of any lawful vending machine, coin-box telephone or other receptacle designed to receive or be operated by lawful coin of the United States of America in furtherance of or connection with the sale, use or enjoyment of property or service, knowingly shall operate or cause to be operated, or shall attempt to operate or attempt to cause to be operated, any lawful vending machine, coin-box telephone or other receptacle designed to receive or be operated by lawful coin of the United States of America, or whoever shall take, obtain, accept or receive, from or by means of any such machine, coin-box telephone or other receptacle, any article of value of service or the use or enjoyment of any telephone, telegraph or other facility or service, without depositing in, delivering to and payment into such machine, coin-box telephone or receptacle the amount of lawful coin of the United States of America required therefor by the owner, lessee or licensee of such machine, coin-box telephone or other receptacle, and any person who possesses, with the intent to commit larceny, a key or device specifically designed to open or break any parking meter, coin telephone, or other vending machines dispensing goods or services, shall be fined not more than two hundred dollars ($200.00), or imprisoned not more than sixty (60) days, or both.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 83, L. 1945; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 172, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "and any person who possesses, with the intent to commit larceny, a key or device specifically designed to open or break any parking meter, coin telephone, or other vending machines dispensing goods or services" near the end of the section.

94-35-260. State tax stamps—failure to affix or cancel—removal—penalty—counterfeiting tax stamp or insignia of Montana or other state—penalty. (a) Every person required by law to affix any tax stamp or insignia of the state of Montana, to or upon any article to evidence the payment of a tax or license thereon, who shall fail, neglect or refuse to affix such stamp or insignia thereto, or to affix it in the proper place, or to cancel it, in the manner and as required by law, or as required by rules and regulations of the state department of revenue of this state when charged with administering any act relating thereto, or who shall willfully remove any such affixed stamp or insignia from any such article and affix it to another such article required by law to be so stamped or marked, is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty (30) days, nor more than six (6) months, or by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00), nor more than three hundred dollars ($300.00), or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 43, L. 1949; amd. Sec. 112, Ch. 391, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "department of revenue" for "board of equalization" in subsection (a).

Repealing Clause

Section 113 of Ch. 391, Laws 1973 read "Sections 16-1016, 16-3703, and 91-4466, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

94-35-269. Hunting in careless or reckless manner—failure to assist person injured or wounded—misdemeanor. (1) Any person who, in the act of pursuing, taking or killing wildlife, shall act in a careless or reckless manner, or with wanton disregard of human life or property, or who knowingly fails to give all reasonable assistance to any person whom he has injured or wounded, shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, be punished as provided by law.

(2) Any such person convicted of injuring, wounding, or killing any person shall lose all hunting privileges and licenses for a period of twenty (20) years unless assistance is rendered to the injured or wounded person and the incident duly reported. Such person shall be responsible for and bear all costs and expenses incurred by the state or any county in the rescue or removal of a wounded or dead person whom he injured or killed, as provided in subsection (1) above.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 189, L. 1955; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 346, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment designated the former language as subsection (1); substituted "wildlife" for "game animals or game birds" near the beginning of subsection (1); and added subsection (2).

CHAPTER 36—OBSCENITY—LITERATURE—INDECENT EXPOSURE—HOUSES OF ILL FAME—PROHIBITION OF CERTAIN ADVERTISEMENTS

Section
94-3620. Contraceptive drugs or devices—methods of sale and distribution prohibited.
94-3621. Advertising of prophylactics, contraceptives prohibited—exceptions.
94-3622. Seizure of illegal stock.
94-3623. Penalty for violation.
94-3624. Public display of offensive sexual material—definition.
94-3625. Theater previews.
94-3626. Violation.

94-3616 to 94-3619. (11148.1 to 11148.4) Repealed.

Repeal

Sections 94-3616 to 94-3619 (Secs. 1 to 4, Ch. 134, L. 1935), prohibiting advertising and limiting methods of sales of contraceptive devices, was repealed by Sec. 5, Ch. 430, Laws 1973 and Sec. 32, Ch. 513, Laws 1973. For new law, see secs. 94-3620 to 94-3623.

94-3620. Contraceptive drugs or devices—methods of sale and distribution prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, copartnership or association to sell, offer for sale, give away, through the medium of vending machines, personal or collective distribution, by solicitation, peddling or in any other manner whatsoever contraceptive drugs or devices, prophylactic rubber goods or other articles for the prevention of venereal diseases. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to regularly licensed practitioners of medicine, osteopathy or other licensed persons practicing other healing arts, and registered pharmacists, nor to wholesale drug jobbers or manufacturers who sell to retail stores only.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 430, L. 1973.

Compiler's Notes

The title of Ch. 430, Laws 1973, referred to codification of this act in chapter 15, Title 66. However, the body of the act contained no such direction. The act appears properly to be part of Title 94 since it replaces sections 94-3616 to 94-3619, since it has broader application than to pharmacies and similar businesses, and since enforcement responsibility is placed in law enforcement officers generally rather than in the board of pharmacy.

Title of Act

An act to be codified in chapter 15, Title 66, R. C. M. 1947, relating to the sale and advertisement of contraceptive drugs and devices; providing penalties; and repealing sections 94-3616, 94-3617, 94-3618 and 94-3619, R. C. M. 1947.

94-3621. Advertising of prophylactics, contraceptives prohibited—exceptions. It shall be unlawful to exhibit or display prophylactics or contraceptives in any show window, upon the streets, or in any public place other than in the place of business of a licensed pharmacist, or to advertise such in any magazine, newspaper or other form of publication, originating in, or published within the state of Montana; to publish, or distribute from house to house or upon the streets, any circular, booklet or other form of advertising, or by other visual means, or by auditory method or by radio broadcast; or by the use of outside signs on stores, billboards, window displays or other advertising visible to persons upon the streets or public highways; provided, however, that nothing in this act shall prevent the advertising of prophylactics or contraceptives in the trade press of those magazines whose principal circulation is to the medical and pharmaceutical professions; or to those magazines and other publications having interstate circulation, originating outside of the state of Montana where the advertising does not violate any United States law or federal postal regulation; nor to the furnishing within the store or place of business of a licensed pharmacist, to persons qualified to purchase, and then only upon their inquiry, such printed or other information as in requisite to proper use in relation to any merchandise coming within the provisions of this act.

Provided, nothing herein shall prevent the dissemination of medically acceptable contraceptive information by printed or other methods concerning the availability and use of any merchandise coming within the provisions of this act.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 430, L. 1973.

94-3622. Seizure of illegal stock. Any officer of the law shall have the power to cause the arrest of any person violating any provision of this act, to seize stocks illegally held, and to make seizure of any mechanical device or vending machine containing any merchandise coming within the provisions of this act, holding the owner of such machine, the occupier and the owner of the premises where seizure is made to be in violation of this act.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 430, L. 1973.

94-3623. Penalty for violation. Any person, or any member of a firm, or copartnership or the officers of a corporation or association who or which knowingly violates any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment of not to exceed six (6) months in the county jail, or both; provided, however, that the justice of the peace courts and the district courts of the state shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all prosecutions and causes arising under this act.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 430, L. 1973.

"Sections 94-3616, 94-3617, 94-3618 and 94-3619, R. C. M. 1947, are repealed."

Repealing Clause

Section 5 of Ch. 430, Laws 1973 read

94-3624. Public display of offensive sexual material—definition. A person is guilty of public display of offensive sexual material when, with knowledge of its character and content, he displays or permits to be displayed in or on any window, showcase, newsstand, display rack, wall, door, billboard, drive-in movie screen, marquee or similar place, in such manner that the display is easily visible from or in any public street, sidewalk, or thoroughfare or transportation facility, any pictorial, three-dimensional or other visual representation of a person or a portion thereof of the human body that predominantly appeals to prurient interest in sex, and is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community as a whole with respect to what is suitable material for minors, and is utterly without redeeming social importance for minors.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 463, L. 1973.

offensive sexual material, with definition of terms; and providing for a penalty.

Title of Act

An act prohibiting the public display of 94-3625. Theater previews. A theater may not display previews or projections advertising or promoting motion pictures if such previews or projections contain a display of offensive sexual material and if minors are permitted to attend the showing of the motion picture then being featured.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 463, L. 1973.

94-3626. Violation. A person convicted of the public display of offensive sexual material shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed six (6) months, or both.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 463, L. 1973.

Separability Clause

Section 4 of Ch. 463, Laws 1973 read "It is the intent of the legislature that if a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid application."

CHAPTER 37—PAWNBROKERS—PROHIBITIONS

Section
94-3702. Failure to keep register.

94-3702. (11185) Failure to keep register. Every person who carries on the business of a pawnbroker, dealer in secondhand goods, or junk dealer who fails at the time of the transaction to enter in a register kept by him for that purpose, in the English language, the date, duration, amount, and rate of interest of every loan made by him, or an accurate description of the property pledged or sold to him or by him, or the name and residence of the pledger or seller or purchaser, or to deliver to the pledger or seller or purchaser a written copy of such entry, or to keep an account in writing of all sales or purchases made by him, and every pawnbroker, dealer in secondhand goods, or junk dealer who receives goods in pledge or by gift, or purchases the same from any person under the age of eighteen (18) years, or from anybody acting as agent for said person, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and a conviction thereof shall also work a forfeiture of his license.

History: En. Sec. 621, Pen. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 621, Ch. 54, L. 1903; re-en. Sec. 8438, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 11185, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 35, Ch. 94, L. 1973. Cal. Pen. C. Sec. 339.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment reduced the age specified in the latter part of the section from twenty-one to eighteen years.

CHAPTER 40—POOL HALLS—BILLIARD HALLS—BOWLING ALLEYS—PROHIBITIONS GOVERNING

94-4001. (11188) Conducting certain pool games a misdemeanor. Any owner, proprietor, manager, or employee who permits, or any person who carries on, or conducts, or causes to be conducted or runs, as principal, agent, or employee, any game of pea pool, pay pool, Kelly pool, or any other game of chance, science, or skill, played upon any pooltable or upon any billiard-table, for money, checks, credits, or any representative of value, shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as provided in this act.

Compiler's Notes

This section is reprinted herein to correct a typographical error in the parent volume.

CHAPTER 41—RAPE AND OTHER SEXUAL CRIMES

94-4101. (11000) Rape defined.

Jury Instructions

Instruction in rape case which intimated to jury that impact of guilty verdict could be lessened by court's imposition of light sentence was prejudicial to defendant, since punishment should not be a concern to jury in determining defendant's guilt or innocence. State v. Zuidema, 157 M 367, 485 P 2d 952, overruling State v. Metcalf, 153 M 369, 457 P 2d 453.

Physical Resistance

Physical resistance by prosecutrix was not necessary element of rape where evidence supported conviction under subsec. (4) of this section, which simply requires that there be threats of immediate and great bodily harm, accompanied by apparent power of execution. State v. Metcalf, 153 M 369, 457 P 2d 453.

Statutory Rape

Prima facie case of statutory rape was established by testimony of rape victim on cross- and redirect examination that defendant had committed an act of sexual intercourse with her. State v. Anderson, 156 M 122, 476 P 2d 780.

Sufficiency of Evidence

Evidence that included victim's testimony corroborated by medical evidence was sufficient to support jury conviction of statutory rape. State v. Anderson, 156 M 122, 476 P 2d 780.

94-4103. (11002) Penetration sufficient.

Jury Instructions

Adding of sentence, "Proof of emission is not necessary," to this section and using such language as part of charge to jury in rape case did not constitute error. State v. Bouldin, 153 M 276, 456 P 2d 830.

94-4106. (11005) Lewd and lascivious acts upon children.

Constitutionality

Sentence imposed under this section was not subject to attack on ground that it represented cruel and unusual punishment, and contention that this section is vague and without standards was without merit. State v. Jensen, 153 M 489, 458 P 2d 782.

Admission of Testimony

Where defendant was charged with violation of this section, it was not error for trial court to admit testimony of other women concerning similar improper acts committed by defendant since such testimony showed continuous pattern of behavior on part of defendant. State v. Jensen, 153 M 233, 455 P 2d 631.

CHAPTER 42—RESCUES AND ESCAPES

Section
94-4203. Escapes from state prison—punishment.
94-4209. [Transferred.]

94-4203. (10866) Escapes from state prison—punishment. Every prisoner confined in state prison for a term less than for life, who escapes therefrom, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a term of not less than one year nor more than ten years; said second term of imprisonment to commence from the time he would have otherwise been discharged from said prison. A prisoner is deemed to be "confined in state prison" within the meaning of this section if he is under the jurisdiction of the prison authorities even though he might be outside of the prison confines.

History: En. Sec. 220, Pen. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 8222, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 10866, R. C. M. 1921; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 16, L. 1973. Cal. Pen. C. Sec. 105.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment added the second sentence.

94-4207. (10870) Assisting prisoner to escape.

Attempt

This section applies to an attempt to escape but section 92-4208 applies where there has been an actual escape. State v. Zuidema, 157 M 367, 485 P 2d 952.

Burden of Proof

State need not prove that prisoners are lawfully in jail to bring prosecution under this section. State v. Zuidema, 157 M 367, 485 P 2d 952.

94-4208. (10871) Carrying into prison things useful to aid in an escape.

Attempt

This section applies when there has been an actual escape but section 94-4207 applies to an attempt to escape. State v. Zuidema, 157 M 367, 485 P 2d 952.

Burden of Proof

State need not prove that prisoners are lawfully in jail to bring prosecution under this section. State v. Zuidema, 157 M 367, 485 P 2d 952.

Compiler's Notes

Section 27, Ch. 513, Laws of 1973, amended and renumbered this section as sec. 80-1912. Supplementary materials relating to this section may be found under that number in the current supplement to Volume Five, Part One.

CHAPTER 43—ROBBERY

94-4303. (10975) Punishment of robbery.

Maximum Punishment

Since there is no maximum penalty stated in this section it is presumed that person may be incarcerated for lifetime on conviction of robbery. Petition of Eldiwitw, 153 M 468, 457 P 2d 909.

Sentence of ten years' imprisonment for robbery was not in excess of that allowable by statute due to operation of section 94-115 since punishment for conviction of robbery is specifically provided for by this section, and section 94-115 only provides penalties for crimes not otherwise provided for in statutes. Petition of O'Rourke, 154 M 265, 461 P 2d 1.

CHAPTER 47—PUNISHMENTS—ATTEMPTS AND OTHER GENERAL PROVISIONS

94-4713. (11593) Second offense, how punished, etc.

Harmless Admission

Where defendant admitted during trial that he had been previously convicted of felony, sentence of five years indicated that testimony of prior conviction did not enhance punishment since under this section he would have received minimum sentence of ten years. Petition of Gallagher, 153 M 440, 456 P 2d 306.

Void Conviction

Where defendant was denied due process during arraignment for prior conviction, trial court improperly sentenced defendant pursuant to this section since prior felony conviction was null and void. Lewis v. State, 153 M 460, 457 P 2d 765.

94-4725. (11605) Forfeitures.

Inheritance by Slayer from Decedent

Despite this section, wife who unlawfully killed husband could not take from his estate by dower or intestate succession, nor take his share in jointly owned property, but rather she became constructive trustee for other beneficiaries and devisees. Sikora v. Sikora, — M —, 499 P 2d 808.

CHAPTER 48—RIGHTS OF DEFENDANT

94-4806. (11611) Rights of defendant in a criminal action.

Impartial Jury

Refusal of trial court to permit voir dire examination of prospective jurors on subjects related to insanity defense for which defendant had given notice, and denial to defendant of opportunity to make opening statement until after presentation of prosecution's case constituted improper interference with defendant's right to have jury consider his defense. State v. Olson, 156 M 339, 480 P 2d 822.

CHAPTER 55—REMOVAL OF OFFICERS OTHERWISE THAN BY IMPEACHMENT

94-5516. (11702) Removal of public officers by summary proceedings.

Intent

Willfulness must be alleged and proved to remove an officer summarily pursuant to this section. State ex rel. Arnot v. District Court of First Judicial District In and For County of Lewis and Clark, 155 M 344, 472 P 2d 302.

CHAPTER 68—PLEAS

94-6808.1. Definition of terms.

Double Jeopardy

Defendant's conviction of driving while intoxicated and operating a motor vehicle with improper brakes did not bar a subsequent prosecution for involuntary manslaughter. State v. McDonald, 158 M 307, 491 P 2d 711.

94-6808.3. When prosecution barred by former prosecution.

Information

Information that did not particularize the charge against defendant was not fatally defective, since under this section prosecution for same transaction that resulted in earlier conviction is expressly barred. State v. Dunn, 155 M 319, 472 P 2d 288.

94-7220. (11988) Conviction on testimony of accomplice.

Sufficiency of Corroborative Evidence

Testimony of accomplice to burglary was sufficiently corroborated by evidence that defendant owned car involved in burglary, had attended same party with other principals in burglary, was with other principals in grocery earlier on day of burglary, and admitted being in house where stolen property was discovered and knew it was there. State v. Dess, 154 M 231, 462 P 2d 186.

Witness as Accomplice

Witness who was serving last two days of thirty-day sentence was not an accomplice where he neither acted voluntarily nor had any common intent with principals in attempted jail break; thus it was not necessary that his testimony be corroborated. State v. Zuidema, 157 M 367, 485 P 2d 952.

94-8803. (12177) When the defendant is not a competent witness, etc.

Jury Instruction

Instruction to jury which stated that failure of defendant to explain his possession of stolen property pointed to his guilt did not amount to forbidden comment on defendant's failure to testify since such explanation could have been given by defendant, by having another person testify, or by introducing real evidence. State v. Branch, 155 M 22, 465 P 2d 821.

Privilege Against Self-Incrimination

Conviction of petty larceny was reversed and new trial granted where prosecutor in final argument to jury made comment to jury which could only be construed as reflecting prejudicially on defendant's failure to take stand and testify. State v. Hart, 154 M 310, 462 P 2d 885.

Prosecutor's statement to jury on voir dire that rape case has only two witnesses, the people involved, and that jury must weigh their respective testimony if defendant chooses to testify, did not prejudice defendant's case by compelling him to testify contrary to his rights under this section. State v. Anderson, 156 M 122, 476 P 2d 780.

CHAPTER 501—UNIFORM CRIMINAL EXTRADITION ACT

94-501-20. Guilt or innocence of accused, when inquired into.

Presence in Demanding State

This section does not prevent inquiry in habeas corpus proceedings brought by the accused as to whether the accused was even in the demanding state at the time of the offense, and accused should have been allowed to introduce evidence that he was not. State ex rel. Hart v. District Court, 157 M 287, 485 P 2d 698.

CHAPTER 1—SCOPE, PURPOSE, CONSTRUCTION AND RULES

Section
95-103 to 95-108. [Transferred.]

95-103 to 95-108. [Transferred.]

Compiler's Notes

The compiler originally designated these sections as secs. 95-2801 to 95-2806. However, Chapter 513, Laws of 1973, transferred certain other sections from Title 94 to appear as sections 95-2801 to 95-2819. In order to avoid confusion, the compiler has transferred these sections to appear as secs. 95-103 to 95-108. Since there has been no change in text, these sections are not reprinted here but may be found in bound Volume Eight as follows:

New Sec.	Vol. 8
95-103	95-2801
95-104	95-2802
95-105	95-2803
95-106	95-2804
95-107	95-2805
95-108	95-2806

CHAPTER 2—DEFINITIONS

95-210. Peace officer.

Cross-References

Certain employees of state highway commission as peace officers, secs. 32-1632 to 32-1641.

Members of Montana university system security department as peace officers, sec. 75-8513.

CHAPTER 5—COMPETENCY OF ACCUSED

Section
95-506. Determination of fitness to proceed—effect of finding of unfitness—proceedings of fitness is regained—expenses.
95-508. Legal effect of acquittal on the ground of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility—hearing—commitment—release or discharge.

95-503. Mental disease or defect excluding responsibility, etc.

Burden of Proof

State was not obliged to present proof of defendant's sanity in rape prosecution. State v. Olson, 156 M 339, 480 P 2d 822.

95-506. Determination of fitness to proceed—effect of finding of unfitness—proceedings if fitness is regained—expenses. (a) to (c). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(d) The expenses of sending the defendant to the custody of the superintendent of the Montana state hospital, to be placed in an appropriate institution of the state department of public institutions, of keeping him there, and of bringing him back, are in the first instance chargeable to the county in which the indictment was found, or the information filed; but the county may recover them from the estate of the defendant, if he has any, or from a town, city, or county bound to provide for and maintain him elsewhere.

History: En. 95-506 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment added subsection (d).

95-507. Determination of irresponsibility on basis of report, etc.

Severance of Trial on Sanity

Denial of defendant's motion for severance for trial of the issues of defendant's guilt or innocence and his sanity was proper since this section and section 95-508 provide for those matters to be presented at same trial and to same jury. State v. Olson, 156 M 339, 480 P 2d 822.

95-508. Legal effect of acquittal on the ground of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility—hearing—commitment—release or discharge. (a) When a defendant is acquitted on the ground of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility, the court shall order him to be committed to the custody of the superintendent of the Montana state hospital to be placed in an appropriate institution for custody, care and treatment. A person so confined shall have a hearing, unless waived, within fifty (50) days of his confinement to determine his present mental condition and whether he may be discharged or released without danger to others. The court shall cause notice of the hearing to be served upon the person, his counsel and the prosecuting attorney. Such a hearing shall be deemed a civil proceeding and the burden shall be upon the defendant to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that he may be safely released. According to the determination of the court upon the hearing, the defendant shall be discharged or released on such conditions as the court determines to be necessary, or shall be committed to the custody of the superintendent of the Montana state hospital to be placed in an appropriate institution for custody, care and treatment.

(b). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(c) If the court is satisfied by the report filed pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, and such testimony of the reporting psychiatrists as the court deems necessary that the committed person may be discharged or released on condition without danger to himself or others, the court shall order his discharge or his release on such conditions as the court determines to be necessary. If the court is not so satisfied, it shall promptly order a hearing to determine whether such person may safely be discharged or released. Any such hearing shall be deemed a civil proceeding and the burden shall be upon the committed person to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that he may safely be discharged or released. According to the determination of the court upon the hearing, the committed person shall thereupon be discharged or released on such conditions as the court determines to be necessary, or shall be recommitted to the custody of the superintendent of the Montana state hospital, subject to discharge or release only in accordance with the procedure prescribed above in subsections (b) and (c).

(d) If, within five (5) years after the conditional release of a committed person, the court shall determine, after hearing evidence, that the conditions of release have not been fulfilled and that for the safety of such person or for the safety of others his conditional release should be revoked, the court shall forthwith order him to be recommitted to the superintendent of the Montana state hospital, subject to discharge or release only in accordance with the procedure prescribed above in subsections (b) and (c).

(e). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. 95-508 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 210, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment added the second, third, fourth and fifth sentences to subsection (a); inserted "by a preponderance of the evidence" in the fourth sentence of subdivision (c); and substituted "in subsections (b) and (c)" for "for a first hearing" at the end of subsections (c) and (d).

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Burden of Proof

For release of persons committed to state hospital under this section it must be established by evidence convincing beyond a reasonable doubt that release can be effected without danger to the public. State v. Taylor, 158 M 323, 491 P 2d 877 (Decision prior to 1973 amendment).

Psychiatrists' Statement

Habeas corpus petition by person committed under this section requires statement by two psychiatrists before it may be considered. Petition of Brown, — M —, 497 P 2d 1038 (Decision prior to 1973 amendment).

CHAPTER 6—ARREST

Section
95-618. Roadblocks.

95-603. Issuance and service of arrest warrant upon complaint.

Examination before Issuing Warrant

Arrest warrant was invalid and subsequent search and seizure unlawful where complaint of deputy county attorney, under oath, disclosed nothing more than conclusion that defendant sold quantity of marijuana to undercover narcotics agent, complainant was not examined under oath, and undercover agent could not say that he had purchased from defendant. State ex rel. Wicks v. District Court, — M —, 498 P 2d 1202.

95-606. Arrest without a warrant.

Validity of Warrantless Arrest

A warrantless arrest was valid under section 95-608(d) where detectives smelled burning marijuana emanating from the open doorway to an apartment, where upon entering the apartment police officers saw a clear plastic bag of marijuana and a burned marijuana stub, where probable cause was supported by information from reliable informants concerning previous drug activity in the apartment, and the building owner had informed the police of possible drug use. State v. Bennett, 158 M 496, 493 P 2d 1077.

95-608. Arrest by a peace officer.

Probable Cause

Probable cause existed for arrest on dangerous drug charges of three persons who were present and lived in house where drugs were found; but probable cause did not exist concerning fourth party who was present on premises but did not live there, notwithstanding later finding of drugs on such party, since mere presence in place was insufficient to justify arrest. State ex rel. Glantz v. District Court, 154 M 132, 461 P 2d 193.

Reasonable Grounds

Defendant's arrest was based on reasonable grounds required by subsection (d) of this section where an informer had indicated a "pot party" was in progress, defendant was a guest at the party and a participant therein, and the aroma of burning or burnt marijuana was emanating from the premises, all of which was known to the officers prior to their entry, arrest and search. State v. Hull, 158 M 6, 487 P 2d 1314.

A warrantless arrest was valid under subdivision (d) of this section where detectives smelled burning marijuana emanating from the open doorway to an apartment, saw a clear plastic bag of marijuana and a burned marijuana stub upon entering the apartment, where probable cause was supported by information from reliable informants concerning previous drug activity in the apartment, and the building owner had informed the police of possible drug use. State v. Bennett, 158 M 496, 493 P 2d 1077.

95-618. Roadblocks. (a) * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(b) Authority to Establish Roadblocks. The duly elected or appointed law-enforcement officers of this state, and their deputies, are hereby authorized to establish, in their respective jurisdictions, or in other jurisdictions within the state, temporary roadblocks on the highways of this state for the purpose of identifying drivers, checking for driver's licenses, and apprehending persons wanted for violation of the laws of this state, or of any other state, or of the United States, who are using the highways of this state.

(c) to (e) * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. 95-618 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 18, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment inserted "checking for driver's licenses" in subsection (b).

CHAPTER 7—SEARCH AND SEIZURE

Section
95-719. Stop and frisk.

95-701. Searches and seizures—when authorized.

Consent

Where defendant in first-degree murder prosecution had taken sheriff to his house and turned over alleged murder weapon to sheriff, such action did not constitute an illegal search and seizure since defendant voluntarily consented to turning over rifle. State v. Williams, 153 M 262, 455 P 2d 634.

Where appellant, convicted on charge of robbery, had been given three Miranda warnings during course of investigation, evidence obtained from appellant's apartment after he gave consent to police to go there was not the product of an unlawful search and seizure and therefore its admission was not error, notwithstanding that no warrant was issued for such search. State v. Braden, 154 M 90, 460 P 2d 85.

95-704. Grounds for search warrant.

Description of Place and Property

Warrant which directed law enforcement personnel to search a 1969 blue one-half ton Chevrolet pick up, Montana license 2T-5275 located in Custer County garage in Miles City, County of Custer, State of Montana sufficiently described object of search. State v. Meidinger, — M —, 502 P 2d 58.

General Warrant

Search warrants which incorporated phrase "any .22 caliber pistol" and "any other property or evidence they might discover that may connect to the demise" of deceased was not a "general warrant," and therefore was not constitutionally invalid. State v. Quigg, 155 M 119, 467 P 2d 692.

"Probable Cause"

There was not probable cause for issuance of search warrant for burglar tools and illegal drugs based on judge's personal knowledge of the accused's reputation and witnesses' observations of a pillow and tools in his car from which accused drew gun. State v. Bentley, 156 M 129, 477 P 2d 345.

Affidavit, based on hearsay from reliable and credible informants with no felony convictions, was sufficient basis for a search warrant for dangerous drugs where informants' statements were results of direct personal observations, reliable information as to the present status of the situation existed, and the police officers made corroborative statements that the suspect was a dangerous drug user and an associate of users of narcotics. State v. Troglia, 157 M 22, 482 P 2d 143.

Stolen property in plain sight which is discovered by police during lawful impounding of vehicle may be used as basis of probable cause for issuance of search warrant, even though defendant was not in vehicle at time of arrest but vehicle was later found near scene of arrest. State ex rel. Wilson v. District Court, — M —, 498 P 2d 1217.

95-705. Scope of search with warrant.

Description of Place and Property

Search warrant directing officers to search for "a walkie-talkie, license plates, and there may be fingerprints, letters, papers, burglary tools, and other objects or materials which may be the fruit of an offense or evidence of an offense," sufficiently described objects to be seized. State v. Meidinger, — M —, 502 P 2d 58.

95-707. By whom served.

General Description of Officer

A search warrant directed to "any peace officer of this state," was a valid warrant. State v. Meidinger, — M —, 502 P 2d 58.

95-717. When search and seizure not illegal.

Disclaimer

Evidence discovered during search of house occupied by defendant's mother was properly admitted on charge of burglary since defendant disclaimed any interest in property recovered from search and had no possessory interest in his mother's home. State v. Dess, 154 M 231, 462 P 2d 186.

95-719. Stop and frisk. (1) A peace officer may stop any person he observes in circumstances that give the peace officer reasonable cause to suspect that the person has committed, is committing, or is about to commit an offense involving the use or attempted use of force against the person or theft, damage or destruction of property if the stop is reasonably necessary to obtain or verify an account of the person's presence or conduct or to determine whether to arrest the person.

(2) A peace officer may stop any person he finds near the scene of an offense that the peace officer has reasonable cause to suspect has just been committed if:

(a) the peace officer has reasonable cause to suspect that the person has knowledge of material aid to the investigation of the offense; or

(b) the stop is reasonably necessary to obtain or verify the person's identity or an account of the offense.

(3) A peace officer may stop any person in connection with an offense that the peace officer has probable cause to believe has been committed if:

(a) the offense is a felony involving the use or the attempted use of force against a person or theft, damage, or destruction of property; and

(b) the peace officer has reasonable cause to suspect the person committed the felony; and

(c) the stop is reasonably necessary to obtain or verify his identity to determine whether to arrest the person for the felony; or the peace officer has reasonable cause to suspect that the person was present at the scene of the offense, and the stop is reasonably necessary to obtain or verify the person's identity.

(4) A peace officer who has lawfully stopped a person under this section may:

(a) frisk that person and take other reasonably necessary steps for protection if the peace officer has reasonable cause to suspect that the person is armed and presently dangerous to the peace officer or another person present; and

(b) take possession of any object that the peace officer discovers during the course of the frisk if the peace officer has probable cause to believe the object is a deadly weapon.

(5) A peace officer who has lawfully stopped a person under this section may demand of the person his name and his present or last address.

(6) A peace officer who has lawfully stopped a person under this section shall inform the person, as promptly as possible under the circumstances and in any case before questioning the person, that he is a peace officer and that the stop is not an arrest but rather a temporary detention for an investigation, and that upon completion of the investigation the person will be released unless he is arrested.

(7) After the authorized purpose of the stop has been accomplished or thirty (30) minutes have elapsed, whichever occurs first, the peace officer shall allow the person to go unless he has arrested the person.

History: En. 95-719 by Sec. 4, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

CHAPTER 10—RIGHT TO COUNSEL

Section
95-1005. Remuneration of appointed counsel.

95-1001. Right to counsel.

Attorney's Lien

Court could not summarily impose a lien on defendant's estate in favor of county for services of counsel appointed when it was thought defendant might be indigent. Petition of Hunsinger, 153 M 445, 456 P 2d 304.

Effect of Discharge of Counsel

There was no ground for appeal based on inadequate representation where defendant attempted to discharge his appointed counsel one day before trial after counsel had adequately represented defendant for months. State v. Forsness, — M —, 495 P 2d 176.

95-1002. Waiver of counsel.

Waiver of Right to Counsel

Even though appellant was not eighteen years old, but rather seventeen years and eight months old, this section did not apply where defendant had been convicted of robbery, had I.Q. of 122, had been in trouble with law before, had spent time in state correctional school, had been given three Miranda warnings and had waived his right to counsel. State v. Braden, 154 M 90, 460 P 2d 85.

95-1005. Remuneration of appointed counsel. Whenever, in a criminal action or proceeding, an attorney at law represents or defends any person by order of the court, on the ground that the person is financially unable to employ counsel, such attorney shall be paid for his services such sum as a district court or justice of the state supreme court certifies to be a reasonable compensation therefor and shall be reimbursed for reasonable costs incurred in the criminal proceeding. Such costs shall be chargeable to the county in which the proceeding arose, except in proceedings solely involving the violation of a city ordinance or state statute prosecuted in a municipal, city or police court wherein costs shall be chargeable to the city or town in which the proceeding arose.

History: En. 95-1005 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 186, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment added the exception at the end of the second sentence.

CHAPTER 11—BAIL

95-1108. Bailable offenses.

Presumption of Guilt

Trial court abused its authority in denying bail to defendant whose conviction for first-degree murder was remanded for new trial where defendant offered evidence of good conduct while in prison, was released on bail for a period of two weeks after the verdict but appeared for sentencing, made proof as to an amount of bail and its availability, and was not a security risk; presumption of guilt sufficient to deny bail was not established by previous trial transcript where appellate court's opinion did not discuss five issues, one of which was the sufficiency of the evidence. State v. Campbell, — M —, 500 P 2d 801.

95-1109. Bail after conviction.

Abuse of Discretion

Where complete presentence investigation was conducted, trial court did not abuse its discretion by refusing admission to bail pending appeal after defendant was convicted of second-degree murder and sentenced to fifty years in state prison. State v. Kotarski, 154 M 309, 462 P 2d 873.

95-1119. Bail on a new trial.

Reversal of Conviction

Trial court abused its authority in denying bail to defendant whose conviction for first-degree murder was remanded for a new trial where defendant offered evidence of good conduct while in prison, was released on bail for a period of two weeks after the verdict but appeared for sentencing, made proof as to an amount of bail and its availability, and was not a security risk; presumption of guilt sufficient to deny bail was not established by previous trial transcript where appellate court's opinion did not discuss five issues, one of which was the sufficiency of the evidence. State v. Campbell, — M —, 500 P 2d 801.

CHAPTER 12—PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION

95-1202. Proceedings at the preliminary examination.

Option To Use Information

Order by justice of peace setting a time and place for preliminary hearing does not prevent prosecution from proceeding instead by information filed under section 95-1301. State v. Dunn, 155 M 319, 472 P 2d 288.

Right to Preliminary Hearing

Where supporting affidavit filed under section 95-1301(a) established probable cause to the satisfaction of the district judge, defendant had no right to a preliminary hearing to conduct a "fishing expedition" for pretrial discovery of prosecution's evidence. State v. Dunn, 155 M 319, 472 P 2d 288.

CHAPTER 13—LEAVE TO FILE INFORMATION AND TIME FOR FILING INFORMATION

95-1301. Leave to file information.

Bypassing Preliminary Hearing

Where preliminary hearing was ordered for defendant after an initial appearance before justice of the peace, prosecutor was not precluded thereby from subsequently filing for leave to file an information under this section. State v. Dunn, 155 M 319, 472 P 2d 288.

Granting Leave

Where relators were arrested and charged with possession of dangerous drugs, district court did not err in granting leave to file informations against such persons, pursuant to this section, since probable cause existed for arrest of these persons without warrant. State ex rel. Glantz v. District Court, 154 M 132, 461 P 2d 193.

Probable Cause

Arrest of defendant in presence of codefendant at site of one burglary and subsequent discovery in codefendant's automobile of property stolen in another burglary earlier in same evening did not establish probable cause for information against defendant for earlier burglary. State ex rel. Wilson v. District Court, — M —, 498 P 2d 1217.

Sufficiency of Facts Alleged

Where evidence in supporting affidavit established probable cause to satisfaction of district judge, defendant had no right to preliminary hearing to enable him to discover information and knowledge of state's witnesses. State v. Dunn, 155 M 319, 472 P 2d 288.

An affidavit is sufficient to establish jurisdiction of the district court if it specifies that the offense was committed within the county even though the county contains an Indian reservation and the affidavit has not negated the possibility that the offense was committed within the reservation. State ex rel. Bell v. District Court, 157 M 35, 482 P 2d 557.

An affidavit which does not give specific time and place is insufficient to show probable cause even though it alleges that the defendant committed the offense of rape by intercourse with a female child under eighteen, not his spouse, within the county. State ex rel. Bell v. District Court, 157 M 35, 482 P 2d 557.

Supporting Affidavit

There is no requirement under subsection (a) that a supporting affidavit of a witness having direct knowledge of facts sufficient to establish probable cause be filed with the application to file an information. State v. Dunn, 155 M 319, 472 P 2d 288.

Absence of supporting affidavit for leave to file information contrary to this section was not fatal error, since it is a procedural matter and does not affect substantial rights of the defendant. State v. Logan, 156 M 48, 473 P 2d 833.

In its discretion, district court may require evidence other than affidavit for support before it grants permission for direct filing of information with district court. State ex rel. Bell v. District Court, 157 M 35, 482 P 2d 557.

CHAPTER 14—GRAND JURY

Section
95-1401. Summoning grand juries.
95-1402. Objections to grand jury and to grand jurors.
95-1410. Finding and presentment of the indictment.

95-1401. Summoning grand juries. A grand jury must only be drawn and summoned when the district judge in his discretion considers a grand jury necessary and shall so order. The grand jury must consist of eleven (11) persons, of whom eight (8) must concur to find an indictment. The district judge may direct the selection of one (1) or more alternate jurors who shall sit as regular jurors before an indictment is found or a grand jury investigation is concluded. If a member of the jury becomes unable to perform his duty he may be replaced by an alternate. The composition and drawing of a grand jury shall be in accordance with the provisions of sections 93-1801 to 93-1804.

History: En. 95-1401 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 3, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment increased the grand jury from seven to eleven persons; and increased the number of votes required to find an indictment from five to eight.

95-1402. Objections to grand jury and to grand jurors. (a) * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(b) Motion to Dismiss. A motion to dismiss the indictment may be based on the grounds that the grand jury was not selected, drawn or summoned according to law, or that an individual juror was not legally qualified. An indictment shall not be dismissed on the ground that one or more members of the grand jury were not legally qualified if it appears from the record kept pursuant to section 95-1403 of this code that eight (8) or more jurors after deducting those not legally qualified, concurred in finding the indictment.

History: En. 95-1402 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 3, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment increased the number of jurors specified in the latter part of the second sentence of subdivision (b) from five to eight.

95-1410. Finding and presentment of the indictment. (a) An indictment cannot be found without the concurrence of at least eight (8) grand jurors. When so found it must be endorsed, "a true bill," and the endorsement must be signed by the foreman of the grand jury.

(b) Indictment. How Presented and Filed:

(1) and (2). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(c) If the defendant is in custody or has given bail and eight (8) jurors do not concur in finding an indictment, the foreman shall so report to the court in writing forthwith.

(d). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. 95-1410 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 3, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment increased the number of grand jurors specified in the first sentence of subdivision (a) and in subdivision (c) from five to eight.

CHAPTER 15—CHARGING AN OFFENSE

Section
95-1504. Joinder and discharge of offenses and defendants.
95-1507. Sentence of imprisonment for persistent felony offender.

95-1503. Form of charge.

Sufficiency of Charge

Information charging drug offense was insufficient where it contained neither identity of informer nor specific facts concerning the offense and identity of time and place to protect accused from double jeopardy. State ex rel. Offerdahl v. District Court, 156 M 432, 481 P 2d 338.

Sufficiency of Charge—Unlawful Sale of Drug

Information charging defendant with violation of section 54-132 for sale of dangerous drugs was sufficient even though failing to conform with specific requirements of this section, since defendant was apprised of the charges against him. State v. Dunn, 155 M 319, 472 P 2d 288.

95-1504. (11974, 11975) Joinder and discharge of offenses and defendants. (a) to (c). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(d) When two or more persons are included in the same charge, the court may, at any time, before the defendants have gone into their defense, on the application of the county attorney, direct any defendant to be discharged, that he may be a witness for the state.

(e) When two or more persons are included in the same indictment or information, and the court is of the opinion that in regard to a particular defendant there is not sufficient evidence to put him on his defense, it must order him to be discharged before the evidence is closed, that he may be a witness for his codefendant.

Compiler's Notes

Subsections (d) and (e) were originally numbered 94-7206 and 94-7207. Section 29, Ch. 513, Laws of 1973, renumbered them to appear in this section.

Severance of Issues of Guilt and Sanity

Denial of defendant's motion for severance for trial of issues of defendant's guilt or innocence and his sanity was proper since sections 95-507 and 95-508 provide for those matters to be presented at same trial and to same jury. State v. Olson, 156 M 339, 480 P 2d 822.

95-1506. Prior conviction.

Constitutionality

Subsection (d) of this section does not unconstitutionally deprive accused of right to jury trial. Newman v. Estelle, 156 M 502, 484 P 2d 276, certiorari denied 404 US 966, 92 S Ct 341.

Cross-Examination of Defendant

Even though prosecutor gave notice under this section, defendant was not entitled to enjoin prosecutor from cross-examining defendant on prior convictions in the absence of a showing of prejudice from cross-examination, and defendant was not prejudiced by his failure to testify after injunction was denied. State v. Lewis, 157 M 452, 486 P 2d 863.

Notice

Where state, pursuant to this section, gave proper notice to defendant of its intention to seek increased punishment if defendant was convicted on charge of rape, on basis of defendant's prior conviction of felony, there was no error since jury was not in possession of such information. State v. Metcalf, 153 M 369, 457 P 2d 453.

Sufficiency of Evidence

Mere showing that defendant's name is similar to name of person on charge sheet showing alleged prior offense is not sufficient to authorize enhanced sentence; there must be competent proof that defendant is same person as one named on charge sheet; failure to produce such proof does not invalidate conviction, only sentence. State v. Cooper, 158 M 102, 489 P 2d 99.

95-1507. Sentence of imprisonment for persistent felony offender. (1) A persistent felony offender is an offender who has been previously convicted of a felony and the present offense is a second felony committed on a different occasion than the first.

(2) A persistent felony offender shall be imprisoned in the state prison for a term of not less than five (5) years nor more than one hundred (100) years providing:

(a) the previous felony conviction was for an offense committed in this state or any other jurisdiction for which a sentence to a term of imprisonment in excess of one (1) year could have been imposed; and

(b) less than five (5) years have elapsed between the commission of the present offense and either,

(i) the previous felony conviction or

(ii) the offenders released on parole or otherwise from a prison or other commitment imposed as a result of the previous felony conviction; and

(c) the offender was more than twenty-one (21) years old at the time of the commission of the new offense.

(3) A previous felony conviction shall not be considered for the purpose of sentencing under this section if the offender has been pardoned on the grounds of innocence, or if the conviction had been set aside in any post-conviction hearing.

History: En. 95-1507 by Sec. 5, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

CHAPTER 16—ARRAIGNMENT OF DEFENDANT

95-1608. Irregularity of arraignment.

Failure to File Affidavit

Failure of county attorney to support request for direct information with accompanying affidavit contrary to section 95-1301 was a procedural matter that did not affect substantial rights of the defendant. State v. Logan, 156 M 48, 473 P 2d 833.

CHAPTER 17—PRETRIAL MOTIONS

Section
95-1703. Dismissal on motion of court or application of attorney prosecuting.
95-1711. Effect of former prosecution and multiple prosecutions.

95-1702. Defenses and objections which must be raised before trial.

Waiver

Failure to object in trial court that application for permission to file an information was not accompanied by supporting affidavit contrary to section 95-1301 waived the objection. State v. Logan, 156 M 48, 473 P 2d 833.

95-1703. Dismissal on motion of court or application of attorney prosecuting. (1) The court may, either on its own motion or upon the application of the attorney prosecuting, and in furtherance of justice, order an action, complaint, information, or indictment to be dismissed. The reasons of the dismissal must be set forth in an order entered upon the minutes.

(2) The court, unless good cause to the contrary is shown, must order the prosecution to be dismissed in the following cases:

If a defendant, after entry of plea upon a complaint, information, or indictment charging a misdemeanor, whose trial has not been postponed upon his application, is not brought to trial within six months.

(3) An order for the dismissal of an action, as provided in this chapter, is a bar to any other prosecution for the same offense if it is a misdemeanor, but it is not a bar if the offense is a felony.

History En. 95-1703 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 173, L. 1971.

Amendments

The 1971 amendment designated the former provisions as subsection (1) and added subsections (2) and (3).

95-1708. Motion for continuance.

Absence of Witnesses

Trial court did not abuse its discretion in denying continuance to allow defendants time to locate two missing witnesses where defendants' counsel had no knowledge of the whereabouts of the missing witnesses and no showing was made that the testimony of the two witnesses would help the defense. State v. DiGiallonardo, — M —, 503 P 2d 43.

95-1711. Effect of former prosecution and multiple prosecutions. (1) Definitions of terms.

(a) The term "same transaction" includes conduct consisting of:

(i) a series of acts or omissions motivated by a purpose to accomplish a criminal objective, and necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of that objective; or

(ii) a series of acts or omissions motivated by a common purpose or plan and which result in the repeated commission of the same offense or affect the same person or the same persons or the property thereof.

(b) An offense is an "included offense" when:

(i) it is established by proof of the same or less than all the facts required to establish the commission of the offense charged; or

(ii) it consists of an attempt to commit the offense charged or to commit an offense otherwise included therein; or

(iii) it differs from the offense charged only in the respect that a less serious injury or risk of injury to the same person, property or public interest or a lesser kind of culpability suffices to establish its commission.

(2) Method of prosecution when conduct constitutes more than one offense. When the same transaction may establish the commission of more than one offense, a person charged with such conduct may be prosecuted for each such offense. He may not, however, be convicted of more than one offense if:

(a) one offense is included in the other; or

(b) one offense consists only of a conspiracy or other form of preparation to commit the other; or

(c) inconsistent findings of fact are required to establish the commission of the offenses;

(d) the offenses differ only in that one is defined to prohibit a designated kind of conduct generally and the other to prohibit a specific instance of such conduct; or

(e) the offense is defined to prohibit a continuing course of conduct and the defendant's course of conduct was interrupted, and unless the law provides that the specific periods of such conduct constitute separate offenses.

(3) When prosecution barred by former prosecution. Provided the offenses, if more than one, were known to the attorney prosecuting upon sufficient evidence to justify the filing of an information or the issuance of a warrant of arrest and were consummated prior to the original charge, and provided the jurisdiction and venue of the several offenses lie in a single court, a prosecution based upon the same transaction as a former prosecution is barred by such former prosecution under the following circumstances:

(a) The former prosecution resulted in an acquittal. There is an acquittal if the prosecution resulted in a finding of not guilty by the trier of fact or in a determination that there was insufficient evidence to warrant a conviction. A finding of guilty of a lesser included offense than the offense charged which is subsequently set aside is an acquittal of the greater inclusive offense that was charged.

(b) The former prosecution was terminated, after a complaint had been filed on a misdemeanor charge, after an information had been filed or an indictment found on a felony charge, by a final order of judgment for the defendant, which has not been set aside, reversed, or vacated and which necessarily required a determination inconsistent with a fact or a legal proposition that must be established for conviction of the offense.

(c) The former prosecution resulted in a conviction. There is a conviction if the prosecution resulted in:

(i) a judgment of conviction which has not been reversed or vacated; or

(ii) a verdict of guilty which has not been set aside and which is capable of supporting a judgment, so long as failure to enter judgment was for a reason other than a motion of the defendant; or

(iii) a plea of guilty accepted by the court, so long as failure to enter judgment was for a reason other than a motion of the defendant.

(d) The former prosecution was improperly terminated. Except as provided in this subsection, there is an improper termination of a prosecution if the termination is for reasons not amounting to an acquittal, and it takes place after the first witness is sworn but before verdict. Termination under any of the following circumstances is not improper:

(i) the defendant consents to the termination or waives his right to object to the termination; or

(ii) the trial court, in the exercise of its discretion, finds that the termination is necessary because:

(A) it is physically impossible to proceed with the trial in conformity with law; or

(B) there is a legal defect in the proceedings which would make any judgment entered upon a verdict reversible as a matter of law; or

(C) prejudicial conduct, in or outside the courtroom, makes it impossible to proceed with the trial without manifest injustice to either the defendant or the state; or

(D) the jury is unable to agree upon a verdict; or

(E) false statements of a juror on voir dire prevent a fair trial.

(4) Former prosecution in another jurisdiction—when a bar. When conduct constitutes an offense within the concurrent jurisdiction of this state and of the United States or another state or of two courts of separate and/or concurrent jurisdiction in this state, a prosecution in any such other jurisdiction is a bar to a subsequent prosecution in this state under the following circumstances:

(a) The first prosecution resulted in an acquittal or in a conviction as defined in subsection (3) and the subsequent prosecution is based on an offense arising out of the same transaction.

(b) The former prosecution was terminated, after the complaint has been filed on a misdemeanor charge, after the information was filed or the indictment found, by an acquittal or by a final order or judgment for the defendant which has not been set aside, reversed, or vacated and which acquittal, final order or judgment necessarily required a determination inconsistent with a fact which must be established for conviction of the offense of which the defendant is subsequently prosecuted.

(5) Former prosecution before court lacking jurisdiction or when fraudulently procured by the defendant. A prosecution is not a bar within the meaning of subsections (3) and (4) under any of the following circumstances:

(a) the former prosecution was before a court which lacked jurisdiction over the defendant or the offense; or

(b) the former prosecution was procured by the defendant without the knoweldge of the proper prosecuting officer or with the purpose of avoiding the sentence which might otherwise be imposed; or

(c) the former prosecution resulted in a judgment of conviction which was held invalid in any post-conviction hearing.

History: En. 95-1711 by Sec. 6, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

CHAPTER 18—PRODUCTION AND SUPPRESSION OF EVIDENCE

Section
95-1807. Compelling testimony: immunity from prosecution.
95-1808. "Witness" and "state" defined.
95-1809 to 95-1812. [Transferred from Title 94.]

95-1802. Depositions.

Admissibility in Evidence

In rape case, testimony of witness given at preliminary hearing in defendant's presence, where witness had been cross-examined by defendant's counsel, and where testimony had been recorded and transcribed by court reporter, was expressly admissible in evidence under this section where proper foundation had been laid first by showing that witness could not be located for trial. State v. Bouldin, 153 M 276, 456 P 2d 830.

Unwillingness of Witness

Affidavit showing that witness had not answered defendant's mailed request to contact attorney to arrange for interview did not sufficiently establish witness's unwillingness to provide information so as to require a court-ordered deposition. State v. Dunn, 155 M 319, 472 P 2d 288.

95-1803. Discovery, inspection, and notice.

Constitutionality

While this section may be unconstitutionally applied, it is constitutional on its face and not repugnant to 4th, 5th, 6th, and 14th Amendments of constitution of United States. State ex rel. Sikora v. District Court, 154 M 241, 462 P 2d 897.

Defendant's rights under fifth, sixth and fourteenth amendments of the United States Constitution were not violated by operation of subsection (d) of this section where neither defendant's witness list nor his notice of insanity and self-defense was used to make a prima facie case against him. Radford v. Stewart, 320 F Supp 826.

Amendment of Witness List

Allowing amendment of witness list to include victim of crime was not an abuse of discretion on the part of trial judge. State v. Campbell, — M —, 500 P 2d 801.

Defenses of Insanity and Self-Defense

This section, as it relates to defenses of insanity and self-defense, is to be interpreted as directory only. State ex rel. Sikora v. District Court, 154 M 241, 462 P 2d 897.

Failure To File Notice of Defense

Trial judge might allow psychiatric proof even though motion was untimely but, where defendant's counsel did not comply with court order to submit all motions of defense at time of pleading to information or during six-month delay in going to trial, trial court properly denied defendant's notice of intention to rely on mental disease or defect under subsection (d) of this section as not being timely filed. State v. Bentley, 155 M 383, 472 P 2d 864.

Harmless Error

Defendant was not prejudiced by prosecution's citation of section 94-8904, which had been repealed and replaced by this section, in adding witnesses; this section was a continuation of section 94-8904. State v. Rozzell, 157 M 443, 486 P 2d 877.

95-1804. Motion to produce confession or admission.

List of Witnesses

In the absence of surprise, testimony concerning defendant's oral admission of guilt was properly admitted even though state had not supplied the names of witnesses to the admission. State v. Dunn, 155 M 319, 472 P 2d 288.

95-1806. Motion to suppress evidence illegally seized.

Timeliness of Motion

Where confusion between the parties and the district court over state intention to drop or continue prosecution after defendant's conviction on assault charge caused delay in defendant's filing motion to suppress illegally seized evidence until three days before trial, the motion was neither improper, nor did the fact that it was untimely constitute a waiver under the circumstances. State v. Bentley, 156 M 129, 477 P 2d 345.

95-1807. Compelling testimony: immunity from prosecution. Before or during trial in any judicial proceeding a justice of the supreme court or judge of the district court, upon request by the attorney prosecuting or counsel for the defense, may require a person to answer any question or produce any evidence that may incriminate him. If a person is required to give testimony or produce evidence, in accordance with this section, in any investigation or proceeding he cannot be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture, other than a prosecution or action for perjury or contempt, for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he testified or produced evidence.

History: En. 95-1807 by Sec. 7, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-1808. "Witness" and "state" defined. "Witness" as used in 95-1809 through 95-1811, R. C. M. 1947, shall include a person whose testimony is desired in any proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or in a criminal action, prosecution or proceeding. The word "state" shall include any territory of the United States and District of Columbia.

History: En. 95-1808 by Sec. 8, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-1809 to 95-1812. [Transferred from Title 94.]

Compiler's Notes

These sections were originally numbered 94-9002 to 94-9004 and 94-701-1. Section 29, Ch. 513, Laws of 1973, renumbered them to appear in this title. Because there has been no change in text, the sections are not reprinted here but may be found in bound Volume Eight as follows:

CHAPTER 19—TRIAL IN DISTRICT COURT

Section
95-1901. Method of trial.
95-1915. Verdict.

95-1901. Method of trial. (a). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(b) Questions of law shall be decided by the court and questions of fact by the jury except on a trial for libel the jury shall determine both questions of law and of fact. Questions of law and fact shall be decided by the court when a trial by jury is waived under subsection (d) of this section.

(c) Defendants in all criminal cases shall have a right to trial by jury not to exceed twelve (12) in number. The parties may agree in writing, at any time before the verdict, with the approval of the court that the jury shall consist of any number less than twelve (12).

(d) Upon written consent of the parties a trial by jury may be waived.

(e) The plea of not guilty puts in issue every material allegation of the indictment, information or complaint.

History: En. 95-1901 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 4, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment added the second sentence to subdivision (b); deleted "However, if no capital offense is involved" at the beginning of the second sentence of subdivision (c); inserted a new subdivision (d); and redesignated former subdivision (d) as subdivision (e); and made a minor change in style.

95-1904. Presence of defendant—mistrial for absence.

Conclusive Presumptions

Under this section there is conclusive presumption that defendant was present at all stages of proceeding unless record affirmatively shows the contrary. Petition of Eldiwitw, 153 M 468, 457 P 2d 909.

95-1910. Order of trial.

Admission of Testimony

Where defendant was charged with commission of lewd and lascivious acts upon female under sixteen years of age, admission of testimony from twelve other witnesses concerning other such improper actions before proof of corpus delicti, although possibly technical error under this section, was cured by later permitting prosecuting witness to take stand. State v. Jensen, 153 M 233, 455 P 2d 631.

Instructions—Duty to Object and Point Out Error

Where defendants simply objected to instruction without assigning any grounds, either general or particular, the objection was equivalent to no objection at all, and the instruction was not reviewable on appeal. State v. Best, — M —, 503 P 2d 997.

Opening Statement of Defense

Denial to defendant of opportunity to make opening statement concerning insanity defense until after presentation of prosecution's case was improper interference with defendant's right to have jury consider his defense. State v. Olson, 156 M 339, 480 P 2d 822.

95-1911. When order of trial may be departed from.

Opening Statement of Defense

Denial to defendant of opportunity to make opening statement concerning insanity defense until after presentation of prosecution's case was improper interference with defendant's right to have jury consider his defense. State v. Olson, 156 M 339, 480 P 2d 822.

95-1915. Verdict. (a) Return. The verdict shall be unanimous in all criminal actions. Such verdict shall be signed by the foreman and returned by the jury to the judge in open court.

(b) to (d). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. 95-1915 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; Sup. Ct. Ord. 11450-2-3-4, Oct. 10, 1968, eff. Dec. 1, 1968; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 4, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "unanimous in all criminal actions" at the end of the first sentence of subdivision (a) for "unanimous in all felonies and two-thirds (2/3) in all misdemeanors and appeals from justice or police courts."

CHAPTER 20—JUSTICE AND POLICE COURT PROCEEDINGS

Section
95-2006. Verdict.
95-2007. Sentence and judgment.

95-2006. Verdict. (a) Return. The verdict of the jury must in all cases be general. It shall be returned by the jury to the judge in open court, who must enter, or cause it to be entered in the minutes. The verdict of the jury must be unanimous.

(b) Several defendants. When several defendants are tried together, if the jury cannot agree upon a verdict as to all, they may render a verdict as to those in regard to whom they do agree, on which a judgment must be entered accordingly, and the case as to the rest may be tried by another jury.

(c) Poll of jury. When a verdict is returned, the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion. If upon the poll there is not a unanimous concurrence, the jury may be directed to retire for further deliberations or may be discharged.

(d) Discharge of jury. The jury cannot be discharged after the cause is submitted to them, until they have agreed upon and rendered their verdict, unless for good cause the court sooner discharges them.

History: En. 95-2006 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 4, L. 1973; en. 95-2006 by Sec. 31, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

Compiler's Notes

Chapter 513 repealed former section 95-2006, effective January 1, 1974 and enacted a new section which, except for an insignificant variation, is identical to the section as amended by Ch. 4, Laws of 1973.

Amendments

Chapter 4, Laws of 1973, substituted the third sentence of subdivision (a) for a sentence reading "Two-thirds (2/3) in number of the jury may render a verdict, and such verdict so rendered shall have the same force and effect as if all jurors had concurred therein"; and substituted "unanimous concurrence" in the second sentence of subdivision (c) for "a two-thirds (2/3) concurrence."

95-2007. Sentence and judgment. (a) and (b). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

(c) If the defendant pleads guilty, or is convicted either by the court or by a jury, the court must impose a sentence of fine or imprisonment or both, as the case may be. The court may suspend the execution of the sentence up to the maximum sentence allowed for the particular offense. The court may impose any reasonable conditions or restrictions on the sentence which it deems necessary. If alcohol or other drugs are involved the court may impose such rehabilitative measures as it deems advisable under the circumstances.

(d). * * * [Same as parent volume.]

History: En. 95-2007 by Sec. 1, Ch. 196, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 348, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment added the second, third and fourth sentences to subsection (c).

95-2009. Appeal.

Increased Sentence

District court may increase sentence or punishment imposed by justice of peace after trial de novo on misdemeanor charge. State v. Fissette, — M —, 498 P 2d 1208, following Colten v. Kentucky, 405 US 104, 32 L Ed 2d 584, 92 S Ct 1953.

CHAPTER 21—POST-TRIAL MOTIONS

95-2101. New trial.

Bail

Trial court abused its authority in denying bail to defendant whose conviction for first-degree murder was reversed and remanded for a new trial, where defendant offered evidence of good conduct while in prison, was released on bail for a period of two weeks after a verdict but appeared for sentencing, made proof as to an amount of bail and its availability, and was not a security risk; presumption of guilt sufficient to deny bail was not established by previous trial transcript where appellate court did not discuss five issues, including the sufficiency of the evidence. State v. Campbell, — M —, 500 P 2d 801.

Newly Discovered Evidence

Trial court did not err in denying defendant's motion for new trial based on newly discovered evidence in form of statements taken from two witnesses subsequent to trial where such statements were found to contain certain discrepancies by police officers who investigated facts and questioned such individuals and where such evidence added nothing new beyond mere speculation to existing evidence. State v. Quigg, 155 M 119, 467 P 2d 692.

Motion for new trial on the basis of newly discovered evidence filed in district court after thirty-day period for filing with district court was untimely and filed in the wrong court. If the grounds for seeking a new trial do not arise until after the thirty-day period or until after the appeal is filed, the proper procedure is to stay the appeal, remand the case to the district court, file the motion, secure the district court's decision thereon, and continue with the appeal. The supreme court has no jurisdiction to entertain a motion for new trial in the first instance where no reason is advanced nor any basis apparent for failure to follow this procedure. State v. Best, — M —, 503 P 2d 997.

CHAPTER 22—SENTENCE AND JUDGMENT

Section
95-2206. Sentence.
95-2206.1. Sentence to death.
95-2206.2. When no place of imprisonment is specified.
95-2206.3. When no penalty is specified.
95-2206.4. When no felony penalty is specified.
95-2227. Effect of conviction.
95-2228. Fines, costs and forfeitures, how disposed of.
95-2229. Traffic fines collected from juvenile offenders—disposition.

95-2204. Contents of investigation.

Prior Charges

Evidence of prior felony charges was admissible on presentence investigation even though there had been no previous conviction. State v. Harris, — M —, 498 P 2d 1222.

95-2206. Sentence. Whenever any person has been found guilty of a crime or offense upon a verdict or a plea of guilty the court may:

(1) Defer imposition of sentence for a period not to exceed one (1) year for any misdemeanor; for a period not to exceed three (3) years for any felony. The sentencing judge may impose upon the defendant any reasonable restrictions or conditions during the period of the deferred imposition. Such reasonable restrictions or conditions may include:

(a) jail base release;

(b) jail time not to exceed ninety (90) days;

(c) conditions for probation;

(d) restitution;

(e) any other reasonable conditions deemed necessary for rehabilitation or for the protection of society;

(f) any combination of the above.

(2) Suspend execution of sentence up to the maximum sentence allowed for the particular offense. The sentencing judge may impose on the defendant any reasonable restrictions during the period of suspended sentence. Such reasonable restrictions may include:

(a) jail base release;

(b) jail time not to exceed (90) days;

(c) conditions for probation;

(d) restitution;

(e) any other reasonable conditions deemed necessary for rehabilitation or for the protection of society;

(f) any combination of the above.

If any restrictions or conditions are violated, any elapsed time, except jail time, shall not be a credit against the sentence, unless the court shall otherwise order.

(3) Impose a fine as provided by law for the offense.

(4) Commit the defendant to a correctional institution with or without fine by law for the offense.

(5) Impose any combination of subsections (2), (3), or (4) above.

(6) The district court may also impose any of the following restrictions or conditions on the above sentence which it deems necessary to obtain the objective of rehabilitation and the protection of society:

(a) prohibit the defendant the right to hold public office;

(b) prohibit the defendant the right to own or carry a dangerous weapon;

(c) prohibit freedom of association;

(d) prohibit freedom of movement;

(e) any other limitation reasonably related to the objectives of rehabilitation or the protection of society.

(7) The judge in the justice court shall not have the authority to restrict an individual's rights as enumerated in subsection (6).

Any judge who has suspended the execution of a sentence or deferred the imposition of a sentence of imprisonment under this section, or his successor, is authorized thereafter, in his discretion, during the period of such suspended sentence or deferred imposition of sentence to revoke such suspension or impose sentence and order such person committed, or may, in his discretion, order the prisoner placed under the jurisdiction of the state board of pardons as provided by law, or retain such jurisdiction with this court. Prior to the revocation of an order suspending or deferring the imposition of sentence, the person affected shall be given a hearing.

History: En. 95-2206 by Sec. 31, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

Compiler's Notes

Chapter 513 repealed former section 95-2206 effective January 1, 1974 and enacted a new section.

DECISIONS UNDER FORMER LAW

Condition of Deferred Sentence

Conditioning deferred imposition of sentence on serving term of thirty days in county jail was proper exercise of court's sentencing authority where eighteen year old defendant entered guilty plea and was convicted on charge of sale of dangerous drugs. State ex rel. Woodbury v. District Court, — M —, 495 P 2d 1119, distinguishing State v. Drew, 158 M 214, 490 P 2d 230.

Condition of Parole

Imposing the condition that parolee not be found in the company of any persons under the age of eighteen years and condition that parolee refrain from being in and around the vicinity of certain grade schools, junior high schools, and high schools were within the court's discretion. In re Petition of Dunn, 158 M 73, 488 P 2d 902.

Discretion of Court

The Dangerous Drug Act (54-133 (c)), contemplates that a verdict or plea will be taken and the imposition of sentence deferred or stayed for no longer than three years; the court can impose conditions of probation during the deferment which are not contradictory to a stay of sentence or deferred sentence. State v. Drew, 158 M 214, 490 P 2d 230, distinguished in — M —, 495 P 2d 1119, 1123.

When sentencing a person under 21 pursuant to a special statute (54-133(c)) of the Dangerous Drug Act, the court's discretion is limited by the presumption of entitlement to a deferred imposition of sentence under subsection 2 of former sec. 95-2206. State v. Drew, 158 M 214, 490 P 2d 230.

Good Behavior

Defendant whose sentence for term of three years in state prison was ordered suspended during good behavior was improperly denied credit for time spent on parole when suspended sentence was revoked. Barrows v. State, 155 M 522, 474 P 2d 145.

Jury Instructions

Instructing jury on punishments that could be imposed upon conviction, including probation, deferred sentence and suspended sentence, was prejudicial error; such instructions should not be given in future cases. State v. Zuidema, 157 M 367, 485 P 2d 952, distinguishing State v. Metcalf, 153 M 369, 457 P 2d 453.

Revocation of Deferred Sentence

Where defendant was neither represented by counsel nor told of right to have counsel present at hearing for revocation of deferred sentence, district court erred in denying defendant's motion to vacate the prison sentence that was imposed as a result of the revocation. Petition of Brittingham, 155 M 525, 473 P 2d 830.

Where deferred sentence has been revoked, accused stands before sentencing judge as he did at time of original order; where one charged with assault in second degree and attempted rape was placed on two-year probation and thereafter was brought to trial and plead guilty to subsequent offenses, including another case of second degree assault, revocation of probation and imposition of six-year sentence on first assault charge and concurrent thirty-year sentence on second assault charge were not error. Newman v. Estelle, 156 M 502, 484 P 2d 276, certiorari denied 404 US 966, 92 S Ct 341.

Suspension of Sentence

Where district court decision revoking defendant's probation and imposing previously deferred sentence was reversed and remanded by supreme court three years later, defendant was placed in same status he had prior to district court's decision, so that sentence had not been suspended for more than three years contrary to subsection (2) of this section. Petition of Brittingham, 156 M 89, 475 P 2d 34.

Where the defendant is granted a suspended sentence, sentence is imposed and execution of sentence is suspended in whole or in part up to the maximum time of sentence allowed by law, and the defendant can be released on probation during the time interval with the conditions of probation imposed by the court. State v. Drew, 158 M 214, 490 P 2d 230.

95-2206.1. Sentence to death. When a person is convicted of an offense punishable by death or imprisonment, the court may sentence the offender to death or imprisonment.

History: En. 95-2206.1 by Sec. 31, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-2206.2. When no place of imprisonment is specified. When a statute authorizes imprisonment for its violation but does not prescribe the place of imprisonment, a sentence not to exceed one (1) year shall be to the county jail.

History: En. 95-2206.2 by Sec. 31, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-2206.3. When no penalty is specified. The court in imposing sentence upon an offender convicted of an offense for which no penalty is otherwise provided, or if the offense is designated a misdemeanor and no penalty is otherwise provided, may sentence the offender to a term of imprisonment not to exceed six (6) months in the county jail or a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), or both. Where statutes outside of the criminal code refer to a subsequently repealed section in Title 94 for a penalty, then the penalty shall be a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed six (6) months, or both.

History: En. 95-2206.3 by Sec. 31, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-2206.4. When no felony penalty is specified. The court in imposing sentence upon an offender convicted of an offense which is designated as a felony, and no penalty is otherwise provided, may sentence the offender for any term not to exceed ten (10) years in the state prison.

History: En. 95-2206.4 by Sec. 31, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-2207. Withdrawal of plea on a deferred imposition.

Intent of Legislature

The passage of this section demonstrates the intent of the legislature in regard to deferred imposition of sentence; if sentence were imposed or executed in any part, then the end advantage to the entire concept of the deferred sentence could not be attained and this section would become inoperative. State v. Drew, 158 M 214, 490 P 2d 230.

95-2213. Merger of sentences.

Concurrent Sentence Unless Specified

Under this section, if district court does not specify whether sentence is to run concurrently or consecutively, it will run concurrently with any prior commitment. Petition of Parrett, 154 M 257, 459 P 2d 268.

95-2215. Credit for incarceration prior to conviction.

Retroactive Application

This section did not apply to prisoner who was sentenced after effective date of this section for crime committed prior to such effective date. Petition of Wilson, 154 M 508, 463 P 2d 469.

95-2226. Sheriff's responsibility, etc.

Parole Violation

This section did not apply to prisoner released on parole but not on furlough, and prisoner was not entitled to counsel as a matter of right at hearing on parole violation. Petition of Osier, 156 M 165, 477 P 2d 344.

95-2227. Effect of conviction. (1) Conviction of any offense shall not deprive the offender of any civil or constitutional rights except as they shall be specifically enumerated by the sentencing judge as necessary conditions of the sentence directed toward the objectives of rehabilitation and the protection of society.

(2) No person shall suffer any civil or constitutional disability not specifically included by the sentencing judge in his order of sentence.

(3) When a person has been deprived of any of his civil or constitutional rights by reason of conviction for an offense and his sentence has expired or he has been pardoned he shall be restored to all civil rights and full citizenship, the same as if such conviction had not occurred.

History: En. 95-2227 by Sec. 9, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-2228. Fines, costs and forfeitures, how disposed of. All fines and forfeitures collected in any court, except police courts, must be applied to the payment of the costs of the case in which the fine is imposed or the forfeiture incurred; and after such costs are paid, the residue, if not otherwise provided by law, must be paid to the county treasurer of the county in which the court is held and by him credited as provided by law. If the said fine or forfeiture is paid to the county treasurer at the time of such payment there shall be filed with the county treasurer, a complete statement showing the total of the fine or forfeiture received or incurred with an itemized statement of the costs incurred by the county in such action, which statement shall give the title of the cause and be subscribed by the person or officer making such payment.

History: En. 95-2228 by Sec. 10, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-2229. Traffic fines collected from juvenile offenders—disposition. All fines collected by the district courts from children under eighteen (18) years of age for unlawful operation of motor vehicles resulting from traffic summonses issued by the peace officers of the cities, counties, or by highway patrolmen, together with that portion of the fines which is specified in section 75-7903 shall be retained by the county treasurer of the county in which the offense occurred and at the end of each month distributed as follows:

(a) fines collected as the result of summonses issued by city police officers shall be distributed to the city in which the police officer is employed, and credited to the city general fund;

(b) fines collected as the result of summonses issued by county peace officers shall be retained by the county treasurer and credited to the county road fund;

(c) fines collected as the result of summonses issued by state highway patrolmen shall be paid to the state treasurer of Montana and by him credited to the general fund of the state;

(d) that portion of the fines, as provided for in section 75-7903, shall be paid to the state treasurer of Montana and by him credited to the automobile driver education account in the earmarked revenue fund.

History: En. 95-2229 by Sec. 11, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

CHAPTER 24—APPEAL BY STATE AND DEFENDANT

95-2404. Scope of appeal.

Question of Law

Contention by appellant that he was improperly sentenced for violation of Dangerous Drug Act due to lack of evidence necessary to overcome presumption regarding sentencing of persons 21 years old or under was clearly legal question properly addressed to supreme court. State v. Simtob, 154 M 286, 462 P 2d 873.

95-2425. Substantial and insubstantial errors on appeal.

Technical Errors—Witness's Remarks

Where trial court on defendant's motion directed state's witnesses not to reveal victim's pregnancy, fact that one witness mentioned the pregnancy to jury did not provide basis for mistrial, since no substantial right was affected. State v. Bentley, 155 M 383, 472 P 2d 864.

95-2428. Indigent appeals.

Determining Financial Need

It would have been unconscionable to permit proceeding in forma pauperis by petitioner whose income for previous year was $13,000 and who had house, vehicles and furniture worth over $11,000, even though petitioner had only a small bank balance and owed over $800 in taxes. Petition of Allen, 156 M 163, 476 P 2d 510.

CHAPTER 25—APPELLATE REVIEW OF LEGAL SENTENCES

95-2503. Review—decision.

Questions Reviewable

Review division established by this chapter provides appellate review of "legal" sentences and therefore could not review contention by defendant that his sentence under Dangerous Drug Act was "illegal" under statutory presumption regarding sentencing. State v. Simtob, 154 M 286, 462 P 2d 873.

CHAPTER 26—POST-CONVICTION HEARING

95-2601. Petition in the trial court.

NOTE.—Uniform State Law. The following states have enacted the Uniform Post-Conviction Procedure Act: Arkansas, Idaho, Iowa, Maryland, Minnesota, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, South Carolina and South Dakota.

CHAPTER 27—HABEAS CORPUS

95-2716. No release for technical defects.

Technical Defects

Where court intended to vacate sentence to permit representation by counsel but said that it was vacating judgment, this was a mere technical defect and would not form the basis for habeas corpus. Petition of Eldiwitw, 153 M 468, 457 P 2d 909.

CHAPTER 28—IMPEACHMENT

Section
95-2801. Officers liable to impeachment.
95-2802. Sole power of impeachment.
95-2803 to 95-2817. [Transferred from Title 94.]
95-2819. [Transferred from Title 94.]

95-2801. (11668) Officers liable to impeachment. The governor, executive officers, heads of state departments, and judicial officers shall be liable to impeachment for felonies and misdemeanors, or malfeasance in office.

History: Our present impeachment laws are substantially the same as the territorial acts which provided for trial by the council. See Secs. 41-62, pp. 196-199, Cod. Stat. 1871; re-en. as Secs. 41-62, 3d Div. Rev. Stat. 1879; re-en. as Secs. 41-63, 3d Div. Comp. Stat. 1887; re-en. Sec. 1500, Pen. C. 1895; re-en. Sec. 8972, Rev. C. 1907; re-en. Sec. 11668, R. C. Compiler's Notes

Section 95-2801, as shown in bound Volume Eight, is still in force as section 95-103. However, it has not been reprinted in this supplement under its new number since there has been no change in text.

The section shown above as sec. 95-2801 was formerly sec. 94-5401 but was redesignated by Ch. 513, Laws of 1973. For the prior version, see bound Volume Eight under 94-5401.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "executive officers, heads of state departments" for a reference to other state officers; deleted "except justices of the peace" following "judicial officers"; and substituted "felonies" for "high crimes."

95-2802. (11669) Sole power of impeachment. The sole power of impeachment vests in the house of representatives; the concurrence of two-thirds (⅔) of all the members being necessary to the exercise thereof. Impeachment shall be tried by the senate sitting for that purpose, and the senators shall be upon oath or affirmation to do justice according to law and evidence. When the governor or lieutenant-governor is on trial, the chief justice of the supreme court shall preside. No person shall be convicted without a concurrence of two-thirds of the senators elected.

CHAPTER 29—PRESUMPTION OF INNOCENCE

Section
95-2901, 95-2902. [Transferred from Title 94.]

95-2901. (11971) Defendant presumed innocent—reasonable doubt.

Compiler's Notes

This section was originally numbered 94-7203. Section 29, Ch. 513, Laws of 1973 renumbered it to appear here. Because there has been no change in text, the section is not reprinted here but may be found in bound Volume Eight as sec. 94-7203.

Burden of Proof

Jury instruction taken verbatim from section 94-2704.1 that stated that possession of recently stolen livestock is prima facie evidence of guilt of larceny did not constitute reversible error, since, even though state has burden of proof in criminal cases, the burden of evidence may shift to defendant. State v. Gloyne, 156 M 94, 476 P 2d 511.

Circumstantial Evidence

Conviction of defendant on charge of burglary in first degree on only circumstantial evidence consisting of ten rolls of half-dollars, three of which had been identified by store owner in front of witness, fact that defendant's father-in-law two weeks after burglary had deposited these rolls of half-dollars in bank after receiving them from defendant in payment of debt, and testimony by one witness that she had seen defendant in store two days before burglary, did not violate this section on grounds that evidence was insufficient to warrant conviction; burden of proof never shifts, but burden of evidence may shift frequently, and where all evidence is circumstantial, test is whether facts and circumstances are of such quality and quantity to support jury determination of guilt beyond reasonable doubt; fact alone that evidence is circumstantial is not sufficient grounds to justify reversal. State v. Proctor, 153 M 90, 454 P 2d 616.

95-2902. [Transferred from Title 94.]

95-3001, 95-3002. [Transferred from Title 94.]
95-3004. The burden in a homicide trial.
95-3010, 95-3011. [Transferred from Title 94.]
95-3012. Testimony of person legally accountable.

95-3001, 95-3002. [Transferred from Title 94.]

Compiler's Notes

These sections were originally numbered 94-7209 and 94-7210. Section 29, Ch. 513, Laws of 1973, renumbered them to appear in this title. Because there has been no change in text, the sections are not reprinted here but may be found in bound Volume Eight as follows:

New Sec.	Vol. 8
95-3001	94-7209
95-3002	94-7210

95-3004. The burden in a homicide trial. (a) In a homicide trial, before an extrajudicial confession may be admitted into evidence, the state must introduce independent evidence tending to establish the death, and that the death was caused by a criminal agency.

(b) In a deliberate homicide, knowledge or purpose may be inferred from the fact that the accused committed a homicide and no circumstances or mitigation, excuse or justification appear.

Compiler's Notes

These sections were originally numbered 94-8801 and 94-8802. Section 29, Ch. 513, Laws of 1973, renumbered them to appear in this title. Because there has been no change in text, the sections are not reprinted here but may be found in bound Volume Eight as follows:

New Sec.	Vol. 8
95-3010	94-8801
95-3011	94-8802

95-3012. Testimony of person legally accountable. A conviction cannot be had on the testimony of one responsible or legally accountable for the same offense, as defined in section 94-2-106, unless he is corroborated by other evidence, which in itself, and without the aid of the testimony of the one responsible or legally accountable for the same offense, tends to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense; and the corroboration is not sufficient, it merely shows the commission of the offense, or the circumstances thereof.

95-3129. Nonwaiver by this state.
95-3130. No immunity from other criminal prosecutions while in this state.
95-3131 to 95-3136. [Transferred from Title 94.]

95-3101. Definitions. Where appearing in this act, the term "governor" includes any person performing the functions of governor by authority of the law of this state. The term "executive authority" includes the governor, and any person performing the functions of governor in a state other than this state. The term "state," referring to a state other than this state, includes any other state or territory, organized or unorganized, of the United States of America.

History: En. 95-3101 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3102. Fugitives from justice—duty of governor. Subject to the provisions of this act, the provisions of the constitution of the United States controlling, and any and all acts of Congress enacted in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the governor of this state to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other state of the United States any person charged in that state with treason, felony, or other crime, who has fled from justice and is found in this state.

History: En. 95-3102 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3103. Demand—form. No demand for the extradition of a person charged with crime in another state shall be recognized by the governor unless in writing alleging that the accused was present in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the alleged crime, and that thereafter he fled from the state, except in cases arising under section 95-3106, and accompanied by a copy of an indictment found or by information supported by affidavit in the state having jurisdiction of the crime, or by a copy of an affidavit made before a magistrate there, together with a copy of any warrant which was issued thereon; or by a copy of a judgment of conviction or of a sentence imposed in execution thereof, together with a statement by the executive authority of the demanding state that the person claimed has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole. The indictment, information, or affidavit made before the magistrate must substantially charge the person demanded with having committed a crime under the law of that state; and the copy of the indictment, information, affidavit, judgment of conviction or sentence must be authenticated by the executive authority making the demand.

History: En. 95-3103 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3104. Investigation by governor. When a demand shall be made upon the governor of this state by the executive authority of another state for the surrender of a person so charged with crime, the governor may call upon the attorney general or any prosecuting officer in this state to investigate or assist in investigating the demand, and to report to him the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, and whether he ought to be surrendered.

History: En. 95-3104 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3105. Extradition of persons imprisoned or awaiting trial in another state or who have left the demanding state under compulsion. When it is desired to have returned to this state a person charged in this state with a crime, and such person is imprisoned or is held under criminal proceedings then pending against him in another state, the governor of this state may agree with the executive authority of such other state for the extradition of such person before the conclusion of such proceedings or his term of sentence in such other state, upon condition that such person be returned to such other state at the expense of this state as soon as the prosecution in this state is terminated.

The governor of this state may also surrender on demand of the governor of any other state any person in this state who is charged in the manner provided in section 95-3123 with having violated the laws of the state whose governor is making the demand, even though such person left the demanding state involuntarily.

History: En. 95-3105 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3106. Extradition of persons not present in demanding state at time of commission of crime. The governor of this state may also surrender, on demand of the executive authority of any other state, any person in this state charged in such other state in the manner provided in section 95-3103 with committing an act in this state, or in a third state, intentionally resulting in a crime in the state whose executive authority is making the demand, and the provisions of this act not otherwise inconsistent shall apply to such cases, even though the accused was not in that state at the time of the commission of the crime, and has not fled therefrom.

History: En. 95-3106 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3107. Issuance of warrant of arrest by governor—Recitals therein. If the governor decides that the demand should be complied with, he shall sign a warrant of arrest, which shall be sealed with the state seal, and be directed to any peace officer or other person whom he may think fit to entrust with the execution thereof. The warrant must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance.

History: En. 95-3107 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3108. Execution of warrant—manner and place thereof. Such warrant shall authorize the peace officer or other person to whom directed to arrest the accused at any time and any place where he may be found within the state and to command the aid of all peace officers or other persons in the execution of the warrant, and to deliver the accused, subject to the provisions of this act to the duly authorized agent of the demanding state.

History: En. 95-3108 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3109. Authority of arresting officer. Every such peace officer or other person empowered to make the arrest, shall have the same authority, in arresting the accused, to command assistance therein, as peace officers have by law in the execution of any criminal process directed to them, with like penalties against those who refuse their assistance.

History: En. 95-3109 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3110. Rights of accused persons—application for writ of habeas corpus. No person arrested upon such warrant shall be delivered over to the agent whom the executive authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall be first taken forthwith before a judge of a court of record in this state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his surrender and of the crime with which he is charged, and what he has the right to demand and procure legal counsel; and if the prisoner or his counsel shall state that he or they desire to test the legality of his arrest, the judge of such court of record shall fix a reasonable time to be allowed him within which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. When such writ is applied for, notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereon, shall be given to the prosecuting officer of the county in which the arrest is made and in which the accused is in custody, and to the said agent of the demanding state.

History: En. 95-3110 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3111. Penalty for noncompliance with preceding section. Any officer who shall deliver to the agent for extradition of the demanding state a person in his custody under the governor's warrant, in willful disobedience of the last section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or be imprisoned not more than six (6) months, or both.

History: En. 95-3111 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3112. Confinement of accused in jail when necessary. The officer or persons executing the governor's warrant of arrest, or the agent of the demanding state to whom the prisoner may have been delivered may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or person having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or person, however, being chargeable with the expense of keeping.

The officer or agent of a demanding state to whom a prisoner may have been delivered following extradition proceedings in another state, or to whom a prisoner may have been delivered after waiving extradition in such other state, and who is passing through this state with such a prisoner for the purpose of immediately returning such prisoner to the demanding state may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or agent having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or agent, however, being chargeable with the expense of keeping; provided, however, that such officer or agent shall produce and show to the keeper of such jail satisfactory written evidence of the fact that he is actually transporting such prisoner to the demanding state after a requisition by the executive authority of such demanding state. Such prisoner shall not be entitled to demand a new requisition while in this state.

History: En. 95-3112 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3113. Arrest of accused before making of requisition. Whenever any person within this state shall be charged on the oath of any credible person before any judge or magistrate of this state with the commission of any crime in any other state, and except in cases arising under section 95-3106 with having fled from justice, or, with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation, or parole, or whenever complaint shall have been made before any judge or magistrate in this state setting forth on the affidavit of any credible person in another state that a crime has been committed in such other state and that the accused has been charged in such state with the commission of the crime, and, except in cases arising under section 95-3106, has fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from bail, probation, or parole and is believed to be in this state, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant directed to any peace officer commanding him to apprehend the person named therein, wherever he may be found in this state, and to bring him before the same or any other judge, magistrate or court who or which may be available in or convenient of access to the place where the arrest may be made, to answer charge or complaint and affidavit and a certified copy of the sworn charge or complaint or affidavit upon which the warrant is issued shall be attached to the warrant.

History: En. 95-3113 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3114. Arrest of accused without warrant therefor. The arrest of a person may be lawfully made also by any peace officer or a private person, without a warrant upon reasonable information that the accused stands charged in the courts of a state with a crime punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding one (1) year, but when so arrested the accused must be taken before a judge or magistrate with all practicable speed and complaint must be made against him under oath setting forth the ground for the arrest as in the preceding section; and thereafter this answer shall be heard as if he had been arrested on a warrant.

History: En. 95-3114 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3115. Commitment to await requisition—Bail. If from the examination before the judge or magistrate it appears that the person held is the person charged with having committed the crime alleged, and, except, in cases arising under section 95-3106 that he has fled from justice, the judge or magistrate must, by a warrant reciting the accusation, commit him to the county jail for such a time not exceeding thirty (30) days and specified in the warrant, as will enable the arrest of the accused to be made under a warrant of the governor on a requisition of the executive authority of the state having jurisdiction of the offense, unless the accused give bail as provided in the next section, or until he shall be legally discharged.

History: En. 95-3115 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3116. Bail—in what cases—conditions of bond. Unless the offense with which the prisoner is charged is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the state in which it was committed, a judge or magistrate in this state may admit the person arrested to bail by bond or undertaking, with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as he deems proper, conditioned for his appearance before him at a time specified in such bond or undertaking, and for his surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the governor of this state.

History: En. 95-3116 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3117. Extension of time of commitment adjournment. If the accused is not arrested under warrant of the governor by the expiration of the time specified in the warrant, bond, or undertaking, a judge or magistrate may discharge him or may recommit him for a further period of sixty (60) days or a supreme court justice or county judge may again take bail for his appearance and surrender, as provided in section 95-3116, but with a period not to exceed sixty (60) days after the date of such new bond or undertaking.

History: En. 95-3117 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3118. Bail—when forfeited. If the prisoner is admitted to bail, and fails to appear and surrender himself according to the conditions of his bond, the judge, or magistrate by proper order, shall declare the bond forfeited and order his immediate arrest without warrant if he be within this state. Recovery may be had on such bond in the name of the state as in the case of other bonds or undertakings given by the accused in criminal proceedings within this state.

History: En. 95-3118 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3119. Persons under criminal prosecution in this state at time of requisition. If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against such person under the laws of this state and is still pending, the governor, in his discretion, either may surrender him on demand of the executive authority of another state or hold him until he has been tried and discharged or convicted and punished in this state.

History: En. 95-3119 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3120. Guilt or innocence of accused, when inquired into. The guilt or innocence of the accused as to the crime of which he is charged may not be inquired into by the governor, or in any proceeding after the demand for extradition accompanied by a charge of crime in legal form as above provided shall have been presented to the governor, except as it may be involved in identifying the person held as the person charged with the crime.

History: En. 95-3120 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3121. Alias warrant of arrest. The governor may recall his warrant of arrest or may issue another warrant whenever he deems proper.

History: En. 95-3121 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3122. Fugitives from this state—duty of governors. Whenever the governor of this state shall demand a person charged with crime or with escaping from confinement or breaking the terms of his bail probation or parole in this state, from the chief executive of any other state, or from the chief justice or an associate justice of the supreme court of the District of Columbia authorized to receive such demand under the laws of the United States, he shall issue a warrant under the seal of this state, to some agent, commanding him to receive the person so charged if delivered to him and convey him to the proper officer of the county in this state in which the offense was committed.

History: En. 95-3122 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3123. Application for issuance of requisition—by whom made—contents. I. When the return to this state of a person charged with crime in this state is required, the prosecuting attorney shall present to the governor his written application for a requisition for the return of the person charged, in which the person so charged, the crime charged against him, the approximate time, place and circumstances of its commission, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the accused therein at the time the application is made and certifying that, in the opinion of the said prosecuting attorney the ends of justice require the arrest and return of the accused to this state for trial and that the proceeding is not instituted to enforce a private claim.

II. When the return to this state is required of a person who has been convicted of a crime in this state and has escaped from confinement or broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offense was committed, the parole board, or the warden of the institution or sheriff of the county from which the escape was made, shall present to the governor a written application for a requisition for the return of such person, in which application shall be stated the name of the person, the crime of which he was convicted, the circumstances of his escape from confinement or of the breach of the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the person therein at the time application is made.

III. The application shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the indictment returned, or information and affidavit filed, or of the complaint made to the judge or magistrate, stating the offense with which the accused is charged, or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence. The prosecuting officer, parole board, warden or sheriff may also attach such further affidavits and other documents in duplicate as he shall deem proper to be submitted with such application. One copy of the application, with the action of the government indicated by endorsement thereon, and one of the certified copies of the indictment, complaint, information, and affidavits, or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state to remain of record in that office. The other copies of all papers shall be forwarded with the governor's requisition.

History: En. 95-3123 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3124. Fugitives from this state—accounts. When the governor of this state, in the exercise of the authority conferred by section 2, article IV, of the constitution of the United States, or by the laws of this state, demands from the executive authority of any state of the United States, or of any foreign government, the surrender to the authorities of this state of a fugitive from justice, who has been found and arrested in such state or foreign government, the accounts of the person employed by him to bring back such fugitive must be audited by the board of examiners, and paid out of the state treasury.

History: En. 95-3124 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3125. No fee to be paid to public officer procuring surrender. No compensation, fee or reward of any kind can be paid to or received by a public officer of this state, or other person, for a service rendered in procuring from the governor the demand mentioned in section 95-3124 or for the surrender of the fugitive or for conveying him to this state, or detaining him therein, except as provided for in such section.

History: En. 95-3125 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3126. Receiving fee for services in arresting fugitives. Every person who violates any of the provisions of section 95-3125 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

History: En. 95-3126 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3127. Immunity from service of process in certain civil actions. A person brought into this state on, or after waiver of, extradition based on a criminal charge shall not be subject to service of personal process in civil actions arising out of the same facts as the criminal proceeding to answer which he is being or has been returned, until he has been convicted in the criminal proceedings, or, if acquitted, until he has had reasonable opportunity to return to the state from which he was extradited.

History: En. 95-3127 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3128. Written waiver of extradition proceedings. Any person of this state charged with having committed any crime in another state or alleged to have escaped from confinement, or broken the terms of his bail, probation, or parole may waive the issuance and service of the warrant provided for in sections 95-3107 and 95-3108 and all other procedure incidental to extradition proceedings, by executing or subscribing in the presence of a judge of any court of record within this state a writing wihch states that he consents to return to the demanding state; provided, however, that before such waiver shall be executed or subscribed by such person it shall be the duty of such judge to inform such person of his rights to the issuance and service of a warrant of extradition and to obtain a writ of habeas corpus as provided for in section 95-3110.

If and when such consent has been duly executed it shall forthwith be forwarded to the office of the governor of this state and filed therein. The judge shall direct the officer having such person in custody to deliver forthwith such person to the duly accredited agent or agents of the demanding state, and shall deliver or cause to be delivered to such agent or agents a copy of such consent; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the rights of the accused person to return voluntarily and without formality, to the demanding state, nor shall this waiver procedure be deemed to be an exclusive procedure or to limit the powers, rights, or duties of the officers of the demanding state or of this state.

History: En. 95-3128 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3129. Nonwaiver by this state. Nothing in this act contained shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by this state of its right, power or privilege to try such demanded person from crime committed within this state, or of its right, power or privilege to regain custody of such person by extradition proceedings or otherwise for the purpose of trial, a sentence or punishment for any crime committed within this state, nor shall any proceedings had under this act which result in, or fail to result in, extradition be deemed a waiver by this state of any of its rights, privileges or jurisdiction in any way whatsoever.

History: En. 95-3129 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

95-3130. No immunity from other criminal prosecutions while in this state. After a person has been brought back to this state by extradition proceedings, he may be tried in this state for other crimes which he may be charged with having committed here as well as that specified in the requisition for his extradition.

History: En. 95-3130 by Sec. 14, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

NOTE.—Uniform State Law. The following states have enacted the Uniform Act of Out of State Parolee Supervision: Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, and Wisconsin.

Constitutionality

Requirement that parolee sign waiver of extradition before release to another state was not unconstitutional, and parolee could be detained for parole violation by unauthorized departure from the host state. In re Petition of Schwartz, 154 M 505, 463 P 2d 316.

95-3202.1. Retaking or re-incarceration of parolee or probationer under interstate supervision. Where supervision of a parolee or probationer is being administered pursuant to the interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers, the appropriate judicial or administrative authorities in this state shall notify the compact administrator of the sending state whenever, in their view, consideration should be given to retaking or re-incarceration for a parole or probation violation. Prior to the giving of any such notification, a hearing shall be held in accordance with this act within a reasonable time, unless such hearing is waived by the parolee or probationer. The appropriate officer or officers of this state shall as soon as practicable, following termination of any such hearing, report to the sending state, furnish a copy of the hearing record, and make recommendations regarding the disposition to be made of the parolee or probationer by the sending state. Pending any proceeding pursuant to this section, the appropriate officers of this state may take custody of and detain the parolee or probationer involved for a period not to exceed fifteen (15) days prior to the hearing and, for such reasonable period after the hearing or waiver as may be necessary to arrange for the retaking or re-incarceration if it appears to the hearing officer or offices that retaking or re-incarceration is likely to follow.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 75, L. 1973.

Title of Act

An act providing for interstate parole and probation hearing procedures, requiring notice, assistance of counsel, confrontation of witnesses under certain conditions, a hearing record, and authorizing out-of-state hearings.

95-3202.2. Hearing officers for interstate cases. Any hearing pursuant to this act may be held before the administrator of the interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers, a deputy of such administrator, or any other person authorized pursuant to the laws of this state to hear cases of alleged parole or probation violation, except that no hearing officer shall be the person making the allegation of violation.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 75, L. 1973.

95-3202.3. Notice of allegations—counsel—confrontation of witnesses—record. With respect to any hearing pursuant to this act, the parolee or probationer:

(1) Shall have reasonable notice in writing of the nature and content of the allegations to be made, including notice that its purpose is to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that he has committed a violation that may lead to a revocation of parole or probation.

(2) Shall be permitted to consult with any persons whose assistance he reasonably desires, prior to the hearing.

(3) Shall have the right to confront and examine any persons who have made allegations against him, unless the hearing officer determines that such confrontation would present a substantial present or subsequent danger of harm to such person or persons.

(4) May admit, deny or explain the violation alleged and may present proof, including affidavits and other evidence, in support of his contentions. A record of the proceedings shall be made and preserved.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 75, L. 1973.

95-3202.4. Record of hearing in another state to have effect in Montana. In any case of alleged parole or probation violation by a person being supervised in another state pursuant to the interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers, any appropriate judicial or administrative officer or agency in another state is authorized to hold a hearing on the alleged violation. Upon receipt of the record of a parole or probation violation hearing held in another state pursuant to a statute substantially similar to this act, such record shall have the same standing and effect as though the proceeding of which it is a record was had before the appropriate officer or officers in this state, and any recommendations contained in or accompanying the record shall be fully considered by the appropriate officer or officers of this state in making disposition of the matter.

Appointment of Counsel Not Required

There is no constitutional right to counsel at parole revocation hearing, but rather a statutory right under this section, which by no means requires board to provide counsel for parolee. Petition of High Pine, 153 M 464, 457 P 2d 912.

Right to Counsel and Hearing

Parolee not released on prison furlough as provided under section 95-2217 was not entitled as of right to counsel and hearing before district court regarding parole violation, since neither is required under this section. Petition of Osier, 156 M 165, 477 P 2d 344.

95-3220. Return of parole violator. At any time during release on parole or conditional release the board may issue a warrant for the arrest of the released prisoner for violations of any of the conditions of release, or a notice to appear to answer to a charge of violation. Such notice shall be served personally upon the prisoner. The warrant shall authorize all officers named therein to return such prisoner to the actual custody of the penal institution from which he was released, or to any other suitable detention facility designated by the board. Any probation and parole officer may arrest such prisoner without a warrant, or may deputize any other officer with power to arrest to do so by giving him a written statement setting forth that the prisoner has, in the judgment of said probation and parole officer, violated the conditions of his release. Such written statement delivered with the prisoner by the arresting officer to the official in charge of the institution from which the prisoner was released or other place of detention, shall be sufficient warrant for the detention of the parolee or conditional releasee. The probation and parole officer, after making an arrest, shall present to the detaining authorities a similar statement of the circumstances of violation. Pending hearing, as hereinafter provided, upon any charge of violation, the prisoner may, if circumstances warrant, be incarcerated in such institution.

After the arrest of said prisoner, a hearing shall be held within a reasonable time, unless such hearing is waived by the parolee, to determine whether there is probable cause or reasonable grounds to believe that the arrested parolee has committed acts which would constitute a violation of parole conditions. An independent officer, who need not be a judicial officer, must preside over this hearing. This hearing must be conducted at or reasonably near the place of the alleged parole violation or arrest and as promptly as convenient after arrest. The parolee must be given notice of this hearing and must be allowed to appear and speak in his own behalf and introduce relevant information to the hearings officer.

The hearings officer shall make a summary of what transpires at the hearing in terms of the responses of the parolee and the substance of the documents or evidence given in support of parole revocation and of the parolee's position. Based on the information given to him, the hearings officer must determine whether there is probable cause to hold the parolee for the final decision of the board of pardons as specified in section 95-3217.

If the hearings officer determines that there is probable cause to believe that the prisoner has violated a condition of his parole, the probation and parole officer shall immediately notify the board and shall submit in writing a report showing in what manner the prisoner has violated the conditions of release and this report shall be accompanied by the findings of the hearings officer. Thereupon, the board shall cause the prisoner to be promptly brought before it for a hearing on the violation charged, under such rules and regulations as the board may adopt. If the violation is established, the board may continue or revoke the parole or conditional release, or enter such other order as it may see fit.

A prisoner for whose return a warrant has been issued by the board shall, after the issuance of such warrant, if it is found that the warrant cannot be served, be deemed a fugitive or to have fled from justice. It it shall appear that he has violated the provisions of his release, whether the time from the issuing of such warrant to the date of his arrest, or any part of it, shall be counted as time served under the sentence, shall be determined by the board.

Compiler's Notes

The previous text of this section may be found under sec. 94-9838 in bound Volume Eight.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "may, if circumstances warrant, be" for "shall remain" in the last sentence of the first paragraph; inserted the second and third paragraphs; substituted the present first sentence of the fourth paragraph for the former sentence; and deleted "or upon an arrest by a warrant as herein provided," from the beginning of the second sentence in the fourth paragraph.

Appointment of Counsel Not Required

Under this section, parole violator is required to be brought before board for hearing, but court hearing is not required; parole violator does not have constitutional right but has statutory right to an attorney at parole revocation hearing, and board is not required to furnish parolee an attorney during such hearing. Petition of Wing, 154 M 501, 464 P 2d 302.

Promptness of Hearing

Where five-month delay by parole board was seemingly caused by parolee being in hospital, requirement under this section that hearing be "prompt" was not violated. Petition of Spurlock, 153 M 475, 458 P 2d 80.

95-3223. Cases of executive clemency. The board shall investigate and report to the governor with respect to all cases of executive clemency. A majority of the board shall advise, investigate, and approve each such case before the action of the governor shall be final. All applications for executive clemency shall be made to the board, which shall cause an investigation to be made of all the circumstances surrounding the crime for which the applicant was convicted, and as to the individual circumstances relating to social conditions of the applicant. If the board, or a majority thereof, approves such application for executive clemency, it shall advise the governor and recommend action to be taken.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 153, L. 1955; Sec. 94-9841, R. C. M. 1947; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 73, L. 1973; redes. 95-3223 by Sec. 29, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

Compiler's Notes

The previous text of this section may be found under sec. 94-9841 in bound Volume Eight.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "executive clemency" at the end of the first sentence for "pardons, remissions of fines and forfeitures, and commutations of punishment after conviction and judgment for any offenses committed against the criminal laws of this state."

95-3224. Notice of hearing on applications for executive clemency. After the board has duly considered an application for executive clemency, and has by majority vote favored a recommendation of executive clemency to the governor, it must pass an order in substance as follows:

"Whereas, the Board of Pardons has officially received an application for Executive Clemency concerning ....., a convict confined in the State Prison (or to one ....., who has been found guilty of an offense committed against the laws of the state), who was convicted of the crime of ..... committed at ....., in the County of ....., State of Montana, on the ..... day of ....., 19....., and sentenced for a term of ..... years.

"Therefore, be it ordered that ..... the ..... day of ....., 19....., be set apart for the consideration of said Executive Clemency matter; and all persons having an interest therein desiring to be heard either for or against the granting of the pardon or reprieve, commutation, restoration of citizenship, remission or suspension of fine or forfeiture are hereby notified to be present at ..... o'clock of said day, at .....

"Further, ordered that a copy of this order be printed and published in the ..... (here insert name of some newspaper of general circulation in the county where the crime was committed) a daily (or weekly) newspaper printed and published at ..... in the county of ....., once each week for two weeks beginning, ..., 19....., and ending ....."

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 153, L. 1955; Sec. 94-9842, R. C. M. 1947; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 73, L. 1973; redes. 95-3224 by Sec. 29, Ch. 513, L. 1973.

Amendments

The 1973 amendment substituted "or reprieve, commutation, restoration of citizenship, remission or suspension of fine or forfeiture" for "(or commutation, remission of the fine or forfeiture)" in the second paragraph of the order.
